The phone was ringing

Everyone held their breath, and the atmosphere suddenly became tense.

Taylin glared at Viola. “If you admit that you stole your skills and apologize to everyone here, saying that you are a thick anda liar, I can consider letting you off.”

Slie paused for a while and waved her phone proudly. "You only have a few seconds to think You must be panicking. right?"

Viola pursed her lips and smile without answering as if she was staring at a clown.

As Jaylin was thinkin, so Che suddenly picked up the phone and an old lady's voice sounded right after.

"Who is it?"

This was the first time Jaylin had spoken lo amartial arts expert like Elena, and her heart was beating wildly.

She tried her best to suppress the excitement in her heart and asked politely. "Ms. Henderson, I'm sorry to disturb you. I found someone pretending to be your disciple. That person was caught by me on the spot and refused to admit it. I could only call you to confirm it."

The old lady was silent for two seconds, then said a little impatiently, "I only have one disciple. His name is Stewart wasn't she deliberately trying to cluse everyone to misunderstand?

Viola's words did not satisfy everyone. Instead, more and more voices of disgust sounded.

But you stole her skills. How are you going to explain this?" Jaylin snorte,

Viola covered her mouth and smile even more brightly. "Are you so sure that I stole her skills? How can you make sure that Elena didn't let it from me?"

Hearing her words, everyone was in an uproar. More and more people began to criticize her.

"Heavens, how dare she! How dare she be so arropant?"

"She even called Ms. Henderson by her name. What a rude cirl She doesn't deserve her beautiful loold"

When Albert heard this, he shook his head several times, thinking that Viola was too much!

Taylin was even more amused by Viola's arrogant words.

"Alright, then I'll take your hope away today so that you will never be able to turn things around!

As she spoke, she took the microphone away, picked up the phone, and said something to Elena.

It seemed that she had received Elena's approval before she hung up the phone and called Audrey.

"Mrs. Callis, please get someone to turn on the big screen. I will make a video call with Ms. Henderson and put it on the big screen. Let everyone see if Ms. Henderson recognizes this thief!"

Audrey did not move and turned to look at Brenda in the wheelchair.

Brenda was looking at Viola,

Viola felt her gaze and nodded slightly. Her face remained calm.

Brenda set her jaw.

There was no other way. Since the person involved was so calm, it was pointless for Brenda to worry about her. She could only agree to Taylor's request.

Then, the big screen in the middle of the stage turned on.

However, she quickly changed her expression and silently blamed Viola,

Ms. Henderson, look, it's this woman! And just now, she sliamelessly said that you learned your moves from her!

Hearing Jaylin's words, Elena looked at Viola.

"Elena, long time no see." Viola smiled and looked at the camera.

Someone at the scene began to wonder. Viola dared to call Elena by her name in person

Could it be that they really know each other?

Elena was stunned for a long time after seeing Viola's face. She even put on her glasses and looked at the screen at a close distance.

Seeing that Elena was repeatedly confirming, Jaylin wasn't sure anymore.

Elena noticed the glances behind Viola with her sharp eyes. After realizing something, she suddenly stood up and bowed deeply to Viola

She said something that no one had expected!

"Master, I didn't expect it to be you. I am sorry. I shouldn't have disrespected you!"

Everyone was shocked.

What was going on?

Elena was over 50 years old, but she called Viola master. Viola was only 23 years old

It was such a drama..

"Someone misled you. I don't blame you," Viola suddenly accepted her apology with a soft smile

Jaylin was so shocked that her pupils contracted. She took two steps back in disbelief.

"Impossible! How could this be possible!"

More Laylin could say anything. Alisha turned excited.

She angrily pointed at Elena and couldn't accept it. She questioned Flen.

"You are not here you? Viola fostered her! She is an orphan, How could she be Elena's master? I don't
