

Ex's Brother 571

Chapter 571: Opening the Door with a Kitchen Knife

Ji Yinbing was stunned. "Why?" It was not easy for her to take a break. She also wanted to go back and see her boyfriend, alright.

Yan Nuo sensed that she was feeling down and did not explain. He only said, "You don't have to come back."

Yan Nuo hung up.

Ji Yinbing looked at the beeping phone with a long face.

Why didn't he let her go back?

Ji Yinbing inevitably thought too much. Was Yan Nuo afraid that if she went back, the two of them staying together would affect his status? Or had his heart changed?

Ji Yinbing thought hard but could not think of a reason.

She decided not to think about Yan Nuo.

The holidays were not short. She was not in a hurry to do her homework. Zhuang Long had recently started wandering around again, and he did not need her support for any experiments. She had nothing to do, so she ran to see a NBA match the next day, and on the third day, she spent the entire day in Boston Park.

On the fourth day, she did not go out because it was snowing.

Ji Yinbing stayed alone at home. The snow was falling heavily, and the branches outside the door were covered in snow.

She turned on her computer to write her thesis and sat cross-legged on the bay window.

There was a thick fluffy blanket on the bay window. She was wearing thick socks and thick pajamas when she suddenly heard the sound of a branch breaking from the snow outside the window. Ji Yinbing put down her notebook and pushed open the window to see the branch fall to the ground.

She walked out of the apartment with a shovel. She picked up the tree branch and threw it in the bin. Then, she shoveled the snow away from the door.

After settling everything, Ji Yinbing was hungry.

She returned home and prepared to cook a bowl of plain noodles.

She was a culinary idiot.

Cooking was a simple matter for her. She poured water into the pot, threw the noodles in after the water boiled, and then added two eggs, a few small vegetables, a little oil, and... a suitable amount of salt. Just as Ji Yinbing poured the cooked noodles into a big bowl, she heard the doorbell ring.

She frowned and walked to the door, not opening it.

She didn't buy anything online. Zhuang Long wasn't in Boston today, and she didn't have any good friends. Then, who was outside the door?

Ji Yinbing stood behind the door and asked the person outside, "Who's outside?"

There was silence outside the door.

She thought about it, ran back to her room, picked up a kitchen knife, and returned to the door.

The doorbell rang again.

Ji Yinbing saw darkness through the peephole.

The person outside was very tall.

She cautiously opened the door a crack. The anti-theft chain was not broken. Through this crack, Ji Yinbing looked out. When she saw the tall man outside, the doubts in Ji Yinbing's eyes were all replaced by surprise.

She came back to her senses and quickly took off the anti-theft chain.

Yan Nuo looked down at her. There was a cold aura around him. Yan Nuo spoke, and his voice was no longer cold. "It's me." His uneasy tone revealed a long-lost longing.

Ji Yinbing opened the door and wanted to hug him. When she reached out, she realized that she was holding a kitchen knife.

Yan Nuo stared at the knife in her hand with a complicated expression.

Ji Yinbing hid the kitchen knife behind her back like a child who had done something wrong. She said softly, "This knife was not prepared for you. I thought..." Seeing the teasing look in Yan Nuo's eyes, Ji Yinbing gradually fell silent.

Yan Nuo smiled.

His soft laughter was like a cat's paw patting Ji Yinbing's heart.

She felt her bones tingle.

"Very good." Yan Nuo walked into the house and touched her short hair with a relieved expression. "It's a good thing to have preventive awareness."

He reached out to take the kitchen knife from Ji Yinbing's hand and entered the kitchen with it. As he walked, he said, "However, you shouldn't have taken the knife when you welcomed me."

He walked out of the kitchen and hugged Ji Yinbing. He pinched her chin with his right hand and said, "You have to kiss me." After saying that, Yan Nuo lowered his head and kissed Ji Yinbing.

Afraid that she might lose her chastity tonight, Ji Yinbing quickly pushed Yan Nuo away and begged, "Don't, I'm still young."

Yan Nuo was speechless.

Yan Nuo let go of her reluctantly.

Ji Yinbing turned around and ran to the kitchen like a frightened rabbit. She muttered, "I haven't eaten yet." She picked up her chopsticks and was about to eat noodles when Yan Nuo walked in and snatched the bowl and chopsticks from her hand.

He frowned at the indescribable bowl of noodles and said, "Is this for humans?" With that, he facepalmed.

He finished the bowl of noodles with a few bites. When he finished eating, he saw Ji Yinbing looking at the noodles in the bowl. His expression froze and he said, "I was only going to eat one bite..."

Ji Yinbing did not know whether to laugh or cry.

“Forget it. Ill start cooking again.”

Hence, Ji Yinbing cooked more noodles. Yan Nuo stood at the entrance of the kitchen and watched her cook the noodles.

America was a surely a place for people to grow up. It had only been half a year since they last met, and his little slave was even prettier. Yan Nuo’s gaze swept across Ji Yinbing’s body. Ji Yinbing noticed it and felt embarrassed. It was as if Yan Nuo had seen everything.

“Y-You... stop looking at me.” Ji Yinbing looked at the boiling water and did not dare to turn around.

“Why?” When he said the first word, he was still standing at the kitchen door. When he said the last word, he had already arrived behind Ji Yinbing.

Ji Yinbing said softly, “I’m afraid I won’t be able to withstand your temptation.”

Yan Nuo’s heart melted.

He turned around swiftly and strode to the bathroom.

This time, he stayed in the bathroom for a long time. When he came out, Ji Yinbing had already finished eating her noodles. The door to the master bedroom was open. Yan Nuo walked to the master bedroom and saw Ji Yinbing helping him lay the bed sheets.

Yan Nuo stood outside the door and watched silently..

Chapter 572: You Have the Right to Be Unbridled

'When Ji Yinbing was done, she turned around and saw Yan Nuo. She said, "The pure black bed sheets are the ones you used before. I've washed them. Do you think it's okay?"

Yan Nuo glanced at the pure black bed sheets and blanket. He thought to himself, "She must look even more seductive lying on the black bedsheets."

Ji Yinbing saw Yan Nuo's throat move up and down a few times.

'What was he thinking?

"Sure." Yan Nuo's voice was a little hoarse.

Ji Yinbing walked over and tiptoed to touch Yan Nuo's forehead. Yan Nuo was confused. "What's wrong?"

"Your voice is hoarse. Do you have a cold?"

Yan Nuo looked at her meaningfully and shook his head. "I'm fine."

"Then rest early. I'm going back to my room."

Ji Yinbing brushed past him and before she could turn around, Yan Nuo pulled her into his arms. "Sleep with me."

Sleep. The word itself was pure.

But there were thousands of ways to sleep together.

Ji Yinbing did not know what kind of sleep Yan Nuo was referring to, so she hesitated.

Yan Nuo could tell that she was worried and could not help but laugh. “Don’t worry, I won’t do anything to you.”

The person Ji Yinbing trusted the most was Yan Nuo.

If he said he wouldn’t touch her, then he wouldn’t. Hence, Ji Yinbing slept with Yan Nuo that night.

How could two youngsters in love sleep together normally? They could not do what a couple should do while lying in bed. They could only awkwardly chat. Even if they did not talk, they had to find something to talk about.

Ji Yinbing said, “The snow is really heavy today.”

Yan Nuo said, “Yes. I was in a car accident on the way here.”

Ji Yinbing said again, “Is it serious?”

“It wasn’t all that bad. The cars drove slowly and one of the cars hit a car bumper. There are no casualties.”

“OK

This was a very stupid topic. They chatted awkwardly for a while before they were speechless. Yan Nuo turned sideways and looked at Ji Yinbing. He said again, “Are you angry?”

