Causing troubles.

If it was before, Little Orchid always tried to avoid these two words, but always could not avoid causing things. Each time when causing trouble, master Siming of hers would have to take responsibility of cleaning up for her* as she would hit and would scold as if she [Little Orchid] was someone who often stir up troubles.

Therefore until now, Little Orchid still felt that her ability with this matter ought to be an easy drive on a familiar path.

*(cā pì gu): Literal meaning is wiping one's bum

But when it came to telling her to be at ease and be brave in causing troubles, Little Orchid suddenly felt a loss of direction. Compared to the troubles caused by the beauties that destroyed the nations that Chi De woman has said, the various things that she has done were something not worthy of being mentioned.

How to cause trouble and cause what trouble are issues that caused Little Orchid's head to ache.

Little Orchid tried to remember the various beauties that caused nations to fall she saw in the fate writings of Siming before, but she did not like such seducing females. Therefore, she did not remember anyone at all. Thus, she has to break through another direction.

Isn't causing troubles meant doing things others don't like?

Regardless of celestial immortals or demons, they are alike. Revenge and hatred are merely various things—obstructing the livelihood or kidnapping females.

Little Orchid felt that she could do those two things.

She can try to bully the officials. In the eyes of the officials, it would be Dong Fang Qing Cang bullying them. Dong Fang Qing Cang, whose personality is arrogant and [he] is used to condescend others, would not lecture her because of several demon realm officials that are not related to him being bullied.

Will not speak on a different matter as her body in the eyes of Dong Fang Qing Cang was valuable. Speaking one step back, even if Little Orchid has really provoked him, he will definitely not dare to ruin this body.

This is one of the reasons why Chi De woman told Little Orchid to be at ease and be brave in taking action.

After determining the course of action [direction] and starting from the next day, Little Orchid took Da Yu outside. Dong Cang Qing Cang did not stop her and merely thought that she went outside to relieve herself and thus, did not pay attention to her.

Little Orchid left the main palace hall and turned around to look at the body of Kong Que still hanging on the stone plaque. Clearly has appeared extremely fallen, but is still alive unexpectedly... The people of the demon realm really are determined...

She peered at the face of Kong Que and only hoped that this "hearing" person was still alive and can know the various troubles she has caused to make matters bigger like what Chi De woman has said.

Little Orchid found the various residences of the officials first, went inside their houses without knocking on the door, and allowed Da Yu to knock the walls down. After entering the courtyard, did not go down the back of it [Da Yu] to find a path.

The owner came to block, and Da Yu immediately hissed and stuck out its tongue at that person. After arriving at the demon realm for a while, there was no one who did not know the person behind this female who appeared normal. Thus, even if it was a high official of the demon realm, [official] would not dare say anything to Little Orchid.

Yet, when arriving at the residence of a military general, that military general was a high general of the demon realm. Personality was straightforward and impatient. [He] was extremely unsatisfied with the Little Orchid's actions of entering house and stealing the flower vase that he has placed in the reception hall. The general immediately took back the vase that Little Orchid has taken and pull out sword while wanting to slice her.

Little Orchid became startled and hurriedly rolled and crawled to the outside. After running to the door, Da Yu wrapped its tail to protect her and then hostile energy billowed outward as it stuck out its tongue to the general.

But the general was not afraid of demon snake's power and swung his sword as [he] was about to attack them. Achocolatecosmostranslations

But right at that time, the pressure in the atmosphere suddenly grew.

The big sword of the general "clang" one sound and then fell to the ground.

Little Orchid was still bewildered and then suddenly saw the people in the entire yard immediately kneeled down. Even the general with an unwilling expression was also pressured to kneel with two knees down on the ground and cannot protest.

The hostility in the atmosphere seemed to have congregated into a whip and heard "pop" sound as the armor on the general immediately cracked while skin ripped and muscles burst, "Give it to her." In the atmosphere there was the low, cold voice of Dong Fang Qing Cang.

The general was pressed by the pressure in all four directions to the point of losing blood. He gritted his teeth and endured. In the end, as if [one] cannot endure anymore, the hand loosened and the vase that he has took from Little Orchid's hand before was tossed to the ground. It then rolled dismally to the side of her feet.

On the mouth of the vase, Little Orchid saw that there was three bloody fingerprints due to the general using so much strength and imprinted on it...

Little Orchid felt that she seemed to have turned into a scoundrel—a scoundrel that bullied others like Dong Fang Qing Cang exactly.

Little Orchid gritted her teeth and suppressed the insecurity in the heart. She felt that the beauty that caused the fall of nations was not someone easy to be ah and overcoming the mind was not easy.

She did not dare grab the flower vase on the ground. She hurriedly climbed onto the back of Da Yu and took it out of the general's courtyard. After leaving, she turned head around to see the general be oppressed on the ground. His pair of eyes that flowed out blood peered at her attentively like a venomous snake that wants to crawl to her and bite her.

Little Orchid felt that this time she has definitely caused troubles for Dong Fang Qing Cang...

Even though the spark in the end was still him who tossed more [flare] into...was Dong Fang Qing Cang helping her...

Sure enough, he was exactly that what she has thought—originally does not care what the people of the demon realm thought of him and did not care if what he did was committing an offense. He does whatever he wants, accustomed to hegemony and was used to the paths and ways.

He helped her, and even did not ask how come she was suddenly interested in stealing stuff from others and definitely thought it was an impulse.

After that, Little Orchid visited 2-3 more residences of high officials.

But after the back of Da Yu has already carried many treasures, she did not meet anyone like the general from before.

Despite these various high officials losing on property, but does not appeared anger as much. There was even one person that sends her off. Little Orchid knew that in the hearts of these people there was hatred, but cannot reveal to the outside. The various items she has stolen were not items of livelihood. Therefore, others did not pay much and were not disorderly. Officials that could not stand it like the general were far too few.

Little Orchid pondered for a while then gritted her teeth as she went toward the direction of the textile ward in the capital city.

From before, this textile ward was supervised personally by military counselor Kong Que. Kong Que has a love of beauty and the fabrics that were used to sew each clothing has to be beautiful in a frivolous way. Everything would start from here.

In the ancient times, the demon realm was pushed into the barren Jiu You, and resources were extremely scarce. To them, food and cloth were extremely rare. After the people gave officials and Kong Que the best cloth, the textile ward has to manufacture many clothing for the regular citizens.

The textile ward here was a place of creating the most fabrics in the demon capital annually. It was also a place of (honest) living for many people in the demon realm.

Little Orchid sat on the back of Da Yu and was extremely uneasy with the matter she was about to do.

When Little Orchid was uneasy, due of the appearance of her and Da Yu, the person in charge of the textile ward also felt extremely easy. The person in charge and a row of burly guards came forth at that time. The person in charge saw Little Orchid and a smile appeared on the expression. There was even intent of flattery as [person] asked her, "Today lady came here wanting fabric or want to sew clothes?"

The person would speak and would glance at Da Yu, seeing that its back carried various rarely seen treasures. The cold sweats on his face cannot be hidden.

Little Orchid cleared her throat, copied the appearance of Dong Fang Qing Cang on usual days and coldly said, "Today I want to hear the sounds of tearing fabric."

Inside her head, the matter of femme fatale that cause the downfall of the nation that she only remembered was this matter.

Hearing such, his sweats on face were like beads as he hurriedly said, "Tearing fabric.... the sounds of tearing fabric are like the sounds of smashing things to pieces and was unlucky. How can [one] allow a young lady hear it. This servant knows that going in the east direction after three roads there is a music ward. The music there is silky and constant, and there will definitely be a song that lady will like..."

"I don't like listening to music, and only want to hear the sounds of tearing fabric." Little Orchid would speak as she jumped down from Da Yu's back.

The male on the side moved, but was halted by the person in charge. He [person in charge] wiped his sweats, "Okay, this servant will bring fabric here for lady to pick and tear for lady to hear."

"I will pick." Little Orchid lifted head and pointed finger at random, "I want to hear the sounds of tearing on this type of fabric while also the sounds of tearing on that fabric type. Does not know the difference between tearing high quality fabric versus low quality. Today I want to hear everything altogether."

