

Love Between Fairy And Devil (Completed) Chapter 41 - Chapter 24.2

Chapter 41: Chapter 24.2

After climbing down this mountain, Little Orchid turned her head to look back. On top of the mountain there was a deep natural pond. The grass and trees have become emptied in an array, but the good thing was that it did not continue to expand. Perhaps the person placing the curse has stopped.

Maybe Dong Fang Qing Cang is temporarily not in danger...

Little Orchid shook head. Right now she does not need to think about Dong Fang Qing Cang's matter anymore. She is part of the Heavenly realm. It can be said that later on she and Dong Fang Qing Cang would have to point their weapons at each other...But she definitely cannot fight against.

The most urgent matter here is to find a way back to the Heavenly realm in order for master to help her and whether [she] can find a body for her. Anyway, cannot continue to use this dying body of another.

Little Orchid was still pondering and then suddenly heard a swearing, boorish tone toward the trees, "Damn it*! The heavenly thunder has continue to strike for these past days already. Here I've thought some immortal has come to old/elder one's mountain to survive a lifetime obstacle! As a result, damn, such large commotion was like farting. Said would finish then finished right away. Yet, did not see any results. Did that big immortal finished the lifetime obstacle? If has succeeded then sprinkle in lucky rain, or leave auspicious clouds for our mountain ah. If did not succeed then at least leave a body for elder to bring home and eat!"

* He's cursing at someone's grandma or an older person here but I thought dammit grandma sounds quite weird since it's implied through the English language that he's cursing at his own grandma, but he's really not.

Little Orchid heard such words and was scared while breathing in cold air. She quietly hid behind a tree.

She cautiously poked her head out to look.

In the east of the woods, there was a demon passing by. His body was as tall as five regular male with pig ears and nose. His two fangs were long and curved upward. His hand was holding a human leg. He would scold and then bite off a mouthful of the flesh. Fresh blood and red meat dyed his chin and chest.

Little Orchid almost felt the urge to vomit. She covered her mouth and did not dare produce any sound.

The boar demon still was not able to complete transformed into a human figure. It seemed that his cultivation powers are not high, but regardless of his cultivation powers not being high, he's still a demon ah!

Right now she is a mortal and even the spell of going underground or becoming invisible spell does not know. If the demon found out then will definitely eat clean. "My lord, my lord, do not haste my lord." The little subordinate shouted besides the boar demon, "The heavenly thunder has stopped but does not see any auspicious clouds fly up. This means that the immortal has not overcome the lifetime obstacle nor levitate to heavenwards. We can go over the other mountain to look for. Perhaps will find the immortal body. Immortal flesh is quite nutritious and this time will definitely allow milord to enjoy eating. "

The boar demon snorted several sounds and tossed the human leg in the hand out. When he came close to the corner of the tree that Little Orchid hid, the boar demon suddenly halted his steps and the pig nose moved, "There is the smell of a corpse."

Little Orchid covered her mouth and did not dare to even breathe.

But the steps of the boar demon slowly approached her.

Cannot be still and wait here. Little Orchid inwardly thought. If right now does not run then will not have the opportunity to run anymore. She gritted her teeth and charged forward like an arrow leaving a bow.

From behind came the shouting, ruckus sounds of the little subordinate, "Milord, milord! She is over there!"

Little Orchid plunged toward the front and suddenly head felt pain. Little Orchid's hair was being pulled back. The boar demon tugged her strongly toward the back. Little Orchid dreadfully cried out in pain and felt that her neck was almost snapped apart.

The boar demon showed no quarter as he pulled on Little Orchid to make her stand up. Little Orchid was in pain and shouted. The boar demon was not one bit sympathetic toward her and only pressed his nose against Little Orchid to smell. The slimy liquid stuck and wetted Little Orchid's face. The stinky smell pushed up the nose. Little Orchid could not restrain it and vomited.

"A female mortal?" The boar demon sniffed for a bit and then conveniently tossed her down to the ground. He examined Little Orchid, "Obviously is a corpse, but how come body can still move?"

Little Orchid only knew to hug chest and vomit. She scooted a bit back. Even if she could not escape then she hoped that at least she attempted to be a bit away from the boar demon...

Really is smelly... Do not take this translations outside this wordpress blog.

But after she scooted a bit away, the boar demon has stepped a few steps forward and squeezed her chin while looking left and right, "Doesn't look bad."

"No..." Little Orchid pinched nose while saying, "This is not my face..."

The boar demon has once more pressed the nose against Little Orchid's face, "Even though is a corpse, but the skin is quite soft."

"It's not soft, not soft!" Little Orchid hurriedly waved her hands, "I have died! I have died! Not one bit delicious!"

She was not able to finished her words as the boar demon's hands pinched strongly on her waist. She was scared and screamed. The boar demon laughed, "Waist is thin. Voice is pleasant to hear. Today this old/elder one will take in another wife!"

