

Ex's Brother 491

Chapter 491: Trap

"Is there anyone like her? You just slept with me the night before, and she stuffed a woman into your arms the next day. I didn't kill her..." She changed her words in time. "I only destroyed her car. It's my mercy."

Sha Zelong smiled.

His mother was obedient after what she had done.

She would never disturb him again about matchmaking, marriage, or giving birth to children. Even if he occasionally mentioned it, he would say, "If you say anything more, I'll marry that demoness tomorrow." When she heard that, his mother immediately shut up. From this, it could be seen how much trauma this demoness had caused his mother.

"She also hopes that I can start a family soon."

Upon hearing this, Yan Yu volunteered herself. "Sure, I'll be with you."

Sha Zelong smiled and asked her, "My mother wants me to marry a wife who can accompany her at home to talk about fashion, gossip, cooking, and being willing to settle down." He looked at her carefully before saying, "I don't think you can."

Yan Yu was silent for a long time before she said, "I haven't tried before, so how do you know that I can't?"

"She was talking to you about the latest jewelry collection. You told her about the latest pistol cannon. She told you which family's daughter was infertile and which family's man had an affair. You told her which country had a riot and which country was doomed..."

Sha Zelong's voice was filled with laughter as he asked, "Do you think this will work?"

Yan Yu was speechless.

She looked at the sea and saw someone swimming like a fish in the clear water. She suddenly said, "We have a common topic to talk about."

"What?" Sha Zelong did not believe her.

She said, "You."

Sha Zelong was stunned.

Yan Yu tilted her head and looked up at him. "We both love you. How can we not have a common topic to talk about?"

Sha Zelong's expression turned serious for a moment.

Then he turned and walked into the cabin.

In the military courtyard of Binjiang City, Mother Sha, who was chatting with a group of aunties about the unmarried young ladies in Binjiang City, suddenly felt her phone ring. She looked down and saw the contents of the message. She was instantly silent.

Second Brother: Mom, I'm planning to have a family. My lover is Yan Yu.

Mother Sha sighed deeply.

Seeing her reaction, a group of women asked, "Why are you sighing?"

“Hmph!” she said. “It’s nothing.” Although she said that it was nothing, her heart felt a little stuffy.

It was indeed that vixen who had seduced her son.

She...

She wanted to cry. She wanted to go back to her husband and complain about her son.

“Pay attention. We’ll reach Devil’s Den Island in five minutes.”

Upon hearing this, everyone picked up their bags and stood up. Yan Nuo and Yan Yan stood together. She said to Yan Nuo, “Let’s go back and quickly settle the matter between you and Bingbing.” She gritted her teeth and scolded, “You men are all a bunch of useless people who eat cleanly and wipe your mouths. You don’t care about anything when you put on your pants.”

Yan Nuo was speechless.

He felt innocent.

“We can see Devil’s Den Island.”

Upon hearing this, everyone walked out of the cabin and onto the deck.

They saw Devil’s Den Island. It was very small, and the land exposed to the sea was probably only five to six hundred meters. Even though this island was very small, there were all kinds of towering trees growing on the island. The sea surface was very calm, and there were no waves. There was also no fog like they had imagined.

They were a little surprised.

“It doesn’t look like the rumors.”

In their imagination, Devil's Den Island should be a place surrounded by fog all year round and could not be seen. But this place looked too ordinary, and it did not feel like danger.

They were ready to go all out.

In the end, there was no danger all the way to the shore.

"Something is wrong with this," Yan Yu said.

Yan Nuo and Sha Zelong remained silent.

His combat boots made rustling sounds as he stepped on the sand. Sha Zelong looked into the deep forest and said, "It's too... peaceful here. It doesn't look like there's anyone here." The ground was covered in weeds, and there were no traces of human footsteps on the grass.

However, Yan Nuo frowned and said, "It's too clean. There's a problem."

He looked at the grass under his feet and said, "There should be traces of a wild animal living on such an island, but there's nothing here. There are only trees and weeds. It's as if someone has cleaned this place."

Everyone's expressions turned serious.

"But there's no sign of anyone surviving here." Yan Yu was puzzled. "Where can the rescue target be imprisoned?"

Sha Zelong's tone was cold. "Underground."

Almost at the same time he said this, the soil beneath him seemed to move.

Everyone lowered their heads cautiously.

The soil did not change.

Sha Zelong narrowed his eyes and looked at the center of the deep forest. There were suddenly dozens of burly men with guns there. They had more people than them.

As Sha Zelong weighed whether he should fight head-on or retreat, the land trembled again. Then, suddenly, Sha Zelong's back was pushed hard and he fell face-first to the ground. He looked back in shock and saw Yan Yu standing behind him. He staggered to his knees.

She looked pained, and there was a very thin silver arrow sticking out of her chest.

Sha Zelong panicked for a moment.

"Yan Yu."

He was about to move when he heard the sound of air being torn apart.

Everyone attacked at the same time to block the arrows that came from all directions. The arrows lasted for more than a minute before they stopped. Among the thirty people, only six or seven were left standing. Most of the others were injured lightly or seriously.

Yan Nuo realized that there were poisonous arrows hidden in the tall trees.

In the distance, the leader of the group of burly men walked over.

"Welcome, our sixth batch of guests." That's right, before Sha Zelong and the others arrived, there had already been several batches of people who had come here.

However, they had all been killed.

The other party walked in and Sha Zelong recognized him.

It was Hei Moke.

Hei Moke was once the top agent in America. He was someone who often stood by the President's side. Later on, he lost his job because of a mistake in his work. After that, Hei Moke disappeared. He did not expect him to join these people.

Sha Zelong had once fought with the Hei Moke. He was injured, and the Black Ink did not get any benefits.

When enemies met, their eyes turned red.

"Hey, isn't this a major general beauty?" Even though he was insulting him, Hei Moke looked at Sha Zelong with vigilance.

Sha Zelong narrowed his eyes at him.

Hei Moke spread his hands and said, "What should we do? Do you know that these few days, everyone who was injured by our poisonous arrows is dead." He pointed at the sea in front of him and said, "Now, they are all in the sharks' stomach."

"You killed them?"

"Yeah.."

Chapter 492: Show Off, You Deserve To Be Beaten

Hei Moke looked at the group of people in front of him. His eyes darted around, and his gaze became clear and playful.

“Let me guess. Your mission this time must be a secret operation. It can’t be made public, right?” Hei Moke’s smile became strange and mocking. He said, “Hey, the people who came to find us these few days are all big shots like you. Among them, there’s also a major general from Japan.”

“However, we killed them all, but we didn’t see their country take revenge for them. Do you know why?” Hei Moke muttered to himself and smiled arrogantly. “Because your goal is as unspeakable as ours!”

As if he was acting in a stage drama, he raised his head, spread his arms, and exaggeratedly said, “Ah... Our great Dr. Chi is really attractive!”

Sha Zelong suddenly punched Hei Moke’s chin.

The man who was talking was not prepared. When Sha Zelong punched him, not only did Hei Moke’s teeth hurt his tongue, but the bones in his chin almost cracked.

Sha Zelong shook his aching hand and said in Chinese, “Show off. You deserve to be beaten.”

Hei Moke understood that he said he deserved to be beaten but he didn’t know he was calling him a show off.

He had learned Chinese before, but he had only some knowledge from books. There was no slang taught in formal textbooks. Hei Moke narrowed his eyes and said coldly, “You’re scolding me.”

Sha Zelong snorted and mocked, “If I didn’t scold you, would I praise you?”

“Very good.”

Hei Moke looked behind him and clicked his tongue when he saw Yan Nuo, who was still standing and unharmed. "I didn't expect that even the head of the Black Fiend Mercenary family would come this time!" Hei Moke thought of something and suddenly said, "I heard that the other head of the Black Fiend Mercenary family is very infatuated with you."

He was saying this to Sha Zelong.

Sha Zelong did not say anything.

Hei Moke's gaze landed on the woman kneeling on the ground.

He had noticed earlier that while defending against the poisonous arrows, Sha Zelong had been standing in front of this woman.

He was protecting her.

Usually, it was the subordinates who protected the leaders, but they messed up the position.

