

Fake Marriage 1161

Chapter 1161: Obeying Instinct (2)

Liu Changfeng was a good person. His father had worked hard for Rui Hui Pharmaceuticals for so many years. Mu Huan really didn't want to turn against the Liu family, but...

After she'd taken over Rui Hui, Liu Dongxu had been supporting her on the surface, but behind her back, he'd been getting people to drag her down and making her subordinates not cooperate with her.

Previously, he had been the one who had secretly encouraged Johnson, the project manager, to find trouble with her and protest. She had thought that by taking out such evidence, she would be able to make Mr. Liu give up and have the two families cooperate. Unexpectedly, not only did he not stop, but he even wanted to completely destroy her!

He was forcing her to deal with him and become enemies with the Liu family.

Seriously...

"He feels that all these should have been his. In this case, no matter how much you give him, he will feel that it's too little," Bo Junyan said.

"Sigh... Speaking of which, my great-grandfather was also in the wrong. He'd left a will involving such a marriage alliance, it made the other person think that he was fighting for himself and that Rui Hui belonged to his family. In the end, he ended up like this. He must be feeling indignant." Mu Huan felt that her great-grandfather had cheated others by leaving two wills. She was in the wrong first, so she had been backing down.

"Your great-grandfather didn't volunteer to make the first will. That's why he secretly made the second will."

"Ah?" Mu Huan was stunned.

"I found the old servant who was serving your great-grandfather at that time. According to him, your great-grandfather had arranged for two groups of people to take over the company. He wanted the two groups to control each other and prevent one of them from being the only one left. This was to prevent the company from being snatched up before the successor could be found. However, on his last day, after battling with a serious illness until he was bedridden, the other group of people he'd arranged for died in an accident. He was left with only Liu Dongxu to use. Then, under Liu Dongxu's suggestion, or more like secret threat, he'd made such a will. He didn't want his life's effort to be taken away by outsiders. Hence, your grandfather took the opportunity when Liu Dongxu wasn't on guard and secretly made a second will.

"The death of the other party was also very strange. If there's no accident, it must have been Liu Dongxu's doing."

This meant that Liu Dongxu had long wanted Rui Hui. It was not because there was a second will that he was dissatisfied and felt that he had been fooled. He was indignant and wanted to deal with Mu Huan.

Mu Huan: "..."

“Hence, you don’t have to feel guilty about the Liu family. You feel that Liu Dongxu had worked so hard for Rui Hui for so many years but ended up like this in the end. It’s understandable that you have such thoughts for him.” Although Mu Huan had never said it, Bo Junyan knew that she had given in to the Liu family repeatedly because she felt guilty about this.

Liu Dongxu was her enemy now. If she felt guilty and did not act ruthlessly, it would mean that she was being ruthless to herself.

Furthermore, this was Country Y, not their territory. Due to the recent tense situation, her status as a foreigner would make her bear more crimes. They could not be soft-hearted.

“Seriously...” Mu Huan didn’t expect the truth to be like this.

If that was the case, she wouldn’t have to feel guilty about Liu Dongxu at all!

Bo Junyan continued, “You don’t have to have any feelings for Liu Changfeng. He’s not completely unaware of what his father has done. Hence, he’s not as good as you think.”

“How did you know without me saying anything?” Mu Huan looked at him and felt that he was too magical. She had never told him about her guilt toward the Liu family and her feelings for Liu Changfeng, but he had actually thought through her thoughts so thoroughly.

“I’m your husband. Naturally, I know everything about you,” Bo Junyan said.

“Hubby...”

Chapter 1162: Obeying Instinct (3)

This form of address made Mu Huan feel a strange feeling.

“The lawyer that Liu Dongxu has prepared for you can’t be used. I’ve hired James. He’s currently negotiating with the authorities. If there are no accidents, we can leave this place in an hour,” Bo Junyan said.

Although he could not clear her name now, he could still bail her out and have her not stay here.

Mu Huan looked at him and said instinctively, “Thank you, Hubby. Love you, muacks!”

After saying this, she was stunned.