Little Orchid was scared to the point of crying, "No no no, you can't...can't...can't marry me!"

Boar demon's hands moved downward and pinched Little Orchid's buttocks, "This old/elder one wants to marry who is not an issue. Follow old/elder!"

"You can't marry me! You can't marry me!" Little Orchid's eyeballs shifted, "I have already married! I have already married!"

The boar demon carried Little Orchid on the shoulders and firmly hit her buttocks, "This old/elder one has already eaten many females! Has done that or hasn't, old/elder one can look and already know. You think you can fool old/elder one ah! If you continue to struggle then old/elder will immediately eat you!"

Little Orchid was scared to the point of her whole body becoming rigid. She immediately did not dare move anymore and only her tears streamed down, "Big devil...big devil..." She cried loudly, "Huhuhu, help me huhu..."

Right now Little Orchid's head was in chaos and only knew to subconsciously cry while calling for help. Did not expect that she was not able to growled several sounds when Boar Lord has suddenly halted and turned around. He pulled out dagger and pointed toward the corner of an old tree, "Who is there?!"

The dagger almost plugged into the old tree and caused the corner of the tree as big as three people to crack and "ka" collapsed. A shadow of a male appeared there.

That person, who was standing still for a long time, was wearing black clothes and long gray hair that almost swept the ground. He did not speak up and only looked at the boar demon silently.

The boar demon suddenly felt the surrounding atmosphere was heavier. While the little subordinate beside the boar demon has begun to tremble and pulled on the furry leg of the boar demon, "My...my lord, this person should not be trifled with..."

Within the blurry tears, Little Orchid saw the black silhouette over there and she was dazed for a while. After that, she immediately did not feel scared. Frustrations violently surged and filled her heart completely. She pointed toward Dong Fang Qing Cang, "Big devil! Big devil! Huhuhu! He's bullying me!"

Love Between Fairy And Devil (Completed) Chapter 42 - Chapter 25.1

The forest was completely silent.

The boar lord looked into the eyes of Dong Fang Qing Cang and swallowed a mouthful of saliva. He cannot feel the demonic strength of this person and even has not noticed at all that the surrounding energy was moving. But with one gaze has already caused him to feel cold.

The little subordinate once again pulled on his furry leg, "My...my lord, let's us leave..."

The boar lord touched the thin waist and the round buttocks of the female on his shoulders. The beauty has caused his courage to enlarge and he tossed Little Orchid on the ground. He ordered the little subordinate to grab Little Orchid's hands, "You watch over her!"

The boar lord spat out several spits of saliva into his palms and rubbed them. After that he pulled out the big, broad machete on his waist to show off his fighting style and shouted as he stepped up, "Regardless of which mountain you came from, I have to take this female!"

After Little Orchid left the boar lord, she has not cry anymore as she rubbed her tears. Her aggression was brimming with fire as she shouted toward Dong Fang Qing Cang, "Deal with him! Big devil, deal with him!"

At this time the boar lord was completely gazing at Dong Fang Qing Cang and did not pay attention with Little Orchid's words. Suddenly! That shadow moved! The boar lord held the hilt of the machete and waited for the person to make a move!

But...

The strange thing was that Dong Fang Qing Cang unexpectedly tilted body to go to the other way and did not pay attention to boar lord and Little Orchid.

The boar lord somewhat stared blankly and Little Orchid was even more bewildered. She blinked and head followed Dong Fang Qing Cang's shadow. She saw that he has a cold expression and went deep into the forest. Like that...Not seeing what has occurred here.

The little subordinate strangely said, "It seems that...he does not want to interfere with our matter?"

That's right, it seems that he does... not want to interfere ah. Ahaha~

The atmosphere was silent for a bit.

The little subordinate looked at the dazed Little Orchid and asked, "Do you really know that person?"

Do know! Poor Little Orchid,

"Big devil!" Little Orchid shouted toward Dong Fang Qing Cang, "I am here! Help me ah!"

The boar lord looked at Little Orchid and spat out saliva into his hands. He pointed toward Dong Fang Qing Cang and said, "Do not play pretend and scheme, come here and properly battle against me!"

"She and ben zuo do not have any relation." Over there carried the faint voice of Dong Fang Qing Cang to here.

The boar lord turned around and grew angry as he scolded Little Orchid, "This female dare to fool this elder/old one? You freaking mother know him? Want to scare ye ye ah?"

 father's father... boar lord is basically addressing himself as someone old [and more powerful apparently...]

Little Orchid was also angry, Dong Fang Qing Cang choose to ignore and become hostile ah! Such a waste for her to treat him nicely. After he let go of her, she almost thought he was a good person!

And the result was?

Little Orchid peered at Dong Fang Qing Cang's shadow go farther and farther away. Within her heart she said, if you are heartless then don't blame me for using a trick!

