

Ex's Brother 551

Chapter 551: Best Partner

Ji Yinbing finally understood.

She smiled and said meaningfully, "So Master's gaze meant he was asking for a kiss."

Hearing the word "kiss", Yan Nuo felt embarrassed.

"I'm leaving."

He turned around and left.

Only by escaping could he hide his embarrassment.

Ji Yinbing almost said "don't go", but she held back.

She watched as Yan Nuo's car drove away before raising her hand and touching her lips with her fingers. It was alright. The short separation would make for the next perfect reunion.

After Yan Nuo returned to the country, he started to accept missions non-stop.

Yan Nuo was not only the head of the Yan family, but he was also an assassin. However, he was not the kind of assassin who would help whoever paid him. He had principles. Firstly, he would not kill the weak. Secondly, he would not kill the women and children. Thirdly, he would not kill the officials who were loyal to the people

He seemed to be killing nothing.

Yan Nuo only accepted one mission—to kill evil people.

In his life, he had received thirteen separate transactions. Among them, he had killed a drug dealer who specialized in seducing minors to take drugs. He had killed three perverts who were happy to humiliate minors and killed four homicidal maniacs who were interested in serial imitation murders.

The other people who were killed were also evil people.

While Yan Nuo was busy earning money to get rid of evil, Ji Yinbing was also busy learning and getting to know like-minded friends.

She often went back and forth to Zhuang Long's house. The first time she entered Zhuang Long's laboratory, Ji Yinbing fell in love with those fragile but transparent and cold instruments. Zhuang Long's friendship with her soared, and they became good friends in the same school, as well as teachers and friends.

Zhuang Long told Ji Yinbing everything he knew. Whenever Ji Yinbing was confused and he was proficient in something, he would seriously explain it to Ji Yinbing.

Under Zhuang Long's influence, Ji Yinbing improved rapidly.

As she studied, she participated in Zhuang Long's research and development. This year, a plague suddenly erupted in a certain country in the Middle East. Strangely, the people who were infected were all women. At first, the symptoms of the plague virus were like a woman getting pregnant.

At first, it was sleepiness, then lack of appetite, and then nausea. Before the virus completely erupted, the women would cry like babies and fall to the ground dead.

At first, such a plague only happened in the Middle East. Later on, because the human body carried the virus, it caused a large-scale infection in the entire Middle East and South Asia I countries. The country burned those who died from the virus to ashes. Even so, the plague virus was still not restrained.

People from many virology research and development agencies around the world paid attention to this matter at the same time. Virology experts from all over the world worked overtime every day to try and find a virus to solve this plague. Although Zhuang Long was still studying for a PhD, his knowledge and ability were already capable of taking charge.

At this moment, he was passionate and had watched too many hero movies that saved the world. Zhuang Long also wanted to be a hero and save humanity.

Zhuang Long decided to fly to the Middle East personally to investigate the origin of the virus in America's Ha Ma City.

He packed his things and walked out of the apartment. However, he saw Ji Yinbing at the entrance.

Ji Yinbing was wearing flats and jeans, a backpack, and a cap. Her back was against a tree trunk outside his apartment. When the door opened, Ji Yinbing stood up straight. She looked up and met Zhuang Long's eyes, who was standing on the stone stairs.

Zhuang Long's face darkened. He said, "Go back."

Ji Yinbing said, "You're my teacher and my partner. I'll accompany you wherever you want to go."

Hearing this, Zhuang Long was moved for a moment.

"I'm going to die." He took out his car keys and asked Ji Yinbing, who was following behind him, as he walked towards the parking lot. "To die. Are you going too?"

Ji Yinbing did not answer.

Zhuang Long bent down and started the car.

Before getting into the car, he turned around to look at the girl behind him.

Ji Yinbing was also looking at him. Her gaze was firm as she looked at death calmly. She said, "After choosing this profession, we have to do something that is worthy of this identity. We studied virology so that we could develop the antidote and save humanity the moment humans were harmed by the virus."

"In this world, there are many viruses that can't be cured. For example, AIDS, Ebola, Lasha..."

Her gaze was like a torch, and her eyes shot out the fighting spirit and courage that a young person should have. "If I don't even have the courage to touch the virus, how can I conquer it?" With that, she stared at Zhuang Long and waited for his answer.

Zhuang Long also stared at Ji Yinbing for a long time.

A moment later, he pursed his lips and said to Ji Yinbing expressionlessly, "My laboratory still lacks a most precious assistant." He raised his chin at Ji Yinbing and asked arrogantly but sincerely, "I wonder if I have the right to invite our Little Bingbing to be my assistant?"

Ji Yinbing was stunned for a moment before she smiled.

This cold girl suddenly smiled faintly, so beautiful that it made Zhuang Long dizzy.

"My pleasure."

Zhuang Long opened his arms towards Ji Yinbing.

Ji Yinbing hesitated for a moment before approaching him and hugging him.

This hug was clean and pure without any ambiguity.

They got into the car and rushed to the airport to rush to the capital of America. When they reached the capital, they drove to Hama City.

Hama City had already been controlled. No outsiders were allowed to enter, and no one was allowed to leave. It was like a dead city. The people living inside were waiting for death, and the people outside were watching them die.

Outside the city stood several rows of soldiers guarding the city.

Zhuang Long was driving a grayish-green pickup truck. Upon seeing them, all the soldiers were on standby.

“Stop the car!” The soldiers shouted in a language that they did not understand.

Zhuang Long jumped out of the car. He was wearing a long-sleeved t-shirt and jeans and a flip hat.

Ji Yinbing followed him out of the car.

The soldiers saw their appearance and could not tell which country they were from.

Ji Yinbing looked like he was from the east. Although Zhuang Long was from America, his ancestors were Chinese. His appearance was also pure Chinese. When the two of them stood together, it was easy to mistake them for Chinese.

Zhuang Long immediately introduced himself in English. He took out his identification card and showed it to Lie Bing.

After knowing that they were PhD students from America, the soldiers who were originally hostile to the people of America instantly respected them.

“Have to tell you that it’s dangerous inside now.”

“Almost 90% of the women are infected with the virus, and all the men in the city have already evacuated. Once you enter...” Lie Bing’s gaze landed on Ji Yinbing. He said, “Madam, I advise you to think twice..”

Chapter 552: Not Abandoned

Ji Yinbing’s expression remained calm and indifferent.

She shook her head slightly and said firmly, “I want to go in.”

After obtaining the approval of the soldiers, the two of them entered Hama City without the protection of the soldiers.

The city was lifeless and filled with sorrow.

Ji Yinbing and Zhuang Long walked on the silent street.

Every family had their doors and windows tightly closed. Occasionally, someone would open the window and extend a haggard and sallow face. They stared at the two sudden city breakers with numb eyes.

They had long been forced to accept the truth. They knew that soon, they would end their lives like those dead women.

Zhuang Long felt something and said, "They are people abandoned by this world."

Ji Yinbing shifted her gaze away from the peeping faces. When she heard Zhuang Long's words, she said, "That's why we came"

Yinbing leaned closer to Zhuang Long and said in a low voice, "We didn't abandon them."

These words were a little emotional.

Zhuang Long touched his nose. A smooth-tongued man could not stand others praising him in all seriousness.

He said, "You make it sound like we're especially high and mighty like God."

Ji Yinbing shrugged. "If God is a woman, then the world will go crazy."

The two of them teased the atmosphere and gradually entered the city center.

"Let's stay at this hotel tonight."

In front of them was an eight-story building.

Hama City was not rich to begin with. The best hotel in the city was not considered luxurious either. The city was empty, and the hotel door was wide open. There were no guests. The two of them did not pay their food and accommodation fees. They each chose a clean house to stay in.

At night, they ate some canned food and left the hotel together.

They had to hurry and collect the blood of the infected.

This time, they were very lucky to meet a 13-year-old girl. The little girl was almost unable to hold on anymore. She sat on the lawn outside her house and looked up at Ji Yinbing and Zhuang Long without saying anything. Ji Yinbing was wearing a Isolation uniform. She looked at the little girl's despairing and numb eyes and could not bear to see her like this.

She opened the bag on her back and found two pieces of chocolate. She handed them to the girl.

