

Love Between Fairy And Devil (Completed) Chapter 16 - Chapter 10.2

First winter, snow has filled the whole sky in Kun Lun (mountain range).

Little Orchid couldn't bear to look at the water figure walking in the front, its legs and head were frozen, but it still took great effort to walk. It led Dong Fang Qing Cang deeper into Kun Lun blanketed by snow.

"It's almost dying." Little Orchid said, "You're not going to give it more magic or make it a bit warmer?"

"Its purpose is to die." Dong Fang Qing Cang heartlessly said.

Little Orchid pouted and scolded Dong Fang Qing Cang was heartless in her mind.

The water figure led them to one mountain top. A wave of wind stroked down on the body. Its body hardened and became completely frozen from head to toe; yet, its finger still pointed ahead from the distant.

Little Orchid climbed on the mountain, and looked in the direction the finger was pointing. Under the mountain was a deep chasm, and on the rocks under the chasm there was cave, appearing and disappearing. It was wide two zhang (6.66 meters).

Dong Fang Qing Cang has superhuman vision. Little Orchid blinked and looked closely in front. She immediately saw the frozen wall surrounding the cave to be covered in blue ice crystals. Little Orchid doesn't know what those were, but looking on the outside, she knew that the energy in the frozen cave was extremely cold and at least, colder than on the mountain top by far.

Little Orchid knew that Dong Fang Qing Cang's body is strong, but...

She used the left hand to pull on the front of the robe, Dong Fang Qing Cang wore three layers of clothes. The black robe outside is quite beautiful, but greeting the wind in this snow-filled day, it's not one bit useful. Little Orchid asked, "Before my master used to say, under Kun Lun mountain range there is a demon market. Don't we need to buy a fire fox-fur coat to wear before we enter that cave ah? It appeared that there is some type of seal there, seems to be extraordinary cold ah."

Dong Fang Qing Cang paid no attention to her. The energy under the feet moved and carried the whole body toward the frozen cave on the cliff.

Not entering the cave yet, Little Orchid has already felt a surge of terribly cold energy crashed into the face.

It's indeed an abnormal place. Before along the way, even if there were large winds and snow to whatever extent, Little Orchid did not feel cold. But the moment [they] came here, only need for the wind to blow and she had already trembled.

But this is the body of Dong Fang Qing Cang! Little Orchid looked at the rocks covered by the blue ice crystals inside. It's serene and hidden in the distance but does not know where it can lead to. Little Orchid began to be deathly scared, "You want to find what sword, don't do it anymore, let's go back, forging another sword will do, inside here is causing me to feel insecure ah..."

"Be quiet." Dong Fang Qing Cang coldly said, and he stepped inside the frozen cave. As if noticing someone's stepping in, the cave whizzed out a cold wind, blowing each silver white hair strand of Dong Fang Qing Cang, causing his long silver white hair down to his feet to suddenly become thin frozen dregs/residue.

Little Orchid cannot help but began to tremble, her heart was more unease, "Really cold ah. Big devil, this place is really not good ah... Master has said before cannot go to places like this, in the world there are many strange seals/holes. Even if the person was powerful to whatever extent, still only the strength of one person. Cannot go against with the natural law..."

"Hah, natural law?" Dong Fang Qing Cang continued to step in the forward direction. Seemingly there was a fire under his legs climbing up, and split into three flames. One went straight into the deepest part of the cave, as if battling against the cold wind, and burnt up the ground to create a path. The two remaining flames split one left and one right. They burnt the rocks up top. Little Orchid saw the surrounding blue ice crystals beginning to melt while the last two remaining exploded due to the flames. Rupture/bursts sounded from the left side. When she turned around to look, three feet in front of Dong Fang Qing Cang there were no longer a single shadow of the blue ice crystals but merely an ash rock wall.

"Natural law is nothing."

Dong Fang Qing Cang scornfully said and then continued to step forward. Each step there was a fire appearing and dispelling the cold energy in the frozen cave.

Little Orchid inside Dong Fang Qing Cang's body saw [this] and was flabbergasted, but after becoming shock at the strength of Dong Fang Qing Cang and after going further in, the uneasiness of hers became even stronger, "Big devil, I felt that besides the cold, there is something else here as well ah, I..."

Not finished speaking, Little Orchid felt a surge of pain like tearing apart one's lungs transmitting from the deepest part of the body. It's like when Dong Fang Qing Cang was forcing the souls to switch bodies.

