

Fake Marriage 1361

Chapter 1361: Settlement (4)

This Mu Huan was really too scheming! Terrifying!

Previously, no matter how Liu Changfeng thought about it, he could not think of a way for Mu Huan to resolve this matter. This was because after he heard his father's plan, he'd felt that there was no solution.

But now, he knew what it meant by the saying, there's always a higher mountain. What they thought could definitely destroy Mu Huan and make her unable to turn the tables was easily overturned by her.

In fact, the traces left behind by their actions became evidence that she had.

She had really dug a huge hole and wanted to bury them.

"Have the things from Country F arrived?" Mr. Liu said with a sinister gaze.

"They'll be here by tonight," Liu Changfeng said.

Mr. Liu sneered. "Then prepare to take action!"

"Yes."

There were two sides to most things in this world. It was the same for scientific research. If there was a rescue, there would be a harm.

Mr. Liu and the people from Country F that Sen Da had sent worked together to develop a super virus.

Once one was infected with this virus, the first symptoms would be a cold, a headache, and a fever. It would quickly turn into pneumonia, and eventually, one would die from respiratory failure.

This virus was spread through the air.

Unless one wore a super protective shield, it would be effective. Ordinary masks were useless. This kind of virus could even spread between people.

Simply put, it was like any epidemic that had erupted on a large scale in the past. However, the mortality rate of this virus was extremely high!

To deal with people like Bo Junyan and Mu Huan, one had to have power, means, and strength. If one wanted to fight someone who was especially good at fighting, Mr. Liu felt that the chances of winning were too small. After seeing how they didn't die in Country F, he felt that the chances were even lower.

If they were to use this super virus to deal with them, even if they didn't die from the illness, they could still take the opportunity to do something when they were sick and defenseless!

That would greatly increase their chances of winning!

Hence, when Sen Da suggested that he use the super virus to deal with them, he immediately agreed.

Research on these super viruses was absolutely confidential. The person who sent them over was also Sen Da's confidant. A virus was something that could not be detected with a small test. Furthermore, it was spread through the air. It was colorless and odorless. As soon as they saw Mu Huan, they could release it in the air.

The success rate was 100%.

Who wouldn't choose to use it?

Also, after spreading this super virus, apart from killing Bo Junyan and Mu Huan, they could also make a fortune from a disaster. This was because this disease was especially contagious. It could spread like wildfire, and the vaccine had already been developed to treat this virus.

When the time came, he would be able to earn back all the money he had lost.

Many a time, there were some things that were darker than the night. One could not think too deeply about it. It was too terrifying to contemplate.

Mu Huan had provided the agreement as evidence. In order to settle this matter as soon as possible, the Shell Prize committee immediately announced it to the public. This had slapped many people in the face!

They had so confidently said that Mu Huan must have forcefully taken the results, and they had scolded Mu Huan like a dog. In the end...

There was such a turn of events!

What the f*ck...

Those people in the country who were scolding Mu Huan on the Internet for making them lose face all over the world fell silent.

There were also many people who were glad that they did not express their opinions back then. Now that this piece of news had made things turn around, it was too face-smacking!

There were many things that one could easily be slapped in the face with if one were to express one's opinion too early without knowing the details.

With that statement, Mu Huan's reputation, which had been tarnished, was transformed into that of being a stellar Chinese.

Through Bo Junyan's connections, the pharmaceutical factories in Rui Hui, which had been sealed by the relevant authorities, could only stop operations.. After some modifications, they could continue operating.

Chapter 1362: Don't Be Afraid (1)

As for the matter of Mr. Liu transferring Rui Hui's assets, so he could avoid being implicated, the shares that he had secretly taken had all been returned to Mu Huan's hands. The assets that he had transferred had also somehow returned to Mu Huan's hands.

Although Mr. Liu had paid a huge amount of bail and was temporarily out, his crimes were irrefutable. In the end, he would still be sentenced.

Mu Huan had won this battle against Mr. Liu!

This made the shareholders and executives of the company no longer dare to look down on her or oppose her.

