

Ex's Brother 591

Chapter 591: You've Done Too Many Heartbreaking Things

Vera was living under someone else's roof and was alone. Even though she knew that she was despised, she could only admit that she was unlucky.

She stood up and said that she had something on before leaving.

She left in a hurry and forgot to take her bag.

Ji Yinbing wanted to remind her to come back, but she thought that Vera might come again tomorrow, so she gave up.

Seeing that Yan Yu was holding her phone and looking like she was about to pass out, Ji Yinbing knew that she was bored and had nothing to do. She asked curiously, "Sister Yan, is Madam Yan Mei close to Mr. Neya?"

"They're comrades, friends of life and death. Of course it's good." After a pause, Yan Yu added, "Neya likes my mother."

It was Ji Yinbing's turn to be surprised.

This seemed to have something to do with the records in the diary.

Ji Yinbing asked again, "Neya likes Madam Yan Mei? Then doesn't Madam Yan Mei love him?"

Yan Yu snorted and asked her with a smile, "If my mother loved Neya, why would she give birth to Yan Nuo and me?" In Yan Yu's memory, her mother doted on her father immensely. She sighed and said, "The person my mother loves the most is my father."

She murmured sadly, "Falling in love with a man means wanting to keep him by your side. It means breaking his wings and destroying his dreams. She wanted to be the only one in Angus' life, so she did."

Even though the method she used was crazy and perverted.

How could she not love such a crazy move?

He was infatuated with her.

Ji Yinbing fell silent. If that was the case, then what was the record in the diary? Who exactly did Madam Yan Mei love? Ji Yinbing asked again, "Mr. Angus and Mr. Neya, don't they look alike from the back?"

"I can't remember." Yan Yu glanced at Ji Yinbing and asked her, "Why are you asking this?"

"Just curious."

Yan Yu found her question strange. "Did you hear something?" Yan Yu's eyes were sharp, and her tone became sharper.

Ji Yinbing was shocked.

Sister Yan was so vigilant!

She shook her head. "Just asking random questions."

Yan Yu did not believe her.

She examined Ji Yinbing's suspicious gaze for a long time. When she saw that Ji Yinbing looked uncomfortable, she said, "You better not be asking casually." Then, she turned around and continued to play with her phone.

What they did not know was that Vera was standing outside the door.

When she heard Ji Yinbing's questions, her entire body turned cold, and her heart was so intense that it was about to jump out of her body.

Vera came back to get her bag, but she did not expect to unintentionally eavesdrop on Ji Yinbing's conversation with Yan Yu. Ji Yinbing's questions were just a little strange for Yan Yu, but to Vera, they were undoubtedly a knife hanging above her head that could fall and take her life at any time.

If Ji Yinbing's initial questions did not make Vera think too much about it, then in the end, her questions about whether Angus and Neya's backs were similar proved that she had seen the diary!

That diary was still there!

Ji Yinbing even saw it!

After Ji Yinbing knew, Yan Nuo would guess the truth soon!

At the thought that the Yan siblings had guessed the truth behind their mother's death and how miserable she would be, Vera was so afraid that her soul turned cold.

Vera stood outside the hall and felt cold. It was hot and she was covered in cold sweat. "What are you doing standing here?" Thomas's voice suddenly came from behind Vera.

Vera was trembling.

Thomas, who had come to get his pipe, was puzzled to see Vera standing at the Yan family's entrance but not going in. "Aren't you going in?" He didn't deliberately lower his voice. When he spoke, everyone in the house sensed it.

Yan Yu and Ji Yinbing looked up at the door at the same time and saw Vera and Thomas returning.

Thomas led Vera in and said to Yan Yu, "Big Chief, where are the things?"

Yan Yu handed Thomas the box containing the pipe.

After Thomas left, Yan Yu finally had the time to look at Vera with concern. "Why are you back? Don't you have something to do?" Her eyes were filled with disdain.

Vera's heart sank.

It's over. She doesn't even know the truth yet, but Sister Yan hates me so much. If she finds out the truth, I'll definitely die!

Vera smiled faintly and said, "I forgot to take my bag."

Her smile looked stiff and ugly.

Yan Yu picked up her bag from the sofa and threw it to Vera. "Here!"

Vera hurriedly caught her bag and left without saying a word.

Staring at her anxious back view, Yan Yu muttered in confusion, "What's wrong with her? She seems to have lost her soul and done too many guilty things. Did a ghost come to find her?"

Ji Yinbing glanced at Yan Yu and remained silent.

“What’s with that look?” Yan Yu glanced at Ji Yinbing unhappily. Ji Yinbing said boldly, “Sister Yan, you have a sharp tongue.”

Ji Yinbing’s honest answer made her speechless.

She sneered and said, “I’m not talking about you. Why? Are you still going to defend Vera?”

Ji Yinbing quickly shook her head.

“Idiot.”

Yan Yu might be in a bad mood, or the person on the other end of the phone was ignoring her. She shook her arms and suddenly said, “The weather is good today, and the sun is good too. It’s suitable for collective training.”

The winter in Mumbai was also hot.

The weather she said was good, but the sun was scorching hot.

Such sunlight could expose red skin.

Ji Yinbing watched as Yan Yu walked towards the mercenary residence in the back mountain and silently shed a few tears of sympathy for them.

Vera returned home this time and didn’t return to the Yan family for four days.

This morning, Ji Yinbing returned from her morning exercise. Just as she walked to the backyard of the manor, she saw Yan Nuo and Vera standing in the corner of the rose garden talking. She did not know what Vera had said, but Yan Nuo actually listened patiently. Ji Yinbing calmly walked up and boldly eavesdropped.

Early in the morning, the servants who were cleaning the house and courtyard came and went. Even if they heard footsteps, they did not guess that it was Ji Yinbing.

Ji Yinbing heard Vera say—

“I remember part of it. I remember...” Vera seemed embarrassed. She said to Yan Nuo, “We were really good once. We often went to parties together and played until late at night. When you were drunk, I would send you back.”

Vera tucked the stray strands of hair behind her ear and pressed them down. She said again, “I remember one time, you drank too much and begged me to stay for the night. You hugged me and kissed me...”

Ji Yinbing no longer wanted to hear the rest.

She could run forward to scold them or pull Yan Nuo away..

Chapter 592 Not Suitable

However, the eye-catching scene of the man and woman standing together agitated her. Ji Yinbing inevitably thought of the scene of them being intimate before. She was actually a little timid.

Ji Yinbing turned around and left.

If she continued to listen, she was afraid she would lose her mind.

When Yan Nuo heard Vera’s words, he couldn’t help but frown. He said, “How many years has it been? At that time, I didn’t know anything.” He stared at Vera with cold eyes and said sarcastically, “You only remembered that I kissed you. Then you didn't remember that I asked you to sleep in the next room?" Vera's face turned pale.

Thinking back to that night, Vera still felt ashamed.

Vera gritted her teeth and asked, "So, Brother Yan Nuo, why did you do that to me?"

Yan Nuo asked, "Don't you understand?"

"I don't understand."

"I don't love you." Yan Nuo explained the truth coldly. "I did not feel any sense of arousal with you."

Vera swayed.

"Yan Nuo, you're humiliating me."

Yan Nuo sneered and mocked her. "Then aren't you humiliating me by pretending to be lost and pitiful?"

Vera pursed her lips and remained silent.

It turned out that he knew that she was pretending

"Vera, don't let me catch you red-handed," Yan Nuo warned her. "Once I find evidence of your betrayal, I'll let you die with your brothers. In that mission, we lost a total of six brothers. Even if one of them was shot, Ah Ka was shot in the leg, I was shot in the waist, and Yinbing was shot in the back..."

He calculated a score for her and then said to her, "When you die, there will be no less than ten holes in your gun."

Seeing that all the blood had drained from Vera's fair face, Yan Nuo left in satisfaction.

After he left, Vera sat on the ground.

"It's okay, it's okay. He won't be able to find any evidence..." Vera comforted herself several times before she was relieved.

She had to destroy that diary and Ji Yinbing, who knew the contents of that diary!

Once Yan Nuo knew the truth and found out the reason for her betrayal, she would definitely die worse!

She could not die!

These few days, Ji Yinbing had been feeling uneasy. Her period had been delayed for too many days.

Ji Yinbing ran to the pharmacy and bought a pregnancy test kit. The next morning, Ji Yinbing hid in the toilet and used two pregnancy test kits. The results showed that she was pregnant!

