

Fake Marriage 461

Chapter 461: A Surprise (2)

"Alright." Mu Huan reached out to take it.

"If you accept it, that means I won't owe you any favors in the future! I'll take it that you've never saved me!" Huo Yuqi emphasized.

"Yes."

Huo Yuqi: "..."

Why did this Mu Huan suddenly stop being so irritating?

When Huo Yuqi snapped back to her senses and realized what she was thinking, she hurriedly shook her head!

No! I can't do this! I have to hate Mu Huan! I can't betray Sister Ling Wei just because she saved me! I can't like her!

Maybe the reason she saved me was so I'd betray Sister Ling Wei!

This woman is crafty and ruthless!

At this thought, Huo Yuqi stuffed the gift into Mu Huan's hands and turned around to run.

Mu Huan looked at Huo Yuqi's back and said, "Your cousin looks alright."

She did not expect that Huo Yuqi would tell her parents about this and ask them to thank her. People like her who knew how to be grateful could never truly have a bad nature.

"She's the only girl in the family, so she has been spoiled a little. Deep down, she's pure and kind," Bo Junyan said.

"Alright. I'll protect her in school from now on."

"You don't have to worry about others. You just have to protect yourself. Yuqi has been learning self-defense since she was young. She has good instincts and reflexes. In the laboratory, even if you hadn't protected her, she still might not have been harmed. On the other hand, your behavior was dangerous. You should have been the one being protected." Bo Junyan didn't know why such a delicate girl would want to protect others.

Compared to the tall and strong Bo Junyan, Mu Huan was really too petite, especially since she had always dressed in a demure style in front of him.

She had shoulder-length black hair, bangs, a pair of big, watery eyes, and was wearing a white doll-like dress. No matter how one looked at it, she looked like a soft and adorable little cutie. When people saw her, they couldn't help but feel tender love for her, wanting to hold her in their palms and protect her.

Furthermore, she had a high fever that time after being rained on, and she had curled up in his embrace because of how recent events had got her feeling down. That petite and weak look of hers left a deep impression on Bo Junyan.

Also, she often shouted that she was weak and could not take it anymore, even though her running speed had surprised Bo Junyan.

However, the image of her being delicate and weak in Bo Junyan's heart made him feel that she was the one who needed protection the most.

Mu Huan: "..."

She had always been the one protecting others and had never been protected.

"Be good..." He lowered his head out of habit and kissed her to make her behave.

Mu Huan: "..."

Didn't he say that he had already seen through her nature? Why did he still keep doing this...

This was probably his catchphrase!

Yun University...

All the students wanted to participate in the research projects organized by several internationally renowned experts at Yun University. However, there were only three spots for the students. Other than Mu Huan, the other two students were all Ph.D. students who had a certain degree of academic success.

This made Mu Huan the target of all the students. They felt that no matter what, they shouldn't have allowed a freshman to participate. They felt that regardless of whether it was in terms of knowledge or anything else, she, a freshman, was inferior to the older students. Besides, even if these experienced seniors couldn't do it, there would still have been a lot of super awesome Ph.D. students in the research department. They shouldn't have even considered Mu Huan!

Hence, there was a wave of opposition in the school. They all said that Mu Huan had relied on her wealthy husband to enter the school. Claiming that the school was making dirty deals, many students were protesting within the campus.

Chapter 462: A Surprise (3)

In order to show its fairness, the school held an academic debate. All pharmaceutical students who felt that they could do it could participate. The top three students who won in the end could join this medical research project.

At the start of the debate, everyone started from the bottom and fought their way up, which eliminated a large number of participants. In the last round, there were only ten people left. Mu Huan and the other two Ph.D. students were among them.

The final academic debate was held in the school's hall. In order for all of them to be convinced, all the students from the pharmaceutical faculty had to participate in this debate.

The final judges were all of the experts participating in this scientific research. Ling Wei was one of them.

She was dressed in an elegant purple suit today. The purple color was mysterious and noble, and it made her look even more elegant. As soon as she walked into the hall, everyone's attention was drawn away. She was like a natural spotlight that was dazzling and outstanding, making it impossible for anyone to take their eyes off of her. In front of her, people could not help but feel inferior.