Mr. Liu was such a powerful person, but he was almost killed by her. It was better for them to know their place. Anyway, no matter who became the CEO, it was good as long as they could earn a bonus!

Mu Huan really sat firmly in the CEO's seat.

As Yu Hansheng had always felt that there was a stench on his body, even though he wanted to settle scores with Mu Huan and Bo Junyan right away, he continued to soak at home for three days before leaving.

The moment he stepped out, he saw Mu Huan's victorious situation.

"Ha, you're really capable!" Yu Hansheng mocked.

Mu Huan looked up at him and was shocked. "Yo, Senior Brother, what's wrong?"

"What's wrong?" Yu Hansheng sneered. She actually had the cheek to ask him what's wrong!

"Have you been soaking in water?" His face was swollen...

"What do you think?" Yu Hansheng's smile turned even colder.

"Why are you speaking to me in such a weird tone? It's not like I'm the one who caused you to be in this state. You're upset and angry. Every grievance has its perpetrator. Go find the culprit!" Mu Huan snorted.

"You're the mastermind! Do you dare to say that you didn't release the water?" Although Yu Hansheng didn't leave the house, he got someone to investigate.

He also found the two bodyguards from that time. Although there was only the bodyguard's fingerprint on the remote control, the bodyguard was very sure that when he fainted, he did not press the fire button. At that time, Bo Junyan and Mu Huan had gone to the concert. Bo Junyan had barged in to save him. Mu Huan must have been outside. This matter must have been done by her!

He thought of something and his expression turned even more sinister. "Did you already know that it was dirty water? It was only after Bo Junyan had left that you released it!"

"You're really wronging me! I really didn't know that it would be that kind of dirty water!" She wasn't a god. She couldn't even have known such a small detail in advance, let alone think of it!

"You're admitting that you released the water there!"

"What's wrong even if I did? I saved you out of kindness. Even if you didn't accept my kindness and I wasn't around, that bodyguard would still have used such a method to save you! You wouldn't have been able to escape such an outcome!" Mu Huan's face was full of disbelief.

“Don’t blame this and that. If you want to blame someone, the person you should blame the most is yourself! If you hadn’t hurt her like that, why would she be treating you like this? Even a vicious tiger wouldn’t eat its cubs. You could even lay your hands on your own son and wanted to burn her and her son to death. No matter what others do to you, it’s only right!”

Mu Huan knew that he would definitely not tell her the details of what happened back then. Hence, she deliberately provoked him.

“What do you know?!” Yu Hansheng said angrily.

“I’m saying what I know.”

“You...” Just as Yu Hansheng was about to say something, he suddenly realized that Mu Huan was deliberately provoking him to get the words out. Hence, he did not say the rest.

Seeing this, Mu Huan pouted.

Yu Hansheng had originally come here in a rage to settle scores with Mu Huan and Bo Junyan. But now that he was here, he didn’t know how to settle scores with them.

Chapter 1363: Don’t Be Afraid (2)

In the end, he could only say, “Remember this!”

When he had the chance, he would definitely return it with interest!

“Yes, I’ll remember! It’s rare for you to be in such a sorry state. I’ll always remember it. When I’m about to forget, I’ll hold a memorial ceremony and try to remember it forever!” Mu Huan was also not afraid of death.

Yu Hansheng was so angry that he wanted to rush forward, pull her up, and throw her into a biochemical pool.

However, just as he was about to move...

Mu Huan threw him a bottle.

“What?”

“It can improve your special physique. After you take it, you won’t be afraid of the fragrance anymore.” As a junior sister, she was not devoid of a conscience. She did think of him.

“At least you know what’s good for you.” Yu Hansheng snorted. On account that she was still useful, he would let her off for now.

After he left...

Mu Huan looked at Bo Junyan and said, “Hubby, how do you think my senior brother will deal with Ouyang Xiaoxiao?”

“I don’t know.”

“Guess!”

“I can’t guess.”

Mu Huan: “...”

Her husband was really no gossip!

She stood up and moved all the documents beside her toward Bo Junyan.