The girl stared at the chocolate and muttered to herself for a long time before reaching out a hand with long sores to take the chocolate. She peeled a piece and ate half of it before suddenly crying. Ji Yinbing was a little helpless. Zhuang Long glanced at Ji Yinbing and walked to a quiet place.

Ji Yinbing squatted down in front of the girl.

"You're crying, Is it very painful?" Ji Yinbing tried her best to speak English slowly, trying to make the girl hear her clearly.

The girl seemed to understand. She seemed to be calling out for her father.

Ji Yinbing thought that she was probably missing her father.

Ji Yinbing sighed and sat down beside the girl. After the girl finished her chocolate, she spoke in the language of Country X while waving her hands, wanting to express her meaning. Ji Yinbing stared at her actions for a long time. In the end, she probed, "You're asking, what are we doing here?"

The girl did not know if Ji Yinbing understood her words. She nodded and did not shake her head.

Ji Yinbing said, "Doctor." She pointed at herself and said slowly, "I'm a doctor." Seeing that the girl did not understand, she took out a syringe from her bag. She made a drawing of blood on her arm. She wanted to tell the girl that she was a doctor.

However, the girl misunderstood her.

The girl took the initiative to hand her hand to Ji Yinbing. She pulled up her sleeves and said something Ji Yinbing did not understand.

Although she did not understand, Ji Yinbing guessed the girl's meaning.

She was asking him to draw her blood.

Ji Yinbing needed the girl's blood. In fact, the more blood samples she collected, the more beneficial it was for her research. She took a tube of the girl's blood and said, "I—need—more."

The girl tilted her head and looked at her.

Ji Yinbing held the needle to draw blood and patiently compared it a few times. The girl finally understood. She suddenly reached out and pointed at a western-style building in the distance.

"Is there someone inside?" Ji Yinbing asked.

The girl understood what she meant and nodded.

After bidding farewell to the girl, Ji Yinbing and Zhuang Long went to the western three-story building.

They rang the doorbell politely. In a moment, a woman in her forties walked out. She was dressed like a servant. The woman sized them up and asked for their identities in pure American English.

Ji Yinbing explained her identity to Zhuang Long.

The woman's eyes lit up when she heard that they were virologists.

She warmly invited the two of them into the house.

After entering the house, the woman said, "I'm not infected yet, but my Miss is infected. In order not to infect me, she locked herself upstairs." The woman looked upstairs with a painful expression. "We're not from America X, we're from America A. You know, there are many homeless orphans here. Miss wanted to establish an orphanage here, so she decided to come and inspect it personally."

The woman lowered her head and said in a sad tone, "Who knew that Miss's luck was so bad..."

Ji Yinbing admired this lady and pitied her.

She was here to do good, but.

"We want to take a tube of her blood. Do you think it's convenient?"

The woman hesitated before nodding.

"I'll go tell Miss."

The woman went upstairs to ask the lady for her opinion. Zhuang Long and Ji Yinbing were waiting downstairs.

Within a few minutes, the woman came downstairs. She said, "Miss agreed."

"Okay."

The two of them followed the woman upstairs. Along the way, the woman was talking to the two of them. "Miss has been infected with the virus for two days. Yesterday, her body started to have a high fever, and today, she has sores on her face. Miss loves to look beautiful, so when you see Miss later, please don't take offense."

"Tunderstand."

Pushing open the door, Ji Yinbing and Zhuang Long entered one after another.

On the big round bed lay a thin girl. She was covered in a white silk blanket, and her long golden hair was draped over the pillow. As the woman had said, she loved beauty. She had put a towel over her face to cover the boils on her face.

Only her light blue eyes were revealed.

The girl should be very young. Although her skin looked dark and yellow from the torture of the virus, there were no wrinkles around the girl's eyes.

Her left arm was placed outside the blanket. Her sleeves were rolled up to her arm, revealing a slender arm.

Zhuang Long placed his bag by the bed. He looked down at the girl and said in a gentle voice, "I'll draw a tube of your blood. Don't worry, it doesn't hurt very much."

The girl looked at him quietly.

After a moment, she nodded. "Okay."

Zhuang Long sat down. Just as he removed the bag of disposable blood needles, he saw the girl frown.

He: "..."

She had yet to start drawing blood and the needle had yet to stab into her body when she started to be afraid...

Chapter 553: Are They All As Handsome As You?

Zhuang Long hesitated for a moment before reaching into his chest pocket. After touching it for a moment, he found a piece of chewing gum. He handed the chewing gum to the girl and said to her as gently as he could, "It won't hurt so much if you bite it."

The girl glanced at the woman behind Zhuang Long.

The woman understood.

She took the chewing gum and peeled off the wrapping paper, then blocked Zhuang Long and Ji Yinbing's vision. The maid bent down to remove the towel on the blonde girl's face and brought the chewing gum to her mouth.

After the woman retreated, Zhuang Long looked at the blonde girl and couldn't help but sigh in his heart. She was really obsessed with beauty.

comment

'When the blonde girl was eating, her mouth under the towel moved back and forth.

She looked a little like a squirrel when she ate.

Such a cute squirrel could not die.

After he drew his blood, he realized that the girl was still looking at him. He asked, "Why are you looking at me?"

The girl said in English, 'Are all doctors as handsome as you?'

Zhuang Long fell silent.

He had always been a man who loved to run his mouth, but in front of his patients, he had to maintain a cold demeanor.

He chose not to say anything.

The girl added, "If every doctor is as good-looking as you, I won't be afraid of injections."

Behind her, when Ji Yinbing heard this, she couldn't help but laugh.

The girl said nothing more.

When Zhuang Long and the rest left, this talkative girl did not ask them if she could be saved.

Perhaps she was subconsciously avoiding this topic.

After taking enough blood samples, Zhuang Long and Ji Yinbing returned to America.

Ji Yinbing assisted Zhuang Long in analyzing all the blood samples tirelessly in the laboratory. When Zhuang Long found a pathogen in the blood of the infected person that should not exist in the human blood, Zhuang Long finally understood the cause of the illness.

His expression was a little ugly. He asked Ji Yinbing, "Do you know why this virus doesn't work on men?"

Ji Yinbing was surprised. Why?"

“The carrier of this virus is supposed to be a man himself,” he said through gritted teeth. ‘When the semen of the virus carrier comes in contact with the feminine secretion, the lurking virus explodes.”

Ji Yinbing still did not understand why Zhuang Long’s expression was so ugly.

Zhuang Long’s expression was ugly as he said, “This virus was originally called KT pheromone during the incubation period.” He placed his hands on the testing table as if he had thought of something hateful. His breathing was filled with anger. “This KT pheromone originated from America. Only the soldiers of America have it.”

“When every soldier arrives at the battlefield in America, they will be injected with a drug called Munka. This drug can allow them to die in the shortest time possible when they are unfortunately arrested. This will allow them to be free of torture after being captured and die with dignity.”

“And in this drug called Monca, there is KT serum.”

Hearing his words, Ji Yinbing understood why he was angry.

KTsu would only become a harmful virus when it encountered a woman’s endocrine. As for how the KT, which was supposed to be in the soldier’s body, fused with the endocrine of the woman in America, Ji Yinbing new the reason without thinking.

Someone must have stained a local girl!

The girl was infected by the virus and was gradually spreading it to others!

‘The war between the two countries had already lasted for twenty years. All these years, America had been constantly sending soldiers and weapons to the battlefield of America. And America had been struggling at death’s door, bitterly holding its ground and protecting the country.

Under the ruthless war, the ones who were truly suffering were the innocent citizens.

Because of the twenty-year war, countless people were homeless and became refugees. These refugees committed countless crimes in other countries that took them in.

This was a vicious cycle.

If America did not stop fighting, the other would not stop fighting. The number of refugees would not decrease, and the number of women who were insulted would only increase.

In this world, there were still people who worked hard for survival.

Ji Yinbing took a deep breath and asked Zhuang Long, "Can this virus be cured?"

"Give it your all."

Zhuang Long had invited his mentor, Mr. Gordon Reeves, a renowned expert in virology, to develop an antidote to the virus with him. Gordon Reeves was a truly selfless and noble person who helped Zhuang Long research and development for free.

