Chapter 36: Chapter 22.1

Little Orchid was speaking as she pulled Dong Fang Qing Cang along, but after pulling for a while, he still did not move. She turned around and asked, "Don't you want to go to the mountain? Then move ah!"

Dong Fang Qing Cang gritted teeth and glared at Little Orchid for a bit, "If ben zuo can go on my own then why ordered a debt like you?" He darkened and spoke, "Come here, carry me."

Little Orchid was stupefied for a while, "Big devil, you right now...is useless to this point?" Little Orchid did not look at the cold and dark expression of Dong Fang Qing Cang. She only stood straight in front of him and compared the height of them, "You are one head taller than me. How can I carry you ah?"

"You don't know how to exercise your brain?" Dong Fang Qing Cang was extremely hateful.

Little Orchid got angry, "This brain isn't even mine!"

Dong Fang Qing Cang took in a deep breath, but still did not figure out what else to say to Little Orchid anymore.

Little Orchid peered at the far mountain peak and then looked the sweat-filled forehead of Dong Fang Qing Cang. She gritted her teeth, "It's fine, let's risk it." Little Orchid hugged Dong Fang Qing Cang's waist, and used willpower of three cows and nine buffalos to carry him out the door. But Little Orchid dragged in a squirming manner for a bit and was only able to move from inside the yard to the gate of the yard.

"Going like this perhaps will take up to a whole year ah!"

Dong Fang Qing Cang closed his eyes and only focused on dealing with the heavenly thunder. He obviously does not want to make any form of comment with Little Orchid. Little Orchid was very discouraged, but when she was rolling her eyes, she suddenly saw outside there a wheelbarrow that carried merchandise. The wheelbarrow was placed against the wall and was also enveloped by Dong Fang Qing Cang's boundary.

Little Orchid did not speak any word and pressed Dong Fang Qing Cang on the wooden board without hesitation.

"You firmly hold the boundary." Little Orchid spoke while gritting her teeth as she used strength and began to push the wheelbarrow cart.

Under this wheelbarrow was only a wheel while on top there was a wooden board and has nothing else to shield. In the beginning Little Orchid could not maintain balance and caused Dong Fang Qing Cang on the wheelbarrow to lean from side to side and would fall to the ground several times. After Dong Fang Qing Cang's face was wet and body was matted with dirt, she was able to hold the trick with great difficulty and then pushed Dong Fang Qing Cang toward the mountain like a laborer.

Little Orchid felt that her ancestors have definitely owed Dong Fang Qing Cang a lot. If not then does not need to wander aimlessly to the point of having to truly work like an ox or horse* for him...

* another way of saying laborious slave

When coming to the front of Lucheng gate, the city soldiers were already frightened by the heavenly thunder and ran away without a trace. At this time the city gate was tightly closed and Little Orchid melancholically asked, "How can we get out ah?"

Dong Fang Qing Cang said, "Then go under the city walls."

Little Orchid did not pay attention to anything else as she only listened to Dong Fang Qing Cang and walked past the unopened door.

At this time echoing through the walls was a thunder striking down and only heard at the top the rambling sounds moving. The walls of the city gate tower on the city immediately collapsed. Not waiting for the walls of city gate tower walls to collapse completely, another heavenly thunder struck down and the city walls collapsed. The city gate was crushed and changed shape. Little Orchid relied on Dong Fang Qing Cang's boundary to charge out from the chaotic debris of Lucheng.

After running far for a while, Little Orchid turned around to look and Lucheng's gate has already collapsed into ruins.

Little Orchid received in bewilderment the thunder rolls and lightning flashes as her cheeks were filled with tears, "After I descended down what did I do wrong..."

The entire day Little Orchid was like a horse that pushed Dong Fang Qing Cang. Finally [they] came to the mountain peak of Lu Ming, but after going on the mountain path, the wheelbarrow was difficult to use. The mountain path was rather narrow and there were areas that a wheelbarrow cannot be carried through.

After thinking back and forth, Little Orchid decided to ditch the wheelbarrow.

"Little flower demon, listen carefully to ben zuo's words." Dong Fang Qing Cang suddenly raised his voice and voice was weaker than ever before, "Before I have used the soul separating from the body to search everywhere in this mountain peak within one swoop. You follow this mountain path and go three miles toward the west. There should be deep water pond. After seeing the pond, puncture my chest until blood has bleed out and then placed me inside there. You then go in all four directions (East, West, South, North) of the pond and place a section of my nail in each direction."