She stood up with her billowing aggression, and kicked the little subordinate on the side. She was about to push off boar lord to catch Dong Fang Qing Cang, but the boar lord has grabbed her neck and prevented her from going over there. Little Orchid turned head around, glared at boar lord, and then pointed at Dong Fang Qing Cang while saying, "I'll tell you, the person I have married was him!"

The boar lord was shocked.

Little Orchid shouted toward Dong Fang Qing Cang's shadow, "I have touched your chest, and kiss your neck! Two days before have foolishly stayed together with you each hour and each second. Not long ago have shared the same blanket with you! Before you have pressed on top of me, doing whatever and arbitrary humiliate!"

The leaving steps of Dong Fang Qing Cang paused.

Little Orchid continued to persist, "Dong Fang Qing Cang, you have no relation with me and yet, don't feel shame! Relation of you and I obviously is so, deeper than Yuan river, hotter than...even the desert! In your entire life don't you think of shaking me off!" Within the thoughts, Little Orchid continued to speak, "You scoffed that [I] was annoying, thus do not want to marry me! You traitor and heartless bastard!"

She spoke in one sweep and even caused boar lord to be even more shocked.

Little Orchid turned her body around and patted on boar lord's chest, "Brother boar! He is courageous and stronger than you by a lot. If you want me to follow you, go kill him then. After that I will happily follow you to marry!"

After speaking the last words, Dong Fang Qing Cang turned around to coldly look at her.

Little Orchid was not in the least bit hesitant and stuck out her tongue to make a wry face at him.

If Dong Fang Qing Cang has hidden his abilities in order to not help her, then she will force him. Little Orchid secretly said, if he does not help her, then this boar demon will take the initiation to attack him. In the end, the results are the same.

The boar lord listened to her words and laughed heartily, "Alright, today this elder/older one will slice him to make soup for my brothers to drink!"

He roared and held onto the machete as it sliced toward Dong Fang Qing Cang. When [he] came closer to Dong Fang Qing Cang, he pulled from his sleeve bits of dirt and tossed it toward Dong Fang Qing Cang's way.

Dong Fang Qing Cang furrowed his brows and tilted body to avoid, but dirt thrown by the boar lord was still incidentally stuck on his body. The most surprising thing was that after the dirt has stuck to Dong Fang Qing Cang's body, it has not fell and began to move on Dong Fang Qing Cang's clothes. As if beginning to grow bigger, within a moment the dirt has already dusted the entire belly of Dong Fang Qing Cang. The dirt whom has fallen would crawl on Dong Fang Qing Cang's legs like living beings and pinned him tightly down the ground.

Little Orchid was rather alarmed, "What is that?"

The little subordinate on the side would smile mysteriously, "That is the magic power of our boar lord. After having demonic dirt clung to, even if it's the Elderly Heavenly Emperor, will not be able to escape."

Miscalculating, how can Little Orchid expect that boar lord with such low cultivation powers would have a strange weapon like this. But dealing with Dong Fang Qing Cang, such weapon probably has no problem...right?

Little Orchid was still pondering when she saw that the big machete of boar lord sliced down Dong Fang Qing Cang's shoulders.

Little Orchid subconsciously blinked, but thinking about the injury un-penetrating like body of Dong Fang Qing Cang, she opened her eyes to look. Indeed like so, the big machete of boar lord only stopped on Dong fang Qing Cang's shoulders.

As for Dong Fang Qing Cang at this time, he was still leisurely pulling out a bunch of dirt that was incessantly moving on his waist. He pressed them in his hands and his eyes slightly light up, "Where did this object came from?"

Boar lord sliced on Dong Fang Qing Cang's shoulders with machete, but did not see that he was injured. He [boar lord] was shocked within a moment and then pulled up machete to slice down strongly, "This matter you go and ask the underworld king!"

Dong Fang Qing Cang coldly moved his mouth and the hostile energy congregated, "Does not tell ah?" He raised his hands.

Little Orchid originally thought that Dong Fang Qing Cang would do the usual and only raised hands to cause boar lord to disappear, but the strange thing was that Dong Fang Qing Cang raised his left hand. When the big machete of boar lord almost slice down on him, suddenly a string of dry rattan from Dong Fang Qing Cang's wrist sprouted out like a sword that halted the big machete.

The boar lord was rather surprised, "What is that?"

Within the time that boar lord has not respond yet, on that string of rattan sprouted a branch and pierced straight into boar lord's chest. Within that moment, the rattan string has entered into boar lord's chest. The boar lord stared with wide eyes. His expression was horrified to the extreme and his mouth opened, but blood only came out from his throat.

Love Between Fairy And Devil (Completed) Chapter 43 - Chapter 25.2

Chapter 43: Chapter 25.2

Dong Fang Qing Cang's eyes were cold like killing a pig, "You don't say then ben zuo will let that branch bloom flowers in your heart."

The cold, dark intonation of the voice caused Little Orchid from afar to also feel shiver down her head.