Bo Junyan was stunned as well.

Then, Mu Huan said, "Did I like to say this in the past?"

"Yes." She used to say, "Hubby, I love you. Muacks. I love Hubby the most..."

"It looks like hypnosis doesn't have a good effect on someone as formidable as me! I reckon I'll be able to slowly recall everything even without Eisen removing the command for me!" Mu Huan said with a proud expression. She couldn't force herself to think about it, but her brain could slowly recover those memory fragments by itself. It wouldn't be very painful to undo the hypnotic command that way.

Bo Junyan liked every side of Mu Huan, but he liked her proud look the most, just like how she looked now.

"When I get out, we'll start fighting back!" Mu Huan clenched her fists.

That man wanted to push all the blame to her? Did he think that she could only admit to it because there was no evidence?

Ha...

He had thought too much! Before she showed Johnson the evidence, she had thought of all these possible consequences and had been prepared!

She had given Liu Dongxu opportunities time and time again, but he kept overstepping her boundaries. Since he did such a thing, she would no longer show mercy, let alone feel such guilt.

"We?" Bo Junyan was a little surprised. Because she didn't have any memories of the past, she had always kept a distance from him. She was someone who did not like owing anyone favors, so he thought that he would have to persuade her for a while before he could convince her to agree to let him deal with Liu Dongxu with her. He didn't expect her to take the initiative to say that she wanted him to get through this storm with her.

“Why? Are you going to fly off on your own in the face of a disaster?” Mu Huan deliberately narrowed her eyes and looked very fierce.

Bo Junyan smiled and held her hand. “I’ll always be with you in life and death.”

Mu Huan smiled slightly. Actually, she had already arranged everything. Even without him, she could have beaten the other party to a pulp. However, she knew that he definitely wanted to do something for her. She didn’t want to see him feel like he was being excluded.

Although things were progressing too quickly between them, they were already people who had done all sorts of things. Compared to those who only fell in love at first sight, they were practically an old married couple.

There was no need to pay much attention to the so-called progress of a relationship. When it came to feelings, one just had to follow their instincts. She instinctively wanted to get closer to him. She instinctively didn’t want to see him so dejected, so she followed her instincts.

She instinctively said, “Hubby, I love you!”

Hearing her familiar words, Bo Junyan could not help but want to hug and kiss her.

However, self-control aside, he couldn’t do that here.

The James that Bo Junyan had found was the most famous lawyer in Country Y. Furthermore, they could afford to pay a high bail.

Hence...

An hour later, Mu Huan and Bo Junyan left together.

As soon as they got into the car...

His kiss fell.

It was like a sudden storm.

Chapter 1163: Obeying Instinct (4)

He was a man who loved his wife so much. He couldn't control himself anymore.

He no longer had any restraint...

A long time later.

"Go to the hotel," Bo Junyan ordered.

Before the chauffeur could respond...

Mu Huan said, "No."

Bo Junyan: "..."

He looked at Mu Huan with a pained expression. Seeing him like this, Mu Huan couldn't bear it anymore and whispered something into his ear.

Bo Junyan hugged her tightly.

His thin lips descended like a storm again.

Tahiti...

Fu Siye had never brought Shangguan Yu out to have fun in the past. This time, he'd asked Jin Chen to replace him. He would take two months off and have fun with her.

Due to her biological clock, no matter how tired Shangguan Yu was, she would wake up on time the next morning. According to her past habits, she would wake up at this time every day to make breakfast for Fu Siye. Although he rarely ate the breakfast she made, she would do it every day.

Because she had heard that if she wanted to capture a man's heart, she had to capture his stomach. Hence, she became an expert at cooking from not being able to differentiate between the vegetables and the sun.

But she could not catch his heart.

Uh...

No.

Perhaps it was because of her culinary skills that she could get his love now. After all, although he rarely ate, he did eat.

Speaking of getting his love...

Even though it had been a few days since she woke up, she still felt a little dizzy. She felt that everything was surreal and not real.

Just like now.

She got up to make breakfast for him.

But he was already busy in the kitchen.