“What?”

“You bought a plane ticket. I told you to return it.”

“How could I not be angry when you didn’t give me a reason and just asked me to refund my ticket?” Ji Yinbing still felt uncomfortable when she thought about what happened that day. “You decided to come to America to see me from the start. You could have told me clearly but your random words made my thoughts run wild.”

Yan Nuo immediately said, “I want to give you a surprise.” After a pause, he added thoughtfully, “It’ll be a better surprise if it’s kept secret.”

Ji Yinbing could not help but complain, “Is there a misunderstanding with your definition of surprise?”

Yan Nuo fell silent.

“Alright, it’s my fault. I should explain clearly.” Yan Nuo thought about it from another angle and felt that he was quite a bastard.

Hearing his apology, Ji Yinbing was no longer angry.

“I don’t blame you.”

There was silence in the room before Ji Yinbing’s voice sounded again. “When are you going back?”

“When do you want me to go back?”

Ji Yinbing hid her true response in her heart and said sensibly, “I respect your decision.”

“Yinbing.”

“pm?”

“As my girlfriend, you have the right to be impudent.” Yan Nuo’s right hand landed on Ji Yinbing’s face. The fingers of his big fingers gently rubbed Ji Yinbing’s face. He stared at her face and said, “You can be willful and ask me to stay for a longer time. This is your right.”

Ji Yinbing’s gaze shifted. She said, “I want to spend Christmas with you.”

Yan Nuo did not answer.

Ji Yinbing was a little disappointed, but Yan Nuo said, “Kiss me and I’ll do as you wish.”

The light in Ji Yinbing’s eyes instantly brightened.

“Really?”

“OK

Ji Yinbing leaned over and kissed Yan Nuo on the lips.

But Yan Nuo said, “I mean, wherever I point and you kiss, I’ll agree.”

Ji Yinbing rolled her eyes. “These words are a trap. I won’t fall for them.” She thought to herself, If you want me to kiss certain places, do I really have to kiss them?

Yan Nuo pretended to sigh sadly and said, “I originally wanted you to kiss my eyes...”

Ji Yinbing laughed at his lame joke, but she still kissed his eyes as he wished. “Alright, it’s time to sleep.”

If they did not sleep soon, something would happen.

Yan Nuo said, “I can’t sleep.”

“Then I’ll sleep next door.” Ji Yinbing was afraid that something would happen, so she went next door to sleep. Just as she got up, she was grabbed by the arm and pulled to the bed. Yan Nuo imprisoned her in his arms. The moment she was forced to lie down, Ji Yinbing’s short hair swept across Yan Nuo’s eyes and face.

He buried his entire face in Ji Yinbing’s hair and neck and said in a muffled voice, “I have to hug you to sleep.”

Ji Yinbing let him hug her. She was a little nervous and could not fall asleep.

However, Yan Nuo let out a long and slow breath.

He really fell asleep with her in his arms.

Gradually, Ji Yinbing relaxed.

After about twenty minutes, Ji Yinbing entered dreamland. Hearing her gentle breathing, Yan Nuo raised his head from her shoulder. He stared at Ji Yinbing’s exquisite face with a helpless expression.

Was she so against that matter?

Yan Nuo was not stupid. Ji Yinbing had rejected him time and time again. The real reason was definitely not because she was too young.

‘Whether it was Ming Na’s matter, Ming Na’s mother, or Ji Yinbing’s own mother, their experiences had all brought negative effects to Ji Yinbing.

She wanted love, but she hated sex.

The next morning, Ji Yinbing was alone on the bed. She ran out of the room and saw Yan Nuo, who was playing with a sandbag in the living room. Then, she went back to her room to wash her face and applied skincare products. When she finished everything and left the room, she had already changed.

She wore black pearl sweater paired with dark blue skinny jeans and a black and white checkered coat. It was warm and elegant.

Yan Nuo was drenched in sweat. He took off his singlet and stood in the living room. He sized Ji Yinbing up with a smile in his eyes. "You look so good in it."

Actually, she was dressed normally.

Ji Yinbing said in a low voice, "I'm good-looking. It can't be helped."

Yan Nuo was quite surprised.

He realized that his little slave was becoming more and more assertive. She was no longer that pure little slave.

"What do you want for breakfast?"

Yan Nuo walked to the kitchen and planned to make breakfast himself.

Ji Yinbing was shocked. "You'll do it?"

Yan Nuo turned around and looked at her. He said, "I don't want to eat your noodles anymore. To be honest, it tastes very bad." It was said that if you liked someone, you had to like everything about her. If her food was terrible, you had to praise it. Yan Nuo was an honest person and didn't lie.

He was also hungry last night. Otherwise, he would not have eaten that bowl of noodles.

It was really salty.

However, Yan Nuo was not stupid enough to tell Ji Yinbing how terrible her food was.

Ji Yinbing knew that she was not good at cooking, so she did not argue with him. She leaned on the kitchen counter and asked for many types of breakfast dishes in one go..

Chapter 573: Sweetheart

Seeing that she had finally finished saying her order, Yan Nuo shut his mouth. He said to Ji Yinbing expressionlessly, "I only know how to make soy milk with a soy milk machine, cook porridge, and boil eggs with water."

Ji Yinbing stopped laughing awkwardly.

All her hopes were dashed.

Yan Nuo added, "Porridge with no other ingredients."

Therefore, Ji Yinbing could only choose between soy milk, boiled eggs, and porridge. She braced herself and said, "I want all."

"Wait."

Yan Nuo turned on both gas stoves. One was a pot of porridge, and the other was a pot of eggs. Yan Nuo was exaggerating when he said that he knew how to cook porridge. He did not know how to cook at all. He actually scooped a bowl of rice for their breakfast porridge, but only placed a small scoop of water.

Although Ji Yinbing did not know how to cook, she still had general knowledge.

She stared at the pot and said, "There's too little water and too much rice."

"I cooked like this before." Yan Nuo looked righteous and did not seem to be lying.

Ji Yinbing really thought that she was mistaken.

She went back to her room to pack Yan Nuo's luggage. Just as she was done packing, she heard Yan Nuo calling her to eat the eggs. The eggs were indeed cooked, and the soy milk tasted quite good. Ji Yinbing sat at the dining table and asked Yan Nuo, "When you guys are on missions and have to live in the wild sometimes, who cooks?"

"There's compressed dry food. There are people in the team who can cook. Sometimes, there's really no choice." He handed Ji Yinbing his egg yolk, which Ji Yinbing liked to eat, and said, "Raw meat can be eaten just by roasting it."

"That's really casual."

"Thave no choice," he said against the drinking ice. "My girlfriend can't cook."

"Then you... will you get a refund?"

"No."

Ji Yinbing pursed her lips and chuckled. Yan Nuo saw her and he didn't say anything.

“The porridge should be ready.”

Yan Nuo opened the lid and saw Ji Yinbing walking over. He quickly closed the lid.

Ji Yinbing asked, “What’s wrong? Is it not done yet?”

Yan Nuo asked her, “Are you not full yet?”

“How can an egg and a cup of soy milk be filling?” Ji Yinbing’s appetite was bigger than ordinary girls, and she was still hungry. Yan Nuo turned around and entered the room. As he walked, he said, “Pack up. Let’s go out for breakfast.” He took a shower and changed his clothes.

Ji Yinbing ran to the kitchen and opened the lid. She saw half a pot of soft and sticky white porridge. This was not porridge, and there was no soup at all.

In the end, the two of them went out for breakfast.

After breakfast, Ji Yinbing brought Yan Nuo to visit all the famous attractions in Boston. At night, they ate dinner in Chinatown.