“I’m tired in the spring, tired in the autumn, and sleepy in the summer. I’ll go take a nap. I’ll leave all of these to you, Hubby.” With that, she kissed Bo Junyan’s face and happily went upstairs to prepare for her game time. If she didn’t gossip, she would be sleepy. It was better to play games. It felt like she had not played games in a long time.

Unexpectedly, she had just happily jumped two steps away when...

Bo Junyan’s long legs followed her and bent down to pick her up.

“I was just about to take a nap. Let’s go together.”

Mu Huan: “...”

Yu Hansheng had originally sent someone to capture Ouyang Xiaoxiao on the day of the incident, but when he thought about how his body was smelly and that he couldn’t see her even if he captured her, he canceled that order.

Now, he felt that it was possible.

Just as he was leaving Mu Huan’s house to get someone to capture Ouyang Xiaoxiao, he saw a good-looking little cutie standing outside his house.

They had only met once at the banquet.

However, that small face was etched so deep in his mind that he would think of it from time to time.

And now, all of a sudden, he saw that tiny face, that tiny little person.

Yu Hansheng was stunned where he stood and did not move. It was as if someone had cast an immobilizing spell on him, making him unable to move.

On the other hand, the tiny person walked toward him fearlessly when he saw him.

Then, when he was a step away from him, he stopped and sized him up. “Eh, why did you gain weight in just a few days?”

Yu Hansheng: “...”

He was swollen.

“First, let me introduce myself. My name is Ouyang Chen.” Ouyang Chen introduced himself very politely.

Yu Hansheng: “...”

“You’re my biological daddy, right?” After the banquet, although his mommy did not say anything, based on their similar looks and his identity as his mommy’s ex-boyfriend, he could almost confirm that he was his biological daddy.

When Yu Hansheng, who could not move at all, heard this, he became so stiff that his breathing became irregular. He did not know what to say and could only stand there stiffly and look at the child.

Xiaoxiao... Xiaoxiao didn’t hide it from her child?

She... she told the child... that he was his biological father?

She... she...

Yu Hansheng did not know what to think.

“Don’t be afraid. I’m not here to make you take responsibility. I just want to ask, did you not want me back then? Did you want to kill me?”

Chapter 1364: Don’t Be Afraid (3)

Yesterday, Ouyang Chen had accidentally overheard his mother and Daddy David saying that he, his biological father, had wanted his mother dead.

Hence, his mother hated him.

He was afraid that there was a misunderstanding, so he couldn’t wait to ask if it was true.

If it was true, then this biological father would be his sworn enemy forever.

If there was a misunderstanding, then the matter could be resolved.

Yu Hansheng: “...!!”

For such a small child to say such words, Yu Hansheng was so shocked that he stuttered.

Wasn’t... wasn’t he just a four-year-old child?

He... he... How could he say such things?!

He...

Were children nowadays so mature?

“Are you afraid?” Ouyang Chen narrowed his eyes.

Could it be that he had really wanted his mother to die? If that was the case, not only would he not want him as a biological father, but he would also avenge his mother in the future!

Yu Hansheng: “...”

Afraid?

He was really a little afraid...

He was afraid of this child.

He didn't know how to face him.

"Is it difficult to answer my question? Why aren't you saying anything?" Ouyang Chen frowned. He had said so much, but why didn't the man say anything?

Yu Hansheng: "..."

His question was simple, but it was difficult for him to answer.

He didn't know what to say.

He didn't know how to face this child.

Just as Ouyang Chen was about to ask something...

"Xiao Chen!" Ouyang Xiaoxiao swept over like a tornado and hugged her son tightly.

The kindergarten teacher had called her and told her that her son had disappeared. She was about to go crazy from fright!

Fortunately, her baby was fine...

Fortunately...

Ouyang Chen felt her fear and pinched himself in frustration. Then, he lightly patted Ouyang Xiaoxiao's back and said, "Mommy, I'm fine. Don't be afraid... Mommy, I'm fine..."

Ouyang Xiaoxiao hugged him tightly for a while before letting go.