The person in charge of the textile ward changed color, "Lady, cannot do so, this fabric is to be used next month..."

"You will not tear for me to hear so I will tear them myself." She patted Da Yu. The tail of the demon snake moved and the powers followed the sweeping tail. Merely heard the "pa" sounds for a bit and within a moment, the place that hung the fabrics of the ward has been smashed in half.

Little Orchid spoke in a serious tone, "Tear all these fabrics for me!"

The color of textile ward head was quite unpleasant to see. He peered at Little Orchid for a while and then the smile on the face disappeared, but after a while still said, "Today lady wants to hear the sounds of fabric and then go back?"

Little Orchid nodded her head.

He immediately waved his hand and had all the males tear all the fabrics that collapsed.

Immediately heard the "ripping" sounds of fabric that vibrated incessantly in the ears. Everyone had darkened expressions. Little Orchid heard such, but face was expressionless. Such sounds did not make her happy. But the femme fatale causing the fall of nation would do such.

When the fabrics were finished tearing and the textile ward head was about to speak, Little Orchid patted Da Yu, "Has listened enough, will hear from over there as well." When she finished speaking, disregarding the facial expression of the person in charge being unsightly, Da Yu tossed its tail and the pile of fabrics over there also collapsed.

This time the people in the entire ward all halted their movements.

The fabrics of this place were better than the fabrics of the other place by a lot. If one were to predict, this pile of fabrics was for the officials.

The textile ward head was unable to restrain his anger and peered at Little Orchid, "Lady, you have bullied too much!"

Little Orchid's heart was a bit timid, but after being bullied by Dong Fang Qing Cang for a long time, she can imitate eight to nine parts of his arrogance. Thus, she lifted her head, nodded and said, "My eyes find the people of the demon realm unpleasant, bullying you guys, so what?!"

Every male on the side moved. Da Yu immediately opened its mouth to howl at them and blew those people to flip over, but the head stood close to Da Yu and in contrarily, did not move. The face changed color and the pair of eyes began to change, "Dong Fang Qing Cang is flatulent then fine, yet even the female also bully others like this, really cannot stand it anymore!"

Da Yu curled its tail and seemed to have prepared itself to fight him, but the person shook his body and was able to avoid the lash of Da Yu unexpectedly.

Da Yu then attack, but not surprisingly, the person avoided it.

Two to three groups came continuously. That person would get closer and close to Little Orchid that was being protected by Da Yu. When there was an opening from Da Yu, he suddenly disappeared and when appeared, [he] was already behind her unexpectedly. The hands of this person were sharp like a wicked beast and swung up to claw Little Orchid's neck.

But how can he achieve such.

A hurricane suddenly swept by and Little Orchid turned head to see that the person was struck down by the gust of wind from before and head hit the ground. Even if [one] used all of one's strength to stand up, but it seemed that the blow from before has caused the person to be heavily injured and cannot stand up anymore.

She bewilderedly turned head around to look back. On the tail of Da Yu there was someone standing. The black robes and silver hair of Dong Fang Qing Cang followed the wind and fluttered. He did not look at anyone else and only peered attentively at Little Orchid.

"Want to hear the sounds of tearing fabric?" He said, " Just in time, ben zuo also want to hear."

Finished speaking, he looked throughout the textile ward, "Bring all the fabrics here and tear for ben zuo. Do not spare any."

The resolute tone caused people that heard it to have no option but to believe that Dong Fang Qing Cang favored Little Orchid in an unscrupulous way.

That day, Dong Fang Qing Cang really had people tear fabric in the ward regardless if the fabric was for high officials or for the citizens. Along the road, he and Little Orchid went back to the palace together. The two did not say anything. After returning back to the palace, Dong Fang Qing Cang then shot a glance at her, "You are wanting to arouse animosity and hatred to ben zuo? By what, wanting to borrow someone's hands to kill ben zuo?"

Little Orchid was quiet.

He laughed coldly, "Does not need for you to do so, ben zuo has done it much more beautiful than you."

What he said was the truth. Little Orchid does not have the capability to create troubles that cause the downfall of a nation. On the contrary, the capability of causing trouble of Dong Fang Qing Cang was higher and orderly than her by a lot. Compared to her, Dong Fang Qing Cang was truly...a beauty that causes downfall of the nation...the real valuable and genuine product.

Not for long after Little Orchid has caused troubles, the citizens that resented Dong Fang Qing Cang increased. Merely two days and there were people beginning to desire saving Kong Que in front of the stone plaque, but Dong Fang Qing Cang mercilessly killed those people, unexpectedly.

Slowly, the people coming to save Kong Que were increasing more and more.

As if every frustration and dissatisfaction accumulated to a critical limit, on a morning when Little Orchid was still sleeping soundly, she suddenly heard a loud sound of movement. After opening eyes and peering out the window, [she] saw that there were dust that filled the whole sky.

Little Orchid subconsciously wore the bone orchid and went to the window to look, the capital has...

Riots have occurred...

"It's today." She heard the sound of Chi De woman's voice ringing in the head.

During this period, Chi De woman would occasionally used bone orchid to pierce Little Orchid's neck. Little Orchid's blood would wet the bone orchid and caused the unsettled, hovering soul of Chi De woman to slowly turn stable. This was a good matter because Chi De woman can be in the dream illusion of hers longer and suggest to her more.

There are even times like the one right now when Little Orchid's mental state was still clear during the day. Chi De woman can also transferred words directly into her [Little Orchid] ears.

According to Little Orchid, this was good news.

It seemed as if she has an additional powerful ally that is difficult to detect by others.

At this moment, when hearing Chi De woman say so, Little Orchid still did not react, "Currently, we go to the boundary and return to the Heavenly realm?"

Chi De woman said, "Wait for a bit, when Dong Fang Qing Cang's focus is completely occupied by the chaos, then will leave."

Little Orchid nodded.

When they have finished discussing and at that moment, the room of Little Orchid was pushed and produced a "creak" sound as Dong Fang Qing Cang coldly stood at the door like usual. The face was not worried from the chaos outside, "Do not leave the palace today" he said to Little Orchid.

Little Orchid was a bit distracted and then nodded, "En."

Dong Fang Qing Cang peered at her for a bit and then turned around and closed the door to leave.

Only came...to only confirm her safety...

Like that she has become accustomed to relying on Dong Fang Qing Cang, and right now he also was accustomed to protecting her...

But she must not want his "protection". She has to protect herself.

Little Orchid leaned on the window to peer outside. Not for long, she suddenly heard a "boom" sound from afar transmitted here. She peered toward the direction the sound came from. In the east direction of the demon capital, there was the black shadow of a giant person standing up.

It stood up. From the view of Little Orchid, the giant black shadow is about 5-6 zhuang* tall. It tilted its head to the sky and then did a long howl. The sounds shook the demon area. Little Orchid peered to the point of foolishly widening her eyes and gaping, "That...what is it?"

*One zhuang (measurement) is 3.3 m, so that black figure is between 16.5 to 19.8 m tall.

The voice of Chi De woman echoed in her head, "It's the monster that the people of the demon realm has used their demonic powers to congregate. For the past several days there was no movement, and so it seemed that they were scheming this matter."

"That...is it difficult to deal with?"

"Monsters that are congregated from demonic powers only need the demonic powers to not disperse and it will not die. They have definitely set up a formation spell somewhere and so as long as Dong Fang Qing Cang does not find the formation, this demonic creature will never be defeated. Perhaps this was the best method that they could do in order to deal with Dong Fang Qing Cang."

Hearing this, Little Orchid subconsciously tightened her fists.

She peered at the demonic creature taking its steps. Step by step, each of them proceeded toward the palace. Each step would cause the ground to tremble. It will not be long for the giant steps of the demonic creature to reach here...

Little Orchid was terrified. There was a gust of wind that suddenly arose and blew toward the demonic creature. The steps of the demonic creature halted, but it was not struck down by the wind. Its large arm waved strongly in the atmosphere and the wind was sucked back by the strength unexpectedly. Chi De woman hurriedly said, "Close the door and squat down!"