For the next few days, Yan Nuo and Ji Yinbing stayed together. They would kiss and be intimate, and each time, they would stop when they were close. Yan Nuo was not always free. Although he had hired a group of business managers to manage his company, there were still things that he needed to deal with.

Most of the time, Yan Nuo worked in the study room, while Ji Yinbing sat on the window in the study room reading or writing papers to complete the homework the professor had given her.

Finally, it was Christmas Eve.

The stores at the Boston mall on Christmas Eve were open at night. Many large shopping malls were celebrating through the night. On Christmas Eve, the city was very lively. Ji Yinbing and Yan Nuo walked along the street. She said, "The streets will be cold tomorrow night. Many students say that they will go to the church first and then go home for dinner. Christmas is very lively, just like our Lantern Festival."

'When Yan Nuo heard her mention the Lantern Festival, he said, "In the past, my sister and I would give you red packets for the Lantern Festival. Now that you're older, you don't need them anymore."

Ji Yinbing pointed at a large mall and said, "Then you can give me a Christmas gift."

"What do you want?"

"Let's go in and take a look."

"Sure."

Ji Yinbing never wasted money, and Yan Nuo didn't know what she liked. One time, he asked Ji Yinbing if she liked anything, and Ji Yinbing said, "I like you, and I like to read." Yan Nuo didn't know what to give her.

The mall was terrifyingly big and sold almost everything.

The expensive ones, such as the luxury watch Vacheron Constantin, the top jeweler Cartier, and the top-tier clothing brands LV and Chanel, were almost all present. Ji Yinbing rarely came here. Firstly, she was not free. Secondly, she was not interested. Thirdly, she did not have money. She looked at the gorgeous and exquisite jewelry and clothes and was also tempted, but she could tell what she needed and what she did not need to buy.

'When Yan Nuo asked her what she wanted, she said, "I don't think there's anything missing."

Yan Nuo felt that she lacked everything.

“You don’t look like a girl anymore. You have to have jewelry, clothes, bags, shoes, skincare products, and cosmetics.” Yan Nuo said, “My sister has a lot of jewelry and luxury goods. You have to have them too.”

“why?”

He said matter-of-factly, “You’re both the women I care about the most. You have to have what she has.”

Ji Yinbing was a little moved.

Then, Yan Nuo brought her to sweep through all the branded shops.

Ji Yinbing watched him swipe his card without blinking and felt heartache for him. Yan Nuo saw her pained expression and suddenly said, “You and An will definitely get along.”

“Hm?”

“You both can’t bear to spend money.”

No girl did not love beautiful things. Even though Ji Yinbing thought that she did not need those luxurious things, Yan Nuo bought them for her. She was still happy and willing to wear them. The next day was Christmas, and the two people who could not cook went to buy turkey and Boston lobsters.

They did not know how to make turkeys or lobsters. Yan Nuo directly placed the turkey in a high-pressure pot and cooked it. Ji Yinbing washed the lobsters clean and steamed them in the pot. They imitated what restaurants did and made some sauce. They prepared to eat it with sauce when it was cooked.

After dark, the two of them raised their glasses to each other and wished each other a happy Christmas.

Ji Yinbing drank some red wine and felt a little dizzy.

She leaned against Yan Nuo's chest, looking tired but unable to sleep.

The phone on the coffee table suddenly rang.

Ji Yinbing lazily didn't answer the call. Yan Nuo helped her answer her phone. Seeing that Ji Yinbing didn't object, he picked up the call. Just as the phone approached his ear, Yan Nuo heard a sunny and warm male voice—

“Merry Christmas, Sweetheart.”

Yan Nuo's gaze turned cold.

“Sweetheart?” His metallic voice was extremely cold. At the same time, Yan Nuo lowered his head and stared at the girl who was pretending to sleep in his arms.

Craven was more shocked than Yan Nuo. “Who are you?” He spoke English.

Yan Nuo didn't explain his identity. He thought about it and guessed the other party's identity.
“Craven?”

Seeing that Yan Nuo had accurately reported his name, Craven was shocked.

That day, he immediately understood Yan Nuo's identity. “You're her boyfriend?”

Yan Nuo snorted in agreement.

Craven was speechless.

He didn't expect her to really have a boyfriend. They were even spending Christmas together on a night like this..

Chapter 574: Men's Jealousy

Craven quickly accepted the shocking fact.

It didn't matter. Bing had been honest from the start that she had someone she liked, and she hadn't lied to him. It didn't conflict with whether she liked him or not.

He could not tell his age from the phone.

Craven took it for granted that Ji Yinbing's boyfriend was definitely a student from another university. He took out the generosity of a genius and said arrogantly to Yan Nuo, "Kid, don't be too smug. In this society, it's not surprising to have a boyfriend. You can even divorce after getting married."

He did not notice that the 'boy' he was referring to was the leader of the famous Black Fiend Mercenary Group, the Yan family's leader. Craven was still spouting nonsense on the other end of the phone. He said, "You're not always by Bing's side, are you? Have you heard that saying? Love grows with time."

Yan Nuo gritted his teeth and replied in Chinese, "You won't last a day." Then, he hung up.

Craven looked confused.

"What the f*ck?" He carefully thought through the words in an awkward voice. He guessed that he might asking him to try it if he had the guts?

Craven narrowed his eyes and smiled. Hey, he was in a good mood to upset Bing's boyfriend.

Ji Yinbing was about to fall asleep when Yan Nuo kissed her awake.

"Huh? Yan Nuo?" Before Ji Yinbing could open her eyes, she heard Yan Nuo's dark voice. "Sweetheart?" He bit her neck as if he was punishing her.

Ji Yinbing could sense a strong sense of danger from Yan Nuo's sweet words.

She was stunned. "What?"

Yan Nuo kissed her until her face turned red, and Ji Yinbing had no choice but to push him away.

She crawled out of his arms and sat on the sofa before asking Yan Nuo, "What are you doing?"

Yan Nuo pointed at his phone with a gloomy expression.

"A child called Craven just now. He called you Sweetheart."

Ji Yinbing's head hurt.

Yan Nuo was like a negotiation expert. His sharp eyes scraped Ji Yinbing's face like knives, adding pressure to her. "I think you should give me an explanation."

Ji Yinbing did not feel guilty.

She said frankly, "Craven likes me. I rejected him. To be honest, it's been more than a month since we last spoke on the phone."

“Continue.”

Ji Yinbing continued, “He’s a very smart person. He’s quite accomplished in medicine. He’ll become a top doctor in the future. I respect him very much and cherish such an opponent. Of course, I don’t love him.” She looked at Yan Nuo and said bluntly, “In this world, I only love you.”

Yan Nuo did not doubt Ji Yinbing’s love for him.

“On the eighth of last month, I’ve already told Craven clearly that I don’t like him, and I told him not to chase me anymore. In fact, he has indeed been very obedient for the past month and hasn’t harassed me.”

“Okay, I’m done. Your turn.”

Ji Yinbing stood upright. She did not feel guilty or angry.

If there was a misunderstanding in a relationship, it was fine to explain it clearly. The biggest taboo was to vent your anger and sulk. That would only ruin the relationship.

Yan Nuo looked at her calm face and felt a little tired.

He sighed and said, “If only you were uglier.”

Ji Yinbing was stunned.

“What?”

“If you’re ugly, you won’t be so dazzling.” Yan Nuo looked at Ji Yinbing in confusion. He asked a world-class question. “Why are you so lovable?”

Ji Yinbing blushed again.

'What was this?

Was she being teased?

Yan Nuo did not go overboard with this matter. In fact, he seemed very easy to talk to.

He left America on the 27th, and Ji Yinbing sent him to the airport.