After she sat down, a faint smile formed on her face. She was waiting for Mu Huan to go on stage. Their head-to-head this time would be in an academic debate. She had asked Bo Junyan's grandfather to influence the students' public opinion. She wanted to see how strong Mu Huan was. If Mu Huan was not strong enough, then she would be defeated directly. It would be good enough if she were to be embarrassed here.

And just like what Mu Huan had said, it wasn't that she wanted to compete with Ling Wei; it was just that Ling Wei and Bo Junyan's grandfather had deliberately created such an atmosphere. Manipulating public opinion, influencing people, and getting them to compare Mu Huan and Ling Wei together. Ling Wei wanted Mu Huan to look at her, who was better in all aspects, and feel that she would never be able to catch up. Mu Huan would end up feeling inferior and upset, and would eventually retreat.

That Ling Wei would return to the country to participate in Yun University's research project was, indeed, because Mu Huan was here.

However, Mu Huan had never known what it meant to retreat when faced with difficulties. After a brief bout of jealousy from losing her rationality, she realized that she shouldn't be in such a passive state all the time. She couldn't let others compare her to Ling Wei every day and make everyone say that she was the mud on the ground. Under such public opinion, she'd slowly feel that she couldn't win.

She wanted to retaliate. She wanted everyone to know that she, Mu Huan, wasn't made of mud on the ground! Most importantly, she wanted to be the one to influence public opinion and let the people who wanted her to retreat know that she, Mu Huan, had never known what it meant to back down! She would only climb higher and higher!

The reason she had asked Bo Junyan for more leniency was for today. If she hadn't done it, she would not be able to shock everyone!

Just like what she had said to Bo Junyan previously, she could not compete with Ling Wei in terms of family background, academic qualifications, and age. It was impossible for Mu Huan to reach that height in an instant. Hence, she could only compete in this aspect first.

Oh, and she had to thank the other party for creating such a debate meeting and giving her a chance to showcase her talent.

Even if she couldn't reach Ling Wei's level yet, she would let everyone know that she was tomorrow's star and her future was unpredictable!

She, Mu Huan, had to appear as good-looking, talented, and brilliant as she was! She was definitely not a pushover!

Bo Junyan also attended this academic debate as a school professor.

Mu Huan had always been an influential figure in the school. The students were all familiar with her, and most of them knew what she looked like. Hence, everyone was here to watch the academic debate and Goddess Ling's beauty.

No one had expected that they would be stunned by Mu Huan and forget about Ling Wei's existence.

Chapter 463: A Surprise (4)

Even Bo Junyan was stunned.

He had always known that his wife was good-looking, but...

He was not expecting this...

He was at a loss for words.

As the saying goes, a man should be made by his clothes and a horse by his saddle. Three-tenths of a good appearance is due to nature; seven-tenths to dress. If one dresses up, one would look better than a bare-faced person. What more a person like Mu Huan, who was born with a good foundation?!

Furthermore, with her superb makeup skills, she was able to enhance her beauty to the extreme. There was no need for her to dress extravagantly. As long as she was dressed properly, her aura would be fully unleashed, making it impossible for anyone to shift their gaze away from her. If anyone looked at her, they would forget everything in the world and could only stare at her in a daze.

Ling Wei was stunned when she saw Mu Huan in this state. Mu Huan's face was clearly still the same. She had only amped up her makeup and clothes, but her aura had completely changed!

When Mu Huan met Ling Wei's gaze, the corners of her lips curved up slightly. That devilish smile actually made Ling Wei's heart skip a beat!

There were millions of beauties in this world, and each of them had their own unique traits. Hence, we would not say that one was more beautiful than the other. Instead, they were just different types.

This was also the case with Ling Wei. Her background made her noble and elegant beyond reach. On the other hand, Mu Huan's natural dominance and the evil nature in her bones made one unable to resist the temptation when her aura was fully released!

Hence, Mu Huan didn't want to compete with Ling Wei in terms of beauty. She wanted others to see how outstanding she was, that she wasn't any worse than anyone else!

The auditorium went silent for a while. It was only after Bo Junyan had reminded the dean of the hosting staff that it was time to start that the dean snapped back to his senses and broke the silence.

The academic debate began.

