

Fake Marriage 1201

Chapter 1201: No Lack of Money (1)

She liked his face the most. If he was ugly...

What should she do?

She felt terrible just looking at him like this...

She... she... how was she going to...

"I... I have something on. Please help yourselves." With that, Sen Nalin left in a hurry, not caring that she was being rude.

Mu Huan: "..."

Indeed, this method was very direct and effective.

"Sen Nalin might really have something urgent to attend to," Lin Tai explained awkwardly. No matter what, it was rude for her to run away after seeing him.

"Okay." Bo Junyan hummed lightly.

Seeing that he didn't care at all, Lin Tai didn't say anything else.

When Ling Wei saw Sen Nalin rushing to the side, she stood up and followed.

"What's going on?" She was so happy about getting to take care of Bo Junyan, so why was she now so frightened that she'd lost her manners and screamed?

"Bo Junyan didn't catch a cold. He's... his face is ruined..." Sen Nalin recalled the sight she had just seen and felt nauseous. She covered her mouth and retched.

Ling Wei was stunned. Then, she asked, "Why did his face get ruined?"

Putting aside the fact that Mu Huan was a capable person, Bo Junyan too was such a capable person. She didn't hear anything major happening last night, so it was impossible for something to have happened to his face!

"Bitten by rot insects," Sen Nalin said as she could not help but recall the scene earlier. She felt disgusted again.

Ling Wei: "...!!"

It had been a while since she came to Country F. She knew about bugs like rot insects. Today, before they came to these mountains to hunt, they'd even had two layers of preventative fluid sprayed.

But...

"How did he get bitten by those bugs?" How could Bo Junyan not know when so many people knew about the need to spray preventative fluid? This was especially so since he had Mu Huan, the drug expert, by his side!

“I don’t know. I didn’t ask in detail. I can’t even look at him like that,” Sen Nalin said as she recalled that sight. Instantly, her stomach churned.

Ling Wei said, “You have to ask in detail. I think there’s a problem. They’re both doctors. It’s impossible that they didn’t know how to guard against it.”

“Sometimes, the preventative fluid isn’t 100% effective. There are many outsiders who spray the preventative fluid, but it’s useless.” Sen Nalin had lived here since she was young and knew a lot about bugs. It was precisely because of these bugs that the tourism industry in Country F was seriously affected. “Besides, regardless of how he got bitten, he won’t be able to recover to his original state.”

“That might not be the case. His wife, Mu Huan, is the person who developed the life-extension drug. She has many mysterious and strange drugs in her hands. Perhaps she can cure such a poison,” Ling Wei said.

She knew that Sen Nalin was a person who valued looks. She didn’t want to ruin her plan after spending so much effort to redesign it.

“Impossible. No matter how powerful she is, it’s impossible for her to cure this poison. Besides, even if she can cure the poison, it’s only after one is bitten that their skin could be prevented from festering. His had already festered to that extent. There’s no way he can recover!” Sen Nalin felt that unless he had plastic surgery or got a transplant, Bo Junyan’s face would never recover.

However, most people who had undergone plastic surgery would experience various repercussions later on. Hence, she only liked naturally handsome men.

In that case...

She could only give up on Bo Junyan...

What a pity. It hadn’t been easy to find a talented and good-looking person, but in the end...

Chapter 1202: No Lack of Money (2)

Seriously!

The more she thought about it, the more frustrated she became.

Ling Wei felt that Bo Junyan’s ruined face was too much of a coincidence and shouldn’t be possible. She thought that Mu Huan might have sensed that Sen Nalin had ulterior motives toward Bo Junyan, so she said, “I think there’s definitely something wrong with this. Bo Junyan’s face will definitely recover soon!

“When one is in dire straits, what one needs the most is help in times of need. If a woman could treat him well at this time, she would definitely be able to make him look at her in a different light and move his heart!” She was hinting to Senna Lin that she shouldn’t give up now. She should attack!

Now was the best time!

“Why do you think there’s definitely a problem? Why would Bo Junyan’s face be able to recover?” Sen Nalin narrowed her eyes and felt that her motives were not pure.