Hei Moke looked at Yan Yu with interest and glanced at Sha Zelong. In the end, he commented, "Major General is so lucky."

Sha Zelong knew that Hei Moke had already guessed the identity of Yan Yu.

"Major General Sha, your beauty has been poisoned by an arrow. This is going to be tricky." He spread his hands and suggested, "How about this? You can be a traitor. Fight with us and I'll let your beauty and your brothers go."

Sha Zelong replied, "It's not dark yet." So stop dreaming.

Hei Moke was stunned. After a short moment of shock, he understood what he meant.

He was saying that he was daydreaming and that it was unrealistic.

“Since that’s the case, then...” Hei Moke clapped his hands.

Sha Zelong heard the sound of rushing water coming from the bottom of the sea behind him.

They all turned around and saw a black submarine emerging from the water.

Only at this moment did Sha Zelong’s expression change.

His mind raced.

Something that had puzzled him before suddenly became clear.

He said, “You weren’t fired because of a mistake in your job. Getting fired by that person when you made a mistake was just an excuse. Actually, you’re still serving them. However, you went from being that person’s bodyguard to being the person in charge of their collaboration with the biochemical company. That person and the interest group that that person represents are behind you.”

Hei Moke applauded. “Good analysis. Everything is correct!”

But so what? If they came, there was no way to leave.

Sha Zelong thought: I was too careless.

Sha Zelong looked back at Yan Yu.

Yan Yu also looking at him. She could actually read his expression.

He was bidding her farewell.

As Sha Zelong turned around, he quickly took out his gun. Just as everyone thought that Sha Zelong was about to shoot Hei Moke, he turned his wrist and aimed the gun at his temple. Just as he was about to press the trigger, Hei Moke threw a dagger over.

At the same time, Hei Moke stepped forward and approached Sha Zelong.

The dagger cut Sha Zelong's wrist. His hand trembled, and the hand holding the gun tilted. The bullet that was out of the chamber slanted towards him and brushed past his head, hitting a tree above him.

Hei Moke grabbed Sha Zelong's hand and exchanged a few blows with him. In the end, he risked being beaten up a few times and snatched the gun from Sha Zelong's hand.

He threw the gun to his subordinate.

Turning around, Hei Moke looked at Sha Zelong with admiration and regret.

He said, "It's a pity to die like this." He could still use Sha Zelong's life to gain some benefits from China.

Sha Zelong glared at him, but there was nothing he could do.

His only way out was a dead end.

However, this path of death was also blocked by Hei Moke

Logically speaking, Yan Nuo and the rest should have ended their mission.

She waited for a long time, but Yan Nuo did not call to inform her that he was safe. Ji Yinbing was a little flustered.

She finally couldn't help but call Yan Nuo.

The call went through.

Ji Yinbing realized that the call had gone through and quickly said to Yan Nuo, "Yan Nuo, are you alright?"

A whistle sounded on the other end.

"Honorable lady."

Hearing this gorgeous and malicious American accent, Ji Yinbing's gaze darkened. "Who are you?" Her voice sounded cold.

The person on the other end did not say his identity.

Instead, he asked, "Are you Mr. Yan Nuo's lover? My respected lady, I'm honored to officially inform you that your beloved Mr. Yan Nuo has been imprisoned by us. Of course, the guests who are with him are with me."

The other party smiled in a good mood and apologized to her in an insincere tone. "I'm sorry, Madam. You won't have a chance to see your lover again."

Beep beep.

Ji Yinbing's body started to tremble slightly as she listened to the cold beeping sound.

She sat by Yan Nuo's bed.

She was flustered. She tried to calm down, but she still couldn't control her hands and make them stop trembling.

Yan Nuo would never come back.

Ji Yinbing stood outside the window and thought about many things.

It was impossible for a person to not have selfish motives. She even thought that it was good if Yan Nuo died like this. Even if she would be sad for him to leave for a while, she would still walk out of this grief. Without Yan Nuo, she would be completely free.

However, this thought only appeared for a moment before disappearing.

She looked at her heart and realized that compared to freedom, Yan Nuo's life was much more important.

At night, the butler came to call her for dinner.

Ji Yinbing shook her head and said that she didn't want to eat anymore.

She called Zhuang Long and told him about this.

After Zhuang Long heard this, he said, "I can't save him."

"I know.. I just... want to talk to someone."

Chapter 493: That Was His Child Too

Zhuang Long chatted with her.

They chatted about their interesting times in school, about Xiao Li and Yan Nuo.

At the end of the call, Zhuang Long said, "He loves you very much. We all see it. Yinbing, when are you willing to open your eyes and see him?"

After hanging up the phone, Ji Yinbing stared blankly into the night.

In the middle of the night, she was a little hungry. She took the elevator downstairs in her pajamas.

When she entered the kitchen, she casually flipped through the refrigerator and saw that it was filled with dishes she did not like. She instantly lost her appetite. Her hand opened the last shelf of frozen food and saw two pieces of fresh beef.

Ji Yinbing looked at the beef with a dark expression.

At this moment, Butler Lap Pu's voice sounded from outside the kitchen. He said, "This beef was transported from Kobe two hours ago. Sir called this morning and reminded me that you don't like eating Thai food and like to eat beef. He said that you're always hungry in the middle of the night. He told me not to put the beef in the freezer and to keep it fresh first. You can eat some first before I put the rest in the freezer."

Ji Yinbing listened in a daze without saying anything.

La Pu walked in. He looked at the beef and said, "Madam, Sir really loves you."

La Pu said that Yan Nuo loved her very much.

Zhuang Long also said that Yan Nuo loved her very much.

Everyone knew that he loved her. Only she pretended not to see.

Ji Yinbing suddenly asked La Pu, "Um, Vera, she..." She didn't know what she wanted to ask. She stopped mid-sentence.

Butler La Pu quickly said, "More than three years ago, Sir was still unconscious when she brought him home. He was too seriously injured and had a high fever for six to seven days before he finally woke up. The first thing he did when he woke up was to get someone to find Miss Vera, who had already escaped, and sell her to a triad boss."

La Pu frowned and said, "A triad boss who had a messy private life."

Ji Yinbing nodded.

La Pu had seen that Mr. Yan Nuo had brought Ji Yinbing back. All these years, they had all seen how good Mr. Yan Nuo had been to Ji Yinbing. La Pu was very clear about the relationship between Ji Yinbing and Yan Nuo. He sighed and said, "Mr. Yan Nuo indeed didn't consider it carefully when he brought Miss Vera back. But now that the child is gone, Mr. Yan Nuo feels very bad about it."

Before La Pu left, he said, "That's his child too."

That's his child too...

In an instant, Ji Yinbing seemed to have been enlightened and awakened!

She only cared about her sadness, but she did not expect Yan Nuo, who loved her so deeply, to care so much about that child.

He named the child Yan Xiaobao.

He made a cenotaph for the child.

He had also suffered all these years when her heart ached.

She was the child's mother, and he was also the child's father!

Ji Yinbing suddenly came to a realization.

She closed the refrigerator door and stopped eating supper. She ran back to Yan Nuo's room and called Zhuang Long again.

Zhuang Long was researching a 99% success rate plan to woo a beauty when his phone rang again.

He answered the phone impatiently. Seeing that it was Ji Yinbing, he raised his eyebrows and picked up the phone. "What's wrong?"

"Zhuang Long, do you still remember 'One Step Collapse' that we've developed?"

Zhuang Long's expression turned serious.

"Why did you mention this?"

"I want to use it."

Zhuang Long suddenly raised his voice and scolded her, "Are you crazy!"

"Zhuang Long, he needs me to save him." Ji Yinbing's attitude was still very firm. She told Zhuang Long, "In the past, he was the one who gave me a new life and pulled me out of the mud. This time, it's finally my turn to pull him out. Zhuang Long, he needs me to save him. I have to save him."

"One Step Collapse is our only hope."

"Zhuang Long, I want to love him as an equal." She loved him and wanted to love that man as a woman. Before this, she was always inferior to him.

Zhuang Long still disagreed with her.

“Yinbing, you know better than anyone else that we’ve never done any experiments on the human body. You know very well that humans are not lab rats. The lab rats survived with antidote. However, when a person is poisoned by One Step Collapse, he might not wake up after taking the antidote.”