The students in the audience also snapped back to their senses. Instantly, a commotion broke out.

"Oh my god! Is that girl Mu Huan? Is that really her?!"

"If it's not Mu Huan, then it must be Mu Huan!"

"Why does it feel like she's a completely different person?! She's so beautiful that my heart is racing!"

"Let's not talk about a man like you losing control of his heart, but even I, a woman, have my heart skipping a few beats, especially when she smiles. That indescribable feeling is enough to make people willing to die for her!"

“Yes! Yes! It’s that feeling!”

“Oh my god! Why hadn’t I found her this good-looking despite having been classmates with her for so long? This is unbelievable!”

“It’s because she sleeps all day long, and when she’s awake she’s just nowhere to be found. Who would have the chance to take a good look at her? But when we were in the classroom last time and looked at her closely, did you forget that even when she was sleeping, she still looked stunning while bare-faced? Right now, she’s wearing makeup. Also, the clothes she’s wearing suit her so well! It’s not like in the past when she always wore sportswear. No one could tell whether her figure was good or bad!”

“Now that you mention it, it seems like that’s true...”

“Wow... Really... I can’t describe it... No wonder she’s so pampered by a wealthy husband. If I could marry such a woman, I’d give her everything and dote on her every day!”

On the stage, the top students snapped back to their senses and started a heated discussion. Below the stage, everyone was talking about Mu Huan.

Originally, Ling Wei was the only goddess in the world. Anywhere she went, no one would be able to look at anything except her. But now, Mu Huan had taken away half of their attention!

This made Ling Wei feel a sense of danger for the first time.

Especially when this girl was younger than her and the youthful vigor she exuded was something she could not compare to!

The most precious thing in this world was youth, because youth was irreversible.

Chapter 464: A Surprise (5)

What surprised her even more was that Mu Huan’s academic performance was outstanding. When she was a freshman and had just started studying medicine, at most, she knew a little about the field. Ling Wei had to admit, however grudgingly, that Mu Huan was truly outstanding!

After an intense debate, the same three students won.

They were the people that the school had decided on: two Ph.D. students and one Mu Huan.

Mu Huan was ranked third.

However, considering her academic qualifications and age, Mu Huan appeared more impressive. She was only in her first year, and the two Ph.D. students were almost 30.

All the experts’ evaluation of Mu Huan was that this was a good seedling. Her future achievements could not be predicted. She would be the brightest star in the pharmaceutical industry!

“Fellow student, is there anyone in your family who works in the pharmaceutical industry?” the oldest expert sitting in the host seat asked Mu Huan.

A freshman shouldn't have such knowledge.

"Yes."

"Under whose tutelage did you study?" If she had such knowledge, she must have been nurtured by her family. If they could nurture such a good seedling, her family must have a high degree of knowledge.

"My grandfathers." Mu Huan had previously mentioned that she'd studied traditional Chinese medicine very early on. Her grandfathers had taught her everything related to medicine since she was young.

Her maternal grandfather didn't teach her much since he passed away early, while her paternal grandfather taught her until she was 15.

Back then, she was able to leave the Mu family with her granny because of her grandfather's help. Her grandfather did not want her to be ruined in the Mu family, so he spent a lot of effort to let her leave with her granny safely. He even went to look for her whenever he had the time to teach her things, show her thick books, and check on her progress.

"What are your grandparents' names?" The reason the old specialist was asking so much was that he felt that Mu Huan's depth of knowledge was too profound and he wanted to know what kind of person could nurture such an outstanding seedling.

"My paternal grandfather's name is Meng Wei, and my maternal grandfather's name is Song Zhiwen."

When Mu Huan mentioned her grandparents' names, the expressions of the older experts changed. They were shocked!

"Song Zhiwen of the Song family that's in the pharmaceutical industry?"

"The medical freak, Meng Wei?"

"Yes." Mu Huan nodded.

Both Mu Huan's grandfathers were talented. Mu Huan's maternal grandfather had eight Ph.D. degrees and had even received the highest honor in the pharmaceutical industry! When he was alive, the Song family's pharmaceutical company was not only the country's best but it was also very famous internationally.