The two of them hugged and kissed goodbye at the airport. Before Yan Nuo went to the security check, he said to Ji Yinbing, "Stay away from all the men who have improper thoughts about you. Yinbing, never underestimate a man's jealousy."

Yan Nuo's eyes were murderous when he said this.

Ji Yinbing's heart skipped a beat.

She remained silent and watched as Yan Nuo left. Ji Yinbing was in no hurry to go back. She only went home after confirming that the plane had taken off.

After school started, Craven didn't harass Ji Yinbing.

However, Ji Yinbing realized that there were always strange things happening around her.

For example, when she wanted to go to the library, no matter how many people there were, once she went, there would be people who took the initiative to get up and leave. When it was raining and she did not bring an umbrella, there would always be people who would leave an umbrella in a conspicuous place. There was also one time when she wanted to go to the city to represent the school in attending an oral conference held by many schools. She was delayed by something and was almost late, but a taxi appeared in front of her.

At first, Ji Yinbing did not notice these abnormalities.

However, as time passed, there were too many such coincidences. Ji Yinbing finally realized that something was wrong.

That night, when she was on the phone with Yan Nuo, Ji Yinbing said, "Don't work so hard in the future. You're already busy enough every day, but you still have to pay attention to me."

"What?" Yan Nuo did not understand her.

Ji Yinbing said, "You still want to lie to me. Do you think I didn't notice? Every time I go to the library, there will always be someone who happens to leave and give me a place. Do you still want to hide it from me?" Yan Nuo had asked her to return the plane tickets last time, but then he didn't explain at all and came to America to see her without a word, wanting to surprise her.

Ji Yinbing thought that Yan Nuo was the one who did what happened to her these few months.

Yan Nuo fell silent.

Ji Yinbing could sense something unusual from his silence. She asked, "Not you?"

"It's not me." Yan Nuo's voice sounded very cold.

Ji Yinbing said, "That might be a coincidence."

She hung up the phone and did not take this to heart.

Around May, Ji Yinbing bumped into Craven at school. Unlike the arrogant young man from before, Craven was actually leaning on a cane this time! Ji Yinbing stood in the distance and stared at him for a while. In the end, she still walked towards him.

Craven saw her.

He probably wanted to smile at her, and when he curled his lips, he realized that his smile was stiff. It had to be a smile worse than crying. Craven decided not to smile.

“Craven, what happened to your leg?”

Craven said, “Accidentally hit by a car.”

Ji Yinbing asked a few questions, but was confused by Craven’s relaxed tone.

“Be careful on the streets in the future. You think about things when you walk. This is very dangerous.”

“Yes.”

Craven never expected that Ji Yinbing’s concern would be given to him in such a situation.

Craven looked at Ji Yinbing’s back view with a complicated expression.

During her vacation, Ji Yinbing prepared to return to India. Before she left, she went to Zhuang Long’s place and asked for his notes and a few books that she needed to borrow to read. She planned to bring them back to the country to read. Zhuang Long found everything and put them in a bag.

Ji Yinbing was about to leave with her things when Zhuang Long suddenly said from behind her, “Bingbing, Yan Nuo is very possessive of you. Pay more attention in the future..”

Chapter 575: Playing With the Opponent

Ji Yinbing felt that his words were very strange.

She looked puzzled and asked Zhuang Long, "What do you mean?"

Zhuang Long said, "I didn't want to say it at first, but I think you have a right to know."

"What?"

"Twenty days ago, Xiao Fengyi came to America."

"So?"

Zhuang Long didn't say it out loud. He only said, "He stayed in Cambridge City for two hours. After he left, Craven went to the hospital."

Ji Yinbing's expression changed slightly.

"Tunderstand."

On the way to the airport in a taxi, Ji Yinbing kept thinking about what Zhuang Long had said.

If what he said was true and Xiao Fengyi had really come to America on the day of Craven's accident... It was hard for Ji Yinbing not to suspect that it wasn't a coincidence.

Yan Nuo was very possessive.

Ji Yinbing had always known, but she had never thought that Yan Nuo's possessiveness would be so terrifying.

Recalling what Yan Nuo had said at the end of December last year, Ji Yinbing's feelings were complicated.

Yan Nuo must have been unhappy because of what she had asked him a while ago. Yan Nuo knew that Craven was still unwilling to give up on her and must be angry. Craven only injured his leg this time and did not really lose his life. It was not because he was lucky, but because Yan Nuo did not want to take his life for the time being.

Yan Nuo was warning Craven!

It was very likely that Craven knew the truth about the accident.

Otherwise, he would not have been so perfunctory the last time they met.

Ji Yinbing did not mind Yan Nuo doing something to declare his sovereignty, but it was not right to injure someone.

This time, Yan Nuo did not come to the airport to pick her up personally.

He went on a mission, and Ah Ka came to pick Ji Yinbing up.

'When Ji Yinbing got home, she took her things out of her suitcase one by one and placed them on the bookshelf in her room. The next day, she received a call from Arosenge. He invited her to play golf, and Ji Yinbing said she didn't know how. Arosenge said he was willing to teach her.

Ji Yinbing went.

The golf course was very big, and there were professional ball boys accompanying them.

Ji Yinbing really did not know how to play golf, but after Arosenge's explanation, she quickly understood the key points. However, understanding the rules was one thing, and whether she could hit the ball into the hole was another.

After an entire afternoon, Ji Yinbing finally scored a goal after countless failed attempts.

"Not bad."

Arosenge applauded her.

Ji Yinbing turned around and looked at him. She said, "You're looking for me for something else, right?"

Being exposed by Ji Yinbing, this handsome middle-aged man did not feel embarrassed. He smiled and said, "We've been calling for the abolition of the caste system recently. I want to invite you to attend the national radio station's interview program. With your legendary experience, you can encourage the entire country's audience, especially the female audience."

"You're a golden phoenix that flew out of the slums. You're the idol of all the women who have been oppressed in the country. Bing, I hope you can accept an interview from the radio station," Arosenge said honestly.

Ji Yinbing did not agree immediately.

"Let me think about it."

Arosenge had no objections. "Okay."

Arosenge personally sent Ji Yinbing back.

'When they reached the entrance of the manor, Ji Yinbing jumped out of the car. Arosenge rolled down the window and said to her, "Bing, the hundreds of millions of women in our country need your encouragement."

Ji Yinbing turned around and looked at him. "Understood."

'When she returned home, she saw Yan Nuo.

Yan Nuo stood up when he saw her. "From what La Pu said, you went golfing with Arosenge?"

Ji Yinbing didn't answer.

She sized Yan Nuo up.

Yan Nuo looked calm. It was probably just a trivial matter for him.

Ji Yinbing said, "Yes. Why? Are you also planning to knock Arosenge until his lower limbs are almost paralyzed?" The girl's words were sharp and her gaze was cold. She mercilessly exposed the gentle mask on Yan Nuo's face.

Yan Nuo's face darkened.

"Are you blaming me?" His tone was malicious. Without waiting for Ji Yinbing to explain, Yan Nuo said, "Are you blaming me for that boy?"

Ji Yinbing was furious.

She was expressionless as she accused Yan Nuo, "That's a life! Have you ever thought that if you're not careful, Craven will di

“Are you feeling sorry for him?” Yan Nuo’s focus had shifted.

He was like a paranoid madman, his attention completely focused on Ji Yinbing’s crusade against her for another man.

Ji Yinbing scolded him angrily, “Yan Nuo, that’s a life! Don’t you understand what I care about?” The person she loved shouldn’t be a dictator who trampled on other people’s lives. Ji Yinbing’s anger was overwhelming and she threw out ruthless words. “If you still don’t realize what you did wrong, then let’s... break up.”

In a flash, the air around Yan Nuo seemed to have frozen.