This was absolutely impossible. Even in the past, when she had not yet married him and he had treated her very well as his sister, he had never cooked for her.

But now, he was up so early to make breakfast for her.

This...

If she had not seen it with her own eyes, she would never have believed that he would do such a thing.

No, even if she saw it with her own eyes, it was hard for her to believe that what she saw was real.

Just then, Fu Siye, who had discovered her arrival, looked up at her and even gave her a smile that could make one's heart skip a beat. "You're awake."

His smile made her almost cover her chest to prevent her heart from jumping out. "Yes..."

"Wait a moment, I'll be done soon," Fu Siye said as he placed an egg on the heart-shaped mold.

Shangguan Yu did not speak and only looked at him.

Fu Siye was not a good cook, so he prepared a simple Western breakfast composed of a sandwich, fried eggs, milk, and fruit.

But even such a simple breakfast made Shangguan Yu happy. She could not believe that what she saw was real. She could not help but feel that she was dreaming.

The morning sun shone on him, making him glow. Everything in front of her was so beautiful that only in dreams could she have come up with it.

"What's wrong?" Because Mu Huan still had such a strong feeling when she saw Bo Junyan after being hypnotized, Fu Siye was a little afraid. He was afraid that Shangguan Yu would remember something. Hence, every time he saw her in a daze, he couldn't help but be afraid that she had recalled something.

"I can't help but feel that everything is like a dream now," Shangguan Yu said with a smile.

"Why do I keep feeling like this is a dream?" Was this the aftereffect of hypnosis? Because her brain was still in a mess, she often felt that things were surreal.

Fu Siye frowned when he thought of this possibility.

Chapter 1164: Obeying Instinct (5)

"Because only in my dreams would I dream that you were so good to me. No, even in my dreams, I never dreamed that you would prepare breakfast for me."

Fu Siye: "..."

Did she feel like she was dreaming because he was treating her well?

He had merely woken up early to prepare a simple breakfast for her, but she was already so touched. She felt like she was dreaming. No, she had never dreamed that he would do this...

She...

Suddenly, his heart ached. It was as if someone was pinching him tightly. It hurt so much that he couldn't breathe.

This heartache was for her.

She was a pampered young mistress who had been spoiled since she was young. She had never done anything for anyone else, but she had learned a lot for him. He'd felt that she would never be able to do something like this, but for him, she had gone from being a pampered young mistress who could not differentiate between a leek and a wheat seedling to being able to make any delicious food. From not even daring to touch live prawns to dealing with all sorts of living things without feeling anything, all for the sake of letting him eat fresh food.

She would wake up early every day to prepare breakfast for him. Also, no matter when he returned, she would prepare hot dishes for him...

Not only in life, but in other aspects. As long as it was his matter, she would do it herself.

She had done a lot for him.

And him.

He had never done anything for her.

She felt like she was dreaming just because he made breakfast.

He...

Not to mention others calling him scum, even he himself felt that he was scum!

He did love her.

Even if others didn't believe it, he loved her.

But if he loved her, how could he bear to do that to her...?

No matter how stupid he was, no matter how...

He shouldn't have been so stupid. He shouldn't have...

He looked at Shangguan Yu and said deeply, "I'm sorry."

Shangguan Yu was stunned for a moment before saying, "Why are you apologizing?"

Why did he suddenly apologize to her? Did he have a motive for treating her well?

He couldn't blame Shangguan Yu for thinking this way. After she returned to her memories from three years ago, she only remembered Fu Siye's coldness and his hatred for her. It was very difficult. She couldn't believe that he suddenly loved her and was being really good to her. She thought he had other motives.

“Because I didn’t treat you well in the past. Xiao Yu, I was too stupid. I don’t even know why I was so stupid in the past. Why would I treat you like that because of such thoughts? I’m sorry, Xiao Yu... I’m sorry...” Fu Siye said as he walked forward and reached out to pull her into his embrace.

The current him really could not understand the past him. He did not even know what had happened to him at that time.

Why did he think that way? Why did he treat her that way?