She held the pregnancy test and looked pleasantly surprised.

Baby...

She touched her stomach gently.

Ji Yinbing hid the pregnancy test kit and put it in the drawer.

She climbed onto the bed and had just laid down when Yan Nuo was woken up by her. He turned over and hugged Ji Yinbing's waist, his voice still sleepy. "What did you do?"

Ji Yinbing said, "To the toilet."

"Sleep a little longer."

After they woke up, Yan Nuo pulled her for a morning jog

When Ji Yinbing heard the word morning jog, she panicked.

Ji Yinbing felt afraid when she thought about how she had not exercised properly without knowing the truth a few days ago. She said to Yan Nuo, "Go ahead. I don't want to run today."

"You're more sleepy and lazy." Yan Nuo scratched her nose and went to the back mountain himself.

When Yan Nuo returned from his jog, he saw Ji Yinbing standing at the finish line waiting for her. She was wearing a loose casual outfit and flat shoes as she spoke to Thomas.

Yan Nuo walked over and Ji Yinbing handed him a cup of water.

Yan Nuo drank the water and went home with Ji Yinbing side by side.

On the way, Ji Yinbing suddenly asked Yan Nuo, "Do you want a child?"

Yan Nuo stopped in his tracks and did not even bother to drink the water. He turned to look at Ji Yinbing and asked her, "Why did you suddenly mention this?"

Ji Yinbing smiled shyly. She said, "I just want to know. Do you want it?" Thinking that Ji Yinbing wanted to have a baby, Yan Nuo pondered for a moment before saying, "I don't want it for the time being."

The smile on Ji Yinbing's face seemed to be a little stiff.

"What's wrong?" Sensing that something was wrong with her, Yan Nuo was a little puzzled. "Did I say something wrong?" Ji Yinbing shook her head. They continued walking for a while before Ji Yinbing asked, "Why?"

Yan Nuo thought that they were not married yet. The situation in India was serious now, and it was not easy for him to emigrate. If he wanted a baby at this time, he would not be able to give him a stable and happy family. Thinking about it made him feel wronged. He said, "It's not suitable."

However, his answer carved a wound in Ji Yinbing's heart.

It was inappropriate... Perhaps it was because pregnant people were prone to letting their thoughts run wild. Yan Nuo's answer was understood by Ji Yinbing as: The difference in their statuses was huge, so they were not suitable for giving birth.

Ji Yinbing returned home in silence.

Ji Yinbing, who had originally planned to stay in India for a while, suddenly decided to leave early.

Yan Nuo was surprised. "Why do you want to leave? Didn't you say that you'll go next month?"

Ji Yinbing secretly wanted to keep this child. She had to be separated from Yan Nuo for a period of time. When she calmed down, she would negotiate with Yan Nuo.

Yan Nuo was a little unhappy. He felt that Ji Yinbing did not care about him.

After dinner, Yan Nuo suddenly said to Ji Yinbing, "I haven't gone out for a gathering with Samit and the rest for a long time. I'm going out to play with them tonight. Maybe not..." Seeing Ji Yinbing look at him with a dark gaze, Yan Nuo changed his words at the last minute. "I might be back later. You don't have to wait for me." "Oh."

Ji Yinbing agreed.

Seeing that she was not angry at all, Yan Nuo felt stifled.

In a fit of anger, he really ran out. Ji Yinbing watched Yan Nuo leave the house and clenched her fists.

How could she not know what Yan Nuo was trying to do? Ji Yinbing returned to her room. She had just taken a shower and lay down when she felt nauseous. She ran to the washroom and vomited once. Later on, she slept until the latter half of the night and felt like vomiting again. She got up again and ran into the washroom. When Yan Nuo returned with the smell of alcohol, he heard Ji Yinbing vomiting.

He was shocked.

Yan Nuo quickly pushed open the toilet door and saw Ji Yinbing lying on the toilet. He was so frightened that his heart was trembling.

“Yinbing!”

Yan Nuo quickly carried her. “What’s wrong?”

Ji Yinbing thought of Yan Nuo’s answer yesterday afternoon and didn’t want him to know the truth, so she said, “Perhaps I ate something bad.”

Yan Nuo was furious.

The next morning, Ji Yinbing came downstairs and realized that the chefs at home had changed. It turned out that Yan Nuo blamed the servants for cooking dirty dishes and made Ji Yinbing uncomfortable, so he fired all of them. Ji Yinbing remained silent about this, but she felt even more bitter.

Yan Nuo, you care about me so much. Why won’t you have a child with me?

Ji Yinbing sat beside Yan Nuo and ate breakfast. Yan Nuo saw that she had eaten a lot and thought that the chef had made it to her liking. He was quite happy. After dinner, Ji Yinbing said, "I bought a plane ticket to America in the afternoon."

The smile on Yan Nuo's face faded.

"Must you leave?"

"...Yes."

Yan Nuo looked at Ji Yinbing's pale face and didn't say anything. "Alright."

Chapter 593: Small Miscarriage

Ji Yinbing's flight was at four in the afternoon. After lunch, she could still rest for more than an hour. Yan Nuo could not bear to leave her, so he slept with her for a while.

If he wanted to, he would start kissing her.

Ji Yinbing's eyes flickered for a moment before she rejected him.

Yan Nuo frowned. "You rejected me?"

"Yan Nuo, not today."

"Why?" Yan Yu's expression turned malicious.

Ji Yinbing almost told him the truth.

In the end, she held back.

“Maybe next time.”

Ji Yinbing’s perfunctory attitude agitated Yan Nuo.

Yan Nuo was already angry that she was leaving. Now that Ji Yinbing had rejected him, his strong pride felt anger and humiliation. Yan Nuo suddenly got out of bed and said, “I have something on in the afternoon. I’ll get Thomas to send you there.” Then, he left the room.

The moment he left, Ji Yinbing could no longer hold it in. She lifted the blanket and ran to the toilet. She lay on the toilet and started vomiting again.

Yan Nuo walked to the door and stopped in his tracks when he heard her vomiting. Was she not done yet? Yan Nuo was a little angry. He was still worried, so he pressed the walkie-talkie in the corridor and said to La Pu downstairs, “Get someone to send Miss Ji a cup of water.”

A moment later, a new maid came upstairs with a glass of water on a tray.

Yan Nuo carried the cup of water back to his room. He knocked on the bathroom door and said to Ji Yinbing, “I brought you a cup of water. You’ll feel better after drinking it.” Yan Nuo wanted to apologize to her, but he felt that he had done nothing wrong this time. He hesitated for a long time before leaving.

Ji Yinbing walked out of the toilet and looked at the cup of water on the bedside table. Her heart warmed.

She picked up the cup and took two sips before putting it down. Then, she took out the envelope that she had written long ago and left it in the drawer before carrying her luggage to the airport.

Ji Yinbing had just passed the security check and had yet to board the plane when she received Yan Nuo's message.

Yan Nuo: [You left?]

Ji Yinbing: [Yes, I'll leave immediately.]

A moment later, Yan Nuo replied.

He said: [Aren't you afraid that I'll change my heart if you keep treating me like this?] Yan Nuo sent another message: [Don't forget, Vera hasn't given up on me.] In a fit of anger, Ji Yinbing replied: [Then you two can reconcile.] Yan Nuo threw his phone away angrily.

"Can't you say something nice?" Yan Nuo was about to go crazy.

La Pu watched as Yan Nuo smashed the phone into pieces and only shook his head helplessly. After sending his anger, Yan Nuo returned to his room to take a shower. At night, he was eating when the servant who was in charge of washing his clothes suddenly walked over with two tickets.

She said, "Sir, your ticket."

La Pu helped take the two tickets.

He looked down at the tickets. They were two tickets to the South Pole.

It was winter in the northern hemisphere now, and it was just summer in the southern hemisphere. If he wanted to go to the South Pole, he had to sign up six months in advance. Sir's ticket must have been ready a long time ago. La Pu noticed that the time to leave for the South Pole was four days later.

Yan Nuo took the tickets and tore them apart angrily.

La Pu could not help but ask him, "Why didn't Sir tell Miss Ji about this directly?"

Yan Nuo was like a childish child. He snorted and said proudly, "What did she say! Who wants to go with her!" After saying that, he pulled a long face and said in an aggrieved tone, "She only has her research in her mind. What am I!"

La Pu had nothing to say.

