

Love Between Fairy And Devil (Completed) Chapter 31 - Chapter 19.2

Ears heard the still calm voice of Xie Wanqing, "What happened?"

When her words just finished, Dong Fang Qing Cang then swung his hand. With leveling land and the rising wind outside of Lucheng's spell protective screen, the wind grew bigger and faster. It then transformed into a hurricane and swirled the camping tents while also blowing away the provisions of the rebels. When everyone was still in shock, the hurricane suddenly became a dragon that drew upward toward the blue clouds. One by one warhorses were rolled away and many soldiers also flew disorderly everywhere in the air.

The hurricane blew dust and was like the autumn wind that sweeps away golden leaves*. Only within a blink of an eye, it has caused eight thousand rebel soldiers in front of Lucheng to become missing without a trace.

* idiom that means drive out the old and make a clean sweep

It included the general, and also the leader of the rebels...

Little Orchid was shocked and speechless. She only knew to look at the lonesome ground to the blade of the grass that were swept cleanly in front of Lucheng. Eyes appeared lifeless.

Dong Fang Qing Cang raised hand and the protective spell screen disappeared and remained only were the deep moat on the ground that proved he had taken action, "Problem solved." He said, "Tomorrow's evening (11 am-1pm) is the destined time in which Xie Wanqing lose her life. Ben zuo will wait until then to take away her life."

Little Orchid was about to go crazy. The left hand grabbed a bit in the air. Finally, grabbed [her] own shirt collar, "You are playing with me ah! You are playing with me ah! You thought that I was young and insensible that you can fool me! What are you doing ah?"

Dong Fang Qing Cang pulled the left hand away, "This is good deed that ben zuo seldom does for the first time."

"Good deed?! This is a good deed to you?"

"Didn't you want them happy?" Dong Fang Qing Cang dully said, "The current situation with the enemy is not dangerous anymore. She can happily live until I take her life away. I can also grant them something that mortals have always wanted— die the same day, same month, and in the same year."

Dong Fang Qing Cang's speech was rather despising because he does not understand what mortals wanting to die with one another really meant. Nevertheless, these mortals will have to reincarnate. The underworld is not a place that they can hold hands, jump down, and arranged for them to be blood-related siblings in the next life. Drinking Lady Meng Po's soup, whoever will go whichever way. Next life can even be reincarnated as different species from one another.

Dong Fang Qing Cang was too calm causing Little Orchid to screech, "In the end, did you even consider my feelings? There was clearly a simple way for them to be happy. Only needed to fix a small spot in their fates will do, but you! You! You have blown away eight thousand soldiers of theirs! Where are those generals, where is the leader of the rebel?! If a person's fate determined that they will become emperor then what?! It's the fate of an entire country ah! The fate of an entire country is a mandated by heaven ah! You are creating havoc on the Mandate of Heaven and will be struck by lightning!"

Dong Fang Qing Cang moved his lips to smile and still was as brassy as before, "Then struck, ben zuo cannot endure those wave of lightning or what?" He was quite formidable and was this much headstrong....

Little Orchid had already guess this much as she obviously knew his character quite well.

Little Orchid only felt depletion and difficulty surfacing within heart. She loosen the neck collar and caused the left half of Dong Fang Qing Cang to shrug as if dead, "I'm going to die. What am I doing, if master knew, not feeding me to the pigs will be embarrassing to the sun that rose tomorrow. I'm going to die..."

Seeing eight thousand living soldiers conspicuously disappearing in front of eyes, mortals on the city walls were even two times more surprised than Little Orchid. Even Xie Wanqing was also extremely shocked and surveyed the city wall with hand to look afar. She did not dare believe so and blinked several times.

"Has the god spiritually appeared?"

Suddenly a soldier said, "The god has spiritually appeared!"

The god Dong Fang Qing Cang was extremely tranquil in front of the cheers from the soldiers. The matter was that after dragging the limped left half of the body past Xie Wanqing, he abruptly halted.

"Soon." Dong Fang Qing Cang muttered, "Soon it's coming."

"What are you saying?" Little Orchid forcefully pushed oneself to stabilize and asked him, "What do you want to do?"

Dong Fang Qing Cang did not respond. Because there was no mirror, Little Orchid thus only felt him moving the lips and cannot see within the dark-bloody eyes of his shone the desire of wanting to kill someone.