This seems to be...the first time she saw Dong Fang Qing Cang kill someone.

The little subordinate of the boar lord saw that the situation was not good and ran. He disappeared like smoke.

The blood inside boar lord's beck bled out and flowed down his chin. He struggled and his mouth quivered, "Mountain...Qian Yin* mountain...Qian Yin langjun."

* It means a thousand secrets

"Qian Yin xingjun?" Dong Fang Qing Cang muttered the four words. His mouth curved into a vicious smile, "Is a bit useful. Will let you off in whole."

Finished speaking, the rattan string that has passed through boar lord's chest would withdraw. Boar lord's body was tossed to the side like a rejected product. Dong Fang Qing Cang adjusted the rattan string on the left hand wrist while his expression remained calm.

After the boar lord died, the "devil dirt" on Dong Fang Qing Cang's body all fell to the ground. Aside from the color being a bit darker, the outside was not that different.

Dong Fang Qing Cang grabbed a batch and pressed in hands. Just now it was the dirt that fell and almost covered his body, but in his hand it was only a clump. Dong Fang Qing Cang inspected it for a while and then conveniently tossed it. He turned around and [his gaze] was across Little Orchid's gaze.

Little Orchid subconsciously retreated a step. She somewhat fearfully looked at the rattan string on his left hand wrist.

She remembered that was the bracelet Dong Fang Qing Cang used power to congregate into a crystal to trade for in the demon market of Crystal city...

She also remembered at that time, Dong Fang Qing Cang said this object was used for protection. But she never paid attention to this matter because at that time, she felt that Dong Fang Qing Cang's body did not need protection.

She has never thought how strong the object was to this extent.

Little Orchid naively looked at Dong Fang Qing Cang. She suddenly thought of a different matter. With Dong Fang Qing Cang's personality, he usually does not bother with self-protection. Yet, at this time, he does not use power to kill the person, but used an object for self-protection until the opponent attack and then respond. This matter means...what?

"Big devil...your magic powers..."

Little Orchid has not finished her words and already saw Dong Fang Qing Cang coldly moved his mouth and walked toward her, "Big devil?" He said, "From before you were able to easily say the four words Dong Fang Qing Cang?" His tone caused Little Orchid to subconsciously swallowed a mouthful of saliva. Dong Fang Qing Cang smiled and said, "Thinking carefully, it has been many years since pleasantly hearing my own name from someone. Really miss."

Little Orchid cannot endured it and retreated several steps. She calmly said, "From before it was in an urgent situation, In a moment of desperation...In short, right now it's okay. The blue mountain still has ocean...drinking endlessly!" Little Orchid breathed in a deep breath as her back has touched a part of a tree. While Dong Fang Qing Cang was standing in front of her.

"You have touched ben zuo's chest, kissed ben zuo's neck, each night would share the same blanket as ben zuo. Even before ben zuo would pressed on your body, doing whatever to humiliate as one pleases?"

Little Orchid closed her eyes and repeatedly shook her head, "No, no..."

"The relationship between you and ben zuo is deep like Yuan river and hot like the desert! In ben zuo's lifetime cannot get rid of you."

How can big devil's memory be so good like this ah...Little Orchid has almost reached the point of crying, "No, it's not..."

Dong Fang Qing Cang captured a lock of Little Orchid's hair, "Ben zuo originally wanted to spare you, but since the relation with you and ben zuo is rather close..."

"Not close..." Little Orchid hurriedly said, "Not one bit close! In the time of desperation I only said such! I only wanted to live ah. You don't know how disgusting that boar lord was..." Little Orchid would speak and rubbed face with frustration, "If it wasn't for you who didn't help me..."

Dong Fang Qing Cang side-eyed her, "Did you not say that ben zuo was a defecator in your life?" Dong Fang Qing Cang said, "Ben zuo was insulted by you like that. Does not even want to leave steps behind anymore."

Little Orchid was silent. Cannot expect...even this revenge he also remembered...really is a petty person.

Little Orchid muttered several words and in response was the cold like throwing knives expression of Dong Fang Qing Cang. Thus, she can only silently endured. Dong Fang Qing Cang started to step away, "Before you calculated for boar lord to slice ben zuo. You haven't thought that after ben zuo has killed him, then a flower demon who scheme like you would have what ending?"

Little Orchid lowered head and muttered, "Only thought about the result of boar lord..."

Dong Fang Qing Cang snorted coldly and spread hands to flick strongly on her forehead, "Spare you this last time."

Finished speaking, he turned around and walked away.

Little Orchid stared blankly.

Big devil...like this has benevolently spare her? This..is not like Dong Fang Qing Cang ah!

Following Dong Fang Qing Cang's silhouette, Little Orchid rubbed forehead. She knew that right now she needed to let big devil go as far as possible, and does not need to speak further with him. But she did not know why, she then asked as if demons and gods were at work, "Big devil, how come you are here ah?"