For half a month, this old man in his sixties stayed in the laboratory and worked non-stop. When he was really tired, he took a nap.

Ji Yinbing was infected by their persistence.

Ji Yinbing stayed by the side and watched them.

Finally, under the cooperation of the strong, the antidote was finally developed.

As soon as the antidote was developed, Zhuang Long brought Ji Yinbing to the international medical research and development agency. They sold the antidote formula to the research and development agency and returned to the country with a portion of the antidote.

The one guarding the city this time was still the soldier from before.

Seeing the two of them return, the soldier thought of a possibility and his tone trembled. "You... succeeded?"

Zhuang Long said, "Fortunately, I didn't disappoint you."

The soldiers were excited and personally brought them into the city. There were fewer and fewer people alive in the city. On the way, there were no dead or rotten people. The soldier explained, "We enter the city regularly every evening to clean up the corpses."

"Yeah."

They turned on the radio in the city and informed all the surviving women to go to the center of X City Hospital for treatment.

Volunteers who heard the news flew over from all over the country.

With the help of the medical volunteers, Ji Yinbing and Zhuang Long treated everyone who came for treatment.

The beautiful woman was here too.

She came alone. When she came, her face was wrapped in a veil. She came alone and did not see the maid.

Ji Yinbing recognized her and asked, "Where's your maid?"

The blonde girl looked sad. She said, "She's dead." The maid had been infected with the virus after Zhuang Long and the others left. She had a high fever for three days. On the fourth day, she howled like a baby and died.

Ji Yinbing said, "Sorry."

"You've saved thousands of people. I should thank you. Don't apologize." The girl's voice was weak too.

The hospital beds were all used up. She sat on the ground to receive treatment. When she sat down, this beautiful girl did not forget to put on a shirt on the ground.

Zhuang Long recognized her too.

He squatted down beside her. He lit the needle. Surprisingly, the girl did not frown this time.

Zhuang Long was surprised. "Not afraid anymore?"

The girl shook her head gently and said, "I think there's nothing more terrifying than living with a dead person for a few days.."

Chapter 554: Proud of You

These words surprised Zhuang Long.

"That maid of yours has already..." Seeing that the girl had lowered her head, Zhuang Long stopped mid-sentence.

He hesitated for a moment before reaching into his pocket. This time, he took out a milk candy and handed it to the girl. He said, "Xiao Hongyi said that if you're sad, you'll feel better after eating a milk candy."

There was a hint of doubt and confusion in the blonde girl's light blue eyes. "Who is Xiao Hongyi?"

Zhuang Long said, "My mother."

The girl nodded.

She took the milk candy, lifted the veil, and brought it to her mouth.

Her taste buds were already numb and she could not taste the real taste of the milk candy.

However, she did feel better.

Zhuang Long took the opportunity to insert the needle into her vein. When the girl lowered her eyes and realized that the needle was ready, she was stunned for a moment. "Look, an injection doesn't actually hurt." Zhuang Long packed his things and stood up to leave.

The girl looked up, her blue eyes following the busy Zhuang Long in the crowd. Her gaze flickered for a long time.

Ji Yinbing and Zhuang Long stayed in Hama City for nearly two months before leaving.

It was already spring when they returned to America.

Although Ji Yinbing had only been in America for half a year, when she returned to this country, she felt a sense of regret that she had not felt for a long time. The two of them left the airport and listened to the familiar speech tone and faces. They felt that it was unreal.

"We're really back." Zhuang Long opened his arms and hugged the sunlight.

Ji Yinbing stood beside him. She imitated Zhuang Long and opened her arms to embrace the sunlight. The sunlight was warm, just like her heart now. She tilted her head and told Zhuang Long, "I realized that saving people is really a very happy thing."

Zhuang Long said that she was silly.

"Let's go home."

"Yeah."

During her time in America, Ji Yinbing did not contact Yan Nuo much. When she returned to her apartment in Boston, Ji Yinbing took a shower and slept soundly.

The next morning, she put on her light and casual spring outfit and took the train to Harvard College to call Yan Nuo.

There were many people on the train in the morning, and many of them were students from the nearby colleges. Ji Yinbing entered the train and held the zipper on her head with one hand while she talked to Yan Nuo on the phone with the other.

She spoke in I Nation language. Her voice was not loud, but Yan Nuo could hear her.

Yan Nuo asked her, "Are you going to school now?"

"Yes, I just entered the train. I should have called you yesterday, but I was too tired and only cared about sleeping."

Yan Nuo's heart ached for her. "It's okay. It's the same if you rest well before contacting me." His heart was already aching for her, but Yan Nuo's tone remained calm and indifferent. This was inborn and could not be changed.

"Master, what are you doing?"

“Me?” Yan Nuo said. “On the plane, I’m going to the Mo Kingdom for a mission.”

Ji Yinbing quickly said, “Then I won’t disturb you anymore. I’ll hang up first.”

Yan Nuo knew that Ji Yinbing was a person who would do as she said. He had not spoken to her for a long time, so how could he bear to let her hang up like this? Yan Nuo quickly said, “Don’t, let’s talk for a while more.”

Hearing the reluctance in Yan Nuo’s tone, Ji Yinbing was a little embarrassed, but she didn’t hang up.

Yan Nuo tried to find something to say. “How’s America?”

“Not good. The war there is intense. Many people have lost their families. There are also many orphans there. No one cares about them.” She sighed and said, “I’ve thought about it. When I return your money in the future, I want to repay the society with the money I earn. The orphans who were affected by the war and lost their families need help.”

Yan Nuo was silent for a moment before saying, “I think your school will be proud to have a student like you.”

Ji Yinbing was even more embarrassed.

Yan Nuo added, “Similarly, I’m proud of you.”

“Master...” Ji Yinbing was a little moved. She suddenly wanted to fly back to India to see her master.

The female broadcaster’s voice sounded from the subway—“We’ve arrived at Harvard Square.”

“I’m here. I have to get out of the car.”

“Then I’ll hang up first. Remember to call me when you’re free.”

“Okay.”

Ji Yinbing hung up the phone and walked out of the train with a large group of students. When she returned to the campus, she was once again the student who was tirelessly studying.

On the other hand, on Yan Nuo’s plane, he hung up the phone and realized that all his subordinates were looking at him with ambiguous gazes.

Yan Nuo coughed. ‘Why are you looking at me? Am I a woman?’

The bold Xiao Fengyi said fearlessly, “Report!”

“Speak!”

“They’re all talking about how Second Chief’s gaze was especially gentle when he was talking to someone on the phone just now! They want to ask, Second Chief, are you in love?”

Everyone respected Xiao Fengyi for being a man and not afraid of death.

Everyone thought that Xiao Fengyi would be scolded by Yan Nuo, but Yan Nuo fell silent.

His silence made Xiao Fengyi feel timid.

Xiao Fengyi was about to sit down when Yan Nuo suddenly said, ‘Yes.’

That light word made everyone’s eyes pop out.

Xiao Fengyi could not stay calm anymore, and all the mercenaries could not.

Aman with a beard named Thomas asked boldly, "Who is it, Second Chief!"

Everyone knew that Yan Nuo and Vera had already broken up. Moreover, Yan Nuo had always been cold and indifferent when he spoke to Vera. Unlike just now, although his expression did not change much, his gaze was extremely dotting.

It was obvious that he had met his true love!

Yan Nuo said, "You'll know soon."

"Tsk!"

The second chief really loved riddles!

In April of this year, an international academic conference was held in New York City.

Many countries sent representative medical masters to attend the seminar. Mr. Goldrives was the most famous master in virology in America. He attended the seminar with his disciple and his new female disciple, Ji Yinbing.

Just a month ago, Ji Yinbing and Zhuang Long returned from America's glory, and Mr. Reeves took Ji Yinbing as his disciple.

So now, Ji Yinbing and Zhuang Long were not only schoolmates and partners, but also senior brothers and sisters.

At the meeting, Zhuang Long and Ji Yinbing replaced Mr. Reeves and went on stage to explain the problem of curing the virus plague that erupted in America a few days ago. The 18-year-old Ji Yinbing was not afraid when she first appeared in public.

