Chapter 91: Chapter 68

The heavenly palace became silent. The various heavenly officials were also silent and there was only her voice.

Little Orchid lowered head and peered on the ground. Word by word, she recounted softly everything that she has experienced in that period of time. She truncated the unclearness between her and Dong Fang Qing Cang's entanglement, but no matter how she truncated, within that period of time the person she interacted the most was Dong Fang Qing Cang. Every matter of hers also revolves around him, leaving her with a deep impression that naturally no one else, but he could.

The various matters that she has experienced in the period of time have the participation of Dong Fang Qing Cang. Even if she did not say, cannot refrain from remembering such sceneries incessantly inside the head.

The places that have went, the times they quarreled, and even the times when occasionally "the bodies contacted". With the cloud brick rows of the heavenly palace under the foot of the faintly discernible dense mist, Little Orchid seemed to have seen herself and Dong Fang Qing Cang at that time in the screen of mist. She finished telling everything while in the head [she has] reflected upon the various memories in the period of time. After that, she was silent.

The atmosphere in the heavenly palace also grew taciturn. No one spoke up. Little Orchid lifted her head and discovered that the various celestial immortals were surprised or dazed for quite a long, deep time. In the end, the Heavenly Emperor spoke up, "According to the words you have said, where is Chi De woman currently?"

Little Orchid rubbed the bone orchid, "Inside this bone orchid." After that, she placed Shuo Feng sword down. At the time when she was thinking about how to remove the Chi Lin armor, Chi Lin's mind seemed connected with hers and rays of light shone and then withdrew. It seemed that battle has spent a lot of his energy as this time, Chi Lin did not transform into a human figure and was still an armor that lay on the ground.

"Sword, armor, and her soul; everything is here." Little Orchid finished speaking and discovered that with the addition of her xi rang body, everything that Dong Fang Qing Cang was searching from before was at her place.

She lifted head to peer at the Heavenly Emperor. Different from the previous time with fear from his imposing appearance, she currently dared to stare straight in the eyes of the Heavenly Emperor. After all, when thinking carefully, everyone here did not have the sinister gaze that caused others to fear like Dong Fang Qing Cang. Even she was not fearful of the big devil and so, in this world was there anything to fear anymore...

The Heavenly Emperor shifted his eyes across the various things Little Orchid has placed on the ground and then was briefly silent until he asked, "Currently, the demon king is seriously injured at the demon realm?"

Little Orchid was briefly dazed, blinked, and then remembered the appearance of Dong Fang Qing Cang lying on the pile of debris before she left. After that, she nodded, "But does not know when he will wake up and come, everyone has to be on their guard..."

Before [she] finished speaking, Heavenly Emperor waved his hand and interrupted her words, "In the ancient times, when the deities seized the opportunity when Dong Fang Qing Cang was injured to behead him. Currently, cannot let go of such opportunity. Moxi." The Heavenly Emperor lowered his voice and said, " You go mobilize ten thousand heavenly soldiers, immediately set off to the demon realm, and behead Dong Fang Qing Cang."

Moxi accepted the order and turned around to leave the heavenly palace.

The celestial immortals do not have any objections. Only the gaze of Sansheng followed the silhouette of Moxi, but still did not oppose.

In the eyes of the heavenly immortals, this time was really a great opportunity to kill Dong Fang Qing Cang. The demon king's resurrection was still a boulder that hung in the various celestial immortals' heart. If it did not get rid of, then cannot assure the heart. If it was the previous Little Orchid, then the heart will also rejoice as the heavenly realm still has God of War Moxi that can eradicate the big devil for the peace of the three realms.

At this time, seeing the steady footsteps of Moxi left the heavenly realm. In the heart of Little Orchid, she did not know why she was briefly disconcerted, "Wait, please wait..." Little Orchid shouted and everyone peered at her. She stifled a bit and then said, "Really...really just need to defend the heavenly realm will be enough..."

The Heavenly Emperor furrowed his brows, "Not eradicating Dong Fang Qing Cang, the next day will definitely turned into calamity and chaos for the three realms. This matter cannot be delayed."

Little Orchid quivered her mouth; cannot say anymore.

When Moxi has left, the gaze of the Heavenly Emperor shifted across Little Orchid's body, "As for you, body is xi rang, an artificial body, and such is defiant against the natural order. This body should not be in the three realms."

Little Orchid heard this and she bewilderedly lifted her head to peer at the Heavenly Emperor. The celestial immortals also became clamorous and discussed but were scared of the Heavenly Emperor's imposing authority and thus, the celestial immortals were keeping their silence temporarily.

The Heavenly Emperor continued to speak, "Ancient orchid was originally a plant that has disappeared from the world. While you have the abnormal ability to repair souls. Also cannot stay in the three realms. Has to be wiped out from the three realms to avoid the aftermath."

Such words were too heavy, but the Heavenly Emperor said them very smoothly, causing Little Orchid to understand the intent by each word, but did not understand the intent from the sentences.

She foolishly peered at Heavenly Emperor with a vacant expression.

In the end, Sansheng who stood among the officials could not endure it and spoke, "Little Orchid did nothing wrong. The xi rang body of hers may not be needed, but handling it fairly, at the most, bring her soul to the reincarnation wheel. Wiping out from the three realms is a punishment of the soul dispersing and scattering. She did not commit a large crime and has even caused Dong Fang Qing Cang to be seriously injured. Has helped the heavenly realm this much with that matter. Your Heavenly Majesty is petty. Granted that she did not get an award, fine. Yet, why kill her?"

The Heavenly Emperor coldly shot a glance at Sansheng. Sansheng felt that what she has said was not wrong anywhere and also coldly peered at the Heavenly Emperor.

"Ancient orchids have disappeared from the world for a long time, but she still remained and that is a defiance of the natural order. Whether the soul has dispersed or not has to rely on the heaven's fate. She has the abnormal ability to repair the souls, which is also against the natural order. In the three realms, people who scheme are not only Dong Fang Qing Cang. Today the heavenly realm can eradicate one Dong Fang Qing Cang, yet cannot say there won't be a second Dong Fang Qing Cang or a third that will scheme and desire her abnormal ability to do evil deeds. If she is not removed, then how to eradicate the aftermath?"

Sansheng frowned, "Eradicating aftermath again. You imprisoned Siming and the big black dragon into Wan Tian Zhi Xu to eradicate aftermath. You want to kill Little Orchid to eradicate aftermath, but clearly they did not do anything. Your Heavenly Majesty is not speaking reasonably."

"Do my fellow officials feel that this matter I am not speaking reasonably?"

The officials were briefly silent. The old man with the white beard that stood besides Sansheng spoke up first, "To let Your Majesty worry for people of the three realms, that is reasonable. Lady Sansheng," The old man lamented, "You're too stubborn."