Because of his stupidity, she was hurt and wasted the most precious youth they had.

He was really...

Fu Siye couldn’t think about it. The moment he thought about how stupid he had been in the past, how he had hurt her so much that she didn’t want to love him anymore, how she was so determined to leave him, he couldn’t help but wish he was dead!

Shangguan Yu, who was in his embrace, did not know how to describe her current mood.

Clearly, when she heard his words, she should have been overjoyed. She should have hugged him and told him that there was no need to apologize to her. Her wish that he could love her had already been granted now. This was her dream. She...

In short, she should be very excited and happy!

Chapter 1165: Obeying Instinct (6)

She shouldn’t be able to help but think about their beautiful future.

However, she was not as excited as she thought she should be. In fact...

In fact, she felt as if she had heard him say such things before. Such an apology was so guilt-ridden...

She didn’t know what was wrong with her.

Why did she have such a strange feeling?

Fu Siye hugged her tightly. It was only when he smelled a burnt smell that he recalled that he was still frying eggs. Hence, he hurriedly released Shangguan Yu and looked at the eggs.

The beautiful yellow heart from before was now charred black.

He was sweating profusely. “Xiao Yu, go sit there and wait for me.”

Seeing how flustered he was, Shangguan Yu instinctively said, “Let me do it.”

With that, she went forward to take the pot that he was going to wash. Fu Siye did not reject her help because it had been a long time since he saw her busy preparing breakfast for him. He missed this scene so much that his heart ached. This made him unable to reject her.

Shangguan Yu saw that he did not leave but looked at her in a daze as if he was looking at something precious. “What’s wrong?”

Why was he looking at her so strangely?

“Nothing,” Fu Siye replied.

Although Shangguan Yu felt that he was a little strange, she thought that he didn’t like her asking him too much. He had already said that it was fine, so she didn’t dare to ask anymore.

Shangguan Yu cooked much faster than Fu Siye, and she made even more sumptuous meals.

When Fu Siye saw that she had only used such a short time to prepare a sumptuous breakfast, he felt that she seemed to know how to do magic. However, he knew that this wasn’t magic. It was just that she had learned too much for him, done too much, and trained herself well.

“Why aren’t you eating?” Shangguan Yu looked up at Fu Siye.

Why was he looking at her like this instead of eating?

“A feast for the eyes.” After seeing her coldness and despair, Fu Siye now felt that as long as he was with her, no matter what she did, it was so precious that he couldn’t bear to look away. He wanted to keep looking at her.

Shangguan Yu: “...”

Was he complimenting her?

Other than the fact that he had praised her when she was very young, he had never praised her for being good-looking again when she grew up...

He had suddenly turned from being so cold and disgusted with her to being like this. It made her... really uncomfortable...

Could it be that people were really like what was written in the books? That after they really got what they wanted, they wouldn’t be very excited anymore?

When she snapped back to her senses, she changed the topic. “When are we going back?”

“In two months,” Fu Siye said.

Shangguan Yu widened her eyes in shock. “Two months?”

“Yes.”

“Why... why are we... having a vacation for so long?” In the past, he didn’t even have the time to accompany her for a hike. Now, he was accompanying her out for two months?

It really wasn’t her fault. She kept feeling that it was unreal, as if she was dreaming. His actions were really too surreal and dreamlike. Everything he did was something he would never do...

“We didn’t go on a honeymoon when we got married. We’ve been married for so many years, but I’ve never accompanied you out to have fun. It just so happens that I’m not busy recently. I got Jin Chen to take over the shift and came out here to have fun before going back,” Fu Siye said.

Shangguan Yu: “...”

Although he wasn't as hardworking as Bo Junyan, he was still a workaholic. He actually abandoned his work to have fun with her.

This...

For a moment, Shangguan Yu didn't know what to say. All of this was too unbelievable.

After a while...

Chapter 1166: Obeying Instinct (7)

Shangguan Yu did not know what to say.

After a while.

"Oh, right, my coffee shop! I can't have closed my coffee shop, and I'm in charge of the food. I've been out for so long..." Shangguan Yu liked her coffee shop very much. Hence, she felt that she couldn't have sold it. If so, before she lost her memory, she must still have been running it.