In a life and death situation, the reaction of Little Orchid was always fast as she closed the windows and hugged head while crouching down.

Only heard the "bang" sound once and the strong wind that blew back carried force that beat against window. Little Orchid was threatened by this movement and hurriedly closed her eyes.

After a while and when the outside did not have any more movement or sound, Little Orchid opened her eyes and secretively pushed opened the window to peer outside. The houses in front of the demon king's palace turned into ruins and there was only the black plaque still standing quietly in the middle.

There suddenly came the cries and hostile energy of Da Yu from outside. A white silhouette immediately charged toward the demonic creature from afar. Little Orchid looked again and discovered that Dong Fang Qing Cang was standing on top of Da Yu's head.

It was merely within a moment as Da Yu has already flown toward the demonic creature and a fiery sword appeared in Dong Fang Qing Cang's hand. Chi De woman spoke in Little Orchid's head, "When they begin to clash then we will run. Run to the boundary of the demon realm and do not turn around."

Little Orchid held her breath to wait. The time appeared to have prolonged endlessly. When the demonic creature screamed at Dong Fang Qing Cang, he shook his sword and raised sword to slash the demonic creature.

Chi De woman shouted inside Little Orchid's head, "Go."

Little Orchid gritted her teeth. Has no option but to shift eyes away, cannot look at Dong Fang Qing Cang battle with the demonic creature, and pushed open the door to come out. Ran straight toward the palace hall door. She originally thought the palace that was congregated from Dong Fang Qing Cang's powers would halt or guard against with her. But there was nothing as she still can come out relaxingly from the main hall like usual. Little Orchid passed by someone from the demon realm. That person lifted sword to slash toward her direction. Little Orchid tilted her head and avoided the edge of the blade from that person. The blade did not stopped and continued to slash forward, but before the blade can slash toward the main palace hall, there was a silver light that suddenly shone and a force pushed the blade back, tossing the person strongly away.

Little Orchid glanced at the person being flown away. In the heart there was a brief thought—so it...was only her that [it] was not on guard against...

She continued to run emotionlessly and lifted head to peer at Dong Fang Qing Cang who was still battling against the demonic creature in the atmosphere. Like what Chi De woman has said, only need the demonic powers to hold up and the demonic creature will not die. It is also strong enough and at the very least, right now it can still exchange blows with Dong Fang Qing Cang, furthermore...was not scared of powerful energy and strength of his.

Being able to create such demonic creature, the people of the demon realm definitely hate Dong Fang Qing Cang to the point of extreme.

Little Orchid secretly pondered inside, and walked across a pile of rubble; yet, there was a wave of hostile energy that suddenly appeared in the sky. She was sharp and halted her steps. The hostile energy in front hit the ground and pressed the ground into a deep-set, pitch-black ditch.

Little Orchid peered to the point of being dazed. She lifted head to look. Although at a far distance and that the shadow of Dong Fang Qing Cang has never stopped battling the demonic creature in the sky, she seemed to have a sharp intuition and discovery that within the moments of no rest, the gaze of Dong Fang Qing Cang would fall on her and hostile energy billowed.

Little Orchid's body felt cold. She knew this time when escaping, cannot let Dong Fang Qing Cang capture. Big devil with such high-hearted arrogance like so, in the palace where [he] did not set up defenses shows that he has absolutely believed her, but right now she has "failed" to live up to his truth. As the time was chaotic and escape, if captured by him, will lose half a life if not dead...

Cannot delay anymore...

Little Orchid retreated several steps. She borrowed momentum to attempt jumping across the deep groove. Even the entire body was not able to stand stable and has already run staggeringly forward.

There was more and more hostile energy overhead. Went chaotically along the path. Originally the rioters were crowded in numbers, but following the hostile energy of Dong Fang Qing Cang that sliced down, the people outside were getting less and less on the contrary. Little Orchid also ducked and hid into places that somewhat shield self. Kneeled along to find enough ways to hide and when [she] saw the boundary of the demon realm near, Little Orchid's face was full of dust. [She] did not get to blossom a gratifying smile as suddenly over the head there was a wave of fierce hostile energy hitting the ground.

Carrying the flames of Dong Fang Qing Cang, evil burned into the ground. In front of Little Orchid there was an impassable ditch in the path.

Along with the hostile energy that came down, there were also the painful cries of the demonic creature.

Little Orchid halted her body besides the deep ditch and peered down while cold sweats filled the whole body.

Did not see the bottom of the deep ditch. Does not know if jumped down, can crawl back up or not. She turned head to look at the side in hope. Did not see the ending point of the deep ditch's range and does not know whether how long has to run in order to go around it.

In the sky, there were the painful screams of the demonic creature that did not leave the ears.

Peering at the demon realm boundary in front, Little Orchid can only hate that this body of hers right now does not have any bit of power. Even the simple action of flying cannot fly...

She silently asked Chi De woman if there was a way for her to use power immediately. Chi De woman was calmer than her by a lot and let her know that there was a brief formation spell, but Little Orchid's heart at this time was very chaotic. Even if she tried the utmost best to remember, but cannot remember.

Right at this time, there was a cold snort resembling a devil that whooshed into her ears.

"Little flower demon."

The three words (spoken) seemed to have been sounds that only appeared in nightmares and coldly reverberated behind Little Orchid's back.

Little Orchid did not dare turn around, but cannot refrain from turning head.

From behind her, the sky of the demon realm dyed in a blood-like red as the entire body of the demonic creature that the people of the demon realm have used powers to congregate was being burned. The red flames were not like the flames that Dong Fang Qing Cang often used. It seemed to be burning hotter and has more vivid scarlet red.

This scarlet red filled and contrasted Dong Fang Qing Cang's eyes, causing Little Orchid who faces his gaze to have her heart felt heavy and low.

"You want to run?"

Dong Fang Qing Cang spoke up and voice was hard to distinguish anger.

Little Orchid swallowed a mouthful of saliva. When there was the appearance of Dong Fang Qing Cang, Chi De woman has never spoken up in her head as only need a bit of undulation and will cause him to notice. She has never risked this danger.

Therefore in this situation, can only let Little Orchid face it alone.

Little Orchid opened her mouth and breathed in a deep breath first, "I...I went out for a stroll..."

"Ben zuo remembered instructing you to not leave the palace."

Little Orchid shifted eyes to the side and inside the head was still thinking. With this situation, was there a way to run away from the hands of Dong Fang Qing Cang or not, she tried to recall carefully the formation spell that Chi De woman has taught her from before. As [she] was silently chanting inside, Dong Fang Qing Cang suddenly walked toward her with a cold expression.

The feeling of oppression came and Little Orchid subconsciously retreated toward the back.

But right now, behind her was the deep ditch that the hostile energy of Dong Fang Qing Cang sliced down. When she retreated, the ground rocks immediately tumbled down the deep ditch. Her body froze right away and [she] does not dare retreat anymore, but the ground rocks under her legs that she has stepped on caused Little Orchid to slip. After that, the feeling of weightlessness came forward and she suddenly widened eyes as [she] fell down the deep ditch.

Little Orchid subconsciously stretched hand forward. Dong Fang Qing Cang's pupils slightly moved. He stepped forward and was not hesitant as he grabbed Little Orchid's hand, but was not enough as he pulled her body to an embrace. The hand passed her long black hair that reached to the waist and hugged her waist.

This was not the first time that the two bodies were pressed against each other, but still caused Little Orchid to feel awkwardly shy and shameful.

She promptly pushed him away. Dong Fang Qing Cang was not angry and only snorted coldly then loosen according to her struggling. The feeling of weightlessness came once more; Little Orchid was scared and quickly held onto him while not daring to fiddle anymore.

"Run?" The voice of Dong Fang Qing Cang sneered, "Based on you ah?"

Little Orchid was embarrassed and was silent without uttering a word.

The hand of Dong Fang Qing Cang exerted strength and Little Orchid felt that the sky was spinning. After that, she discovered that she was positioned by him in a familiar way...carried over the shoulders.

He did not say anything to her as the surrounding circumstance did not allow him the opportunity to say.