In the middle of the night, La Pu woke up late and wanted some water. His room was on the first floor. Just as he walked out of his room, he saw Yan Nuo in the dining room, putting together the two tickets he had torn apart with a transparent gel.

La Pu was speechless.

Why was this necessary?

Yan Nuo was not the only one angry. Ji Yinbing was also a little angry.

Ji Yinbing was angry the moment Yan Nuo mentioned Vera. She turned off her phone and fastened her seatbelt, not thinking about Yan Nuo.

The plane took off and shot into the sky.

After a few hours, the originally noisy cabin completely fell silent. Many people were sleeping. Ji Yinbing also felt tired and slept for a while. Soon, she woke up. She had woken up from the pain in her lower abdomen.

Ji Yinbing frowned.

Baby, be strong.

Ji Yinbing held her abdomen and slowly got up, going to the washroom with difficulty.

There was someone in the washroom. She urged the person inside and squatted down at the entrance of the washroom with her hand on her stomach. Gradually, the pain became more and more intense, and Ji Yinbing was almost numb. At this moment, a little girl pointed at Ji Yinbing's buttocks and said, "Auntie, you're bleeding."

Hearing this, Ji Yinbing, who was in so much pain that she was about to lose consciousness, looked down at herself. She saw blood staining her dark green dress.

Ji Yinbing felt fear.

"My baby!"

The toilet door opened and Ji Yinbing quickly entered the toilet.

She took off her pants and saw that the blood was flowing uncontrollably. Ji Yinbing seemed to have gone crazy. She reached out to grab the blood on the floor and the toilet bowl as if she was trying to grab a small life, her expression urgent and flustered. However, the red liquid was disobedient. She grabbed a handful, but they all slipped away from her fingers.

Ji Yinbing collapsed. "My child!"

She knelt and begged them, 'Child, don't go. Baby...'

Kneeling on the ground, Ji Yinbing opened her palms. She looked at the dazzling redness as overwhelming despair pounced on her from all directions and surrounded her.

She leaned over the toilet and finally couldn't help but cry.

The child was gone, but her lower abdomen was still hurting. Waves of pain were like a blender twisting her flesh.

This was not the pain of a natural miscarriage.

This pain was clearly poisoned!

More than an hour later, Ji Yinbing walked out of the washroom covered in blood. All the passengers in the cabin looked at her in shock.

“Auntie...”

When the little girl from before saw Ji Yinbing walking over, everywhere she went was covered in blood. She covered her mouth in fear and hid in her father’s arms.

Ji Yinbing glanced at the child.

She couldn’t even smile sadly.

The plane landed at the airport in America.

Ji Yinbing went to the toilet to change her clothes. She didn’t even go to the hospital and bought a plane ticket back to America. She suspected that someone had poisoned her! She hadn’t been in contact with anyone these two days. The person who had poisoned her must be someone from the Yan family!

When Ji Yinbing returned to India, it was night time.

Yan Nuo was not at home. There was only La Pu at home.

Seeing Ji Yinbing, who had just left yesterday afternoon, return today, La Pu was extremely confused. "Miss Ji, you're back?" La Pu was filled with surprise. This was great. If Miss Ji returned, Sir could go to the South Pole with her.

"Where's Yan Nuo?" Ji Yinbing spoke with a hoarse voice, like a seriously ill patient. La Pu was stunned. Only then did he notice that Ji Yinbing's expression was off.

She was as pale as a patient with advanced cancer..

Chapter 594: Despair

"Miss Ji, what's wrong?"

Ji Yinbing did not answer him. She continued to ask, "Where's Yan Nuo!"

"A terrorist took a child hostage and is threatening the government. Sir received a business call. He brought people to save the hostages."

"Oh."

Ji Yinbing walked upstairs dejectedly.

She could not figure out how the other party poisoned her. It was definitely not in the food. If it was, Yan Nuo would be poisoned too. The poison must have been in the water she drank. Ji Yinbing pushed open Yan Nuo's door and saw the cup of water that she had not finished drinking on the bedside table.

Ji Yinbing looked at the cup of water and a terrifying thought arose in her mind.

Did Yan Nuo discover that she was pregnant and deliberately poisoned the water she drank!

After their argument, Yan Nuo even left her a cup of water. He must have ulterior motives!

On the one hand, Ji Yinbing told herself that this was impossible. However, once this thought arose, it quickly sprouted and could not be pulled out no matter what. Ji Yinbing picked up the cup of water and went straight to Dr. MO Er's private hospital.

Three hours later, when Ji Yinbing received the report she had personally analyzed, her heart turned cold.

The sinner Who killed her child was really the child's biological father!

Ji Yinbing didn't know how she returned to the Yan family.

She returned to the Yan family's house in a daze. The sky was not yet bright. Ji Yinbing took the elevator to the third floor. She used all her strength to push open the door to Yan Nuo's room. When the door opened, she saw underwear scattered on the ground behind the door.

That was a woman's underwear...

Ji Yinbing looked at the bra in a daze.

Thinking of something, the already bitterly disappointed her completely despaired.

As if she was torturing herself, she looked up at the house. She saw women's underwear and men's clothes. They were all scattered on the ground and slapped Ji Yinbing's face hard.

On the bed, a woman with snow-white skin had her hair draped over her shoulders.

The blanket was lazily draped around her waist. She crossed her legs and sat on the bed, her body moving up and down. Ji Yinbing knew very well what she was doing!

Ji Yinbing did not have the courage to enter the house.

She pinched the report, but her abdomen was still hurting. She stood at the door, and her feet hurt like they were pierced by needles.

[Aren't you afraid that my heart will change if you keep treating me like this?]

— [Don't forget, Vera hasn't given up on me.]

Yan Nuo's words in the message yesterday afternoon had come true.

Ji Yinbing wanted to kill someone!

Kill this adulterous couple.

She walked further into the house and suddenly thought of everything that yan Nuo had done to her.

Without Yan Nuo, there would not be the current Ji Yinbing.

He was her savior. She couldn't do this.

Ji Yinbing forced herself to retract her foot.

She took the report and ran downstairs.

With every step she took, her weak body hurt even more.

La Pu had just woken up when he heard footsteps coming from the elevator. He looked up. "Miss Ji! I want to..." Before he could finish speaking, Ji Yinbing ran out of the Yan family like a gust of wind.

La Pu was confused.

At the same time, upstairs.

Yan Nuo treated the wound on his abdomen before opening the bathroom door.

He was stunned to see Vera standing in the house.

Yan Nuo had accepted a mission today. A terrorist had kidnapped a few students. When he brought people to save them, he did not expect that the harmless-looking little fellow was actually a member of the terrorists. That little fellow had actually stabbed him.

Fortunately, the child was not strong and did not hurt her vital parts.

"Why are you upstairs?" He remembered that Vera was still downstairs when he returned.

Yan Nuo returned late at night. When he reached home, he saw Vera. He heard from La Pu that Vera had heard that he was fighting against terrorists. She was worried about him and came to the Yan family.

He heard La Pu say again that Yin Bing was back, but he didn't know what had happened. She had gone out again. However, she should still be in the country. She hadn't taken her luggage with her.

Yan Nuo wanted to treat his wound well so that Yin Bing would not be worried when she came back and found out that he was injured. He went straight to his room, took off his clothes, and went into the bathroom to clean his body and bandage his wound.

Hence, he did not know that Vera was in his room.

Seeing Vera here, Yan Nuo was furious. "Get out!" If Yin Bing saw her, she would be furious.

Vera said aggrievedly, "Brother Yan Nuo, I'm worried about you..."

"If you don't get lost soon, I'll throw you out the window."

Vera was frightened and left cowardly.

Yan Nuo opened the closet and found a loose shirt to put on. He waited in the room for a while more. Ji Yinbing did not return after a long time. He was a little worried, so he found his phone and called Ji Yinbing.

The call did not go through...

Yan Nuo went downstairs.

Breakfast was ready. Yan Nuo saw that the servant was arranging the dishes and said, "We'll eat when Miss Ji comes back."

After the servant retreated, La Pu asked Yan Nuo in confusion, "Sir, Miss Ji returned this morning and then left. You didn't know?"

Yan Nuo was dumbfounded.

"When did this happen?"

Seeing that he really did not know, La Pu quickly told Yan Nuo what he had seen early in the morning.

Yan Nuo's face darkened.

"Vera is an idiot!"