Little Orchid groaned utterly loud. At this moment, she felt the body leaned to the right, and her face surfaced. But within the shifting of the world (idiom: sky spinning and earth going round), Little Orchid seemed to see Dong Fang Qing Cang's soul be pulled out from the body, then followed a unfathomably strange gush of wind that came from outside the cave, and was blown into the deepest part of the cave.

After that, Little Orchid can no longer sustained in Dong Fang Qing Cang's body for much longer and as if being torn apart, was blown into a mysterious cave with blue light by the wind.

The soul departed from the body in the mortal realm.

Master has said, that's death.

Love Between Fairy And Devil (Completed) Chapter 17 - Chapter 11.1

Chapter 17: Chapter 11.1

Little Orchid truly felt that Dong Fang Qing Cang was a comet/bearer of ill luck in her life.

Barely met him so far, she has died and revived so many times. The first time was when her body strangely crushed herself to death, and the next was entering the underworld the first time in her life. After that, it's aggrieving from having to win the body over a male.

This time it's even more great, the soul leaving the body, and becoming a wandering demonic ghost in the mortal realm.

Little Orchid remembered one sentence her master has said before. She felt it was quite befitting the time and setting, "Really is blood-spitting unlucky."

Little Orchid hugged the trembling hands and stood up. She looked all around. The body of Dong Fang Qing Cang has disappeared and the soul of Dong Fang Qing Cang cannot be seen anywhere. After departing from the body, does not know whether the ghost messengers of the underworld will come and drag her to the underworld or not, but thinking back, even a ghost messenger cannot even come here. Even up in the sky or down in the ground no one will know of this place. At least Little Orchid did not hear master mentioned this.

Without Dong Fang Qing Cang's body, the coldness from all four directions were additionally bone-seeping cold. The lucky thing right now was that she is a soul. If it was the original body of hers, no need to speak about walking, even standing was dreadful.

Each blue ice crystal on the rocks shimmered a bright light and connected with each other, causing the whole cave to light up and even to the deep areas were a quiet blue light. Little Orchid softly called, "Big devil?"

Her voice echoed within the ice, and traveled quite far, but she heard no response. She remembered the soul of Dong Fang Qing Cang was also pulled out from the body. The issue was that [she] does not know where did the gust of demonic wind blew it to. But Little Orchid thought, right now she is fine, and so nothing will happen to the big devil...

Wait hold on!

Little Orchid was having second thoughts of something.

Currently, she and Dong Fang Qing Cang have both left the body. With the big devil's personality, when he meet her he will not hesitant to kill her ya!

Anyhow, who wants to share the body with another person. Furthermore, the time she has gone against the big devil... Just simply remembering has already caused Little Orchid to face palm her forehead.

If she was big devil, with the hardships from the time before, even when something was said she would choke herself.

Little Orchid understood, the screen that has protected Little Orchid from being hurt by the big devil has crashed. Thus, if she wanted to live then she must definitely find the body of Dong Fang Qing Cang before he does and then proceed to climb back into. Like this she can continued to maintain an extreme deadlock with Dong Fang Qing Cang to exist. Most definitely cannot meet Dong Fang Qing Cang before finding his body!

Definitely...cannot...

"Where are you going?"

This voice rang from behind.

Little Orchid's entire self froze, her eyes turned around, and saw on the large ice crystal appeared the cold face of Dong Fang Qing Cang behind her. His entire self gathered hostile energy and coldness. Within a moment, that has already encapsulated the cave.

Even if it was a soul, Little Orchid can hear her heart becoming jumpy.

"Make ben zuo find exhaustingly." He lifted his hand up, and a fire rose from his fingers.

Little Orchid did not intend to find out how a soul like him can still use power/magic. In the moment the fire from Dong Fang Qing Cang's hand grew larger, Little Orchid prostrated down on the ground to dodge it and hugged his legs, "Big god! Little Orchid knows wrong! Milord do not kill me!"

Moral integrity? Such thing cannot eat, and so Little Orchid has long threw it away.

Dong Fang Qing Cang moved his lips, slightly revealing his sharp teeth, and caused his face to become even more cold and vicious, "You did not wronged, that time you have caused ben zuo to realize that I still lack many things."

Little Orchid hugged his legs even stronger, "Huhuhu, I really am sorry. I shouldn't have rebel against big god like that. Huhu, please sympathize that we have ate, slept, and bathe together. Please spare me milord ah!"