Mu Huan's paternal grandfather, on the other hand, was a well-known medical genius. He was said to be someone who could fight with the Death God for someone else's life. It was just that he had a bad temper and often offended others. Later on, he was framed and then made a mistake during an operation, causing an important patient to die. His reputation plummeted, and his heart was badly damaged. He became dispirited.

Mu Huan's grandfathers were good friends. It was also because of this that her grandfather met her grandma and married into the Mu family during his most dispirited period, wherein he had a medical mishap that caused the death of the patient.

Later, Mu Huan's grandma pushed all the blame of the medical mishap that caused a patient's death onto him, causing him to die of depression.

There were some geniuses who were unparalleled in their field of expertise, but God had also given them fatal flaws that they could not overcome.

“No wonder you have such knowledge and talent!” the experts said upon regaining their senses.

The achievements of Mu Huan’s grandfathers far surpassed theirs. Those two were the legends of that era. With the guidance of these two legendary figures, it was no wonder she was so outstanding and talented!

Chapter 465: A Surprise (6)

“However, this would still have depended on your own hard work! After all, no matter how well your grandfathers taught you, you’d have had to work hard as well!”

“It’s both my grandfathers who deserve the credit.” Mu Huan wasn’t being modest. She had always thought that they were the ones who taught her well, especially her paternal grandfather. If it weren’t for him teaching her and helping her, she might have been crippled by Bai Xuexian.

“It’s said that the younger ones would always surpass their predecessors! I think that’s true! I want to fight with Professor Lin to have you as my assistant.”

“Professor Dong, if you need anything in the future, feel free to tell me.”

“But why are you taking pharmaceutical studies? Why not medicine?”

“I prefer pharmaceutical studies.”

“Seems like you inherited more from your maternal grandfather.”

Mu Huan smiled and did not speak.

Ling Wei looked at Mu Huan, who was being praised by the experts and professors, and her eyes darkened.

Mu Huan had said that the Mu family’s wealth might not be comparable to the Ling family’s, but if Ling Wei were to compare what she had with Mu Huan’s grandfathers in the field of medicine, she would lose.

Even Ling Wei’s talent in medicine was no longer as outstanding.

Mu Huan was still so young, and her being so outstanding even at this age meant that her future was unpredictable!

In terms of appearance, not only was Mu Huan not inferior to Ling Wei, but she also had the youth that Ling Wei could never return to. In terms of family background, she had her grandfathers. Even though they had been gone for so many years, the pharmaceutical industry had never forgotten their legacy. And in terms of their achievements in the field of medicine, Ling Wei did not have as many as her when she was Mu Huan’s age.

Initially, Ling Wei had felt that she didn’t have to feel threatened by Mu Huan at all. There was no comparison between them. Of the two of them, one was the clouds in the sky and the other was the mud in the ground. They were separated by a distance that Mu Huan should never have been able to catch up to!

But today, Ling Wei suddenly realized that there was nothing about her that was better compared to Mu Huan.

Even if Mu Huan didn't have Bo Junyan, she still wouldn't lack anything!

This was a blow to Ling Wei.

After all, she had always been high and mighty since she was born. She was smart and talented, and she had always been praised by others. All the daughters of the wealthy families in the Imperial Capital regarded her as their goal and everyone idolized her. She was the most perfect existence!

But now, she was actually fighting to a draw with a pitiful freshman girl who was chased out of the family!

This was a humiliation to her!

However, someone like Ling Wei, who had seen a lot of things, would not give away anything on her expression no matter what. Hence, no matter what she thought in her heart, her face was still wearing an elegant smile.

"Student Mu Huan is indeed outstanding."

"Thank you, Professor Ling." Mu Huan smiled brightly at her.

That smile dazzled Ling Wei.

Indeed, was makeup equal to plastic surgery? This Mu Huan was originally a good-looking person, but today, describing her as "special" wouldn't do. She was dazzling.

This battle had made Mu Huan the most popular person in the school! No one said anything about Ling Wei. They were all discussing how beautiful Mu Huan was.

There was no need for Li Meng to refute any of the classmates in their class anymore. There was no need for anyone to say that Ling Wei was the clouds in the sky and Mu Huan was the mud on the ground. No one else could compare to her.

No one would ever again say that comparing Mu Huan to her was an insult to Ling Wei.