Ji Yinbing must have seen Vera in her room and got into a fight again!

"Forget it. I'll go find her."

Yan Nuo took his car keys and went out to look for Ji Yinbing. However, he didn't know that he searched for five to six days.

Ji Yinbing ran to the Yan family in a daze, but she realized that she had nowhere to go. In this huge India, with more than a billion people, there was actually no family for her.

Ji Yinbing came to the airport again. She wanted to go to America. When she was buying tickets, she suddenly thought of Yan Nuo.

When he realized that she was missing, Yan Nuo would definitely go to America to look for her.

However, she did not want to see Yan Nuo again.

If she went to America, Yan Nuo would come and find her soon. After thinking about it, Ji Yinbing finally bought a plane ticket to Binjiang City.

When Yan Nuo realized that Ji Yinbing was not in India, he was a little angry. Did she have to go to America like this? She was getting more and more temperamental. He cared about Ji Yinbing after all. Even if he had a grudge, he still called Zhuang Long.

“Did Yinbing look for you?” Zhuang Long said, “No.”

“Help me take a look at her house.”

Zhuang Long ran to Ji Yinbing’s house without any complaints.

Then, Zhuang Long called Yan Nuo back. “There’s no one at Bingbing’s house. Boss Yan, I think she didn’t come to America at all.”

“Then where can she go!”

Yan Nuo was about to go crazy.

Why was this woman so temperamental!

Yan Nuo was worried about Ji Yinbing, so he personally went to America. He searched everywhere Ji Yinbing might go, but he still could not find Ji Yinbing. Yan Nuo was no longer irritated and started to worry.

Did something happen to her!

This guess shocked Yan Nuo himself..

Chapter 595 Well Scolded

Helpless, Yan Nuo could only ask Xiao Fengyi to go to the I Nation airline. Xiao Fengyi personally checked Ji Yinbing’s flight records before figuring out her whereabouts.

“Second Chief.” On the phone, Xiao Fengyi’s tone sounded hesitant. Knowing that Yan Nuo was impatient, he said, “Bing went to Binjiang City.”

Yan Nuo was stunned.

“Are you sure?”

“I’m sure.”

Yan Nuo did not expect Ji Yinbing to go to Binjiang City.

The last time they went to Binjiang City was to attend Fang Yusheng and Qiao Jiusheng’s wedding. At that time, Ji Yinbing had said that Binjiang City was a good place. Why did she go there? To travel? Or to find Fang Yusheng? Then why didn’t she pick up her call?

Yan Nuo was not stupid. After thinking about it, he realized that there was definitely something fishy going on.

Ji Yinbing was not a little girl. After she was angry, she might argue, but she would not mess around.

What happened?

Yan Nuo returned to Ji Yinbing’s house alone and logged into the OK app. Other than Ji Yinbing, everyone else was playing happily in the group. He didn’t say anything and watched these bad friends snatch the red packets. Only when they stopped did Yan Nuo privately poke Fang Yusheng.

He turned on the video.

The video call went through and rang for a long time before Fang Yusheng picked up the video call. Fang Yusheng was wearing pajamas and sitting by the bed, looking like he was about to sleep but not tired.

Yan Nuo was a little jealous of him. Fang Yusheng had time to sleep, but he was still wasting it. On the other hand, in order to find Ji Yinbing, he had not slept well for dozens of hours.

Yan Nuo rubbed his tired eyebrows and asked Fang Yusheng, "Did Yinbing look for you?"

Fang Yusheng, who was on camera, looked very surprised. He asked Yan Nuo, "Why is Yinbing looking for me? Ah Sheng hasn't given birth yet. It's a little early to send a gift."

Yan Nuo felt a little helpless when he heard this from this little slave.

However, he believed Fang Yusheng.

Fang Yusheng was his good brother. Fang Yusheng would not lie to him. He still had this confidence.

He sighed. "I've been very troubled recently." Yan Nuo could not help but complain to Fang Yusheng. "Women are really troublesome. She's quite angry this time and even went missing with me." Yan Nuo did not know what Ji Yinbing was angry about. After thinking about it, he felt that this might be the case

For some reason, Ji Yinbing suddenly did not want to go to America anymore. She returned home at the last minute and saw Vera in her room. The woman was jealous and went missing in a fit of anger.

Yan Nuo saw Fang Yusheng's face turn cold.

He was puzzled.

Fang Yusheng asked, "Did you guys have a conflict?"

Yan Nuo told Fang Yusheng what had happened recently. After hearing this, Fang Yusheng said, "It's simple. There are two solutions. One, chase Vera away. Two, chase Yinbing away." That would be awesome.

Yan Nuo's face darkened.

It was not a matter of whether he could chase Vera away or not. Instead, he had to find Ji Yinbing and coax her before dealing with Vera.

Seeing Yan Nuo's dark expression, Fang Yusheng couldn't help but mock him. "Why? Do you still want to marry two women at once? In the future, there will be two female servants. One will sleep with you for half a month, and the other will sleep with you for half a month?" Fang Yusheng didn't know what had happened between Vera and Yan Nuo. Everything was based on his guess.

Yan Nuo was even more irritated.

"You're so capable! If you don't have the ability to be an emperor, don't even think about having a harem of three thousand beauties." Fang Yusheng thought of Ji Yinbing's despair and was filled with anger towards Yan Nuo.

What the heck! She was such a good girl, but he did not know how to cherish her.

Fang Yusheng's anger was abnormal. Yan Nuo's thoughts raced. He immediately guessed the real reason for Fang Yusheng's anger.

"She went to look for you." Yan Nuo sounded certain.

Seeing that Fang Yusheng suddenly stopped talking, Yan Nuo knew that he had guessed correctly. Thinking that he could not find Ji Yinbing's accommodation records, Yan Nuo said, "She's at your house."

Fang Yusheng said that he had nothing to say and hung up.

After hanging up the phone, Fang Yusheng threw down his phone and ran to the next room. Ji Yinbing had indeed come to find him. When Fang Yusheng saw her, Ji Yinbing was wearing a down jacket and dragging her luggage as she leaned against the door of Fang Yusheng's apartment.

Her face was pale, and what made Fang Yusheng feel even more uneasy was her gaze.

Fang Yusheng had never seen despair in this smart woman's eyes. Just by looking at each other, Fang Yusheng knew that something big must have happened to Ji Yinbing. After knowing from Ji Yinbing's mouth that she had just lost a child and that this child was most likely aborted by Yan Nuo, Fang Yusheng's heart ached for her and he despised Yan Nuo even more.

Hence, Fang Yusheng would lie to Yan Nuo when he called.

When he went to the next room to look for Ji Yinbing, Ji Yinbing was still awake. She had something on her mind, so how could she sleep?

Ji Yinbing opened the door and Fang Yusheng told her apologetically, "He knows you're here."

Ji Yinbing said that she understood and closed the door.

Fang Yusheng wanted to persuade her, but he was rejected.

After closing the door, Ji Yinbing leaned against it and touched her abdomen that was still hurting. She could not help but feel sad. She actually understood that she should find Yan Nuo and ask him why he was so ruthless to abort the child. However, when she thought of Vera kneeling on her and Yan Nuo's bed and celebrating, she felt disgusted.

There would be no misunderstanding.

The truth was that Yan Nuo had indeed fallen in love with someone else and reconciled with his first love.

Ji Yinbing even suspected that Yan Nuo had lied to her. He said that he suspected Vera was a traitor and kept her by his side to investigate the truth of her betrayal. Perhaps it was just an excuse for him to keep Vera by his side openly.

Everyone was like this. Once Yan Nuo did something that made her sad and despair, Ji Yin Bing would forever lose her trust in Yan Nuo. Then, all the previous vows would be suspected by her as a lie.

The next morning, just as the sky lit up, Ji Yinbing wrote a note to Fang Yusheng and left with her luggage.

When Yan Nuo rushed to Fang Yusheng's apartment building, Ji Yinbing had already left.

Yan Nuo pressed the doorbell of Fang Yusheng's house.

The person who opened the door was a chubby lady.

The auntie looked up at him timidly and asked him softly who he was looking for.

Yan Nuo said that he was looking for Fang Yusheng.

The auntie asked him if he was Fang Yusheng's friend and why he was here.

Yan Nuo said, "I'm here to pick up my girlfriend."

