

Ex Convict 3511

Chapter 3511

“So, did you really conspire with Lionel in this kidnapping?”

Veronica asked in a bitter voice.

The word “conspire” seemed to trigger something in him, and he looked at her in disbelief. “Is that what you think?”

“It’s not just what I think, it’s what you made me think!” Veronica retorted. “If not, then how did you manage to find that warehouse before the police did, based on some clue?”

She didn’t think about these things before, but now she realizes that there are such obvious loopholes.

How could it be so coincidental to find that place without prior knowledge?

Mason felt his blood slowly freezing, “So, Veronica, you don’t believe what I’m saying, do you? You don’t believe that I really know nothing about the kidnapping case, do you?”

Veronica tightly pursed her lips and stared at her, she wanted an explanation, a reasonable explanation!

She didn’t want this kidnapping case to really be related to him, but now... “How can I believe you? Why do you want to deceive me like a fool? Why do you want to do such a terrifying thing? Even if you originally planned a fake kidnapping, it turned into a real one! If you really want to reconcile with me, why do you do this? Do you know that I almost...I almost...”

Chapter 3511

Her voice choked up, releasing all the fear and terror she had endured during her kidnapping, as well as the fear and terror that had caused her to wake up from nightmares several times during these days.

At this moment, she felt so ridiculous. She had been so moved by him rushing to her side and saving her when she was in danger.

But little did he know that he was actually the one who started it all!

“So, you really don’t trust me?” he murmured, “Veronica, do you truly consider me as your closest person in your heart?”

If it really exists, then how could one not believe in it?

In his dark eyes, there seemed to be a layer of sadness. It felt like a sharp pain in her heart, but she quickly tried to ignore the feeling.

“What about you? If you really considered me your closest person, you wouldn’t have been involved in this kidnapping case with Lionel,” Veronica said. “Do you think that, as the high and mighty Mason of the Reed family, you can easily manipulate people’s emotions like this? Making me feel terrible afterwards? Mason, how could you do this? I’m not your pawn!” She spoke loudly.

Chapter 3511

His eyelashes trembled slightly. A pawn... he had never thought of her as a pawn!

“For me, you have always been my closest person, I...” He raised his hand, wanting to touch her face, but she suddenly turned her head away.

“Don’t touch me!”

As those three words escaped her lips, he suddenly stiffened, his hand that was reaching out to her froze beside her cheek, not moving any further.

And on that handsome face of his, it was as if a veil had been drawn over it, making it even harder to see clearly.

Chapter 3512

“So, even Veronica’s so-called closest person is just like this.”

His cold voice slowly spoke, mechanical and devoid of any emotion, and his gaze upon her turned indifferent.

This kind of Mason was incredibly unfamiliar to Veronica.

“I thought the closest person to me would have no secrets, instead of doing such terrible things behind my back! You keep saying that I’m your closest person, but you only use me as a pawn to manipulate! Even though it was you and Lionel who planned the kidnapping, I still have to be grateful to you in the end!”

As she thanked him like a fool and clung to him, was he happy that his plan had succeeded? Thinking about this, Veronica felt even more uncomfortable!

He listened to every accusation she made without defending himself.

It turns out that not being trusted by the most important person is so painful! What kind of heart-wrenching feeling is this?

"I forgot that we are not the same kind of people. You are

Chapter 3512

Mason from the high and mighty Reed family, and to you, I am just a toy you want..." Her voice continued to ring in his ears, "Even if you call me Veronica, do you really see me as

Veronica?"

2/4

"I forgot, we're not even the same kind of people. You're Mason from the high and mighty Reed family, and to you, I'm just a toy you wanted..." Her voice continued to ring in his ears. "Even if you call me Veronica, do you really see me as Veronica?"

Her voice felt like the sharpest arrow, piercing his heart.

"So...what am I to Veronica?" He looked at her and said softly.