She was Zhuang Long's assistant and had to give a speech with him. Throughout the entire time, Ji Yinbing acted naturally.

The seminar lasted for three days. After the seminar, the topic of Ji Yinbing participating in the development of the KT virus antidote was sent back to America.

For a moment, the national newspaper in the I Nation published the news of Ji Yinbing in the largest volume. The title was—Jin Fenghuang from the slums, the new star of the international medical world.

The entire report was positive content. The report used a lot of exaggerated words to brag about Ji Yinbing like a female immortal.

Chapter 555: Return

Yan Nuo took a photo of the news and sent it to the OK group chat.

Ji Yinbing had already joined this group. When she took the time to log into the OK software group, she saw rows of exaggerated smiling emoticons with their hands on their hips.

Suzanne: [You people from the I Nation love to brag. Look at this description. You guys researched and developed in the laboratory for seven consecutive days without eating, drinking, or sleeping... Hahahaha, is Bingbing a robot? She even refused to eat or drink for seven consecutive days!]

Zhuang Long: (Why didn't the report mention me?)

An: [Voice message.]

Ji Yinbing turned on Fang Yusheng's voice message and heard him say: [Their country is so exaggerated. Haven't you seen the reports? People from their country sit on trains, and the cars on the trains are filled with people. So this report isn't strange.]

Ji Yinbing was a little embarrassed.

Their country had a large population, and the railways in some areas were indeed messy and disorderly. It was common for people to squeeze.

However, Fang Yusheng only said this sentence and did not say anything else.

Yan Nuo spoke.

Yan Nuo: "The next time you come back, you'll be famous."

Ji Yinbing: "I'll be back in three months."

Yan Nuo suddenly disappeared from the group.

Ji Yinbing thought that he had something to attend to. She threw down her phone and was about to read when her phone rang.

She picked it up and saw that the caller was the Master.

Ji Yinbing was surprised before answering the call.

"You're coming back?" Yan Nuo went straight to the point.

Ji Yinbing was stunned.

So he suddenly went offline just now because he saw her words and wanted to call her?

“There are still three months.” Ji Yinbing did not know whether to laugh or cry.

Yan Nuo murmured, “Is that so?” She had been gone for a year and was finally coming back. Yan Nuo instantly felt that there was hope. “When are you coming back?”

Ji Yinbing said, “I’m not sure yet.”

“You haven’t bought a ticket yet?”

Ji Yinbing was speechless.

“I won’t be back until three months later. Why are you buying tickets now?”

“You can buy the plane tickets in advance. You can even buy them a year in advance.” Yan Nuo’s tone seemed very calm at first. However, when the words he said were combined with the slightly faster frequency of his words, one could know that his mood was not as calm as his voice.

He was excited!

He was looking forward to her return.

After understanding this, Ji Yinbing’s chest felt hot. An emotion called longing filled her heart.

“I... will book the tickets now.”

“Yeah.”

After the call ended, Ji Yinbing stared at the phone in a daze for a while before laughing involuntarily.

She booked the tickets and thought about it. Then, she took a screenshot of the flight time and sent it to Yan Nuo.

Yan Nuo saw the date of her return clearly. He opened the calendar and counted the time. There were still eighty-seven days before she would return.

The next 87 days were both torture and anticipation for Yan Nuo.

It was said that the new president of the student union of the medical school would be chosen in September. Students who wanted to compete for this position could register and participate.

Under Zhuang Long's instigation, Ji Yinbing got hot-headed and signed up.

There were more than ten days of leave in late July. Ji Yinbing packed her things and returned to I Nation with the gifts she had bought. Naturally, she did not know that she had become a popular candidate for the Student Union President.

Ji Yinbing did not inform anyone that she was coming back.

She did not expect anyone to pick her up.

At the end of the airport passageway stood a large crowd of people waiting to receive the plane. Some of them were looking at the exit, while others were holding up signs with names and waiting quietly. Ji Yinbing carried two large boxes and followed the other passengers out of the passageway.

She had not expected anyone to pick her up. So when she walked straight out of the passage, dragging her suitcase behind her, she cried out in surprise when a pair of strong arms wrapped around her.

Did she meet a hooligan the moment she arrived in I Nation?

Ji Yinbing was furious and was about to hit him when a hard chin suddenly fell on his head.

That person's chin rubbed against the top of her head.

This action was filled with attachment.

While Ji Yinbing was surprised, she also felt relieved.

In this world, there was no hooligan who would do such a thing before committing such a hooligan act. In this country, when she had just arrived at the airport, there was only one person who dared to do such a thing to her and was willing to do it—

Yan Nuo.

A familiar man's voice entered her ears.

"It's me."

It was Yan Nuo's voice.

Ji Yinbing froze for a moment before relaxing.

So he had always remembered the exact time she returned to the country. He had come to pick her up. He... had even hugged her.

In this crowded airport, he broke the worldly standards and threw away the disparity in status, hugging her openly.

Ji Yinbing did not look up.

She was afraid that Yan Nuo would notice her red eyes the moment she looked up.

For a few seconds, Ji Yinbing could not see the floor clearly.

Because her eyes were already blurry.

Yan Nuo hugged her tightly. He had thousands of words in his heart, and his eyes were filled with emotions. However, in the end, he only said emotionally, "Yinbing, you've grown taller."

A year and three months after leaving I Nation, Ji Yinbing was already 18 years old. The legal age of adulthood in I Nation was 18 for the woman and 21 for the man. Ji Yinbing was now an adult.

Many changes had happened to the adult Ji Yinbing. She had grown taller. Last month, she had been tested for height and was already 1.72 meters tall. Other than that, her once flat chest had also swelled. Although it was not a big chest, it was not small.

She thought that her hair was too long and cut it short.

Ji Yinbing's entire aura changed drastically. She was more like a little woman, smiling shyly with an indescribable charm.

A few minutes ago, when Ji Yinbing walked out of the passageway in a simple loose white shirt and black tight pants, wearing a pair of pointy-headed flats, Yan Nuo could not believe that this energetic girl was his little slave.

She had really grown up and become dazzling.

As expected, pearls were pearls. Even though they were covered in dust and blown away by the wind, they were still beautiful and lustrous treasures.

Ji Yinbing nodded and said, "Of course I'll grow taller. I'm 18 this year."

Yan Nuo let go of her.

He strode to Ji Yinbing and turned to face her.

The two of them were sizing each other up.

Ji Yinbing was not the only one who had changed.

Yan Nuo had also changed.

His height had long been fixed, but his black hair had grown a little longer. That was still early on in his handsome face. His expression was still cold and forever covered in a layer of ice.

Yan Nuo must have specially dressed up today. He was wearing a black shirt and pants, and he even solemnly tied a dark red tie around his neck. Ji Yinbing rarely saw Yan Nuo wearing a shirt and tie. When he was training, he usually wore a short-sleeved T-shirt and loose pants. When he was out on a mission, he directly wore a combat uniform. When he was resting at home, he also dressed casually.

It was rare to see him dressed so formally..

Chapter 556: Holding Hands

In Ji Yinbing's memory, Yan Nuo had only dressed like this three times.

'The first time was at the farewell party before he went to West Point Academy to report. The second time was at her school banquet more than a year ago. This was the third time.

Thinking that he was dressed up to see her, Ji Yinbing felt sweet.

She smiled faintly, and her face instantly became bright and lively. "Master's tie is beautiful." Ji Yinbing was not stingy with her praise.

Yan Nuo was clearly in a good mood.

He had specially asked Tong Yan to help him match this tie before they set off. The little slave had already said that it looked good. It seemed that his sister's taste was indeed good.

Yan Nuo asked Ji Yinbing, "Are you going home now?"

"Okay."

Ji Yinbing came back with two suitcases, one of which was especially heavy. When Yan Nuo helped her carry the suitcase, he was a little surprised and asked, "What's inside?"

Ji Yinbing said, "Some books."

She was indeed a genius.

Yan Nuo silently stuffed the luggage into the trunk.

They took a car back to the Yan family.

'The moment they entered the manor, all the servants knelt down to welcome Yan Nuo's return.