Little Orchid originally wanted to criticized him as boorish, but when she lifted her head and peered at the surroundings, she discovered from when that in the ground of the demon realm sprouted many black shadows exactly like the huge demonic creature being burned by the raging flames...

"This...what is this now?"

Dong Fang Qing Cang lifted his mouth to smile. Expression was contemptuous and relaxed, "This is something that the people of the demon realm have created, self-thinking that this might kill ben zuo."

Note: only need 1 review.

The black shadows did not stop sprouting from the dilapidated ground. Little Orchid was carried by Dong Fang Qing Cang and she exerted effort to poke her head outward and examined the surroundings demonic creatures. The demonic energies on them drift and waft like smoke. The five facial features on each demonic creature would disappear and appear, looking extremely ferocious.

Little Orchid was secretly terrified, but Dong Fang Qing Cang was hardly scared. He walked toward the front. The five fingers on the right hand curled and the fiery sword then congregated in the palm of his hand.

The more Dong Fang Qing Cang walked toward the front, the black shadows on the side would stir restlessly to the point when he was in the range, they would surround. The surrounding demonic creatures seemed to have suddenly received an order of some sort and collectively charged.

Little Orchid knew that they cannot harm her, but the ferocious expressions of theirs have caused her to be scared whilst hugging head, closing eyes, and letting the head knock on his back.

She felt that when Dong Fang Qing Cang waved his hand, the swing movements that pulled the shoulder blades were filled with strength. Even if surrounded in the battlefield, [it] still brought about a feeling of complete security.

Only need to be by his side and will be okay.

This was the thought that was subconsciously nurtured in the past long period of time, but she has "betrayed" Dong Fang Qing Cang. When he has finished dealing with these demons then he will deal her.

Little Orchid felt that she ought to come up with a countermeasure in this time or else she would be caged by Dong Fang Qing Cang. It would certainly be difficult [if] she was to run again.

But Little Orchid did not get to calmly think of a countermeasure as the fiery sword in Dong Fang Qing Cang's hand waved forward. The red flames burned the surroundings and the bodies of the demon creatures immediately caught on fire. The vivid red flames were exactly like the flames burning on the giant demonic creature over there.

The vivid red flames shone to the point that Little Orchid can close her eyes and can feel the light outside. She was courageous as she opened her eyes, peered at the flames, and could not refrain from crying out in surprise, "What are these flames?!"

Dong Fang Qing Cang arrogantly smiled, "Want to concentrate demonic strength to defeat ben zuo, ben zuo will see how much demonic strength they have for ben zuo to burn."

The demonic creature screamed in anguish. Little Orchid heard and felt chills. She peered at the light on the side. There was one black shadow that was burned by the raging flames and softened on the ground, but it still was discontented as it crawled toward Dong Fang Qing Cang. There was only a pair of fresh red eyes being burned on the hazy face. It was filled with hatred and resentment as it fiercely peered at him. Sensing Little Orchid's gaze, black shadow shifted its red eyes to look at her.

Little Orchid was startled and covered her mouth.

There was hatred to the point of showing such expression.

But within a moment, Dong Fang Qing Cang lightly waved the fiery sword in hand toward the black shadow and the demonic creature that was congregated by the demonic energy immediately burned by the luminous flames and turned into ashes.

According to Dong Fang Qing Cang, killing was an extremely simple matter, but the surrounding demonic creatures have not withdrawn by the "kill" of Dong Fang Qing Cang.

They struggled and if there was an opportunity, will crawl forward and grab his feet, tearing his skin and eat him cleanly...

Little Orchid subconsciously thought, if there was a day where Dong Fang Qing Cang lost...

But such possibility seemed to be very difficult.

Dong Fang Qing Cang waved the sword in hand. He originally was not going to find the formation spell that Chi De woman has said before and even did not care how much demonic creatures they were creating in order to attack him. To Dong Fang Qing Cang, a force will come then will resist it; if there is water c then will cover with. If there were a lot of opponents then he will kill that many. If there were at lot of resentment, he will bear that many.

Dong Fang Qing Cang carried Little Orchid toward the palace. Little Orchid set food on the silver steps in front of the palace and lifted her to see that on the stone plaque, does not know when the fallen body of Kong Que has disappeared. At the moment, Dong

Fang Qing Cang paid no attention to that and stepped on the silver steps. He did not bother to turn around and expression was unchanged as he stepped into the palace.

Only Little Orchid poked her neck to peer afar as the demon capital turned into a chaotic scene.

The giant demonic creature has already disappeared with no trace and in the ground there also were no black shadow crawling out anymore. Even does not know where the rioters from before went.

There was only Da Yu, who was majestic like a dragon that hover under the sky covered by dark clouds, and monitored the demon people on the land like another eye of Dong Fang Qing Cang.

This was the first time that the demon realm rioted and was suppressed in blood by Dong Fang Qing Cang's strength alone.

Dong Fang Qing Cang carried Little Orchid to return to the palace. The palace door closed loudly in front of the eyes and her heart unintentionally thought simple— "demon realm is done for" and so, "I am also done for".

He was not in the least bit polite as he tossed her on the bed.

Little Orchid immediately turned around and pulled the feet on the side to cover the chest with an indefinite panic-stricken state as she peered at him who displayed an emotionless expression.

Dong Fang Qing Cang folded his arms and gaze was scornful, "Face is getting worse. Yet guts are getting bigger."

Little Orchid bit lips and did not dare to respond. The tone of Dong Fang Qing Cang grew slightly cold, "Speak, who helped you thought of this plan?" This question touched upon the fear of Little Orchid. She peered attentively at Dong Fang Qing Cang in alarm. The edge of his lips lifted into a condescending smile, "Your gaze is surprised, how can ben zuo predict that it was someone else's idea to help you?"

His figure moved toward the front, completely covering her body. He brought his face closer to the front for a bit. The head of Little Orchid moved back a bit, little by little. Little Orchid lies on the bed. Dong Fang Qing Cang used one hand to support to one's side and lowered body to press on her body. His other hand grabbed a strand of Little Orchid's hair and said in a soft voice, "Basing on your ability, would not dare charge straight to the boundary of the demon realm and was not scared? If there wasn't someone that can guarantee for you, you going anywhere would be pointless."

Little Orchid widened eyes completely and facial color was gloomy from the overcast of Dong Fang Qing Cang. She did not dare to respond.

Then suddenly her strand of hair throbbed in pain from the temples as Dong Fang Qing Cag pulled on her strand of hair, "Who told you to leave ben zuo?"

He pulled to the greatest degree; Little Orchid was in pain to the point of mouth distorting. In the end, could not endure it anymore, so she shouted at him, "So what I have left?!" She recalled the causes and effects. Heart was angry and frustrated. The strand of hair throbbing in pain at the temples reminded her of the various actions of this repulsive person in front of her. Little Orchid peered at him in fury, "So what if I ran?! So what if I wanted to live?! So what if I don't want to die in your hands?!"

Only said several sentences and her voice suddenly choked. She felt that crying at this time was really not worthy and thus, she attempted to restrain the tears while questioning in a loud voice, "Don't tell me I have to obediently accept fate of being killed by you?! You want to revive Chi De woman, you want to finish off the ancient past. Must I be the stone that lined the streets and foot for you?! Right! You're strong, you are the only person in this world, the people of the three realms have to serve/host you, but how can you be so idiosyncratic like this, things that were buried felt unsatisfactory and couldn't let them be!"

After finishing the whole conversation, Little Orchid panted heavily. Eye sockets grew red and nose grew red, but still restrained from crying.

Dong Fang Qing Cang was briefly silent. When speaking out, voice was still icy-cold, but has a bit of irritation despite trying to hide yet still revealing, "Alright." He pulled the legs of Little Orchid that was covering the chest, "Ben zuo can guess whom..."

He would speak and would bring the hand to pull the sleeves of Little Orchid out, but before he can finish speaking, the moment her sleeve was lifted open, the bone orchid from inside suddenly sprouted two sharp branches that pierced Dong Fang Qing Cang's eyes. The movement was so fast and he subconsciously leaned his body to avoid it.

At the same time, there echoed the sound of Chi De woman's voice inside Little Orchid's head, "Run!"