Yan Nuo pinched his hands and suddenly said, “Get out!” These words were not directed at Ji Yinbing.

His gloomy and cold voice spread throughout the hall.

All the servants, including Butler La Pu, stopped what they were doing and silently withdrew.

Ji Yinbing watched them leave and panicked.

Only Yan Nuo and Ji Yinbing were left in the room.

Ji Yinbing was frightened. What was he going to do?

“Yan Nuo...”

Yan Nuo suddenly bent down and carried Ji Yinbing, throwing her onto the sofa.

Ji Yinbing's head hit the armrest of the sofa, and she was a little dizzy and in pain. Without giving Ji Yinbing a chance to resist, Yan Nuo leaned forward and pressed her under him. His furious kisses landed on Ji Yinbing's body densely.

Ji Yinbing was wearing a sweatshirt today, so Yan Nuo took it off smoothly.

"Yan Nuo, you can't do this!" The way he was almost raping her made Ji Yinbing panic.

Yan Nuo pretended not to hear it.

He pressed himself against her and kissed her wildly.

Ji Yinbing felt Yan Nuo bite her collarbone and it hurt.

At first, she was still struggling, but when she saw that Yan Nuo was pretending to be stupid and was determined to punish her in this way, Ji Yinbing gave up struggling. She looked at the gorgeous ceiling pattern with her empty eyes. The raging Yan Nuo heard Ji Yinbing say softly, "Yan Nuo, so it turns out that I'm still the slave that you can play with."

Yan Nuo was stunned.

The heat in his body instantly turned cold.

He was a little flustered and reached out to pull Ji Yinbing's face. Ji Yinbing did not cry and there was no panic on her face. Her eyes met Yan Nuo's and she opened her lips and called out softly, "Master."

Boom!

Something exploded in Yan Nuo's mind.

He suddenly stood up and ran upstairs without looking at Ji Yinbing.

Ji Yinbing smiled bitterly.

She picked up her clothes from the ground and put them on. Then, she walked out of the manor without looking back.

Butler La Pu saw her walk out with messy hair and was a little worried. "Miss Ji..."

Ji Yinbing glanced at La Pu and smiled sadly. She didn't say anything and left.

Arosenge opened the door of his house and was surprised to see the girl outside.

Ji Yinbing looked up at Arosenge and smiled slightly. She said, "You're right. I should set an example for them.."

Chapter 576: Bond

The next day, Ji Yinbing received an interview from the radio station.

Two days later, when this interview video was broadcasted, it set off a wave of women's rights in India. On the streets, girls marching could be seen everywhere. Among them, some resisted child marriage, some resisted rape, and some resisted favoring men over women.

Many lowlifes requested for everyone to be equal and completely uproot the malignant caste system.

At that moment, India was bustling with activity.

‘Whether or not their protests achieve their goals, they finally knew how to resist, which was an improvement.

Yan Nuo stared at the pictures taken by the reporters on the television in deep thought.

He looked away from the television and at La Pu. “Where is she?” he asked him.

Before La Pu could say anything, Yan Nuo added, “Come with me to Arosenge’s house to get her back.”

La Pu finally spoke.

He said, “Miss Ji has returned to America.”

Then, La Pu saw Yan Nuo stunned for a moment. Then, frustration and anger surged onto his cold face.

The doorbell rang.

Olivia opened the door and was confused to see a girl standing outside. “Who are you looking for?”

Ji Yinbing recognized Olivia.

It was the girl she had saved that night.

Did that mean that Craven had realized long ago that she was the person who had saved Olivia that night?

“Excuse me, is Craven home?”

“You’re looking for Craven?” Olivia looked gossipy. “You’re not Bing, are you?”

Ji Yinbing was a little stunned. “You know me?”

“Of course. My brother admires you.”

So they were siblings.

Olivia invited Ji Yinbing into the house. She walked in front and asked Ji Yinbing in confusion, “Have we met before?”

Ji Yinbing said she had never seen her before.

Since she did not remember, it was better for her not to remember forever. After all, that was not a good thing for a girl.

“My brother is upstairs. Wait here. I’ll call him.”

“Can I go upstairs to find him?” Ji Yinbing said. “After all, his leg is injured.”

“Of course.”

Olivia pointed upstairs and said, “The second room on the left on the second floor is his bedroom.”

“Thank you.”

Ji Yinbing went upstairs and knocked on Craven’s room.

“Come in.”

Ji Yinbing opened the door and saw Craven playing games on the bed. He was wearing a sleeveless vest and beach pants. Thinking that it was Olivia, Craven glanced at her lazily. When he saw her, he was shocked.

Craven jumped up and even hurt his leg.

“Oh my god, why is it you? I...” Craven urged Ji Yinbing to leave.

Ji Yinbing left the room helplessly.

After rummaging through the house for more than ten minutes, she heard the boy’s urgent voice say, “Please come in.”

Ji Yinbing entered the room again.

However, after more than ten minutes, Craven’s room looked brand new. The blanket was laid out flat without a single fold. The books on the table were all packed. The young man who looked like a geek had changed into a clean t-shirt and slim pants.

After combing his messy hair, he stood at the end of the bed and looked at Ji Yinbing shyly.

Ji Yinbing could not tell what she felt at that moment.

She was similar to Craven.

‘When she was with Yan Nuo, she was Craven. When she was with Craven, she was more like Yan Nuo.

“How’s your leg?”

Craven patted his leg. "Couldn't have recovered better," he said.

"That's good."

"Please sit." There was only a desk and chair in Craven's room. Ji Yinbing did not stand on ceremony and sat down. Craven was very curious about her arrival. He asked, "You didn't return to the country?"

"He went back. Again."

In the past, when Craven heard this, he would definitely tease her. Did she miss him for rushing back so quickly?

However, he did not ask this question.

Ji Yinbing suddenly said, "Craven, I'm sorry."

"About what?"

"Your leg."

The smile on Craven's face disappeared completely.

Ji Yinbing looked at Craven apologetically and said, "You must have guessed who caused your leg to become like this. Craven, I'm sorry. I've implicated you."

Craven smiled bitterly.

He said, "I can't figure out why such a selfless and kind-hearted person like you would fall in love with such a person." In Craven's eyes, Ji Yinbing's boyfriend was equivalent to a triad boss. He did things without any rules and disregarded human lives.

"To me, he's actually a very good person." Ji Yinbing thought of the first half of her life and sighed. "Without him, there wouldn't be the current me." If she was said to be a dusty pearl, then Yan Nuo was the person who wiped the dust off her body.

Without Yan Nuo, there would not be the current her.

Craven guessed that there must be a complicated story between Ji Yinbing and her boyfriend.

He was not a person in the story, so he did not dare to judge their feelings.

But he wasn't happy with that. "Someone like him is too dangerous. He'll hurt you."

Ji Yinbing remained silent.

"Forget it. I don't blame you. Don't say you're sorry."

Ji Yinbing said, "This happened because of me."

"Forget it, forget it. Stay for lunch before leaving?"

Ji Yinbing saw the anticipation in Craven's eyes and swallowed the word "no" that was in her throat.

Ji Yinbing ate lunch at Craven's house before returning to her own.

During the rest of the vacation, Ji Yinbing stayed in Zhuang Long's laboratory. Zhuang Long could tell that she had a conflict with Yan Nuo, so he did not talk to her about it and let them figure it out themselves. Ji Yinbing was avoiding Yan Nuo, so she did not charge her phone when it ran out of battery.

Zhuang Long charged it for her and Yan Nuo called her again, but her phone was switched off.

Yan Nuo had been too busy recently and was worried about Ji Yinbing, He could only contact Zhuang Long and ask him to pay more attention.

