

Fake Marriage 1421

Chapter 1421: The Last Battle (56)

"It's too fake," Li Meng said disdainfully.

Wu Xingye added, "Xiao Huan, your acting skills are too backward."

"I'm hungry. When I'm full later, I'll give you guys some awesome acting skills!" Mu Huan said as she placed down the meat and prepared to eat.

"Come, come, eat first!" Wu Xingye and Li Meng were also hungry.

Everything could wait until they were almost done eating!

Bo Junyan: "..."

The three of them...

Seriously.

Nothing changed.

But this was good.

After a while.

"By the way, Xiao Huan, we're getting married. What wedding gift do you plan to give us?" Even though Wu Xingye was rich now, he still loved money.

"What do you want?" She'd give them whatever they wanted.

Those who were really close to each other would give them whatever they needed.

"How about you be in charge of our tour around the world? We plan to travel around the world after we get married." Wu Xingye did not stand on ceremony.

"Alright, I'll ensure that you'll have a good time wherever you stay. It'll be fun," Mu Huan said. Then, she asked, "How long do you plan to play around?"

"The tour around the world will probably end in a year and a half. As for playing around, we plan to spend the rest of our lives doing so," Wu Xingye said.

Mu Huan's hand, which was holding the meat, paused. Play for the rest of their lives?

"Oh, right. Xiao Huan, I have to quit my job at your place. I'm going to start my useless life!" Li Meng's greatest dream in her life was to be a good-for-nothing who only ate and played. Now, her dream was about to be realized!

Indeed, one had to have a dream. What if one day, it would be realized? Just like her, her beautiful dream had been realized just like that!

Thinking about her beautiful future, Li Meng could not help but feel that she had been stupid in the past. She had let go of such a good life with the person she liked and was so conflicted about that small problem that the two of them wasted so many years of their youth! Sigh... people indeed had to experience some big storms. Otherwise, they would not know how to cherish things and how joyous it was to be able to live with the person they liked!

Mu Huan: "..."

She suddenly wanted to be a good-for-nothing who only ate, drank, and played!

"We plan to travel around the world first and see if there's anything fun or good food there. After that, we'll go to our favorite place to stay for a while. In the future, if we find it cold there in winter, we'll go to the beach in the summer and enjoy sunbathing. In the summer, if we find it hot, we'll go to a place where the four seasons feel like spring. We'll stay there and see what we want to see. If we want to eat something, we'll fly over and have enough. Every day, we'll sleep until the sun is high in the sky. We'll eat, drink, and enjoy ourselves until we're old," Wu Xingye said.

Mu Huan: "...!!"

Freaking hell! This was a good life! It was simply too good!

Bo Junyan: "..."

Every day, they would sleep until the sun was high in the sky. They would not do anything except eat, drink, and have fun. They would do whatever they wanted. Such a life...

He had to admit it.

He was envious!

"How can you do this?!" Mu Huan said angrily.

Were they doing it on purpose?! Were they doing it on purpose to make her jealous and hate them?!

"Of course we can do this. We have money and time." Wu Xingye had earned a lot over the years. No matter how much he ate, drank, and played, he wouldn't be able to spend it all.

It was very blissful to be a rich nobody. They didn't have to work and would still have enough money to eat, drink, and have fun. They could do whatever they wanted. Those kinds of days were simply too good!

Mu Huan: "...!!"

Chapter 1422: The Last Battle (57)

Li Meng patted Mu Huan's shoulder and said, "Xiao Huan, don't be jealous. Don't feel upset. The greater your ability, the greater the responsibility. We have high hopes for you. You have to continue working hard to make the life-extension medicine more refined and allow us to live longer!"

Mu Huan: "...!!"

She knew it!

Bad friends!

She turned to look at Bo Junyan and said, “Hubby, I want to live such a life too! I want to be a good-for-nothing! I want to only eat, drink, and play every day! If I like it someplace, I’ll live there until I’m satisfied. If I want to eat something good somewhere, I’ll stay there and eat enough. If I want to see stars, I’ll go to the North Pole to see stars. If I want to see penguins, I’ll go to the South Pole to see penguins. If I want to see the sea, I’ll run to the beach. If I don’t want to move, I’ll stay at home and play games. I’ll sleep until the sun sets!”