The bone orchid halted turning into a dried rattan vine and shot toward the front like an arrow as it pierce straight into the ground near the door. A different rattan branch wrapped Little Orchid's hand and pulled her towards the door.

The voice of Chi De woman in a split second grew weaker than before by a lot, "Run, meet Chi Lin...the formation spell... Chi (Red) armor assemble..." After a few words, the sounds of Chi De woman disappeared.

Little Orchid suddenly sobered up and merely dare to shoot a glance out from the corner of the eyes at Dong Fang Qing Cang who over there covering his eyes. After that, the legs bent and ran toward the main hall.

Chi Lin was being locked up by Dong Fang Qing Cang at the main hall, but at this time, does not need to bother whether the matter of being locked up or setting free anymore as she has already turned her back from Dong Fang Qing Cang to escape and made a move toward him. She has to remember the formation spell that Chi De woman has taught her carefully, to meet Chi Lin, and then she can think (of something).

No matter if the situation became worse to what point, it would not be as terrible like right now.

Little Orchid took in breaths as she ran toward the main hall, but after running and running on forever, she discovered that the ground becoming twisted.

She knew that Dong Fang Qing Cang has begun to make it difficult for her.

The ground in the main hall rippled like waves. Little Orchid used a lot of her strength to rush toward the front. Even if Dong Fang Qing Cang caused the ground to curved and become rugged, she will still run like a circuit without stopping.

But the strangest thing was that she has truly rushed to the main hall at last.

When she saw Chi Lin, the cage that locked him in the main hall slowly turned rough and big. Surely Dong Fang Qing Cang has used his powers to congregate and slowly connect.

Chi Lin who is inside has discovered something was not right and stood up. He peered at the cage that was slowly being sealed and does not know what to do. Little Orchid saw this and gritted her teeth. She disregarded whether face was filled with sweats profusely as she shouted, "Chi Lin!"

The eyes of Chi Lin peered at Little Orchid from a small opening. She was not breathing well, but still shouted, "Chi (Red) armor! Chi...." Chi Lin widened his eyes and when the opening closed, at that moment the screeching voice of Little Orchid carried to his ears, "Chi armor transform!"

Does not know how many years of being in the dust as the seal (spell) suddenly stirred.

At this moment, Little Orchid seemed to hear the sounds of heartbeats, but it was her heart.

The cage that Dong Fang Qing Cang locked Chi Lin has completely been sealed as if a piece of fabric has covered everything inside. Little Orchid cannot see Chi Lin anymore. She kneeled on the ground while breathing fast and felt that this time...she has failed.

Can only overlook being bullied opprobriously by Dong Fang Qing Cang...

But at this time when she felt disappointed and discouraged, suddenly there was a wave of light that broke the powers of Dong Fang Qing Cang. Little Orchid's eyes shone and peered closely. The light was orange like the sunlight that dispels the darkness very early in the morning and slowly tears that protective screen, illuminating the eyes of Little Orchid.

Little Orchid opened her mouth. She suddenly glanced and saw the shadow of the person wearing black robes and has silver hair. He was like a ghost, flashing his body to arrive at Little Orchid's side. Yet, it was not like the usual times as he raised his hand to grab her. Naturally, before touching her wrist, Little Orchid was swiftly wrapped by that wave of light. After that, was pulled to the side.

These matters occurred merely within the blink of an eye. She was pulled away from Dong Fang Qing Cang by someone else and this person...

Little Orchid turned around to look.

The entire body of Chi Lin was in the orange light. She did not get to peer clearly at his face as the orange rays of light completely bundled him while a voice rang besides her ears, "Chi Lin has waited many years for master."

Little Orchid was stunned. Before she can return from the shock, the entire body of Chi Lin has completely disappeared while her body was enveloped tightly in a layer of armor. The sparkling aura was like the rays of life. Little Orchid knew, in the legends of the ancient times, those related to the Heavenly War God were recorded. Chi De woman was the person who was the closest with the sun in this entire world.

She...has worn Chi De woman's...armor.

"Shuo Feng...sword..." The voice of Chi De woman appeared inside Little Orchid's head once more, but this time was weaker than before like she has used all efforts to hold up.

Little Orchid turned around and saw the Shuo Feng that Dong Fang Qing Cang has tossed in the corner started to tremble and buzz.

The scabbard of the double-edged sword made from demonic snake was not enough to vanquish the freezing energy of Shuo Feng sword. The freezing energy caused the ground in the surroundings to form a thick layer of ice crystals.

Little Orchid stretched hand and that sword seemed to respond as within a blink of an eye, it flew toward Little Orchid's hand. She grabbed onto the sword hilt, yet the hand did not feel any sort of bitter-cold freezing energy. It was cool, obedient, and was not like the ancient heavenly sword resembling cool water of summer...

Little Orchid grabbed onto the scabbard. The moment before she was in contact with the scabbard, the armor immediately draped a thin layer of leather-skin to prevent the freezing energy on the sword from damaging her skin.

Shuo Feng was out of the scabbard and the freezing energy immediately occupied nearly more than half of the main hall.

Dong Fang Qing Cang on the side narrowed his eyes while peering at her. He did not disturb and also did not display any emotion with her movements.

The voice of Chi De woman inside Little Orchid's head weakly said one word "Fight", and then immediately disappeared.

Cannot hide, cannot avoid, and can only fight.

Little Orchid peered across at Dong Fang Qing Cang. She lifted the Shuo Feng sword up and pointed the tip of the sharp blade at his face, "Big devil, this time I will not run anymore." She said, "Wasn't it you who wanted to resurrect Chi De woman to battle again? She is unwilling to resurrect, then let me take her place."

Little Orchid displayed her strongest spirit and said, "Since you won't let me live, then I will risk it with you."

The Lin* armor has reappeared. Shuo Feng sword's frozen energy was assiduous. This was originally the scene that Dong Fang Qing Cang wanted to see.

*lín: phosphorus. The most common, nontoxic and odorless phosphorus is red phosphorus. I am assuming the author is referring to how it's a red armor. Feel free to comment below if you prefer me to call this phosphorus armor (lol) or red armor – Chocolatecosmos

However, the person in front right now was not the person of that year, so his heart had no feeling of sighing with sorrow when meeting an enemy. He merely narrowed his eyes and peered at Little Orchid attentively while his voice was strange, "Little flower demon, right now you are pointing a sword at ben zuo?"

Within the gushing hostile energy, the tip of Little Orchid's sword slightly shook.

But with Chi Lin armor, it quickly transmitted a strong force to support her wrist, causing Little Orchid to feel that she was strong. She forced herself to calm down and said, "Big devil, you knew about my original body?"

Dong Fang Qing Cang heard and pupils slightly moved, but he did not speak.

"I am an ancient orchid plant, I have the purpose of restoring the soul. You have known about it."

Dong Fang Qing Cang was still silent, but Little Orchid saw clearly the undulation on his face. She knew, he's silent not because of some other reasons, but due to admitting [it].

Little Orchid saw such and felt even more disappointed and discouraged, "Big devil, you always want to keep me inside this body not because of protecting me, not because of finding it unbearable to let me go, also was not because of pitying that I have turned into a lonely soul wandering all over the place. You want me to make this body turn lively. Is that not right?" The Chi Lin armor supported her wrist and caused the Shuo Feng sword in her hands to point in the direction of Dong Fang Qing Cang.

"You bought the bone orchid for me not because [you] were scared that there would be someone who would harm me at the demon realm, but that you have placed the soul of Chi De woman inside the bone orchid and wanted to borrow my energy to repair Chi De woman's soul."

Dong Fang Qing Cang did not speak. Translations brought to you by ChocolateCosmos Little Orchid breathed in a deep breath. In truth, before speaking directly with Dong Fang Qing Cang about these matters, in her heart she still hoped shamefully that Chi De woman was deceiving her, but currently, his silence was like a fateful slap. It popped and shattered completely any last hope in her heart.

Chi De woman did not deceive her. From before to now, the person who tricked her was Dong Fang Qing Cang.

From this time to another time, has never stopped to rest.