Zhuang Long’s tone became forceful. He said, “I don’t agree with you taking the risk.” It was an unforgivable sin to risk the lives of so many people. No matter how lawless Zhuang Long was, he did not want to be an executioner.

Ji Yinbing said, “I’m willing to be the person to test the medicine.”

Zhuang Long was stunned.

“What did you say?” His voice was dark and angry.

Ji Yinbing said, “I said, I’m willing to be the first person to try the medicine.”

“You’re crazy!” Zhuang Long started to scold her with vicious words. “You’re crazy! Ji Yinbing, you’re crazy! Aren’t you afraid of death? Do you want to die? If you want to die, just hang yourself with a rope. Why are you trying to disgust me!”

Ji Yinbing listened to him scold her.

When he was done cursing and hanging up, she dialed again.

Zhuang Long refused to accept it at first.

Ji Yinbing persevered and called three consecutive times. When the third call was about to end, Zhuang Long picked up.

“I’ve never seen someone as silly as you!” After shouting, Zhuang Long hung up.

Ji Yinbing, who understood him, knew that he had agreed.

She began to wait anxiously. The next afternoon, at about four o’clock, Zhuang Long took a taxi from the airport and arrived at Yan Nuo’s manor. When he came over, he carried a small box and wore a gray shirt. He walked all the way into the manor with a dark expression.

When he saw Ji Yinbing standing at the entrance of the main building, Zhuang Long immediately scolded. “It’s like I owe you!”

Ji Yinbing listened silently.

“Tell me, where do you want to die?”

Ji Yinbing said softly, “My laboratory.”

“Then let’s go.”

“Wait a moment, I have something to say.”

These words were most likely her last words.

Ji Yinbing found Butler La Pu and told him something. She told him that if she didn’t walk out of the laboratory alive, don’t blame Zhuang Long. Please send him away. She also asked him to call the old man. The Yan family couldn’t be without a leader for a day.

After reminding him, she left.

Butler La Pu looked at her determined back and his eyes moistened.

Ji Yinbing's laboratory had two floors. She and Zhuang Long were the closest partners and trusted each other. Zhuang Long had the right to visit Ji Yinbing's laboratory. When she entered the laboratory, Zhuang Long was waiting for her in the laboratory on the second floor.

Seeing her enter, he glared at her.

Ji Yinbing pretended not to see.

She took out a brand new anti-drug suit and mask from the cabinet and said to Zhuang Long, "Get up."

Zhuang Long stood up slowly.

Ji Yinbing personally put on the mask, anti-drug clothes and finally, gloves for him..

Chapter 494: White Hair

The two of them looked at each other deeply. A moment later, a muffled sound entered Ji Yinbing's ears through the anti-drug clothes.

"Have you decided?" Zhuang Long asked.

Ji Yinbing nodded. "Yes."

Zhuang Long said, "Good luck."

He turned and closed the door behind him. Then he opened the small box.

Inside the box were two syringes, one white and one green.

Zhuang Long picked up the white medicine with both hands and turned around to look at Ji Yinbing.

Ji Yinbing smiled at him. Zhuang Long rarely saw Ji Yinbing's smile. He was stunned for a moment before he heard Ji Yinbing say, "Zhuang Long, do it."

Zhuang Long's fingers relaxed.

Bam—

The white tube fell to the ground and shattered.

When the liquid met the air, it turned into a white gas. It rose slowly in the air like fog.

Ji Yinbing stood in the fog. Her temperament was cold and her face was beautiful, like a female fairy described in ancient Chinese myths. Standing in the clouds, Ji Yinbing looked at her most trusted companion with a pair of brown eyes, her gaze firm and unyielding.

Gradually, the entire room was filled with that gas.

Zhuang Long stared at Ji Yinbing's reaction.

The smile on Ji Yinbing's face gradually faded.

Zhuang Long saw her lips move before she fell to the ground silently.

Zhuang Long's eyelids twitched.

He quickly ran over to pick Ji Yinbing up and placed her on the laboratory bed.

Ji Yinbing was still breathing, but her breathing was very weak, and the rise and fall of her chest was very faint.

Zhuang Long quietly waited for more than ten minutes. He watched as Ji Yinbing's black hair gradually turned white...

Her hair turned white, and this meant that her vital signs were rapidly depleting.

They had expected this situation.

When he was doing this experiment on a rat, within half an hour, the little rat's fur had completely turned white and it was lying sickly in the cage.

Only then did Zhuang Long take out the green liquid in the box and smashed it. Another wisp of smoke that was lighter than before slowly spread in the air. Gradually, the room became a world of clouds.

Zhuang Long stood beside the testbed. He was very close to Ji Yinbing, but he could not see her clearly.

Five minutes passed...

Ten minutes passed...

The person on the bed remained unconscious.

Zhuang Long's heart sank.

He suddenly reached out to hold Ji Yinbing's hand and called her name in a small but urgent voice.

“Yinbing.”

“Ji Yinbing!”

“Bing Bing!”

No matter how he shouted, the person on the bed did not react at all.

Zhuang Long wanted to curse.

“I knew it. I knew it wouldn’t succeed!”

“You’re so ruthless. If you want to die, you should find a place to die quietly.”

“You won’t let me off easy even if you die. Good job. None of you love me!”

Zhuang Long cursed fiercely. Gradually, his voice filled with anger and uneasiness turned into panic, reluctance, and pain. “Get up! If you want to die, don’t die in my hands!” Zhuang Long’s voice was hoarse, and his eyes that were hidden under the gas mask turned red.

He finally couldn’t help but bend down and hug Ji Yinbing’s body. He howled, “Bingbing, wake up. Wake up and look at me. Ah, stop sleeping. Aren’t you going to save Yan Nuo, that old man? Yan Nuo isn’t dead yet. How can you die?”

“If you die just like that, won’t that little whore, Vera, laugh to death?”

“Bing Bing, be good and wake up quickly. As long as you can wake up, I’ll listen to you. I’ll go back to America tomorrow and kneel down to apologize to Xiao Li. I’ll beg her to forgive me and beg her to be with me. I won’t make the same mistake anymore.”

“Did you hear that?”

Zhuang Long cried and roared, and his hand that was holding Ji Yinbing trembled crazily.

His most trusted and closest companion had actually died in his hands!

“I... I heard it...”

A hoarse voice sounded in Zhuang Long’s arms.

Zhuang Long thought that he had heard wrongly.

The person added, “Remember, go apologize to Ah Li tomorrow...”

Zhuang Long’s arms loosened slightly. He lowered his head in surprise and saw Ji Yinbing looking at him with her eyes wide open.

“You’re awake?”

Ji Yinbing nodded. “Carry me out. This smell is really unpleasant.”

“Okay.”

Zhuang Long quickly carried her out and placed her under the sun.

He took off his gas mask and looked at Ji Yinbing’s white hair under the sunlight. He couldn’t bear to see her like this.

“What are you looking at?”

Zhuang Long said, "It's white."

Ji Yinbing grabbed a strand of hair from the back of her head and placed it in front of her eyes. When she saw the white hair, she was stunned. After a moment of silence, she suddenly said, "Zhuang Long, you have to give me a hundred good-looking wigs."

Zhuang Long added, "Your voice has become a little hoarse."

"This medicine hasn't been diluted before. The toxicity is too great." Ji Yinbing rubbed her throat and lowered her head to say, "It seems like we have to dilute this medicine when we throw the poison."

"Okay."

Ji Yinbing asked Zhuang Long to help her up.

The two of them returned to the manor and everyone was surprised to see Ji Yinbing.

La Pu's eyes went red. "Madam, your hair..."

Ji Yinbing reached out and stopped La Pu.

She asked La Pu, "When the leaders aren't around, the leader's wife has the right to all the mercenaries, right?"

La Pu nodded. "Yes, Madam."

"Alright, I'll personally pick 20 elites to save Yan Nuo."

"Yes."

On Devil's Den Island, there were dozens of hostages imprisoned in the basement.

Yan Yu's injury was dealt with by Hei Moke.