"The coffee shop is undergoing renovations." Fu Siye knew how much she liked her coffee shop, but the people there knew too much about her. They needed to sort things out before she could go back.

Shangguan Yu frowned. "Renovations?"

She really liked the style of the coffee shop. She wouldn't have changed it.

"Yes. Because there was a leak in the old house, all the decorations were destroyed. We could only renovate," Fu Siye said with his eyes lowered.

"I see." Shangguan Yu did not doubt his words.

Her coffee shop was an old bungalow from a hundred years ago. It would naturally leak after a long time.

"It's rare for us to have time. Let's not think about anything else and focus on having fun!" Fu Siye said.

Shangguan Yu looked at him. She had never thought that one day, she would be able to go out with him for two months.

Indeed, it was best to live in this world. Only by living would one encounter all the beautiful possibilities.

Country Y...

Although Mu Huan had been bailed out, before this matter was thoroughly investigated, she had to be imprisoned at home. She could not leave the house without the permission of the authorities. Otherwise, she would be arrested.

After two days of incitement and fermentation...

The matter of Rui Hui planning to illegally test the medicine on children became more and more serious, and there was no sign of it stopping.

Mu Huan was also becoming more and more at the center of the storm.

Although most people knew that what had happened in the past had nothing to do with her and that she had just inherited Rui Hui, she was more vicious than the people in the past. She actually wanted to test the medicine on children! This was even more unforgivable and made her deserving of death!

Because Johnson would rather die than do testing on those children, no one suspected that what Johnson said in the video was fake.

Unexpectedly, not only did Mu Huan not force Johnson to do such a thing, but she even warned him not to do such an outrageous thing again.

Even if Mu Huan had recorded the entire process of what she had said when she showed the documents to Johnson that day, no one would believe her. They would only suspect that she had said those words on purpose and then recorded such a scene so that they could push everything onto Johnson and make him bear all the charges.

It was the hardest to find evidence and retaliate when there was no evidence.

Because a person had died by committing suicide, he was already standing on the moral high ground. No matter what they did, it would not be easy to turn things around.

Liu Dongxu was a very crafty person. He had always done things secretly. On the surface, he would do things that no one could find fault with. For example, now, he had brought the other shareholders to the police station to explain the situation, saying that Mu Huan had nothing to do with what happened in the past.

He even brought that group of shareholders to be Mu Huan's witness. He said that not only had Mu Huan never forced Johnson to do such a thing, but the first thing she did after taking office was to stop such experiments.

That experiment was actually led by Johnson to save trouble!

They had asked him to be in charge of the final human trials, but they did not expect him to test the drug illegally!

To put it simply, Liu Dongxu had pushed all the blame onto Johnson. The higher-ups in Rui Hui didn't know about this matter, and Mu Huan didn't know either.

It looked like he was doing this for Mu Huan's own good.

But in fact, it had pushed Mu Huan into an even bigger storm.

Chapter 1167: Untitled

Johnson was already dead. If Liu Dongxu pushed all the blame onto a dead person, everyone would only feel that he was not being truthful! No one believed that the higher-ups of Rui Hui didn't know about this.

How could the higher-ups of Rui Hui not know about such a big matter?

The higher-ups did not know, but the people below dared to do such a thing? This was impossible!

Such an impossibility made everyone feel that it was impossible for Mu Huan to not know about this matter! At this point, if Mu Huan were to stand out and say that not only did she not do such a thing, but the first order she gave was to stop such an experiment, no one would believe her.

Even if all the executives at Rui Hui said that she didn't know and everyone said that she really gave such an order, people still wouldn't believe it. This was because, to the masses who didn't know the truth, the upper echelons of Rui Hui were definitely on Mu Huan's side and didn't want anything to affect Rui Hui.

Sometimes, this was how things were. Even if what you said was the truth, even if so many people testified for you...

No one would believe you.

Under such circumstances, it was impossible for the authorities to announce that Mu Huan was innocent, even if they had yet to find any evidence of her guilt.

