Chapter 4191 How Wonderful It Is to Fall in L...

A faint bitter smile crossed Kit's face. "Well, no, I have already quit the entertainment industry."

"Why?" she asked, without disappointment or sadness, just pure curiosity.

"Because, for me, the entertainment industry is not really suitable. Sometimes you need to do whatever it takes to get resources in order to advance your career. If you can't get resources, then you have nothing."

Before, he didn't think much of it and was even willing to accept some dirty conditions to get resources.

But after meeting her, he gradually changed. Sometimes, in front of her, he would feel a sense of shame.

Perhaps it was because she was too clean, too pure, that it made his own dirtiness more apparent.

It made him hesitant to get close to her, fearing that his impurity would taint her!

"I see..." Tina murmured. "But I think it's a pity that you're not a singer anymore. And with your good looks, I'm sure many people would love you if you act."

"I don't care if other people like me or not, as long as you're willing to like me, that's enough," Kit said. "As for not being a singer anymore... but if you want to hear me sing, I can sing for you anytime."

Chapter 4191 How Wonderful It Is to Fall in L... 3/4 His tenderness made Tina's mind wander.

Everything in front of her felt like a dream. Not long ago, she was desperately trying to escape from that village, worried about the safety of her unborn child, even thinking of the worst outcome, that she and the child might die together.

But now, she could relax here and listen to all of this.

In this moment, her heart was filled with gratitude towards Kit.

Although she didn't have deep feelings for the person in front of her right now, since she used to love him and even carried his child.

Then in the future, she will surely fall in love with him again!

Besides, he is such a good person!

"What's wrong?" Tina looked at his absentminded gaze, prompting Kit to ask.

Tina smiled, "I just think it's great that the person I fell in love with is you.

However, after hearing her words, he suddenly stiffened and asked, "Do you really think... that it's a good thing for you to fall in love with me?"

"Hmm," she nodded.

How Wonderful It Is to Fall in L... A wave of guilt surged within him.

If she were to learn the truth in the future, she probably wouldn't smile at him like she does now, or say such words!

"By the way, what are my parents like?" Tina suddenly asked.

Chapter 4192 More and More Lies

Kit's expression subtly changed. Although he knew she would eventually ask this question, he still wished she would ask it later if possible.

"Your parents... they... they..." he said several times, but struggled to get the words out.

Once one lie is spoken, it often requires more lies to cover it up.

And lies, they only multiply.

"Have they... pa*sed away?" Tina managed to say these words with difficulty. In truth, she had considered this possibility.

If her parents were still alive, they would have searched for her everywhere.

But it was Kit who found her.

And after finding her, Kit didn't urgently contact anyone. It could be inferred that her parents were likely no longer alive. Otherwise, why wouldn't Kit help her get in touch with her family after finding her?

Kit pursed his thin lips, remaining silent.

To Tina, this silence meant consent.

More and More Lies

Suddenly, a feeling of discomfort surged within Tina. Although she had lost her memory and didn't remember her parents or what kind of life she had before, she couldn't help but feel a sense of sadness.

It was as if it was telling her how much she had loved her parents in the past!

Seeing Tina in distress, Kit felt a bitter taste in his mouth. Originally, he should have been happy.

She was rescued and could reunite with her parents immediately.

But now, she felt sad because of his lies.

Guilt engulfed him, but he couldn't bring himself to speak the truth.

"I'm sorry," Kit muttered.

Bitterly, Tina said, "You have nothing to apologize for, no need to say sorry."

At night, Kit decided to lie down on the sofa in the guest room. Tina said, "You should sleep on the bed, since there are two beds and it won't affect each other. Besides, we used to be lovers, so... it's not a big deal."

Having even conceived a child, it's clear that they have seen everything there is to see, so there's no need to be shy!

"Well... alright," Kit agreed, his ears turning slightly red. "By the way, you should go take a shower first. It'll make you feel more comfortable."

"Okay," Tina nodded, but immediately after, she had a troubled look on her face.

"What's wrong?" Kit asked.

"I... don't have any clean clothes to change into," she said awkwardly.