Hei Moke was trying to scare them. The arrowhead was indeed smeared with poison, but it would take some time for the poison to take effect.

It might take more than ten days to die from the poison.

However, there was also a scary thing about this poison. Its toxicity was not urgent, but the symptoms of poisoning were very scary. The poisoned person's blood would slowly be infected by the venom, and then his internal organs would rot day by day. The skin of the poisoned person would also begin to grow black spots.

When all his internal organs were destroyed, he would die.

Ever since they were poisoned, they would be in so much pain that they would wish they were dead.

More than twenty people had been poisoned. Hei Moke had cured everyone else, except for words.

"Why didn't you save her?" Even though Sha Zelong was calm and composed, he was about to explode at this moment.

Hei Moke smiled slyly. He said, "Because her body and your heart are in pain!"

"Hei Moke, you're shameless!"

"I'm shameless."

Hei Moke left with a wave of his hand. Then, he turned on the surveillance cameras and sat in the surveillance room to admire the scene in the dungeon.

A day and night passed.

Black spots started to spread from Yan Yu's injured chest. She sat in a corner, her internal organs burning with pain, but she kept holding it in. If not for the sweat on her forehead, no one would look at her like she was poisoned.

Sha Zelong could not bear to see her like this. He said to her, "You can scream if it hurts."

However, Yan Yu was still fierce.. "I will only scream when I fuck you."

Chapter 495: Long Long Long, Hug Me

When Sha Zelong heard this, his heart ached.

Yan Nuo turned her head and looked elsewhere, but he did not look at Yan Yu.

Yan Yu was in so much pain that she could not sleep. Her brows were furrowed. She did not sleep. Both Shazelong and Yan Nuo did not sleep.

That night, Yan Yu suddenly called out Long Long.

Sha Zelong looked at her with concern in his eyes. His lips quivered, but after a long time, he still did not say anything.

Instead, she said softly, "Long Long, hug me."

Sha Zelong looked at her.

Yan Yu bit her pale lips with her pearly white teeth, and large beads of sweat appeared on her forehead.

Her training uniform was drenched in sweat again.

Sha Zelong finally leaned over and hugged her.

She hadn't changed her clothes in two days. They were stained with blood and sweat, and they smelled pungent but Sha Zelong didn't mind. He pressed her head into his arms and said to her, "If it really hurts, you can bite me."

Yan Yu was still putting up a brave front. She said, "I can only bear to bite you when I fuck you."

"You're silly."

"Not silly. A fool wouldn't fall in love with you."

At this, Sha Zelong repeated, "You're really stupid." Loving him was really stupid.

She did not have the energy to argue with him.

The person in his arms was in so much pain that she was trembling.

Sha Zelong hugged her, his heart clenching.

"What can I do to make you feel better?" Sha Zelong asked.

Yan Yu surprisingly said, "Give me a shot and give me a quick death. I'll feel better."

Hearing this, Sha Zelong and Yan Nuo were both angry. "Don't talk nonsense."

The two men she valued the most in her life threw a tantrum at the same time, but Yan Yu felt warmth.

Perhaps she could show weakness.

Then she said, "My stomach and lungs are hurting, Long Long. I can't quite... bear it."

Sha Zelong's heart ached.

She was such a tolerant person. She had already said that it hurt. The degree of pain was definitely unimaginable.

Sha Zelong said, "Then I'll sing you a song?"

"Okay."

Sha Zelong started to sing. "Unity is power! Unity is power! This power is iron, this power is steel..."

This song was a little silly.

Yan Yu could not take it anymore. "Can we move to the next song?"

Sha Zelong also knew that he was a little stupid.

He thought about it for a long moment before saying, "I don't know many songs." He was 41 years old this year. He had been in the army since he graduated from the military academy. He didn't know any popular love songs so he thought about it before saying, "I only know one song that I remember the lyrics."

Yan Yu said, "I'll listen."

Sha Zelong nodded but did not sing immediately.

There was a short silence before Sha Zelong began to sing an old love song that was not in tune.

Ever since you left, all the warmth is lost.

Waiting for this long snowy mountain road.

Hearing the cold wind whistle.

...

Remember when you promised me.

You wouldn't go away.

But you flew so far with that southward waiting bird.

Love is like a kite with a broken string...

Sha Zelong realized that the woman said nothing.

He looked down at Yan Yu and realized that she had closed his eyes and her head was resting on his thigh. Her breathing was very weak.

The singing stopped.

Sha Zelong shouted the name of Yan Yu in a panic.

“Yan Yu.”

“Yan Yan!”

Yan Yu had fainted from the pain.

Yan Nuo quickly walked over and checked if she was breathing. He realized that she was still breathing. His heart sank.

At this moment, Hei Moke’s voice came from the small speaker on the wall of the imprisonment room. “Major General Beauty, don’t be so nervous. Don’t worry, your sweetheart won’t die so soon. She can still suffer for another seven to eight days...” With that, Hei Moke cut off his speech.

Sha Zelong said to Yan Nuo, “Smash that speaker.”

Even without him saying it, Yan Nuo felt that the sound of the speaker was annoying.

He kicked his foot against the wall and his body shot into the air. He plucked the speaker with his bare hands and threw it to the ground. He stomped it to pieces.

Yan Yu woke up forty minutes later.

She woke up from the pain.

She realized that she was lying in Sha Zelong’s arms. Sha Zelong’s head was slightly lowered, and there was stubble on his chin. His pleasant face looked a little more masculine. She thought regretfully that she had missed his singing.

Sha Zelong woke up from his nap and heaved a sigh of relief when he saw that Yan Yu had woken up.

“How are you?”

The corners of her lips curled up, and her smile looked a little arrogant. “Couldn’t be better.”

She did not know if it was morning.

Yan Yu said, “Actually, I’m a little hungry.” She wasn’t actually hungry. She just wanted to find something to talk to Sha Zelong about.

Sha Zelong said, “There’s nothing to eat.”

After being locked up for so long, no one had sent them food.

“Are they planning to starve us to death?”

Sha Zelong did not say anything.

He knew that Hei Moke would not let him die because his status was not ordinary. His country would not let him die. Hei Moke would take the opportunity to make a request to his country. This was also why Sha Zelong would rather commit suicide when he realized that he might become a prisoner.

He would not die, but Yan Yu would.

Sha Zelong knew that Yan Yu’s condition was terrible. Every day, her organs would fail even more.

The longer it was delayed, the more dangerous her condition was.

Yan Yu leaned on Sha Zelong’s shoulder. She suddenly said, “I’m 39 years old.”

Sha Zelong nodded.

She added, "I was thinking that when I was forty years old, I would be out of singlehood. If I didn't find someone I loved, then I would find the best-looking man in the world and force him to marry me. Anyway, I'm rich and powerful, so I can raise a man as a toy."

Sha Zelong could not help but correct her. "This is not the way to force someone into prostitution."

"Anyway, you know what I mean."

He was silent.

"In the end, I found the best-looking man in the world." After a pause, she added, "I also found the person I love the most."

Sha Zelong was stunned.

This was not the first time Yan Yu said she loved him.

He had heard her say this many times. In the past four years, Yan Yu had been like a ghost, swaying around him from time to time to make her presence known. The first time she said that she loved him was when the end of the year was near last year.

She disguised herself and went to Binjiang City to ask him out for a drink.

She had arranged food and drink in the half acre garden restaurant and waited for him for a day and a night. He did not go.

The next day, she ran to his small apartment and cornered him at the door. She smiled at him. "Don't fool around with me just because I love you, Long Long."

At that time, he thought he had heard a joke.

He did not think that Yan Yu would love him.

She was just a greedy girl. When she saw beautiful things, it was like snatching them and collecting them. Just like how little girls wanted to buy the Barbie dolls at the mall to collect them..

Chapter 496: Rescue

Last summer, Yan Yu tied up his fiancée and beat her up under a tree. He was in the army, and when he received the news, he quickly rushed to the scene of the accident. From afar, he heard Yan Shuyi say to the woman, "He's someone who can use a belt for five years. He's someone I can't bear to hurt even if I'm angry! He's busy with his work and has little time to go home. Yet, you take his money to support a pretty boy without any restraint?"

She hit her not because she was jealous, but because she felt unfair towards him.