Little Orchid lowered her eyes and voice was weaker than before by a lot, "If I stayed forever in this body foolishly, this body will become lively and the soul of Chi De woman will get stronger by the days, but in the end, I will disappear in the xi rang and turn into a life fragment in this body, this matter... you also knew right?"

She was narrating, but in the end, tone cannot be compressed and so weakened, and was heard as if [she] was asking Dong Fang Qing Cang.

After waiting for a while and still did not hear his reply, Little Orchid's hand that held Shuo Feng sword tightened.

He wants to kill her. After experiencing so many things, because of his long-cherished desire, he still wants to kill her heartlessly.

"You are..." Her voice paused. When [she] lifted head to peer at Dong Fang Qing Cang, there was raging flames that surfaced within the eyes, "A bastard!" Her two hands held onto the hilt of the sword and stepped toward his direction.

Lifting the Shuo Feng sword over the head, Little Orchid used all of her strength to slice down. Dong Fang Qing Cang did not block, but when the Shuo Feng sword almost went downward toward the top of his head, "dong" a boundary suddenly appeared.

The freezing energy of Shuo Feng sword contacted the fiery boundary. The place the tip of the sword collided with the boundary would turned into flames at times and others would turn into ice crystals; blue and red interfered and turned into complex colors that glistened in Little Orchid's eyes.

Little Orchid gritted her teeth. Passing through the rays of light, [she] was angrily glowering at Dong Fang Qing Cang. He also peered at her silently. He cannot explain, and cannot oppose as what she has said was not wrong—he has planned it out that way.

Although he does not know whether planning it out like this was good or bad in the end. But in order to reach the goal, this way was the fastest and the most effective. Dong Fang Qing Cang followed his instincts and doing so was a natural way. Previously, he has never thought that if there was a day where Little Orchid knew the truth, after she asked him these things, after she exposed the selfish plan and attempts of his in front of him, he unexpectedly...did not know how to respond.

Conscience and morals, where are those?

In the ancient times, Dong Fang Qing Cang conveniently tossed many insipid things that bound the mortals. He was the demon king—his credo was that the strong one will become king and order was placed by the strong. Those that were puny will naturally be grasped and squeezed like a toy. Cannot blame anyone; can only blame that the person being played was not strong enough.

But "principles of living" that he has followed up to now suddenly shook slightly when hearing Little Orchid weakly exposed...He felt that those insipid conscience and morals that bound the mortals like were like a rope that tied his hand and caused him wavering, and even...felt guilty.

Peering out from the boundary, Little Orchid was angry, and so Dong Fang Qing Cang slightly shifted his eyes away.

At the same time, he lightly raised hand and the powers spread out. The force was gentler by quite a lot compared with the times when he killed the demonic creature congregated from the outside, "Want to live peacefully for the remaining days then be obedient for ben zuo."

He said such words and thought that the strength on his hands was enough to push Little Orchid out, but currently, Little Orchid was wearing the Chi Lin armor. She received the powers of Dong Fang Qing Cang, yet did not falter. She gritted her teeth as she sliced down on his boundary as if seeking out revenge.

Dong Fang Qing Cang was somewhat distracted faintly and in heart, was subconsciously resentful with his authority being challenged. Perhaps he was unsettled, guilty with Little Orchid, but he was still the strong ancient demon king who always did not allow anyone to resist.

He raised his hands and the demonic strength spread out more strongly than before. Its strength exploded and pushed Little Orchid to stagger. The Shuo Feng sword withdrew and Little Orchid raised her head up and almost collapses down, but the armor transformed into boots, letting her steps stabilize.

"Do not challenge the patience of ben zuo." Dong Fang Qing Cang said, "Let go of Shuo Feng sword."

As if Little Orchid would agree to let go of Shuo Feng sword. Dong Fang Qing Cang narrowed his eyes and waved his hand. A force hit strongly on the wrist of Little Orchid. Even if there was the Chi Lin armor to protect, but she still felt the pain to the bones and her hand shook. The five fingers lost strength and almost toss Shuo Feng sword to the ground.

Little Orchid hugged the wrist and peered at Dong Fang Qing Cang while in the eyes were anger, frustration, and discontentment. Dong Fang Qing Cang peered at her and then looked at the Shuo Feng sword, "Be obedient, and do not let ben zuo say this for the third time."

"Obediently wait for death?"

Little Orchid already cannot say what she was feeling. Clearly did not take action, but her breathing still have the feeling of being affected and such feelings rused forward, "Dong Fang Qing Cang." She called his name word by word, "You do not know there's a saying that rabbits when pressured will still bite?"

She switched the hand that held Shuo Feng sword while the injured hand was used for support as she lifted the sword to her neck while she glared at him, "Let me go, or else that desire of yours will die along with my life."

Dong Fang Qing Cang furrowed his brows, "Cannot fight so begin to throw a tantrum?"

Little Orchid did not respond.

He laughed coldly, "Ben zuo will listen to your threat?"

Little Orchid did not bother to speak and was determined to really have Shuo Feng sword slash her neck. The fresh blood flowed out from her pale neck and flowed down to her lapel and splashed on her shoulders.

Little Orchid was in pain to the point of face paling. The wound that Shuo Feng sword created was not merely a simple wound as there was the frozen energy that rushed inside the blood, permeated the body and caused the blackening of the lips. The entire body began to tremble and only the eyes still gazed at Dong Fang Qing Cang and the voice was like a small animal that does not give up, "So let this be."

Little Orchid thought that she rather died by her own hand than die by Dong Fang Qing Cang's hand. She rather ruined this body than allow him to ruin the body. If right now he does not let her have an easy time, then both sides should not live peacefully.

When she died, if the soul is fortunate to fly to the underworld and enter the reincarnation cycle, then this life will not see master anymore. If unfortunate, then the soul will turn to ash and scatter...

Then that's just that. Translations brought to you by ChocolateCosmos

Thinking back and forth, dying now is easier and simpler than living by a lot. She used strength on her hand and the edge of the sword slashed her neck deeper, causing the fresh blood to flow out more and appeared to dye half of her body.

Dong Fang Qing Cang saw the blood of Little Orchid and was temporarily frozen. This little flower demon from before has been scared of death and pain and was extremely inferior... yet dared to hold the sword and really slice one's neck...

Seeing the blood at her neck continued to flow more and more, her body was also tilting and appeared to be falling as if it could not withstand anymore.

At this time, Dong Fang Qing Cang suddenly returned [to reality] and pupils narrowed while body moved.

Dong Fang Qing Cang wanted to steal Shuo Feng sword from Little Orchid's hand, but when coming closer, Little Orchid suddenly drew out Shuo Feng sword and the edge of the sword mixed with her blood stabbed strongly toward the front, piercing firmly into Dong Fang Qing Cang's heart.

The frozen energy of Shuo Feng sword combined. Within the days and months that were endless, in the deep memories of Dong Fang Qing Cang, there was a scene that was followed by pain that the injury brought forth, slowly appearing...

The scenery of his heart being pierced by this sword that Chi De woman used appeared. It seemed to have overlapped with the current scenery inside the head; yet, the person in front changed appearance.

It was not the majestic, ostentatious God of War in front, but it was a puny, weak female in front of him that he has disparaged a lot. Yet, due to fate's teasing, she was protected by him from time to the next one.

Dong Fang Qing Cang peered at Little Orchid and saw the surprise in her eyes and did not dare to believe face of hers. At this time, he shifted his gaze and peered at Little Orchid's arm that held Shuo Feng sword. It was tightened with several rattan vines and the rattan vines even wrapped her fingers very tightly. He shifted his eyes and saw that Little Orchid's neck was still bleeding. The blood flowed into her lapel while the rattan vines also sprouted from the lapel.

It...was the blood of Little Orchid that has nourished the soul of Chi De woman inside the bone orchid or so...

Thus...that female used this sword to pierce the same spot on his body.

But does not know why, this time the hatred and discontentment in his heart were not billowing like before. He peered at the alarmed face of Little Orchid and looked at the pair of black eyes and pale face of hers...

He knew, if he didn't inadvertently, relying on the current Chi De woman, even if several bone orchids were controlled, would not caused him to sustain that much damage.