Then, Yan Nuo saw that the auntie who had been looking at him with a timid gaze like a mouse seeing a cat suddenly became valiant and spirited like a fighting chicken. She scolded Yan Nuo for being shameless and even asked him to take a piss and look at himself. She said that he was not worthy of snatching the wife from Fang Yusheng.

Yan Nuo was confused.

Chapter 596 Untitled

Seeing that the auntie was still chattering non-stop, Yan Nuo felt that she was too noisy. Yan Nuo's expression turned cold and he shouted in a deep voice, "Aunt."

Yan Nuo called her auntie like a gust of cold wind.

Aunt Jin immediately cowered when he called her auntie.

However, Aunt Jin still did not let Yan Nuo in. She personally went into the house to ask Fang Yusheng and confirmed that Yan Nuo and Fang Yusheng were friends before letting him in.

In the house, Fang Yusheng and Qiao Jiusheng were eating breakfast.

Fang Yusheng was not surprised by his arrival. He said to him, "You're quite fast." Then, he continued to eat his breakfast.

Yan Nuo ignored him and only nodded at Qiao Jiusheng before walking towards the room. He pushed open the door of the guest room and did not see Ji Yinbing. On the bed, the blanket was folded neatly, and there was no warmth when he touched it. After walking out of the guest room, Yan Nuo boldly pushed open the door of the master bedroom, but he still could not find Ji Yinbing.

Looking at the empty room, Yan Nuo frowned and felt a little irritated.

"Where is she?" Yan Nuo tried his best to control his temper and asked Fang Yusheng, "Where's Yinbing?"

"As you can see, she left," Fang Yusheng said as he ate.

Yan Nuo asked in confusion, "Is she avoiding me?"

Fang Yusheng rolled his eyes. "Would she be avoiding me then?"

Yan Nuo didn't understand. Did Ji Yinbing have to go so far? It was just a small matter. Was it worth it for her to disappear and hide from him?

Seeing that he really did not know, Fang Yusheng guessed that perhaps Yan Nuo was really innocent in this entire matter. Ji Yinbing and Yan Nuo might have been plotted against. Fang Yusheng thought of the child who had miscarried before it even took shape. Then, he thought of the two boys in Qiao Jiusheng's stomach and could not help but feel pity and heartache.

He sighed. "The child is gone."

Yan Nuo was stunned.

Then, he asked Fang Yusheng in a light and incredulous tone, "What do you mean gone...?" He suspected that he had heard wrongly.

Yan Nuo hoped that the truth was not what he understood.

Fang Yusheng finally looked up.

He looked straight into Yan Nuo's eyes and saw Yan Nuo's shock and pleading. He seemed to not know that Ji Yinbing was pregnant at all. Perhaps he understood in his heart, but he could not believe it and was afraid to hear the truth. Therefore, his eyes were pleading.

However, no matter how afraid Yan Nuo was, since it had happened, he had to face it.

Fang Yusheng could not bear to see her like this, but he could only harden his heart and say, "The child in Yinbing's stomach is gone."

Boom!

Yan Nuo felt like he was struck by lightning.

He heard his mind buzzing.

Yan Nuo immediately recalled the scene of Ji Yinbing vomiting in the toilet when he returned in the middle of the night a few days ago.

So she was pregnant... Why was he so stupid! Why didn't he think of this?

Yan Nuo could not help but think of the question Ji Yinbing asked that morning. She asked him if he wanted a child.

What did he answer back then?

He said he didn't want to!

He said it was not appropriate!

Heavens!

Look at what he was saying!

When Yinbing heard his answer, she felt terrible!

Yan Nuo stood there. From Fang Yusheng's point of view, Yan Nuo's reaction was shocking, stunned, helpless, and sorrowful. It was rare that they could see so much content on Yan Nuo's cold face.

Fang Yusheng and Qiao Jiusheng looked at each other and came to the same conclusion. Yan Nuo really did not know that Ji Yinbing was pregnant.

They could only sigh at fate.

At this moment, no one could really feel Yan Nuo's pain.

How could he not want a child!

Many years ago, he had fantasized about having a cute child with Ji Yinbing. As Ji Yinbing had said, he would give the best things in the world to their children. If India could not accommodate them, they would move and emigrate.

Their children could choose the university majors they wanted to study in, the boys or girls they liked, and the life they wanted.

Yan Nuo wished he could give the entire world to their baby.

But the child was gone!

He had been here before, but he had left without leaving any traces. He had not even left a ultrasound scan.

Yan Nuo's heart ached.

If he already felt like this, he could not imagine how the child's mother felt!

In an instant, Yan Nuo experienced great joy and sorrow in his life.

Yan Nuo said goodbye to Fang Yusheng and left his house.

Standing under the cold Binjiang City sky, the sky was lead-colored and heavy, as if it could snow at any time. Yan Nuo didn't know where to find Ji Yinbing. Binjiang City was so big and so unfamiliar. Where should he find Ji Yinbing?

Yan Nuo had no choice but to find a place to stay.

On the way to the hotel, he suppressed the pain in his heart and sorted out all the details of this matter. The child was gone, so it was definitely not an accident. If it was an accident, Ji Yinbing's reaction would not be so intense. Something must have happened that caused their child to miscarry!

Ji Yinbing suddenly decided to leave America perhaps because she was angry at him for not wanting a child. She had gone to America and returned. Something big must have happened between them.

She returned to the Yan family and suddenly left again. What did she do during this period of time? The next morning, Ji Yinbing returned to the Yan family and La Pu bumped into her leaving with a sad expression. Yan Nuo boldly guessed that she might have seen Vera appear in his room.

Then, when did the child not exist?

If it was before she saw Vera, after the pain of losing her child and misunderstanding Vera's relationship with her, how distraught would Ji Yinbing be?

If the child miscarried after that, then he deserved to die!

Regardless of the situation, Vera deserved to die!

Yan Nuo was puzzled again.

Was Ji Yinbing so angry just because she saw Vera in the room?

Did Vera do anything to make her misunderstand?

Yan Nuo was puzzled. Once he reached the hotel, he called Fang Yusheng.

“Who is it?”

Yan Nuo was using the hotel phone. When he heard Fang Yusheng’s voice, he went straight to the point. “Did she tell you how the child disappeared? What happened to her?”

Fang Yusheng snorted. “I don’t know.”

Yan Nuo was about to die of anger from his good brother. He took a deep breath and said, “An, please, even if you want to sentence me to death, let me know my crimes.”

Fang Yusheng fell silent.

There was silence in the receiver for nearly half a minute. Just as Yan Nuo thought that Fang Yusheng would hang up, Fang Yusheng said, “Did you give Yinbing a cup of water?”

Yan Nuo was stunned.

He recalled carefully and recalled that at noon that day, he had begged Ji Yinbing for love but to no avail. In addition, she was determined to return to America, so Yan Nuo was a little angry. He planned to leave alone, but when he heard Ji Yinbing vomiting, he could not bear it and asked the servant to send him a cup of water.

Could it be...

Chapter 597 Bone Soup

“I did prepare a cup of water for her.” Thinking that there might be a problem with the cup of water, Yan Nuo quickly said, “But I didn’t poison it! I got the servants to bring that cup of water.”

“If what you say is true,” Fang Yusheng said coldly, “Then perhaps you should clean up the helpers at home.”

Yan Nuo remained silent.

Fang Yusheng added, "She had a miscarriage on the plane to America."

When Yan Nuo heard this, his heart skipped a beat. Every breath he took was filled with pain.

So the child was lost on the plane.

The moment she realized that the child had been miscarried, how sad and distraught did Yinbing feel...

"She wanted to ask you why you treated her like this. She ran back and found the cup of water. She tested the composition of the water." Fang Yusheng's tone became serious. He said, "That cup of water contains the H690 venom. This venom can completely poison an adult."

"You should be glad that the child died, not Yinbing." This might be cruel, but it was the truth.

When he heard the name H690, Yan Nuo's aura became gloomy.

No one knew that Ji Yinbing was pregnant. If he didn't know, no one else knew either!

The person who poisoned her wanted Ji Yinbing's life!

There was silence on the other end for a moment. After Yan Nuo digested this shocking fact, Fang Yusheng's voice sounded again. "She took the report and planned to confront you back. Guess what?"

"At this time, don't deliberately leave any suspense." Yan Nuo was not interested in guessing the plot.

Fang Yusheng also realized that his joke was inappropriate.