She froze, his gaze pressing down on her heart like a heavy weight. But at this moment, she ignored the suffocating feeling and reminded herself that from the beginning, they were never the same kind of people. Their identities were worlds apart. "To me, you're just the Reed family's Mason!"

"The Reed family's Mason?" He suddenly sneered, his cold and indifferent gaze becoming even clearer. "So to you, I'm just the Reed family's Mason, and that's why you're nice to me, right?"

"Yes!" The insincere word blurted out of her mouth.

Even she couldn't explain why she said "yes". Was it because she was angry? Angry that he was treating her like a fool?!

Chapter 3512

"I see!" he murmured. Although he had once said that she could use him and he didn't mind being used by her, even allowing her to use his identity to gain various benefits she wanted.

3/4

But now that he knew that her kindness towards him was only because of his status, the feeling of pain was still so strong.

"Well...I won't call you Veronica anymore." He looked at her and said each word deliberately. "Veronica, since you think we are not the same kind of people and have never treated me as your closest person, then...I won't treat you as my closest person either. From now on, just like you said, I am only Mason, the Reed family's Mason!"

His voice was terrifyingly calm.

Those beautiful black eyes only looked at her with indifference and coldness, as if from now on, she was no different from anyone else in his eyes.

Suddenly, her heart felt like it had been stabbed hard, causing a sharp pain.

Would he never call her Veronica again? This sentence seemed to strip away the relationship between them.

Chapter 3513

Veronica instinctively opened her mouth, wanting to say something, but no words came out.

At that moment, Mason turned around and left on his own.

Archer and Rosalind, who were originally stunned, immediately came to their senses and hurriedly chased after him.

1/4

However, when they reached downstairs, Mason had already gotten into his car and left in a cloud of dust.

The couple looked at each other in confusion and fear.

Mason's words just now were like a complete rupture! If Mason really breaks ties with Veronica, then the Barlow family will be the ones who suffer the most!

After all, the Barlow family owes everything to Mason for the life they have today!

Not to mention, he has a kidnapping case on his hands involving his own son! Without the help of the Reed family, would his son be able to clear his name?

Chapter 3513

2/4

The couple immediately returned home and said to Veronica, "Veronica, how could you speak to Mason like that just now! You need to go back to the Reed family and apologize to

Mason!"

"Do I have to apologize even if he initially planned the kidnapping with Lionel?" Veronica retorted.

"Of course!" Archer said fiercely. "Even if he was involved in the kidnapping plot, so what? You're fine, aren't you? Don't you

dare fall out with him, or I won't spare you!"

Rosalind also hurriedly spoke up, "Veronica, you don't want to see this family fall apart, do you? And Lionel, he's only out on bail, the case hasn't been decided yet! If the Reed family doesn't help us, what if Lionel really gets sentenced? What are we going to do?"

They all urged Veronica to apologize to Mason.

Looking at her father and stepmother, Veronica felt exhausted and ridiculous.

Is this her family? They didn't think about how she was hurt, but only about not breaking ties with the Reed family and

Mason.

At that moment, Lionel, who was previously nervous and cowering in the corner, suddenly rushed over and grabbed

Chapter 3513

3/4

Veronica, pleading, "Sis, you have to save me! You must make Mason save me, I don't want to go to jail!"

Veronica felt like she was being crushed by a heavy weight, making it hard for her to breathe.

When Jasper saw Mason return alone to the Reed family, he asked curiously, "Mason, why did you come back alone?

Where's Sister Veronica?"

After all, Mason and Sister Veronica had been inseparable these past few days!

After hearing her words, Mason lifted his head and looked at her with a mixed expression of crying and smiling. "Do you believe me?"

"Of course I do," Jasper said naturally.

Mason's eyelashes trembled slightly. "Do you believe everything I say?"

"Yes," Jasper nodded without hesitation.

"Why?"

"Because you're my Mason!" she replied.

Chapter 3513

It was that simple, just because he was her Mason! Mason lowered his eyes gently, but... he thought the person who trusted him the most in this world didn't believe him!