Dong Fang Qing Cang halted his steps and slightly tilted head.

Little Orchid intermixed her fingers with one another, "You knew I would meet trouble thus purposely came to save me?"

Dong Fang Qing Cang was silently for a while. Little Orchid heard him used his contemptuous nose to laugh, "Just passing by."

Dong Fang Qing Cang! Let me return!!! Let me return this corpse that's on the brink of falling apart ah!!! I demand an exchange!!!

Love Between Fairy And Devil (Completed) Chapter 44 - Chapter 26

After parting away from Dong Fang Qing Cang, Little Orchid set foot on her own journey.

But the journey hasn't been several steps when she felt something was off.

From before the boar lord guy has wiped an unclear liquid all over her face. On her there were still bits of boar lord's smell. Little Orchid really could not endure the stink like this anymore. Thus, she came to a small stream under the mountain peak to shower. When she finished showering and went to the surface where she sunbathes a bit, she then smelled something strange on herself.

She smelled left and right. In the end, she still did not know where the smell came from. She crawled toward the stream to look at herself. She was alarmed as she saw the ripped injury caused by the male and was rotting away on her neck.

She was startled and hugged the neck as she rolled to the ground.

How...how can it be like this?

Having a soul inside the body would have slowed down the rotting pace. How can it be fast like this...

Little Orchid attempted to restrain her fear and crawled on to the river bank. She carefully inspected the "new" body of hers. Until now she discovered the injury on her neck was frightful to the nth degree. She also found that the face complexion was bluish black, the lips' color was ink black, and from the head to the toes were like a corpse.

Little Orchid grew furious. In the end Dong Fang Qing Cang has found what type of body ah?! Shoddy! Has to return!

Following such pace, it would not be for long that the whole head and the neck will fall down completely. At that time she would carry a body without a head. Wouldn't that make the mind unable to move a single step when roaming the mortal realm! Up to that point, does not even consider returning to the Heavenly realm to find master. Perhaps she will be captured by Daoist immortal cultivators in the mortal realm to be turned into pills. Even the underworld cannot be reached.

She has to find Dong Fang Qing Cang to demand another body!

Little Orchid ripped the sleeves and wrapped around the neck to cover the injury.

She slapped her face to raise her spirit. She pondered carefully where Dong Fang Qing Cang was going right now. Following the usual, the people of the demon realm are cursing him. Perhaps he will return to the demon realm to find those people for revenge. But right now it seemed that he has lost his powers. Returning to the demon realm will have no use; perhaps he will not be that impulsive.

Little Orchid remembered from before when she was still at Dong Fang Qing Cang's side, it seems that he had interest with that whatever devil dirt that boar lord had. Even asked where he has gotten it; perhaps he went to Qian Yin mountain in order to find the devil dirt.

Qian Yin mountain, Little Orchid furrowed her brows. It seems that it was the region she has heard master mentioned before. It was a cold land with illusions emerging from the sea. Clearly hidden and then appearing in the middle of the sea, those who don't have fate will never find that ever-hidden mountain even if they searched for a thousand times.

With such region, and with the present mortal body of hers, how can she get there ah.

But Little Orchid suddenly pondered again. Right now Dong Fang Qing Cang does not have powers. Aside from the doughty body, [he] cannot ride the clouds and winds. Fundamentally, [he] was not that different from her. If Dong Fang Qing Cang wanted to go to the sea, then regardless of fishing or the cold, illusion-like mountain would require a boat.

Little Orchid was fixated her plan and identified her purpose. Wearing the armor, she supported herself with wooden stick to stand up and begin her path.

This was the first time in her life that she went far by herself.

After half a month passed, Lin Hai* city.

* Lin Hai – "overlooking the sea" (rough translation)

Lin Hai city was constructed near the sea and originally was a prosperous seaport for the Great Jin, but in chaotic time, Lin Hai city was like fish and dragons mixing in together. During the days there were burglaries and during nighttime there were endless amount of bandies.

Today was a day with a dark, rainy sky. The people passing by on the road would be in a haste. There was a person wearing wide-brimmed, conical hat and woven rain robe who turned around a small alleyway with no person. There suddenly came a male rushing toward and paid no attention as he bumped into the shoulder of the person with the woven rain robe. Cannot expect the person who wore the woven rain robe to easily fall down. Within a moment, [person] has already sprawled across the ground. The wide-brimmed, conical hat pressed against the face and the person's appearance was not known.

The male estimated the money bag that he has stolen and halted to look at the person wearing the woven rain robe while mockingly said, "Body is disabled like you yet dare to come to Lin Hai city. Want to die. Today will let you remember. Scram to wherever you came from."

Finished speaking, he suddenly saw the person wearing the robe on the ground extend hand out to point toward him.

The male furrowed his brows as the course of action was unclear.

"Pull...help pull...much thanks."