He said, "Yinbing saw Vera lying naked on your bed. According to her, when she saw Vera, she was sitting on you... You can imagine the rest." Fang Yusheng warned Yan Nuo, "Yan Nuo, it's fine if you didn't do this. If you really did it, then we can't do anything anymore." "I, Fang Yusheng, can't afford to have a brother who can even poison his own child." After saying that, Fang Yusheng ended the call.

Yan Nuo was stunned.

A moment later, he forced himself to calm down and told himself to maintain his composure before calling Xiao Fengyi. "Second Chief."

Hearing Xiao Fengyi's reply, Yan Nuo only said one sentence to him. He said, "Lock Vera up." Although Xiao Fengyi was surprised, he did not ask why he gave such an order. After hanging up the phone, Yan Nuo did not dare to delay for a moment. He had to find Ji Yinbing as soon as possible.

Binjiang City was not Yan Nuo's world.

If he wanted to find someone in Binjiang City, apart from asking the police for help, he had to ask the detectives for help. Through Fang Yusheng's introduction, he personally went to find a detective.

After a day, he did not manage to find Ji Yinbing, but he received a call from Xiao Fengyi.

Xiao Fengyi said anxiously, "Second Chief, Vera is not in Mumbai." Vera was probably afraid and ran away. When Xiao Fengyi went to catch Vera, he missed. Yan Nuo smiled.

His unconcealed low laugh sounded cruel and murderous in Xiao Fengyi's ears. He heard Yan Nuo say, "Find her! Even if you overturn India, you have to find her for me! If you find her, I don't care if she lives or dies!"

Although Xiao Fengyi was shocked, he still did as he was told.

After waiting for another day and a half, Yan Nuo finally received the detective's good news.

Yan Nuo knew that it was not easy to get Ji Yinbing's forgiveness. In order to ensure that he could bring her back, Yan Nuo even brought a gun.

At that time, if she was really heartless, he could still play a trick on her. Although this method was despicable, it was insignificant compared to finding Ji Yinbing.

Ji Yinbing did not go to the hospital. With her body, going to the hospital was useless. She needed to rest and recuperate well.

After leaving Fang Yusheng's house, Ji Yinbing moved into a confinement center.

Yan Nuo walked into the confinement center. Inside the house, he heard the cries of many newborn babies.

When he heard the children's cries, his heart twisted into a ball. If their children were still fine, then he would be able to hear his baby's cries in a few months.

At the thought of this, Yan Nuo's heart ached.

He stopped and shook his head before walking on.

"Sir, who are you looking for?" A nurse in a pink nurse uniform blocked Yan Nuo's path.

Yan Nuo glanced at her. Thinking that these people had been taking care of Ji Yinbing these few days, he tried his best to be friendly. He said, "I came to find my girlfriend."

"Who is it?" The nurse stared at Yan Nuo suspiciously.

Yan Nuo's aura was too strong. He really did not look like someone who had a girlfriend.

“Ji Yinbing.”

Seeing that the other party had accurately reported her name, the suspicion in the baby shower master’s eyes faded a little. She said, “Wait for me. I’ll go and ask.”

The nurse had just turned around when Yan Nuo ran upstairs from another staircase.

Ji Yinbing’s lounge was on the second floor to the third room on the left.

Yan Nuo arrived at his destination first. He pushed the door open and made some sounds. Ji Yinbing, who was lying on her side on the bed and looking out of the window, heard the door open. She thought that the nurse was here. She did not turn around and only said, “I want to drink some pork ribs radish soup, okay?”

Yan Nuo remained silent and left the room.

He had just closed the door when he bumped into the nursery master.

The nurse glanced at him and was a little angry. “What’s wrong with you!” Yan Nuo pulled the nurse to a remote place, afraid that he would disturb Ji Yinbing.

The nurse was not even as tall as Yan Nuo’s shoulder. She was a little afraid when Yan Nuo pulled her to a remote place. Yan Nuo looked down at her and said, “That’s really my girlfriend. We have a conflict between us. I have to ask her to forgive me. She had a miscarriage and is not in good health. Can she drink bone soup?”

Perhaps it was because Yan Nuo’s expression was too cold, or perhaps it was because he was too tall, or perhaps it was because the sorrow in his eyes was too strong. In short, the infantile master nodded mysteriously.

“Do you know how to make pork ribs and radish soup?” Yan Nuo looked vexed. He said, “I didn’t do it. I want to do it for her once.”

The nurse brought Yan Nuo to the kitchen.

Yan Nuo did not make the first pot successfully and it was a little blurry. The second pot could barely enter his mouth, but there was too much salt.

He carried the soup upstairs. Ji Yinbing was still lying on the bed. She heard the door open and quickly smelled the rich fragrance of radishes and pork ribs. Ji Yinbing spoke as she sat up. "I've always wanted a mouthful of radish soup..." Halfway through her sentence, Ji Yinbing saw Yan Nuo.

Seeing him, Ji Yinbing immediately shut her mouth. Her calm eyes were filled with hatred.

But soon, she suppressed her hatred.

She asked him respectfully, "Why are you here?"

Chapter 598 Impossible

Yan Nuo noticed that Ji Yinbing no longer called him by his name. However, she could no longer call him master.

Yan Nuo was stunned by Ji Yinbing's respectful and unrelenting tone. His heart silently cut open again and blood flowed out.

"Yinbing." Yan Nuo realized that his voice was hoarse.

His voice paused. He saw that Ji Yinbing was still looking at him with such a calm gaze. That was not the gaze a woman should have after giving birth. No matter how angry or angry she was, it was better than pretending to be calm after her heart had died.

Yan Nuo felt flustered.

“Soup...” He was as helpless as a young boy. He said hurriedly and incoherently, “The soup you wanted, pork ribs soup, radish pork ribs soup. I just stewed it. “Then, Yan Nuo felt awkward again.” Perhaps I put too much salt. Y-You can try it.”

Ji Yinbing looked at the pot of soup in his hands.

Bitterness and grief spread through her body.

She wanted to cry, but she couldn't.

In the past, she would definitely be very touched if Yan Nuo spoke to her in this tone and personally made soup for her. But now, Yan Nuo's actions changed in Ji Yinbing's eyes.

A hint of mockery appeared in her calm and cold eyes.

Yan Nuo heard her say, “What's this? Making up for your mistakes?”

Yan Nuo's gaze darkened.

“It's not me.” He felt wronged and his heart ached.

Ji Yinbing found his innocent look even more ironic.

Ji Yinbing said, “Okay, not you.”

Her tone was shockingly calm.

Although Ji Yinbing said that, she definitely did not believe him in her heart. Yan Nuo knew this very well. He understood that wanting to get Ji Yinbing's forgiveness and trust was not something that could be done overnight.

Perhaps it was because they had been together for a long time that the pain in her heart was resolved.

Yan Nuo calmed down and softened his voice to coax Ji Yinbing to eat. "Since you believe me, drink a few mouthfuls of soup to warm yourself up." He carried the pot of soup and walked around to Ji Yinbing's bed. He smiled and said, "Yinbing, try it. If it tastes good, I'll make it for you next meal."

Ji Yinbing remained silent.

Yan Nuo placed the small basin containing the soup on the bedside table.

He took out a small bowl and scooped soup into it. As he cooked, he said, "I think the confinement center is in a mess too. Come out with me. Didn't we buy an apartment before? We'll stay there. I'll take care of you during this period of time. What flavor dishes do you like? I'll get a chef to make them for you." He asked her carefully, "Look, is it okay?"

Ji Yinbing was silent for a long time.

Yan Nuo was not in a hurry to hear her reply.

He pretended to feed Ji Yinbing soup. Ji Yinbing dodged. The happiness she felt when Yan Nuo touched her was now as disgusting as it was now.

Yan Nuo was stunned when he saw her dodge.

He was a little angry, but he controlled his emotions and did not flare up.

Ji Yinbing said, "I'll do it myself." "...Okay."

Ji Yinbing took a sip. There was some soup and some saltiness. Ji Yinbing was surprised that Yan Nuo could do this. However, she was in a bad mood and was not in the mood to praise him.

Ji Yinbing unintentionally looked up and saw Yan Nuo's narrowed eyes sizing her up. That gaze was so dark. He was probably thinking about how to get her back to India.

Ji Yinbing suddenly put down her spoon and said, "Let's go back."

Yan Nuo thought that Ji Yinbing was asking him to return to India, so his already cold face became even colder. "If you want to go back, we can go back together." Ji Yinbing said, "I mean, go back to the apartment."