This was life! This was life!

She had just finished working on the virus, and now she was working hard at Rui Hui. This was not called life! This was called working hard!

“Alright, let’s live such a life too.” Bo Junyan comforted her as he pulled her into his embrace.

Although she knew that they would not be able to let go of their responsibilities for the time being, Bo Junyan’s words still comforted Mu Huan and made her feel much better.

“By the way, Xiao Huan, when are you guys going to hold your wedding? We’ll wait until you guys are done with yours.” She had promised to be Xiao Huan’s bridesmaid. If she got married, she wouldn’t be able to be her bridesmaid.

“My mother-in-law is looking for a date. The wedding should be before the new year,” Mu Huan said.

“Alright!”

“By the way, you haven’t given me a wedding gift yet! What do you plan to give me?!” Mu Huan said.

“Just now!” Li Meng and Wu Xingye said in unison.

“What did you send? Air?” Mu Huan raised an eyebrow.

“We gave you hope for a good life! Weren’t you very envious and wanted the life we described?” Wu Xingye smiled.

“F*ck! Your gifts are good!” Mu Huan was shocked by their shamelessness.

“Of course! Don’t you know who we are?! We’re your best friends! You have to give us a present!”

Mu Huan: “...”

She really wanted to clap for them in admiration.

“You guys have to treat me to this hot pot!” Mu Huan said angrily.

“Of course! We’ll treat you to hot pot from now on!” Wu Xingye patted his chest.

Mu Huan looked at Bo Junyan and said, “Hubby, come and eat more. Eat until they’re poor! Make them unable to be carefree anymore!”

Bo Junyan smiled and said, “Okay.”

“Come, come, come. Eat as much as you want.” Wu Xingye beckoned them to eat more. The happiest person in this world was someone who was rich and free.

In the Imperial Capital...

In a house in the suburbs, the weather was already very cold. Xue Yun was still using cold water to wash her clothes in the courtyard. Not only had her slender and fair hands become rough, but they also had frostbite.

Seeing that Ling Xiao was about to leave, she immediately shouted, “Where are you going? Are you done with your homework?”

“Mind your own business!” Ling Xiao glared at her and walked out.

“I’m your mother. If I don’t care about you, who will?!” Xue Yun said as she went forward to grab him.

Recently, he had made a group of friends and would be out all day. The teacher had called her a few times and said that he had skipped class for no reason.

“I really don’t want to have a mother like you! If it weren’t for you, why would we be living like this?!” Ling Xiao pushed Xue Yun away forcefully, his eyes full of hatred.

Ling Xiao, who was already arrogant, couldn’t take it anymore.

Chapter 1423: The Last Battle (58)

This was mostly because those people whom he had bullied in school before and whose family background was inferior to his often came to look for him to mock him and bully him, making him feel devastated.

Furthermore, Ling Feng often beat and scolded Xue Yun. He often said that it was all her fault. If it weren’t for her, their Ling family wouldn’t have become like this. This made Ling Xiao feel that it was all Xue Yun’s fault. If it weren’t for her, he wouldn’t have fallen to this point and wouldn’t have become so miserable!

He often wondered how good it would have been if he didn’t have such a mother!

Seeing that he was about to leave, Xue Yun went forward and hugged him. “You can’t go out! You can’t play with that group of people anymore!”

“Go away!” Ling Xiao pushed her away again.

The teenage boy was already very strong and had pushed her down.

Then, he turned around and left.

Xue Yun ignored the pain and got up to chase after him.

She chased him to the alley and saw a group of delinquent youths waiting for her son.

She thought about how her teacher had told her that not only had Ling Xiao been hitting his classmates recently, but he had also been stealing from them. She thought that this group of people must have led him astray, so she rushed forward and grabbed Ling Xiao. "Come back with me!"

Then, she looked at the gangsters.

"You're not allowed to look for my son again from now on! Otherwise, I'll report you!" This period of miserable days had made Xue Yun much stronger. She was no longer a flower in a greenhouse.