"What?"

"I will withdraw the boundary and fall into a comatose-like state." Dong Fang Qing Cang looked attentively at Little Orchid, "...It's best you be a little bit more agile."

Finished speaking, Little Orchid did not get to react as Dong Fang Qing Cang already closed his eyes while the surrounding boundary suddenly disappeared. Little Orchid was startled as the heavenly thunder was not merciful when it struck down.

Little Orchid hug head and shouted loudly, but did not feel pain.

She opened her eyes and realized her body was emitting a faint, glimmering light like Dong Fang Qing Cang's boundary in the air from before. While next to her...Little Orchid turned her head around. Dong Fang Qing Cang fell in a comatose-state on the ground and the ground surrounding him was burning black.

He...used his remaining strength to create boundary that protected her and let his body outside? sghsdjljsdljsljsl

Little Orchid was stunned, "Cannot believe big devil would protect..."

Not right! Little Orchid patted her face, he only protected her so that she does work for him!

Chapter 37: Chapter 22.2

Little Orchid hardened her heart as she said to herself that Dong Fang Qing Cang is a scoundrel from head to toe and cannot consider him as a good person just because he protected her for a bit.

Once again a heavenly thunder struck down and hit strongly onto Dong Fang Qing Cang. Little Orchid was startled and subconsciously covered her ears. Dong Fang Qing Cang on the ground does not have any reaction and seems dead-like.

Little Orchid looked around and suddenly a thought appeared. Right now Dong Fang Qing Cang has placed a boundary on her while he lose consciousness. Thus currently, she is safe and will not be struck by the thunder/lightning while Dong Fang Qing Cang cannot crawl up to capture her.

Therefore, she can definitely make a run for it ah! go away aggregator bot

Anyway, she now has a new body and does not need to stick with Dong Fang Qing Cang anymore. Why should she have to save him ah? A big devil like him should be struck by the heavenly thunder into death in order to return peace to the world!

But...

Once more another sound of thunder rang and Dong Fang Qing Cang's pair of eyes closed slanted. The face was even more difficult to look at than when she first met him severely injured.

Little Orchid gritted her teeth and turned around to step forward. She finally still went besides Dong Fang Qing Cang and carried him on the shoulders. Little Orchid overestimated her tolerance and kindness of her body as the burden of Dong Fang Qing Cang's weight pressed on Little Orchid and caused her to kneel.

The heavenly thunder struck again and Little Orchid lied on her stomach right away.

She crawled to stand up and wiped her sweats. She looked from behind to see the securely closed eyes of Dong Fang Qing Cang. Once again in silence with this burdening oneself, she continued to kneel in order to carry Dong Fang Qing Cang up the mountain path.

Can be considered as repaying his no-kill of his after she got this body.

After three miles of the road, can be said as far yet not far, but still caused Little Orchid's knee skins to rip. At this time, she saw a deep pound and Little Orchid was gleeful to the point of jumping up. She turned Dong Fang Qing Cang back around for him to lie under the ground and then sat on his stomach as she remembered carefully what he told her before he went unconscious.

What's the first thing to do, has to pierce his chest..

Wait a second! rot aggregator

Rip...chest?

In her life she has never killed anyone ah. She looked at Dong Fang Qing Cang for a while and was finally determined. Rip then will rip. It's something he told her to rip anyway. She peered left and then right, but did not see anything that can be used as a knife.

Perhaps has to use Dong Fang Qing Cang's nails to rip his chest?

Little Orchid pulled on his left hand and at this time, four nails from Dong Fang Qing Cang's hand automatically fell down.

This is right, has to place four nails in four directions, East West South North.

Little Orchid picked up all the four nails and took one from the four after looking at them for a while. After that, she pried open Dong Fang Qing Cang's clothes. Seeing the strong chest, Little Orchid timely yet indisposed as she swallowed a mouthful of saliva.

Memories of the time when drunk appeared inside head as Little Orchid remembered clearly that Dong Fang Qing Cang's chest when rubbed on it was very relaxing...

She shook her head and her expression became serious again. She used Dong Fang Qing Cang's nail to slice a line across his chest.

Fresh blood bled out and trickled into a mesmerizing demonic-like path on his chest.

Little Orchid swallowed saliva again and then pushed Dong Fang Qing into the deep pond water.