In the past, Ji Yinbing had also knelt on the ground to welcome Yan Nuo home. This time, she stood behind Yan Nuo. From kneeling in front of Yan Nuo to being qualified to stand beside him today, Ji Yinbing had worked hard for ten years.

But it was all worth it.

Ji Yinbing looked down at the servants kneeling on both sides and felt sorrow in her heart. However, this was the state of the country. She, Ji Yinbing, could change her fate, but she could not change the fate of others.

Slender and strong man's hand suddenly entered Ji Yinbing's vision.

The hand, palm up, fingers outstretched, looked like it was waiting to be clasped.

Ji Yinbing looked at her wrist and arm that was covered by a black shirt. She looked up and met the gaze of the owner of the hand. Yan Nuo looked at her silently. His gaze seemed calm, but there was nervousness and anticipation.

He gathered his courage and reached out to her. Did she have the courage to hold his hand?

This was not a simple hold.

Yan Nuo was revealing his feelings for Ji Yinbing.

He broke the secular world, ignored the rules, and sent out a loving invitation to this untouchable peasant.

Ji Yinbing's hand that fell by her trouser leg trembled slightly.

After a moment of silence, the girl raised her right hand and placed it in Yan Nuo's palm.

Almost at that moment, Yan Nuo suddenly grabbed Ji Yinbing's hand. He held her hand tightly and wrapped it tightly, not giving Ji Yinbing any chance to regret.

Ji Yinbing frowned and protested softly, 'It hurts a little.'

He said without understanding, "Even if it hurts."

Yan Nuo held Ji Yinbing's hand and walked into the Yan family manor under the complicated gazes of all the servants and Housekeeper Lapp.

Rapp's gaze followed the movements of their hands as they held each other's. He sighed silently.

Yan Nuo held Ji Yinbing's hand and brought her back to the Yan family.

Xiao Fengyi and the rest were not surprised.

The group of people stayed in the canteen and were not in a hurry to return to the dormitory after dinner. They talked about Second Chief's relationship.

The bearded Thomas said, 'I've long realized that Second Chief has an unusual relationship with Bing.'

Xiao Fengyi nodded in agreement. "Me too."

Only Second Chief's loyal fan, Ah Ka, revealed a confused look when he heard this. He asked shamelessly, "How did you discover it? I've never realized it."

Thomas said, "For two years, Ty and I were responsible for training the pups. One morning, the second leader decided to fix the pups, but that morning, only Bing escaped without being punished."

"I admit that Bing is indeed very outstanding, but there are so many outstanding people in the team, and Bing isn't the best. What right does she have to escape punishment?" Thomas winked and laughed out loud. He pretended to cover his chest in exaggeration and wailed, "Because our second leader, a hero, can't get past a beauty!"

"Hahaha!"

Xiao Fengyi also said, 'Don't you guys know that there were surveillance cameras installed on the road to the morning exercise? What Thomas said is true. That morning, I was on duty in the surveillance room. I saw Second Chief driving a motorcycle and killing all the recruits along the way. In the end, when he chased after Bing, the gun was raised and put down repeatedly, but in the end, he didn't shoot it."

Xiao Fengyi smiled mysteriously and said, "Second Chief couldn't even bear to pretend to kill Bing. At that time, I knew that our Second Chief was going to fall."

Ah Ka was stunned.

He asked the two detectives dryly, "Since you've already discovered it, why did you ask who he was dating when Second Chief called on the plane to the Mo Kingdom? Didn't you know?"

Xiao Fengyi and Thomas were stunned.

Unexpectedly, this Ah Ka who had never thought before was enlightened this time.

The two of them were a little awkward.

"We can't say what we think!" Xiao Fengyi had to find an excuse for himself.

Ah Ka cut in. "Bullshit."

'When Vera heard this news, she ran to the shooting range in anger. She raised her gun and shot at the target. It was hard for her to shoot ten times in a row. When Ji Yinbing arrived, Vera was rubbing her sore thumb. When she sensed someone approaching, she looked up.

Seeing Ji Yinbing, her fair face immediately darkened.

“Peasant, what are you doing here?”

Ji Yinbing was wearing tight jeans and a blue denim shirt. Her graceful and slender body was wrapped up very well. She had cut her hair short, and her entire temperament appeared clean and steady. She was clearly only eighteen years old, but when she looked at her, she looked like a sensible adult.

Vera recalled the overwhelming reports on Ji Yinbing on the Internet and newspapers a while ago and felt depressed.

Ji Yinbing was now as tall as Vera.

Two equally beautiful people stood together. One was a winner in life who had beauty but no talent, while the other was a winner in life who had both strength and beauty. The affairs of the world were really unpredictable, and it was in line with the saying, “The wheel of fortune turns thirty years east and thirty years west, don’t bully a young man for being poor.”

When Ji Yinbing faced Vera, she no longer had the fear of being inferior.

Today was different from the past. The lowly Ji Yinbing who had been looked down on had already become a famous rebel in the entire I Nation. As for Vera, who had once obtained the position of the I Nation’s daughter, she had not achieved anything, Her boyfriend was gone, her mother was gone, and she had become a logistician in the Black Fiend Mercenary Group.

No matter how she looked at it, there was nothing about Vera that made Ji Yinbing feel inferior.

Instead, she became the person that all the women in the country admired and yearned for..

Chapter 557: A Battle Between Two Women

“Don’t tell me you really think that you can get together with Yan Nuo just because you got into Harvard? Don’t forget that you’re still a slut. A peasant is not qualified to marry him.”

Ji Yinbing did not plan to argue with Vera about being called a lowly commoner, but she did not like what Vera said after that. Ji Yinbing picked up a gun and held it with both hands. From the way she stood, it was obvious that she had really practiced.

Ji Yinbing wore glasses and looked at the target that Weila had shot. She realized that she had shot ten times, but she had only been shot twice. One hit the third ring, and the other hit the fifth ring. These two rings might have been a result of luck.

Ji Yinbing suddenly said, “Let’s have a match. If I win, you have to apologize for what you said just now.”

Vera said, “You don’t have the right.”

“You’re afraid of losing.” Ji Yinbing wasn’t trying to provoke her. She was just stating the truth.

Vera’s breathing stopped.

She picked up the gun and said, “Fine, let’s compete!”

A brainless person could not be provoked.

The Black Fiend Mercenary Group was rich and imposing. They used real guns to practice shooting.

The recoil of the gun was very strong. Vera had shot ten times in a row, and her hand and arm were still in pain. To be fair, Ji Yinbing shot ten times first.

After ten shots, she lowered the pistol and rubbed her right arm.

A moment later, she tilted her head and said to Vera, "It's done."

Vera gritted her teeth and started loading the bullet.

The two of them loaded their pistols at the same time. The pistol in their hands could carry 14 rounds in total.

They aimed at the target and fired at the same time.

The two shots alarmed everyone in the training team. It was not time for the team to practice shooting. Who was practicing shooting privately? Xiao Fengyi and the rest immediately stopped what they were doing and drove their motorcycles to the shooting range.

At the same time, Yan Nuo, who was waiting for Ji Yinbing to come back for dinner, also heard the gunshot.

He pondered for a moment, picked up his motorcycle keys, and drove to the training ground.

Vera pulled the trigger and planned to take a break before shooting a second time.

She was about to lower her arm when another deafening gunshot sounded beside her. She turned her head in surprise and saw Ji Yinbing continue to shoot calmly.

Bang bang bang bang.

Ji Yinbing did not stop for ten shots.

The young lady put down his gun and turned around, staring at Vera coldly. Ji Yinbing said, "Let me know when you're done. I'll go sit aside and rest for a while." With that, Ji Yinbing walked to a small rock and sat down.

Vera :".."

She deeply understood what humiliation was.

Vera had to bite the bullet and continue shooting the remaining nine shots.

'When Vera finished her last shot, Xiao Fengyi, Yan Nuo, and the rest arrived. Following them was a group of mercenaries who had just joined the team.

These people all knew the beautiful Vera from the logistics department, but they didn't know Ji Yinbing.

'When Xiao Fengyi saw Ji Yinbing and Vera, she knew that this was a battle between women.

'When Yan Nuo arrived, Thomas and the rest looked at him sympathetically.

Poor Second Chief. When his new love met the old, there was a fire in the backyard!

