

Ex-husband Goes Money Comes by Yvone Zabielski Chapter 88

Heathtig uit, Alist

e ncial And Alsha's res lith,

-lct the plesieni

n

MAHASISW

oull met wit to see the miserable end of Viola

Violawasla tihe clining room biclisiane by the maid.

Sitting in her wheelchair, Hrela voiled the custs and followed them.

The maid said, "Ns Zumthor, these casual clothes are all selected according to your size. Please choose as you

The maid respectfully pointed to the live sets of clothes on the table.

Just as Viola was about to pick, Brenda suddenly pushed open the door and entered.

Brenda said, "I got it here. You may leave tis."

The maids quickly closed the door and left, leaving only Viola and Brenda in the locker room.

Brenda looked serious as she moved the wheelchair to the window and opened it.

“This is the second floor. You have to climb down the water pipe. There is a small road on the right. There is a small door 100 feet ahead. The door is not locked. I asked someone to open a crack quickly. The security guards have all

“You want me to run away? Viola laughed and asked.

“What else should I do?”

Brenda turned the wheelchair and pulled Viola to the windows

“Do you want to fight with William? He has never been deleted since he became famous, and this is the Caffrey family messing with you. If you fight with William, even if you don't die, you will be crippled.”

Viola looked at Brenda's serious face. Brenda was truly planning for Viola. Viola couldn't describe what she felt. It was very strange.

After all, the two of them had known each other for less than half a month.

Brenda saw that Viola was silent and Viola's expression was strange. Brenda quickly added, “Don't feel burdened, I'm not doing this for you. If something happens to you, my family will take the primary responsibility. So you should leave quickly! I'll explain it to the people out there.”

Viola moved and only smiled. Her eyes were clear and bright.

Viola said, "I won't leave. Besides, are you so sure that I will leave?"

However, Brenda was deeply captivated by the light in Viola's eyes. For a moment, she wanted to set Viola with

Just as Brenda was mad as a hatter, Viola was she had a set of clothes.

she entered the backstage area.

In the hall, everyone was absent-minded as they watched the performance, waiting for the next highlight.

Alisha was already editing the film and kept looking at the time.

Alisha said, "Why isn't she here yet? Could Viola have escaped before the battle and, Alisha looked around and suddenly discovered something. Alisha said, "Why is Brenda not here? Is she helping her to escape?"

As Alisha

Whitney's expression also became serious, but she did not say anything

“What are you afraid of?” Jaylin was still calm. “Viola agreed, and it was also the Callis family who advocated for her to change clothes. If Viola has run away, we will use the Callis family as a scapegoat. Let’s see how the Callis family will maintain their reputation in the future.”

There was viciousness in Jaylin’s eyes.

Jaylin said, “Just wait and see. If the Callis family dares to help Viola leave and find excuses, I have a way to make the Callis family suffer on the spot!”

Three performances had passed.

Some audience could no longer wait.

William was also waiting impatiently, and William looked grim.

Seeing that, Alishia stood up and took the initiative to ask Audrey, “Mrs. Callis, is Viola still not ready? Could it be that Viola has decided to run after bragging?”

Audrey was stunned, and Audrey quickly smiled to hide the awkwardness.

Audrey glanced backstage with more glances and saw that there was still nothing, so Audrey decided to bite the bullet and explain based on what Brenda had said.

Audrey said, “I’m sorry, Ms. Zumthor, she...”

Viola said, “I’m here. What are you so anxious about?”

Audrey hadn't finished speaking when she was interrupted by Viola, who was coming out from backstage Alisha snorted and rolled her eyes.

Because Alisha couldn't wait to see how long Viola could still be proud, Alisha urged, "Since you have changed, then hurry up and start!"

The crowd quieted down.

Many guests were willing for Viola to regret her arrogant words.

There were also some rich and good-looking rich boys. Because they coveted Viola's beautiful figure that could not be covered by her sportswear, they sighed. They were amazed by such a delicate and hot beauty as Viola. Unfortunately, Viola tended to tease people with words.

"The guests were looking at Viola with different lights.

William and Viola were positioned from each side of the same

"Little girl don't cry if you lose later or you'll be bullied by you."

When looked at Viola, and the crowd burst into laughter. They all thought Viola was overestimating

Russell was the only one that was still sitting chetantly and tasting ral wine, looking indifferent.

Alisha w Russell's expressoul was secretly delighted, ussell hates Viola and does not care.bour her life at all.

can have a chance

, Viola frowned when she heard William's

Alisha was laolin at Russell's handsome lace with intattution on st. wonis. Viola said, "So noisy. Let's begin."

As 5001 as viola linished

reaking, Viola quicly madelier TOTE, Viola's movements were light but swift

Before the guests could react, William had been kicked in the chest and took half a step back

Evcroll Was stunned and tell silent.

Those who didn't know anything about martial arts couldn't even see their movements clearly before the fight endel.

William was also shocked. Although William siw Viola's movements, Willi111 was kicked before he could IGCL

But if William admitted defeat in front of so many people and admitted that he couldn't even beat Viola, how could William maintain his reputation in the future?

Thinking of that, William patted the dust off his body and shouted. William said, "Young lady, you have a good foundation, but since I have already let you make a move just now, I must seriously fight this time!"

When everyone heard that, they all believed William

One by one, they all praised William as a gentleman.

Viola is such a slender wasn't a gust of wind can blow her down. How can Viola defeat Mr. Hood? As expected, Mr. Hood did throw gone!

With the experience from the first round, William focused and took the initiative to attack Viola with 100 percent of his strength.

Viola didn't move until William was right in front of her. Viola only moved her body to the side.

William was shocked that Viola managed to dodge his attack

Under the shock, William continued to attack, wishing he could use his strength.

The two of them exchanged a lot of moves, but their movements were extremely fast. Other than those who knew how to fight, the others couldn't even see how they fought.

Some of the people who hadn't thought much of Viola couldn't help but think lightly of Viola when they saw that the two of them could fight equally. They even turned their backs on William and hoped that Viola would win.

Russell looked primed and primed.

As an older brother, Russell knew very well how strong Viola was. If this dragged on and became a battle of stamina, Viola would undoubtedly lose.

Viola also knew that continuing the fight wasn't a solution, but Viola couldn't find William's weakness.

And William noticed that there were even sounds of people supporting Viola below the stage since he had not won the William was anxious. William panicked, and his attacks became more and more ruthless.

However, the more William panicked, the easier it was for William to reveal his weakness.

Viola decisively seized the opportunity, Viola was nimbly dodged William's attack, and then Viola quickly attacked with all her strength

William couldn't defend himself. He fell to the ground with a muffled

Viola, on the other hand, stood firmly on the stage and looked down at William with a slight smile. Viola said, "You lost again."

It was not just about losing, but losing again!

William felt prear humiliation. William was about to get up from the ground when he suddenly felt something warm in