Yan Nuo was stunned for a moment before his face lit up. Then, he looked suspicious. "Really?" He felt that Ji Yinbing would not agree so easily. In order to convince him, Ji Yinbing explained, "It's very noisy here. When I heard the babies crying, I thought of my child..." At the mention of children, Ji Yinbing fell silent. Following that, Yan Nuo fell silent.

After a moment, Yan Nuo said, "Okay."

"Change the furniture in the house to something brighter," Ji Yinbing said. "I want to see something brighter."

"Okay."

Yan Nuo was about to call and ask the people in the furniture shop to send him to the apartment when Ji Yinbing said, "Go yourself. When you reach the mall, open a video call for me. We can choose together."

Yan Nuo's eyes immediately turned cold.

He stared at Ji Yinbing without looking away. He said, "You're lying to me." Yan Nuo's tone was as cold as an icicle.

Ji Yinbing naturally looked puzzled. She asked Yan Nuo, "Lying to you about what?"

Many words rose to his throat. Yan Nuo could have said it, but when he heard Ji Yinbing say this, he couldn't say it. He shook his head and said, "Nothing." Yan Nuo got up and said, "Then I'll go to the mall. You have to turn on your phone. I'll video call you later."

Ji Yinbing turned on her phone in front of Yan Nuo.

Yan Nuo left.

Less than half an hour after he left, Ji Yinbing changed her clothes and did the discharge procedures. She carried her suitcase and appeared at the entrance of the confinement center, waiting for a taxi to come and take her to the airport.

A black car stopped in front of Ji Yinbing.

Ji Yinbing thought that the car was here to pick her up, so she moved aside. At this moment, the car window rolled down. Ji Yinbing looked up and saw a handsome face that was as cold as ice. This face was so familiar. They had once faced each other day and night.

Her heart turned cold and she turned to leave.

The car door was suddenly kicked open.

The 1.9-meter tall man strode out of the car and caught up to her in a few steps, hugging her waist.

"Didn't you say that you would wait for my video call in the ward?" Yan Nuo's voice was dark and sounded like a demon's murmur beside Ji Yinbing's ear.

The delicate body in his arms trembled slightly.

Ji Yinbing was speechless.

Yan Nuo's eyes were filled with pain. He tightened his arms and hugged Ji Yinbing even more tightly. "Come back with me. Don't think about leaving again."

Ji Yinbing was pressed into the passenger seat.

Yan Nuo fastened her seatbelt for her.

Ji Yinbing looked at the crowded traffic in front of the car and sneered. "Yan Nuo, the child is gone."

"I know."

"The child is gone," was all she repeated.

Yan Nuo was silent for a moment before he heard his voice. "...I know."

"Yan Nuo, it's impossible for us."

Yan Nuo was flustered and said coldly, "Perhaps."

"You understand. We can't do that."

"I said it's possible!" Yan Nuo suddenly stepped on the brakes.

Ji Yinbing's head knocked forward. She thought that her head would hit the glass, but Yan Nuo quickly reached out and blocked her head. Her forehead hit his palm. Her rough palm was actually cold. Yan Nuo used that hand to pull Ji Yinbing's face over. He asked her, "What do I have to do before you go back with me?" Ji Yinbing pursed her lips tightly. She said, "Perhaps after I die, you can bring my corpse back."

Chapter 599 A Big Bet Can't Be Worse Than Playing With Your Life

Yan Nuo's pupils constricted.

He quickly covered her mouth with his hand. "Shut up!"

He brought her back to the apartment. The furniture had not been changed. He had hired a chef, and he guarded her closely. Ji Yinbing did not resist, but she stopped talking to him. Afraid that she would be bored, Yan Nuo gave her a computer. He seemed relieved to see her in his vision.

The two of them tortured and disgusted each other.

After being locked up for three days, Ji Yinbing wanted to go out and take a breather. When he heard that she was going out, Yan Nuo treated her seriously as if he was facing a formidable enemy.

"I'll stay with you."

Ji Yinbing looked at him deeply and said, "Okay."

They strolled downstairs in the district. There was a man-made lake in the district. The closer they got to the lake, the more tense Yan Nuo became. Ji Yinbing was seriously suicidal now. Yan Nuo was worried that if he was careless, Ji Yinbing would throw herself into the lake.

When she reached the lake, Ji Yinbing held the railing with both hands.

She looked at the clear water and suddenly said, "Yan Nuo, let me go."

“Impossible.”

Ji Yinbing tilted her head and stared at Yan Nuo. When Yan Nuo felt a chill run down his spine and had no choice but to turn his head to look at her, Ji Yinbing said, “You understand. We can’t continue like this.” She smiled bitterly. “Yan Nuo, I won’t live with the murderer who killed my child for the rest of my life.”

Yan Nuo roared softly and said to her, “It’s not me! It’s really not me! I didn’t even know that child existed!” Yan Nuo was the most innocent in this matter.

However, Ji Yinbing did not believe him.

She sneered and said, “But that cup of water was indeed prepared by you for me!”

“You don’t know about the child’s existence. You’re not sincere in wanting to kill him... Then.” She smiled sadly and asked Yan Nuo, “Do you want to kill me?”

Yan Nuo trembled with anger.

“Ji Yinbing! Touch your conscience and ask yourself. Don’t you feel terrible slandering me like this!”

He also felt wronged, but Ji Yinbing did not believe him even if he explained. He would never be able to clear his name.

Hearing his words, Ji Yinbing felt even more sarcastic. She mocked, “You didn’t drug me. I wronged you... Then I wronged you for fooling around in bed with Vera?”

Yan Nuo said, “Yes, you’ve wronged me!”

“Yan Nuo!” Ji Yinbing suddenly exploded. She roared at him and questioned, “I saw it with my own eyes! How can it be fake! Yan Nuo, do you take me as an idiot!”

Yan Nuo was also a little stunned by her roar.

This was the first time he was scolded by Ji Yinbing. Yan Nuo took a deep breath and reminded himself not to lose his temper. He adjusted his emotions and asked Ji Yinbing softly, "You said that you saw Vera and me? Where did you see us? What were we doing when you saw us!"

Ji Yinbing felt that Yan Nuo asking such a question was simply humiliating her.

It was not enough that he had cheated on her. He had to hear her describe the scene of him messing around with Vera!

Ji Yinbing was so angry that her body was trembling

Yan Nuo did not hear Ji Yinbing's explanation. Instead, he saw Ji Yinbing's body swaying for a few seconds. Then, she suddenly held the armrest in front of her and coughed suddenly. Yan Nuo was worried again. "Yinbing..." He went forward to support her.

A moment later, Ji Yinbing looked up at him.

There were actually a few traces of blood hanging from the corners of her mouth.

She actually vomited blood from anger.

Yan Nuo panicked.

"Don't be angry. I won't say it anymore. Really!"

This time, Yan Nuo was not in a hurry to prove his innocence.

He only wanted Ji Yinbing to be safe.

There was a sickly blush on Ji Yinbing's pale face. She wiped the blood from the corner of her mouth. The next second, she suddenly stood up straight and raised her right hand to quickly remove the ring on her neck. Seeing her remove the ring, anger crept into Yan Nuo's heart.

"What are you doing!"

Ji Yinbing took the ring and handed it to Yan Nuo. She said, "Yan Nuo, take it back."

Yan Nuo glared at her and refused to reach out.

Ji Yinbing smiled bitterly. "You're not accepting it, right?" She sighed. "Yan Nuo, let's break up. Let's break up. We'll be separated from each other from now on. Let's not meet again. I feel guilty accepting this!" With that, she threw the golden ring into the lake under Yan Nuo's angry gaze.

Yan Nuo looked at the waves on the lake and his heart was about to shatter.

"You want to break up with me?" His tone became strange and unpredictable.

Ji Yinbing only looked at him without saying anything

Silence was confirmation.

Yan Nuo suddenly smiled.

That self-deprecating smile was not suitable for his face.

He asked Ji Yinbing, "What do I have to do to make you stay?" Ji Yinbing said, "I won't stay."

She did not want the man who had betrayed her.

Ji Yinbing turned around and was about to do it.

Suddenly, she heard the sound of the machine clicking. After realizing what it was, Ji Yinbing suddenly stopped and turned around to look at Yan Nuo.

Yan Nuo held a small pistol in his hand.

The black gun was pointed in Ji Yinbing's direction.