Yan Nuo walked over with a sullen expression. He glanced at Ji Yinbing, who was sitting on the stone calmly, and then at Vera, who was kneading her arm non-stop. "What happened!" His tone was cold.

The Black Fiend Mercenary Group had rules. If they wanted to compete in shooting skills, they had to ask their superiors.

But these two people viewed discipline as nothing.

If not for the fact that one of the offenders was the woman he liked, he would have punished these two people long ago.

Seeing that Yan Nuo was angry, Vera bit her lip and her eyes turned red. She pointed her left index finger at Ji Yinbing and complained pitifully, "It was her main request. She wanted to compete with me!"

The pot was pushed clean.

Yan Nuo's disapproving gaze landed on Ji Yinbing.

Ji Yinbing stood up.

Yan Nuo asked her, "Ji Yinbing, is what she said true?"

Ji Yinbing said loudly, "Yes!" A real woman dared to take responsibility for her actions.

Yan Nuo was furious.

She had done something wrong, yet she was still so righteous.

"You entered the shooting range without permission. Do you know your mistake?"

Ji Yinbing raised her eyebrows and said, "No."

Yan Nuo was really angry now.

"Ji Yinbing, let me ask you again. Do you know your mistake?!"

Thomas and Xiao Fengyi were sweating profusely. Were these two going to fight?

Ji Yinbing did not answer Yan Nuo's question and instead asked him a question. She asked, "My boyfriend's ex-lover came to provoke me. I accepted it. Is that wrong?"

The word "my boyfriend" stunned Yan Nuo.

Then, he was overjoyed.

'When Yan Nuo spoke again, he stammered, "How... how did she provoke you?"

Ji Yinbing told Yan Nuo everything that Vera had said.

After saying that, she saw that Yan Nuo was already angry and was satisfied. She said, "To prove that I, a lowly commoner, can completely overcome her...." Ji Yinbing glanced at Vera in disdain and continued, "A noble and beautiful lady. "

The words "noble and beautiful lady" came out of Ji Yinbing's mouth with mockery and disdain.

Everyone present could tell.

"In order to prove that a lowly person like me is qualified to be with you, I've declared war on her!" Ji Yinbing's voice was very loud as she said this.

Her frankness made the mercenaries applaud her.

Vera did not expect Ji Yinbing to be so arrogant. She stole a glance at Yan Nuo and realized that Yan Nuo was not angry. Instead, he looked troubled. She scolded in her heart, "Beauty causes one to lose their mind and cause trouble!"

Ji Yinbing's words were arrogant and lawless, but Yan Nuo was not angry at her.

“Second Chief, your girlfriend was bullied by someone. Your girlfriend didn’t ask you to help her vent her anger, but chose to vent her anger herself. Is this also wrong?” Ji Yinbing stared at Yan Nuo with a burning gaze. His words made him speechless.

Yan Nuo was in a difficult position.

Since he was the leader, the leader should do things according to the rules. But at the same time, he was Ji Yinbing’s boyfriend. Although Ji Yinbing had not agreed to his confession seriously, what Ji Yinbing said just now had indirectly admitted their relationship.

Yan Nuo had a headache.

At this moment, Xiao Fengyi spoke. “Second Chief, this competition has already ended. Why don’t we see their results first? As for the punishment, it’s not too late to talk about it later.”

Yan Nuo walked down the stairs.

“Okay.”

Thomas ran over to get two shooters.

He held a bullseye in one hand and said to Yan Nuo, “Second Chief, this on my left is Vera’s, and this on my right is Bing’s..”

Chapter 558: Complete abuse

Yan Nuo’s gaze landed on Ji Yinbing’s target.

Yan Nuo took a look and frowned.

Vera only hit three rings. The best one was six rings, and the worst one hit the target. The remaining seven rings were probably up in the sky.

Ji Yinbing shot ten rings six times, nine rings four, and two rings once.

Wait.

Yan Nuo suddenly asked Ji Yinbing, "Why did you get hit by eleven rings on your target?"

Ji Yinbing was stunned.

After a short daze, Ji Yinbing looked at Vera playfully.

At this moment, Vera's face was red.

'What else did the others not understand?

It was this noble and beautiful lady who shot her bullet into Ji Yinbing's target.

This.

Ji Yinbing stared at the bullet hole on her target and said in an unconcealed voice, "Trash."

Everyone knew who she was referring to.

Vera's expression changed. "Who are you calling trash!" She rushed up to hit Ji Yinbing.

Ji Yinbing replied, "Whoever rushes over is trash."

Just as she was about to fight with Vera to vent her anger, Yan Nuo suddenly stretched out his hand. His strong fingers grabbed Vera's shoulder, who was rushing at Ji Yinbing angrily. His grip was very strong, and she couldn't struggle free from his grip.

"Yan Nuo! Let go of me!" Vera turned around angrily and glared at Yan Nuo.

Yan Nuo said coldly, "Don't forget, I'm your leader here."

Vera bit her lip and remained silent.

Yan Nuo added, "The woman you want to hit is someone I like. If you want to hit her, you have to beat me first."

Vera scolded him for being a jerk.

Yan Nuo allowed her to scold him.

"Everyone, disperse."

Everyone dispersed.

Only Yan Nuo, Ji Yinbing, and the aggrieved Vera were left in the venue. Ji Yinbing walked to Yan Nuo's side and said to Weila, "Putting aside your superior surname, you can't compare to me at all."

"Whether it's in terms of personal ability or the weight in Master's heart, you're not my match."

'When Ji Yinbing spoke, she seemed extremely confident.

Yan Nuo stared at this little girl in disbelief.

In just a year, the once obedient slave had become so fierce.

Was the American hamburger really that nutritious?

Vera glared at Ji Yinbing unwillingly. She wanted to say something, but she realized that she had nothing to say.

“Now, it’s your turn to apologize.” Ji Yinbing did not forget their agreement before the match.

Vera looked at Ji Yinbing, then at Yan Nuo. In the end, she scolded angrily, “You two will never be happy!” She turned around and ran. To be precise, she ran as she cried.

Ji Yinbing stared at her fleeing back with disdain.

A hand suddenly came to her head.

Ji Yinbing looked up at the owner of her hand and said, “Are you blaming me?”

Yan Nuo shook his head.

A fleeting smile appeared on his face.

“Yinbing.”

Ji Yinbing nodded.

Yan Nuo said, “I’m very happy.”

Ji Yinbing was surprised and did not ask him what he was happy about. She only looked up at him silently. Yan Nuo did not explain either. He turned around and walked towards the direction where his motorcycle stopped. Ji Yinbing followed closely behind. They returned to the manor on the same motorcycle.

Ji Yinbing arrived in I Country in the morning. After lunch, she didn’t take a lunch break and went to fight with Vera.

‘When they returned home, they were all drenched in sweat.

The weather here was hot. It was already summer, so it was even hotter.

“I have to take a shower,” Ji Yinbing said.

“Let’s go together.”

Yan Nuo’s original intention was that he wanted to take a shower too. Both of them had to go back to their rooms to take a shower and could go upstairs together. He pulled Ji Yinbing towards the elevator, but when Ji Yinbing saw him holding her hand and saying that they would shower together, she could not help but think otherwise.

She rejected hesitantly, “Master, this... this is not good. If we’re together, let’s do it in the future.”

Yan Nuo suddenly stopped in his tracks.

Ji Yinbing almost bumped into his shoulder.

'The man in front turned around and looked at Ji Yinbing with a complicated gaze.

Ji Yinbing was confused and felt a little embarrassed.

Yan Nuo followed her thoughts and asked, "Then when do you think it's better to shower together?"

"Let... Let's wait for another two years." No matter what, she had to be twenty years old before she could talk.

Yan Nuo's eyes were filled with smiles.

"Okay."

He agreed with a smile.

Ji Yinbing heaved a sigh of relief.

This was the first time she took the elevator upstairs. It felt quite new.

Standing in the elevator, she looked around and realized that this elevator was not much different from ordinary elevators. She could not help but be disappointed.

"What are you thinking about?" Yan Nuo asked.

Ji Yinbing said, "I thought that the elevator you're in must be embedded with gold and diamonds."