"What's going on?! Why are you here?!" She did not suspect that Yu Hansheng would kidnap him. This was because she knew Yu Hansheng well. She knew that he did not even know how to face the child now, let alone capture him and snatch the child from her.

"Let me confirm if he's my biological father," Ouyang Chen said as he glared at Yu Hansheng. If it weren't for the fact that the man didn't say anything and made him wait for so long, he could have returned to the kindergarten without anyone noticing and wouldn't have been discovered by his mother!

Ouyang Chen's kindergarten was not far from here.

Ouyang Xiaoxiao: "..."

After a while.

"Didn't Mommy tell you that he's your biological daddy?" She seemed to have told him.

Ouyang Xiaoxiao had never thought of hiding it from her child. She didn't want to hide from her child who his biological father was because not only was David a foreigner, but his bloodline was also different. Given her son's intelligence, he would surely find out. There was no point in hiding this.

"No," Ouyang Chen said firmly.

Ouyang Xiaoxiao: "..."

"I'm sorry. Mommy thought I told you at that banquet." She knew that she would definitely meet Yu Hansheng at the banquet. Hence, she had wanted to take the opportunity to tell her son that this person was his biological father. She didn't expect that she would only think that way and not tell her son.

"Mommy must have used your thoughts to say it, but I didn't receive your thoughts," Ouyang Chen said seriously.

Chapter 1365: Don't Be Afraid (4)

Ouyang Xiaoxiao looked at her son's cute appearance and couldn't help but hug him tightly again. After a while, she said, "But no matter what, you can't run away alone in the future. You especially can't throw away the locator on you! Mommy was almost scared to death when she heard that you were missing..."

Although she knew that her son was smart, mature, and not an ordinary child, no matter what, he was still a child. He couldn't run out alone. It was too dangerous.

"Yes." Ouyang Chen nodded obediently.

"Let's go home." Ouyang Xiaoxiao picked up her son and left.

From the start to the end, she did not take another look at Yu Hansheng.

It was as if he didn't exist.

Yu Hansheng: "..."

The bodyguards hidden in the dark: "..."

They knew that they had a young master, but they had never seen him before. Now that they had met...

It could only be said that he was indeed their master's son!

Such a young child could actually come here by himself! He had even dared to ask their master those questions directly!

Most especially, how did he know that their master was staying here?

One had to know that because their master had many enemies, his residence was so hidden that only close friends would know where it was. How did this child know?

Such an innocent and naive-looking child, but his ability to think so carefully was really scary!

Also, wasn't Master so angry that he wanted to capture Ouyang Xiaoxiao and make her pay a painful price?

Why didn't he allow them to make a move when she came knocking on his door?

"Boss, do you want to ask Master to seize the opportunity to capture Miss Ouyang?" If he could do it now, why would he have to spend so much effort to catch her in the future?

David's status was not only that of a leader in the health department.

He was also from the first line of the four hidden families in Country Y.

With him protecting Ouyang Xiaoxiao, it wouldn't be easy for them to succeed.

"Do you want me to die?" The leader rolled his eyes at the person who had asked.

If Master had wanted them to capture her, he would have given the order long ago. But Master was still so shocked that he couldn't regain his senses. Were they supposed to do it anyway?

Whoever moved would die!

"..." He didn't want his boss to die. He just wanted to relax and not waste their effort!

Yu Hansheng stood there and watched Ouyang Xiaoxiao carry Ouyang Chen into the car. Then, she drove away and completely disappeared from his sight.

He only snapped back to his senses after they had disappeared for a long time.

When he realized that Ouyang Xiaoxiao, whom he had wanted to ask to be captured, had left safely in front of him, his expression darkened. "Get the f*ck out here!"

His shout frightened the bodyguards who were secretly protecting him, and they all ran out.

"Are you all stupid? She was here just now. But you didn't catch her!"

All the bodyguards instantly looked at their boss.

Just now, he had said that he couldn't ask... and he couldn't move...

The leader of the bodyguards: "..."

It really wasn't that he was wrong. He'd dare say that if they had attacked just now, their master would definitely have been furious and would want their lives!