Fundamentally not allowing Sansheng to have the opportunity to speak, the celestial officials all nodded and many clearly agreed with the reasoning of the Heavenly Emperor.

Little Orchid stood in the middle of the main hall, and there was no Chi Lin armor on her body that was originally fragile. The fresh blood on her body has already dried and turned into dark red streaks that exaggerated her difficult situation more.

For the celestial immortals that were present, there wasn't anyone who didn't nod with the Heavenly Emperor's reasoning of killing her. This caused her to feel that she who stood here was a laughable joke.

She felt like a speck of dust—living or dying, from start to end, was not hers to decide.

Dong Fang Qing Cang wanted her to die and she felt unjust, but it was not easy to escape. When she arrived at the heavenly realm, she thought that here there will be master, but master is no more. She thought that the people here would help her and let her continue to live, but...

They also want her to die.

Better off dying in Dong Fang Qing Cang's hand. Inside Little Orchid's heart there suddenly rose this kind of thought. At least, she can understand why she died at his place.

"Crane fairy." The Heavenly Emperor coldly called. The Crane fairy understood and walked toward Little Orchid.

The expression of the Crane fairy was that [he] cannot bear to, but in the end suppressed the feeling. Sansheng to the side wanted to come forward and stop it, but she held back unexpectedly by the old man with the white beard on the side.

The Crane fairy stood in front of Little Orchid. Little Orchid lifted her head to peer at him. Within the pair of wet eyes was extreme emptiness. The Crane fairy shifted his eyes away and was prepared to tie up Little Orchid, but at this time, the bone orchid from Little Orchid's wrist suddenly moved!

It sprouted out a rattan vine that wrapped Little Orchid's hand and the other end transformed into a thorn that pierced toward the direction of the Crane fairy.

The voice of Chi De woman rang inside Little Orchid's head, "I cannot control the bone orchid for long. Little Orchid, wear Chi Lin armor and we will go."

But Little Orchid did not speak.

The powers of the bone orchid and the Crane fairy collided. The powers' strength was extremely strong. It caused Little Orchid to fell down and sat on the cloud bricks of the heavenly palace. The clouds and mist swirled around her body. She asked Chi De woman as if asking her own self, "Where can I go anymore..."

Dong Fang Qing Cang wants to kill her. The celestial immortals of the heavenly realm want to kill her. The courtyard that she called her home was empty. The master that she considered as her closest person was no more. Where she can possibly go anymore, in this world was there a place that the people of the heavenly realm and Dong Fang Qing Cang cannot find?

Chi De woman was silent. At this time, a golden formation spell suddenly wrapped around Little Orchid. Outside the golden formation spell was the imposing face of the Heavenly emperor that did not leave any path of negotiations. The Heavenly Emperor waved his hand and the formation spell lifted up the entire body of Little Orchid.

"Little Orchid..."

"They want to kill me..." Little Orchid covered her ears unexpectedly as she did not want to hear the other words.

She felt that her body was being slowly pulled by the formation spell. The eyes of the celestial immortals in the heavenly palace also streaked across in front of her. Little Orchid knew that she was being pulled away from the heavenly palace by the strength of this formation spell, but did not know where she was being pulled. Of course, she only needed to understand this fact...

"They want to kill me."

In the voice of Little Orchid there contain no crying tone, but hoarseness as if being torn to shreds, "Like what the Heavenly Emperor has said, my disappearance is for the best? I don't have a reason to live?"

Chi De woman was dead silent, and powerless as [she] could not answer the questions of Little Orchid.

In terms of the grand scheme, Heavenly Emperor spoke reasonably. But everyone has his or her own intention, and Chi De woman also has her own intention. If not, she would not go to this step. She would not used the soul to settle in the mortal realm and even more would not protect Little Orchid at this time...

The intention of Chi De woman was not small.

The strength that pulled Little Orchid suddenly weakened.

Little Orchid felt warmth in front of her. Her gaze discovered there was the surrounding circling air rushing toward. The golden formation spell withdrew its whole self. Little Orchid peered at the surroundings and immediately knew where she was.

Zhu Xian Tai (Terrace).

The Heavenly Emperor wanted to push her down Zhuxian Terrace.

Under Zhuxian Terrace were the cruelest murderous energies in the three realms. Even if it were a highly respected celestial immortal that fell down, would not be able to escape. This was truly a place that was the best to tear away her body and caused her soul to disperse and scatter.

Little Orchid peered at the billowing violating energy underneath and heart subconsciously surfaced fear—a fear with death and despair with this situation. She turned around to look back and there was no one behind, but there was a golden formation spell that congregated into a wall. That wall moved toward the front and slowly pressed against Little Orchid's back. After that, it pushed and pushed her...

About to fall down Zhuxian Terrace...

Love Between Fairy And Devil (Completed) Chapter 92 - Chapter 69

Chapter 92: Chapter 69

The evil violating energies under Zhuxian Terrace surged up and pierced the skin, causing Little Orchid extreme pain.

The wound that was supposed to slowly heal on the neck appeared to be tear by the violating energies and blood trickled out.

Little Orchid was being pushed by the wall from the spell. The bone orchid is on her wrist and the soul of Chi De woman is still inside the bone orchid. It seems that the Heavenly Emperor not only wanted her soul to disperse and scatter, even Chi De woman the Heavenly Emperor also did not spare...

The spell behind her suddenly turned into a strong force that pushed Little Orchid, causing her body to fly up and then fell straight into Zhuxian Terrace.

Little Orchid thought that her heart has already died. She thought that she was hopeless to the point of being able to endure the pain that the violating energies brought. She thought that she could calmly receive death.

But...

The violating energies stabbed her eyes and caused injury. When the pain tore her skin and with each episode of shredding and choking tension that collided in her chest, when she felt she was like a doll being tear by the sky after boredom and conveniently tossed away where no one cared if she was injured, in pain, or can live anymore...

Little Orchid suddenly felt that she couldn't endure from feeling wronged repeatedly...

She has struggled for so long. She has battled wits and valiance against Dong Fang Qing Cang. She has risked it and returned to the heavenly realm. She thought that this was her home. She wanted to find master because she thought that master was a close person to her, so...

In the end, everything was merely something she had imagined...

The violating energies pierced Little Orchid's heart and the ultra pain immediately crawled into the depth of the bone marrow. Little Orchid cannot grit teeth to endure the pain anymore. She opened her mouth and in the end cried out sounds.

But the sufferings won't lessen from that. On the contrarily, it continued to trample her body as if wanting to crush her body into dust. She cannot endure it and screamed out sounds, "Pain! So painful...Master...Master..."

The sunlight and various raindrops from before appeared inside the head while the whispers of Siming spoke besides her ears appeared: "She was willing to go to Wan Tian Zhi Xu..."