Yan Nuo was speechless.

“You like that?”

“I don’t like it.”

“Oh.”

They reached the third floor.

Ji Yinbing was about to return to her room when Yan Nuo said, “You moved your room next to mine.” The room was too small in the past and could not fit her things.

Ji Yinbing had no objections.

She took a shower and was unknowingly a little tired.

Ji Yinbing fell asleep immediately after lying down. She forgot to turn on the air conditioner and was drenched in sweat from the heat. However, she was really tired and would rather be hot than wake up to turn on the air conditioner.

Yan Nuo didn’t know that she was sleeping. He wanted to ask her if she wanted to go out to play tonight. In the end, he pushed open the door and entered. He saw Ji Yinbing in her nightgown, lying on the bed without a blanket.

Ji Yinbing’s long legs were crossed.

Yan Nuo’s gaze slid across Ji Yinbing’s fair legs. He quickly covered her body with the thin blanket. When he got closer, he realized that she was covered in sweat. Even the clothes on her back were drenched.

How tired was she?

Yan Nuo turned on the air conditioner for her.

Gradually, the room turned cold. Ji Yinbing slept until 3: 30 pm.

She realized that the air conditioner was on and knew that Yan Nuo had been here.

After changing into a cool dress, Ji Yinbing knocked on Yan Nuo's door.

Yan Nuo opened the door and his eyes lit up when he saw Ji Yinbing.

Ji Yinbing was wearing a sleeveless neck shirt with black and white stripes. She was wearing a high-waisted denim skirt, and the skirt was slightly above her knees with a slit, revealing a pair of well-proportioned and slender calves. At her feet was a pair of red strappy high heels.

Her cool and fashionable outfit was especially suitable for her with short hair.

Yan Nuo regained his senses and asked, "Are you going out?"

"Yes." Ji Yinbing asked him expectantly, "Master, can you accompany me to a place?"

"Sure."

They drove out of the city and arrived at the grassy slope in the suburbs. They found the oak tree. The first time Ji Yinbing came out to play with Yan Nuo was here. The first time she ate a hamburger was also here. She had a different kind of feelings for this place.

'When they arrived, the sun had started to set and it was no longer as hot.

Yan Nuo lay facing the sky while Ji Yinbing knelt beside him and played with a leaf.

"Master."

Yan Nuo opened his eyes and looked at her quietly.

Ji Yinbing bent down and covered one of Yan Nuo's eyes with the leaf in her hand.

One of Yan Nuo's eyes was covered, and the other was open. The eye that was open was blue, and inside it was a reflection of the blue sky, white clouds, and oaks. And her.

Ji Yinbing lowered her head and leaned her cheek closer to Yan Nuo's head.

Yan Nuo's breathing was a little fast. He heard Ji Yinbing say, "Master, I like you.."

Chapter 559: Call Me by My Name

"Master, I like you."

Those light words were like a feather blown by the wind as they slid across Yan Nuo's heart.

In an instant, his entire body trembled. However, Yan Nuo hid his emotions very well, so Ji Yinbing did not notice the hidden emotions and excitement flickering in the depths of his eyes.

Ji Yinbing was still a little nervous. This confession was more than a year late. She did not know if Yan Nuo would like it.

Ji Yinbing cheered herself up in her heart and said, "I like you very much and have always liked you very much. In the past, I didn't have the right to say this to you. Now, I don't think I'm a nobody either. Perhaps I have the right to be Master's girlfriend?"

Yan Nuo did not reply.

He only narrowed his eyes and looked at Ji Yinbing's short hair and beautiful face under the sunset.

Ji Yinbing was extremely nervous from his gaze.

"Master, what's your answer?" At this moment, Ji Yinbing finally understood how Yan Nuo had confessed to her last time. She had deliberately kept him from answering.

It was really a roller coaster ride. It was fashionable and unrestrained.

Yan Nuo suddenly said, "Call me by my name."

Ji Yinbing's gaze froze. "What?"

"T said, call my name," Yan Nuo repeated.

Ji Yinbing opened her mouth, but she couldn't say those words.

She said, "That's offensive."

Yan Nuo said, "You don't even have the courage to call me by my name. How can you love me?"

These words woke Ji Yinbing up.

she mustered her courage and her lips quivered for a moment before she softly called out, "Yan, Yan Nuo." Her voice was cold as she called Yan Nuo's name. This was the first time Yan Nuo heard his name coming out of Ji Yinbing's mouth and it was a little novel.

He sounded like a drug addict. He was addicted to hearing her voice. He said, "Say it again."

"Yan Nuo."

Every time Ji Yinbing called his name, her voice was especially pleasant to the ears.

As she loved the owner of this name, her tone was filled with love when she mentioned it.

Yan Nuo suddenly smiled.

He closed his eyes and pressed his hands under his head. He closed his eyes and said to Ji Yinbing, "Continue shouting."

He treated the sound of her calling his name as a gentle lullaby, wanting to fall asleep with this clear voice. Just like a baby who liked to listen to his mother's humming and fall asleep.

"Yan Nuo."

"Yan Nuo."

"Yan Nuo..."

Ji Yinbing shouted over and over again. When she realized that Yan Nuo had fallen asleep, she shut her mouth. Ji Yinbing looked around and saw that there was no one around, so she moved her knees sneakily to Yan Nuo's side. She opened her legs and lay down gently beside Yan Nuo.

She closed her eyes like Yan Nuo.

The sunlight bathed them. The mottled sunset shone from afar, and the wind blew the leaves of the oak trees.

Hearing the rustling of the leaves, Ji Yinbing was also sleepy.

At this moment, the man beside her suddenly moved.

Ji Yinbing was about to open her eyes when her body was pulled into a warm and strong chest by a long arm.

Yan Nuo hugged her tightly.

They were very close to each other, and Ji Yinbing could hear Yan Nuo's energetic heartbeat.

She did not dare to move.

After a while, Ji Yinbing secretly raised her head to look at Yan Nuo. Yan Nuo's eyes were still closed, but his cold lips had curled up.

Their hearts were connected. Ji Yinbing also pretended to be asleep and remained motionless in his arms.

Ji Yinbing was originally pretending to be asleep. Perhaps it was because the breeze was just right, but she really fell asleep.

'When she opened her eyes again, the sky was already dark. Her surroundings were dark, but she could see the night view of Meng City in the distance. Ji Yinbing narrowed her eyes at the night view for a while. At this moment, Yan Nuo's voice sounded in her ear. "Get up. My hands are a little numb."

Those who said that hugging and sleeping for a night was very romantic might be single people who had never been hugged for an entire night.

In fact, although the person who had been hugging someone to sleep was comfortable, the person who was hugging someone had numb hands.

Ji Yinbing got up with a red face.

She felt a little embarrassed. She wanted to apologize, but she felt that it was unnecessary.

She wasn't the one who begged Yan Nuo to carry her.

Yan Nuo rubbed his arms and said, "It's dark. Are we going back after dinner?"

Ji Yinbing agreed.

They both stood up and walked down the slope.

The slanted grassland was not flat. Ji Yinbing was wearing high heels, so it was a little inconvenient for her to walk at night. Yan Nuo suddenly lowered his head and bent his back in front of her.

Ji Yinbing was stunned.

Yan Nuo felt that her gaze was bad and needed his reminder. "Come up."

Ji Yinbing bit her lip and hesitated for a moment before saying, "Is this good?"

"It's necessary to hold your hand, carry you, and sleep with you." Yan Nuo turned around and asked her, "Are we going to have a pure relationship like this for the rest of our lives?"

Ji Yinbing blushed even more at the word 'sleep with you'.

She thought about it and felt that Yan Nuo's words were indeed true.

She jumped onto Yan Nuo's back.

As they went down the slope, Ji Yinbing said to Yan Nuo, "I feel like I'm dreaming."

Just as she finished speaking, her butt was suddenly slapped.

Ji Yinbing exclaimed.

Yan Nuo asked, "Will I smack your butt in the dream too?"

Ji Yinbing lost her temper.

Yan Nuo continued walking forward. At this moment, he heard Ji Yinbing bury her head between his neck and shoulder. She said in a low voice, "You've never moved in your dreams. It's only me kissing you."