Although Sen Nalin thought highly of herself, she was not stupid. Ling Wei had repeatedly encouraged her to fight for Bo Junyan. She had to think that there was something wrong with her!

Ling Wei was stunned. She did not expect her to suddenly ask this.

“Say, you’re as kind as an angel. You should be advising others to be kind. Your moral values are very good. Why do you keep hinting to me to fight for Bo Junyan? Bo Junyan already has a wife. No matter how down and out he is, his wife is by his side. Does he need another woman to help him in times of need?”

Ling Wei instinctively said, “I’m not hinting that you should fight for Bo Junyan.”

“Do you think I’m stupid?” Sen Nalin sneered.

After sizing Ling Wei up, she mocked, “It looks like you’re not as kind as an angel. You’re just pretending to be a high-class fake Virgin Mary.”

Ling Wei: “...!!”

“You have a feud with that Mu Huan, so you really want someone to steal her husband?” Sen Nalin raised an eyebrow.

“No, Sen Nalin...” Ling Wei’s face was full of disbelief.

“That’s enough! I’m not a man. You don’t have to pretend in front of me!” Sen Nalin said disdainfully.

“Let me tell you, no matter if you have a grudge with her or not, this is the only time you’re instigating me to do anything. If you dare to use me again, don’t blame me for being rude!”

With Sen Nalin’s identity, there was no need for her to be tactful. If she saw through something, she would be merciless when slapping someone in the face.

“Sen Nalin, you’ve really misunderstood...” Ling Wei tried to explain. She did not expect that the eternally proud and arrogant Sen Nalin was actually someone with brains.

What had happened to her recently?

Why did she keep approaching the wrong people? Because she had underestimated them, her plans kept failing.

“Misunderstood what? Do you think everyone else is stupid and you’re the only smart one?” Sen Nalin sneered.

“No, Sen Nalin...”

“Stay away from me!” With that, Sen Nalin turned around and left.

It hadn’t been easy for her to find a man who was compatible with her in every aspect, but now, the most important man had been ruined. She was in a bad mood and didn’t have the time to watch Ling Wei’s performance. She’d better get lost and not bother her!

Ling Wei did not chase after her.

She knew that Sen Nalin would not believe anything she said now.

As she watched Sen Nalin leave, her expression darkened.

Last night, she and Lily had discussed for an entire night before coming up with a flawless plan. Originally, with their understanding of Sen Nalin, this was definitely possible. They never expected that Bo Junyan would suddenly be disfigured!

On top of that, this Sen Nalin was so smart when she shouldn't be. She couldn't go looking for her again or she would lose more than she had gained.

Chapter 1203: No Lack of Money (3)

Her meticulous plan had been ruined repeatedly. This made Ling Wei's mood extremely gloomy.

This was especially so when she thought about how Mu Huan could have had a strong enemy who could have absolutely destroyed her. Now, not only was it gone, but it could even be said that she had destroyed her own persona. This made her really want to explode!

In the past, no matter what she did, it would always go smoothly. There had never been an accident. No matter how difficult a person or matter was, it would always go smoothly the way she thought it would. Ever since Mu Huan appeared, her life had been constantly failing and accidents kept happening!

Damn Mu Huan!

She must make her die! She must!

"Darling, why are you here?! I've been looking for you for a long time." Sen Tai, who had been looking for her since just now, walked toward her happily when he saw her.

He walked toward her too quickly.

It was so fast that when Ling Wei heard his voice, though she restrained her sinister aura, he still saw her dark and terrifying expression.

This made Sen Tai, who was about to hug her, stop in his tracks and freeze.

Ling Wei looked up at him with an innocent and puzzled expression. "Hubby, what's wrong?"

Sen Tai looked at her pure and gentle expression and felt a little mystified. Could it be that he had seen wrongly just now? That's right, he must have seen wrongly! She wouldn't have revealed such an expression! Her spirit was the most gentle and kind in the world!

On her face, there would always be only sunshine and gentleness. There would never be such ruthlessness and evilness!

"It's fine," he said as he pulled her into his embrace. "Let's go over there. All the guests are here."

"Okay." Ling Wei followed him toward Bo Junyan.