Zhuang Long asked them about their conflict curiously.

Yan Nuo was silent for a moment before he confessed.

After hearing this, Zhuang Long was speechless for a long time. Before hanging up the phone, he said to him, "You really deserve it. Thank God, you're finally getting your retribution." Then, he hung up.

His so-called best friend was someone like Zhuang Long.

Yan Nuo came to America again in October.

'When Ji Yinbing saw him at the school gate, she was first stunned. Then, grievance overcame her heart and she almost wanted to cry. Ji Yinbing pretended not to see him and walked straight in another direction. Yan Nuo followed behind her and was in no hurry to admit his mistake.

She took the subway and he followed.

She got off the subway, and so did he.

She walked towards her apartment, and he followed. When they returned to the main street of the apartment, an old lady called Ma Lingda, who they met across the street, called out to Ji Yinbing..

Chapter 577: Stupid Yan Nuo

“Mrs. Ma Lingda.” Ji Yinbing praised the rose in her hand.

Ma Lingda thanked him and said softly, “Bing, you seem to be being followed. That tall man doesn’t look like a good person. Do you need me to call the police for you?”

Ji Yinbing was stunned for a moment before saying, “No need. He’s my boyfriend.”

Mrs. Ma Lingda seemed a little shocked.

She was stunned for a moment before saying in an inexplicable tone, “Does your boyfriend have facial paralysis?” Mrs. Ma Lingda looked at the man across the street who was quietly watching her and Ji Yinbing talk. His face was a good-looking face, but it was expressionless.

The corners of Ji Yinbing’s mouth twitched before she said, “Yes, it’s possible.”

She walked into the apartment while Yan Nuo followed closely behind.

Ji Yinbing opened the door and was about to close it.

Yan Nuo finally reached in and said, “I was wrong.”

Yan Nuo knew his place.

Ji Yinbing looked back at him and said sarcastically, “Did I hear wrongly? What did I hear?”

Facing Ji Yinbing’s ridicule, Yan Nuo was extremely calm. He said again, “I really know my mistake.”

Ji Yinbing stared at him for nearly half a minute.

She did not plan to open the door and only asked him, "What did you do wrong?"

Yan Nuo said, "I shouldn't have almost offended you without your permission."

The door in front of him slammed shut.

Yan Nuo was speechless.

Did he say something wrong again?

It was dark, and the October night in Boston was a little cold. Yan Nuo, wearing only a shirt and a thin windbreaker, stood outside the door and was feeling a little cold. At about eleven o'clock, the door behind her opened.

Yan Nuo quickly crawled in.

Ji Yinbing sat on the sofa and watched a television drama about vampires.

Yan Nuo glanced at the vampire on the television and said, "It's fake."

Ji Yinbing rolled her eyes.

She was not stupid. Of course she knew that this was fake.

Ji Yinbing lay on the sofa and touched her stomach from time to time because of her menstruation. Yan Nuo saw it and thought about it carefully before asking, "Is it abdominal pain?"

Sometimes, when her period came, she would scold him every time she saw him as if she had eaten a firecracker.

Yan Nuo did not dare to provoke a woman on her period.

Ji Yinbing looked at him in surprise, feeling a little puzzled. He was a man, yet he still knew this.

Seeing that Ji Yinbing did not refute, Yan Nuo knew that he had guessed correctly.

He went to the kitchen to cook.

Ji Yinbing thought that he was cooking brown sugar water and felt that it was quite sweet of him to do so. A moment later, Yan Nuo walked out with a bowl. Ji Yinbing was still watching television when she heard Yan Nuo say, "Drink it. You'll feel better after drinking it."

She turned around with a faint smile and took the bowl with both hands.

It was impossible to be brown sugar water.

After cooking for so long, he was actually boiling water.

Yan Nuo said, "Drink more warm water."

Ji Yinbing was speechless.

She held the warm water and drank it mouthful by mouthful. She could not help but feel sad. She thought to herself, Is my brain sandwiched by a door or something? I actually fell in love with this 1.92-meter wooden block!

Yan Nuo went to take a shower and wore a thick bathrobe to Ji Yinbing's room.

Ji Yinbing did not lock the door. When Yan Nuo pushed the door open and entered, she was lying on the bed with a blindfold on. It was unknown if she was asleep or awake. Yan Nuo stood by the bed and apologized softly.

Ji Yinbing did not speak and did not react.

Her reaction convinced Yan Nuo that she was awake.

Yan Nuo continued, "I know. I shouldn't have hurt Craven." He stared at the person who had wrapped herself up like a silkworm baby and said in an indignant tone, "But he loves you. The thought of someone else loving you too makes me want to tear him apart."

"I didn't kill him. I was merciful."

A pillow instantly smashed towards him.

Yan Nuo let the pillow hit him.

Ji Yinbing sat up. "You still think you're not wrong."

"I'm in the wrong!" Yan Nuo quickly said. "I know I shouldn't have done that, but what can I do! I can't control myself!" He growled. "We're so far apart! We're seven years apart! You're so dazzling! Someone beside you is showing you care and concern. What about me? I love you, and I want to marry you!"

Yan Nuo roared, "But I can't even marry you!"

Ji Yinbing was stunned.

Yan Nuo laughed self-deprecatingly. "Why? Are you shocked? Did I scare you by wanting to marry you?"

“Yan Nuo...”

“You said that you like China. I even want to emigrate to China but it’s not that easy to emigrate to China! You like America, so I plan to emigrate to America. However, I have to wait a few more years.” Seeing Ji Yinbing’s puzzled expression, Yan Nuo explained, “There are many industries, and I need time to transfer.”

Ji Yinbing remained silent for a long time.

Yan Nuo rubbed his face in distress.

He sat down by Ji Yinbing’s bed and said to Ji Yinbing boldly, “I know I was wrong, but I won’t apologize to Craven.” It was impossible to apologize to his love rival.

Ji Yinbing looked at him for a long time before sighing silently.

Seeing that Ji Yinbing was not so angry anymore, Yan Nuo wanted to climb onto her bed. Just as he placed one leg on her, Ji Yinbing kicked him. “Don’t even think about getting onto my bed!”

Yan Nuo’s face darkened.

He came to find Ji Yinbing this time to beg for her forgiveness.

He did not stay in America for long before returning.

‘When Zhuang Long saw Ji Yinbing coming to see him with a smile, he knew that the misunderstanding between her and Yan Nuo had been resolved.

Time passed very quickly. In the blink of an eye, it was graduation season.

Craven could already graduate. He was already an MD. When he graduated, he came to find Ji Yinbing. Ji Yinbing would graduate in a year. When she saw him, she congratulated him.

“Can I take a photo with you?”

Craven said, “I received invitations from many research institutes. I’ll probably be working at the Ovikon Research Institute.” He shrugged and told Ji Yinbing, “You know, the Ovikon Research Institute is in Geneva. We’ll be pretty far apart.”

“We probably won’t see each other again.” Craven hid his feelings well. He said, “You’re the person I like after all. I want to take a photo with you.”

Ji Yinbing remained silent for a long time.

Seeing that she did not agree, Craven could not help but laugh self-deprecatingly. “You’re not even willing to give me a photo?”

“Okay.” Ji Yinbing agreed.

Craven was stunned for a moment before he smiled and revealed his white teeth.

He took out his camera and hugged Ji Yinbing’s shoulder. The two of them were very close. Before taking the photo, Craven said to Ji Yinbing, “It’s our only photo together. At least smile.”

Ji Yinbing smiled.

It was a faint smile, but it was breathtakingly beautiful.

Craven looked down at the photo. He stared at it for a long time before looking up at Ji Yinbing. “Do you know, you actually look good when you smile?” He shook the camera and said, “You have to smile more in the future.”