"Report? What would you report? What did we do?" The gangsters surrounded her and smiled.

"Let go of me..." Ling Xiao struggled to get Xue Yun to let go of him.

Xue Yun refused to let go of him. He pushed Xue Yun away again and ran to the gangsters.

"Did you see that? It's not us looking for your son. It's your son looking for us!" the gang leader mocked.

"Boss, although this woman looks a little old, she's still very attractive. If you dress her up well, you can probably sell her for a good price!" a blonde said regarding Xue Yun.

Xue Yun got married and had a child early. She was only in her early forties.

Her life now was tough. But in the past, she had led a good life and had maintained herself especially well. She looked like she was in her thirties. Furthermore, she was born with good looks. If she went out to be sold, she could indeed fetch a good price.

"Now that you mention it, it's true." The hoodlums' expression changed instantly.

That gaze disgusted Xue Yun.

She had never thought that one day, she would suffer such a thing. No matter how far she had gone in her past life, no one had dared to treat her like this! Now, these people actually dared to look at her like this! They even had designs on her!

Although Ling Xiao was still young, he had been with these people these past few days and had seen everything. He knew what they meant by the words selling at a good price.

Although he really didn't want Xue Yun as his mother and hated that his life had become so miserable because of her, she was still his mother.

"Brother Huang, this is my mother." He went forward to block Xue Yun and looked at her. "Hurry up and go back! Don't follow me out from now on! Don't worry about me!"

Although he hated how these people looked at his mother and how they had designs on her, he still wanted to follow them.

Because he had had enough of such poor days.. He had good food and fun with Brother Huang and could live a carefree life. Although they would make him do some bad things, like they said, he could do anything!

Chapter 1424: The Last Battle (59)

There was nothing to be afraid of!

Xue Yun wanted to stand up and drag Ling Xiao back.

The blonde waved Ling Xiao away. "Go away, you little hindrance!"

Although this woman was old, rich people played high-level games while poor people played low-level games. No matter what age a woman was, as long as she was good-looking, there would be a market. If it really didn't work out, there would always be other customers.

Besides, this old woman had a good temperament. She should be very popular out there.

If he made good use of her money, he would be able to have a carefree life for a while.

Xue Yun looked at her son, who had been waved away. She was furious. She stood up and hit the blonde.

However, how could such a delicate woman be a match for a hoodlum?

In an instant, she was thrown far away. She fell hard to the ground, making her unable to get up even if she wanted to.

Just as she was about to get up...

Not far away, a black car stopped. Mu Huan, who had just gotten out of the car, met Xue Yun's eyes.

After Mu Huan returned, she'd wanted to take a look at Xue Yun from afar. Hence, she parked the car a distance away from Xue Yun's place and walked over. Unexpectedly, she saw this scene.

Xue Yun looked at Mu Huan in a daze for a while before lowering her head. She was so embarrassed that she couldn't look over.

Just as she lowered her head, Mu Huan came up to her.

She bent down to help her up.

Xue Yun looked at her outstretched hand but did not let her help her up. She was ashamed. She had let her daughter down. She did not deserve her kindness.

Over the past few days, Xue Yun had thought about many things. Many things made her realize how wrong she had been in the past. This realization made her feel ashamed to see her daughter again, let alone seek her help.

Although Mu Huan had made up her mind many times that she didn't have a mother anymore, such feelings couldn't be cut off just like that. Besides, even if they weren't related by blood, she wouldn't ignore an unfamiliar woman being bullied like this.

When Xue Yun did not move, she helped her up and looked up at the gangsters.

When their life was in danger, every creature would feel it instinctively. Hence, although Mu Huan looked very young even looked very beautiful and petite...

When they met her gaze, the gangsters instinctively took a few steps back.

Ling Xiao couldn't help but shiver.

He was especially afraid of Mu Huan.

Although she was his half-sister, he was especially afraid of her. He remembered that when he was young, the way she looked at him seemed to say she wanted his life.

When Mu Huan handed Xue Yun to the other people around her and walked toward the gangsters...