Sen Tai thought about what she had said previously and was afraid that she would give Mu Huan a look. Hence, he said, "Ling, although I know you can't stand Mu Huan's actions, I really need her right now. So... do you understand?"

"I understand. I know what to do," Ling Wei said gently.

When Sen Tai saw how gentle, sensible, and considerate she was, he felt even more that he had seen wrongly just now.

Although Bo Junyan and Mu Huan did not say anything after arriving, everyone knew that Bo Junyan had been bitten by bugs.

This made everyone look at Bo Junyan with sympathy and pity.

Such a perfect person had become so imperfect.

Although this was the first time Bo Junyan had been surrounded by such sympathetic and regretful gazes, his expression did not change.

Even if he felt that being good-looking was useful, it was only because of Mu Huan. He didn't care about what others thought of him.

Although Sen Nalin had lost control and left just now, it was impossible for her to disappear for a long time on such an occasion. Besides, she had only fallen in love with Bo Junyan at first sight. She had only taken a fancy to his face and family background, and she did not have any deep feelings for him.

Hence, she could give up easily and her emotions quickly recovered.

However, even though she had given up on Bo Junyan and knew that Ling Wei wanted to use her...

This did not mean that she would not dislike Mu Huan.

It was because she'd had the best of Bo Junyan. She'd had such a good-looking man for so long. It was really unpleasant!

Hence...

Sen Nalin looked at Mu Huan and raised an eyebrow. "I heard that Madam Bo is versatile and has excellent archery skills. Let's compete and see who can hunt more prey, shall we?"

Without waiting for Mu Huan to say anything, she added...

Chapter 1204: No Lack of Money (4)

"If you can defeat me, your pharmaceutical factory will resume its operations tonight."

The leader had always doted on this daughter of his. Furthermore, he had originally planned to allow Mu Huan's pharmaceutical factory to revive. Hence, he did not say anything and only looked at Sen Nalin dotingly.

Ling Wei was a little surprised. She was surprised that Sen Nalin had already given up on Bo Junyan yet was still so obvious about making things difficult for Mu Huan.

This was because Sen Nalin's archery skills were top-notch. Given her status, if Mu Huan were to win against her, she would be in trouble with the leader.

Sen Nalin added, "If you lose, your pharmaceutical factory will be in trouble!"

“You can’t find an excuse to not compete. If you find an excuse to not compete, then the pharmaceutical factory can forget about resuming its operations.”

Mu Huan looked at Sen Nalin, who was obviously looking for trouble, and her lips curved into a devilish smile. Threatening her?

She was a peace-loving person. Whatever could be settled peacefully, she wanted to resolve it well. Everyone would win. It was just like how, when she felt that Sen Nalin had taken a fancy to Bo Junyan and might make things difficult for her because of this, her first thought had been to resolve this matter peacefully and disfigure her husband.

However, this did not mean that this was the only method she had. It did not mean that this was the only method that was faster and more direct. She had a faster and more direct method. For example, she could poison Sen Nalin until she was unconscious. She could do it so that no one would be able to find any traces of who had done it.

In other words, Mu Huan merely preferred peace, but it didn’t mean that she was afraid of a fight.

She had already ruthlessly ruined her husband’s face, yet Sen Nalin still found her to be an eyesore and threatened her.

She couldn’t take it anymore.

Although her factory was set up here and this was their territory, her pharmaceutical factory had brought a lot of work and benefits to this place. She was doing business normally, not demanding anything from them. If they were unwilling to cooperate, then she could leave!

Previously, Rui Hui had built a large factory here because their relevant departments had hired merchants. As the workers here were cheap, and some of the raw materials were relatively cheap as well, Rui Hui had built the largest factory here. As for Mu Huan, she had plenty of money now. She didn’t lack money. If she was unhappy, she would withdraw the factory. She didn’t need to act according to their expressions, and she didn’t need to fawn over them. What was there to be afraid of?!

Mu Huan had come here because a batch of semi-finished drugs needed to be produced urgently. It was a matter of urgency. Hence, she spoke nicely and negotiated, giving them huge benefits in order to quickly produce this batch of drugs.

Mu Huan was especially in need of this batch of drugs. However, she had always liked to prepare with both hands. Hence, before coming here, she had mobilized all her connections to contact other pharmaceutical factories and worked overtime to produce those drugs. Now, she was almost done preparing them.