Chapter 578: Yan Nuo Made Her Beef Fried Rice

Ji Yinbing did not know what to say.

Craven added, "In places I can't see, you have to smile often. That way, I'll be at ease."

For some reason, Ji Yinbing's eyes were warm for a few seconds.

Craven put the camera in his bag.

He strode forward.

Seeing that he had left, Ji Yinbing also planned to go to the school building. She had just taken a few steps when her hand was suddenly grabbed by someone. Ji Yinbing turned around in shock and looked up into Craven's deep and red eyes.

"Craven..."

Craven suddenly lowered his head and planted a kiss on her forehead.

Craven quickly let go of her and smiled down at her arrogantly. Then he turned and ran.

Ji Yinbing looked at the young man's golden hair that was shining under the sunlight. She raised her hand in a daze and rubbed her forehead, not coming back to her senses for a long time.

She walked out of the school building and received a message from Yan Nuo. The content was a photo. Ji Yinbing opened it. It was a plane ticket back to India. She pursed her lips and smiled. She immediately went home to pack her things and return to India.

Yan Nuo stood at the exit. No matter where he was, he was the most eye-catching existence.

She was a celebrity in India now. Ji Yinbing did not want to cause trouble for Yan Nuo, so she gestured at him. It meant that she would see him outside. Yan Nuo smiled and nodded. He turned around and left the airport. He waited in the car for more than half an hour before Ji Yinbing arrived.

The driver was driving, and both of them were sitting in the back.

The moment they got into the car, Yan Nuo held Ji Yinbing’s hand.

“How does it feel to be a celebrity?”

“Nothing much. It’s a lot of trouble.”

Ji Yinbing was a little hungry. She took out a piece of bread from her bag and lowered her head to eat it. When Yan Nuo saw her eating, his usually cold gaze became doting.

“You’ll be 20 the day after tomorrow.”

Ji Yinbing nodded.

“Is there anything you want?”

Ji Yinbing said no.

Yan Nuo suggested sincerely, "Can I give myself to you?" After saying that, he was afraid that Ji Yinbing would not understand the hidden meaning behind his words, so he added thoughtfully, "You're 20 now."

Ji Yinbing remained silent.

She ate her bread, thinking that what had to come would come eventually.

She mentally prepared herself for two days.

Ji Yinbing even shamelessly asked Zhuang Long for a movie for her to learn.

'When Zhuang Long heard her request, he was so shocked that his jaw almost fell off.

After a short moment of absent-mindedness, Zhuang Long calmed down. In the field of love, someone gave Zhuang Long the nickname "Natural Smooth Talker". Ji Yinbing had asked the right person.

After watching the movie, Ji Yinbing felt uneasy sleeping these few nights.

On the day of his birthday, Yan Nuo woke up early in the morning. Under the chef's shocked and angry gaze, he took out a piece of beef from the refrigerator. He cut the beef into cubes expressionlessly and prepared to make beef fried rice.

The chef felt disgusted and guilty and quickly slipped away.

Ji Yinbing was also shocked when she realized that Yan Nuo was cooking beef fried rice.

"Actually, you don't have to do this..."

Yan Nuo wiped his hands on his apron and said, "You like it."

Tf you like, I'll do it.

Ji Yinbing understood what he meant.

Yan Nuo carried the plate to the living room. He said to Ji Yinbing, "Try it. I've done it in private a few times before. The taste shouldn't be bad."

Ji Yinbing took a bite. The rice was a little dry but the taste was indeed not bad.

"Not bad."

Yan Nuo sat down at the side. He took out two roses from his back and handed them to Ji Yinbing. "Happy birthday. For you."

Ji Yinbing put down the spoon and took the roses. She sized up the roses and suddenly said, "This was picked from the backyard, right?"

Yan Nuo felt awkward.

"Yes."

"Thank you. It's beautiful." She sniffed it and added, "It smells good."

They ate lunch at home.

After lunch and a nap, the two of them prepared to go shopping.

Yan Nuo had changed into a set of clothes that made him look especially young. He wore a white shirt, black pants, and black and red canvas shoes. He stood beside the bike and looked like a young model on a poster.

Ji Yinbing wore a white shirt and skirt. This year, her short hair had grown to her shoulders and she wore a pair of light green pearl earrings. She looked fresh and beautiful.

Both of them sized each other up and were very satisfied.

Chapter 579: Can't Get Tired of Listening

Yan Nuo patted the bicycle and said to Ji Yinbing, "Get on."

Ji Yinbing sat behind and wrapped her arms around Yan Nuo's waist.

Yan Nuo's waist was not thin, and his muscles were very firm. It felt very comfortable to touch, and Ji Yinbing's ears could not help but burn.

"I ordered a cake. I'll go get it."

Halfway through, they took a cake from a bakery before Yan Nuo brought Ji Yinbing out of the city.

Ji Yinbing was not surprised that Yan Nuo would take her to the place under the oak tree. This place meant a lot to them. Yan Nuo spread a silk cloth on the grass. He placed the cake and wine on the cloth and was not in a hurry to open the cake box.

The two of them drank their wine and sat side by side on the grassy mountain, watching the sunset and the early evening lights.

'When the sky turned completely dark, Yan Nuo opened the cake.

He inserted twenty candles, lit them, and let Ji Yinbing make a wish.

Ji Yinbing said, "May the years be like today."

Yan Nuo didn't like sweet food, so he only took a bite and put down his plate. Ji Yinbing ate a huge piece of cake. She threw a chestnut into her mouth and ate it before saying, "My mouth is filled with sweetness..."

Ji Yinbing knew what would happen tonight and was a little nervous. She put down the cake and suddenly said, "Yan Nuo, be gentle later."

Yan Nuo was stunned for a moment before he regained his senses. He teased Ji Yinbing, "What do you think I'm doing tonight?"

'Weren't they going to sleep together?

'Was she really overthinking?

Yan Nuo saw a stunned expression on Ji Yinbing's face and found it funny.

Ji Yinbing said, "Didn't you say that you wanted to give yourself to me as a gift?"

Yan Nuo chuckled.

He was joking.

Ji Yinbing saw that Yan Nuo was smiling and realized that she had misunderstood.

“I’m sorry. I thought...” Before she could finish, Yan Nuo pulled her into her arms.

“You’re right. Everything here is a delicacy.” Even though Yan Nuo didn’t like sweet food, he liked Ji Yinbing very much.

Yan Nuo held Ji Yinbing’s head and started kissing her from her hair.

Unlike before, this time, Ji Yinbing completely let go and was no longer holding back.

Ji Yinbing was not a bashful girl. She was resistant to contact from men because of her birth status.

However, the person in front of her was the person she loved the most. She had already realized how important this person was to her. She no longer had a reason to reject and answer shyly.

Yan Nuo could sense Ji Yinbing’s change in attitude. Although he did not know why Ji Yinbing accepted this matter so calmly, it was a good thing for Yan Nuo that she no longer disliked this matter.

‘The morning sun shone warmly on Ji Yinbing’s long eyelashes. She opened her eyes and saw the morning sun and green leaves. The light was piercing to her eyes, and she felt a little uncomfortable.

Ji Yinbing narrowed her eyes and slowly opened them. She moved weakly.

Ji Yinbing sat up, feeling that something was wrong.

She looked down at her body and saw that Yan Nuo had helped her put on a dress. Ji Yinbing was relieved. She did not see Yan Nuo and was a little confused.

“Yan Nuo?”

No one answered her.

Yan Nuo left her alone?

As Ji Yinbing's thoughts ran wild, a small leaf landed on Ji Yinbing's head.