They all wanted to turn around and run, but they were so useless that they couldn't.

As the Ruffian Kings in this area, they had never been afraid of fighting and bleeding. However, though such a delicate and beautiful lady was only walking toward them and was not doing anything, they were still so frightened that they could not move.

At this moment, they had truly witnessed what it meant when someone had an imposing aura. Those powerful auras that were written in the books, a dangerous aura that could scare people until they lost control...

Following that, this group of people's fate could only be described as tragic.

Ling Xiao was so frightened that he fell to the ground and couldn't move.

When everything was over and Mu Huan was about to send Xue Yun back...

"You don't have to send me." Xue Yun looked at Mu Huan. She didn't have to treat her so well. She didn't deserve it.

Mu Huan remained silent.

Xue Yun continued, "Don't come and visit me again. Our relationship as mother and daughter has completely ended. Don't let me affect your life again."

Chapter 1425: The Last Battle (60)

No matter how tough her life was now and how difficult it would be in the future, she shouldn't trouble her daughter anymore. She had no right and no face to be called Mom by her.

Her father could also be said to have been indirectly killed by her.

If she had not foolishly listened to Ling Wei's words and harmed her own daughter like that, everything would not have happened.

She should hate her and not think about her again.

Seeing that she looked good now, she knew that Mu Huan must be leading a good life. She hoped that she would have only happiness in the future and not have her as a mother.

She knew how much pain her biological mother had brought her.

She should have been forgotten by her instead of her thinking about her like this. The thought of it hurt.

Mu Huan did not speak. She only clenched her fists involuntarily.

Xue Yun looked at her tightly clenched hands and her eyes reddened. She almost cried, but she endured it. "Xiao Huan, I'm sorry."

She had let her daughter down. After she regained her memory, she was afraid that her past would affect her new life. She had never thought about how tough her daughter's life would be. And even after acknowledging her daughter, she had never given her any warmth or happiness. She had even hurt her. She had let her down. She was too sorry.

She knew it was useless to apologize.

But apart from apologizing, there was nothing else she could do. The only thing she could do was to stay away from her life and not disturb it.

Mu Huan still did not speak. She did not know what to say.

An apology wasn't what she wanted, but thinking about it, she didn't have anything she could ask for.

"Xiao Huan, just pretend that Mom died a long time ago." With that, Xue Yun turned around to help Ling Xiao. Then, she supported him and went home lamely without looking back.

Mu Huan looked at her back and couldn't help but tear up.

Sometimes, people had many feelings that they could not let go of.

She knew that she was still alive; she could not treat her like she was dead.

Even though she had given her such pain.

Not long after...

Ling Feng, who only knew how to drink and hit Xue Yun once he was drunk, suddenly pulled himself together to find a job. He had even found a good job.

Xue Yun had also coincidentally found a job that was very suitable for her. It was a job that had a reduced workload and higher salary.

After the hooligans had disappeared, Ling Xiao suddenly liked running to the house next door. A new junior high teacher had moved in there. He was very humorous. Not long after he moved in, he became liked by all the children in this alley. Even the always arrogant Ling Xiao liked him and idolized him.

Now, each time he opened his mouth, he always talked about the uncle next door.

As he was getting closer to the teacher next door and was becoming more and more sensible, not only did he learn how to study, but he was also slowly becoming more and more polite to his mother. She was very happy for him to run next door.

Although their family's lives now could not be compared to before, if they continued to work hard and work well, they would definitely live well among ordinary people in the future.

Compared to her previous life, this was already a top-notch life for Xue Yun.

Hence, she was grateful to the heavens every day, grateful that it had given them such a life and that their luck had turned.

She believed that if this continued, their lives would get better!

Xue Yun liked to cook and make pastries. The job she found was in a coffee shop nearby. This was because there was a newly developed industrial park, and there were many working-class people.

Chapter 1426: Walking Toward Happiness (1)

Xue Yun worked at the coffee shop and served all sorts of work meals.

The boss of the coffee shop was good; her colleagues were good, and she was close to home. She worked happily every day.

In the afternoon, when the coffee shop was busy, she, who was originally in the back kitchen, ran to the front hall to get orders.