Even Huo Yuqi no longer felt that way.

Chapter 466: A Surprise (7)

When the event ended, Mu Huan was escorted out by people. Although everyone knew that she was married, it wasn't against the law to look at her! Besides, apart from the boys, there were also many girls who followed her back!

Nowadays, there were many men who fought with men over women, but there were also many who fought with women over men!

Li Meng looked at the boys and girls who had been accompanying her friend along the way and moved closer to Mu Huan. "Goddess Mu, please accept my worship! I've now become your believer!"

Mu Huan turned around and lifted her chin while showing a devilish smile. "Little cutie, is that true?"

Li Meng, who had been friends with her for so many years, felt as though her heart had been shot by the God of Love! "I can't take it anymore, Mu Huan... If you continue like this, I'm going to turn gay..."

"Hur hur, I told you, it's not a problem for me to become the lead host when I'm this dashing, right?! And you're still saying that I'm a sissy!" Mu Huan snorted.

"I was wrong! Goddess Mu!" Li Meng begged for her forgiveness.

"I forgive you!" Mu Huan said as she stroked her little face teasingly.

Then, she heard a series of gasps!

Mu Huan turned around and saw someone about to faint.

Mu Huan: "..."

Did she have to be so exaggerated?! She wanted to play dress-up for a week! But now that things had become like this, her husband would probably only let her play for one day!

"Xiao Huan, I feel as if a target is being painted on my back!"

"I didn't expect that I'd be such a hit when dressing up. In the future, if I don't have any other choice, I might even be able to rely on my looks to survive!" Mu Huan said as she stroked her chin.

"Goddess Mu, you can always rely on your looks!"

"It's a pity that I also have my talents to rely on. Aiya, why am I so awesome?!"

"Mu Huan, narcissism is a disease!"

"Then I'm hopeless!"

The two of them chatted and laughed as they returned to the classroom.

The students in their class looked at Mu Huan, unable to take their eyes off her. They were clearly the ones who'd been attending lessons with her every day, but why was it that they too were so stunned today? It was simply...

They didn't know what to say!

All they wanted to do was to look at her quietly. The more they looked at her, the more they would sink into her...

The other students, who were watching from the sidelines and refusing to leave, all felt that Mu Huan's class was the happiest class in the entire school! First, they had the campus beau Long Feiting, then there was the peerlessly handsome Professor Bo. Now, the top student had suddenly turned into a stunning beauty! With them looking at these three eye-catching people every day, their life must simply be too beautiful!

They really wanted to transfer to the pharmaceutical faculty!

Outside the classroom, the noisy crowd of students quietened down only when the next lesson started.

Because this was a Biochemistry class, no one dared to speak nonsense in Bo Junyan's presence. No one would be willing to pay attention to the lecture if they weren't also getting the chance to look at Bo Junyan, especially the female students. Other handsome men might no longer seem as stunning after being looked at for a long time. But their Professor Bo could make people feel he looked better the more they looked at him. And the more they looked at him, the more they were convinced he was not from this world. It was simply driving them crazy!

When Biochemistry class was about to end...

Bo Junyan, who usually only taught and never spoke much in class, suddenly said, "Professor Ling isn't my wife. She's my relative. My wife is a person who's prettier and better than her." As Bo Junyan spoke, he looked straight at Mu Huan.

Mu Huan met his gaze and smiled sweetly.

Her smile instantly made Bo Junyan's eyes burn!

The students were so shocked by Bo Junyan's words that they could not gather their senses. They did not notice the exchange of glances between the two.

Chapter 467: A Surprise (8)

Professor Ling was not Professor Bo's wife! Also, Professor Bo's wife was even prettier than Professor Ling! Was there such a person in this world?

For some reason, they all thought of Mu Huan at the same time.

Then, they felt that Mu Huan and Bo Junyan looked more compatible standing next to each other!

The people's impression changed so quickly. Strictly speaking, every one of them liked to associate people based on appearances.

However, Professor Bo himself, who had never said anything unrelated to his lesson, had suddenly said such things!

Could it be that the rumors circulating in their class had reached Professor Bo's ears?