Her expression did not change.

Was he angry and planning to kill her to silence her?

Just as this thought appeared in Ji Yinbing's mind, Yan Nuo turned his wrist and aimed the gun at his heart.

Ji Yinbing was stunned for a moment before she calmed down.

"Are you only willing to stay if I die?" Yan Nuo's tone was actually very calm.

Ji Yinbing suddenly laughed.

"Are you threatening me?" Ji Yinbing felt that Yan Nuo was really ruthless. He was the one who had hurt her, but in the end, he was the one who shamelessly asked her to stay. Ji Yinbing said in a firm tone, "You won't shoot Yan Nuo."

Yan Nuo asked her, "Why?"

She said, "You, who promised to emigrate many years ago, haven't succeeded yet. Because you have worries in your heart. You can't let go of the Black Fiend or your brothers. You, who view responsibility more important than your own feelings, how can you commit suicide for a woman?"

Ji Yinbing looked at him with an understanding gaze. Her tone became even more certain. "Yan Nuo, stop acting. I've had enough." She turned around and left.

That thin shadow became smaller and smaller in Yan Nuo's eyes.

She had only taken three to four steps when a deafening sound suddenly sounded in this quiet residential area.

Bang

The gunshots shocked the birds that landed on the tree.

Ji Yinbing almost had a cardiac arrest.

Ji Yinbing widened her eyes. She turned around in shock and saw Yan Nuo kneeling on the ground. He had thrown the gun on the ground. Yan Nuo covered his bleeding chest with his left hand and smiled coldly at Ji Yinbing. Yan Nuo's eyes were already red, and his lips were trembling from the pain.

Ji Yinbing was shocked by his miserable appearance.

Ji Yinbing looked at him in shock and heard Yan Nuo ask intermittently, "Have you seen someone putting their life on the line as an act?"

Chapter 600 Sister Yan Yu

Even though her heart was filled with hatred, Ji Yinbing was still flustered and unwilling to see Yan Nuo on the verge of death.

She quickly ran forward and took out her phone to call the ambulance. Then, she gave Yan Nuo emergency treatment and scolded him, "Forget it if you're dead! It's best if you're dead! If you're dead, you'll die with my child! You've let him down. Go to hell and apologize to him." Ji Yinbing had no idea what she was talking about.

Even though his heart was in a mess, Ji Yinbing's actions were orderly and did not panic.

Yan Nuo said, "Okay."

Ji Yinbing told him to shut up.

Yan Nuo looked at Ji Yinbing and said, "You're crying."

Tears fell on his face.

Ji Yinbing remained silent.

After the ambulance arrived, Ji Yinbing went to the hospital.

On the way to the hospital, Yan Nuo was on his last breath, but Ji Yinbing's emergency treatment was really good. His vital signs were maintained well. When they arrived at the hospital, Ji Yinbing personally participated in the resuscitation surgery after proving her identity.

A few hours later, Yan Nuo was pushed out of the emergency room.

His pitiful act was very good. Unfortunately, after confirming that he was safe and sound, Ji Yinbing calmed down. She was not moved by Yan Nuo's actions. On the contrary, she was a little angry. She did not like people who committed suicide so easily.

24 hours later, after Yan Nuo's surgery was completely successful, Ji Yinbing left Binjiang City without waiting for him to wake up.

Before she left, she called Xiao Fengyi and informed him to come to Binjiang City to take her away.

Xiao Fengyi had just found Vera when he received Ji Yinbing's call. He was dumbfounded. Who could tell him what the fuck had happened!

When Yan Nuo woke up, he was on a private plane back to India.

When he woke up, his eyes darted around. Xiao Fengyi quickly leaned over and asked him in surprise, "Second Chief, you're awake? How do you feel?"

Yan Nuo's lips quivered as he said a few words.

Xiao Fengyi bent down and placed her ear beside Yan Nuo's chin before she heard him ask, "Where's Yinbing?"

Xiao Fengyi's expression changed slightly.

He weighed the pros and cons for a moment before saying, "Bing was a little angry. After she got on the plane, she locked herself up. She didn't seem to want to see you." Xiao Fengyi guessed that there was a misunderstanding between Ji Yinbing and Yan Nuo. He said this on purpose and it sounded convincing.

Yan Nuo really believed her.

The plane stopped on the private plane apron at the back of the mountain.

Xiao Fengyi and the rest transported Yan Nuo out of the plane. Dr. Mo Er had already waited here with his disciple.

The moment they got off the plane, Yan Nuo asked again, "Where is she?"

Seeing Dr. Mo Er, Xiao Fengyi was not so afraid.

Only then did he tell the truth. "Bing was already gone when we got to Binjiang City."

Upon hearing this, the person lying on the bed seemed to have her life force suddenly sucked away and there was no reaction. Xiao Fengyi was a little worried. Seeing Yan Nuo looking at the sky in a daze, her eyes did not even blink. After hesitating for a moment, Xiao Fengyi reached her finger under Yan Nuo's nose.

She was still breathing!

Xiao Fengyi quickly handed Yan Nuo to Dr. Mo

Er.

When they arrived at the hospital, Yan Nuo was actually very cooperative with Dr. Mo Er's treatment. He lay on the bed for more than a month before leaving the hospital. When he got home, he still had to rest well.

The car left the hospital and returned to the Yan family. The car entered the manor and Yan Nuo saw Yan Yu the moment he got out.

Yan Yu, who was wearing a purple tight dress, was standing by the door with a smile. When she saw him, she even whistled at him and said mischievously, "Sure, you're capable. You're not dead yet."

Yan Nuo felt speechless.

He slowly walked up the stairs and prepared to enter the house.

When she passed by Yan Nuo, Yan Yu suddenly blocked his path.

Yan Nuo looked at Yan Yu's legs.

A long and straight leg was placed in front of him with a pair of black strappy high heels. Yan Nuo turned his head and looked at Yan Yu. "What are you doing?"

"What are you doing?" Yan Yu suddenly stopped smiling.

She stood up and walked to Yan Nuo.

She stared at Yan Nuo and suddenly raised her right hand.

Slap!

The loud slap shocked everyone. "Eldest Miss!"

"Big Leader!"

Everyone exclaimed in worry.

You should be more gentle. You have to know that the person you hit is a patient with a heart injury. Yan Nuo was only stunned for a moment after being hit. Then, he looked down at his sister and did not speak. There was no anger on his face. Yan Yu rubbed her numb right hand and stared at Yan Nuo's swollen face. She scolded, "Bastard! You can't even protect your own child! Useless!"

Yan Nuo remained silent.

She suddenly asked Xiao Fengyi, "Where is Vera!"

Xiao Fengyi quickly said, "Our men are guarding her. Big Chief, do you want to see her?"

Yan Yu snorted. "Bring her here!" Then, she said to Yan Nuo, "You're not allowed to go back to your room. Wait for me!"

Yan Nuo's lips moved and he hummed softly.

Twenty minutes later, Vera was brought into the Yan family's manor by Xiao Fengyi and Thomas.

She was extremely afraid. They walked hand in hand.

Vera had just walked into the Yan family's hall when she felt a sharp pain in her leg.

"Ah!"

Vera screamed and knelt down.

Her face twisted in pain.

Vera hugged her knees and slowly looked up. She saw Yan Yu standing in front of her with a gun in her hand, looking at her expressionlessly. The gun in Yan Yu's hand was still smoking.

Yan Yu looked at her with disdain.

It was like a high and mighty queen looking down on a little rat in the ditch.

Vera's forehead was covered in sweat from the pain. She gritted her teeth and asked, "W-Why did you do this to me?"

Yan Yu fired again.

This shot hit Vera's left arm.

"Ah!"

Vera screamed again, her face pale from the pain.

Yan Yu raised her gun and blew at the gun.

She played with the gun and walked to Vera in her high heels. She looked at Vera arrogantly and sneered. "I'm not that useless Yan Nuo. You're the only survivor of the Northern K Nation trip. Just based on this, I can confirm your betrayal!"

"Don't you know why I did this to you?" She used the gun and lazily scratched Vera's fair face. She said, "What the heck? You made Bingbing lose her child..."

She raised her leg and kicked Vera to the ground with the tip of her shoe.

"Get her up," Yan Yu said.

Thomas and Xiao Fengyi helped Vera up obediently.

Vera's left shoulder and knee were bleeding. It was a horrible sight. However, the true horror was yet to come.