Hence, even if there was still her current predicament, she didn’t care.

If good negotiations didn’t work, then they’d break up. It’s that simple!

Bo Junyan’s expression darkened when he heard this. No matter who it was, they could not threaten his wife!

Seeing that Bo Junyan was about to say something, Mu Huan reached out and pressed his arm. “Let me destroy her!”

Competing on horseback archery?

Ha!

Look at Mu Huan's background! Their Yun Cheng was famous for riding and shooting. Her archery was so good that she could hit the bullseye with her eyes closed. How could Sen Nalin compete with her in hunting?

Since she was asking for it, then don't blame Mu Huan for being rude!

Knowing his wife's capabilities, Bo Junyan did not stop her. "Yes."

Mu Huan stood up naughtily. "Alright!"

When she saw that she had accepted the challenge, Sen Nalin's lips curled up. Just wait and see how she'd torture her!

Chapter 1205: Who's Abusing Whom? (1)

People like Sen Nalin, who held a high position, had always been free to do whatever they wanted. If they didn't like someone and wanted them to feel embarrassed or unhappy, they didn't need any reason to do it. If they didn't like someone, they would torture them.

They didn't think that they would lose either. They were all abnormally confident.

This was especially so for Sen Nalin, who had grown up on horseback. Hunting in the mountains was her greatest hobby, and this was also the place she was most familiar with. Even when she closed her eyes, she'd still know what kind of animals were around. Hence, be it the accuracy of their archery or their familiarity with the terrain, she felt that Mu Huan, an outsider, could not compare with her.

She would never win!

Since it was a competition, there had to be rules.

The rules of the competition were relatively simple. Within two hours, they would see who had caught the most prey.

A ferocious and large prey was more important than a gentle animal like a rabbit. All the prey had to be hunted by the person themselves.

For the sake of safety, apart from the security personnel following them, the two of them also wore miniature cameras and locators to ensure their safety and also ensure the fairness of the competition. This was because the scene of their hunt would be broadcasted live so that the people in the hunting ground could see it through the big screen.

"Mr. Bo, you don't have to worry. Even if Madam Bo loses, the pharmaceutical factory will return as scheduled. Nalin was just joking." The leader looked at Bo Junyan and smiled.

Bo Junyan: "Yes, I'm not worried."

"Come, let's drink." The leader raised the cup in his hand.

Bo Junyan picked up the cup on the table.

The leader was about to say something when he recalled that his face had been bitten by rot insects. He couldn't drink now.

At the thought of this, he could not help feeling a little regretful. He could tell that his daughter had liked Bo Junyan. He was happy to see him succeed because the economic resources under the Bo Group were what they needed urgently. A business genius like him was also what they lacked. If he could become his son-in-law, their economic development would definitely be rapid in the future.

Unexpectedly, something had happened to his face.

His precious daughter valued looks the most. If his face was not good, it would be useless no matter how good the conditions were. He could not do anything to her.

When Bo Junyan was drinking water, he did not hide it and directly took off his mask to drink. When the people present saw his face under the mask, they instantly looked away.

Everyone felt that it was a pity!

Especially Lin Tai, who was sitting beside Bo Junyan.

He felt especially regretful.

Bo Junyan was such a perfect person, but now...

So...

It was so tragic!

Just as the atmosphere was a little awkward and no one knew what to say...

On the screen, Sen Nalin had caught a rabbit.

This was the first prey in this match.

"Nalin's archery is getting better and better." The leader's wife looked at her daughter on the big screen with pride.

"Yes." The leader's face was also full of pride.

Compared to Sen Nalin, who had caught a rabbit so quickly, Mu Huan was still fighting with her mount.

Her horse didn't seem to like her that well. It was agitated and wanted to throw her down.

"Is Madam Bo not good at riding and shooting?" The leader looked at Bo Junyan and said, "If she's really not good at it, then this competition will be canceled!"

If anything happened to her here, it would be troublesome.

After all, it was his daughter who'd forced her to compete.

"It's fine," Bo Junyan said.