Before the gazes of his brothers, he walked forward.

"I'm sorry, Master. Just now, there was Young Master... No, there was a little kid around. The fighting and the killing that would ensue to capture his mother... we all felt that it wasn't appropriate, so we didn't make a move." He knew that their master was angry now because he wanted to find a way out for himself.

Just now, if Master had really wanted to catch Miss Ouyang, he would have ordered them to do it.

Chapter 1366: The Last Battle (1)

Yu Hansheng thought that this was the case. No matter what, that child was still a child. It was indeed not appropriate to capture his mother in front of him.

He did not say anything else and left with a snort.

Seeing that everything was fine, the bodyguards all gave their boss a thumbs up. Their boss was indeed their boss!

The leader of the bodyguards snorted silently.

He had been by their master's side for so many years. If he couldn't understand their master's thoughts, he would have long died!

At this moment, upstairs.

"Wow! My senior brother's son is so awesome! He's only four years old, but he can already find my senior brother to ask such a question! He's definitely a genius!" Mu Huan exclaimed.

She had come over to draw the curtains just now, but she did not expect to see this scene. That child was simply formidable! Also, that question was really sharp!

Bo Junyan snorted and did not speak. No matter who his wife praised, as long as it was the opposite sex, he would be displeased.

"That child is just like those smart and talented children in the novels I read. He's really, really cute!" Mu Huan couldn't help but say in praise again.

Bo Junyan drew the curtains and picked her up. "Instead of envying others and liking someone else's child, you might as well have one yourself!"

"You have a point! You're so talented and good-looking, and I'm so outstanding and beautiful. Our child would surely be very good-looking, talented, and adorable! Come! Come!" The more Mu Huan thought about it, the more excited she became. The more she thought about it, the more she wanted to have such a little cutie.

Bo Junyan: "..."

From the very start, he had always wanted a child. He got married because he wanted a wife to have a child with. But now, seeing her like this, he suddenly didn't want one anymore. This was because he felt that if they had a child and the child was especially good-looking, he wouldn't exist in his wife's eyes anymore.

The more he thought about it, the more he felt that he should put off having a child for a few years. Anyway, his wife was still very young! When he thought about how he could spend a few more years with her, he instantly felt that it was better to have a child later!

Country F...

After Ling Wei heard the news from Country Y, she snorted and said, "I thought that the Liu father and son would be able to give Mu Huan a hard blow. I didn't expect the two of them to be so weak. I've really overestimated them."

For them to be made so miserable by Mu Huan, they were really... useless!

"Mr. Liu is already very formidable. I can only say that Bo Junyan and Mu Huan are more formidable." Sen Da felt that Mr. Liu had done very well, but he had met a stronger opponent.

When he thought about how formidable Bo Junyan and Mu Huan were, he suddenly felt that using Ling Wei was not worth it. Because of her, he became enemies with people like Bo Junyan and Mu Huan.

If he could become friends with the two of them and have their support, he would definitely be like a tiger that had grown wings. His big business would be completed early!

“Of course the two of them are powerful. You can’t even deal with them.” Ling Wei’s words were a little mocking.

“Don’t mock me and agitate me. You want me to deal with them because of this. They’re already my enemies. You don’t have to do this. I’ll get someone to deal with them.” They were all smart people. Sen Da could tell what Ling Wei was thinking and what she was up to.

“How do you plan to deal with them?” Ling Wei had been busy taking care of the sick Sen Tai with others. She was so busy that she didn’t know what Sen Da had done.

Sen Da told Ling Wei about the super virus.

Ling Wei was overjoyed. “This is really a good idea!”

Chapter 1367: The Last Battle (2)

They could kill Mu Huan and Bo Junyan without any trouble.

“So, you don’t have to worry about Bo Junyan and Mu Huan anymore. Focus on doing what I say. Soon, everything will be done. When that time comes, the world will be ours!” These last few days, with Ling Wei’s help, he had already received a lot of power.

However, he kept having a bad feeling in his heart. Hence, he wanted this matter to end quickly. Only by completely gaining power would he not have to be afraid. Hence, he had to hurry up.