Under the deliberate exaggeration of the media, Rui Hui's shares fell again and again. At this moment, someone took the opportunity to buy Rui Hui's shares.

Compared to the bloodbath outside...

Mu Huan's life at home was especially comfortable. Now, she was nestled in Bo Junyan's embrace, playing games, and being fed fruits.

As she continued to communicate with Bo Junyan, Mu Huan recalled more and more of the past. However, it was all their sweet memories. These memories made her completely lose that unfamiliar feeling she had toward Bo Junyan. Now, their relationship had returned to the time before her mother had appeared. It was a time of sweetness and love.

“It’s so sweet. Try it too, Hubby,” she said as she raised her head to let Bo Junyan bite the remaining half of the apple.

Bo Junyan lowered his head and bit down.

He especially liked it now.

Yu Hansheng saw this scene the moment he entered. Without a word, he threw a stack of documents to Bo Junyan and left.

Mu Huan looked at his back and said, “My senior brother has been getting gloomier recently.”

Then, she added, “If you think about it carefully, he seems to be especially difficult to get along with at this time every year.”

Bo Junyan said, “It’s going to be his beloved woman’s death anniversary soon.”

Mu Huan: “...”

No wonder...

“What happened back then?” Mu Huan asked curiously.

“I’m not sure. I’m not very close with your senior brother,” Bo Junyan said.

Mu Huan: “...”

Every time she heard him say that he wasn't close with her senior brother, she wanted to say that if they weren't close, then she was practically a passerby to her senior brother. "Even if he wasn't, he knew about the death anniversary of the woman Senior Brother loved. He even knew about the situation back then..."

"We've only known each other for a long time," Bo Junyan said.

Mu Huan: "Alright..."

"There's no need to bother about him. He's eccentric and will be fine after a while," Bo Junyan said.

Mu Huan: "..."

He knew that her senior brother would be fine after a while, but he wasn't close with him.

"Come, continue eating." Bo Junyan continued to feed her fruits.

When Li Meng and Wu Xingye, who had returned from outside, saw them like this, the corners of their lips twitched. "I say, can you guys respect the current tense situation?"

There was a bloodbath outside. It felt like Xiao Huan would spend the rest of her life in jail. Right now, not only was the public opinion in Country Y bad, but it had also stirred up a wave of public opinion in the country.

Chapter 1168: Untitled

Xiao Huan, the pride of the country, instantly became an embarrassing existence overseas.

There were even many people who said that there was a problem with the life-extension medicine she had developed. They didn't know if it was refined using some dark method, and...

Anyway, all these words were extremely nasty.

This bad atmosphere that was getting worse and worse made the two of them very worried. Hence, they came over together to see what she planned to do. Unexpectedly, the couple was found kissing at home, and there was no bad atmosphere at all.

This made the two of them break out in a cold sweat.

No matter what, this was such a big matter. She should at least be a little nervous and respect people for making such a big fuss!

“You came just in time. Quick, join my team. Let’s kill them together!” When Mu Huan saw the two of them, she sat up from Bo Junyan’s embrace, looking like she wanted to have a good time.

Li Meng: “...”

Wu Xingye: “...”

“Xiao Huan, you’re still locked up at home. Is it appropriate for you to be so relaxed?” Wu Xingye asked.

“What’s inappropriate about it?”

Li Meng: “...”

Wu Xingye: “...”

There was really nothing inappropriate.

Hence, the two of them sat down and joined Mu Huan’s team.

Their Xiao Huan wasn’t nervous at all. She must have a solution to this matter. There was no need for them to worry. They couldn’t do anything either. It was better to play games together.

This was because the three of them had a hobby of playing games. Furthermore, Wu Xingye was a computer expert. After Mu Huan had the money, she paid for the three of them to form a gaming company together. What they were playing now was the latest game that their company had developed. After their test, the game could be listed. They felt that there was no problem. A very fun game would usually become a hit once it was listed.

Hence, not only did the pharmaceutical company earn money, but the gaming company that Mu Huan and the two of them owned also made her earn a lot.

