

Ex-Wife 1879

Chapter 1879

"adie..."

Abby knew that Quinton and Leia were reluctant to tell Renee about Adie, but she felt like she had to tell her mother the truth.

"Adie's been kidnapped!"

"Kidnapped?"

Renee's heart skipped a beat.

"That's impossible. Adie's so smart, there's no way he can get kidnapped. Has there been a misunderstanding?"

Adie had always been smarter and more adaptable than other children, so Renee felt that nobody would dare to harm him.

To her, it was more plausible that Adie had kidnapped someone or caused trouble, and he was too afraid to see her. "Mommy, Adie really got kidnapped! I'm not lying!"

Abby hurriedly added, "Someone called you when you were in a coma, and said you had to go to this horrible place to save Adie. But you lost too much blood at that time, so Uncle Quinton took the call and scolded the person. Then...we lost all news about Adie."

The day Renee was admitted to the hospital, Quinton sent a helicopter to bring Abby to the hospital.

Abby had stayed by the emergency room and listened to the adults' discussion, which was what she had just repeated to Renee.

"Yes, it's true."

Quinton sighed, looking guilty as he lowered his head.

"I made a mistake. I didn't contact the kidnapper immediately and missed an opportunity to find Adie...but don't worry. With Mr. Baldwin's help, we identified the kidnapper's location and sent people there to get Adie back. I'm sure we'll get him back soon."

"I found out the kidnapper's identity."

Justin chimed in, "Surprisingly, she's just a normal woman. She doesn't want fame or money-she just wants to kidnap the children. I can't figure her out."

"Can you affirm her identity?" Renee asked Justin.

"Of course!"

Justin said confidently, but looked a bit confused as he added, "You know her actually! don't understand why she would do something like this."

"I know her?"

Renee frowned and thought about the women who held grudges against her.

"Briar? Seraphina? I can't recall any other woman who has it out for me."

"No."

Justin shook his head.

Justin shook his head.

"It's the mother of Adie and Adie and Abby'd classmate She's called Madelyn Jackel

"Tiffany's mother?"

Renee was shocked.

"You must be mistaken. Tiffany's mother is a very gentle and good-tempered person in person in fact stefan

survived this crisis because of her husband's help. Both of them are very good people Why would they do something like this?"

"We don't know either. We ordered Damon to get his wife out in three' hours."

Quinton checked his watch, then scowled furiously.

"It's almost time, but that guy is still doesn'ty

insisting he doesn't know anything Who would believe that crap?"

Renee, however, was not in the mood to investigate Damon.

After a brief silence, she asked, "How about...Stefan?"
