

Ex-Wife 1890

Chapter 1890

Madelyn and Stefan looked at each other in shock.

"Daddy, what are you doing here?" Adie asked in delight, then hurriedly added, "Where's Mommy? Did she come with you?" "She..." After a pause, Stefan decided not to tell Adie the truth.

"Something came up, so she might not be able to make it..."

"It's okay though, it's the same as me picking you up." When he left, Renee was on the verge of death, and he didn't know what her current condition was.

Since Adie was missing, he forced himself to suppress his worry for her, and left the hospital without looking back.

He put all his heart into searching for Adie because he knew Renee would panic if she didn't see Adie when she woke up.

He knew that Adie and Renee cared very much about each other, so he didn't want to worry Adie by telling him about Renee.

"Hmph, it must have been important for her to ignore me like this..." Adie was jealous because Renee had chosen Stefan over him earlier, and the pain in his heart grew when he heard Stefan's words. The little boy looked miserable as he mumbled bitterly, "I knew she hated me.

She thinks I'm a disobedient troublemaker, not a cute and considerate kid like Abby.

Now she can just get rid of me." His eyes grew watery as he spoke.

Adie might look indifferent, but he was actually quite sensitive.

Sometimes, he secretly wondered if Renee loved Abby more.

Although he loved Abby very much, he couldn't understand why Abby could cuddle with Renee at night when she was scared, but he could only wrap himself up in a blanket and soldier through each night.

He was only a few minutes older than her, but he had to work harder than Abby at everything just to get Renee's attention.

He was better in his studies and was more skilled than Abby, but that never seemed to be enough for Renee.

Even when he scored a hundred marks in all his subjects or developed excellent softwares, it never delighted Renee like Abby's sweet words did.

Things like this troubled him from time to time...

which was why he sent Quinton that message.

He claimed he didn't want to go back, but he secretly hoped that Renee would come for him.

However, when Renee didn't appear

"How could a man like you get jealous of your sister?" It was the first time stefan had seen the strong and independent Adie behave like this, but he knew this wasn't the time to lecture his son.

Stefan glared at Madelyn coldly and demanded, "Why did you kidnap my son Daddy actually Adie started anxiously, but Madelyn's expression suddenly changed.

She pulled her hand from Adie's and wrapped it around his neck, strangling him.

"Master Hunt...

You're the famous president of Hunt Enterprise, aren't you?"