Siming was willing to go to Wan Tian Zhi Xu.

Master will not go out anymore. There won't be master and there won't be anyone to save her.

Everyone wants her to die, but before, she has experienced many things in order to live. It wasn't to return to the heavenly realm and endure death ah!

But at this time there was no one to save her...

Master will not come, big devil also...

Big devil also will not come.

Little Orchid covered her face. The body was in extreme pain and does not even have the strength to cry. She thought this time she will definitely die...

But at the time when Little Orchid completely tossed away the hope to live, suddenly her arm tensed up as a hand grabbed her arm from despair!

She was pulled up to the top and then an arm tightly wrapped around her waist while carrying strength and warmth that she was used to. Held her in embrace, used the warmth to cover her four limbs, and used strong strength to dispel away the violating energies in her body in order for her to escape the pain and hopelessness.

A hanging screen opened from the surroundings and halted the clamoring violating energies from outside in order for Little Orchid to fall into a strange, quiet atmosphere.

She was injured too much and bled too much. The entire body has no more strength. If not for the arm around the waist to support, she will unfortunately fall to her knees at this time.

Little Orchid tried with great effort to open eyes and wanted to look clearly at the person who came, but what was lamentable is that she discovered that at this time even her head couldn't move. Even if all strengths were used, can only hear that person gritted teeth and said besides the ears.

"This debt, ben zuo will slowly calculate with you."

Big devil...

It was he who saved her.

Clearly he was the person who schemed with her the most, but in the end, he was the person who saved her the most.

If there is a later, then she will give Dong Fang Qing Cang what he wants as it was something that he was able to save and originally should be his.

The head of Little Orchid was carried onto the shoulders of Dong Fang Qing Cang. She was like an injured animal with a cawing voice and sobs choked with emotions on his shoulders. Frustrations, derelict, and pain are not enough to describe what are contained in the sobbing.

She could not sob anymore as she has lost consciousness.

Dong Fang Qing Cang shifted his blood-red eyes and saw that Little Orchid's head shakily drooped down. An unknown flame of anger flared up and was stronger than even the violating energies under Zhuxian Terrace.

Escape! Very good, has the ability to escape, but does not have the ability to protect herself?!

Dong Fang Qing Cang did not speak clearly in his heart on what this feeling was in the end. He temporarily repressed everything and waved his right hand in order to motion the powers. Relying on the boundary that surrounded the body, [he] has to fight against the violet energies under Zhuxian Terrace that billowed and pulled him down, and has to quickly fly up to the top.

But the violating energies of Zhuxian Terrace has accumulated for thousand years, and wasn't something easy to oppose.

If it was the usual, perhaps Dong Fang Qing Cang can fight with the violating energies relaxingly, but right now he was injured by Shuo Feng sword and being able to wake up in a short period of time was a miracle. Don't even mention about having to motion a large force of powers like this.

In that moment, the chest of Dong Fang Qing Cang has freezing, cold energy that exuded. The injured spot where the sword has pierced of his has frozen ice crystals. To Dong Fang Qing Cang, this was clearly a very difficult matter.

But his expression has not changed and merely withdrew slowly the boundary of the body with no expression. In the end, has congregated a faint light that surrounded Little Orchid's body while his body was enveloped in violating energies, disregarding the violating energies that are like blades that slit his skin.

Such taste is really uncomfortable. Translationsfrombananachocolatecosmos.

Dong Fang Qing Cang peered at Little Orchid in the embrace. On face and on her body, it's all blood. Those immortals of the heavenly realm made a little flower demon, who is fearful of death, endure such pain? Does no one know how much effort he has expended in order to create this body?

No one knows how much effort he has to expend to raise such little flower demon until now?

When this little flower demon would schemed to escape all day and all night, when she would calculate each time and each second, when she suddenly pierced him with a sword. He! Clearly is the magnificent ancient demon king that repressed the feelings and did not kill her, but right now...

The mob at the heavenly realm dared to make a move against this little flower demon?

The flames of anger inside Dong Fang Qing Cang's heart seemed to have covered the violating energies of the surroundings. His hand tightened and the fiery sword appeared in the palm of the hand. He used his powers to congregate a sword, which naturally caused the body of Dong Fang Qing Cang to become colder several parts. But at this time, he appeared to have not felt it and hand grasped onto the sword while the pair of red eyes was filled with cold, hostile energy. He shouted and the magical power sword sliced down Zhuxian Terrace.

The strong powers cut the billowing violating energies underneath and cleaved out a path. The pull of the violating energies immediately lessens distinctively.

Dong Fang Qing Cang took this opportunity to shake the body and hugged Little Orchid as [he] instantly jumped on top. When his figure towered on top of Zhuxian Terrace, in front of Zhuxian Terrace were surrounded by ten thousands of heavenly soldiers. Above of the heavenly soldiers, the various immortals stood.

It was assumed that the heavenly realm desired to exert full power in order to deal with him.

Seeing Dong Fang Qing Cang brought up Little Orchid whose body was filled with blood and jumped out from Zhuxian Terrace, the immortals clamored. Everyone knew the strength of the demon king was profound and unfathomable. Even the Heavenly Emperor jumping down Zhuxian Terrace unfortunately cannot withdraw completely. While the demon king can bring an additional person up...

Previously, due to using too much powers, the eyebrows of Dong Fang Qing Cang at this time has formed white frost, causing his pair of eyebrows to become as white as the hair, but he seemed to not have mind his body's condition. Even if at this time, inside his mouth breathed out white frost completely, but his influencing energy will not lose to anyone.

The ten thousands of heavenly soldiers within his eyes were not scary at all.

He merely curved his mouth to smile and tone was still frivolous like usual, "Being able to follow ben zuo's steps, the heavenly world have trained their soldiers quite well." God of War Moxi wore a silver armor and was silent as he stood in front of the ten thousands of heavenly soldiers. Hearing Dong Fang Qing Cang say so, the God of War Moxi only smiled indifferently, "Demon king has overpraised." When the words ended, the silver sword that hung on the waist withdrew from its scabbard. The flash shot out rays of dazzling cold light. The hostile energy exuded out from the surrounding of the God of War Moxi's body.

Dong Fang Qing Cang saw such and slightly moved mouth to grin, revealing his sharp fangs, "You're quite interesting. Yet..." He shifted his pair of red eyes and landed on the body of the Heavenly Emperor standing behind the ten thousands of heavenly soldiers, "Today ben zuo is not idle to waste time with you."

The fiery sword pointed toward the Heavenly Emperor's direction, "You." The smile on the face of Dong Fang Qing Cang gradually disappeared, "Give ben zuo a reason for why this little flower demon was pushed down Zhuxian Terrace?"