Author's Preview:

Xie Wanqing died, but was not the big devil who killed. Regardless of who killed, in this case the body of Xie Wanqing now belongs to Little Orchid.

But! Something is not right ah! When Xie Wanqing died, she was pierced by a sword and the wound bleed incessantly without healing back ah!

Hey hey, big devil, is this body okay?

Big devil...big devil?

He also...is about to die too...

Chapter 32: Chapter 20.1

Since the time Dong Fang Qing Cang blew away eight thousand soldiers, Lucheng's sky began to dusk densely in black clouds. That was the strength of lightning congregating. Little Orchid was transformed into an immortal by her master. In her life she has never went through a lightning in life. Let alone this lightning only needed to be look at and one can already see that it's frightening roar. She was extremely worried, "Big devil, let's us leave Lucheng first ah. I know you are strong, but the citizens of Lucheng are not like you ah. What if [it] accidentally hit them..."

Dong Fang Qing Cang said indifferently, "How does that relate to ben zuo?"

Little Orchid grew angry, "Master said, the first thing on the principle of treating others is to not cause trouble for others. How can you all day all night cause troubles for people. And also appeared natural to it!"

Hearing this, Dong Fang Qing Cang froze and eyes slightly wrinkled, "Little flower demon, you have the nerve to say such statement?"

Little Orchid choked on her words.

While speaking, on the side the Yishi palace hall's door suddenly opened and from the inside the officials one by one stepped out. Despite everyone not being able to explain what had occurred yesterday, but the siege issue has been resolved. Everything else has to be plan out in sequence. The position of Xie Wanqing is considerably high. She can be the person who will decide. Thus, she continued to be busy and up to now was free.

After waiting for the officials to leave the room, Xie Wanqing slowly left. She closed her eyes and lifted her head up to inhale deeply for a long time. It seemed that mood was quite happy as Little Orchid saw her lips curled into a light smile. The sweet dimples floated on her face.

If only she changed from her armor into a dress, perhaps she will be a charming, beautiful maiden. It's a pity...

Little Orchid looked at the time and it was almost the horse hour (11 am to 1 pm), the fate of Xie Wanqing can only last up to there.

If there wasn't for Dong Fang Qing Cang, she would definitely risks herself hopelessly in the middle of thousands of soldiers and horses... After that would die in the battlefield. Seeing the smile on her face, Little Orchid sighed in several parts of sorrow and regret.

"Big devil, why do you need to kill her?"

Dong Fang Qing Cang appeared to not have heard what Little Orchid asked as he only silently and slowly followed Xie Wanqing's steps. This road is in the direction of the ill male; she wanted to find him.

"You went down to the underworld to search for the fate and then ordered the people of the demon realm to find. After hearing news about her, would unrelentingly come here... In the end, what revenge did you have with her? You..."

"She is...Chi De woman?"

Dong Fang Qing Cang did not reply.

"Hold on Dong Fang Qing Cang! Hold on..." Little Orchid wanted to pull Dong Fang Qing Cang back, but does not where to take action. The left leg paralyzing was not able to stop Dong Fang Qing Cang from jumping forward. Little Orchid can only shout loudly, "How can you be so childish ah?! She has already went down to reincarnate as a mortal. Does not remember the ancient time matters. What does killing her mean anything anymore ah? You taking revenge like this is quite childish."

"Who said ben zuo want to take revenge?" Dong Fang Qing Cang cannot stand it anymore, "If you want your soul to not disperse immediately after acquiring that body, then be a bit more obedient."

Little Orchid's mouth quivered, but could not speak out anymore."

Thinking, it was like so. Right now she stopping Dong Fang Qing Cang for what. He blew away eight thousand soldiers that made Xie Wanqing happy. Thinking back, he probably does not hate Xie Wanqin to that extent. In addition, the fate of Xie Wanqing was already going to end...

Soon it will be the horse hour, but Lucheng was covered in black clouds without seeing the sun.

Xie Wanqing entered the small alley. Little Orchid looked at her quicken steps and felt that her current mood contrasted with the color of the sky.

Xie Wanqing pushed the courtyard door open. Dong Fang Qing Cang halted and congregated magic. Little Orchid almost cannot bear to look.

"A Ran, how come you are standing up?" Inside carried the voice of Xie Wanqing. Stepping toward the front of the courtyard's door, Little Orchid saw the ill male was standing inside. He was looking at the color of the sky and then looked at Xie Wanqing. His expression was indescribably constrained/repressed.