She was so busy that she did not notice that there was a car parked opposite the coffee shop. The person in the car was looking at her.

“Do you want to go down and take a look and talk?” Bo Junyan asked.

“No need.” Mu Huan shook her head. There was nothing much to say even if they met. It was fine as long as she was fine.

Since she couldn't treat her mother as though she was already dead and tormenting her was torture to herself, then she could only let her off and let her live a good life. This way, even if she didn't meet her in the future, as long as she knew that she was living well, she wouldn't have to think about her anymore.

Bo Junyan reached out and pulled her into his embrace.

If possible, who didn't want to have parents who doted on them and who were well?

“Let's go,” Mu Huan said as she looked out the window.

“Okay.” Bo Junyan got the chauffeur to drive.

When the car slowly drove away, Xue Yun seemed to have sensed something. She looked out of the window, but she did not see anything.

Mu Huan saw her face. Under the sunlight, she looked much better than when they first met. Her expression was also comfortable.

Mu Huan smiled and looked away.

Then, she buried her head in Bo Junyan's embrace.

“Hubby, I love you so much.”

Bo Junyan lowered his head and kissed her head lightly. “I love you too.”

Because he had a wife who loved to express her feelings, he no longer felt that such words were mushy and that he could not say them out loud.

When Mu Huan heard this, she hugged him tightly and snuggled into his embrace. "Hubby, I'm so happy. I really love you. I love you so much!"

She loved him so much that she felt like she was floating.

She was so happy that she was bubbling every day!

Bo Junyan's eyes turned dark and hot. "Don't just say it verbally. Use a practical demonstration."

Mu Huan: "...!!"

Such a touching atmosphere! But he had to kill it stone cold!

They had agreed to rest for a period of time after that. They would not do anything, just like Li Meng and Wu Xingye, who were good-for-nothings. They would sleep until the sun was high.

But he ruined it with only one line!

She opened her mouth and bit him.

"Here's the practical demonstration you want!"

Bo Junyan's eyes burned even more. "I like it."

Mu Huan: "..."

At the Bo residence...

"Xiao Huan, you're back. Quick, come and take a look. Among the few days I've chosen, which one do you like?" When Meng Yueman saw them coming back, she immediately stood up.

"Mom, you can choose any day you want. If you like whichever, you can choose that," Bo Junyan said.

"I like what you say, but you have to decide the date. This is your wedding!" Meng Yueman asked him to look at the dates on the paper.

Bo Junyan let Mu Huan choose.

"The eighth of the twelfth month is a good day," Mu Huan said. She liked the number eight.

"Xiao Huan chose such a good day! This is the day I like the most!" Meng Yueman especially liked this day.

"Then this is the day," Bo Dingjing decided.

"Didn't Xiao Huan want a Chinese wedding in the country? Let's set the wedding venue at our hometown." The Bo family's old residence was a very traditional ancient compound. After it was renovated, it was beautiful.

"Sure, sure!" Mu Huan nodded repeatedly. She had been to the Bo family's old residence, but it was only once.. It was especially good that she liked that place.

Chapter 1427: Walking Toward Happiness (2)

“Sure, sure!” Mu Huan nodded repeatedly. She had been to the Bo family’s old residence, but it was only once. It was especially good that she liked that place.

“Alright, then, let’s settle it. The wedding in the country will be held in our old residence. The wedding overseas will be Western-style and will be held by the sea,” Meng Yueman said.

Mu Huan had originally wanted the wedding to be simple. She just wanted to invite close friends to witness the ceremony.

However, the Bo family was getting a wife, and this wedding was to announce to the world that the Bo family had gotten a wife. They had so many connections, and it would be bad if they didn’t invite anyone. Hence, this wedding had to be grand.

When Mu Huan had been looking at wedding dresses, she had especially liked those exquisite Chinese wedding dresses. Hence, she wanted to hold a Chinese wedding in the country. It was cold and it was just right to wear a Chinese wedding dress.

Then, she would go to an island overseas to hold a simple and warm Western-style wedding that only her friends would attend.

