

Ex-Wife 1899

Chapter 1899

Stefan looked away as he said emotionally, "He doesn't want US to fight anymore...

He wants me to take care of you and protect you, and he wants our family of four to live happily ever after!" He had been given a second chance at life, and he wanted to treasure it.

He didn't want them to take unnecessary risks.

"I know Adie-he would want me to go in there and rescue her.

Plus, if that woman really was crazy, Adie wouldn't be alive right now, and the girl wouldn't be asking me to save her.

I think there's more to this story, and she's not as wicked as you think she is.

We can talk about it after I save her!" Renee said, about to crawl into the cave.

"Why are you so stubborn?" Stefan grabbed Renee's arm.

"Think of the kids! This girl doesn't want to lose her mother, but do you think Adie would want to lose his? You should at least think of his feelings." "Adie..." Renee looked at Adie hesitantly, her heart clenching as she stared at the unconscious boy.

Stefan was right-one careless move, and she could die in that cave.

Was saving a kidnapper worth risking her life for? "Mommy!" When Tiffany saw Renee hesitate, she felt it was unfair to make Renee go in given how dangerous it was.

She tried to crawl into the cave to wake the unconscious Madelyn up.

If she didn't get Madelyn out of there, she would either suffocate or be buried under rubble.

"Wait! [I'll go in and save your mommy!" Renee felt sorry for Tiffany, and immediately made up her mind to go rescue the woman inside the cave.

Stefan knew he couldn't change Renee's mind, so he said seriously, "It's okay, you take care of the kids...

I'll get her." "What?" Surprised, Renee asked, "You're... going to save her?" "What other option is there? I don't want you to take that risk." "But you're so weak now.

Can you really do it?" Renee asked doubtfully as she stared at the exhausted man.

He would probably just make things worse.

"I've got to do it." Stefan took a deep breath and abruptly hugged Renee

"Live well.

Don't do anything to worry the kids and I.

I'll be out of there soon." "Why are you making it sound like we're never

m

going to see each other again? Just other Dagain?

stay here, I go!" Renee grabbed

Stefan, refusing to let him go into the cave.

At that moment, they all heard aloud rumble.

As they watched in horror, another

red,

landslide covered the entrance of the cave