She didn't have many clothes at Drogo's house either. Drogo only prepared two sets of old clothes for her to change into.

And since she escaped, she naturally didn't bring any clothes to change into.

Kit looked at the tattered clothes Tina was wearing, feeling uneasy. She used to be the envied Miss Stephenson of the Stephenson family, always having the best of everything. But now...

"You go ahead and shower, I'll go buy some clothes for you," Kit said.

"But..."

"I'll be back soon! There's a mall right outside, and it's not closed yet!" With that, Kit hurriedly left the room.

The room was suddenly empty, leaving only Tina.

Tina lowered her head and looked at her bulging belly. "Baby, your father seems to be impatient, but he's really good. After you're born, he'll definitely like your dad."

Then, her belly moved, as if the child inside was responding to her!

Tina took off her clothes and turned on the faucet in the bathroom.

The faucet here was completely different from the ones in the village, but strangely enough, she knew exactly how to use it without anyone teaching her.

She must have used a similar faucet before.

Tina thought to herself.

Just then, the sound of the door opening rang out!

Chapter 4193 If I'm Not the One You Love

Tina shuddered and immediately became nervous. "Who is it?!" she shouted.

Because it was a hotel bathroom, it had opaque gla*s as a barrier, so her voice easily carried outside.

"It's me," Kit's voice came through, and then he said to Tina, "I put the clothes you need to change into on the washbasin over here. You can take them in and wear them yourself later."

Tina immediately felt relieved. "Okay."

After she finished washing up, she changed into the clean clothes that Kit had bought for her. Surprisingly, they fit her well and they were even maternity clothes.

Tina pushed open the gla*s door from the sink and saw Kit sitting on the sofa. On the coffee table in front of the sofa, there were a lot of fruits, snacks, and milk.

Obviously, he had just bought them.

"Now that you're pregnant, you need to eat more and replenish your nutrition, you know? You've become too thin compared to before," Kit said.

Chapter 4193 If I'm Not the One You Love Now, apart from her large belly, her limbs looked extremely slender, as if she would collapse with a gust of wind.

He could imagine what her eating conditions would be like in that village. She probably couldn't eat well at all.

"Thank you," Tina said. She really needed to supplement her nutrition now.

A complicated light flashed in Kit's eyes. "Tina, you don't need to thank me at all. I just hope that in the future... you won't dislike me."

"Why would I dislike you?" Tina smiled and said, "You're so good to me, I can't help but like you."

Her smile deepened the guilt in his heart. "In the future, even if I do something wrong, would you still forgive me?"

"What could you possibly do wrong?" Tina asked.

Kit's smile became even more bitter. "Just... hypothetically speaking, I'm afraid that if I really do something wrong in the future, you won't forgive me."

"No, I will definitely forgive you," Tina said.

His heart started to leap with joy. As long as she was willing to forgive him...

But her next words made his body turn ice-cold.

She said, "Because you're the father of the child, and you're the person I love."

She said it so naturally, but it made his heart sink into an abyss with no bottom.

"What's wrong? You look pale," Tina said. "Did I say something wrong just now?"

"No," he quickly said, "Maybe I'm just a bit tired. Resting for a while will be fine."

"Then have a good rest tonight," Tina said worriedly.

Kit stood up and suddenly hugged Tina. "Tina, what if I'm not the person you love?"

Because the father of the child in her belly, as well as the person she loved, was Chandler!

"Are you worried that I have no memory and won't fall in love with you again?" Tina obviously misunderstood the meaning of Kit's words.

He remained silent, not saying a word.

Thinking that she had guessed correctly, she raised her hand and hugged him from behind, burying her face in his chest. "No, I believe that you're someone I have loved before, and I will definitely fall in love with you again, just like the song you sang for me today. I really liked it!"

Is that so? His eyelashes trembled, and his eyes were filled with sadness.

But between them, there was never any love!

The person she once loved was not him either!

Would she still fall in love with him, like this?

Chapter 4194 Can she forgive?

In the end, he didn't have the courage to tell her that he wasn't the person she used to love.