"My wife doesn't like hearing that other women are more compatible with me. Hence, I don't want to hear such words again in the future!" Bo Junyan's tone sent shivers down the spines of everyone who spoke of how compatible Bo Junyan and Ling Wei were!

Somehow, they felt like they had walked right up to the gates of hell before coming back.

They broke out in a cold sweat!

"Ms. Mu Huan, come to my office for a while." With that, Bo Junyan left the class.

Mu Huan quickly stood up and followed him.

Her husband was showing his love in public! He was such a cold and aloof man, yet he was showing his love in front of everyone! She really loved him more and more!

Long Feiting looked at her departing figure and suddenly clenched his fists tightly.

He didn't know why, but he suddenly felt so frustrated that he wanted to punch someone!

I really don't know what that Mu Huan is up to! She's usually so eye-catching and attracts attention! But today...

Long Feiting's heart skipped a few beats when he thought about the moment Mu Huan went on stage today!

When he snapped back to his senses, Long Feiting clutched his chest with a puzzled expression. What was going on with him?

Was he having a heart attack?

...

The moment Mu Huan entered Bo Junyan's office, he pressed her against the door and gave her a passionate kiss.

He regretted it.

He regretted letting her do as she pleased.

Only he should be able to see her like this! Her beauty and everything that belonged to her should be his alone!

From the moment Mu Huan went on stage until now, Bo Junyan had exerted every last bit of his self-control to not rush over and carry her home!

After a while...

"This is only for today. From tomorrow onwards, you'll be attending school without makeup!"

Mu Huan: "...!!!"

She knew it!

"We agreed on a week. You can't go back on your words."

"I didn't agree." Bo Junyan clearly remembered that he didn't agree back then.

"You've agreed!"

"You only assumed that I did."

"I don't want this! It's only for a day that I'll be the campus goddess! People will then say that I'm a one-hit wonder! That it was just an illusion! And then, they'll forget about it very quickly..." Mu Huan felt that it would take a week for her goddess image to be engraved in the minds of all her classmates.

"It's best if they forget."

“You can’t do this... You’re always stirring up trouble and making those girls go crazy over you. You can’t, you can’t forbid me from doing this!”

“I can.”

“Hubby...” Mu Huan hugged his arm coquettishly.

Mu Huan: “...!!!”

“Then you can’t provoke girls! You’ll have to wear a mask to class from now on!”

“Alright.”

Mu Huan: “...!!!”

He actually agreed!

“Hubby...”

“Call me Hubby again and I’ll carry you home immediately!”

Mu Huan: “...”

In the end...

“If we stop after a week, you won’t have to wear masks!” It would be so tiresome to be in class wearing masks every day!

“Then you’d have to do your makeup uglier. You can’t be too good at it.”

Mu Huan: “...!!!”

Chapter 468: A Special Plan (1)

“I don’t want that!” Mu Huan refused firmly.

It wasn’t easy for her to doll herself up and seize such a good opportunity to amaze people. She was about to become a top student goddess and be equal to Ling Wei. No, she had even attracted more girls to follow her!

She wanted Ling Wei to know how formidable she was so that she wouldn’t dare to look at her in such a contemptuous manner again. Before, it was as if Mu Huan was a dust that wasn’t even worthy of competing with her!

He actually wanted her to make herself look uglier!

If she were to make a fool of herself tomorrow, the students from the other faculties of the school might think that the students from the medical and pharmaceutical faculty had hallucinated. They were only saying that she was a stunning beauty because they had had to stay up all night to study. By then, not only would she not be able to compete with Ling Wei, but she would also become a joke!

She didn’t want that!

In the past, Mu Huan had never cared about these things. Aside from her studies, there were not many things she worried about. But now, that was not the case!

In this kind of world, she had married such a good-looking husband. If she didn't take care of her external image, she would live in the center of public opinion every day.

Think about it, if one saw an especially handsome man whose wife was not good-looking, wouldn't they instinctively think that the two of them were not compatible? Humans like beautiful things. It's only natural!

If she were to deliberately make a fool of herself, then others would surely say that she wasn't worthy, that she was disgusting, that she had wasted such a good-looking man, that she didn't come from a good family, that she didn't have a good appearance, that she didn't have anything to offer, and that she didn't have anything to lose. There would be many women who would appear more compatible with Bo Junyan!