Spreading out hands to the person who stole from [person], perhaps that person is sick? The male stepped toward to kick the person wearing the woven rain robe once, "Want to die ah!" This kick of his was extremely strong and caused the figure of the person wearing the woven rain robe to tilted to one side. Thus, the conical hat on that person slid down.

The male saw the face of the person wearing the woven rain robe. It was the face of a female, but the head with the face was skewing and turning on the ground to the unimaginable degree...

The neck was completely severed and only a layer of skin remained. But even if it was so, the person can still glare while saying with frustration, "You don't help pull up is fine. How can you kick me? My spine has already twisted in two parts! I have painstakingly shifted it back! You scum!"

The male was scared to the point of his eyes falling outside. His mouth was shaking for a while and cannot produce any word out.

Little Orchid, with difficulty, stiffly raised her hands and pushed her head onto the neck. She attempted to feel and face was became rather surprised, "Ah! Has already severed! What to do now?!" She glared foolishly at the male who has inched to the side and scolded, "Quickly pull me up. If not then I am not done with you!"

"Mon...monster..." The male stared with wide eyes to the point of them becoming white and then fainted.

Little Orchid saw this and then backed up, "You help pull me up first ah. My spine has already been skewed by you. Cannot stand up on own!"

She was frantic without any solution, but at this time, suddenly on the side carried the sounds of soft laughter.

Little Orchid's eyes circled, but within the range cannot see the figure of the person who has spoken up, "Who is there? Help me, I will be extremely grateful."

Following the pleading of Little Orchid, the sounds of steady steps slowly went besides her. Standing next to her head, the person bent down and tilted head to look at her, "Little miss, how did it end up like this?"

The person who came wore white clothes. The collar of the clothes was wrapped in white fox fur. Perhaps it's due to the weather as Little Orchid felt his complexion was somewhat ghastly pale, but demeanor between the brows was distinctly an unordinary person.

Seeing her current state and can still calmly smile while not running away, thoughts were that the person was not a demon or ghost, then must be someone that cannot easily be entangled with. But Little Orchid has no choice. She can only plead pitifully, "To tell would be quite long. Can sir support me up first? When I sit up then can straighten out the spine and bones. After that can put the head on."

The person wearing white clothes looked at Little Orchid's posture, "I will help miss straighten it." Finished speaking, he did not mind the mud all over Little Orchid's body dirtying his white sleeves as he turned her over. After that, he took off her woven rain robe and used his thumb and index finger to glide from her neck to her spine. At the point of skew, his hands halted.

At this time, Little Orchid's head has completely separated from the body. The head was on the side and admired movements of the white clothed male with appraisals, "Sir has done it more professionally than what I've done."

The male faintly smiled and fixed a bit then shook his head, "Your body has rot to the extremes. Straightening out the bone is pointless. Afterwards, only need to touch will lead to skewing. Furthermore..." The male smiled while he lifted her face up, "Your head has become like this, why need the body anymore."

Little Orchid was extremely dispirited, "But not having this body...Without the body how will I live ah. I also have to go to Qian Yin mountain to find someone..."

The male blinked, "Who do you want to find at Qian Yin mountain?"

Little Orchid appeared indignant, "An ungrateful man! A heartless lover!"

Within the time of hastening the journey, Little Orchid has understood what Dong Fang Qing Cang was thinking.

From the beginning, Dong Fang Qing Cang has no intention in finding a body for her. He was going to kill Chi De woman and proceeded with his revenge in the most petty way. Then, conveniently find a body for her to use.

But! Chi De woman was the ancient War of God. She came down to the mortal realm to become a mortal. Even though Heavenly realm has not recorded this matter, but can guess, if Chi De woman does not undergo the lifetime reincarnations then will definitely be punish by the Heavenly rules. Don't steal aggregator sites >.>

After she reincarnated to become a mortal, the fate and destiny matter were not under the jurisdiction and writings of Siming Xingjun. It was completely under the Mandate of Heaven (up to fate). Regardless of whether the body has whichever soul, this body of hers still continued to rot following the normal pace and then disappeared.

How can Dong Fang Qing Cang not know of this reason!

It's no wonder that at the time, he wholeheartedly agreed to let go of her. It's no wonder he said he will let her go for the last time. Even if he let her go or not, spare her or not, she cannot live past several days! This body has already wanted to fall apart. At that time, she does not have a body at the mortal realm. Sooner or later will die!

The only thing was that he was not in the least bit sad in making the move!

Thinking up to here, Little Orchid cannot avoid becoming emotional, "After finding him I will definitely bite him!"

The male saw the appearance of Little Orchid and laughed cheerfully as he stood up, "Then I will bring miss there."

"Langjun!*" On the side suddenly came the lowered, deep voice of another. Little Orchid's eyes moved and only saw on the lower part of the wall a black shadow. So just now...this side also has another person...