After uttering that lie, he knew that it would continue until the day it could no longer be hidden.

At night, Kit lay in bed, looking at Tina lying on the other bed, already sound asleep.

She slept peacefully nearby, and he could even reach out and touch her.

It all felt like a dream.

If he closed his eyes and fell asleep now, would it all cease to exist when he woke up tomorrow?

“Tina, will you really forgive me in the future?” he whispered.

But even if it was just a fleeting dream, for him, it was an unattainable dream under normal circumstances.

Although he knew that one day it would be revealed, for now, he wanted to continue this dream. Even... if this dream would only last for a few short days.

The next day, when Tina woke up, she felt refreshed and hadn't slept so well in a long time.

After freshening up, Kit took her downstairs for breakfast, and then brought her to the hospital.

However, in the hospital, Kit used a stranger's ID to register her.

“Why are you using someone else's ID to register?” she curiously asked.

“Your ID is lost, and if you need to get a new one, it takes time. For now, we'll temporarily use someone else's for the convenience of checking your pregnancy status,” Kit replied.

In reality, he didn't dare take Tina to get a new ID.

If they really went to the relevant authorities to get a new one... his lie would no longer be able to continue.

The Stephenson family and the Hunter family would undoubtedly receive the news immediately and come to pick her

And he just wanted to spend a few more days with her.

At the hospital, Tina had a prenatal check-up. The result showed that the baby in her belly was slightly underdeveloped, about three weeks behind the normal growth for its age. This was likely due to malnutrition considering Tina's previous nutritional condition.

As long as the nutrition is supplemented, the baby's growth will naturally catch up.

After the check-up, Kit took Tina to the mall. Yesterday, he only bought a few clothes temporarily, but in his opinion, it was far from enough.

He wanted to give her more.

Tina, on the other hand, thought the clothes she bought yesterday were enough.

“Yesterday, I just randomly picked two pieces, but those two are not enough. You can choose more that you like, and besides clothes and shoes, you can also look for other things you like. However, this mall is a bit small. I'll take you to the city in a few days. There are more malls there, and they are bigger, with more brands inside."

Tina couldn't help but say, "You are too good to me. I don't know what to do."

Kit looked at Tina with tender eyes. "I'm afraid I'm not good enough to you. I only want to be better to you... to give you everything I can!"

Tina was stunned. The tears she had shed in the village and the sweetness this man gave her now seemed like two extremes.

And the way he looked at her was so gentle, as if his eyes were filled with nothing but her!

Chapter 4195 The One I Love Most is You

Tina bought some things in the mall, and in addition, Kit bought her a lot of nutritional supplements suitable for pregnant women, as if he was afraid she would continue to suffer from malnutrition.

In the following days, Kit rented a nice detached house in the local area. It had a yard with many flowers and plants, which made people feel much better.

The house was nicely decorated, and with a little arrangement, it felt very warm.

"Let's live here for now. After you give birth to the baby..." Kit hesitated for a moment, "at that time, we can find another place."

"Won't we go back to our previous home?" Tina asked, puzzled.

In her opinion, since she was carrying Kit's child and from some of Kit's words, it seemed that they were not married.

But even if they were just boyfriend and girlfriend, it was very likely that they would live together at the stage of pregnancy.

Kit lowered his gaze. "I sold our previous home because I don't think we'll go back to that city anymore. So in the future, we'll have to buy a new home."

Another lie!

He just didn't want to take her back to Emerald City because once they returned, all these lies would be easily exposed.

Fortunately, Tina believed his words, but she wondered, "Why won't we go back?"

"Because I have broken ties with my father. I don't want to be controlled by him anymore, so I don't want to go back to that city," he explained.

She paused for a moment and asked, "What about your mother?"

"She died a long time ago. I grew up in an orphanage, and my father only came to get me when I was 8 years old. He thought he could give me fatherly love."

“But it was just another form of exploitation.”

“If he didn’t have this decent appearance, my father would never have adopted me.”

The One I Love Most is You “And after I left the entertainment industry, I lost my usefulness to my father.”

“He took back the house he had given me and most of the money I had earned over the years. I was left with only a couple hundred thousand.”