Even all the good he did was only because he was the Reed family's Mason!

4/4

If he didn't have this status in the Reed family, how would she treat him then?

Chapter 3514

Is he being protected by the Reed family like before he was recognized by them? Or do they see him as a burden?

"Mason, where is Veronica?" Jasper asked again, feeling that Mason was acting strangely.

"Don't ask me where she is from now on," Mason said and walked away, leaving Jasper alone to ponder what Mason had just said.

1/4

What did Mason mean by that? Did he have a fight with Veronica?

Even if they had a fight, knowing Mason's personality, he would at most sulk and wouldn't say something like that.

But even if they argue, given Mason's personality, he would at most sulk and wouldn't say something like that.

This statement... it's as if he's trying to distance himself from Veronica.

Jasper quickly dialed Veronica's phone number. After a moment, he heard Veronica's tired voice on the other end, "Jasper, what's up?"

Chapter 3514

2/4

"Veronica, did something happen between you and Mason?" Jasper asked urgently.

Veronica hesitated for a moment before finally saying, "No...

nothing." She didn't tell Jasper that Mason was one of the people involved in the kidnapping case they went through.

Even she couldn't explain why she didn't speak up.

"By the way, tonight I want to stay at my own house, so I won't go back to the Reed family for now," Veronica said.

She didn't know how to face Mason, but at least her father and stepmother were taking Lionel to the hospital right now, so she could have a moment of peace.

However, before going to the hospital, her father warned her, "No matter what, you must apologize to Mason tomorrow and admit that you were wrong. If Mason doesn't forgive you, don't blame me for disowning you as my daughter!"

"I was wrong?" She bitterly laughed, "As a kidnapped person, did I do something wrong?"

"Yes, you were wrong!" said the father with great certainty. "As you yourself said, he is the Mason of the Reed family, who are high and mighty. Without him, do you think you could live the life you have now? If it weren't for your previous argument and cold war with him, would he have thought of kidnapping? And your brother got involved in it all because of your relationship!"

3/4

Archer kept blaming his daughter.

Veronica felt extremely exhausted and didn't even want to say much to her father!

A kidnapping had led to so many things, and her father's words made her realize that she was just a tool to tie down

Mason for her father and this family.

If Mason didn't forgive her, then her existence would become unnecessary!

And what about Mason? He treated her like a toy that he could manipulate at will. Whenever she didn't meet his expectations, he would manipulate her emotions and feelings to make her comply with his wishes.

It was exhausting, and she felt so tired!

That night, the Archer couple didn't come back, and Veronica was the only one at the Barlow family's house.

Veronica hardly slept all night, and only dozed off around 4 or 5 in the morning.

Chapter 3514

4/4

But she was awakened by the sound of the doorbell when she fell asleep again.

Have the father and stepmother returned? But they should be able to unlock the password lock on the gate themselves.

Veronica sat up groggily, lifted the blanket off herself, and got out of bed.

As soon as her feet touched the ground, she stumbled and almost fell.

At this moment, she felt weak all over, and her legs were particularly soft. Her throat felt familiarly dry and hot.

Is she... catching a cold? Veronica raised her hand and touched her forehead. Sure enough, there was a burning sensation on her forehead.

It seems like she really has a fever.

Chapter 3515

She walked out of the room and approached the front door of the house. Upon opening it, she was met with Jasper's anxious face.

Standing beside Jasper was William.

As soon as Jasper saw Veronica, he urgently said to her, "Veronica, Mason is about to board the plane. Come with me to the airport and stop him!"

"What?" Veronica was stunned. "He's going to the airport?"

"Yes, Mason is going abroad. I don't know what he's going to do there, but our parents have agreed to it. Veronica, what happened between you and Mason yesterday? Why would he suddenly want to leave the country?" Jasper asked.

Veronica was in shock, as if she couldn't snap out of Jasper's news.

"Veronica!" Jasper's voice grew louder. She checked the time and said, "I don't care what happened between you and Mason, but please go to the airport and stop him from leaving."