The line of blood on his chest diffused inside the water and up in the sky, heavenly thunder was still ongoing, hitting "bang" at the deep water. The thunder and lightning continued to touch the water's surface as if lighting up the Dong Fang Qing Cang's line of blood inside. It caused the fresh blood that diffused outward to transform into little, soft lights that lit the pond water. This caused the pond water to radiate a brilliant white light. Dong Fang Qing Cang's grey hair in the water scattered out and was unrestrained like an apparition. He slowly drowned into the deep water with layer by layer of shining light.

Little Orchid suddenly felt that despite Dong Fang Qing Cang not being formidable, perhaps he can still cause terrible for the three realms...

It was until she no longer saw the figure of Dong Fang Qing Cang in the pond water that Little Orchid then realized. She quickly determined the four directions and placed Dong Fang Qing Cang's nail there.

Little Orchid did everything Dong Fang Qing Cang has assigned, but the heavenly thunder continued to strike as if nothing has changed. The four directions gradually have gotten windy. Little Orchid saw that the green grass beside her suddenly became dried and turned yellow in the speed that the eyes can see. After that, the trees beside started to shed leaves and sooner or later, the dry branches were emptied.

Little Orchid gaped.

Perhaps...perhaps big devil has suck in the spiritual energy of this mountain?

The clear pond water began to become murky. Little Orchid felt the turbulence within the surrounding atmosphere.

The pond water began to bubble and Little Orchid bewilderedly looked at the pond water.

A wave of dissipation burst as Dong Fang Qing Cang's grey hair floated up to the water's surface. After that he slowly walked from the pond out. The grey hair stuck to his cheeks and the water droplets followed him as they dropped down pitter patter. There was a droplet that dripped across his neck and another that dripped across his bare chest then disappeared into the place the clothes have covered.

His expression was unhappy as he looked at Little Orchid, "Little flower demon, can your actions be any slower?"

Little Orchid heard his voice, lifted head up, and surprisingly realized, "Big devil...why did your face turned black?"

Chapter 38: Chapter 23.1

Little Orchid carefully examined Dong Fang Qing Cang from bottom to top and discovered that not only was his eyes turning black, the turbulent hostile energy was arbitrarily withdrawing by a lot around the body. As if...

"Big devil, you have been struck by the lightning to the point of becoming free?" Little Orchid was distracted as she asked. Dong Fang Qing Cang's biting cold eyes returned back.

Not waiting for Dong Fang Qing Cang to speak up, a billowing heavenly thunder up at the sky once again struck down and hit Dong Fang Qing Cang's body. The lightning flash disappeared, but the water droplets on Dong Fang Qing Cang was still shining brightly and only after a while did it slowly disappeared.

Little Orchid lifted head to look up at the sky, "How come the heavenly thunder is still like this, big devil, didn't you set up a formation already?"

Dong Fang Qing Cang coldly snorted, "Ben zuo did not set formation to deal with those trifling heavenly thunders. If want to strike then strike." Finished speaking, another heavenly thunder struck Dong Fang Qing Cang, but he with any single hair doesn't seem one bit injured.

Little Orchid bewilderedly looked at him for awhile and then was extremely confused, "Then from before why did you immediately set up a boundary to deal with the heavenly thunders?! I had to strenuously carry you to the mountain! You look at my knees!"

Dong Fang Qing Cang's eyes gently glanced at the skin tore knees of Little Orchid, but did not decry that she was useless. On the contrary, he was silent in the rarest way and then said, "Ben zuo has said before, there is someone who is cursing me. Heavenly thunders are not the major problem, but if combined with curse spell then it will become troublesome."

Little Orchid blinked and immediately shifted the focus, "The curse is still there?"

"Still." Dong Fang Qing Cang turned around to look at the pond that was supposed to be clear but then turned murky, "Except it's not on ben zuo anymore."

His intention was that he has shifted the curse that someone has performed on him to under the pond...

Cannot blame the water is murky, and the plants have dried up. Causing the living entities in the mountains to wilt within seconds, it must be an extremely evil curse.

Remembering the heart and lung tearing pain after separating from Dong Fang Qing Cang, Little Orchid was still having palpitations. Following her feelings, that curse seemed to cause more pain after pain. Thus with a longer time, even Dong Fang Qing Cang cannot endure it.