“This money is enough for me to live a normal life. The extravagant lifestyle I used to have is no longer possible.”

“But I don’t regret it because I want to live life on my own terms.”

“Now, I’m grateful for this decision. It’s why I left Emerald City and found Tina in a place far away from there!”

“Tina, you’re the only one I have left now,” Kit murmured. “Even if it’s just for a short time, I hope you can feel happiness by my side.”

“I already feel happy now,” Tina said.

Kit embraced the person in front of them, using it as a shield to hide their own bitterness. If one day, the Hunter family or the Stephenson family were to find them or if she remembered the past.

Will she still feel happy then?

“Remember, you are the person I love the most in this world. No matter what the future holds, it will always be you,” Kit whispered.

“Me too!” Tina buried her face deeper into Kit’s chest.

Once upon a time, a person wandered anxiously in that unfamiliar village every day.

But now, with Kit by her side, she finally wasn’t as afraid! She felt that life was becoming more and more stable.

She lived a peaceful and orderly life, and Tina felt happy every day.

However, alongside her happiness, deep down in her heart, there was always an unshakable sense of urgency, as if her body was urging her to do something.

But she didn’t know what exactly she should do!

Chapter 4196

In the middle of the night, Tina was awakened by a nightmare!

She sat up, still a bit dazed.

"What's wrong?" Kit rushed into Tina's room after hearing the commotion and asked.

"I just had a nightmare," Tina replied softly.

"A nightmare?" Kit asked worriedly, "What kind of nightmare?"

As he spoke, he turned on the bedside lamp and gently wiped the sweat from Tina's forehead with a tissue.

"I dreamt of a man," Tina said, unaware that Kit's hand suddenly stopped.

"What kind of man did you dream of?" Kit struggled to control his trembling voice.

"I couldn't see the man's face clearly, but he seemed to be in pain, writhing on the ground. I wanted to help him." Tina said, feeling scared in the dream.

It was as if the man would die if she didn't approach and help

But no matter how she tried to step forward, she couldn't get any closer to him.

And then she woke up.

Suddenly, Kit felt a sense of relief. Should he be grateful? Thankful that Tina didn't see the man's face in her dream!

"Stop thinking about it, it was just a dream," Kit said.

"Yeah, just a dream," Tina whispered.

"Alright, go back to sleep," Kit said.

Tina suddenly grabbed his hand, "Can you stay with me?"

Kit was taken aback, looking at Tina absentmindedly.

Tina immediately added, as if wanting to explain, "I'm still a bit scared. If you stay with me, maybe I can fall asleep faster."

"Okay," Kit said softly, staying by the bedside.

Chapter 4197

Tina closed her eyes again, but her mouth kept asking, "Do you think the person I dreamt of is someone I knew before?"

Because of her memory loss, she didn't know who she used to know.

"It's probably just an insignificant dream, don't think too much about it. You said you couldn't even see the man's face clearly, so how would I know if it's someone you knew before?" Kit said, "Alright, go to sleep."

Tina fell asleep again quickly.

Kit, however, stared at Tina's sleeping face, lost in thought.

As Tina's belly grew bigger day by day, Kit bought many books about expectant mothers and newborns. He also specifically watched educational videos online for new dads.

"Oh, by the way, have you thought of a name for the baby?"

Tina asked.

Kit stiffened, then forced a smile, "You can choose a name."

"Don't you want to name the child?" Tina's eyes flickered with "No, it's just that I'm afraid I won't be able to come up with a good name. I'm not talented at naming." Kit quickly explained, but in fact, he felt that he had no right to name the child in her belly. After all, he was just a fraud.

"Well, then, I'll come up with a name for the baby. But what name would sound good if the last name is Hunter?" Tina muttered to herself.

Kit suddenly said, "Let the child have the same surname as you. I don't want the child to have my surname because my father wasn't good. I don't want that surname to be part of the child's name!"

Moreover, it's Tina and Chandler's child. What right does he have to have the child use his surname?

He's just a pitiful liar!