Chapter 1206: Who's Abusing Whom? (2)

“She can’t even ride a horse well...” the leader’s wife said.

“She’s good at horse riding. There’s something wrong with the horse.” Bo Junyan’s voice was cold.

If not for that, he knew that his wife would be fine.

Someone had already made a move.

Lin Tai, who was sitting beside him, instantly understood what he meant. This made him frown.

It was Sen Nalin who had gotten someone to tamper with Mu Huan’s horse.

He looked at the leader and his sister.

Mu Huan couldn’t get into trouble here. If anything happened to her here, they would be in big trouble!

Although they were the biggest shots here, they were nothing on the global scale, especially since there were so many other big shots waiting for Mu Huan’s life-extension medicine. If she...

Seriously! It would be troublesome!

The leader understood what he meant. He also knew that it would be very troublesome for Mu Huan if something had happened to her horse. Besides, even if there was no trouble, it was not right for his daughter to do such a thing in public. He frowned and asked his capable assistant to go to the hunting area to take a look.

Hunting area...

Mu Huan’s horse had indeed been tampered with. Not only did Sen Nalin want her to lose, but she also wanted her to lose terribly! It would make one feel that she couldn’t compete with her at all!

Just as Mu Huan was trying her best to subdue her horse...

Sen Nalin was holding the reins with one hand and her wild rabbit with the other. She bragged, “Yo, I’ve got my prey, and you can’t even ride a horse!”

Mu Huan smiled and did not speak. She patted her horse and threw a tiny grain that would not be noticed by others into the eyes of Sen Nalin’s horse. Instantly, her horse started swinging wildly!

It made Sen Nalin, who was caught off guard, fall from her horse.

If it weren’t for the fact that the bodyguards who had been by her side to protect her were quick to react and caught her in time, she might not have been able to get up!

Just as Sen Nalin was caught in a sorry state, Mu Huan had managed to settle her horse. She looked valiant on the horse and said condescendingly, “It looks like you can’t ride the horse well enough that you fell off.”

“Did you do something?!” The horse Sen Nalin was riding was her beloved horse, and she rode it almost every day. It had never swung someone so violently like it did today!

Mu Huan must have done something to her horse to make it throw her down!

“What did I do?” Mu Huan raised an eyebrow.

Mu Huan had never been afraid of anyone who came to plot against her!

“I’m asking you!”

“Weren’t you the one who said that I did something?” Mu Huan had a look on her face that said, Aren’t you just forcing me to get charged? You can do whatever you want here. If you want to say that I did something, then I did it.

“You...!!” Sen Nalin felt that no matter what, her horse would not have suddenly thrown her off. However, she had no evidence to prove that Mu Huan had done anything.

This was because Mu Huan had never had the chance to touch her horse since she came in. It was impossible for her to have had the time to tamper with it.

Just as she snapped back to her senses and was about to say something...

The leader’s confidant had arrived. He strode to Sen Nalin’s side, bent down, and whispered something into her ear.

Sen Nalin glared at Mu Huan unwillingly and got someone to bring another horse in.

Although she would not do anything now, she would not let Mu Huan off!

She must have done something to her horse!

Chapter 1207: Who’s Abusing Whom? (3)

Mu Huan politely waited for Sen Nalin’s new mount to arrive before dispersing to hunt.

Compared to Sen Nalin, who had relied on her familiarity with the terrain the moment she entered the hunting zone, she had followed the first step of hunting.

Mu Huan had waited for Sen Nalin’s new mount to arrive before going on a hunt. This kind of etiquette made Lin Tai feel even more ashamed.

They were the owners of this place, and the other party was a guest. Sen Nalin had clearly made things difficult for the other party and had even tampered with her horse. If she still wanted to snatch Bo Junyan from Mu Huan, that would have been understandable. However, she had clearly given up on Bo Junyan because she despised his face, yet she still did such a thing.

He was really...

It was so embarrassing that Lin Tai felt that he would never be able to face Bo Junyan and his wife again!

Bo Junyan stared at Mu Huan on the big screen and smiled.

This was what he liked about his wife.

She wasn’t evil and had never taken the initiative to cause trouble. However, if anyone were to plot against her, she would be even more sinister and ruthless! With her acting skills, it wouldn’t be a problem for her to win an Oscar.

