

Ex-husband Goes Money Comes Chapter 230

Viola's eyes were filled with tears. She could not stop crying no matter what.

She held Ormand's hand and roared at him, "Ormand, you are not allowed to die! If you dare to die, I will immediately find another man to marry! I will make you regret it for a lifetime!"

Ormand curled his blood-stained lips and forced a smile.

LIT DOES

"No way, you are mine..."

She didn't know how to reply to him. She quickly looked at the medical staff on both sides. "I'm already here. Hurry and send him in!"

"Viola, please listen to my explanation, okay?" Ormand held her hand and refused to let "The surgery is urgent. I will be outside. When you come out, I will listen to your explanation."

Ormand's face was already pale because of losing blood. It could not be delayed any longer.

However, he still stubbornly held her hand and refused to let go. He wanted to look at her again because of the risk of the surgery. Perhaps he would not have the chance to wake up again.

Viola felt heartbroken when she saw this. She could only force his hand away and watch him being pushed into the emergency room.

The operation lights lit up. Viola sat outside, waiting. Her eyes were dull and the tears.

on her face were not dry.

This was the first time she shed tears in front of so many people, but she did not care at all. She only knew that she did not want Ormand to die...

Ormand did not come out until nine in the evening.

Todd dismissed Ormand's comrades in the army. He sat in the waiting seat opposite Viola with a gloomy expression.

He seemed to think for a long time before making an explanation to Viola.

“You always thought that he lied to you about the abandoned warehouse half a year ago. But his words were actually true. He really went there with the determination to sacrifice. If we hadn’t arrived in time and saved him, who almost died, he would have really been buried in the flame.”

Viola slowly raised her head and looked at him.

Todd continued in a low voice, “As for why he didn’t return to your side when he was alive, it was because of the internal strife of the Hobson family during that time. He had to go back and shoulder the burden. The whip wound on his back was the punishment for being against the Hobson family’s regulations. Although he was lucky enough to survive in the abandoned warehouse, his face was burned and his legs were injured and broken during the fight. His body was not much better...”

A thought flashed through Todd’s mind. He didn’t talk about the virus.

The reason why Ormand did not return to Washington was that he could not leave after getting the power of the Hobson family. It was also because of the virus in his body that the doctor had not been able to find a way to cure it completely. He had to go to the lab every two or three days to test it. He relied on the inhibitor to survive.

However, Ormand had given the order to not reveal a single word to Viola.

Todd continued, “Ms. Zumthor, he risked his life to save you every time. He is sincere with you! He is a fool in love. He only knows how to give without holding anything back, but he refuses to tell you about his pain. After he recovers his identity, he does not dare to tell you about that. It is because he is afraid that if he tells you, you will hate him even more. He is afraid that he will lose you forever. He just felt inferior.”

Viola lowered her head. Her entire heart was filled with guilt and pain.

Whenever she thought about Ormand, who was covered in blood, she could hardly breathe. However, this had happened more than once to him.

About the abandoned warehouse balí a year ago, lie must have been more injured than this time.

However, she had been angry with him because of his concealment. She blamed him for deceiving her and whipped him...

Viola felt like her heart had been stabbed by a knife, so painful that she almost couldn't breathe.

"I'm sorry..."

Other than these words, she seemed to have nothing else to make up

"He doesn't need an apology. As long as you show him your love and think about him, he will be happy."

for him.

Todd sighed, "Ms. Zumthor, he doesn't owe you anymore. But when he found out that you had been sad for him for half a year, he blamed himself. He asked me to find the whip not to perform. It was he who tried his best to compensate you for the hardship you suffered in that half year. But he has been tortured by the pain for half a year at that time."

"Last night, you slammed the door and left. He originally wanted to beg for forgiveness and explain it to you when he came back. But he didn't expect that you would talk with Mr. Hobson about breaking off the engagement early in the morning. And then Mr. Hobson agreed. That is also beyond his expectations. He lost his mind for a moment and was shot."

Viola suddenly stopped crying and frowned, "I did mention to Javon about breaking off the engagement, but Javon didn't agree, so I planned to consider it carefully. Who told Ormand about this?"

Todd looked at her and realized that something was wrong. He immediately sent someone to investigate.

Half an hour later.

The atmosphere outside the emergency room was solemn.

"It was someone sent by Mr. Sammy."

Viola asked seriously, "Sammy? How's his relationship with Ormand usually?"

Todd answered seriously, "Not very good. The internal strife of the Hobson family was caused by Sammy. He went back three days late. At that time, Sammy almost became the leader of the Hobson family. It took him almost half a month to regain power."

Viola pursed her lips and lowered her head without saying a word.

After pondering for a while, she had a cold expression on her face. She asked in a low voice, "Do you know how to avoid surveillance and climb over the wall to the Hobson family?"

Todd was stunned. "Ms. Zumthor, what do you want to do?"

Viola's eyes turned cold.

"Avenge Ormand!"

Get Bogs

It was eleven o'clock in the evening.

In the elegant bedroom, there was the sound of the water.

Sammy finished bathing and wore a bathrobe as he came out of the bathroom with a towel and wiped his hair.

As soon as he approached the bedroom, the luxury chandelier in the room suddenly flickered. The curtains were blown by the wind, and a certain cold aura came from his bedroom.

Sensing that something was amiss, he put on the gold-rimmed glasses.

There was a woman sitting beside the bed.

Her slender and exquisite legs were slanted, her hands folded, her posture enchanting, her temperament elegant and cold. Sammy was amazed by this beautiful woman.

It had to be said that Ormand's fiancée was indeed very beautiful and had a good figure. Sammy was a little moved.

He smiled politely, "When did you come, Ms. McGraw? It doesn't seem good to not take the main entrance late at night and enter my room through the window, right?"

Viola didn't say anything and stared at him with a sharp gaze.

However, this was Sammy's villa. He had a bunch of bodyguards. Viola was a woman, so he wasn't afraid. Instead, he wanted to tease her. Then he put on a smile.

"Do you want to cuckold my cousin, Ms. McGraw? I'm more than willing to cooperate with you.

Viola frowned, and her expression suddenly turned fierce. She suddenly stood up and rushed in front of Sammy. She fiercely slashed at his neck with her hand.

Sammy was very gentle and weak. He wanted to resist, but he had no strength to fight against Viola. He was mercilessly struck by her and fell to the ground.

Viola looked down at him. "You are so weak, sissy!"

By the time Sammy woke up again, he was shocked

He was already tied to the office chair, and his mouth was also covered with a towel.

Viola leaned against the table and played with the dagger casually.

The silver light of the dagger revealed her enchanting but vicious expression.

It was obvious that she was a woman not to be trifled with!

Only then did Sammy start to be afraid and try to shout towards the door.

"It's no use. Your bodyguards were all knocked unconscious by my team. It's late at night. Even if you scream, no one will save you."

Sammy had good facial features and looked gentle. At that moment, he was wrapped in a bath towel, his hair wet. He was also tied up. For some reason, the scene was a little weird...

Todd, who was outside the window, found it strange when he heard Viola's teasing tone.

Why did it seem like she wanted to rape a good young man?

Could it be that she took a fancy to Sammy and did not intend to teach him a lesson?

If Orlando knew about this, he would be so angry that he would immediately crawl over from the operating table.