Yan Nuo's expression froze for nearly half a minute.

After a moment of shock, Yan Nuo accepted the fact that Ji Yinbing was a little flirtatious.

He said softly, "I can't tell. Your thoughts are quite unhealthy."

Ji Yinbing was too embarrassed to speak.

She would fantasize about him in her dreams, she would abuse Vera on the training ground, and she would blush at him. This Ji Yinbing was more realistic and lively, but Yan Nuo liked her more. As Yan Nuo walked towards the car, he thought that perhaps this was how love should be.

'When two people who were truly in love were together, the topic of conversation was not necessarily about growing old together hand in hand. Their lives were not all about romance. They would snatch toothbrushes in the bathroom with eye shit in their slippers. They would start arguing as they chatted.

They would argue, have sex, and say obscene words. They would also give up their lives for each other without hesitation in times of danger.

Yan Nuo suddenly felt an interest in love.

Unlike before, when he was with Vera, that was not called dating. It was called suffering.

He thanked himself for bringing the skinny little slave home ten years ago.

The two of them ate dinner before going home.

Yan Shu had just returned from overseas and was still wearing loose casual clothes. She was sitting at the table eating and was surprised to see them return holding hands.

“Oh, they’re messing around together?”

Sister Yan was beautiful, but her words were vulgar..

Chapter 560: Follow

Yan Nuo nodded, and Ji Yinbing blushed before calling her master obediently.

However, she said, “If you marry a chicken, follow the chicken; if you marry a dog, follow the dog. You have to be like Yan Nuo and call me Sister.”

Ji Yinbing called her sister under Yan Nuo’s encouraging gaze.

Just as she finished calling her sister, a black object was thrown at Ji Yinbing, Ji Yinbing quickly reached out and accurately grabbed the object. She opened her palm and saw that it was a bank card.

She said, “This is the change in benefits for the change in name. Buy whatever you want.” She felt that giving gifts might not necessarily give her the right thoughts. It was only considerate to give money.

Ji Yinbing did not know whether to laugh or cry. She was about to say that there was no need, but she was glared at and fell silent.

Yan Yu then said to Yan Nuo, "Bring someone to K Nation tomorrow."

Yan Nuo and Ji Yinbing walked towards the dining room at the same time.

Yan Nuo asked Yu Yan, "What happened?"

"Our business has been good recently. Old Wolf, Thomas, and the rest have their own missions. I have to bring people to the Congo later. You know, there's a civil war over there. A diplomat from Y Nation was kidnapped. Our business is here."

"Then what's going on with North Korea?"

"A top female celebrity from Korea was kidnapped by agents from Norther K Nation. Recently, those two places haven't been peaceful. This female celebrity is also unlucky. She happened to bump into a gun and became a lamb waiting to be slaughtered. Bring someone to K Nation to save the female celebrity and send her to Korea safely."

“Information.”

Yan Nuo said, “I’ll pass the information to you later. This time, bring Ah Ka to the North K Nation. I want to bring Xiao Fengyi to the Congo.”

“Sure.”

Yan Nuo and Ji Yinbing went upstairs together. Ji Yinbing returned to her room to wash up. Yan Nuo took a battle shower and opened his Ipad to receive the information from Yan Yinbing.

This female celebrity looked especially exquisite, but Yan Nuo felt that all the female celebrities in that country looked the same.

He especially admired those little fans. How did they differentiate their idols from the same faces?

Yan Nuo read the message.

In short, the kidnapped female celebrity was called Han Suzhu. She was a top movie star in Korea and was quite popular in Country K. Yan Nuo went online to check on this woman. Her profile card said that she was a superstar in Asia.

Yan Nuo stared at her face and fell silent.

This appearance really agreed with that sentence—

“She looks as exquisite as if she were carved from a knife.”

After turning off the iPad, Yan Nuo sent the news of his mission to Ah Ka tomorrow and fell asleep.

Before sleeping, he thought of Ji Yinbing’s confession today and his lips curled up slightly.

That night, Yan Yu brought Xiao Fengyi to the Congo.

The next morning, Yan Nuo arrived at the mercenary dormitory. All the mercenaries who had been called were ready.

Among the group of men, there were two women.

‘One was the maid, Mary, and the other was the support staff, Vera.

In the past year, Vera had also gone on a few missions with them. She was a coward and did not dare to shoot, but her logistics work was very good. Perhaps she really wanted to work in the mercenary team for a long time, but this year, she had learned a lot of first aid treatment from Dr. Moore.

With her around, there would be people who were injured.

A group of people took a car to the private plane. There were two private planes parked there. When Yan Nuo jumped out of the car and saw Ji Yinbing, who was wearing a combat uniform and carrying a big bag, standing under the plane, he instantly frowned.

“What are you doing here!” Yan Nuo’s expression turned malicious and his tone became stern.

Ji Yinbing did not go against Yan Nuo this time.

She walked to Yan Nuo’s side and said, “I’m worried about you.”

Yan Nuo’s anger was easily appeased by Ji Yinbing.

He pulled Ji Yinbing’s arm and brought her to the empty space. He whispered to Ji Yinbing, “Be good and go back! We’re going to save people and fight a war, not to travel.”

Ji Yinbing shook her head and refused to go back.

“I’m here, so I won’t leave. Either you take me there, or I’ll take the plane myself.”

Yan Nuo glared at him.

Ji Yinbing was not afraid of death and said, “My skills are not bad. At least, not worse than that Vera.”

“This is not the time to compete!”

“I’m not competing with her. I just want to go with you! I know kung fu and medical skills. What’s wrong with letting me follow you! If even Vera can go with you, I can go too!” Ji Yinbing did not tell Yan Nuo that her heart had been beating wildly since she woke up in the morning.

She did not know what was wrong. She was worried about Yan Nuo.

“Yan Nuo.”

She was calling his name again!

Yan Nuo felt a little helpless.

Knowing that he liked to hear her call him that, Ji Yinbing deliberately called him that, right?

Yan Nuo sighed. "I just can't bear to bring you to such a dangerous place."

"But I can't bear to let you go into danger alone."

In the end, Yan Nuo still couldn't persuade Ji Yinbing.

Ji Yinbing was allowed onto the plane by Yan Nuo.

After getting on the plane, Vera and Mary sat together. The other men found seats and sat down.

Yan Nuo had his own cubicle, while Ji Yinbing stayed with him.

Vera looked at the closed door and the disgusting scene of Yan Nuo and Ji Yinbing having sex uncontrollably flashed across her mind. She gritted her teeth and scolded the adulterous couple.

The two people in the room did not do anything indecent.

Yan Nuo didn't want to talk to Ji Yinbing at all.

The moment he sat down, he leaned against the soft chair and pretended to sleep. It was actually not comfortable to sit on the plane, and Yan Nuo could not sleep either. He just did not want to see Ji Yinbing, so he could only pretend to be sleeping, Ji Yinbing also knew that she had angered Yan Nuo, so she sat down beside Yan Nuo and read for a while.

Country I was a long distance away from Northern K Nation. It was impossible to reach it in a short time.

Ji Yinbing read for more than an hour and started to feel sleepy.

After confessing to Yan Nuo yesterday afternoon, Ji Yinbing had not been sleeping well last night. She covered her face with a book and fell asleep a moment later.

Yan Nuo felt a weight on his shoulder.

He looked down and met a dark head.

Yan Nuo did not know whether to laugh or cry. He was still sulking when this person fell asleep.

He had been angry for nothing. Yan Nuo's anger subsided completely because of Ji Yinbing.

Yan Nuo adjusted Ji Yinbing's posture and made sure that she could rest well. Her body did not move at all, like a pine tree that remained motionless under a storm. At noon, Vera and the servant pushed open the cabin door. When they saw the two heads leaning together, she was even angrier.

"Brother Yan Nuo, it's time for lunch."

Vera took two sets of set meals and was about to pass them to Yan Nuo when Yan Nuo raised his fingers and placed them on his lips. He gently shushed her, as if he was blaming Vera for being insensible and afraid that she would wake Ji Yinbing up.

Vera's eyes turned red and she wanted to cry.

She threw down the two lunch boxes and turned to leave..