Finished speaking, the celestial immortals were all bewildered. Cannot expect that the demon king interrogated the Heavenly Emperor with regards to why Little Orchid was pushed down Zhuxian Terrace?

He...cared about was something a little incorrect...

"Those who disobey the natural law must be killed." The Heavenly Emperor coldly said, "Orchid spirit is so, you are also."

Such words caused Dong Fang Qing Cang to laugh, but the smile caused others to feel chilly, "Great ah, ben zuo will see how you will kill ben zuo."

Not speaking anymore words, Dong Fang Qing Cang raised the sword in the hand and a strong flame that carried extremely strong hostile energy swept toward the direction of the Heavenly Emperor.

God of War Moxi saw such and furrowed his brows. He raised the sword in the hand and the heavenly soldiers immediately went into formation. The celestial immortals shouted and echoed as they gathered strength and combined strength with the heavenly soldiers to create an enormous protective screen in the atmosphere and halt the hostile energy of Dong Fang Qing Cang.

Dong Fang Qing Cang did not mind completely as he smiled coldly. The sword pierced strongly into Zhuxian Terrace and the red demonic symbol appeared between the eyebrows. Zhuxian Terrace immediately cracked several paths.

Discovering what he wanted to do, the celestial immortals were all startled, but could not halt in time. Dong Fang Qing Cang smiled sinisterly and evilly. He immediately withdrew the sword. Zhuxian Terrace quickly cracked and the rocks transformed into fine dust that rumbly fell down to the violating energies underneath.

Not having the Zhuxian Terrace to intercept as a protective screen, the violating energies underneath immediately surfaced and sliced into ten thousands of the heavenly soldiers present. The fighting energies flood and caused the violating energies under the terrace to suddenly increase like a tsunami that rose up and surge toward the direction of the heavenly realm's immortals.

The celestial immortals were terrified. Everyone hurriedly used magical weapons to resist against the violating energies. The God of War Moxi quickly instructed the heavenly soldiers to change formation, but within the short amount of time, the violating energies have filled everywhere.

Many of the celestial immortals have their heavenly powers reduced and were tear by the violating energies and thus, uttered out grating shrieks. Temporarily, the scene turned chaotic.

The Heavenly Emperor slightly changed color and has to use magical weapon in order to halt the violating energies that surfaced under Zhuxian Terrace.

Dong Fang Qing Cang stood amidst the violating energies and peered at the Heavenly Emperor while laughing coldly.

His pair of red eyes was covered by the violating energies and became more mysterious, causing others to have difficulties guessing the real strength of the current demon king. His silhouette slowly faded inside the curtain of violating energies that were gloomy and each time became more and more dense. There was only his voice that was like a ghostly silhouette that hovered in the atmosphere, "Disobey natural law? Ben zuo has disobeyed the natural law, what are you going to do to me?"

Love Between Fairy And Devil (Completed) Chapter 93 - Chapter 70

Under Zhuxian Terrace, violating energies billowed. The celestial immortals couldn't look after themselves and so no one has the strength to pay attention to Dong Fang Qing Cang anymore. Within a brief moment, when the heavenly armies and Dong Qing Cang and also the God of War left the violating energies, the energy of Dong Fang Qing Cang has disappeared within the scope of the heavenly realm since when.

He has escaped. The three realms are vast. Between the heaven and earth, there are many strange rifts. Does not know where Dong Fang Qing Cang is. When Dong Fang Qing Cang has recuperated, unfortunately later on will have difficulties finding opportunities to behead him....

The Heavenly Emperor peered at the violating energies that were still piercing the celestial immortals and furrowed his brows.

Little Orchid does not know how long she has slept. She only knew that she has dreamed and in the dream Siming said to her, "I don't need you anymore. You and the scoundrel Dong Fang Qing Cang can live and self-destruct together."

Compared to the usual times when seeing master being cold like this, Little Orchid did not cry. She merely stood dazedly at one place and peered foolishly at Siming. After hearing that Siming finished speaking, she brought her eyes to peer at the silhouette of Siming that went farther and farther away in the darkness.

She lowered head to look at her feet.

She did not stretch her hands out. She knew that when she brings her hands out, she could not hold master. She did not speak up because she knew that speaking up would only caused herself to resemble a play-animal that her master became bored with.

Even though [she's] a puny orchid spirit, she has self-respect and heart.

Little Orchid stood alone in the darkness for quite a long time. After that, she felt the cold nip in the air that soaked into the bones. She was freezing to the point of entire body trembling, but she still stood there and trembled. Trembling forever and trembling until [she] woke up.

After opening her eyes, Little Orchid saw rows of stars that hung on the sky. Each star would strive to flicker. She was dazed and peered for a while. After that, facial features slowly recovered. Little Orchid discovered that she was lying on a stiff, rough boulder on the ground. She felt cold and then heard a breathing that did not belong to hers.

Little Orchid peered to the side. Dong Fang Qing Cang was lying besides her and one hand was on her belly. His fingertips have an abnormal black-blue color. Following along the arm to look up, on Dong Fang Qing Cang's chest has layers of ice crystals that were as beautiful as snowflakes, but temperature was more freezing cold compared to snowflakes. At this time, his lips did not have any color and was tragically pale. Even the face began to freeze into white frost. The eyelashes and the eyebrows were covered by snow frost and cannot see the facial appearance clearly.

Little Orchid was foolish for quite a long time and then memories in the head slowly appeared.

She was pushed down to Zhuxian Terrace and it was big devil who saved her, but from before, she has used Shuo Feng sword to pierced him...

The gaze of Little Orchid halted on the ice crystal forming chest area of Dong Fang Qing Cang.

Dong Fang Qing Cang's injury still hasn't healed....

He carried this kind of injury to save her...After that was injured to the point of not taking any precaution and sleeping besides her...

Little Orchid peered at the injured state of Dong Fang Qing Cang. She suddenly remembered that in the ancient times, Dong Fang Qing Cang was killed by the deities. He has drifted in a void of darkness for who knows how long. He also...arose attachment, can be lonely, and he can also "die".

Owing to that he was too strong, this caused others to seemingly ignored the matter that he was weakened and sustained injuries...

Inside Little Orchid's heart suddenly arose a feeling that even she was not clear.

She foolishly peered at Dong Fang Qing Cang for a long time. In the three realms, aside from him, perhaps there was no one who hopes that she can continue to live anymore.

Considering the period of time, perhaps Dong Fang Qing Cang was the person who hopes that she can live the longest. It's due to him waiting for her to completely harmonized with this body and turn into a fragment of life in this body. At least, will wait for her soul in this body...to die of old age?

Thinking up to Chi De woman, Little Orchid felt ironic.

Due to her living with the purpose of becoming medicine for someone else, from this, big devil, whom she wanted to escape from in the beginning, was the person who protected her to live the longest in the end.