It was he inadvertently, seeing the body with blood flowing endlessly. It was he who couldn't resistant to inadvertently.

He, towards that little flower demon...

Dong Fang Qing Cang extended hand to squeeze Little Orchid's neck.

At this time, the body of Little Orchid has lost so much blood and when pushed, it has already fallen immediately.

She was pressed strongly by Dong Fang Qing Cang and wanted to toss Shuo Feng sword, but could not withdraw. She saw the blood from his chest flowed along the edge of the sword then to the sword hilt and then dyed her hand red.

Dong Fang Qing Cang squeezed her neck and within the pair of red eyes bore herself being fearful. Little Orchid opened her mouth, but could not say anything. She thought he wanted to kill her.

But in the end, the hand of Dong Fang Qing Cang did not tighten and his body tilted to the side and fell to the ground.

Little Orchid held onto the Shuo Feng sword and pulled the sword toward the back. When the sword left Dong Fang Qing Cang's chest, it produced a swish sound. The sound was sharp as if it could cut Little Orchid's skin. It caused her to become unable to refrain from crying out in alarm.

After withdrawing the Shuo Feng sword, the chest of Dong Fang Qing Cang slowly became frozen and his breathing halted as it congregated into white mist in the atmosphere. The lashes also slowly turned into frost.

Little Orchid opened her mouth, but inside the head rang the voice of Chi De woman, "Little Orchid, go."

Little Orchid was motionless.

Chi De woman anxiously said, "Has not injured the center (vascular area) of the ancient demon king. With the strength of the demon king, only need to replenish one night and will awake. Why won't you take this opportunity to run?"

She should take this opportunity to run...

At this time, the ground suddenly shook or rather it was not the ground that trembled as it was the palace congregated from the powers of Dong Fang Qing Cang that began to shake. With no powers of Dong Fang Qing Cang to support, this palace originally would not exist.

The trembles grew larger and within only a few moments, the entire palace will completely collapse and fall apart!

The body of Dong Fang Qing Cang lied on an unsteady pile of stones. These stones were from the sacrificial hall of the demon realm that Dong Fang Qing Cang has destroyed before. Dong Fang Qing Cang lied on top and was paralyzed like this pile of inanimate stones.

Little Orchid was thrown down to the side, but she was protected by the armor and thus did not get injured.

Chi De woman called her. The voice was like a reason that remained in her head and was speaking with her, "Little Orchid, you have to leave Dong Fang Qing Cang, and you also have to leave this body. He is not someone who is good to you. Also is not someone worthy of you being attached to."

Correct, until just now, Dong Fang Qing Cang still told her to obediently stay, waiting until she turn into a strand of life that mixed into the body. He wants to harm her.

He is not someone appropriate, how to send away the heart?

Little Orchid gritted her teeth and used both hands and feet to crawl up and leave the debris. Currently, the palace of Dong Fang Qing Cang was exactly like the other places of the demon realm.

Ragged and dreary, dilapidated and ruined.

Da Yu hovered in the sky and saw that the situation was not good and hurriedly landed. It saw that Dong Fang Qing Cang was lying on the pile of dilapidated stones and immediately used body to wrap around him. After turning around, it saw that Little Orchid on the side was crawling down from the debris and ran toward the boundary of the demon realm. It was worried and hissed out loud.

But Little Orchid did not glance at it.

She ran incessantly toward the boundary within the screams of Da Yu.

She was afraid that she would halt her steps and heart will softened for Dong Fang Qing Cang. She was afraid she would worry that Dong Fang Qing Cang will be attack by the demon realm people and footsteps would not be able to move. She was scared that she would really lower herself, and willingly...endure death due to Dong Fang Qing Cang's desire.

Chapter 90: Chapter 67

After arriving in front of the demon realm boundary, the deep ditch that Dong Fang Qing Cang's powers created still remained, but at this time could not block the footsteps of Little Orchid.

She borrowed momentum from running up as she leaped and used the support of the Chi Lin armor. Unexpectedly, she gently jumped across the deep ditch. Standing in front of the boundary, Little Orchid turned around. The black-colored energy of the demon realm slowly condensed in the sky. Toward the dilapidated palace hall, there were only the cries of Da Yu that reverberated through the horizon.

The voice of Chi De woman echoed inside the head. Little Orchid turned head around and peered at the boundary in front, chanting out sounds that followed the voice of Chi De woman.

In merely moments, the boundary of the demon realm slowly opened. Within the darkness, slowly there were rays of light like stars penetrating and slowly condensed into a door that was big enough for one person to pass.

"Go, Little Orchid."

Little Orchid gritted her teeth and did not turn head back anymore as she stepped into the boundary of the demon realm.

Following the light in front for a portion, the surrounding darkness slowly withdrew. Different from the sunlight of the demon realm, the sunlight outside was mild and warm. The atmosphere was also not constrained or gloomy.

But Little Orchid's feelings were not becoming bright like the surrounding scenery.

After completely stepping away from the darkness and the boundary door closed, she turned around to look back. From behind, there was no boundary of the demon realm anymore and only the normal ground filled with wildflowers and wild grass. Aside from the surroundings being more peaceful than the other places of the mortal realm, it was not that any different.

She has truly left the demon realm and finally escaped from Dong Fang Qing Cang.

With the heart loosening, Little Orchid's feet softened as she sat on the ground.

She raised her hand to rub on the neck area that was sticky with the frozen energy of the Shuo Feng sword, which permeated into her injury. Little Orchid originally thought that her hand will be filled with ice crystals, but did not expect that her injury was still soft skin. It's only from before that has slashed too deeply and the flesh protruded outward. Little Orchid felt carefully and discovered that the body was not too cold and the blood on the neck has stopped flowing.

The injury...

Was not as heavy as she had imagined.

"Little Orchid, cannot delay anymore." The voice of Chi De woman rang inside the head, "When Dong Fang Qing Cang has awakened, he will definitely foresee that you want to go to the Heavenly realm. Even though right now he is injured, but strength still cannot be underestimated. Perhaps the people of the demon realm cannot hold him at this time. You have to go to the Heavenly realm and quickly tell the people of the Heavenly realm to prepare."

What Chi De woman said was correct; Little Orchid knew she does not have time to waste in other matters.

Little Orchid patted her face and used the Shuo Feng sword to support herself up, "I do not have powers. Can you teach me a way to get to the Heavenly realm?"

"I can teach you Yu Jian Shu (sword surfing) spell."

Little Orchid was originally a celestial being and so, learned the magic spell quite fast. Within a while bit, she can already stand on Shuo Feng sword and fly zigzagged up. Only need to be able to fly and arriving at the Heavenly realm won't be too difficult. With the assistance of Shuo Feng sword and Chi Lin armor, Little Orchid only needed to move the mind and the figure immediately turned into a wave of light as she catapulted straight to the Heavenly realm like an arrow that left its bow.

In Jiuchongtian (another name for Heavenly realm), there was the familiar sunlight she remembered, her master, a life where she does not have to worry each night about killing and finding a way to survive, also is not despise and sneered by Dong Fang Qing Cang, and doesn't need to calculate and manipulate.

Previously, each time [she] has read the fate writings her master wrote, she always looked forward to going down to the mortal realm for a journey, but after really going down to the mortal realm, she felt that this experience was truly terrible. If there was a possibility, she merely hopes to be a potted orchid on Siming xingjun's windowsill for the remaining life of hers. Each day would only do things like sunbathing, sprinkling in dew, and listening to master narrating matters of the world.

Shuo Feng sword went at rapid speed. In Little Orchid's head, there was still a stream of uninformed thoughts yet she has arrived at Jiuchongtian. Passing by Nantianmen (Southern Heaven Gates), the Heaven's guardsmen saw her and wanted to halt her, but perhaps Little Orchid has become accustomed to the movements of Dong Fang Qing Cang as she felt that the movements of the two people here were too slow.

She felt urgency as she wanted to see master and originally did not want to mix with the two people. Shuo Feng sword did not halt and passed through them. The Heaven's guardsmen did not even get to react as the frozen energy Little Orchid left behind made them tremble.