“Don’t you think you’re being a little hasty?” Ling Wei felt that he was asking her to do those things too early. If she was too hasty, she was afraid that it would have the opposite effect.

“I’m afraid that Lin Tai is plotting something. Hence, the earlier our plan ends, the better!”

“It looks too unusually calm over at Lin Tai’s side.” Ling Wei thought for a moment and felt that what he said made sense. “Alright, I’ll start the operation when I get back.”

“Thanks for your hard work.” Sen Da hugged and kissed her.

“It’s not hard work if it’s for you.” Ling Wei leaned into his embrace like a little woman.

The two of them stayed together for a while before separating.

Country Y.

“Lin Tai said that Sen Tai doesn’t know what’s going on. He especially listens to Ling Wei and does whatever she says. He has given half of his authority to Ling Wei to use, and Ling Wei has given all of it to Sen Da. Lin Tai has talked to Sen Tai alone many times, but he can’t tell what the problem is. Hence, he wants us to see if they have given Sen Tai any drug,” Bo Junyan said after ending the call.

“Did they say when we must go?”

“The sooner the better. The power in Sen Tai’s hands is second only to the leader’s. If he listens to Ling Wei and gives all of this power to Sen Da, there will definitely be a huge commotion. The chances of Sen Da’s ambition succeeding are very high.”

“If Sen Da succeeds, then Ling Wei will be difficult to deal with!” Mu Huan frowned. If Sen Da could become the next leader, Ling Wei would have his backing. If they wanted to touch her, the price they would have to pay would be huge.

“Yes.”

“Then I’ll go over tomorrow!” Although the leader’s daughter had taken a fancy to her husband, causing him to become uncomfortably disfigured and Mu Huan to plan to withdraw the factory from Country F, she was even more displeased with Ling Wei. How could she not kill her?!

“Let’s go together,” Bo Junyan said.

“No! I don’t want to ruin your looks again!” If he was with her, what if the leader’s daughter saw him and wanted him after seeing that his face had recovered?

Speaking of this, Mu Huan thought about the final plan. There was still the leader’s daughter. This made her even more unhappy.

“Why don’t we let them do whatever they want? We can just kill Ling Wei before the plan succeeds!” This leader’s daughter was eyeing her husband covetously. If they helped the leader, wouldn’t they be harming themselves?!

“The leader’s daughter is already married,” Bo Junyan said.

“Eh, so fast?”

“Yes. She fell in love at first sight with a prince from the Middle East.”

Mu Huan raised an eyebrow. Why did he sound like he was hinting at something? “You were the one who made that happen?”

“Yes.”

“Hubby, do you want to interfere in this matter?” Since he had already done this, it was obvious that he wanted to help.

“Yes.”

“Why?” There must be a reason why he wanted to meddle in this matter.

Chapter 1368: The Last Battle (3)

“The survey team has found a gold mountain in Country F. In the next few years, the gold price will continue to rise. The agreement has been discussed,” Bo Junyan said.

“Then let’s go together tomorrow!” She would be a fool not to want a gold mine!

Bo Junyan smiled and caressed her head. Little money-grubber, once money was mentioned, she immediately changed her mind.

“Hubby, give me a hug!” Mu Huan was moved by his doting look. She spread out her arms to hug him.

Recently, she had been so happy that she laughed even in her dreams.

After those things that she couldn't have, couldn't completely let go, and couldn't reconcile with her happiness had passed, their current happiness was especially precious and blissful. Now, she was simply working with her husband, but she looked at his face as he seriously marked the documents. She was so happy that her heart was bubbling!

Bo Junyan picked her up and was about to kiss her.

A figure rolled up to them, and then a frantic voice rang out. “What do I do?! What do I do?! What do I do?!”

When Mu Huan and Bo Junyan heard this, they looked over and were shocked. They saw that Yu Hansheng, who had always been clean and tidy, was now looking like he had not washed his face for a few days. He had not shaved, and his hair was messy like a chicken's nest.

“Yo, Senior Brother, what's wrong?” Mu Huan teased when she snapped back to her senses.

