

Ex-Wife 1859

Chapter 1859

"Tiffany is..." Abby blinked innocently. She was about to introduce Adie's most beloved girl to Stefan when Adie immediately covered her mouth.

"Abby, watch your tongue. It's a secret, so keep it between us!" Adie ordered Abby.

"But it's Daddy... I think it's a nice thing that you like Tiffany, so shouldn't we share our happy events with our parents?" Abby felt that telling Stefan about Tiffany wasn't a bad thing, and couldn't understand Adie's exaggerated reaction.

"He's no longer our loved one." Adie pouted and glared at Stefan furiously. "He said terrible things to Mommy in the cave just now and broke Mommy's heart... Abby, do you still remember the promise we made?"

"Yes!" Abby nodded, then said solemnly, "If Daddy makes Mommy mad, we'll support Mommy no matter how close Daddy is to us." They had made such a rule because they felt that Stefan and Renee's relationship was never certain, and they never knew whose side to take. Sometimes Abby would take Stefan's side while Adie took Renee's side, and the siblings would end up arguing when that happened. After discussing it, they had come up with that golden rule-if their parents fought, they would automatically assume that Renee was right and take her side.

"It's good you still remember. That means we can't be close to Daddy now, and we have to take Mommy's side." Adie clenched his fists firmly.

Yes, we have to take Mommy's side." Abby nodded firmly and put some distance between her and Stefan. "I'm sorry, Daddy. I can't be close to you until Mommy stops being mad at you. If that doesn't happen, I'll have to ignore you forever.

"That's right! Mommy said she wants to get us a new daddy, and I'm sure she can find an awesome one for us. I'll support her!" Adie declared as he grabbed Abby's hand, and they both ran off after Renee.

Stefan watched them, sighing miserably. In the end, his family had left him... but he didn't regret what he did. He had made his choice after much deliberation.

At night, the teachers made a campfire on the beach, and the children and their parents gathered around it. It was a warm and lively environment.

"Children and parents, after today's fierce competition, we're glad to announce that the family who found the treasure is... Adie and Abby's family! They were the first to find the family bracelets, and they also gathered the most ingredients. Let's welcome Abby, Adie, and their parents."

After a round of applause, Adie, Abby, Stefan, and Renee walked to the center of the crowd. Renee was being courteous to Stefan temporarily for the sake of the two children. Her smile was frozen to her face as she walked beside him.

Well, the teachers have promised to help the kids fulfill a wish if they found the treasure, so What's your wish, children? The teacher asked Adie and Abby excitedly.