Little Orchid lifted head to peer at the starry sky. Heart suddenly recalled a statement—"Fortunes in life really cannot be foreseen ah." Finished pondering, she suddenly discovered that Siming has said such statement to her previously. Little Orchid was silent and lowered head. After a while, she felt that the hand of Dong Fang Qing Cang on waist was truly cold and became unbearable. Desiring to stand up, she wanted to pull his hand out and go around to find wood for a fire.

She felt that even though she cannot help Dong Fang Qing Cang get better, but a bit of fire will give him some comfort.

But she did not expect that when she moved, the hand on the waist suddenly tightened.

Dong Fang Qing Cang did not open eyes, but his deeply hoarse voice crawled into her ears, "Want to escape?"

His breathing carried cold energy and puff onto Little Orchid's face, causing her entire body to shiver and then have goose bumps. She turned head around to look at Dong Fang Qing Cang. He did not open his eyes, but strength in the hand caused Little Orchid to feel that he was controlling her.

"I want to make a fire." Little Orchid said and voice was surprisingly hoarse. Even she heard that and became dumbfounded. After a while, she cleared her throat, "I want something to drink."

Dong Fang Qing Cang was silent for a while, but did not let go of hand, "Even though this is a hidden place in the three realms, but cannot be sure that heavenly troops and generals will not be able to find [place]. If you have any other thoughts, then ben zuo advised you to ditch them soon."

After experiencing this matter, of course Little Orchid did not have any other thought, "I won't run." She said, "I will obediently and foolishly stay by your side and not go anywhere."

She also... did not have a place to go anymore.

She was originally a "medicine" that Chi De woman has created and currently, due to saving Chi De woman has to take the full responsibility of a "medicine". Can be considered cycling of life—where's there's a start, there's a finish.

Dong Fang Qing Cang heard this and was briefly silent. He opened his eyes and the white frost shook off the eyelashes. His pair of blood pupils quietly peered at Little Orchid and then his hand left her waist, "Out from three li* in the southeastern direction, perhaps there is a water source."

*One li is 500 m. -ChocolateCosmos

Finished speaking, he turned his body away and lied straight on the ground.

Little Orchid supported herself up, but after walking several steps, she remembered something. Previously, she was pushed down Zhuxian Terrace and body ought to be filled with injuries ah. How come right now...the injuries on her body did not appeared to be a lot...

She turned head around to look at Dong Fang Qing Cang.

Dong Fang Qing Cang was still closing his eyes, but after a long while did not hear the steps of Little Orchid leaving and he gazed at her from the side of his eyes, "What is it?"

"Big devil." Little Orchid asked, "You treated the injuries to help me?"

"If not, then what?" The tone of Dong Fang Qing Cang was slightly a sneer, "You thought that your body was monstrously strong to the point that one round under Zhuxian Terrace and return will not have any injuries?"

The hand of Little Orchid moved and she lowered head as she spoke, "Big devil, I know that you are good to this body because you are good with yourself and because you wanted to achieve your desire. Thus, everything that served your desire is protected carefully." Her voice was really light, "But each time you do this... Each time you treated this body nicely like this, I would have a misconception and I would believe that you were truly good to me."

Dong Fang Qing Cang was silent. B@anaChocol@teCosmosTranslatins2019topresent

"Thus, later on you must remind me ah. Do not let me have any strange hope anymore." She lowered her voice as she said, "As each expectation is fake, that is really a matter that caused others to become terrified and hopeless."

Little Orchid finished speaking and immediately turned around.

After returning, she picked up many wood in her hands. She peered at Dong Fang Qing Cang and discovered that the ground he lied on has formed a layer of frost.

The power of Shuo Feng sword was strong to this extent...

Little Orchid felt her neck and there was the self-injury that she used Shuo Feng sword to create, but her body did not feel that cold. Perhaps it's due to big devil...When she pierced him at that moment and when she escaped from him, he has squeezed her neck and at that time, she thought that Dong Fang Qing Cang was angry and wanted to kill her, but currently she understood...he was saving her at that time.

If Shuo Feng sword caused Dong Fang Qing Cang to become like this, at that time, with one double-edge sword that she used to cut would unfortunately have taken her life while on the way to the heavenly realm.

What's more to say. Her life naturally belongs to Dong Fang Qing Cang.

Little Orchid placed the wood besides him. She turned the wood back and fro several times for a long while and still cannot create fire.

On the contrarily, the whooshing sounds caused Dong Fang Qing Cang to furrow his brows. His nose lightly "snorted" one sound and suddenly the wood that Little Orchid stood up immediately burst out ardent flames. The warmth of the flames really has a bit of usefulness...At least, according to Little Orchid.

She sat besides the flames and the flames dispelled away the frozen energy on Dong Fang Qing Cang that came over there, which made Little Orchid warmer.

Little Orchid hugged her knees and peered blankly at the flames dancing. These past days, many things have occurred, causing her brain to not be able to turn enough. She has to slowly digest and slowly comb through.

When she believed that this entire day she would be silent, she did not expect that Dong Fang Qing Cang on the side would start a conversation with a somewhat condescending voice as he asked with the intention of mocking, "Where is your master? When you were sentenced down to Zhuxian Terrace, your remarkable master was among the bunch of celestial immortals?"

Little Orchid was silent for a long time.

The silence of hers caused Dong Fang Qing Cang to somewhat loose patience and when eyes opened to look at Little Orchid, he was briefly dazed by her expression.

She peered at the flames and the flames danced within her pair of black eyes, but they seemed to have not touched her depths of her eyes as her pair of eyes was empty, numb, anxious, and derelict.

Dong Fang Qing Cang peered at her expression. As if a soft part in his heart was being trampled by a foot, it became painful to the point that he was unable to make any sense of the matter. Even though the pain in the heart was unfathomably mysterious, but his logic was still alert and his voice that was mocking turned a bit angry, "He really was in that bunch of celestial immortals? Did not help you?"

Little Orchid hugged her knees tighter, "Master has left." Her voice was dim, "Master does not need me anymore."

These simple five* words would repeatedly beat against his heart several more rounds.

Dong Fang Qing Cang always felt that he was a hateful person, but at this time, Siming Xingjun, who he never met, in his heart was more hateful than even himself by multiples.

Chapter 94: Chapter 71

Dong Fang Qing Cang quietly peered at Little Orchid for a long time. Her expression was like a needle that pierced his heart. Even though he controlled his state of mind and attempted to force himself with great effort to not look at her anymore, but when he turned around and closed eyes, in his head still appeared the empty, blank eyes of hers.

This matter caused Dong Fang Qing Cang to feel impatient and gloomy as he could not refrain from saying, "Where is he?" In the end, Dong Fang Qing Cang could not hold it in and said, "If you stay obediently by ben zuo, three days later ben zuo will help you find him."