Chapter 3515

2/4

As far as Jasper was concerned, only Veronica could stop Mason from leaving the country.

Jasper was only able to grab Veronica's hand, but she managed to break free.

"It's his decision to go abroad, I...I won't go..." Veronica said, feeling even more dizzy and aching.

"But what if Mason doesn't plan on coming back in the short term? My parents told me in private that Mason might be planning to go abroad for a while," Jasper said.

So, he went abroad to avoid being caught as one of the planners of the kidnapping case and causing trouble? That's why he left first? Veronica thought to herself.

"Veronica, are you really not going to stop my brother Mason?" Jasper asked.

"I'm not going," Veronica replied. "Jasper, Mason went abroad just to avoid legal trouble."

"Avoid legal trouble?" Jasper asked, confused. "What legal trouble does he need to avoid?"

Veronica pursed her lips and remained silent.

"Veronica, if you know something, just say it!" Jasper pressed.

Chapter 3515

But Veronica Grace didn't speak up, perhaps because she didn't know how to say it.

3/4

"If you really don't want to say it, then I'll help Jasper find out. It's just a matter of a few days earlier or later," said William confidently.

Veronica's body stiffened. She knew that the Barlow family behind William could easily find out.

"The kidnapping case was initially planned by him and Lionel. They wanted to stage a fake kidnapping to make up with me," Veronica said with great difficulty. As the words came out of her mouth, her throat felt even more scorching.

Jasper's eyes widened at the news. "How is that possible? Did Mason say that?" he asked.

"No, it was Lionel," Veronica replied. "And at the time, Mason was also present."

"No, it was... said by Lionel," Veronica said. "And Mason was also present at the time."

"Did he explicitly say that he actually did it?" Jasper asked.

Veronica fell silent. She couldn't quite remember what he had said at the time. Her head was spinning.

Chapter 3516

"Veronica, I don't know what kind of misunderstanding there is between us, but I believe that my Mason would never plan a fake kidnapping on you!" Jasper said firmly.

"Why are you so sure?" Veronica asked.

"Because you are the person that Mason would never want to hurt, even if it was a fake kidnapping as you said. I don't think he would do it because he would never want to see you scared, let alone give you that kind of drug!" Jasper replied. "Besides, my mom is a lawyer. If Mason really did participate in the planning of this kidnapping, how could she agree to let him go abroad?"

Veronica suddenly shook. Yes, Auntie Grace's attitude towards the law was clear to her after all these years.

As for Mason, if he really wanted to use some tactics to reconcile with them, he would choose some more covert actions based on his personality. Just like when he secretly promised the Cross family to make Daniel leave her, he wouldn't choose to directly attack her.

But why did Mason find them first? Even earlier than the police and the Reed family. What was the reason behind this?

Chapter 3516

"Veronica, don't you believe me?" His voice rang in her ear again, and in her mind, she saw the indifferent and cold look he gave her yesterday.

2/4

Could it be... that there really is some misunderstanding between them?

Her head was still hurting, and her body seemed to be getting hotter. Veronica couldn't help but sway, feeling her vision becoming increasingly blurry.

"Veronica, what's wrong?" Jasper's voice sounded anxious. "Your face is so red... hey, you're so hot, do you have a fever?"

"I..." Her eyelids seemed to be getting heavier and heavier, making it almost impossible for her to open them. But she... she wanted to figure out whether she really misunderstood

Mason or not.

Even Jasper felt that he could never bear to hurt her, so why did she assume yesterday that he was responsible for this?

No...she had to go and ask for clarification. She needed to know if there was any misunderstanding.

But as soon as she took a step forward, her body stumbled and her legs seemed unable to support her weight. Suddenly, everything went black and the last thing she heard was

Chapter 3516

3/4

Jasper's anxious voice calling out, "Veronica! Veronica, what's wrong? Wake up..."

Mason...Mason...