This way, she could have both the Chinese wedding dress and the Western wedding dress. There was no need to be conflicted about choosing what.

Bo Junyan had no objections to her decision at all! Most people could consummate their marriage only once, but he could do so twice!

Just as the family was discussing the marriage...

Huo Yuqi came over.

“Sister-in-law, look, this is my wedding gift for you. Isn’t it beautiful?!” She spread out the embroidery that she had been doing for almost a year.

“Wow, this is too exquisite!” Mu Huan exclaimed. Then, she reached out and hugged Huo Yuqi. “I love you so much! You’re so thoughtful!”

“Sister-in-law, I love you too!” Huo Yuqi hugged her.

Bo Junyan’s expression darkened instantly. He reached out and pulled Mu Huan into his embrace.

Sometimes, his wife showered her love too much that it would become too worthless. She would tell it to anyone!

“Cousin, you’re really terrible! Such a big man is so petty!” Huo Yuqi said disdainfully.

Mu Huan nodded repeatedly.

Meng Yueman added, “He’s just petty. His wifey can’t even be intimate with me, his biological mother. He won’t even allow us to go shopping arm in arm!”

Bo Junyan: “...”

“I really don’t know how a man like you could find a wife!”

Bo Junyan: "..."

Didn't his mother know how he found a wife? He found a wife at the matchmaking event she had arranged!

"Oh, right. Cousin, when you get married, find a few good groomsmen and pick one for me. I'm not young anymore, so I have to get married!" Huo Yuqi said.

Everyone looked at her.

"Why are you all looking at me like that? I'm the same age as Sister-in-law. Although I haven't graduated from university yet, I'll be graduating next year. Besides, marriage isn't something that can be settled immediately. I have to make a selection in advance! Then, we can talk about it before we can enter the hall of marriage," Huo Yuqi said.

"Don't you like Long Feiting's brother?" Mu Huan later found out that Huo Yuqi liked his brother instead of Long Feiting.

The rest of the Bo family also knew about it. That was why they were looking at her like this.

"I've given up! I heard that he has found a suitable partner for a blind date and is about to get engaged. I'm a little missy who is beautiful. I have a good family background. I can have whatever I want and find all sorts of men!" Although Huo Yuqi said it elegantly, there was a flash of pain in her eyes.

But no matter how much she loved and how much it hurt, she was still a proud person. No matter how much she liked someone, she would not pester them once they had a partner they wanted to marry.

She, Huo Yuqi, could live well without anyone!

Chapter 1428: Walking Toward Happiness (3)

People often say that if one wanted to quickly let go of a relationship, one had to start a new one. It was time for her to look away and look for another man!

"That's right! We have such good qualities. We can have any man we want!" Mu Huan reached out to put her arm around her shoulder. "Don't worry, I'll find a good man for you, Sister-in-law. You can choose whatever type you want!"

"I love you so much, Sister-in-law..." Huo Yuqi reached out to hug her.

But this time, she did not even manage to hold her.

She could not help but despise her cousin for being petty again. Despite being a grown man, he was still so petty. It was really unacceptable!

Bo Junyan felt that he could find a better man for his cousin. It would be best if he was the kind of man who could only return home once every year and a half.

Meng Yueying came in from outside. When she heard that her daughter wanted to give up on the Long family's boss and find another man, she was immediately excited!

“I’ll find you one too! Our Huo family’s daughter can have any man she wants!” Her son and daughter had been doted on since they were young. As her mother, her heart ached terribly whenever she saw her daughter chasing after someone. She didn’t want to see her hurt.

But no matter what, her daughter had already decided on it. What could she do? She could only wait for her daughter to think it through again.

She had been looking forward to this day!

She had to find a few more elites for her daughter and let her see how many good men there were in this world! The boss of the Long family was nothing!

Huo Yuqi had decided to give up after hearing the news of the Long family’s eldest son finding a partner. The next day, this news reached the Long family’s eldest son through the second son’s mouth.

After hearing it, Long Feilei snorted and said, “She can have any man she wants? If she wants someone like me, then there’s no one to be had!”

“Yo, Brother, are you jealous? Are you jealous?” the second son of the Long family asked.

