

Ex Convict 216

Chapter 216

Watching the video of Grace kneeling, Lily unknowingly smirked. "Some people just want to die and others can't stop them."

"Isn't it? This extra seems to have offended Evelyn, which explains why she's always getting picked on by Evelyn.

Everyone in the film crew knows that Evelyn can't be offended..." As the assistant spoke, she found herself saying something she should not have.

Immediately, the assistant paled and said to Lily, "I'm sorry I said the wrong thing. This Evelyn is just flaunting her power by taking advantage of the fact that she is Master Hart's girlfriend. Once Master Hart dumps her, let's not even talk about the second female lead. She won't even be qualified to be a fifth female lead!"

Lily calmly said, "Alright, you don't have to tell me that."

Evelyn had not given her a positive attitude since she joined the crew. Every time they met, they would find themselves in an argument.

Naturally, Lily knew that Evelyn was trying to strut her stuff in front of her to work off her feelings from before.

Lily certainly did not take Evelyn seriously. She was born in a small family but was lucky enough to attract Brian. However, it was well known in the high society that each and every one of Brian's girlfriends had a short shelf life. However, they still had no clue how many months she could remain as his girlfriend.

The more arrogant Evelyn was now, the more she would suffer in the future.

"The one who has a death wish is not the extra," Lily said with great interest.

The assistant was surprised. It was not the extra? Then, was Lily talking about... Evelyn?!

However, Evelyn was just troubling this small-time extra, right? What background did this extra have that Evelyn could lose out?

The one backing Evelyn was the crown prince of the entertainment industry!

However, Lily did not bother to explain either. She just rewatched the video recorded by her assistant.

For Lily, such videos were a delight to watch.

After all, she did not like either Grace or Evelyn. Now that they were against each other, it was a good show for her!

She just did not know what Jason would do about Evelyn.

Perhaps without waiting for Brian and Evelyn to break up, Jason would have smashed her into smithereens. Lily felt more relaxed as she thought of this...

After all, Jason never played by the rules.

Even though he was her sister's fiancée, she could not help being afraid when she came face to face with that man.

That man was so unpredictable. He could smile at you one second and make you feel hell the next.

He could easily change the fate of others. Even a rich family like the Atkinson family dared not offend Jason.

She just did not know how long Jason would maintain his interest in Grace.

Thinking of this, Lily stood up and said, "All right, let's go out and have a look. It would be a pity not to see it with our own eyes."

She walked out of the lounge as she spoke.