“What should I do? What should I do?!” Yu Hansheng was about to go crazy over the past few days! He had pulled a few strands of his hair, but he still didn't know what to do.

“What do you mean?”

“If I don't acknowledge that child, I can't let him stay! But if he comes looking for me again and asks me if I don't want him, how should I answer him?!” Yu Hansheng didn't want to think about that child, but he couldn't control his brain. From time to time, that child's face would appear in his mind.

And his questions.

Do you not want me? Do you want to kill me...

Mu Huan: “...”

Bo Junyan: “...”

How should they answer his question?

When Yu Hansheng's son came to look for him and asked him about those things, Mu Huan and Bo Junyan had witnessed it. Because of this, Mu Huan liked that little boy even more. He was so good-looking and smart. In the future, he would definitely be an even more outstanding demon than her senior brother.

Recently, whenever she thought about him, she would praise Ouyang Chen. Every time, Bo Junyan's face would turn black.

After a while...

Bo Junyan said, “Follow the decision you want the most.”

"I don't know." Yu Hansheng didn't know what the decision he wanted the most was. He wanted everything, but he couldn't take anything.

Bo Junyan: "..."

When Mu Huan saw this, she said, "Let's not talk about other things first. Was it you who did this back then, Senior Brother? Were you the one who tried to burn the mother and son to death?" This question had to be asked clearly. If it was her senior brother who had given the order and made the move, or even if he'd simply not bothered himself about it and thought there was no need to save them... No matter how much hatred he had in his heart, no matter how painful his decision back then had been, such a thing would definitely not be forgiven. He could only die.

If that wasn't the case, there was still hope.

Hence, this question was key. "You have to answer truthfully!"

Yu Hansheng was silent for a while before saying, "I've had such thoughts before, but it wasn't me who did it. I couldn't bear to do it."

"Then who did it?" Mu Huan asked instinctively.

At the mention of what had happened back then, Yu Hansheng's gaze turned frighteningly sinister. "A damn b*tch! Her grave is already full of grass!"

Chapter 1369: The Last Battle (4)

Mu Huan looked at Bo Junyan. He really knew her senior brother quite well. He knew that he couldn't bear to do it. He even guessed that the person who had set fire to Ouyang Xiaoxiao and her son might have been a woman who was attached to Yu Hansheng.

How could he say they weren't close? Tsk tsk...

Bo Junyan: "..."

Now that he was looking at his wife, he knew what she was thinking.

Mu Huan retracted her gaze and looked at Yu Hansheng. "If you hate Ouyang Xiaoxiao so much that you can't forgive her and are unwilling to see them again, then tell Little Cutie that you want his life. You don't want him to live."

"Are you crazy?! You want me to say this?! How much heartache would that cause to a young child?!" Yu Hansheng said instinctively.

Thinking about what kind of damage he would cause to that adorable little cutie, Yu Hansheng felt that Mu Huan had gone crazy. She actually wanted him to tell such a small child that his father wanted to kill him!

If he said that, this child would be traumatized for life!

He was such a cute child, and even he, who hadn't wanted that child to exist, couldn't bear to hurt him. She was really ruthless.

“Look, isn’t that the answer?!” Mu Huan laid out her hand. “There are two paths in total. One is that you can’t take it no matter what. If you can’t take it, then you can only take the other path!”

Although this wasn’t a simple choice, one could only choose the path they could take when they had to make a choice.

Yu Hansheng remained silent and clenched his fists tightly. It was obvious that he was struggling and in pain.

“How about this? Since you’ve come to seek my help and want me to tell you what to do, then I’ll tell you. Tell him directly that you didn’t want him to die. That the person who wanted him to die is no longer in this world!” Mu Huan said forcefully.

Since he couldn’t make a decision no matter what and it was so painful for him, she would help him make this decision.

Yu Hansheng’s grip tightened.

“Don’t even think about it. Just do as I say! If you’re a man, then be more decisive! Don’t make me laugh at you!” She had experienced such a struggle before, so she could understand his pain right now. However, the more you didn’t make a decision, the more painful it was, enough for you to go crazy.