“What kind of joke is that?! I just feel that they’re exaggerating too much. There are all sorts of men out there!” If that girl wouldn’t pester him anymore, he would be nothing but happy. Jealous, my ass! He wasn’t a sourpuss like Bo Junyan. No matter what, he wouldn’t be jealous!

“They’re not exaggerating. The Huo family has been developing well these past few years. Furthermore, they have a relationship with Bo Junyan and Mu Huan. Seriously, they can find all sorts of handsome men in every country.” The second son of the Long family felt that this was not an exaggeration.

“Besides, Xiao Yuqi is so young, pretty, and has a good figure. She has already been the campus belle for three consecutive years! Now, she especially loves to study. She’s a famous top student at Yun University. Only you wouldn’t like someone who has both looks and inner beauty.”

“Do you like her?” Long Feilei snorted.

“I do! If she liked me and wanted to marry me, I’d marry her immediately!” The second son of the Long family looked like he wasn’t joking.

Long Feilei: “...!!”

The second son of the Long family walked forward and reached out to pat his elder brother on the shoulder. “Eldest Brother, it’s not too late to regret it now. Don’t wait until she’s married before you realize that, aiya, you love her! At that time, the worm will have been eaten! You can only cry yourself to death!”

Long Feilei reached out and slapped his hand away. “What would I regret? I’m so happy right now that I only want to set off firecrackers!”

“Alright, I’ll go buy firecrackers for you now! No, I have to buy a bunch of fireworks. Our Long family’s boss is happy. It’s so petty to just release firecrackers. We have to release fireworks for the entire night to show our Long family’s magnanimity!”

Long Feilei: "...!!!"

Chapter 1429: Walking Toward Happiness (4)

The third son of the Long family looked up from his laptop and glanced at his eldest brother, but he did not say anything.

At this moment, Long Feiting returned from outside.

"Feiting, let's have some fireworks later!" The second son of the Long family looked at him.

"What fireworks? It's still far from the new year." Long Feiting was in a bad mood after he heard that Bo Junyan and Mu Huan were going to hold a wedding on the 8th of the last month.

"Our boss is in a good mood and wants to light fireworks. Come and buy fireworks with me." The second son of the Long family stepped forward and put his arms around Long Feiting's neck as he dragged him out, not caring about his unwillingness at all.

Long Feiting: "..."

Long Feilei did not expect that the second son of the Long family would really buy fireworks. He even bought a big truck and got a permit to release fireworks.

Long Feilei's expression darkened as he watched the fireworks.

"Brother, aren't you so happy that you want to set off fireworks? Come, come! Put them on! Let your mood be as brilliant as the fireworks!" The second son of the Long family grabbed the eldest son's hand and asked him to set off the fireworks.

He even hummed a song. "I'm me. I'm a different kind of firework..."

Long Feilei: "...!!!"

Long Feiting was in a bad mood, so he lit one first.

The beautiful fireworks made him feel better, so he started to light more.

"Brother, come, hurry up and light them. Don't let Feiting destroy this truck of fireworks," the second son of the Long family urged.

Long Feilei had said such things just before. If he didn't do anything now, it would be a slap in the face!

Hence, he clicked on the lighter.

Once he lit them, the second son recorded the beauty of this truckload of fireworks. Then, he posted on his WeChat Moments that his eldest brother had heard a piece of good news and was so happy that he wanted to release fireworks for the entire night.

Although he did not make it very clear...

Everyone in the circle knew that Huo Yuqi had been chasing after the Long family's boss. Yesterday, she had said that she wanted to give up on the Long family's boss and find another man. Everyone in the circle knew about this.

Hence, everyone naturally associated these two things together.

Then, they came to a conclusion. Long Feilei had heard that Huo Yuqi had given up on him and was so happy that he wanted to release fireworks to celebrate!

Huo Yuqi was quite popular among these second-generation heirs, so the news quickly reached her.