Hunting area...

Sen Nalin was indeed formidable. Soon, she caught another antelope.

The antelope was considered a large prey. One antelope was equivalent to ten wild rabbits.

Sen Nalin was very happy to have caught the antelope.

This was because if one didn't go deeper into this hunting zone, the antelopes were considered the largest animals. Furthermore, there were very few antelopes here, so it was very difficult to hunt them.

Although this was a primeval forest, as the leader's hunting area, most of the animals in the hunting area outside the forest were released regularly by the leader.

Hence, Sen Nalin knew the approximate number of animals here.

Although there were more prey and more ferocious wild beasts in the depths of the forest, there were also many rot insects in the depths of the forest because of the dense damp plants. Even though they had sprayed protective fluids, people did not dare to rashly enter the forest to take risks. They were afraid that the protective fluids could only guard against a few but not a group of poisonous bugs.

Hence, Mu Huan could only go nearby and only had about an hour left. It would be difficult for her to catch prey that surpassed hers!

Especially since Mu Huan had yet to even hit a rabbit!

Because of the communication device, the people sitting in the resting area could know about their situation. The two of them could also know about each other's situation.

Soon, Sen Nalin, who was familiar with the habits of her prey, shot another rabbit.

She had three prey in her hands, but Mu Huan did not have a single one. This made her feel that she was almost sure to win. Hence, she said smugly to the earpiece, "Madam Bo, don't be anxious. In the end, if you really can't hunt anything, I'll give you some prey so that you won't look so ugly."

As she did not want her father to be angry when he heard this, she had temporarily turned off the microphone that she was carrying with her.

"Thank you for your kind intentions, then." Mu Huan smiled gratefully at her as if she did not understand her sarcasm.

"Hypocrite! You're such a hypocrite! You must be so angry that you want to curse me, yet you still thanked me!" Sen Nalin snorted.

"I'm really thanking you," Mu Huan said.

She still had the cheek to say that others were hypocritical. Wasn't she the first one to be hypocritical? She clearly wanted to see her make a fool of herself and embarrass her, but she pretended to be kind and give her prey so that she wouldn't lose face.

She was like this, yet she still pointed at what others did!

"Thanking me for what?"

“Thanking you for your kind intentions. I’ll laugh at you later!” Before Mu Huan spoke, she had turned off the microphone on her.

Chapter 1208: Who’s Abusing Whom? (4)

She didn’t like to hear things that could diminish her dignity? Alright, then, be direct!

“Do you see me as a joke? Mu Huan, where did your confidence come from?” She hadn’t even hunted a prey yet, but she already felt that she would be the last one to laugh!

“I was born with it,” Mu Huan said seriously.

“I think you’re mentally ill. You’d better go back and see a doctor!” Sen Nalin sneered.

“You’re the one with a problem. Why don’t I give you a checkup for free later? I have a Ph.D. in psychology as well. You look like you need it,” Mu Huan said with a smile.

“Mu Huan, do you want to die?!” How dare she say that about her?!

“No, I don’t want to die,” Mu Huan answered seriously again.

Sen Nalin: “...!!”

When she snapped back to her senses, she instinctively said, “You’re indeed not a good person. No wonder she wanted to deal with you!”

Mu Huan suddenly narrowed her eyes. Someone wanted to deal with her? And was she related to Sen Nalin and was relatively familiar with her? She knew that if she asked Sen Nalin who wanted to deal with her, she would definitely not say anything. Hence, she deliberately said, “You wanted to deal with me, but because you were afraid that others would know, you used someone else?”

“Are you kidding me? Do I need to be afraid of dealing with you? I don’t like you. If I wanted to deal with you, I’ll tell you clearly! Just like now!” Sen Nalin had never needed to hate someone in secret!

It wasn’t that Sen Nalin was a straightforward and upright person. It was just that with her status, she could deal with anyone she wanted with just a word. There was no need for her to tolerate anything at all. There was no need for her to do anything secretly.

“I don’t believe it. It must be you! Just now, you said that I was hypocritical. Now, you’re slapping my face!”

