Alessandra's POV:

I woke up a little earlier than yesterday just so the twins and I can have more time to eat breakfast and do not have to eat quickly,

I decided to make breakfast rst then take a shower and wake up the kids so we all can have breakfast together.

After I showered, I put on a pair of joggers and a big shirt, I'll get dress while the twins do.

I woke the kids up and returned downstairs to the kitchen to dish out our breakfast.

I made scrambled eggs and gave them a slice of bread each with a cup of milk in their sippy cups.

They came down and I helped them up unto the high stool then placed their plates in front

"Are you ready to go back to back to the daycare today?" I asked.

Giovanna nodded while her brother remained quiet.

"There's no need to be nervous Gio, you'll like it", I said.

He shook his head.

When I nished ate, I made the kids' snacks for today and placed them in their lunch kits;

6:30 am. "Time to bathe and get dress", I told them and helped them down from the high stool, they raced to the stairs.

My phone rang, "hello?" I answered. "Hey Alessandra, it's Lizzie, I will not be coming to work today, something came up", Lizzie stated.

"Yes, I'll see you tomorrow", she said and hung up. I went upstairs and get the kids ready then returned to my room and got dressed then put on light makeup and brush Giovanna's long curly hair into a high messy bun.

I watched the time again, 6:56 am. "Let's get going", I said and get my things.

"Mommy, can we get ice cream later?" Giovanni asked. "Sure baby", I nodded.

As I drove I thought about what occurred over the past three years in my life, I found out I

I haven't really dated anyone after I left, I thought guys will not be interested in dating me seeing that I have two young, mixed race kids plus their skin color was different on top of that. I was sure their father dated other women and slept with them too, like that honey blonde hair woman he was being seen with lately in public.

"See you later buddy", I got back into the vehicle.

"Eric Stanley, he arrived early", he replied.

"Thank you", I told him and went to the elevator.

When I pulled up in front of the daycare, Giovanna opened the door and got out, running to the building while Giovanni stayed.

I got out and took him out the vehicle, he wasn't crying but he was quiet.

"See you later", Mrs. George took him from me and I kissed his forehead.

"Bye mommy", he waved. **** "Morning Ms. Ricci", Peter greeted me when I entered the building, "there's someone upstairs to see you."

"Good to see you too Eric", I responded. "When my mother told me its Florida you'll be living, I was excited to meet you at least I can see you often since you're living in the same continent as me", he explained.

Eric and I had a mutual relationship, I don't see him often but I can tell he was interested in me and he always talk to my kids when he came to Italy with his mother on her business

I opened the door and entered the oce, Eric was standing near the glass wall watching

"Alessandra", he turned around with a smile, "it's good to see you, been a while"."

I wasn't being rude, I had to tell this guy I wasn't interesting in dating just yet.

"Nice, sorry I missed their birthdays this is for them", he handed me a big gift bag.

"It'll be easier to get to know you, how are the kids?"

"No, I'm not looking to date anyone now", I cut him off.

"Yes and ready to be delivered to stores by Friday after the brand name is put on", he nodded, "I'll be back over the weekend, will you be free?" And here it comes.

"Being a single parents with two, two year old twins, I will not be free period", I stated.

"You can always hire a babysitter", he shrugged, "I'm sure you will have to soon when you

The telephone rang and I picked it up, "Mrs. Stanley's secretary speaking."

"How do you know my name?" I frowned and Eric watched me.

"Did you call the wrong number or something?" I cut her off.

He disliked Javier a lot, always saw him as competition and was being seen around with "No, I was trying to get unto Mrs. Stanley for J- my brother, she wasn't answering her personal phone number, he wanted to know if she has appointed a meeting schedule for him as yet."

"Um.. No, sorry. When she's back I'll have to ask her", I replied still shock.

"Okay and I can't believe you're back, why did you leave my brother?" She sighed.

"It's me Josena, I can't believe you're still working there. When did you get back? Did you

I got into my vehicle and drove to the daycare and entered the building, they weren't expecting me until next half hour. "Ms. Ricci, you're here early", Mrs. George said when she saw me as she came out of a

We went to the back where the playground was, there were a few kids from ages 2-5

"Um..", I watched some of the parents glancing at me and my kids, clearly judging and wondering who the father was, "maybe a next time, we have to go", I took Giovanna's hand arms and lifted him up, other parents came outside to get their kids.

Giovanna came over to us, "I don't want to go", she pouted.

"Bye, I'm leaving a little earlier today", I said to Peter just for I made my exit at 3 pm.

I couldn't stop think about the phone call earlier, if Josena was calling about a meeting

What if he found out about the twins? What if I meet him unexpected, can I face him? Will I schedule for Javier then that meant he was living somewhere in Florida.

"Yay", she cheered. "Excuse me?" Someone said behind me as the kids were putting on their bag.

"Not so brave now are you?" I smirked and got up in her face, "if you dare make a nasty "Chocolate, vanilla", they said at the same time. "How about cookies and cream? We all can eat the same avor", I suggested and they nodded.

"What kind of ice cream do you want?" I asked the twins as we entered the ice cream

"Can I get two small cups and a medium size cup of cookies and cream", I ordered. "That'll be $5", the cashier said and while I was about to get the money from my wallet, someone said, "it's on me." I looked up.

"Okay then, go nd a table and sit down", I said and got in the line.