In her final moments of consciousness, the only thing that flashed through her mind was that beautiful face, filled with despair and coldness. It was right in front of her, yet it felt like it was a million miles away and she couldn't touch it no matter how hard she tried.

Is there a misunderstanding that once formed, can never be resolved?

Is there truly a misunderstanding between her and him?

Veronica fainted, while at the same time, Mason had already boarded a plane heading overseas.

His gaze, through the airplane window, looked upon the airport in sight.

And in his hand, he tightly held his phone, the screen displaying his contacts.

After a while, he turned his head and looked at the contacts on his phone, then selected the name "Veronica".

Veronica, Veronica...

Chapter 3517

Once upon a time, she became everything to him. His emotions, whether happy or sad, seemed to revolve around her only.

My father once told him, "Putting all your emotions into one person is like gambling. If you win, it could lead to a lifetime of happiness. But if you lose, it could be a disaster."

And now... is he beyond redemption?

He thought she would at least believe him, but she easily believed that he was involved in the kidnapping case, even one of the masterminds behind it.

Her lack of trust made him feel like he was falling into an abyss.

He realized that, for him, putting all his emotions on her was a point of no return.

So, he wanted to leave, to get away from here. He was afraid that if he didn't leave, he wouldn't be able to control himself from seeing her, and then... perhaps his pain would only grow stronger.

Chapter 3517

"Do you really want to go abroad?" His father asked him this last night when he told his parents about his plan to go abroad.

2/4

"Yes, I want to go abroad," he replied. "As for the kidnapping case, I will come back when it's time to testify."

"Why do you suddenly want to go abroad? Is it related to Veronica?" Grace asked. After all, today her son went out with Veronica to the Barlow family, but when he came back, he was alone.

"Mom, this is between me and her. I don't want anyone to interfere, so you don't need to disturb her or say anything to her. Tomorrow, I will leave Emerald City. I want to have a peaceful time outside for a while."

"But..."

"Mum, I'm not a kid anymore. I know exactly what I'm saying and doing!"

After he said this, his mother didn't say anything else.

The plane began to taxi and was about to take off. Jasper's finger hovered over his phone screen, and finally, he deleted "Veronica" from his contacts.

From now on, she was no longer his Veronica!

Chapter 3517

And he didn't have to be in so much pain anymore!

3/4

If she can't trust him and can't truly see him as the most important person, only treating him like a little brother, then it will only cause him more and more pain.

His emotions will only become more and more out of control, and may even...

Therefore, completely cutting her off may be the best thing for him or for her.

“Veronica, you are no longer the most important person to me!” he murmured, closing his eyes.

The plane soared into the sky.

The plane soared into the sky.

Sometimes, parting ways can be surprisingly easy!

When Veronica opened her eyes and woke up, she saw a white ceiling above her.

Looking around, she realized that she was lying in a hospital room.

4/4

Chapter 3517

Hospital? How did she end up in the hospital?

Just then, the door to the hospital room opened and Jasper walked in. When he saw that Veronica had woken up, he breathed a sigh of relief. “Veronica, thank goodness you’re awake,” he said.

“What happened to me earlier?” she murmured, but her throat was dry and had a burning sensation.

“You had a fever. The doctor just gave you a shot to bring it down. Take some medicine later and you should be fine,” Jasper replied.

“I’m sorry to have caused you trouble,” Veronica said.

Suddenly, she seemed to remember something and her face changed. “By the way, what about Mason?”

Chapter 3518

Mason is leaving! Veronica needs to hurry to the airport to stop him!

With this in mind, Veronica quickly threw off her blanket and got out of bed.

Jasper quickly stopped her and asked, “Veronica, what are you doing?”

“I’m going to the airport. I need to ask Mason what really happened with the kidnapping case,” she replied. If he says that he had nothing to do with it, she will believe him.

Yes, she should trust him!

He's Mason, the Mason she grew up with. But now, even Jasper sees Mason's true character more clearly than she does, and she's still doubting him.

