

Ex-husband Goes Money Comes Chapter 348

Viola was drinking juice. Hearing this, she suddenly paused.

“You’re thinking too much. Why would I stall to buy time? What can I get from it?” she asked with a smile.

Jerry did not believe her at all.

Jerry suddenly remembered the words that Viola had said when they were arguing before he lost consciousness. She said, “You said you won’t lie to me again when we arrive in Portugal. You will be honest with me. Did you keep your promise?”

At that time, he was angry. But now that he thought about her words, it seemed that there were other meanings for her words.

Thinking of this, Jerry narrowed his eyes dangerously. “Do you already know that I’ve gotten the serum?”

Viola raised her eyebrows and was slightly surprised. “Why is serum in your hands? Didn’t you say that it was stored in the imperial warehouse?”

Jerry stared at her, and the sense of unease grew stronger.

He immediately took his phone and contacted the guards he had arranged outside Alez Palace. No one answered.

It meant that something bad had happened!

He called Jamie again, saying, "Go back to Alez Palace immediately and check if anyone broke in!"

After hanging up the phone, Jerry put on his clothes and got up to leave. Viola pulled his sleeve and said, "Where are you going? I haven't finished my talk with you!"

"Let's talk about the child later!" Jerry pushed her hand away.

Then he turned around and left.

Viola frowned. Jerry's vigilance was too strong. She touched the ring on her hand and immediately followed him.

At that time, Todd was searching the entire Alez Palace.

The entire Alez Palace had been searched, and there was no trace of the serum.

If Jerry obtained the serum, the Palace would be the safest place to hide it. Where else could he hide?

Although the serum was small, it usually needed to be stored in freeze.

If it had been kept in the freezer for a long time, the low temperature would slowly affect its effect. And it would be impossible to store it for half a month.

Then it could only be...

Todd turned his gaze back to the small kitchen of Alez Palace and carefully searched through it again.

Finally, at the bottom of the refrigerator, he found a silver-gray freezer.

He opened the box and checked. It was the serum, four inches long and as thick as a thumb.

It was indeed Super Serum!

Todd was so surprised. He quickly took off his suit and wrapped the entire freezer. After restoring the situation in the room, he climbed out of the window.

But things were not that simple.

Just as he jumped out of the window, a gun was pressed against his back.

Then, there was the crisp sound of bullets being loaded.

There were also five guards on the side, all holding electric guns and aiming at Todd.

The gun that was pressed against his back slowly moved upwards and aimed at Todd's head.

Jamie said, "Put down the thing in your hand. And then raise your hand and turn around!"

Todd did not move at all. He tightened his grip on the freezer in his hand. Instead of putting it down, he held it in his arms, looking like he would not let go.

Jamie sneered, "Even if you are lucky enough to escape from us, you will not be able to leave this palace tonight after the alarm is pulled. The things in your hands will not be taken away. If you do not want to be shot in the head, put it down and turn around!"

Todd didn't release the thing in his arms. He slowly turned around.

Jerry had just rushed over. Relying on the dim street lights, he could clearly see Todd's face. Jerry was a bit surprised.

“I didn’t expect that it would be you!”

Jerry laughed evilly and added, “You lied to me and said you were David. How funny. I actually didn’t recognize you and let you spend so many days under my watch!”

“You’re too stupid.” Todd snorted.

Jerry’s smile immediately vanished, and in the blink of an eye, he showed a poker face.

Jamie asked, “Mr. Felton, how to deal with him?”

“Don’t use a gun. The sound is too loud. Bring him to a remote place and kill him.” Jerry waved his hand indifferently.

Todd laughed. “Jerry, do you really think you can kill me with just a few minions?”

“Why don’t you give it a try?” Jerry raised his eyebrows.

As soon as he finished speaking, Jamie immediately made his move. His gaze was fierce, and he dodged to the side, then quickly attacked.

He needed to deal with six people.

In just a few seconds, Todd had taken down two guards.

However, he was carrying a freezer in his hand. It was inconvenient.

Besides, he did not have a weapon. He was hit in the back by an electric gun.

A strong current swept over Todd, his whole body twitching uncontrollably. Jamie took the opportunity to hit the back of his knee.

Todd groaned and used one hand to support himself on the ground to avoid falling to the ground in a terrible state. He was still firmly holding the freezer in his arms.

Jerry sneered, "I know that your martial arts are very good, and your physique is also very strong. You were taught by Ormand, but it is still too difficult for you to confront an electric gun barehanded."

The melodious sound of a violin could be vaguely heard in the main banquet hall. Jerry rubbed the wound on his neck lazily and lost his patience.

“Forget it. Let’s finish it quickly with the pistol. I will explain it to my mother later.”

“Yes.” Jamie took out his gun again and aimed it at Todd’s head, ready to pull the trigger.

“Stop! Don’t move!”

Viola suddenly appeared behind Jerry. She quickly caught Jerry and pressed the silver needle on his neck.

A string of blood dripped from Jerry’s neck.

Viola threatened sternly, “This silver needle is extremely sharp. If you don't want me to cut his throat, don't move!"

While Jamie was still in a daze, Todd snatched the gun in Jamie's hand and pressed it against Jamie's forehead.

The situation was instantly reversed, and the remaining three guards looked at each other, not knowing what to do.

In the solemn atmosphere, Jerry was the first to laugh.

"Viola, you shouldn't do this. We're seriously making a deal, and you actually want to steal my thing. If you succeed, it will cost me a great loss."

"I don't need to be reasonable to a person like you. Aren't you also planning to keep me without giving the serum to Ormand?"

After mocking him, she immediately became serious. "Let Todd leave, and I will stay."

UL

"That won't do. The wedding will be held seven days later. If he takes serum back and treats Ormand, that bastard will come to find you."

Jerry narrowed his eyes and gave a look at the remaining three guards.

They aimed the three electric guns at Todd's back.

If Todd was struck again, he would definitely fall to the ground!

Jerry was not afraid of the needle. He showed an evil smile and said, "Don't make a fuss. Viola, you won't kill me. I have the alarm in my hand. If I die, you won't be able to leave. Ormand can't get the serum.

He can only wait for death. It's equivalent to everyone dying together."

Viola didn't stop. The ring was closer to Jerry's neck.

The blood dripped down Jerry's neck again, dyeing the collar of his white shirt.

Viola was determined. She said, "Indeed, I won't kill you. However, before I came here, I learned two techniques from Bentley. It can save a person's life, but it can also cause a person's body to be paralyzed, especially in having sex. I wonder if it is important to you."