Finished speaking, Dong Fang Qing Cang felt that perhaps his head really has an illness of some sort.

But at the time when he was still surprised by his own words, Little Orchid indifferently tossed a wood into the flames.

She was silent for a while and then responded, "Master is willing. I will not find her."

Dong Fang Qing Cang was briefly silent. The emotion suddenly became worse. He furrowed his brows, closed eyes, and voice was cold, "Up to you."

Little Orchid really did not say anymore.

Like so, silence until the horse hour* tomorrow.

The sun rose up high and the fire of Little Orchid still burns. She merely peered at the pile of flames and was staring blankly to the point of foolishness, but suddenly she discovered the surrounding cold energies were colder by several parts.

Little Orchid rubbed her arm and sat closer to the flames a bit more. However, the warmth of the flames did not dispel the cold energies enough. On the contrary, the sun slowly rose to midday noon position and the cold energies would become heavier.

Little Orchid peered to the side and discovered that Dong Fang Qing Cang was still closing eyes and lying there. Unexpectedly, the mouth breathed out white energy. Compared to before, this white energy was heavier by a lot. His lips were not black-color as the breathing from the nose congregated into a layer of thick white frost on his lips.

Little Orchid was stupefied. Inside head, there suddenly arose a thought—It's not that Dong Fang Qing Cang...would die like this?

This thought would press forward. Little Orchid was not cautious and feelings of panic enveloped the mind. She seemed to have crawled up and knelt beside Dong Fang Qing Cang. The hands rose and wanted to touch him, but the fingers did not get into contact with his skin as Little Orchid felt whooshing cold energies that passed through the tips of the fingers and slipped into her blood vessels with chilliness to the bones.

Little Orchid was shocked and disregarded the coldness on Dong Fang Qing Cang as she raised her hand to wipe the white frost on his lips, "Big devil...big devil, what are you doing?" Her voice was a bit confused, "Big devil? Dong Fang Qing Cang!"

Suddenly, the breathing of the white energy from Dong Fang Qing Cang's nose disappeared. Little Orchid immediately became startled. She hurriedly stretched hands to probe his nose. Disregarding a little coldness on Dong Fang Qing Cang's body that caused her hands to become numb, Little Orchid pressed the hands on the neck and hoped to feel movements from the blood vessels.

But after a long while, the dazed Little Orchid still could not probe movement, which proved that Dong Fang Qing Cang was not alive.

It seemed he has really died.

Dong Fang Qing Cang really died...

The color on Little Orchid's face seemed to have been drained out momentarily and "swish" into a complete paleness.

"Big devil." Little Orchid called Dong Fang Qing Cang. She began to become panic-stricken as she did not know what to do. Little Orchid stretched hand to help Dong Fang Qing Cang wipe away the white frost on the face. After that, raised hands to warm up is cheekbones that were like ice cubes, "You look at me." She spoke, "You move..." She wanted to pull the pair of securely closed eyes of Dong Fang Qing Cang, but his eyelashes have formed white frost and even froze his entire face.

Little Orchid then lowered head to peer at Dong Fang Qing Cang's chest. The area where it froze to blue ice crystals on his chest has slowly extended.

She thought that she has obstructed the sunshine that would warm him and hurriedly got out of the way at a distance for Dong Fang Qing Cang to sunbathe, but that did not seemed enough. Thus, Little Orchid moved the burning flames closer to his side. The flames seemed to have burn Dong Fang Qing Cang's clothes, but still cannot relieve the cold energies surrounding his body.

The ice crystals on Dong Fang Qing Cang were still extending out from the chest at a rapid speed that one can see.

Little Orchid saw the ice crystals that occupied his chest. They have climbed to his neck, and during the time when she was trying to find wood for the fire, have already enveloped the body of Dong Fang Qing Cang completely.

It seemed to have made a frozen coffin for him and buried his entire body inside.

When Little Orchid has accepted that even if she lit a fire besides Dong Fang Qing Cang to what degree of hotness and let him sunbathe, the temperature on his body was still unable to rise up. Little Orchid peered at the state of Dong Fang Qing Cang's body whose body seemed to have lost to the cold energies and went to kneel besides him.

She did not know that he was seriously injured like this. In her eyes, Dong Fang Qing Cang was always very strong and granted when seriously injured, he also can use one finger to squeeze her to death.

Like this time, she has used Shuo Feng sword to pierce and injured him, but Dong Fang Qing Cang still can quickly come over to the heavenly realm, and down to Zhuxian Terrace to rescue her. After that, fought victoriously against the heavenly soldiers and generals, who were difficult to deal with. It seemed like anything could be done. If he was not frozen currently by ice, Little Orchid would never imagine in the end, what to do in order to cause deathly injuries to Dong Fang Qing Cang.

Cannot imagine that Dong Fang Qing Cang would save her and risked [his] life...

While right now...

He's about to awfully die.

"Big devil..." Little Orchid slightly touched the ice crystals on Dong Fang Qing Cang's chest. When touched, the tips of the fingers seemed to have become numb and were cold to the point of causing her heart to tremble.

But she did not withdraw the hand and yet, pressed the entire hand on the injured chest area of Dong Fang Qing Cang which separated from the frozen layer as if doing so will cause his body to become warmer.

Little Orchid did not speak out any words and saw the tears, drop by drop, fell on back of her hand. After that, they slid onto the frozen layer and froze into small ice pearls like in the legends where a merperson's tears transformed into pearls.

"Mourning?"

Does not know how long Little Orchid waited as suddenly the familiar voice rang besides Little Orchid's ears. She was shocked and eyes immediately brightened up. She peered to the side. Dong Fang Qing Cang was looking coldly at her.

At this time, the ice crystals on his face has slowly withdrawn and revealed his strongly pleasing face.

Little Orchid became dazed and then discovered the connected ice crystals on his body have slowly melted away. At this time, the sun at peak of the horse hour (midday) gradually inclined.

She peered at him and was dazed to where she could not say any words. The ice on the chest of Dong Fang Qing Cang withdrew. Little Orchid's hand was placed on the injured chest area.

Sensing Little Orchid's hand was placed on his chest, the pupils of Dong Fang Qing Cang moved, but the spoken words still remained emotionless, "You're extremely joyful to the point of sobbing?"

Little Orchid peered at Dong Fang Qing Cang for a long while. Then [she] really grinned in an unpleasant way, "Right...right ah."

She would laugh and would cry. The tears fell down next to her smile. According to aesthetics of Dong Fang Qing Cang, Little Orchid at this time was extremely ugly, but does not know why when seeing Little Orchid like this, his chest suddenly warmed up.

After a brief moment, Little Orchid suddenly lunged forward to Dong Fang Qing Cang and hugged him. The smile on the lips gradually disappeared and there were only tears that fell continuously out, "Big devil, big devil..." She would shout out a sound and then another sound.