"A Ran, the rebels have disappeared." Xie Wanqing's bright face gazed at the male. She spoke word by word and sentence by sentence, "They have disappeared. Lucheng is saved. The Great Jin is saved. Xie military clan (army) in the far Northern West has the opportunity to return."

The male read the outlines of Xie Wanqing, but expression was heavier.

Xie Wanqing rubbed his face and then hugged his waist. Her face was pressed against his chest, "A Ran..."

Her words halted within the moment as a sharp blade sawed across the neck.

Fresh blood squirted out.

But it was not Dong Fang Qing Cang who did it.

Little Orchid was in a daze as she saw the male named A Ran hold in his hand the dagger that sliced a deep line into Xie Wanqing's neck. Xie Wanqing's face was motionless.

Even Dong Fang Qing Cang who was an onlooker from the side cannot help furrowing his brows.

Fresh blood continued to bleed out and soaked more than half of Xie Wanqing's body. Her arm limply hung downward and then the whole body buckled. Her face pressed against the ground and mouth was choking on fresh blood, "...Ran..."

The male kneeled besides Xie Wanqing. The pale face looked at her and then held her hand while writing on her hand, "Jin must perish. Xie military clan has to die."

Xie Wanqing suddenly turned around and grabbed the male's collar, seemingly using all her strength as she held his hands tightly. It was until the fingernails clawed and tore the male's skin. She looked at him as blood and tears soaked the ground.

The male only looked at her silently until the blood on Xie Wanqing's neck slowed down. The strength of the hand also lessen, but from the beginning to end she never closes her eyes.

Chapter 33: Chapter 20.2

Dong Fang Qing Cang said, "Her soul is about to leave the body. You quickly go in as there is only this moment."

Little Orchid at this time was extremely stupefied and after hearing Dong Fang Qing Cang spoke, a moment later she then naively returned.

Xie Wanqing's hand slipped past the male's hands and a white energy emerged from her body. Dong Fang Qing Cang rotated right hand and the energy slowly went inside the palm of his hand, "You're not going?"

When he was not finished speaking yet, a throbbing pain suddenly arose from the chest. It felt like a hand strangling the heart to the point of exploding.

Naturally, Little Orchid also felt such pain and screeched, "Big devil, you...what are you doing?"

He did not do anything...

Not having an opportunity to respond, Dong Fang Qing Cang's chest convulsed and was hurt to the point of causing him to unconsciously curl his body faintly.

Little Orchid could not withstand it any longer and shouted loudly, "I will go! It's merely staying in one body with you; thus, the soul is difficult to separate! Was only late a bit, how can you oust me away like this?"

Finished speaking, the body suddenly became light as the soul of Little Orchid has already crawled into the body of Xie Wanqing.

But after Little Orchid left, the pain inside Dong Fang Qing Cang's body did not lessen. On the contrary, the pain grew and he gritted his teeth while using magic power to suppress the pain. The hand stopped congregating the white soul of Xie Wanqing into a ball. It was placed into a prepared porcelain vase from the sleeve.

The pain from the chest spread to every organ and place as if a wave of strength was arbitrarily tearing away his body. Dong Fang Qing Cang carried the power all over the body and did not regard the two wave of strengths fighting one another inside his body.

As for the other side, Little Orchid has already entered Xie Wanqing's body and she felt that the palm of the hand was itchy. It turned out that the deathly pale-faced male with the name A Ran was writing on her hand, "I will be by your side."

Little Orchid was immediately angered and "swoosh" up straight to push him away, "What qualifications do you have to stay by her side? Didn't you saw a blade across here?" Little Orchid showed the bloodied wound on her body to the male.

The male was surprised to the point of daze. He looked wide-eyed at Little Orchid.

"You see, it's because of you that it's a bloody mess like this!" Little Orchid was dissatisfied and wiped the blood on the neck. The blood was supposed to drain out to the point of emptiness, but because of Little Orchid's movement, it gushed out even more.

Little Orchid wiped a bit and did not see it clean. She knew that the blade has cut through the neck veins of Xie Wanqing. She remembered the smile on Xie Wanqing's lips after leaving Yishi palace hall and also the light steps when entering the alley. She suddenly arose sympathy and that sympathy transferred to an unrestraining anger.