Seeing that the three of them were playing seriously, Bo Junyan picked up the documents that Yu Hansheng had thrown down earlier.

The room instantly fell silent until Long Feiting barged in.

When he heard that Mu Huan had been caught, although she had been bailed out and had to be imprisoned at home, Long Feiting’s heart was so worried that it was about to burn. He ran over without caring that his leg injury had yet to recover.

It was just that after entering, his nervousness and worry formed a strong contrast to the leisurely entertainment at the scene.

This stunned him and Long Feilei, who was following behind him.

Was there a mistake?! Even now that the matter had blown up, she was still in the mood to play games despite having such an unsolvable problem!

When Mu Huan saw Long Feiting coming in, she immediately called out, “Come, come, come quickly. Let’s see if this game is fun.”

This game was going to be listed on May 1st. They had to hurry up and finish the test while it was the holiday.

Long Feiting: "...!!"

Long Feilei: "...!!"

Bo Junyan looked up at Long Feiting and did not say anything. He lowered his head and continued reading the document in his hand.

It was only when he looked up at Long Feiting that Long Feiting noticed that Bo Junyan was sitting so close to Mu Huan!

He pointed at Bo Junyan and said, "Xiao Huan, why is he here?!"

"Because he's here. What's wrong?" Mu Huan asked, looking up.

"He... he..." Long Feiting thought about it for a long time, but he didn't know what to say. It didn't matter if they were husband and wife in the past or if they were divorced now.

Chapter 1169: Untitled

Given his status, he was in no position to say anything about them separating. In the end, he could only look at Mu Huan with a bitter expression.

How did she progress so quickly with Bo Junyan?

"Come quickly. With you, we can form a team to fight the big boss." Mu Huan beckoned him to quickly join their team.

Long Feiting: "..."

Could she not have a conscience?

Didn't she see that he was feeling terrible?

However, even so, he still sat opposite them and joined their team.

Long Feilei broke out in a cold sweat when he saw the four of them playing like this.

He still had to bring his little brother back later and could not leave. Hence, he sat opposite Bo Junyan and said, "Uncle Bo, looks like you have a plan to deal with this."

"Yes," Bo Junyan replied nonchalantly.

"If there's anything you need me for, feel free to ask," Long Feilei said politely.

Bo Junyan did not stand on ceremony with him and said directly, "Take Long Feiting away."

Although it was impossible for his wife to have anything to do with Long Feiting, he was still annoyed to see such a person who coveted his wife walking around in front of him.

Long Feilei: "..."

What the f*ck!

After a while.

“If you can’t do it, I won’t do it.” Hmph! He wasn’t going to be polite with him anymore!

Bo Junyan glanced at him and did not speak further. He lowered his head and continued reading the documents in his hand.

Long Feilei was fine and went over. “What are you guys playing? Count me in.”

“Come, come, come...” The rest of them welcomed him.

An hour later...

“What game is this? It’s quite interesting!” As the helmsman of the Long family, Long Feilei was very busy all day. He did not have the time to play games, and he felt that there was nothing fun about them. This time, he was bored and decided to play. For the first time, he felt that it was no wonder that young people nowadays liked to play games. This game was indeed interesting.

“This is a new game developed by our company. It’s going to be listed on May 1st,” Mu Huan said.

“Your company?” Long Feilei raised an eyebrow.

“Yes.”

“You even set up a game company?”

“Yes.”

“Brother, didn’t you say that you wanted to find the Three Swordsman game company and sign them? The Three Swordsman is Xiao Huan’s company,” Long Feiting said.

Long Feilei: “...!!”

The Three Swordsman was a new gaming company that had been established two years ago. There were very few games they did that did not explode in popularity. Every time a new game was released, it would become the game with the most people playing in various internet cafes. The mobile games that were released were also very popular.

The Long family had a video game platform under their banner, so they wanted to sign the rights to a game under the Three Swordsmen. However, they did not have the time to get someone to contact them.

Unexpectedly, the boss of this company was Mu Huan!