And it was someone like Ling Wei who was eyeing her like a tiger!

Mu Huan had never thought of going all out in the first place, but the way Ling Wei looked at her was really, really too contemptuous! When a person saw another as their greatest enemy yet that other person treated him or her as a small bug that could be easily killed, the feeling it gave was really not good!

No matter how strong her heart was, she wouldn't be able to withstand being looked down upon by others every day!

She didn't want to be insta-killed when she stood next to Ling Wei. She was prettier, stronger, and more outstanding than Ling Wei!

Also, when she stood next to Bo Junyan, she wanted others to say, "Wow, the two of them are a match made in heaven!" In any case, she wanted to hear words such as "they complement each other," not those contemptuous words.

Hence...

"Hubby..." She reached out to wrap her arms around Bo Junyan's neck, wanting to continue wearing him down. No matter what, she could not make herself look ugly!

But...

She did not even have a chance to speak.

...

Bo Junyan had made it very clear to the public that Ling Wei was not his wife. His wife was even prettier and better than Ling Wei, and this was quickly reported to Ling Wei.

This made Ling Wei very angry!

He actually said that about her! Besides being younger, Mu Huan had nothing on Ling Wei!

She thought of something.

Ling Wei called Bo Junyan's grandfather.

"Grandpa, the last time I went to the Gu residence, I found out something interesting..." The Gu family's matters were useful.

The old man on the other end of the line frowned upon hearing her words. "Are you sure?"

"Yes."

"This Junyan is really getting out of hand!"

"That's true, but Mu Huan is so young and pretty. It's no wonder that he still wants Mu Huan. Sigh. They do say that men love young girls. In the past, I thought that only those old men who are around 50 or 60 would be like this. I didn't expect Junyan to be such a person..." Ling Wei sighed.

Chapter 469: A Special Plan (2)

"Junyan isn't that sort of person. He might only be finding her refreshing." After all, that lass from the Mu family was indeed sweet and delicate. She was the type that men would easily like.

"I hope so." Ling Wei smiled.

"You don't have to think too much. Don't interfere with Mu Huan's matters. You just have to salvage Junyan's feelings for you. Everything else will be dealt with by me!"

"I don't think it's easy to salvage Junyan's feelings for me." She even felt that he had never liked her in the past. He had only treated her like a childhood friend. Otherwise, why would he be different now?!

Look at how much he cherished his little wife now, or how he was being so unmindful of where he was when expressing his love.

He also gave off a hint of old-fashioned and stern aura.

He had never treated Ling Wei this way before!

"Why? You want to give up?"

"That's not the case. It's just that this is the first time I'm feeling troubled." Ling Wei wasn't someone who would give up so easily.

"Haven't you always wanted to conquer something the more challenging it is?"

Ling Wei knew that the Old Master was afraid that she would give up. Hence, she smiled and said, "Grandpa, don't worry. I've already given up on something that was already mine. Why would I give up on getting it back?"

"Yes." The old man paused for a moment before saying, "Don't worry, I'm here."

"Yes."

Ling Wei hung up and looked out of the window.

There were too many unpredictable things in life. If she had known that things would turn out this way, she would not have broken up with Bo Junyan.

If she wouldn't have broken up with him in the past, they would have children by now.

Instead of having that life, she had to lower her status to fight with a freshman girl.

It was the same for Mu Huan. She did not feel inferior despite her poor family background. In fact, she was exceptionally confident that she would be able to take advantage of the argument that Ling Wei had put her in a difficult position to impress him...

Not only did Mu Huan never feel inferior and upset, but she was also vocal with her jealousy and threw a tantrum every day. This had annoyed Bo Junyan and made him think of ways to retaliate.

Ling Wei had really underestimated Mu Huan.

Speaking of Mu Huan, Ling Wei felt that if she didn't use some special methods, she might not be able to chase her away.

The next day at Yun University.

Mu Huan used her best move to force Bo Junyan to take a step back. She didn't want him to force her to look ugly, so, like before, she merely threw on her sportswear and went to school without makeup.

Because of Mu Huan's stunning performance yesterday, the students from the pharmaceutical faculty had spread the news like wildfire. Today, many students from the other faculties had especially come over to take a look. Although she did not put on makeup, she still looked very good without it!