Mu Huan’s words instantly made Sen Nalin furious. “If I tell you that it’s not me, then it’s not me. I’m not as hypocritical as you people. I’m clearly not a good person, but I at least don’t pretend to be good!”

“Then who is it? You don’t even want to say who it is. There’s definitely no such person. This person is just a fabrication. You’re simply...”

“Yu Ling! My uncle’s new wife! She’s been egging me on to get Bo Junyan, your husband. She’s so eager for someone to snatch Bo Junyan away. She must have something against you and wants to deal with you! This is an absolute fact. If you don’t believe me, you can investigate!” Sen Nalin could not accept anyone slandering her. Furthermore, Yu Ling did not ask her to keep this matter a secret. It wasn't like she couldn't tell Mu Huan. What wouldn't she tell her if that would make Mu Huan suspect her?!

If Sen Nalin said no, then no!

Just like that, Mu Huan succeeded in getting information from Sen Nalin.

Yu Ling...

Sen Tai's wife.

That woman who had made her and Bo Junyan feel that there was something wrong with her.

She wanted Sen Nalin to snatch Bo Junyan away and deal with her. Did she have a feud with her?

What sort of conflict could there be?

She didn't even know that woman.

Especially since her husband did not recognize her.

Mu Huan had lost her memory, but her husband did not. If he knew that woman or if that woman was their enemy, he should be able to recognize her.

However, Sen Nalin must have her reasons for saying so...

Suddenly, a commotion broke Mu Huan's train of thought.

She snapped back to her senses and realized that she was still in a competition. She hurriedly focused on the prey that had run out.

She would talk about Yu Ling after she returned.

Ever since Mu Huan came in, she had not caught a single prey. It was because she was familiarizing herself with the terrain and setting up a bait.. Now, the bait she had set had drawn out all the prey that should have come out.

Chapter 1209: Who's Abusing Whom? (5)

It was the sound of a wild boar.

The wild boar was especially big, about 200 kilograms.

Mu Huan shot an arrow, and the injured wild boar howled and charged toward her.

An injured wild beast was the most ferocious, especially a wild boar with sharp teeth. When a wild boar was furious, humans would not be able to withstand a single blow from it!

This made the hearts of the people watching the big screen clench instinctively. One had to know that such a huge wild boar had such a ferocious impact. If it charged forward, Mu Huan and the person in charge of protecting her would be crippled!

When the security officers in charge of protecting Mu Huan saw this, they shouted, "Madam Bo, please get out of the way!"

As they shouted, they wanted to rush up to protect her.

“Get out of the way!” Mu Huan made them move aside.

Then, she faced the wild boar head-on and narrowed her eyes. She drew her bow and shot another arrow.

This arrow hit the boar’s head, and the fat boar instantly collapsed!

That massive body smashed into the small tree beside him!

Her arrow was so accurate that the surrounding bodyguards widened their eyes in shock! They had initially suspected that this petite Asian woman did not know how to hunt, especially since she did not do anything just now. She was just riding a horse.

Unexpectedly...

They really didn’t expect her archery to be so accurate!

She was able to shoot the wild boar in the head with one arrow! She even shot it down!

This...

Be it accuracy or strength, they were completely incomparable!

Outside the hunting ground...

Everyone widened their eyes in shock. Only Bo Junyan’s lips curled up slightly as he looked at Mu Huan on the big screen with a dotting expression.

Hunting was child’s play to his wife. She could completely torture Sen Nalin!

Mu Huan and Sen Nalin knew what prey they had hunted and how much they had hunted.

Previously, it was said that the big ones could be added up with the small ones.

Sen Nalin now had three preys: two hares and an antelope.

There was only one for Mu Huan.

However, a wild boar far surpassed all the prey Sen Nalin had right now.

This made Sen Nalin, who had thought that she would win, anxious.

“Why is there a wild boar here?! And it’s such a big one!” she shouted angrily at the person beside her.

The person who followed her was the person in charge of the hunting ground. He knew the prey in the vicinity the best.