Truly a heartless betrayer that deserves to be chop! yohyorhorhtorhro

She tore the sleeve that is stained in blood and tossed it at the male's face, "You try this! This is the blood debt that you have to bear! I'll let you know, life naturally reincarnates/cycles, a person who is merciless and vicious, my master will not let you off easily! Beware of retribution for the remaining life of yours!"

After Little Orchid finished, within the whirling black clouds was a sudden ray of light and the sounds of thunder like mountain poured inward.

Little Orchid's fine hair on the body erected because at this time she remembered that the heaven thunder brought forth by Dong Fang Qing Cang was about to come down!

She lifted head upward to look and within the black clouds there was blade of lightning that was like hacking bamboo down. Little Orchid thought that this heaven thunder will hit the courtyard, but strangely the lightning seemed to hit a curtain in the sky of Lucheng. It spliced into four directions and then disappeared.

Is it Dong Fang Qing Cang's boundary?

He wanted to protect the citizens of Lucheng? Without hardly hesitating, Little Orchid shoo away this thought immediately since according to Dong Fang Qing Cang's personality, he created such a large boundary like this was not from the thought of protecting something, but simply was condescending to the heaven thunder. It was merely taking out an extremely huge damask silk for convenience so that the thunder would not affect his actions...

Truly unruly and savage.

But, speaking such... badum badum psssssst

Where is Dong Fang Qing Cang?

Little Orchid did not care about the male who fell to the ground with a face that lost its spirit and was terribly scared. She looked around and right now she is a mortal. She did not see that Dong Fang Qing Cang has enacted the invisibility spell, but according to the heaven thunder's position, perhaps Dong Fang Qing Cang stayed back at the courtyard? Why stay if he has already taken Xie Wanqing's soul? Perhaps he stayed back to kill her? But if he wanted to kill her, why prolong the action?

Remembering previously the pain after leaving Dong Fang Qing Cang's body, Little Orchid suddenly was a bit uneasy. Staying with Dong Fang Qing Cang for all these time, even if each person has a different thinking, but there was still a tiny bit of comradeship from overcoming hardships.

"Big devil?" She swiftly circled the courtyard, "Big devil?"

In the sky the heaven thunder continued to billow and another group of thunder clapped down. This time the thunder also disappeared, but it seemed that Little Orchid heard the boundary produced a "ka*" sound. *some ripping sound

She looked with wide-eyed upward—it's another thunder coming down and was directed toward the crack of the boundary. After the sound of exploding, the boundary quickly collapsed and fell apart.

Little Orchid was staring blankly at the one thunder after another that was like incessantly falling rain.

Finished...

That was the only what Little Orchid thought of.

Author's Preview:

Little Orchid, "Big devil, in the end how many thunder have you acquired? How come never see the end of the heaven thunder? You look, how many days it has been!!! People becoming a bodhisattvas do not carry as many thunder as you! Who told you to blow away eight thousand soldiers of another!

Dong Fang Qing Cang, "...Just now, was it you who hit ben zuo's head?"

Love Between Fairy And Devil (Completed) Chapter 34 - Chapter 21.1

The blinding lightning pierced Little Orchid like arrows.

She subconsciously hugged knee and crouched down, but when the lightning exploded in the ears, Little Orchid did not feel pain in this body. She sneakily opened eyes and looked around. The small courtyard was still here while the trees (and grass) did not exist. Everything was not entirely bad. She turned her head around and saw Dong Fang Qing Cang at this time was standing behind her. His hands were sealing, and creating a boundary that was smaller than before by a lot. While at this time, two zhang* distance from him, the roof was struck by the lightning and the small alley was burnt to ashes.

*zhang – around 3.3 m

Little Orchid thought that Dong Fang Qing Cang wanted to save her, but looking closely she discovered that Dong Fang Qing Cang never moved. He still stood at the place where she left his body.

He was not protecting her, but rather he was creating a boundary to protect himself.

Dong Fang Qing Cang would only protect her coincidentally along with the naïve male that was staring blankly on the side.

Little Orchid crawled up and brushed bum to look at Dong Fang Qing Cang. She unexpectedly saw his forehead was filled with sweats and she spoke, "Big devil, your heart still hurts? Painful to the point of you not being able to move?"

If following the legends of what Dong Fang Qing Cang has committed, perhaps the time he responded with the heaven thunder were as many as the times Little Orchid ate. Thus following logic, regardless of what, Dong Fang Qing Cang cannot be struck by the heaven thunder and lightning to the point like this...