And since people specifically came over to see her face, the more they looked at her, the more they felt that she looked good.

Sensing that everyone was looking at her, Mu Huan turned around and smiled.

That smile made the surrounding boys' hearts race!

"I'm changing my goddess... I'm changing my goddess!"

"Me too!"

"She's dressed like this and doesn't have any makeup, yet she's still so pretty even without dressing up. She's a real goddess!"

"That's right! That's right!"

Although her bare face did not look as glamorous as Mu Huan had originally intended, the effect was still acceptable.

...

Through the academic debate, everyone now knew that Mu Huan had relied on her capability to become Professor Lin's assistant. Hence, no one said that Mu Huan had gotten in through the back door and relied on her wealthy husband to join such an important research project.

Now, all the students were full of admiration for Mu Huan. They idolized her for being so pretty, outstanding, and hardworking!

Chapter 470: A Special Plan (3)

There were also people who were jealous of Mu Huan, saying that she was only this outstanding because of her good genes and because she had such remarkable grandfathers.

However, such sour words were quickly shot down by the other students.

Now, Mu Huan had a lot of supporters!

Hence, on the day that the school's research project was officially launched, many students went to support Mu Huan, hoping that she would perform well in it!

They wanted this to signal to everyone that their generation was also very powerful!

Ling Wei was here for scientific research and did not teach. Hence, she rarely appeared in front of the students. Today was a rare day for her to appear in public. Hence, her fans all came over to see their Professor Ling.

There were about the same number of boys among their supporters, but Mu Huan had many more female supporters. This made her popularity seem much higher than Ling Wei.

"Congratulations on becoming a member of the research project." Ling Wei extended her hand toward Mu Huan to congratulate her.

"Thank you, Professor Ling. Thank you even more for allowing me to come in so formally." Without their academic debate, she couldn't have joined the scientific research team in such a justifiable manner.

Ling Wei smiled elegantly and said, "You're welcome."

It seemed that Mu Huan knew that the debate was also one of their attempts at manipulating public opinion.

Mu Huan smiled and kept silent.

Their eyes met, and both knew the situation was no longer the same as before.

Ling Wei could no longer act high and mighty and look down on Mu Huan. She had to treat Mu Huan as a tough opponent.

She needed to use special methods to deal with such an adversary.

It was a sunny day after a rainy night. The autumn air was so refreshing that it made one feel good!

After dinner, Bo Junyan looked at Mu Huan and asked, "Do you have any plans on Sunday?"

"What is it? Do you want us to go out for a date?" Mu Huan asked casually.

"Yes."

"Jackpot!" Mu Huan's eyes lit up with joy when she heard his casual answer.

But what Bo Junyan said next dampened her excitement.

"Cousin invited us to his resort in the suburbs this weekend. The scenery there is pretty good."

“So it won’t just be the two of us...” Mu Huan said in disappointment.

“If you want us to be alone, we can make other arrangements for next week.” That would be a good opportunity to spend time alone.

When Mu Huan thought about what happened between her and Gu Chenyi last time, she felt a little reluctant to go. But then again, she thought about how she needed to have a good relationship with Bo Junyan’s family. She couldn’t say no.

As though he could tell what she was thinking, Bo Junyan said, “Don’t worry about Gu Chenyi. I taught him a lesson last time. This time, I’ll send someone to follow him closely so that he won’t be able to get close to you.”

Mu Huan was relieved to hear that. “Alright!”

“Ling Wei and Yuqi will be coming too.”

Mu Huan: “...”

Huo Yuqi was behaving pretty well nowadays. She no longer looked for trouble with Mu Huan, so it would be fine if they went together.

But it would be a waste of a good Sunday if she had to spend it with Ling Wei. It would be a little annoying, and she would be better off staying home and playing games.

She thought about it.

“With her around, I’ll have to dress up really well!” I can’t lose to her aura!

Bo Junyan: “...”

“Gu Chenyi will be there too.” He already had feelings for her in the first place. If she were to dress up like that...

Bo Junyan wouldn’t allow that to happen!

“That’s your nephew. It’s up to you to deal with him.”