Dong Fang Qing Cang was slightly shocked, but hearing her shouted so seriously like this, he has to speak up, "What's wrong?"

"I thought even you also did not need me anymore..."

Dong Fang Qing Cang was silent and allowed Little Orchid to cry and rub her cheeks against his head.

"You want to scheme against then scheme. You want to use me then use. I am not scared of being used and also am not scared of being schemed against. Do not throw me away."

Hearing such words, Dong Fang Qing Cang felt that he ought to be happy as he could make Little Orchid depend on him, is willing to be used and schemed by him. This was originally the result he wanted.

But hearing her wail and howl while sensing feeling her trembling body, Dong Fang Qing Cang suddenly felt that his heart does not want this unexpectedly.

This little flower demon should prostrate under him in great spirits, peered at him resentfully, and then battle wits and bravery against him.

Like this he would feel peaceful, and pit ability against her without having any sort of feelings mixing in. Then, will not regret harming her. In the end, from her body would achieve the results that he had planned since the beginning.

But Little Orchid wept, despaired, and became alarmed like this...Right he with Little Orchid, when he peered at her like that, he seemed unexpectedly... not desire playing the role of a bad person in front of her anymore.

He wants to become a hero, become a companion, to protect her...

But he is the ancient demon king ah! Companionship and protection? He...how can there be such a thought due to an insignificant little flower demon! He...

Dong Fang Qing Cang began to feel more like he seemed to have...become insane.

After a while, Little Orchid slowly stabled the emotions. She let go of Dong Fang Qing Cang, but hand still quietly wrapped around his hair as if being in contact with him and holding something on his body will prevent the ice crystals from appearing on him.

"Big devil, what happened to you just now?"

"Even though Shuo Feng sword is full of cold energies, but actual body is a double-edge sword. It is also positive energies. Each hour of the horse would be the time when the sky and earth would have the most positive energies. Positive energies will combine with the cold energy of Shuo Feng sword that remained on ben zuo's body, causing ice crystals on the entire body of ben zuo." Dong Fang Qing Cang's expression was emotionless when speaking as if he was not his body, "Three days later, the cold energies are unable to harm ben zuo's body anymore."

In other words, in those three days, at the horse hour Dong Fang Qing Cang... must not be discovered by any enemy. If not, with his current state, will definitely become fine powder by the enemy.

Love Between Fairy And Devil (Completed) Chapter 95 - Chapter 72

Chapter 95: Chapter 72

Little Orchid and Dong Fang Qing Cang rested at the spot for three days. On the second night, Little Orchid entered the forest to pick fruits for eating.

In reality, her current body does not need to eat, but Little Orchid felt that she ought to do things that regular people do. If not, she will not feel that she was living truthfully.

At last, Little Orchid came to the river to drink several mouthful of water. The timely sunset has inclined. She lifted her head. It seemed that from across the river she saw there was a shadow that jumped, but did not see carefully and only can guess that it was perhaps an animal.

Staying here for two days, in the end can see a living animal in the forest. Little Orchid turned head and has forgotten this matter.

At the peak of the horse hour (11 am to 1 pm) on the third day, the entire body of Dong Fang Qing Cang slowly turned into ice crystals like usual. At an earlier time, Little Orchid has lit a fire besides him that surrounded his body.

But she did not do that in order for Dong Fang Qing Cang's body to become warmer. After all, after three days have passed, Little Orchid has come to an understanding that no matter how the fire was lit, Dong Fang Qing Cang was still freezing. She lit fire around him only for the cold energies on his body to spread outside.

After being encroached by the violating energies of Zhuxian Terrace, even though Little Orchid did not receive wounds but the resistance with the cold energies seemed to have become weaker.

Dong Fang Qing Cang said that due to him being severely injured, at the peak of the horse hour (midday) on the third day would turn like this. Today was already the last day. Little Orchid sat besides and rested head on knees. She peered foolishly at him.

After he has woken up, he will bring her to do what?

The demon realm has been destroyed. Unfortunately, the people of the demon realm will really have difficulties in accepting Dong Fang Qing Cang anymore. The heavenly realm will definitely find her and him everywhere while she cannot return to the heavenly realm.

Dong Fang Qing Cang wants to resurrect Chi De woman. Although currently Little Orchid still carried the bone orchid inside the sleeve, but the soul of Chi De woman seemed to have been affected largely under Zhuxian Terrace. Starting from then, Chi De woman has not appeared inside her head. The bone orchid was also deathly silent.

The calamity of Zhuxian Terrace seemed to have killed everything that surrounded Little Orchid...including her hope.

Little Orchid did not intend to struggle because of her life anymore. She wanted to obediently follow Dong Fang Qing Cang and obediently turn into a fragment of life inside this body. Until today, she could not help but admit that what Dong Fang Qing Cang has said was not wrong. Like so, it would be the most benevolent way of dying to her.

Little Orchid lifted head to peer at the sky. She felt the setting sun that has caused Dong Fang Qing Cang to become frozen in the end would pass. But at this time, she suddenly felt that the ground was trembling. Initially, Little Orchid still thought that it was a misconception of hers, but after a wave of trembles, they have caused the fire to bounce up and down. She immediately discovered that something was not right. She lifted head to peer at the surroundings, yet merely did not get to see oddness as suddenly, the place that separated Little Orchid at almost three zhangs*, there was a figure that suddenly crawled up from underneath.

*One zhang is around 3.3 m -Chocolatecosmos

Little Orchid opened her eyes wider. Unexpectedly, that's...military counselor Kong Que from demon realm coming to find again!

"Demon king (mo zun) has truly caused this little one to search with hardships ah." Kong Que smiled and gave a side-glance at Little Orchid. After that, gaze fell on the body of Dong Fang Qing Cang that was being frozen by the ice crystals. In the pair of seductive peacock eyes was the desire of frenzied revenge, "Has heard that after demon king left the demon realm with a seriously injured body, and came to the heavenly realm. I believed that demon king would not live anymore. Cannot expect that demon king came to the heavenly realm because of chasing this little silly girl."

The gaze of Kong Que landed on the face of Little Orchid and laughed coldly, "Unexpectedly the great demon king has submerged in a personal grudge of the ancient times. Really has caused us to feel utterly disappointed. Resurrecting the demon king was our mistake. Right now, let me settle that."

Finished speaking, Kong Que took a fan and covered the face while black energies congregated around the body. Little Orchid did not have the time to think as she subconsciously kicked the firewood besides Dong Fang Qing Cang and immediately jumped straight toward his body.

Her movements did not have hesitation, causing Kong Que to not react in time. His strike hit Little Orchid's shoulders. She let out a groan and felt acute pain through the heart. Yet after experiencing life and death under Zhuxian Terrace, Little Orchid felt that this pain of hers could be endured by gritting her teeth.