But right now the reality is—his big boundary is no longer here. The invisibility spell has vanished and [he] forcefully erected a small boundary, but can be said to be exhaustingly made.

He stood up, yet did not seem to move. It was more like not being able to move.

Little Orchid felt that besides the feeling of unbearable cramping pain when she left the body, there was something else that is causing big devil to become weakened like this.

The heaven thunder struck down periodically and she saw that Dong Fang Qing Cang's face began to become more and more unsightly. Little Orchid frantically circled around the courtyard, "In the end how come you are like this, I just got this body a moment ago. I was not able to warm the body yet and do not want to be struck to death by the heaven thunder..."

"Someone is cursing ben zuo." Dong Fang Qing Cang gritted teeth and patiently said, "Bring ben zuo up to the mountain."

"Cursing?" Little Orchid was surprised, "Who cursed you? Who can curse you?"

Dong Fang Qing Cang's face darkened and grew cold, "I know who it is. You don't need to ask so much. Just bring ben zuo up to the mountain. The position of that place is negative (yin) energy and advantageous for ben zuo to create formation."

"Up the mountain?" Little Orchid used eyes to look afar and vaguely saw in the east of Lucheng the silhouette of a blue mountain, except it's only...a silhouette...

Little Orchid shook head, "Too far, too far. That mountain is at least twenty meters ah! Right now I am only a mortal and cannot ride the clouds to fly. Heaven thunder would occasionally strike down. You tell me how I can bring you up to the meter-far mountain!?"

Dong Fang Qing Cang rolled eyes and halted on Little Orchid's body. Little Orchid has used Dong Fang Qing Cang's body for so long that besides the first meeting, with Dong Fang Qing Cang lying down on the ground, on the side she ignorantly began to examine his five features. As for the rest Little Orchid has not seen carefully Dong Fang Qing Cang's face. After all...the exchange of bodies or the time after when sharing one body, who would have the mind to take a mirror and examine the face or expression of the other.

Thus, Little Orchid was sized up by Dong Fang Qing Cang's overcast eyes. Her heart was like the autumn wind that blew across the ground, cold and abandoned. Little Orchid felt that before everyone was using her body to dispute and perhaps she would have been defeated by a few words.

It's because Dong Fang Qing Cang's eyes...were so terrifying.

Love Between Fairy And Devil (Completed) Chapter 35 - Chapter 21.2

Chapter 35: Chapter 21.2

The red pupils were like blood that carried natural hostile energy. The sharp eyes merely that looked indifferently once can cause someone to feel as though a sharp sword has pierced into the bones.

Poor Little Orchid was shivering.

Dong Fang Qing Cang saw that and secretly said, finally they have returned to normal dialogue. Everyone is afraid of him and this small flower demon obviously is scared as well. The time before that was only a fleeting episode in his life.

Dong Fang Qing Cang coldly curved mouth and smiled sinisterly several parts, "If you do not help out ben zuo then stay here. Ben zuo is immortal and even if the boundary disperses, will still be immortal. As for you..." Dong Fang Qing Cang's tone was scornful, "One heavenly thunder is enough to cause your soul to disperse."

Little Orchid heard this and froze. After that she gritted her teeth and said, "You! You have caused trouble for another person and appeared as if that was natural!"

Dong Fang Qing Cang only laughed coldly.

Little Orchid did not look at him anymore and with frustration, she looked all around and saw that there was a well that the boundary enveloped. She bit her lips and then pulled up her sleeves, "I do not believe you. With your current situation that you cannot threaten me."

She pulled up the bucket along with tying a rope around waist, and poked her legs down the well. She turned around to look and saw that in the courtyard there was still someone alive. Thus, she struggled to walk toward that person and tied the rope around his waist.

"It's not because I want to save you. Master has said to save a person's life is more meritorious than building a seven-floor pagoda. Right now saving you is considered doing a good deed. If heavenly thunder struck down then will definitely considered me a bit." Little Orchid spoke in front of the male and did not know whether he understands or not. Or maybe she was only speaking for herself to hear.

After tying the rope to the male, Little Orchid pushed him under the well, then made a hissy-face at Dong Fang Qing Cang, and jumped down without slightest hesitation.

Provoked by someone like this, Dong Fang Qing Cang's face was slightly dark, but after that he coldly said, "You will come begging for ben zuo..."