Little Orchid twisted head to look at Dong Fang Qing Cang, "If you are so powerful how come you are played by someone? From when you have revived to now I was always by your side and does not see anyone making a move on you ah."

Dong Fang Qing Cang looked at Little Orchid, "If it can be felt then would ben zuo let him act? The only opportunity to perform this curse on ben zuo was the split second when ben zuo has revived."

Little Orchid understood, "So it's the people of the demon realm! But... why do they have to deal with you? Aren't you guys are categorized as bad guys? Ah, right, since the beginning of ancient times you have never liked being in the same ranks with anyone."

Dong Fang Qing Cang in the legends was a coming and going alone devil. Personality was cold, but extremely crave for battle. Little Orchid nodded, "Cannot blame them for cursing to make way out for retreat. If it was me then I would do the same."

Dong Fang Qing Cang laughed, "If it was you? Then you would lose your life when performing the curse." Finished speaking, the corners of his mouth curved into sinister, fraudulent smile, "Quite courageous to dare perform a curse on ben zuo. If continue to perform this curse for a period of time then they will not have a pretty ending."

In the sky the heavenly thunder billowed and the heavenly thunders continued again to strike down on Dong Fang Qing Cang even when he was not hurt. Yet, he furrowed his brows, "Too noisy and troublesome. Go down the cave and follow ben zuo to rest." Finished speaking, he naturally spread hands for Little Orchid.

Little Orchid saw this and was dazed. Looking at Dong Fang Qing Cang's face that could cause the downfall of nations and people, her heart suddenly jumped and cheeks reddened. She "en" one sound and obediently stepped forward to grab his hands that still carried the coldness of Dong Fang Qing Cang.

Dong Fang Qing Cang was motionless.

Little Orchid looked up and discovered Dong Fang Qing Cang was frowning at her.

Little Orchid was stupefied, "What?"

"Telling you to support ben zuo."

"..." Little Orchid was so ashamed to the point of turning it into anger and tossed his hands away, "You crawled by yourself from under the water. Why are you making me support you?!"

"Because tired."

Little Orchid with a blacken expression supported Dong Fang Qing Cang toward the direction of the cave that he has said.

After touching around in the darkness and relying on the flickering light from Dong Fang Qing Cang on her body, while she listened to Dong Fang Qing Cang ordered "to left, to the right, go toward a bit more", she finally supported Dong Fang Qing Cang to the place he wanted.

Little Orchid withdrew her hands and frustratingly said, "I helped you up to this point. Now I have to live a new life. We can meet each other later on. No, let's not meet again."

The boundary on Little Orchid produced a flickering light and shone on Dong Fang Qing Cang's face as he was leaning against a rock. At this time his lips made a smile and rarely did not combined with fraudulence and sinister as he said, "Go then."

The raspy voice stopped inside Little Orchid's ears and carried a bit of gentleness causing her face to redden while her heart beat.

Little Orchid restrained the feeling inside and did not look at him anymore. She turned her body around to feel the wall and followed the path from before to slowly go outside.

After passing several corners, the flickering light on her completely disappeared. Dong Fang Qing Cang leaned his head against the rock and breathed in a deep breath. He closed his eyes, but it was only quiet for a bit as after that, as if calculated, that light crazily ran quickly back with three times the speedier pace than when it left. The mouth growled and scolded, "Dong Fang Qing Cang! You bastard!"

Dong Fang Qing Cang then opened his eyes and relaxingly looked at Little Orchid who was breathing heavily and was standing in front of him, angered. He smiled, "Not leaving?"

The responding words revealed a hint of viciousness.

Little Orchid heckled back loudly, "How come when I left the cave the boundary disappeared? I was almost hit to death by the heavenly thunder!"

Dong Fang Qing Cang indifferently spoke, "It seems that after you leave me for five zhang*, the boundary will disappeared."

*Zhang = 3.33 meters

Such words vibrated more so than the heavenly thunder striking and exploded in the depth of Little Orchid's heart. She lifted her body to look foolishly at Dong Fang Qing Cang, it's no wonder ah... It's no wonder at that time he willingly placed the boundary on her while he did not guard himself after losing consciousness ah...

It's a waste for her to naively think that he trusted her! So it was this!

Love Between Fairy And Devil (Completed) Chapter 39 - Chapter 23.2

Little Orchid grew angry, "Right now we do not owe each other anymore. Why do you lock me here?"

"Of course to make as an ox and horse*, preparing for when needed."