At that moment, Sha Zelong realized that this woman might really like him.

The real reason why he believed in Yan Yu was because of something else.

After canceling the engagement with his fiancée, he had sex with Yan Yu.

Later, his mother got the news from somewhere and knew that he had slept with the woman who had beaten his fiancée. In order to make Yan Yu retreat, Mother Sha found a virtuous girl and secretly brought her into his house while he was on a mission.

In the end, Yan Yu suddenly ran to Binjiang City to look for him and saw that woman. After figuring out the situation, Yan Yu took the mace on the wall of Sha Zelong's apartment and smashed Mother Sha's Bentley in public.

That act of violence had completely established her status in front of Mother Sha.

She loved him so much that she dared to be his mother's enemy.

She loved him so much that she dared to be his mother's enemy.

"You may love him, but you definitely don't understand him. If you did, you wouldn't have brought people into his house without his permission. If you loved him, you should respect his choice."

Her words made Mother Sha ashamed.

When Sha Zelong heard these words, he still found it funny.

He thought, "How shameless of Yan Yu to say that she's the person who loves him the most in the world..."

It was only the day before yesterday, at the moment of danger, when she had pushed him away without thinking, that Sha Zelong had finally believed her.

This woman could not help but love him lawlessly and dote on him.

In an instant, Sha Zelong thought of many things.

Beside his ears was the sound of Yan Yu's voice.

"In the end, I never expected that I would not live to be 40 years old." She sighed. It was unknown if she was really sad or pretending to be sad.

Sha Zelong felt extremely upset.

He could have said, "You won't die," but he couldn't say it.

Everyone was an adult, and they were all in their forties. Such a lowly lie was deceiving. Sha Zelong raised his head, and his exquisite chin formed a beautiful arc. At the end of the arc was a protruding Adam's apple.

His Adam's apple moved up and down, looking extremely sexy.

"Yan Yu," Sha Zelong called her softly. Yan Yu looked at him lazily. It was not that she was lazy, but it was just that her body was too painful and she had to use all her strength to speak.

Looking down at Yan Yu, Sha Zelong said, "I've let you down in this life. In the next life, I'll make it up to you."

She was stunned.

Her eyes seemed to be red.

She said, "I'm someone who doesn't believe in reincarnation."

"Believe me."

She remained silent.

Yan Nuo had been listening to them the entire time. His heart was in a mess. He also had worries.

He reached into his pocket and took out the brocade bag that contained the ring. Yan Nuo looked at the brocade bag and sighed silently.

In the dungeon, thirty people all looked heavy-hearted.

Everyone thought of the person they were most worried about.

Someone said, "My wife is pregnant with a second child. Before I left, she said that she wanted to do a four-dimensional photo and show me the baby's photo. I can't see it now..." The person said and stopped talking.

When one person started, others followed suit.

"My brother made a mistake when he was young and went to jail. A few days ago, he just came out of prison. He called me and said that he wanted to be a new person and asked me to supervise him."

"I originally planned to take some time off to go back and accompany my mother. After my father passed away, my mother has been quite lonely. When I left, she was alone."

"I haven't won over the military belle in our team."

Yan Nuo held the ring and said, "I haven't proposed to her yet. I don't know if she will settle in Mumbai or America after I leave. I think it's America. She has her career and friends there, and the freedom she yearns for. I'm not there."

She would definitely be happy without him there.

In the eyes of his subordinates, Yan Nuo was a cold and taciturn person.

This was the first time they saw him talk so much.

He was different from usual.

Sha Zelong looked at Yan Nuo in surprise.

Yan Yu also said, "If I had known earlier that I would have died, we should've had another round that night before we left."

Sha Zelong was speechless.

His sorrow was instantly eaten by a dog.

The weather forecast in Australia said that there would be a storm the next day and warned the fishermen not to go out to sea.

Lightning flashed and thunder roared in the sky.

The rain poured.

Suddenly, a helicopter passed through the lightning clouds in the distance and appeared in the sky above Devil's Den Island.

The person on duty discovered it and informed Hei Moke immediately. Hei Moke walked out of the underground laboratory with all his subordinates. When they reached the ground, they realized that the forest was filled with white mist.

"What is this?"

The big black man beside Hei Moke looked at the clouds with vigilance.

Black Inkker sniffed and his expression suddenly changed. "Retreat!"

They were about to turn around and leave when they fell to the ground and lost consciousness.

A rope was thrown from the helicopter.

Ji Yinbing, who was carrying a large black bag and wearing gloves and an anti-drug outfit, walked out of the helicopter. Holding the rope, she was the first to get off the helicopter in the storm. Following closely behind were twenty armed mercenaries.

They were all wearing gas suits.

Ji Yinbing checked the bodies of Hei Moke and the rest and was relieved to discover that they had all lost consciousness from the poison and their breathing had become very weak.

She gestured and someone immediately found the entrance to the underground laboratory.

Ji Yinbing went headfirst into the poison. After waiting for five to six minutes, she brought the people behind her into the underground laboratory.

Along the way, she saw many people who had lost consciousness and could not get up.

Ji Yinbing went straight to the surveillance room and looked through the surveillance cameras of the entire underground laboratory. She found the place where Yan Nuo and the rest were locked up and also found Chi Baoguang and the rest. The people in Chi Baoguang's laboratory did not faint, and the laboratory was completely sealed.

In the laboratory, other than Chi Baoguang, there were a few experts.

According to Fang Yusheng, his biological father was the most good-looking.. Ji Yinbing searched the crowd and found the most good-looking person.

Chapter 497: Saved

Chi Baoguang was indeed the most good-looking person there.

He was wearing a white laboratory robe and a hat on his head. His face revealed his true age. Chi Baoguang stood in front of a row of instruments with a nonchalant expression.

It was obvious that he was not someone who would not settle down to do research.

Ji Yinbing stared at Chi Baoguang's face for a few seconds and thought to herself, "Fang Yusheng is indeed his son."

Ji Yinbing walked out of the surveillance room and said to the mercenary on the left, "Marti, take three people to the laboratory and take... the best-looking expert."

Marti nodded and led the way to the laboratory.

Ji Yinbing brought the others to the elevator.

There were a total of six floors in this low research building. Yan and the rest were locked in the lowest floor. If Ji Yinbing had not come to rescue them, they would not have been able to escape even if they had wings or burrowed into the ground.

When the elevator door at the bottom floor opened, the group of people in the imprisonment room were immediately woken up.

Sha Zelong hugged Yan Yu and couldn't get up. Yan Nuo stood up and frowned at the elevator.

He thought it was Hei Moke again, but a group of people in white anti-drug clothes entered.

Yan Nuo thought about their identities.

As the crowd walked over, Yan Nuo saw some white fog surging out of the elevator behind them.

Seeing them, everyone was puzzled.

At this moment, the thin leader said, "This air is poisonous. Don't..." Don't breathe.

Before Ji Yinbing could finish speaking, she saw that the group of people had fainted.

Before Yan Nuo fainted, there was only one thought in his mind, "This voice is a little familiar..."

Ji Yinbing was a little annoyed when she saw that they had all fainted. She said to the people behind her, "Take them out."

"Okay."

Ji Yinbing asked her subordinates to take Yan Nuo, Sha Zelong, and the rest away while she carried Yan Nuo on her back.

Seeing the sweat on Yan Yu's head and the bloodstained clothes on his chest, Ji Yinbing's heart sank.

Was she hurt?

After bringing these people to the ground, Ji Yinbing finally met Chi Baoguang face to face.

Chi Baoguang was also wearing an anti-drug outfit. When he saw them, his eyes were filled with vigilance. In the end, Ji Yinbing only said one sentence and Chi Baoguang's attitude changed drastically.

Ji Yinbing said, "Fang Yusheng is my friend. I cured his eyes." Afraid that he wouldn't believe her, Ji Yinbing added, "I'm Ji Yinbing."

Chi Baoguang immediately held Ji Yinbing's hand as if he had seen his own daughter.

He patted Ji Yinbing's hand and said to her, "Girl, you're not bad."

Ji Yinbing, who seemed to have been praised by the leader, was a little embarrassed.