On this side, Little Orchid jumped down the well and floated on the water surface alongside the male. Seeing that he was still dazed, Little Orchid used hand to wave in front of him, "Are you still alive?"

Seeing that Little Orchid was waving in front of him, the male's eyes finally moved and he raised his hand to grab hers. Because that male was ill, his face was deathly pale and within the obscure well, made him looked like a ghost who already went to reincarnate. Little Orchid swallowed her saliva and attempted with great effort to toss his hand away, "Do not move hands and feet with me ah. I cannot fight the person above, but dealing with you right now does not need much strength."

At that time the male was suddenly stronger than normal and he coughed several times. The corner of the mouth dripped with blood, but he still risked it and held onto Little Orchid's hands. He looked intently at her and wrote words on her hand. But Little Orchid struggled quite ferociously and the male cannot write any word. Emotions filled within the heart and he let go of Little Orchid. He began to cough intensely while his coughs drowned out the sounds of thunder outside.

Little Orchid saw that he was coughing vehemently and finally stopped moving around hands and feet. She cautiously peered at him, "It is because you are about to die from illness?"

The male did not hear or see. After his coughs lessen, he turned around to look at Little Orchid. He raised hand to signal and expressed the desire of wanting to write on her palms.

Little Orchid hesitated for a bit and finally stretched out hands.

"You are not Xie Wanqing." He wrote fast, "Who are you?"

"I am obviously not her." When Little Orchid spoke, she realized that the male was intently looking at the outline of her mouth. Thus, she spoke a bit slower, "The situation is a bit complicated. I do not know how to explain, but it's true that Xie Wanqing has died. You killed her. After that I picked up her body for use."

The male was dazed for a while and then let go. The face was even paler than before.

Little Orchid asked, "Why did you kill her? She treated you so well."

The male's fingers curved inside Little Orchid's palms for a while and then he wrote four words, "I am a spy."

Little Orchid was startled, "A spy from the enemy soldiers?" She muttered, "So it was arranged like this..."

Following that was a period of silence.

The sounds of lightning above was still striking down incessantly. Little Orchid just waited and waited inside the well until no thunder sounds were heard. She still looked forward to counting, but after counting the 362th thunder, her head leaned to the side and snored huhu.

When she woke up, Little Orchid looked above and that there was a full moon, but the heavenly thunder continued to strike down without a rest.

Little Orchid unconsciously scolded, "Damn it big devil, creating too many sins!"

She looked to the side. She did not have the third eye of the big devil as the inside of the well was murky as ink. In front of Little Orchid was still the color black. Even the male that was narrowly near was not to be seen. Remembering that the person adjacent was an ill person and that inside the well was coldly wet the whole day, she was a bit worried. She reached out, "Are you still okay?"

Little Orchid touched around but only grabbed a string of rope. She felt that this was strange. According the position when entering down here from yesterday, she can clearly and easily touch the male.

Thus, she weirdly followed the string until she finally felt the end of the rope...

He...has disappeared...

The skin of her head numbed and looking down at the feet, she saw that besides the black well water there was nothing else. But there seemed to be a pale face that was soaked in water and was looking bloated at her...

"Yi..."She should not be scared. She immediately and quickly hang up-top like a monkey.

At this time Dong Fang Qing Cang was taking in the thunder and did not moved from the spot. His boundary grew smaller by a bit, but was still enveloping the well water.

Little Orchid struggled to climb out from the well with disheveled hair as she rolled toward Dong Fang Qing Cang, "Big devil! Big devil! There's a ghost!" She hugged Dong Fang Qing Cang's waist.

Unexpectedly, Dong Fang Qing Cang to be staggered by her as the heavenly thunder passed through the boundary and hit "bang" down the well.

Little Orchid was startled and shouted loudly, "Ghost, ghost, ghost!" Her head was pressing and rubbing hard against Dong Fang Qing Cang's chest.

Dong Fang Qing Cang grew angry, "You are speaking about yourself! Let go of ben zuo!"

"Let's go, let's go! I will bring you to the mountain!"

Author's preview:

Little Orchid: "How long do we have to stay here?"

Dong Fang Qing Cang: "Until the heavenly thunder has halted."

Little Orchid: "Ah! Single man and single woman here, staying deep in the mountains and bear fruit*... How shameful ah!"

Dong Fang Qing Cang: "I am not interested in a corpse."

* Somewhat indirect but she's saying male and female staying in one place will probably result in intimate contact, but DFQC shot her down lol.