The two people were stunned and peered at one another, "Just now, which immortal was that?"

"Did not see clearly ah..."

"The energy on her is a little strange ah. Still should report to the above."

Little Orchid did not worry about the matter of causing many immortals to feel scared along the way and also did not mind what everyone commented from behind her. At this time, she was only anxious in finding master. Standing in front of Siming xingjun's residence, Little Orchid stopped at the door and peered at the familiar door. She stepped down from Shuo Feng sword and could not describe completely what kind of feeling she has.

She pushed the door and the familiar energy in the courtyard still remained.

Remembering from the past when the people of the demon realm resurrected the demon king and bravely attacked the Heavenly realm in a blasphemous way, the entire Heavenly realm became chaotic. She waited for quite a long time, but she did not see master returning and so, went outside to search. After finding master within the chaos, the master said that this time she would go find her male!

At that time, Little Orchid felt that she was being neglected. Her heart felt wronged and she angrily went down to the mortal realm.

She originally thought she was only angry and went down to the mortal realm to play and it won't be for long when master will find her. After that, sweet words will coax her to return, but did not expect after the dudou shifting, she has went a large circle outside by herself.

The moment after stepping past the door, Little Orchid felt that she was like a child who was kidnapped for many years and went through a painfully long journey. In the end, smoothly came back home.

This road was truly boundless with no words that can speak it all ah!

After walking several steps in the courtyard and seeing the familiar scenery while smelling the familiar smell, frustrations that were pent up in the heart finally surged to the eye sockets. After that, turned into whirling tear droplets that trickled down, "Master..."

She distorted her mouth to cry and voice called out, but no one responded. Little Orchid thought that Siming was still napping inside the room like before.

But when she pushed the room's door open and peered around the surroundings, the stuff in the room was already cleaned up...It was not a normal type of cleanliness...

It was no chair remaining, no table remaining, and even the cabinet bed did not remained.

Little Orchid was startled in front of the deserted room and was scared, but also did not forget to continue crying. Continued to recount the frustrations and hardships of hers within the past time. She peered at the surroundings. The room was originally not large. Due to not having any furniture, it turned into an extraordinary emptiness.

Little Orchid stepped toward and stood at the front of the window that Siming would often lower her head over the desk and took up the paintbrush. She used her fingertips to gently sweep across the window. A layer of dust instantly stuck to the fingers.

There was no one inside the house.

Siming xingjun.. has disappeared.

Little Orchid immediately did not know what to do. She peered around the terrifying empty room and the frustrations in the heart transformed into helpless panic.

"Master...huhu...master?" Little Orchid thought that she has went to the wrong place and ran hurriedly in a staggering manner to peer outside the window. The nameplate of Siming's official post still remained, which proved that she did not go to the wrong place.

But did not went to the wrong place, so where did master went...

Little Orchid was feeling urgent and ran back out and back in several times, yet still could not admit that her master has disappeared.

Yet at this time, there suddenly appeared movement from a distance. Little Orchid turned her head around to look. The Crane fairy, who stood on the side of the Heavenly emperor, arrived. He was still like before—appearance was tidy, clothing style remained the same, and demeanor as so, firm.

Seeing Little Orchid, the Crane fairy made a scowling expression, but seeing the armor and Shuo Feng sword in her hand, the Crane fairy became shocked. Within the eyes held surprise, "Celestial orchid spirit." He hurriedly went several steps forward, "You..."

He peered at Little Orchid from top to bottom. The injury on her neck was still there and on the body there were dried bloodstains.

The Crane fairy was dazed for a while, "Where have you gone? What happened? Where did you get the armor and sword?"

Little Orchid was also dazed as she peered at the Crane fairy. She did not answer his questions and only pointed at the empty courtyard while asking more questions than the Crane fairy, "Where did my master go? Where has she gone ah? How come the room was tidied up cleanly? She has moved residences? She has eloped with her male or so..." Asking up to that last question, the voice of Little Orchid could not refrain from trembling, "She...doesn't need me anymore ah?"

After she finished speaking, despairing tears from the pair of big eyes splattered to the ground.

The crying appearance of Little Orchid previously has always been extremely pitiful.

The Crane fairy was briefly silent and can only push aside his questions first, "Siming xingjun was determined to be with the ancient dragon demon...But the ancient dragon demon is a great threat to the three realms, therefore...currently, the Heavenly emperor has ordered the imprisonment of Siming xingjun and the ancient dragon demon in Wan Tian Zhi Xu."

"Wan Tian Zhi Xu?" Little Orchid was dumfounded, "How can...how can...how can you guys imprison her ah, my master is a good person..."

"It's due to Siming xingjun's willingness to be imprisoned with the ancient dragon demon in Wan Tian Zhi Xu."

Little Orchid's face was empty.

Willing? In other words...

"Master really doesn't need me anymore?"

Seeing her appearance of a lost soul, the Crane fairy coughed several times and then spoke, "You...I shall bring you to see Emperor first."

Little Orchid did not care who the Crane fairy wanted her to see. Right now she was awakened by reality. In the confused head, constantly repeated one sentence—her master does not need her anymore.

Siming xingjun does not need Little Orchid anymore.

The kidnapped child after experiencing hundreds, thousands of bitterness has returned home. In a brief moment, has suddenly turned into a wandering child that someone has abandoned...the drifting child...

The ups and downs of life's sadness and happiness are really large...

The Crane fairy brought Little Orchid into the Heavenly Emperor's palace hall. Not when she was finally in front of the Heavenly Emperor, Little Orchid was still not awake. Besides her, the Crane fairy coughed rampantly. At this time, Little Orchid's pair of empty eyes imprinted the silhouette of the Heavenly Emperor who sat at the highest position of the palace.

In the Heavenly palace (temple), the officials of the Heavenly realm were present. The current Heavenly realm's God of War Moxi along with general's soldiers and even his wife Sansheng were standing at the location that was originally Siming xingjun's position.

The gazes of everybody focused on her. Everybody peered at her. The faces were different—there was astonishment, and there was vacancy.

The Heavenly Emperor who also peered at Little Orchid and furrowed his brows while his face was solemn.

"Celestial orchid spirit, where did you get the sword and armor?"

Correct, she still to do the main part. Little Orchid took in a deep breath and tried to suppress all emotions in her heart as she spoke, "Stolen from the place of big devil... from the place of Dong Fang Qing Cang." When she finished speaking, the main palace hall became clamorous.

Translator(Real): I kept the naming of the Heaven's place as Jiuchongtian (Ninth Heaven) and the translated name of the Crane fairy per Sansheng's story which is the first novel in this xian xia series of Jiu Lu Fei Xiang (from Hamster's translation).

I wanted to talk about Siming in particular. Originally, I thought of summarizing the ending of Siming (the novel) or translating the last chapter, but I realized this chapter of DK explained the main part of what happened to her. I just wanted to add more details to Siming's background below.

At the end of the Siming novel, there was a confrontation between Siming xingjun, ancient dragon demon/being Chang Yuan, and the Heavenly Emperor. The Heavenly Emperor proclaimed that Chang Yuan is a threat to the three realms as he is a dragon from the ancient times. The next chapter of DK will elaborate on this briefly. In a nutshell, before there was more tension between the confrontations, Sansheng arrived to the main hall and shouted that the demon realm people are attacking. This ensued chaos that was mentioned and the Heavenly realm folks have to ward off the demon realm's attacks. When they did succeed, Chang Yuan asked Siming if she wanted to go with him as a companion in Wan Tian Zhi Xu just like the old times. In the Siming novel, the two of them met at Wan Tian Zhi Xu before the main story began. Siming then agreed to go with him and both of them reside there. I know this is major spoiler for those who want to read Siming in the future hence the spoiler tag. As a reader of the author's works, the author herself rarely writes sad endings for majority of her novels so you often see the MC ends up with the ML in her novels. Siming didn't really abandon Little Orchid, she's the ride or die kind of person when faced with these particular events and decisions at hand and so, ended up in a different place. Also, the situation wasn't being favorable to her beloved Chang Yuan and that a particularly character was being a buttface to the two of them 😊