She withdrew her hand and said to them, "Get on the plane first."

Ji Yinbing watched as Chi Baoguang, Yan Nuo, and the rest entered the helicopter before she threw the antidote out. She watched as batch after batch of people woke up slowly before she was the last to board the helicopter.

The propeller swirled as the helicopter gradually flew away.

When Hei Moke and the rest woke up, they could only watch helplessly as it disappeared in the lightning storm.

When Yan Nuo opened his eyes and saw Ji Yinbing, he subconsciously felt that he was dreaming.

Ji Yinbing sat by the window of the helicopter and looked at the thick dark clouds outside. She was only wearing a sleeveless white t-shirt and jeans, and a cap on her head. He could only see her cold and exquisite side profile.

Yan Nuo was afraid that he would shatter this beautiful dream.

His breathing slowed until Ji Yinbing turned around and raised her right hand at him. She asked, "Who is this for?" In her hand was a ring.

Only then did Yan Nuo dare to believe that this was reality and not a dream.

Yan Nuo's lips quivered. After a while, he said hoarsely, "For you."

Ji Yinbing played with the ring and did not speak.

Yan Nuo had many questions to ask her. He looked at her steadily. When he saw something, he narrowed his eyes. "What is this..." As he asked, he reached out to touch the side of Ji Yinbing's face, only to touch a strand of white hair.

His pupils dilated, and his expression changed. "What happened to your hair?"

Ji Yinbing avoided eye contact and said, "Nothing..."

Before she could finish speaking, Yan Nuo suddenly raised his hand and took off her cap.

A head of white hair hung down, covering Ji Yinbing's face and falling on the back of Yan Nuo's hand and arm.

In an instant, Yan Nuo was aghast.

Yan Nuo was stunned, as if he had lost his soul.

After a moment, he regained his senses and touched Ji Yinbing's hair in disbelief. His hand passed through the light but snow-white hair and he heard his heart pounding. Yan Nuo was not stupid. He thought of many things.

The white smoke that made people lose consciousness when they smelled it, the anti-drug clothes Ji Yinbing and the rest were wearing...

"W-What did you do?" Yan Nuo sounded shocked.

Knowing that she could not hide it from him, Ji Yinbing said calmly, "I tested the poison."

Ji Yinbing saw that Yan Nuo was a little confused and said, "I've mentioned to you before that Zhuang Long and I have developed a poison that can make a person lose consciousness completely in an instant. This poison will exhaust the life force of a living person within an hour."

“You..”

“We’ve never used living people to test drugs. We developed an antidote, but we weren’t sure if the antidote would work on the human body. I tested the poison myself, and the result was...” Ji Yinbing’s lips curled up slightly. She said, “Well, we succeeded.”

“Are you crazy!” Yan Nuo was so angry that he wanted to slap her.

His hand rose and fell, finally hovering a centimeter away from Ji Yinbing’s cheek. He could not hit her no matter what.

He looked at the fearless person in front of him. It was as if a demon’s hand was gripping his heart tightly. He was in so much pain that he was suffocating, and his breathing was painful.

Yan Nuo slapped himself..

Ji Yinbing opened her mouth, wanting to persuade him not to be angry.

She looked up at him. When she saw Yan Nuo’s eyes filled with heartache and fear, she suddenly couldn’t say anything.

After a short silence, Ji Yinbing said to Yan Nuo, “Don’t worry, don’t be sad. I’m fine now, right?”

Yan Nuo slowly lowered his hand.

He should be happy that he was saved. However, when he thought about how much Ji Yinbing had sacrificed to save them, he could not be happy.

He suddenly realized that he was too selfish.

She wanted freedom. He should give it to her.

It was too cruel for such a good person like her to be tied up by him.

However, there was a question that puzzled Yan Nuo.

“If I die, won’t you be free?” Yan Nuo said. After saying that, his sharp and probing gaze landed on Ji Yinbing’s calm and cold face. Yan Nuo asked her, “Why did you put yourself in danger to save us?”

He thought that Ji Yinbing would say that she wanted to repay his kindness.

Ji Yinbing thought about it seriously for a while before saying, “I haven’t eaten enough of your beef fried rice..”

Chapter 498: This World Is Full of Malice

Yan Nuo was stunned.

This answer...

He could not stop thinking about it, but he was afraid that he was wrong.

Was that what he was thinking?

At this moment, he heard Ji Yinbing say, “So, you can’t die. You have to continue cooking for me.”

Yan Nuo’s heart was beating wildly. He was filled with energy and could not control himself.

He suspected that his hearing was wrong, so he could not help but ask, "What did you say?"

Ji Yinbing glanced at him.

She endured her anger and said, "In the past, you were the one who gave me a new life. This time, I saved you again. Our debts are even. Regarding the child incident, I'm in pain, and so are you. That's our shared pain. In the future..."

She stared at Yan Nuo sternly and said, "Let's heal each other's injuries."

Yan Nuo was so happy that he wanted to laugh.

But he could not open her mouth.

His nose was a little blocked and his chest was hot.

Lightning flashed in the clouds outside the window. It was blinding. Thunder rumbled in the distance. An indescribable feeling spread from Yan Nuo's chest. He tore off the blanket on his body and got up to kneel on the bed. He bent down and reached out to hug Ji Yinbing.

He pressed her head and said to her, "Don't speak or look up. Just let me hug you quietly for a while."

Ji Yinbing really stopped moving obediently.

They hugged each other for a long, long time.

They didn't separate until Sha Zelong's light cough sounded outside the door.

“Yan Yu is awake.” Sha Zelong was talking to Ji Yinbing. He said, “She’s in pain.” Sha Zelong frowned deeply.

Ji Yinbing stood up from Yan Nuo’s arms and said, “I’ll go take a look.”

Not only did Yan Yu’s wound not show any signs of healing, but the area around her chest that was shot by the arrowhead was also black. Pieces of black spots covered her chest. Ji Yinbing took a look and said, “This is the Black Nightmare.” Ji Yinbing turned around and looked at Yan Nuo. “It’s a poison developed by Fu Fu in the past. I have the antidote. It’s with Zhuang Long.”

When Ji Yinbing mentioned Fu Fu, her tone was especially disgusted.

He was simply a fly in a shit pile.

“How about this? After the helicopter arrives in Australia, I’ll bring Sister Yu to find Zhuang Long. Yan Nuo, you go back to Thailand first.”

Yan Nuo didn’t want to separate from Ji Yinbing, but he also understood that at this time, Yan Yu’s recovery was the important thing.

“Okay.”

Chi Baoguang, who had been squatting in the corner, raised his hand and spoke. “What about me?”

He was looking at Sha Zelong as he spoke.

Sha Zelong did not hesitate and said, “I have to accompany Yan Yu to America. How about this, Dr. Chi, you can return to China with Wang Jian.” Wang Jian was the captain of a special forces team in Sha Zelong’s army. He was a year older than Sha Zelong and was a lieutenant colonel.

A burly man in a black t-shirt stood out from the crowd.

He stood upright like a pine tree. He saluted Sha Zelong and promised loudly, "Don't worry, Chief! I promise to complete the mission!"

"Yes."

When the helicopter arrived at Sha Shaolong's private plane apron, Sha Zelong carried Yan Yu and flew to America with Ji Yinbing.

Yan Nuo flew back to Meng City with all the mercenaries.

Chi Baoguang returned to China with Wang Jian and the rest.

When their plane really entered the airspace of Choma, the group of people secretly heaved a sigh of relief. They successfully arrived at Binjiang City. As soon as Chi Baoguang walked out of the airport, he saw the Secretary General of the Treasury, Xiao Junye.

He was Huo Tingguang's most trusted subordinate.

Wang Jian was familiar with the big shots in the military world, but he did not know the secretary general beside Huo Tingguang.

When he heard that Xiao Junye was going to bring Chi Baoguang to see Huo Tingguang, he subconsciously objected. "No, you can't take Dr. Chi away without permission."

Xiao Junye went to make a call. When he returned, he said to Wang Jian, "If Lieutenant Colonel Wang is worried, you can send Dr. Chi there."

Wang Jian nodded expressionlessly.

Chi Baoguang was like a person watching a show as he watched the two of them fight.