"Wait! Veronica, even if you go now, it's too late!" Jasper quickly stopped her. "Mason's plane should have taken off by now."

"Taken off?" Veronica was stunned for a moment, then quickly began searching for something.

"Where's my phone? My Chapter 3518 phone?"

"Here!" Jasper quickly handed Veronica the phone that was placed on the bedside table.

Veronica picked up her phone and dialed Mason's number, but she couldn't get through.

2/4

Jasper noticed and advised, "He probably turned off his phone on the plane. Wait until Mason lands and then try calling him again, Veronica."

"Do you know where Mason is going abroad?" Veronica asked.

Jasper shook his head. "I'm not sure, but once you get through to Mason, you can ask him and find out."

Jasper believed that if Veronica wanted to reconcile with Mason, it wouldn't take long for them to make up and for Mason to come back.

Veronica tightly grips her phone in her hand. Yes, when the time comes, she'll just have to ask and everything will become clear.

What Veronica didn't expect was that no matter how many times she tried to call Mason, she couldn't get through.

And when she arrived at the Reed family to inquire about

Chapter 3518

Mason's situation, it was the head of the Reed family, Jason, who met her in the study.

3/4

"Mason... where are you now?" Veronica asked urgently. "How are you? Are you safe?" She was afraid that something had happened to him, which was why he wasn't answering her calls.

“Mason is currently in Zambia and nothing unexpected has happened,” said Jason. “However, he won’t be returning home in the short term. He will come back to testify in court on the day of the trial.”

Veronica paused for a moment. If she had to wait until then to come back to testify, it would be at least another two months!

But she...she really wanted to see Mason now, to find out what had happened with the kidnapping case, and to hear it from Mason himself!

“Where is Mason now in Zambia?” Veronica asked.

“I don’t know,” Jason replied.

Veronica was taken aback. “You don’t know? What does that mean?”

“The idea is that as soon as he arrived in Zambia, he got rid of the Reed family and the bodyguards who were with him.

Chapter 3518

However, he calls every night to show that he’s safe.

4/4

Obviously, he doesn’t want people to know his exact location,” Jason said. Or maybe he’s afraid that someone will go looking for him and it will affect his decision?

Jason naturally understood some of his son’s thoughts.

Veronica remained silent. Does this mean she really has to wait for the trial in two months to see Mason again and hear the truth about the case from him?

At that moment, Jason handed a stack of documents to Veronica.

“This is what you’re concerned about. I think you’ll be interested in taking a look,” Jason said.

Veronica took the documents and her eyes widened suddenly as she looked at the first page. This was...the investigation materials and testimonies of everyone involved in the kidnapping case.

These...shouldn’t be visible!

Chapter 3519

“I heard that you and Mason had a falling out over this matter, so you might want to take a look,” Jason said.

Veronica flipped through the pages one by one, and her emotions rose and fell with each turn of the page.

All the evidence and the confession of the suspect indicate that the kidnapping case was initially carried out by Lionel.

Lionel planned a fake kidnapping, and the testimonies of other nightclub attendees and unrelated individuals can support this.

Furthermore, the messages sent by Lionel were not actually delivered, as Mason had already blocked Lionel's number days before the kidnapping occurred, according to the telecom company's records.

Therefore, Mason was completely unaware of the kidnapping from start to finish. It was only Lionel's mistaken belief that Mason knew about it.

As Veronica looked at the documents in front of her, tears welled up in her eyes and fell onto the papers in her hands.

1/4

Chapter 3519

As Veronica looked at the document in front of her, tears welled up in her eyes and fell onto the paper with a steady drip, drip.

2/4

Just like Jasper said, Mason...no matter what, he couldn't bear to hurt her!

And yet, she knew what kind of person he was. Even if Lionel had proposed something to him beforehand, Mason would have been too proud to go along with it. He might have even tried to stop it.

So why did she choose not to believe him at the time? Why did she act that way?