"This immortal spirit has fate connection with me. A simple temper. Bring back will not be bad. Furthermore..." The male smiled mysteriously and unpredictably. After that, he said with the person next to, "Bring out the Soul Collecting vase here."

The other person seemed a bit unyielding and hesitated for a long time. A moment later, a black vase was handed to the male.

Little Orchid looked in a daze at the mild smile of the male, "You can see my identity?"

"Of course can see, immortal orchid spirit." The male handed the black vase to Little Orchid, "This body of yours cannot be used anymore. I will place you inside my vase first. You will temporarily stay here and wait until the arrival at Qian Yin mountain where I will find you another body."

"Eh...Ah not right, in the end who are you..."

The male laughed, "Qian Yin mountain, Qian Yin pavilion, Qian Yin langjun. You wanted to come to Qian Yi mountain in order to find a person, yet even the owner there [you] have never heard of before?"

Little Orchid, "Indeed it's a small world. Dong Fang Qing Cang, hah, cannot expect that we are meeting here."

Dong Fang Qing Cang, "Ah...the soul has not dispersed yet."

Little Orchid, "Likewise."

Love Between Fairy And Devil (Completed) Chapter 45 - Chapter 27.1

Chapter 45: Chapter 27.1

With the matters involving Qian Yin mountain, Little Orchid has never heard Siming mentioned that much and not to mention even hearing such matters in the mortal realm. Thus, she does not know in the least bit about the owner of the this Qian Yin mountain.

But Little Orchid felt he was not a bad person.

At least, can be considered a good person than Dong Fang Qing Cang!

After finally arriving at Qian Yin mountain, Little Orchid was more determined about this matter.

The owner of Qian Yin mountain appeared like an elegant scholar and peaceful while treating others with manners. Each action has elegance but was also more mysterious to the point where he does not make it difficult for her when finding her a body!

Little Orchid looked into the mirror and rubbed the soft, fresh face of her. She did not dare to believe and asked the person behind, "Can really mold this from clay?"

Qian Yin langjun sat aside from a table behind Little Orchid. He slowly drank tea and spoke, "Yes, from yesterday when I took you to the island, has ordered someone to mold. How is it? Does it look like the appearance that I have heard you described?"

"Yes!" Little Orchid pinched her face, "Really look like! Skin is soft, bone is strong. When knock onto joints would not skew. Rubbing for long will warm the skin. Really is like a body of a person."

Little Orchid really wanted to cry. Only the sky would know the period of time where it was extremely difficult as she went from Lu Ming mountain to Lin Hai city.

After she left Lu Ming mountain, she originally wanted to pretend to be pitiful on the road and conveniently rely on the horse carriage of the passerby. She was able to pretend and was also able to go into the horse carriage, but after sitting in the horse carriage for a while, [she] felt the tailbone skewed away and after sitting for a while more, the backbone also skewed. Sitting for while more then, even the spine was almost degrading. Thus, she had to leave the carriage to walk. The beginning days were okay, yet after walking more would struggle. Even after walking only a few steps the knees would break.

Along the way she would halt to put back the hands and legs, causing others to be scared to the point of fainting.

Right now thinking of such time, she has truly, and naively created sins.

"But..." Little Orchid looked at herself in the mirror. Within heart [she] felt a bit suspicious and she turned herself around to look at Qian Yin langjun, "Master has said to me, aside from natural laws of the heavens, there is no one who has the power to give out lives to others. The body using clay to mold is a dead thing and has no living energy. Even if the soul has occupied, cannot move. How come your potter can do such?"

Qian Yin langjun nodded, "Your master has spoken correctly, but at Qian Yin mountain, I have something." Qian Yin langjun took from his waist an embroidered pouch. He opened the pouch and grabbed a bunch of trembling brown dirt out. The dirt slowly changed shape inside his hands and then slowly changed into a small mountain. It looked like a living object and continue to move incessantly as it changes shape.

Little Orchid blinked as she looked at the dirt. She recognized that this was the dirt that boar lord has tossed out when he was battling against Dong Fang Qing Cang. The little subordinate of the boar called this the demon dirt.

"This is xi rang*." He explained, "It is a mysterious object in this world and different from regular dirt. It has the ability to grow and multiple with no end." Qian Yin langjun grabbed a handful of the dirt and held it up for Little Orchid, "The clay that molded into your body was regular clay, but after mixing with xi rang then it can hold a soul and move which was no different from a living person."

* Means along the lines of breathing soil/earth.

Looking at Little Orchid's surprise face, he could not hold it in and laughed, "Isn't it magical?"

Little Orchid nodded.

"But your master still spoke correctly. In this world, besides from the natural heaven laws of the world, then there is no one who can create a living body." He continued to speak, "Mixing with xi rang into the body can only help you use this body within three days. After that, the living energy of xi rang will disappeared and this body cannot move. You have to use a different body. Furthermore, because this body was made by dirt, has to remember at all times that you cannot touch water. If touched it, then that part will be ruined and will even be rotting faster than your old body."