In the end, the three of them got into the car.

In the car, Chi Baoguang said, "Can I make a call?"

Xiao Junye said, "Of course."

Chi Baoguang added, "Then can you lend me your phone?"

Xiao Junye was stunned for a moment before giving him a very old-fashioned phone without any data network. Chi Baoguang held the phone and said, "It's an antique."

Chi Baoguang was about to make a call when he realized that he did not remember Fang Yusheng's number.

He felt a little awkward.

When he was staying in the hotel before, he had called Fang Yusheng's number. He searched his memory and tried to make a call according to his memory.

It went through!

The moment the call was picked up, Chi Baoguang said, "It's me, your biological father."

A woman's scolding voice came from the other end. "And I'm your biological mother!"

Chi Baoguang was stunned. He cursed before hanging up the phone and dialing another number.

After this lesson, Chi Baoguang was in no hurry to speak.

Hearing that it was an old woman's voice on the other end of the phone, he quickly hung up.

He called again. This time, the call was picked up, but no one spoke. Chi Baoguang heard something ringing on the other end of the phone, which meant that the person was listening to the phone. Then why didn't they speak? Could it be that they were mute? Chi Baoguang hesitated to hang up, but on the other end, a soft male voice finally sounded. "Who is it?"

His simple tone and cold voice made Chi Baoguang think of someone.

He asked, "Cheng Cheng?"

The child opposite him corrected him in all seriousness. "Hello, I'm Fang Zicheng."

"I'm Chi Baoguang."

"...Oh."

Fang Zicheng felt that this name sounded a little familiar, but he did not remember where he had heard it before.

Seeing that he did not recognize him, Chi Baoguang had no choice but to remind him, "I'm Chi Baoguang, your biological grandfather."

Fang Zicheng finally thought of this person.

"Oh, I remember." And then... nothing.

Chi Baoguang thought, "Why is this child like a piece of wood?"

He could only say, "I'm looking for your father."

“Dad’s not here.”

“Where’s your mother?”

“Not here either.”

“Where’s your grandmother?”

“Not here.”

“Where did they go?”

Fang Zicheng said, “They went shopping.”

Chi Boguang was speechless.

He had been caught, but his wife, son, and daughter-in-law still had the mood to shop!

Chi Baoguang instantly felt that this world was filled with evil.

“Is there no one else in the house other than you?”

“There’s...” Fang Zicheng said, “My brother.”

At this moment, the phone was snatched away.

Another soft but cute boy’s voice traveled to Chi Baoguang’s ear. “Hello, who is this? My family is not around, so only my brother and I are at home. If you need anything, look for my father. You can call his phone.”

This child was clearly someone who would do big things.

Chi Baoguang smiled and said, "Kai Kai? I'm your grandfather."

Chapter 499: About the Canary

Fang Zikai was silent for a moment before he thought of this person. "You're my father's biological father? Our biological grandfather? The grandfather who was taken away?"

Without mentioning the last sentence, Chi Baoguang would be in a better mood.

"...Yes, yes."

"Wow, Grandpa, you still have a phone in prison! My father said that there are usually only two scenarios when a call comes from prison. One, you're going to be released from prison. Two, you're going to be killed in prison and they've called our family to collect the corpse." Fang Zikai smiled and said, "Grandpa, you're going to be released from prison?"

Chi Baoguang was speechless.

"Give me your father's phone number." He could not tell the two little fellows apart clearly.

Fang Zikai then gave his father's number like he was memorizing a book.

Chi Baoguang hung up the phone and looked up. He realized that Xiao Junye and Wang Jian were looking at him while holding in their laughter. He said with a straight face, "Little children are mischievous."

“I understand.” After Xiao Junye said that, he adjusted his glasses and Chi Baoguang suspected that he was holding in his laughter.

Chi Baoguang called Fang Yusheng.

Fang Yusheng picked up quickly.

“Hello, I’m Fang Yusheng.”

“I’m your father.”

When he heard this, Fang Yusheng thought that he was scolding someone. He was about to reply that he was his grandfather when he realized that the voice was a little familiar.

Fang Yusheng was silent for a moment before asking, “Chi Baoguang?”

“You have to call me Dad.”

Fang Yusheng did not call him Dad. He asked, “You’re saved?” His voice was filled with surprise.

Chi Baoguang acknowledged.

He actually just wanted to call and tell them that he was safe.

After the call had been made, Chi Baoguang was speechless.

Since he did not speak, Fang Yusheng naturally would not take the initiative to speak.

The two of them were silent for a while on the phone. In the end, Fang Yusheng took the initiative to speak. He said, “Mom was very worried when you were not around these few days. She didn’t sleep well these few days. I lied to her and said that you were coming back soon before I tricked her out to relax. She thought that you were really coming back and was shopping with Ah Sheng. She said that she wanted to buy you a few sets of clothes to change into.”

“Hmm... Which brand do you like to wear?”

Fang Yusheng pretended to be nonchalant.

Chi Baoguang, who had been complaining about their inhumane behavior, felt his heart warm up when he heard this explanation.

“I’m not picky about clothes.”

“Alright, we’ll think about it then.”

“Yes.”

Fang Yusheng asked again, “When are you coming back?”

“I’m in Binjiang City.”

“Then when... are you coming to see Lisa?” He wanted to ask Chi Baoguang when he would go home, but he felt that it was awkward and could not say it.

Chi Baoguang said vaguely, “I have to see someone first.”

Fang Yusheng immediately understood what he meant.

“Alright then.”

Fang Yusheng was speechless. He was about to hang up.

Chi Baoguang guessed his intentions. Before he hung up the phone, he asked. "Do you really like the two canaries in Secretary Liu's house?"

Fang Yusheng was stunned.

He thought about it carefully and understood what was going on.

Previously, in order to please him, Chi Baoguang had stolen the peacocks from the Minister of Education's house. After he was done, he even called to ask for credit. Fang Yusheng was furious and mocked him. "I want to eat the two canaries at Secretary Liu's house. Can you get them for me too?"

Chi Baoguang actually took his casual words to heart.

An unknown emotion spread in Fang Yusheng's heart.

He rubbed his chest and said, "I'm talking nonsense." He guessed what Chi Baoguang was going to do and quickly educated him, "You're not allowed to steal them!"

Chi Baoguang said something that made no sense. He said, "It's not stealing this time." Then he hung up.

Fang Yusheng stood in the corridor of the mall with his phone in his hand. When he heard this, he was puzzled.

Lisa and Qiao Jiusheng walked out of the shop in female clothes and saw Fang Yusheng leaning against the glass corridor in a daze. The two of them walked over at the same time. Qiao Jiusheng pushed Fang Yusheng's arm and asked him, "What's wrong?"

Fang Yusheng placed his phone in his pocket.

He stretched out his hand very naturally and took the bags in the two women's hands before saying, "Mom, didn't you say that you wanted to buy... a razor for Dad?" He looked at the shop opposite him embarrassedly but said, "Go buy it."

Lisa was stunned when he said "Dad."

Qiao Jiusheng was also surprised.

"If Baoguang could hear you call him Dad, he would be very happy."

Fang Yusheng thought about it and said, "It's not impossible."

"Really?" Lisa seemed to see hope.

Fang Yusheng said, "If he pays us to change the way we call him, our family will change our ways." Whether they could change their way of addressing him depended on Chi Baoguang's level of sincerity.

Upon hearing this, Qiao Jiusheng did not know whether to laugh or cry. However, Lisa muttered, "Look at your love for money? Who exactly did you take after?"

Lisa said that there was no need to buy anything more. Anyway, Chi Baoguang had not returned yet, so it was a waste to buy it.

Fang Yusheng said, "He's back."

Lisa was stunned for a moment before she asked Fang Yusheng anxiously, "Really?" She could not hide the surprise and excitement in her tone.

"Yes."

Lisa was overjoyed.

Although she had been smiling before, her smile was very forced. After hearing this, her smile became much brighter. She pulled her son and wife into stores to buy many clothes for Chi Baoguang in the men's clothing section of the mall. In the end, she even bought him a razor and many other daily necessities.

When Chi Baoguang saw Huo Tingguang, Huo Tingguang addressed him respectfully as Dr. Chi.