Only withered leaves would fall naturally, and green leaves would not fall naturally. Ji Yinbing held the leaf in her hand and suddenly looked up at the oak tree.

Yan Nuo was sitting on a tree branch, his long legs dangling in the air. He was smiling at her. "Good morning, Mrs Yan."

Mrs Yan.

Ji Yinbing's heart beat faster.

Ji Yinbing pursed her lips and smiled before asking him, "Yan Nuo, what are you doing up there?"

Yan Nuo patted the tree beside him and asked Ji Yinbing, "Can you come up?" He quickly said, "If you're feeling unwell, I'll carry you up."

Ji Yinbing said, "I'll try." She was not wearing shoes. She hugged the tree trunk and frowned just as she raised her leg.

It was useless.

Yan Nuo understood.

"Wait."

He jumped down from the five to six-meter tall tree nimbly and suavely like a fierce tiger.

Yan Nuo bent down in front of her.

“Come up.”

Ji Yinbing stared at this person’s broad back and hesitated for a moment before lying on his back.

“Hold on tight!”

“Okay.”

Chapter 580: Proposal

Yan Nuo climbed the tree with Ji Yinbing. His movements were still smooth and relaxed.

‘When they reached the top, Yan Nuo carefully put her down. Ji Yinbing sat down before Yan Nuo sat down beside her.

Both of them had hickeys on their bodies that could not be covered by their clothes. Ji Yinbing controlled her gaze and did not look at Yan Nuo’s upper body.

‘There was a branch as thick as an arm in front of her. Ji Yinbing placed her arms on the branch and lay on it. She tilted her head and looked at the morning sun in the east. She said, “This sun is really blinding.”

Yan Nuo said, “I’ll show you something that won’t hurt your eyes.”

“Hm?”

“Look there.” Yan Nuo pointed at a tree branch diagonally opposite.

Ji Yinbing looked at the direction his finger was pointing and saw a bird’s nest. There were two little birds that had just hatched in the nest. They did not have any feathers and were bare and especially small. Their small wings occasionally moved, and they were chubby and a little cute.

Ji Yinbing smiled.

“Cute.”

Yan Nuo said, “Their mother went out to hunt.”

“The newly hatched bird’s skin is a little red too. It’s like a newborn baby.”

“All animals are like that.”

Yan Nuo also leaned his cheek against the tree branch like Ji Yinbing, He suddenly asked Ji Yinbing, “Will our baby look more like you or me?”

Ji Yinbing was surprised. “Baby?”

“Yes, didn’t you say that you have to protect your little princess well?” Yan Nuo touched Ji Yinbing’s stomach and said, “Our baby might be here.”

Ji Yinbing looked at the trash bag on the grass under the tree. There were condoms they had discarded last night.

She said, "Your baby is in a garbage bag."

Yan Nuo scolded her for killing the mood.

Ji Yinbing tilted her head and thought for a while before saying, "I hope your height and IQ are the same as mine. It doesn't matter if the baby looks like me or you." Anyway, the baby won't be ugly.

Yan Nuo could tell what Ji Yinbing meant, so he said, "I'm not stupid."

"Yes, you just have low EQ."

Yan Nuo was speechless.

They could not chat happily anymore.

Ji Yinbing leaned her head closer to Yan Nuo. She gently poked Yan Nuo's arm with her finger. Yan Nuo looked at her and did not speak. His eyes were filled with doubts. Ji Yinbing said, "At what age do you plan to have a child?"

Yan Nuo said, "At least 32 years old."

why?"

"You'll be 25 years old by then. It's really appropriate to have a child."

Ji Yinbing felt that what he said made sense.

"When I graduate in the future, I'll definitely have to stay in the laboratory for a long time. Zhuang Long said that for the health of the next generation, he froze his sperm in advance," Ji Yinbing said seriously. "I want to freeze a few eggs too."

Yan Nuo frowned and said, "I heard that removing eggs is very harmful to the body."

"It's nothing, I'll just rest well."

"That works."

The adult bird flew back with the food. Ji Yinbing and Yan Nuo did not want to disturb the mother and son, so the two of them went down from the tree.

They did not return all night. When they returned, there were traces on both of their bodies again. Everyone knew what had happened that night. However, in this family, Yan Yu and Yan Nuo were the masters. Yan Yu had no objections, and neither did the servants and La Pu.

Young men and women who had just experienced love did not know how to control themselves.

Yan Nuo returned to his room earlier every day, woke up later. This kind of happy lifestyle lasted until Ji Yinbing started school.

Perhaps it was because they had the most intimate relationship, but after they separated this time, Ji Yinbing missed Yan Nuo especially. When she arrived in America, it took a long time for her to get used to living alone. Ji Yinbing successfully ended her studies. She rejected the olive branch from a large research institute and became an official employee of the Zhuang Long Research Institute.

Zhuang Long decided to officially start the project to develop the antidote for AIDS. Ji Yinbing acted as his assistant and ran around the country with him.

Such a busy day suddenly changed in the second year.

It wasn't that something had happened to Ji Yinbing, but Zhuang Long had become a father!

'When they saw Miss Clarice publicly announced on television that her son's father was Zhuang Long, Ji Yinbing and Zhuang Long were both dumbfounded. Zhuang Long flew to New York immediately and met Clarice.

He and the child did a paternity test. The results were both unexpected and reasonable. They were really father and son.

For the sake of this child, Zhuang Long, who had once been a firm bachelor, was forced to marry Clarice. Zhuang Long got married as soon as he said he would get married and had children as soon as he said he would. This speed shocked all his hedonistic friends.

Even Yan Nuo and Suzanne flew over from overseas to congratulate him.

However, Zhuang Long did not think that this was a joyous occasion. His attitude towards Xiao Li was very bad, and he completely treated her as an invisible person. However, he was still seriously fulfilling his duty as a father towards the child called Zhuang Qilin.

The matter of Clarice and Zhuang Qilin interrupted their work plans. A year later, the research project was restarted.

In the second year, when Zhuang Long was 26 years old and Ji Yinbing was 23 years old, they successfully developed an antidote for AIDS.

From that year onwards, Zhuang Long and Ji Yinbing became famous virologists worldwide.

'The name Ji Yinbing once again appeared on the headlines of the national news report in India. At a public venue, Arosenge praised her for being the pride of India many times. Ji Yinbing once again accepted an interview with the radio station in India. Her inspiring and legendary life was written into books and sold all over the country. That book became the book with the highest sales back then.

On the year of Ji Yinbing's 24th birthday, Yan Nuo built a personal laboratory for her in the east corner of the manor. The experimental equipment inside was the same as the equipment in Zhuang Long's research laboratory. All the equipment was bought at an astronomical price. When Ji Yinbing received this gift, she was so shocked that she could not speak.

Yan Nuo hugged her from behind.

"Thank you." Ji Yinbing's heart was burning. She wanted to cry, but she had to hold it in.

Yan Nuo said, "You always go to Zhuang Long's because there's a laboratory there that attracts you. Now, I've built one for you here." Yan Nuo kissed her earlobe and suddenly asked, "Are you willing to marry me and spend more time with me?"

Ji Yinbing looked up in shock.

Yan Nuo's right hand reached in front of Ji Yinbing's head. He opened his fist and a silver chain fell.

At the bottom of the chain hung a simple golden ring.

"So, what's your answer?"

Ji Yinbing clenched her fists tightly.

She took a deep breath and asked Yan Nuo, "Do you dare to marry me?"

Yan Nuo said, "I dare!"

He asked Ji Yinbing, "Then, do you dare to marry me?"

'The difference in their statuses was huge. Yan Nuo wanting to marry Ji Yinbing was openly going against the tacit agreement of the entire upper-class society in India..