"Cry ah?" Dong Fang Qing Cang laughed sinisterly and pressed on Little Orchid's chin, causing the muscles on her to change. Dong Fang Qing Cang squeezed her face and carried it up, "Using your own face to cry has made ben zuo quite refreshed."

Little Orchid moved her lips, as if wanting to say something, but due to Dong Fang Qing Cang pressing her mouth, she could not say anything. Cannot beg to be forgiven, Little Orchid intended to cut the tongue and flashed the eyes to appear pitiful and innocent.

Dong Fang Qing Cang has never sympathized, and withdrew his smile on his lips. His gaze became even more cold, "Ben zuo has played enough, this farce will end here."

The fire on his fingers flared up, and Little Orchid felt her cheeks burning hot. She knew Dong Fang Qing Cang wanted to burn her head, and cause her soul to disperse. Dying like so will have no return.

She was determined, and moved her hands up to slap on Dong Fang Qing Cang's face. In that slap also carried an ice crystal that crashed into his ears. The fire on Dong Fang Qing Cang's fingers immediately weaken, but did not leave Little Orchid. One hand covered his ear and wanted to melt the ice crystal from inside. At that time, Little Orchid's hands aimed directly to Dong Fang Qing Cang's heart and used all her strength to kick an ice crystal into his soul.

The ice crystal entering the body seemed to have affected Dong Fang Qing Cang, causing him to appear white and appear red. His hands loosened, and her arms and legs reached the ground. Taking the opportunity, she did not look back when escaping to the inner depths of the cave.

After circulating five paths, a warm fire followed suit. Perhaps Dong Fang Qing Cang was angry and wanted to use this explosive energy to burn her into ashes.

Little Orchid was scared to the point of rupturing her gut.

If captured again she will definitely die a tragic one!

Thinking like this, Little Orchid ran quite far for a bit, following her instincts. She headed toward a far away place, and ran past the 10 or so frozen ice in the cave. After running past the shortcuts in the frozen cave and losing one's breathe did she dare stop.

Looking from behind, Dong Fang Qing Cang appeared to have not chase. Perhaps the two ice crystals of hers made him felt uncomfortable.

But who cares about him! Right now they are in a world where one dies while the other lives. Only by finding the body and returning to the way before can this situation stop.

In the early days, Little Orchid heard master said, the five elements [wood, fire, earth, metal and water] attract and oppose one another, regardless of a human, demon, immortal, ghost; all have the five elements that happened to be born in this world. Despite Little Orchid not being able to understand the time of Dong Fang Qing Cang's birth, she followed the legends and magic specialty of his and can deduced he is of the fire element. Thus, the extremely cold ice crystal will oppose him. Dong Fang Qing Cang's body is really strong, but right now he was only a soul. A regular soul in the mortal realm that cannot touch physical touch things. Not even mentioning about having to use power/magic, from the numbers of people Little Orchid knew, besides Moxi the war god and the Heavenly Emperor, no one has ever done this [able to withstand the opposing element].

Chapter 18: Chapter 11.2

Using power with his soul in a place with an opposing element, Dong Fang Qing Cang was really strong. If today she dealt with Dong Fang Qing Cang in his actual body, Little Orchid was certain— before she can touch Dong Fang Qing Cang's face, she would have been burnt by the flames on his fingers into ashes.

It's fortunate at such a mysterious place she can take a risk with him. Little Orchid was tired and out of breath. She lowered her head to look at her hand that was frozen by the crystal. Enduring the pain, she used her mouth to blow. After blowing on it for quite a while, she suddenly realized a strange matter. Following logic, right now she was only a soul, and cannot touch things in the mortal realm ah. Even if it's a place filled with mysterious energy, it's still a place in the mortal realm. How can she grabbed the two crystals in her hands before...

Little Orchid thought for a bit, had no solution, and so she threw this matter out from her head.

The top priority now was to find Dong Fang Qing Cang's body and crawl back inside it.

Little Orchid went forward for distance, and felt the surroundings dropped several degrees of temperature. She saw a fork and the two paths were scattered with ice crystals she had seen before. Yet, inside one path was purely black. Going two to three steps one can already see the entire darkness and cannot see anything.

Little Orchid was a little uneasy, but remembered along the way the scenery was like this. There's a saying— if not destroyed cannot build; does not go to a different path then the situation will not move forward.

Little Orchid gritted her teeth, and rubbed her hands as she carefully and solemnly stepped into the darkness.

By only stepping in a dark cave within two steps, Little Orchid has already felt the cold air from inside following outward, howling as if wanting to freeze her.