Even if she cried out in pain, even if she became weakened, there was no one to see it.

Currently, she is someone with no support, and also is foreordained as a pawn that will be tossed away.

"On the contrary, laughable. Clearly is an object created and molded from xi rang, yet unexpectedly will rescue demon king?" Kong Que sneered behind her, "Fine. If demon king wanted you to stay by the side, then will kill you first and demon king will follow you."

Little Orchid peered at the shadow on the ground and saw the ice crystals on Dong Fang Qing Cang's face slowly withdrawing.

She gritted teeth and disregarded the pain on the back. She covered Dong Fang Qing Cang's head and turned around to peer at Kong Que. She saw that his hand has stopped congregating black energies. Little Orchid said, "Even though does not know how you discovered here, but currently, besides you there's probably no one else. Otherwise, your condition prior to injuries, you would not personally make a move against Dong Fang Qing Cang. The shadow that I saw on the river yesterday was really you, no? You have sensed that the energies on big devil has weakened and therefore, dared to appear. Correct?"

She peered at Kong Que and said, "You are definitely really fearful of big devil. Therefore, even if [you] saw me by myself, but knew that Dong Fang Qing Cang was here, you didn't dare to make a move against me..." Little Orchid paused, "The feeling of being nailed on the stone plaque for the public to see was probably not something easy to endure."

Reminded of his matter, the gaze of Kong Que briefly darkened.

Little Orchid knew, being hung on the stone plaque like a fraying doll in a long period of time like this, regardless, was the biggest failure to someone who was used to being up high like Kong Que, "You're quite scared of big devil. Therefore, only dared to come and attack while utilizing shady tactics like this."

Kong Que lifted his lips to sneer, "This rotten lowly girl still want to prolong the time." Finished speaking, he did not want to hesitate anymore, and hands rose. A way of black energies passed besides Little Orchid and attacked directly at Dong Fang Qing Cang's stomach from behind her.

There was sudden "ka" crackling sounds. Little Orchid turned around and saw on the stomach area of Dong Fang Qing Cang that was still frozen by the ice crystals has started to crack a line. Then, from each crack, slowly separated into many small, scattered fragments. Little Orchid was inwardly panicking and wanted to speak up to distract the attention of Kong Que. But Kong Que has completed shifted to an offensive attack. She saw on his hand that each time there would be more black energies. Little Orchid's face paled and she shielded the front of Dong Fang Qing Cang.

Her gaze passed through black energies on Kong Que's hand and saw his pair of eyes that smiled sinisterly, "Farewell, demon king." Finished speaking, the black energies was like a dragon as it wrapped the energies of the surroundings and charged straight to the direction of Dong Fang Qing Cang.

Little Orchid shielded in front of him without leaving. Yet, there was the matter that she was scared and so she closed her eyes. But at this time, she suddenly felt that the waist was being tightened. A path of fire suddenly sprouted from the ground. The black energies of Kong Que were being burned in the atmosphere.

Little Orchid lowered head and peered at the strong arm on her waist while her back was pressed against a sturdy chest.

She secretly breathed out a relief sigh. In the end, Dong Fang Qing Cang has awakened. In truth, up until now, it seemed that Little Orchid has already lost the feeling of joy when luckily escaping death as escaping death several times has become boring...

But regarding the protection and possessiveness of Dong Fang Qing Cang, Little Orchid cannot refrain as much from depending more and more strangely. So to speak, can be said to be infatuated like an addiction.

She has come to really like him ah.

As each urgent and important moment he would appear. He was strong, handsome and was a place to depend that she has longed for in fantasies, but the only point that was no good is that Dong Fang Qing Cang wants to kill her.

But Little Orchid felt that this only no-good point was not important. Due to people who also want to kill her, dying in the hands of someone who has protected her was not so deficit.

In the period of time when Little Orchid was going on a pondering journey in Dong Fang Qing Cang's arms, Dong Fang Qing Cang peered at Kong Que unruffled and calm in the midst of chaos, "Ben zuo has not went to find you, yet you have knock against and came here yourself. Has truly relieved effort for ben zuo."

He chuckled and revealed the sharp canine teeth, "Ben zuo really likes those who seek their own deaths like you."

Kong Que's face changed color. Evidently, Dong Fang Qing Cang has left a haunting shadow. His face blackened while the entire body produced black energies that rose up as if wanting to flee. Dong Fang Qing Cang merely snorted coldly. The flames still burn in the surroundings and were exactly like the soldiers that heard their order from the general as they simultaneously ignited and came forth as Kong Que's body momentarily burned past.

Kong Que relied on the black energies that surrounded the body and was forced to resist. Ultimately, the entire body sunk into a pitfall of black and red energies.

Dong Fang Qing Cang slightly furrowed his brows. The surrounding flames immediately weakened. At the same time, the black energies suddenly disappeared. He let go of Little Orchid and expression was rather contemptuous, "Temporarily spare him one life."

Dong Fang Qing Cang sneezed. Little Orchid turned head around to look and can see that his injuries have not healed completely. Using the powers was still extremely exhausting. Perhaps this was the reason why he did not chase after Kong Que.

"Yesterday's night, I saw a shadow by the river. I thought it was some animal and did not expect it was him."

Dong Fang Qing Cang closed eyes and thought for a while, "This place is the land that ben zuo has rested during the ancient times. The battle between ben zuo and Chi De woman also began from there. Even the current times, this place still contained the fighting energies of ben zuo and Chi De woman. Really is beneficial for the demon realm people to heal. Kong Que appearing here is not strange."

Little Orchid nodded and Dong Fang Qing Cang furrowed his brows, "Shoulders are injured?"

"En*", it seemed like it's not painful anymore. Right now does not have any sensation."

*A grunting sound that indicates agreement/nodding in this case – ChocolateCosmos

"Xi rang has surrounded the injuries and turned into ash." He frowned, "Being injured too much, need to use xi rang for repair."

Little Orchid was silent. Dong Fang Qing Cang momentarily did not speak up. After a while, he coldly said, "If there is another time, meeting this monster Kong Que, ben zuo will definitely make his soul scatter and disperse in the three realms."

Little Orchid did not react to his words and merely said, "There's no more xi rang."

Dong Fang Qing Cang was silent for a bit then spoke up, "Ben zuo does not have, but someone still does."

Little Orchid suddenly remembered that after leaving Qian Yin Mountain, the xi rang of Qian Yin langjun was used to create her body at that time, but there were still a bit of xi rang that remained.

The intent of Dong Fang Qing Cang is...They go loot Qian Yin Mountain one more time...

Little Orchid suddenly felt that Qian Yin langjun was quite pitiful...

Body carried treasures...but cannot protect.