"If he didn't know about the kidnapping beforehand, then why...why didn't he want to explain to me why he was the first one to arrive at the scene?" Veronica murmured to herself.

Jason sighed, "It seems like he didn't have a chance to tell you yet. I already advised him that some things need to be clarified as soon as possible, because if you wait too long, it might be too late."

"Too late? What does that mean?" Veronica asked, confused.

Jason didn't explain, instead his gaze fell on the necklace hanging around Veronica's neck. "This necklace, Mason gave it to you, right?"

Chapter 3519

"Yes."

3/4

“On the necklace, there is a small tracking device that can connect to his phone. He can know where you are,” Jason said. “Originally, he was planning to tell you, but he was waiting for the right moment to say it. It seems like he didn’t get that chance now.”

“In the necklace...there’s a tracking device?” Veronica lowered her head in surprise and touched the pendant on her neck.

If there was anywhere a tracking device could be placed, it would only be in this pendant.

She remembered when he gave her the necklace and said, “As long as Veronica wears this necklace, I’m not afraid of not being able to find her. No matter where you are, I can always find you!”

“Why do you need to find me? Just call me if you need to.” She had said that back then.

“But what if your phone dies and I can’t reach you? I’m afraid that one day, Veronica will leave me, so...if I can find you, even if you really do leave me, I can still find you.”

Chapter 3520

“How could I leave you behind? Don’t talk nonsense!” She said

1.

And at this moment, recalling those conversations, it turned out that... from the beginning, he had already hinted at her!

But at that time, she didn’t think about it in any other way, thinking that those words were just him being clingy and saying them casually.

“Would you feel disgusted?” Jason’s voice suddenly sounded in her ear.

Disgusted? If it were before, she would have instinctively hated this behavior. To have her whereabouts known by someone else without her knowledge is a clear violation of privacy.

But at this moment, she suddenly understood why Mason would do such a thing.

He was... afraid that one day she would disappear, afraid that one day she would abandon him. That’s why he put a tracking device in the pendant of the necklace.

Chapter 3520

2/4

And the subsequent events proved that if it weren’t for the tracking device in the necklace, she might have encountered even more unbearable things, and he wouldn’t have been able to come to her rescue and find her whereabouts in time.

"I'm not disgusted," Veronica sniffled. At this moment, her nose was so sour.

Jason looked at the girl in front of him with some surprise, but her reaction was much better than he had imagined.

"Uncle Reed, can you contact Mason? I have a lot to say to him!" Veronica said again.

"Sure." Jason smiled slightly and took out his phone, dialing a number.

Veronica waited anxiously beside him, and finally, when the phone was answered and she heard Mason's voice, tears welled up in her eyes and rolled down her cheeks.

"Mason, it's me!" Veronica hurriedly took the phone from Jason's hand and spoke to Mason on the other end, "I've been trying to call you, but I couldn't get through. I'm sorry for misunderstanding you. Can you come back to the country soon? I have so much to say to you..."

"Oh, I see. So you knew it was a misunderstanding," Mason's voice came calmly, sounding distant, "But...even if it was a misunderstanding, what does it matter? Veronica, to you, I am just your 'little brother' no matter how much you have to say to me."

Chapter 3520

3/4

Just a little brother who could be discarded at any time, not someone truly important in her life, someone she couldn't bear to lose.

This misunderstanding only made him see the reality more clearly.

"I..." She choked up, wanting to say something more, but her throat felt like it was being blocked, and she couldn't speak.

She knew what kind of answer Mason wanted, but could she give it to him?

As he said, to her, he was just a younger brother, and she only saw him as a younger brother, without any other thoughts!

In her eyes, his change in feelings towards her was only because she had dated Daniel before, so he was like a child who had his toy taken away and wanted to take it back and occupy that position.

However, she couldn't put him in that role at all.

Meanwhile, Mason's indifferent voice continued to come from her phone, "So, don't contact me again in the future. I don't want to hear anything from you, Veronica. From now on, you are not the Veronica I know."

Chapter 3520

4/4