Rather not go in, Little Orchid secretly wanted to bang the drums to retreat the army*, but if turned back she will meet the big devil who she has angered.

*Backing out of the place

Remembering the fiery flames burning on the back, Little Orchid suddenly felt the cold wind in front was not cold to the bones and the darkness was no longer scary.

After all, ahead is a opportunity to live ah while behind is a path of death.

Little Orchid with courage continued to move forward. Each step has to use the toes to investigate three rounds and then dared to actually step forward. Little Orchid felt that she has went quite far, but looking back, the brilliant frozen crystals were only distant from her by 4-5 zhang (one zhang is 3.33 meters).

Suddenly, Little Orchid heard really far from inside the cave carried the sounds of explosion at this strange place. Besides her and the big devil there was no one here! Such movement must be the big devil trying to destroy! Little Orchid's soul immediately quickened the pace and no longer use the feet to investigate as she headed straight toward the front.

In the cave it was so dark that one cannot see any forks/turns/winding roads. Little Orchid felt that wherever she went she would bump against a wall. After crashing a bit, she completely lost her sense of direction within the darkness. Right now the path to return cannot be seen. The endpoint of this cave was pitch-black to the point of not knowing.

Little Orchid was nervous and scared; helplessly not knowing what to do.

At that time, within the darkness, a sudden surge of extremely strange energy came.

Very faint and very gentle. But Little Orchid was very sure that she did not smell wrong. In a situation where one cannot see and cannot hear, such energy was especially distinct.

Little Orchid attempted to stabilize her mental state, and followed the energy.

Did not know how long, there was light suddenly, and Little Orchid was overjoyed. She quickly followed the direction of the light and went out of the dark cave. The eyes were starting to ache due to the glaring light of the reflected blue crystals. Little Orchid narrowed her eyes a bit to adapt and at that time clearly saw the scenery in the front.

This is a large cave, and was high for at least 20 zhang. The dimensions were even bigger than the palace of Dong Fang Qing Cang's in the demon realm. In the middle position, did not know who used the blue crystals to erect a statue. Little Orchid stepped forward and soon discovered, this is a statue of woman, body wore an armor, held a double-edged sword, and had a valiant and formidable demeanor.

As if she stood here for quite a while, the face was somewhat vague, but the posture of hers was still straight, Drawing in gazes was the icy sword in her hand. Even though the sword was frozen, Little Orchid still felt the assiduous energy of it, as if it can slice the sun and moon, crack mountains and rivers.

Who is that?

Little Orchid did not know this person. Not waiting for her to think of the answer, the cold energy from all four directions aggregate and a white shadow of a person appeared in the air.

"Who has come?"

The heavy tone caused Little Orchid to feel uncomfortable, "I... I am a little flower immortal under Siming Xingjun, and was forced by Dong Fang Qing Cang to come here. I have no intention of disobliging, but the situation between he and I is a bit complicated. Currently, I am trying to find the body of Dong Fang Qing Cang."

The white shadow heard this and was silent for a while, "Dong Fang Qing Cang." It whispered these four words, and then asked, "You want to find this body?"

When it finished speaking, Little Orchid suddenly saw the body of Dong Fang Qing Cang being pulled out from a rock by the white energy. Mountain rocks falling to the ground vibrated heavy sounds. Little Orchid immediately nodded, "Yes yes, it's him."

The white shadow was silent for a bit, "Finally has come in search, now I cannot stop him, but will not allow him to easily mess with General's rest."

Little Orchid heard and mind became confused. Saw the body of Dong Fang Qing Cang bounced up high and Little Orchid became startled. When the body fell down, Little Orchid felt the ground shook and within a blink of the eyes, many Dong Fang Qing Cang's stood up!

Little Orchid was horrified with widen eyes and gaping mouth, "This this this...situation.. what is this situation!"

How how how... how are there so many Dong Fang Qing Cang's!

Love Between Fairy And Devil (Completed) Chapter 19 - Chapter 12.1

Little Orchid turned her head to look at "Dong Fang Qing Cang" standing beside her.

He closed his eyes. Despite his body made of rock but his skin and five senses are not that different than the real Dong Fang Qing Cang. Perhaps it's the real one? Little Orchid rubbed her hands, retreated several steps, and tried to her best efforts to charge at the body, but only passed through it and cannot crawl into it. That body was formed by rocks, does not have life energy, and obviously cannot contain a soul. Little Orchid was very, very dispirited, and looked at "Dong Fang Qing Cang", thickness around, and suddenly felt as thought one's head could explode. Which one to pick ah, she lifted her head up to find the white energy to gently and quietly while pretending to be pitiful ask, but after the white energy released several "Dong Fang Qing Cang", it disappeared. What to do...