“Although wild boars have always been in the depths of the forest, there are times when they would run out...” Afraid that something would happen to the nobles in the hunting grounds, they had set a boundary between the outer forest and the depths of the forest. At the boundary, they had set up some things that ferocious wild beasts were afraid of, making them rarely run out. However, it didn’t mean that there weren’t any. Sometimes, the ferocious beasts in the depths of the forest would run out if there was nothing to eat. However, that was usually in the winter. Now that there was a lot of food, they shouldn't run out.

But even if one ran out, there was nothing he could do.

Just as Sen Nalin was about to say something...

Mu Huan's bodyguards wanted to go up and get the wild boar into the car.

"Don't move," Mu Huan ordered.

Just as everyone was about to ask why she didn't want them to move...

Mu Huan drew her bow again.

Everyone looked in the direction of her arrow and saw another black wild boar running toward them. This wild boar was slightly smaller than the previous one, but it looked terrifyingly ferocious.

Without another word, Mu Huan shot two arrows in succession. The wild boar that was running toward them collapsed after she shot the second arrow.

Chapter 1210: Who's Abusing Whom? (6)

Two huge boars were killed by Mu Huan just like that.

Sen Nalin was about to go crazy when she saw that she had shot another wild boar!

"They don't usually appear, don't they? But she's so lucky to have bumped into two!" She felt that this was too unbelievable! It was impossible!

The woodsman: "..."

She was indeed lucky. He had only encountered a wild boar once or twice even though he was here every day.

Mu Huan had encountered two at once!

They didn't know that it wasn't that Mu Huan was lucky, but that she had set up bait. People said that dogs had sharp noses, but pigs also had sharper noses. From afar, they could smell the bait that Mu Huan had set up. Furthermore, Mu Huan was at the boundary. If they walked further, they would be deep in the forest. Hence, when the wild boars smelled it, they ran out.

In a truly dangerous primeval forest, wild boars would basically travel in pairs. At least two to four of them would travel together. Hence, if there was a first one, there was a possibility that there would be a second, third, or fourth.

The more she thought about it, the more she felt that Mu Huan must have used some method to attract the wild boars. Hence, she ran toward Mu Huan.

Just as she arrived, she saw two more wild boars jumping out.

She hurriedly drew her bow and shot an arrow. She didn't care if Mu Huan was the one who had summoned them. In any case, they'd still be dead. Who did they belong to?!

Mu Huan frowned unhappily when she saw her running over to snatch her prey.

She was a lazy person. After fighting these wild boars, she would definitely win, so she did not want to move. She did not expect Sen Nalin to have the nerve to come over and snatch her prey.

What the f*ck...

If Sen Nalin were to fight these two boars, she would lose.

Sen Nalin's archery was indeed good. She shot the wild boar.

However, before that wild boar could collapse, she'd aimed at another wild boar.

The wild boar that she had shot was already her prey. Now, she wanted to take the second prey!

If these two wild boars became her prey, then Mu Huan would definitely lose!

However, just as she aimed at the wild boar, Mu Huan shot an arrow.

"Mu Huan! You stole my prey!" Sen Nalin looked at Mu Huan angrily.

"I stole your prey? You really have the cheek to say that!" Mu Huan didn't know how she could have the nerve to say such things. She was clearly the one who'd ran over to snatch the prey that Mu Huan had lured out.

"Why would I be embarrassed to say that?! I was aiming at it! I saw it first! It's my prey!" Sen Nalin said.

Mu Huan felt that it was useless to argue with someone as unreasonable as her. Hence, she said, "The rules of the game are that whoever kills the prey will be responsible for it."

As she spoke, she shot two arrows at the same time and shot down the wild boar that she had just shot.

"Damn it... you!" Sen Nalin was about to say something.

She heard a gasp.

She instinctively looked up and saw that the wild boar she had shot earlier was running toward her.

As there were too many trees in the forest and the horses would alarm the prey, they got off their horses after entering the forest.

Now, she was standing there, not on a horse. That injured wild boar was charging toward her at an especially fast speed, making her instinctively unable to run as she had frozen.

When Mu Huan saw this, she instinctively drew her bow, wanting to shoot this wild boar to death to avoid any accidents to befall Sen Nalin.

Unexpectedly...

"You're not allowed to steal my prey!" Sen Nalin thought that Mu Huan wanted to take the opportunity to steal her wild boar.