Chapter 4198

In the end, Tina filled the paper with various names she had chosen for the baby in her belly.

Whenever she asked Kit to help her choose which name sounded better, Kit would always say that every name sounded good and wouldn't specifically pick a certain name. This made Tina feel like she was being brushed off.

“Do you not like this child?” Tina couldn’t help but ask again when she asked Kit to help pick a name but received the same answer.

“How could that be?” Kit said, “Tina, I love this child. I can give everything for you and this child.”

Because this child is her child!
He loves her, so he’s willing to give everything to her.

“But it seems like you don’t want to choose a name for the baby,” Tina complained.

“That’s because I really think every name is good,” he said.

“Is that so?” she looked at him suspiciously.

“Really.” he raised his hand as if taking an oath.

“Alright then, I’ll choose on my own.” she finally believed his words, “By the way, when can we install the internet at home? I want to go online.” Tina said.

Kit became nervous, he intentionally didn’t install the internet and didn’t give her a cellphone, because he was afraid she would go online and possibly find out about her origins!

“We can install the internet after you give birth. Besides, you don’t really need the internet right now. If you want to go online, you can use my cellphone.” Kit said.

Of course, when Tina uses his cellphone, he would always be beside her, paying special attention to prevent her from finding news about the Stephenson family and the Hunter family searching for her!

Fortunately, it's been almost half a year since she disappeared into the water, so the news coverage has decreased. Unless someone specifically searches, they generally won't find news about her.

"Alright." Tina nodded, "Then I want to go shopping at the mall, to prepare some things for childbirth and things for the baby."

Chapter 4199

So the next day, Kit took Tina to the mall for shopping.

When buying baby clothes, Tina seemed very happy, emitting a maternal tenderness that made Kit somewhat mesmerized.

Basically, whatever Tina liked, Kit bought.

Looking at the several large bags filled with stuff, Tina couldn't help but ask, "Did we buy too much? Do you have enough money?"

After all, since they started living together, she hasn't seen Kit go out to work.

And Kit had told her before that he had quit the entertainment industry, so now their expenses are all covered by Kit's savings.

"It's enough!" Kit smiled and said, "Don't worry, I have enough money. If it's not enough in the future, I can go out to work."

"Go back to being a singer?" she curiously asked.

He shook his head, "Just find some ordinary job. But don't worry, there's no problem in supporting you and the baby."

He didn't plan to return to the entertainment circle, as there were too many dark things happening there. "I'll go out to work too when the time comes." Tina smiled and started talking about her dreams for the future.

They continued talking until they entered the elevator.

Kit listened and felt that it was so wonderful. If it really happens in the future, how great it would be. At this moment, suddenly the elevator stopped abruptly, and Kit immediately had a bad feeling.

Did the elevator malfunction?

And then, the lights in the elevator suddenly went out, and the elevator became pitch black.

Chapter 4200

Kit's body tensed up.

Because of his claustrophobia, at this moment, the fear caused by the darkness spread through his body.

Even though he kept telling himself to be strong, and not to be afraid, he still needed to protect Tina and the baby in Tina's belly.

But his body was trembling badly.

“Are

you

afraid of the dark?” Tina’s voice came from beside him.

“I...” he struggled to speak, but his voice was trembling with just this one word.

As if he was silently admitting to this answer.

“Don’t be afraid.” Tina gently said, reaching out her hand and tightly holding Kit’s hand.

He was startled, feeling the warmth transmitted from her palm.

“Someone will come to repair the elevator, it will be fine soon, don’t worry,

I’m here with you...” her voice continued to come steadily and powerfully.

His heart gradually calmed down.

It was as if no matter what happened,

she would be by his side.

When the lights in the elevator came back on, the elevator started moving again. Kit looked up and looked at the person standing beside him.

On that handsome face, there was a gentle smile, and in her eyes, there was still concern for him!

In an instant, he couldn’t help but be stunned, his gaze unable to move away from her.

It had always been her!

In the past, she had helped him overcome this fear in a pitch-black store.

And now, it was still her who helped him drive away all his fears in that pitch-black environment just now.

How could he not love her, with her being like this?