Little Orchid looked left and then right. When she looked at the female statue in the middle, her eyes lighted up. Let's try to look from a high spot; perhaps comparing like so will see more clearly. She quickly ran to the middle, but when she came to the front of the statue, and touched the statue, an extremely cold energy crawled inside. Not waiting for her to response, it has already knocked her to the ground. Little Orchid's hands immediately clear up after several parts. She became scared and her heart went thump thump. Fortunately, only a soul. If it was her actual body touching, will immediately freeze to death then. Here, in the end... she looked up, saw the frozen sword seemed to be softly flickering, as if saying "Do not touch me."

Obviously, Little Orchid wouldn't dare to touch, but looking at thousands and tens of thousands of Dong Fang Qing Cang's, she felt extremely helpless. At that time, a flame-light shot toward Little Orchid. Little Orchid breathed in a cold air, crawled on one's back, and the flame hit the statue behind her. Only heard the sound of "jeering" and then completely disappeared. The atmosphere around stirred, the white energy aggregated into a figure in the air, "Dong Fang Qing Cang." The eloquent voice echoed in the cave, and carried seriousness and fieriness, shaking and smothering the chest of Little Orchid who was crawling on the floor. She doesn't dare to stand up, and only assessed the direction of the flame and crawled in a different direction. She must quickly find the body of Dong Fang Qing Cang!

She crawled on the ground, and while crawling would pull this leg and touch that leg. After crawling for a bit, suddenly caught a Dong Fang Qing Cang that felt different from other rock-like Dong Fang Qing Cang! The excitement within Little Orchid's heart did not get to spread and was immediately extinguished. It's really Dong Fang Qing Cang, but it was the soul of him...

Dead scattering smithereens*

* She's basically saying some curse or cursing her bad luck and another substitute would have been "bloody hell" or "drats".

These three words rang incessantly in her head. She forgot to struggle and weep. She can only looked dumbly at Dong Fang Qing Cang revealed the most vilest smile she has ever seen from a demon. His eye teeth were longer than any mortal, and reflected the light many parts around as if an ice blade stabbed into Little Orchid's heart. She felt as if she was a dead fish. Besides slaughtering the person, there was no other more pleasant-looking way of dying.

"Dong Fang Qing Cang!" The white figure in the air bellowed, "Wickedness has come here for what?!"

Dong Fang Qing Cang did not bother looking at it, and only looked at Little Orchid who was crawling on the ground. He coldly said, "You actually knew a bit about the five elements and their opposites."

Little Orchid seemed to want to bury her head under the ground, "I do not know da ren (big god)."

The white figure in the air waved its hand vividly, "For sure you eyed the Shuo Feng double-edged sword, conspired to steal it here, Shuo Feng has been loyal for over a thousand year to General, would never bowed and obeyed down to wickedness like you!"

Dong Fang Qing Cang watched attentively at Little Orchid, withdrew his smile, and his expression was cold as snow mist. Energy congregated within his hand, and a fiery flame burst within his palm, "From ancient times to now, you are the first person to angered ben zuo like this."

Little Orchid crawled shakily on the ground, "Da ren, that person... is talking with you..."

The white figure roared, "Evil being! Dare to look down upon I!" Finished speaking, it aggressively charged toward Dong Fang Qing Cang. Dong Fang Qing Cang used his hands and the flames within them congregated into a sword. It blocked the white figure and in the end he rolled his eyes while his bloodshot pupils overflowed with evil energy, "Shuo Feng double-edged sword soul, you really want to die." The white figure mockingly laughed, "Only a mere soul yet was arrogant, Dong Fang Qing Cang, you are still haughty as ever for the past years."

Love Between Fairy And Devil (Completed) Chapter 20 - Chapter 12.2

Chapter 20: Chapter 12.2

As if remembering the past, Dong Fang Qing Cang's gaze was even colder. He waved his hands, and the raging flames were like a net that captured the white shadow tightly, but within a moment's time, the white shadow escaped from the fire net. The white energy congregated into a sword and pierced in the direction of Dong Fang Qing Cang. The raging flames in his hand rose and transformed into a sword to block it. The two swords clashed but no sounds were heard of the weapons clashing. Yet, it has caused the energy within the cave to go berserk and the stones collapsed incessantly while the ground trembled.