It was bad enough that she could come up with such a drug, but she had even managed to create such an outstanding game company. Could she be any more formidable?

“You both love to play games. But look at Mu Huan, then look at yourself!” Long Feilei looked at his younger brother with a face full of disappointment. They both played games, but the other party had created such a formidable game company. His younger brother only knew how to play!

“What of me? Didn’t you say that I’m only in charge of eating, drinking, and having fun?” Long Feiting raised an eyebrow.

Long Feilei: "...!!"

Alright! It's all my fault! Spoiling people is terrible!

However, since the boss was here, he decided to talk about business.

Long Feilei looked at Mu Huan and said, "Xiao Huan..."

Chapter 1170: Untitled

"Xiao Meng is the one in charge of this." Mu Huan asked him to talk to Li Meng.

They each had their specialization. Mu Huan was only in charge of providing funds and testing games after they were developed. Li Meng and Wu Xingye were in charge of the rest.

Li Meng was very good at this. Now that she was her assistant, she was in charge of all her business matters.

After Long Feilei and Li Meng chatted for a while, the two happily reached an agreement.

Then, they continued to play games until it was time to eat.

Mu Huan's stomach was like a biological clock. She would be hungry once it was time to eat. To her, eating was the most important thing in the world. Hence, no matter how fun the game was, she would put it down and eat first.

Li Meng and Wu Xingye were both foodies, and games were never as important as food.

After dinner, Long Feiting asked, "Xiao Huan, how do you plan to retaliate?"

Although he knew that Mu Huan wasn't nervous and definitely had a plan, he still wanted to show some concern and see if he could do anything for her.

"I'm counterattacking with facts," Mu Huan said.

"What facts should we use to counterattack?" Long Feiting asked further.

Mu Huan's so-called counterattack with facts was literally to counterattack using facts.

It's true that there were many times in this world where no one would believe you even if you told the truth. However, in this world, it was impossible to fake facts. Everything that had been done would definitely leave traces. If you were not prepared, remained unguarded, and did not pay attention to leaving behind evidence, it would be hard to argue that you were innocent.

However, if you had evidence, it would be easy to prove your innocence. Even a disaster could be easily resolved.

Mu Huan was the kind of person who was prepared. Ever since she was young, she had believed in only one truth. She could not have the intention to harm others, but she could not let her guard down against others. Since she could see Liu Dongxu's indignation and knew that he was making things difficult for her in secret, she naturally had her guard up. Before giving the order to stop such a project, she had thought of all sorts of possible consequences. Hence, along the way, she had kept evidence.

After Johnson died, she didn't idle around. She got someone to investigate his every move before he died. Although the person who'd forced Johnson to die was very careful, Johnson was also a scheming person. He didn't want to die, but he couldn't put up a resistance. He could only die.

This unwillingness made him cleverly leave behind evidence that he had been forced to commit suicide. He wanted such evidence to possibly be exposed and drag down those who had forced him to die.

Mu Huan had found the evidence he had left behind. This evidence was sufficient to prove that the person who had forced Johnson to his death was not Mu Huan but someone else. This evidence, coupled with the evidence that Mu Huan originally had, was enough to clear her name.

The Liu family...

"Dad, Rui Hui's share price has already fallen to the limit. If this continues..." Rui Hui would not be far from bankruptcy.

"Tomorrow, I'll bring the shareholders to talk to Mu Huan and get her to announce to the public that she's abdicating her position as CEO and handing over her authority to me. Then, I'll lead Rui Hui out of this predicament." From now on, everyone would only recognize his leadership ability!

"Nothing has happened on Xiao Huan's end until now. It makes me a little uneasy." After three years of them getting along, Liu Changfeng had come to understand Mu Huan a lot. He knew that she wasn't someone who would allow herself to be beaten up.

"It's indeed a little abnormal that she hasn't taken any action yet." Liu Dongxu also knew that Mu Huan was not ordinary. Besides, even if she was, her ex-husband was certainly not. No matter what, they should have reacted to it by now.

Nothing had happened. It was indeed not good.