* make a slave

"This is obviously you taking revenge!" Little Orchid scolded, "You felt that at that time when I was inside your body and did embarrassing things, thus mentality was not balanced! Right now found the opportunity and took the risk to take revenge on me!"

"How rare." Dong Fang Qing Cang dimly said, "Can considered you're living a bit more intelligent."

Little Orchid became angered from Dong Fang Qing Cang's attitude, "I'll risked it with you!" She charged toward the front and the two hands pressed around Dong Fang Qing Cang's neck.

Dong Fang Qing Cang's eyes darken and gritted teeth as he gently avoided Little Orchid's moves. Hands' moving can be used to apply pressure around Little Orchid's neck who was charging toward like squeezing a duck. After that, figure stirred.

Little Orchid only felt that the sky has changed and then was pressed firmly under the ground. The back harshly rubbed down the hard rocks. It's fortunate that Xie Wanqing's body is already wearing armor. The armor and the rock caused friction and produced a jarring sound.

When the sound disappeared, Little Orchid only felt Dong Fang Qing Cang's heavily weight against her.

He pressed her down and squeezed her neck. The breathing was beside her ears and the gray hair on his two ears fell down, appearing like two glass curtains and producing a narrow distance for them.

"Little flower demon." Dong Fang's voice was lightweight, "You remember clearly, do not rely on the body having a bit of martial arts of yours to attack me."

His fingers passed gently across Little Orchid's neck and the wound that has caused death to the body still did not heal. It's even said that after several days of traveling it has begun to rot.

Dong Fang Qing Cang's eyes passed across her wound and was a bit distracted, but within the time he has become distracted, Little Orchid suddenly used two hands to squeeze his neck, lifted head up, and bite strongly on Dong Fang Qing Cang's neck to take revenge.

But despite Dong Fang Qing Cang's body being struck by the heavenly thunder, not a single hole was seen and so right now Little Orchid was merely a mortal. When she bit with all her strength, Dong Fang Qing Cang felt that it was even lighter than a mosquito bite.

But being bitten painlessly has caused Dong Fang Qing Cang to be in a daze and become absent-minded.

He has dealt with killing enemies that were not less than thousands of times. There were strong and weak enemies, including females. But never has there been someone...who used a bite to deal with him...

And it was still biting into the neck...

Dong Fang Qing Cang was temporarily surprised to the point of forgetting to pull Little Orchid away from his neck.

But Little Orchid has bitten down to the point of her mouth becoming tired and her teeth loosen up around Dong Fang Qing Cang's neck. The hands were still enwrapped around his neck. The head was subconsciously pressed against Dong Fang Qing Cang's chin.

That moment of quietness suddenly caused Dong Fang Qing Cang to feel as if [he was] being spoiled.

He blinked and his mind returned. He was about to coldly pull Little Orchid away, but suddenly heard the sound of spasmodically sobbing.

Before he can make a move, Little Orchid has let go of him and lied down on the ground. She used her hands to cover the face and cried heartbreakingly, "Where have I wronged you, how come you have to bully me like this?"

Dong Fang Qing Cang looked at her and his dark eyes reflected the light from the boundary on Little Orchid. aggregator sites suck

"In the beginning when you said to switch body has already switched. But after the incident, there wasn't a time where you didn't want to kill me and I was forced to take action. Right now I attained a body with great difficulty and was trying to figure out a way to return and find master. Why do you continue to bully me? If I knew earlier that when you were unconscious under the mountain, I don't need to carry you up the mountain. Anyhow, you wouldn't let me live, I should have ran away. Even if the heavenly thunder struck, would not let you get the advantage! Letting you lie there, and having to deal with the thunder and curse...Hu hu hu..."

Dong Fang Qing Cang was silent and the pupils slightly moved.

He knew.

When he was in a coma, his consciousness was still there and he can see how Little Orchid carried him up the mountain.

The sounds of sobbing from Little Orchid did not stopped. Seeing that it was about to turn into wailing and cries, Dong Fang Qing Cang furrowed his brows and said, "If you did not obediently carry ben zuo to the mountain then right now your soul would have been dispersed long ago." He turned around to sit on the side, "Get up. From before when leaving the pond, ben zuo has not kill you and so in the future will not feel like killing you anymore."

The weepings of Little Orchid hushed and she blinked. She looked with watery eyes at Dong Fang Qing Cang, "After this you won't kill me anymore?"