Actually, she also followed the second son of the Long family's WeChat account. She had also seen this WeChat message he had uploaded. However, perhaps it was because she was avoiding it, or perhaps it was for some other reason, but at that time, she only thought that Long Feilei was so happy because he had encountered something good. She had even specially gone and watched the fireworks at the Long residence. She didn't expect him to be so happy because he heard that she wanted to give up on him and find another man.

This news made her feel colder in this cold winter night.

When she snapped back to her senses, she was already in tears.

She knew that although this was only a guess since the second son of the Long family had not specified anything, the possibility was very high.

If it were in the past, she would have run over to verify it. Even if she knew that the outcome would be the same every time, she would still have sought confirmation.

But today, she did not have the courage to seek confirmation. Even though he was close to her, she did not have the courage to walk over.

She didn't want to, and there was no need to seek confirmation.

Anyway, she was about to give up.

Why hurt herself again?

As she looked at the fireworks that were still blooming in the sky, her tears fell even more fiercely.

It turned out that not only did he not have any feelings for her, but this also made him happy.

But... being happy was good.

She hoped that he would always be so happy.

Because she would never bother him again.

She stood there and looked up at the fireworks in the sky. She saw them blooming more and more brightly. She thought that his mood must be so brilliant.

She stood there and watched.

She watched that truckful of fireworks...

Until her limbs were numb from the cold.

It wasn't easy for her to get back into the car, but the warmth inside made her want to burst into tears.

That cry came too suddenly and too fiercely, making her unable to control herself. She cried until her heart hurt.

She cried until dawn.

It was only the next day that Long Feilei found out that the second son of the Long family had made such a post on his WeChat Moments last night, and it had even caused such an impact in the circle. It made people think that because Huo Yuqi had given up on him, he was so happy that he had put on fireworks for the entire night.

He instinctively took out his phone and wanted to explain something to Huo Yuqi. However, just as he was about to call the number, he suddenly thought that she might misunderstand something if he explained it like this. But if he didn't explain, it would hurt her greatly. This...

Long Feilei, who felt that something was amiss, rushed into the second Long brother's room angrily and beat him up without a word.

"Even if you're the boss, you still have to have a reason to beat me up! Why are you beating me up without a reason? Do you think I'm still that child who was easy to bully?" Back when the second son of the Long family's adored face had been beaten up, it made him start to resist.

"Don't you know what you've done?" Long Feilei said coldly.

"I know! But it's the truth! Didn't you say that you were so happy that you wanted to set off firecrackers?!" The second Long brother used the other's words to retort.

Long Feilei: "...!!"

After a while...

"I was just saying that casually. I was just letting my family know. Meanwhile, you told everyone. How much damage this must have caused Yuqi, do you know?" Even if he didn't like her, he didn't want her to lose face and hurt her like this.

"That's true." The second son of the Long family pretended to think about this.

Seeing him like this, Long Feilei couldn't help but punch him again.

"Stop beating me up! Stop beating me up! I'll resolve this matter!" The second son of the Long family stopped him.

"How are you going to resolve this?!"

"Isn't that simple?" As the second son of the Long family spoke, he picked up his phone and uploaded another message to his WeChat Moments. Last night, many friends had asked him what had made his boss so happy. Now, the answer was officially announced! Their Long family...

The second son of the Long family wrote about a big collaboration that the Long family had recently won.

Everyone knew that the Long family's boss had spent a lot of effort to fight for this big collaboration. Now that he had it, it was indeed worth him celebrating.

In other words, their guess last night was wrong.

After the second son of the Long family was done, he put away his phone.

"Alright, this matter is over."

Long Feilei: "..."

Just as he was about to leave...

The second son of the Long family asked, "That's right, Boss. Did Yuqi come over to look for you or call you to ask about this?"

It was only then that Long Feilei realized that Huo Yuqi, who had always come to him immediately to ask him about anything, did not come to him to seek confirmation this time. He had made her lose face and caused her so much harm, but she did not come to him to seek confirmation. She did not even give him a call.

"From the looks of it, she didn't come."

Long Feilei: "..."

"Brother, you can rest assured. It looks like Huo Yuqi has really given up on you this time. She didn't even come to seek confirmation. She must have felt that there was no point in seeking confirmation.. Anyway, she has given up."