Little Orchid heard this and her hands that were about to touch the tea withdrew, "Cannot even drink tea?"

Qian Yin langjun smiled gently, "From now on you do not need to drink water and even don't need to eat. But you can eat and taste the flavors of food. Yet, those can only remain in your stomach."

"Eating will not fatten up?"

Qian Yin langjun laughed, "Of course not."

"Then I can eat? Even though doesn't need to..."

"Of course can." Qian Yin langjun stood up and led her outside, "On this island of mine, has only a few of other things, but has a lot of chefs. What do you want to eat?"

Little Orchid does not respond and dazedly looked at Qian Yin langjun for a while. Then she suddenly said, "Previously, master has said, one who is unaccountably solicitous would be hiding evil intentions. Xi rang is definitely something precious. This body of mine has to be changed after three days and is quite costly. From before we have never met. You have wholeheartedly agreed to help me like this. In the end, what intentions do you have with me?"

Little Orchid does not understand. From the moment they have met at Lin Hai city to right now it has been five days. At Lin Hai city it was one day, moving across the ocean was three days, and yesterday when arrived at Qian Yin mountain. Within the five days Little Orchid has done nothing, but Qian Yin langjun has helped her unconditionally.

He has treated her quite well and unconditionally, causing her to feel unnatural.

Right now she has to rely on someone else to give her a body. What intention does this person has with her?

Don't tell me...want to use her soul for training/creating pills?

"Hah..." Qian Yin langjun laughed, "Miss A Lan, you have arrived at Qian Yin mountain for several days and only asked this now. It is not a bit late?"

"Has already asked so it's not considered late."

Qian Yin langjun smiled gently and did not appeared angry with Little Orchid's question. He continued to lead her outside and pointed to strange flowers along the two sides, "I like to collect and want to bring all unique and unmatched treasures back to where they belong."

Little Orchid blinked and asked, "I am an unique and unmatched treasure?"

"Yes ah, extremely precious."

Little Orchid has not recovered from "I am a treasure" and then saw a female from the garden coming here. She stepped to where Qian Yin langjun was and bowed with him. Then she whispered in several words.

Qian Yin langjun finished hearing and expression was rather darken. He nodded and then waved his hands for the female to leave.

Little Orchid was curious and asked, "What is it?"

"There are several demons who want to charge into my Qian Yin mountain."

Little Orchid froze, "Demon?"

"En. You do not need to be alarmed. They are already halted by the my maze in front of Qian Yin mountain."

"Outside the mountain...has a maze?"

"A Lan went with me into the mountain. Obviously does not know of this maze." Qian Yin langjun told, "Qian Yin mountain has an inherent, strange position in the middle of the land. This mountain appears and disappears on the ocean. Mortals with no fate will not be able to see it. Those who goes Qian Yin mountain of mine has to be someone who is extremely fateful. Each time someone goes to my mountain, I have treated enthusiastically. But several years ago, there was a crafty scoundrel who charged in..."

Qian Yin langjun would tell and would also lead Little Orchid deep into the courtyard and to the pavilion. He told Little Orchid to sit down and then pushed the plate of desserts toward her, "Eat this for temporarily satisfaction. Let me tell them to make you another plate."

Little Orchid honestly held it up to bite into. Just when [she] bite in, immediately it melt and caused her to widen her eyes. This dessert is tastier than the ones Heavenly Emperor has brought to propose to master! With a tremble, she immediately ate several ones and said, "Qian Yin mountain has crafty scoundrel charging in, then what happened?"

Qian Yin langjun looked at the chubby face of hers as she ate. He wanted to raised his hands to pinch, but felt this was not appropriate and thus, fingers were in rhythm on the table, "That was a powerful demon. After arriving at Qian Yin mountain, he memorized the path leading up to the mountain and then went outside to gather a group of demons in order to steal all of my treasures."

"Indeed excessive."

"Right ah , they stole a couple of my treasures and exchanged them for money." Qian Yin langjun spoke with regrets while he shook his head, "If needed money then tell me, I will give it to them."

"Do not be sad. Those who stole from you will not have a good outcome." Little Orchid wrapped up a dumpling, "Thus, after this, you set up a maze because of it?"

"After being robbed, did not intend to set up a maze because it will block the path to the mountain. But the most fearful thing was greed." Qian Yin langjun said, "Robbing once, they were not satisfied and robbed the second and third time. Thus, I've borrowed the strength of the combined treasures along with the position of this place to create the large maze under the ocean. Those who were uninvited and came will be imprisoned in there, resulting in the lost of their lives."

When the last four words were spoken, Qian Yin langjun's voice turned cold and carried hostility, causing Little Orchid to feel cold. When she lifted her head to look at him, Qian Yin langjun was still smiling gently without a change in expression.

Was...that an illusion?