"After the heavenly thunder has stopped then you can leave."

Little Orchid's eyes lit up and then stammered as if wanting to cry, "If you wanted to let me go then right now let me go and lengthen the boundary on me longer..."

Dong Fang Qing Cang eye-sided her and closed eyes. He did not directly answered her question and only said, "Ben zuo has to peacefully replenish strength. Don't be loud."

Little Orchid pouted and went afar from Dong Fang Qing Cang for a while. Then she hugged knees and sat down.

Love Between Fairy And Devil (Completed) Chapter 40 - Chapter 24.1

Chapter 40: Chapter 24.1

Little Orchid slept for a while and when woken up, it was still dark and can be considered even darker than before by several parts...

Little Orchid raised hand and can not see her five fingers. She froze for a bit and then reaction came. Before she was able to see herself because of Dong Fang Qing Cang's boundary placed on her body and shone. Right now she did not see it and thus, Dong Fang Qing Cang's boundary placed on her has disappeared.

"Big devil." Little Orchid echoed several times around the dark cave and then stopped, "Have you die?"

No one responded to her.

Little Orchid swallowed a mouthful of saliva, "Big....big devil?"

"Don't be noisy."

Even though Little Orchid has to wait a while for this response and was able cold without a bit of warmth, but it still caused her to breathe a sigh of relief, "The boundary you've placed on me has disappeared." She said, "And here I thought you have died..."

"The boundary was used to protect you from the heavenly thunder. The heavenly thunder has stopped, and so the boundary will disappear."

Little Orchid's face brighten up, "The heavenly thunder has stopped! Thus I can now leave?"

"En." Dong Fang Qing Cang responded indifferently and caused people to not hear any emotion from it.

Little Orchid was joyful and held onto the wall to stand up. After she stepped toward three steps, she suddenly heard Dong Fang Qing Cang remind, "Wrong direction." Little Orchid responded back and then turned around to go the opposite direction. After she finished passing the first intersection, Little Orchid seemed to remember something and then suddenly halted her steps.

Hesitating for a bit, Little Orchid said, "Big devil, despite the time we have not allow the other to have an easy time, but I have to give you many thanks. You have shown me things that I wouldn't have seen from before and went through experiences that I have not experience through before. Master has instructed me from before to give thanks to the people who have left a vestige in my life even if that person has left a flower or saliva (spittle). From before I did not understand, but after meeting you it seemed that I have understood this reason."

Dong Fang Qing Cang opened his eyes and the darkness of the cave has not interfered with his view. He easily saw Little Orchid was clinging to the wall and speaking to him. There was a bit of rare embarrassment, bashfulness of ladies on her face and she lowered her head with the rock, "Many thanks to you."

Dong Fang Qing Cang also rarely chose not to reveal her clumsiness.

She finished lowering her head and then got up. She continued to speak, "But giving thanks will give thanks, but also has to sort out conscientiousness clearly a bit too. If others spit out saliva in my life then has to considered you as a big indiscriminate urination in my life...But it seemed that in life anyone can also be considered big indiscriminate urination..."

Dong Fang Qing Cang, "..."

"Has to heart to advice you a sentence. You should lessen the amount of sins. My master has said, in life there is borrowing and repaying. The Heavens has already arranged everything properly. Speaking up to now, can listen or not, depending on you. I will go big devil." At last, Little Orchid has began to take steps and staggeringly stepped toward the outside of the cave.

He has live for quite long, and has met several females. It's not like he has never met anyone with the personality of Little Orchid, but no one has become so entangled with his fate like this.

Perhaps like what she has said; the so-called Heavens has already arranged it.

But can only be up to here.

Dong Fang Qing Cang closed his eyes and was about to replenish internal strength, but the strange thing was that his consciousness can't help following Little Orchid's shadow slowly as she went out the cave.

Little Orchid left the cave. These past few days outside of the cave has been destroyed in a horrible, endured spectacle by the heavenly thunder. The grass and trees were returned to unchecked growth and mountain rocks were overturned. Not a single region was good.

Despite so, seeing the sunlight from outside, Little Orchid still breathed with carefree. Does not have half of the body to restrain her at all times. There is no big devil despising from time to time. There is no heavy pressure of the heavenly thunder over head that could threaten. Little Orchid felt that despite having to climb with difficulty over these mountain rock rubles, her life can become better and more beautiful ah!
