

Ex-Wife 1898

Chapter 1898

Renee's heart clenched the moment she heard those words. Tears rolled down her cheeks as she carried Tiffany in her arms, resting her hand on the little girl's pale face. "Don't be scared, you're safe now."

However, Tiffany shook her head and kept crying. She tried her best to raise her hand to point at the cave. "Save my mommy... please!" Her small body trembled and she was scared, but she still hoped that someone could save Madelyn.

Stefan checked Adie's breathing and realized he had fainted from exhaustion. He gently laid Adie on a boulder to rest, then turned to Tiffany and said, "You're too kind. That woman wanted you to die with her, but you're still begging to save her. You're very silly!" He had seen Madelyn's insanity the night before, and didn't feel it was necessary to save her.

"Is there another person in there?" Renee asked in shock. When she entered the cave just now, she hadn't seen anyone else. She had assumed that Adie had gotten rid of the kidnapper, but surprisingly, she was still in the cave.

"The kidnapper's still there. She wanted the kids to die with her, so we don't have to pity her. Just leave her there," Stefan scoffed. He, Adie, Renee, and the others could barely hold on, and they still needed to go down the hill to leave the island.

Renee didn't think about that-she just couldn't bear to see someone die. If she had committed a crime, the law would decide her punishment, but Renee couldn't just sit by and watch her die without doing anything. "Where is she? I'll go in and bring her out," Renee asked Stefan.

"You're going in?" Stefan became agitated. "Do you know how complicated the terrain of the cave is? It might collapse at any moment. She's a mad woman who tried to kill these kids, so why are you risking your life to save her?"

"It doesn't matter-I'll help her if I can!" Renee glared at Stefan coldly, shocked by his mercilessness. "I thought you were a kind person, but it seems I was mistaken. You'd rather see unworthy people die instead of helping them, right?"

"That's different!" Stefan was confused. Renee had been so gentle when saving him earlier, and now she was insulting him. He just didn't want her to get hurt, but she made it sound like he was a cruel person who put profit above everything else. "I don't want you to take any risks because I know how valuable a life is. Do you know what Adie said to me when we were trapped in the cave?"