Within the chaos, Little Orchid crawled past Dong Fang Qing Cang's feet and after that, stood up and ran crazily. Whenever there was a body seen, [she] would charged toward it, but would fail.

Right now she does not dare to stop. If at the time they were still battling one another and she has not found Dong Fang Qing Cang [his actual body], then she only has one way and that's death!

Little Orchid thrust and slammed within the chaotic and collapsing cave like a headless fly, but through the endless searching there was no result. She was tired to the point of being out of breath and turned around. Dong Fang Qing Cang was still battling against Shuo Feng sword soul endlessly, but the position of Dong Fang Qing Cang continued to change; he would battle and then retreat, going toward a certain direction.

Battling while retreating? Little Orchid felt that was not the style of Dong Fang Qing Cang. She looked at the direction he was retreating to and many "Dong Fang Qing Cang" were standing there.

Little Orchid secretly calculated, and gritted her teeth. In the end will be death, thus let's carry this hope into action and die anyway! She squeezed her fist, and plunged toward that direction. When she ran past Dong Fang Qing Cang, he concentrated and threw a flame toward Little Orchid. She could not avoid in time and her whole body was a raging inferno. Dong Fang Qing Cang saw such and paid no attention to her.

He knew that this little flower demon for sure will die.

The raging flames felt as if they wanted to rip apart her body. Little Orchid knew that she cannot endure much longer, but right now in front of her there were three bodies. Within Little Orchid's eyes, all three bodies looked exactly the same with one another. There was not enough time to try all three; thus, let's go with intuition!

She gritted her teeth, poured all her final strength, and charged toward the body closest to Dong Fang Qing Cang [the one battling the Shuo Feng sword].

Dong Fang Qing Cang turned the corner of his eyes, and saw that the soul wrapped in burning flames was holding back tears and charging toward the body behind him.

How could this be... The soul of a flower demon with puny cultivation/power that can withstand so long in his flames like this...

Not waiting for Dong Fang Qing Cang to sign with defeat, the body behind him began to become soft.

The blood-shot colored pupils became large as the eyes opened, and the silver hair scattered loosely to the ground. Little Orchid raised the left hand to look, and then raised the right hand to look. She happily smiled, and after that pouted to cry, "Living amicably is not easy, really not easy..." She did not care whether Dong Fang Qing Cang was battling with Shuo Feng sword soul, and like so curled oneself to hug the knees and wailed loudly.

Hearing such repeatedly loud weeping, Dong Fang Qing Cang's face paled, and looked at Shuo Feng sword soul in the front. The fire within began to rise, and the flames on the sword in his hand seemed to rip apart the air, "Ben zuo shall not spare you!" The fiery sword sliced downward, and cut apart the sword that Shuo Feng sword soul has used the white energy to congregate. Shuo Feng was scared, and was not able to recover as the fiery sword sliced down on him. He cried in pain, dispersed into white energy, and immediately retreated into the [actual] frozen sword.

Not battling anymore, the energy within the cave slowly stabilized. Dong Fang Qing Cang withdrew the sword, stood in front his body that at this time, there was a someone else residing in it.

Dong Fang Qing Cang coldly looked at her.

"You who deserve to die, is extremely evil, cruel, heartless, and inconsiderate; I don't want to reside together with you anymore!" Little Orchid ,who was still anguishing in pain of almost being burnt to death, was filled with incomparably deep anger and rage for Dong Fang Qing Cang.

Dong Fang Qing Cang quietly looked at Little Orchid for a while. As if finally accepting one's fateful misfortunes, he sighed helplessly in a rare sight.

Helplessly?

Yes ah, helplessly...

As if at the very last moment Dong Fang Qing Cang was losing his fighting spirit, he kicked Little Orchid's feet, and his voice lessen several bits of being his usual imposing self, "Stand up, let me in."

Little Orchid paid no attention to him, scooted her bottom (on the ground) back. Dong Fang Qing Cang felt that he should criticized this action of hers, but within him was filled with the feeling of helplessness. Finally, following the movements of Little Orchid, he bent down, and prepared to jump into the body.

Little Orchid suddenly lifted her head, and saw the face of Dong Fang Qing Cang getting close within a narrow distance. His face pushed onto her face, the two noses touched, and after such interaction, pain rose, and the body became crowded.

Little Orchid resentfully whispered, "When will this farce end?!"

This here was a normal appearance of theirs...

The feeling of helplessness within Dong Fang Qing Cang became even heavier for several layers.