Given his state, he was not far from going crazy. He had to make a decision!

Yu Hansheng fell silent for a while... After a while...

“If... if I tell him this, what if... what if he wants to acknowledge me and want to be with me? I... I still can’t face him and accept him... let alone live with him...”

Yu Hansheng could not hurt this child, but this child had the blood of his enemy flowing in him. It made him struggle in pain when he saw him. He could not accept him and live with him.

Mu Huan broke out in a cold sweat. “Senior Brother, to be honest, I don’t think there’s a need for you to worry about this at all! Didn’t the little cutie already say so? You don’t have to be afraid. He’s not here to make you take responsibility!”

Yu Hansheng: “...”

That little guy did say that.

“Since the little cutie has said so, it means that he definitely doesn’t have the heart to live with you. You’re thinking too much! It’s possible that he only saw you at the banquet and felt that you looked like him. He might have accidentally heard the adults talking and came over out of curiosity to ask if you were his biological father and if you wanted his life back then. It’s purely out of curiosity!”

Chapter 1370: The Last Battle (5)

“Besides, look at how happy Ouyang Xiaoxiao is with David right now. The family of three is so harmonious and happy! I heard that David is the direct descendant of the top four families in Country Y.

He's not just your usual rich man! He is handsome, rich, and powerful, and he treats Ouyang Xiaoxiao so well!

"They must be so happy. Why would they want to return to your side and let you torture them? That child grew up with his mommy. He loves his mommy so much, so why would he want to live with you? Don't think too much!"

Yu Hansheng: "...!!"

Bo Junyan: "..."

Was it really good for her to hurt her senior brother so much?

"You might even eventually let go of the hatred in your heart and want to get the two of them back, but you won't be able to. Just relax. You don't have to be afraid that the child will want to live with you!" Mu Huan reached out and patted Yu Hansheng's shoulder.

Yu Hansheng: "..."

Was she comforting him?

Mu Huan was indeed not comforting him. She was agitating him.

Sometimes, no matter how you thought about it, it wouldn't work. If you couldn't accept it, then jump out of this frame of mind. Then, from another point of view, you might be able to make comparisons and know what to do.

Bo Junyan knew what his wife wanted to do. He added, "That's right, don't think too much. Right now, even if you begged them to be with you, they won't agree. You don't have to be at a loss. Do you want to be with them or accept them?"

Yu Hansheng: "...!!"

He was probably blind and had a bad character! The friend he had made and the junior sister he had taught were both people who kicked him when he was down!

However...

Thinking about the truth, it was exactly as the two of them had said. Yu Hansheng instantly felt a stabbing pain in his heart!

For the past few days, he had been shocked. He was shocked that she was still alive, shocked that their child was still alive, shocked that such a little cutie had appeared in front of him without any warning. He didn't know what to think.

Later on, he was conflicted about whether he should accept the child, accept him, or...

Anyway, he had never thought about it. Now, she was married, and to David! She called David Hubby, and his child called David Daddy!

And their family was so harmonious and happy...

He...

Just as Mu Huan had said, there was really no need for him to be conflicted and afraid of those things. Not to mention, he couldn't let go of the hatred in his heart. Even if he let go of the hatred in his heart and wanted to be with them, they might not want to return to his side.

He was really thinking too much!

After a while, Yu Hansheng looked up at Bo Junyan and Mu Huan. "Can't you two step away from each other?"

They were still so loving even when he was in so much pain!

"This is my house! You should be the one getting lost. Hurry up and get lost..." Mu Huan waved him away from her house.

She knew that Yu Hansheng had already thought things through. If he thought about it again, he should be able to make the decision he wanted.

"You two wait and see!" Yu Hansheng left angrily again.

Mu Huan looked at his back and sighed. "The more I interact with him, the more I feel that my senior brother has ruined his character. When he first appeared, he was clearly a big shot like an immortal. Now..."

She didn't know what to say.

"Back then, you might have been too tired and had had bad eyesight, so you misjudged his character profile," Bo Junyan said seriously.