He could afford to be called Dr. Chi.

He sized up Huo Tingguang and thought of Fang Yusheng, Ji Yinbing, and Zhuang Long, who had completely cured AIDS at a young age. Chi Baoguang could not help but sigh. "The younger generation will surpass us. This world will forever belong to you youngsters."

His words had two meanings.

Huo Tingguang, who was about to participate in the national elections in three months, smiled when he heard this.

Huo Tingguang smiled warmly, hiding the ambition and revenge in his eyes.

He said, "Professor Chi, you're flattering me."

The two of them chatted in the office for nearly two hours.

When he left the office, Chi Baoguang was smiling, and so was Huo Tingguang.

Xiao Junye asked Huo Tingguang, "What was the outcome?"

"He will hand over his research results to us and will serve us in the future. In exchange, we have to protect him from harm. In addition, he promised not to go overseas, but he has absolute freedom in the country."

Xiao Junye said, "People who are too bright will be burnt by the light itself." Dr. Chi was a treasure that all the countries in the world wanted to get. It was because he was too valuable that he appeared even more dangerous. Everyone wanted to get him, but if they could not get him, they wanted to destroy him.

Huo Tingguang did not speak further on this topic. He returned to his office and called the Provincial Party Secretary of Binjiang City.

When Secretary Liu saw that the call was from the finance department's office, he was a little surprised and excited..

Chapter 500: I'll Get You Everything You Want

He picked up the phone and called out respectfully, "Minister Huo."

The respected Minister Huo said to him in a difficult tone, "Secretary Liu..."

This heavy tone shocked Secretary Liu.

"Minister Huo, what's wrong?"

Huo Tingguang sighed disconsolately. "I'm going to apologize to you today."

This sentence stunned Secretary Liu.

"You..."

“Without your permission, I gave your Da Bao and Er Bao to someone else...”

Secretary Liu could no longer hear everything else Huo Tingguang said.

There was only one sentence in his mind: I gave your Da Bao and Er Bao to someone else...

After hanging up the phone, Secretary Liu’s heart was bleeding.

His Da Bao and Er Bao!

The Fang family.

Qiao Jiusheng, Lisa, and Aunt Jin were preparing dinner together.

Tonight, they did not prepare a sumptuous meal. There were two plates of tofu including a plate of Mapo tofu and a bowl of fish head tofu soup, two meat dishes, two vegetable dishes, and a cold dish.

Qiao Jiusheng said, “These dishes are too little. Chi... Dad definitely hasn’t eaten well these few days. Let’s add a few more dishes.”

Lisa waved her hand and said, “No, I specially went to ask Granny Lin next door today. She said that a person who is released from prison has to eat tofu for the first time he is back. We can’t make too many dishes. He has to finish them and not leave any remainders. Having leftovers is not an auspicious sign.”

Qiao Jiusheng knew that Lisa was afraid.

She gave up.

The three women were busy in the kitchen while Fang Yusheng sat in the courtyard and played chess with Fang Zicheng and Fang Zikai.

As the father and sons played, they talked about what happened today.

Fang Zikai, who was talkative, kept talking about the phone call that afternoon. Fang Zicheng stared at the chessboard thoughtfully and thought about his next move.

Inevitably, Fang Zikai thought of the scene of Chi Baoguang using the dagger to slash Fang Pingjue's ear that night. His small shoulders trembled as he said in a low voice, "Dad, actually, I think our biological grandfather is a little fierce."

Hearing this, Fang Zicheng actually nodded silently.

For the first time, he felt that his brother had good judgment.

Fang Yusheng saw their reaction. He sighed and thought for a while before saying, "All these years, your biological grandfather has suffered a lot."

The two little fellows looked up at him and waited for him to continue.

Fang Yusheng told them about what happened in the cliff prison.

He did not hide it from the two children. They had to come into contact with some dark side. However, when he talked about these things, he was very careful with his words. When it came to scenes like killing each other, he talked about it as a gang fight. When he talked about the riots in prison that were like rape and gang fights, he described them as bullying.

After hearing about the cruel competition for the King position, Fang Zikai and Fang Zicheng fell silent.

Fang Zicheng asked, "Then Grandpa had to fight with those people too?"

Fang Yusheng nodded and said, "Yes, he has fought 11 group fights in more than thirty years."

Upon hearing this, Fang Zikai said softly, "Grandpa is very pitiful." After saying that, he thought about that scene and suddenly said, "Grandpa must be very afraid when he kills people, right?"

"How could he not be afraid?" Fang Yusheng touched the two children's hair with his hands and placed his hands on the top of their heads. He said, "Your grandfather used to be a kind and upright person who only wanted to do research and development. His body was not strong, and his fists were soft. If he wasn't forced to, why would he choose to let his hands be stained with blood?"

Fang Zicheng said, "Every man for himself."

Fang Yu looked at his eldest son.

Fang Zikai asked his brother in confusion, "Every man for himself. What does that mean?"

Fang Zicheng said, "You'll understand when you study."

"...Oh."

As she spoke, Aunt Jin ran over.

She said loudly to Fang Yusheng, "Young Master Yusheng, Mr. Chi is back!"

Fang Yusheng brought the children to the door.

When they walked to the front hall, Qiao Jiusheng and Lisa put down their work and walked out of the kitchen.

The family walked to the door of the house together and saw Chi Baoguang.

Chi Baoguang did not ask anyone to pick him up. He entered the Fang family's entrance and walked straight ahead. He walked around the cement road by the lake and walked towards the house. Fang Yusheng saw that he was holding a birdcage with two canaries in it. His body froze and his expression changed slightly.

Chi Baoguang finally reached the entrance of the house.

He carried the birdcage and looked at Lisa first.

"I'm back," he said to Lisa.

Lisa hummed in agreement and could not help but pounce on him.

The two of them hugged each other tightly. Chi Baoguang said to Lisa, "I won't leave you again."

Lisa was finally relieved.

After the two of them separated, Chi Baoguang raised the cage in his hand in front of Fang Yusheng.

Fang Yusheng was speechless.

"Don't tell me you stole it!" Fang Yusheng gritted his teeth.

Chi Baoguang seemed to have expected this. He took out a brand new phone, opened the photo album, and handed it to Fang Yusheng. "Look, in order to prove that Secretary Liu gave this to me personally, I even recorded a video."

Fang Yusheng leaned over suspiciously.

The phone was held by someone else, and the camera was directed at Chi Baoguang and Secretary Liu.

In the video, Secretary Liu carried the birdcage with a farewell smile and handed it to Chi Baoguang. Chi Baoguang was especially fast and snatched away his birdcage. The two of them had their arms over each other's shoulders. Chi Baoguang was much taller than Secretary Liu, and in order to hold Chi Baoguang's shoulders, Secretary Liu even tiptoed.

Even so, he was still shorter than Chi Baoguang.

Chi Baoguang smiled at the camera and revealed his white teeth. Secretary Liu's smile was a little stiff.

Fang Yusheng finished watching the video and had a complicated expression.

"Did you threaten him?" Secretary Liu looked helpless.

"No..."

He casually mentioned that his son liked Secretary Liu's canaries, so Minister Huo did him a favor and agreed to give them to him.

Chi Baoguang wanted to show off in front of his son, so he praised Huo Tingguang and said that he would be a good leader in the future. Fang Yusheng naturally did not know the twists and turns. He took the cage and thanked Chi Boguang softly.

Fang Yusheng carried the cage to the courtyard and thought about it. He hung it under the crabapple tree in the West Prefecture.

He stared at the canaries and planned to visit Secretary Liu's house someday to return the birds to him.

Even though Chi Baoguang did not say it, Fang Yusheng guessed that Secretary Liu did not give it to him willingly.

In the dining room, Qiao Jiusheng and Aunt Jin served the dishes together.

Chi Baoguang had already taken a shower, shaved, put on a brand new shirt and pants, and sat at the dining table in the dim light. He looked at the dishes on the table, and at Qiao Jiusheng, who was going back and forth between the kitchen and the dining room. He also saw the two little grandchildren who were helping out, as well as Lisa, who was arranging the dishes.. He almost cried tears of joy.
