

Fake Marriage 591

Chapter 591: Action (3)

When Long Feiting heard this, he felt a little more at ease. This meant that she had considered things for him.

Arriving downstairs, Long Feiting saw two motorcycles that looked very functional. They looked similar to the ones he saw at the abandoned factory last time, but their appearance was different. They must have been modified.

He felt that Mu Huan and the other two's plans and actions were especially strong.

Mu Huan and Wu Xingye stepped forward and pushed the motorcycles out.

Standing next to the cool motorcycle, Mu Huan, who was dressed as a man, looked even more cool!

Long Feiting looked at her and seemed to understand why those girls still surrounded her despite knowing that she was a girl.

He walked toward Mu Huan instinctively.

"Take Xingye's bike," Mu Huan said as she handed the helmet to Li Meng.

Long Feiting: "..."

"I don't want to take the motorcycle!" He didn't want to squeeze in with Wu Xingye!

"Then take a taxi. Don't you know the place? Just don't miss the time." With that, Mu Huan put on her helmet and left.

That handsome pose was rather dashing!

Wu Xingye followed her out.

Long Feiting was left standing there alone. "...!!!"

They could really leave him behind!

No one had ever dared to treat him like this before!

But...

So what if he was angry? He could only hail a taxi and follow her.

The place they were going to was the busiest place in Yun Cheng at night, Jinxiu Plaza! Due to the convenience of traffic, there were lights and night markets here. Hence, no matter if it was spring, summer, autumn, or winter, it would be especially crowded at night. Every Saturday and Sunday, people would squeeze in.

Today was Monday, so it wasn't too bad.

Due to the fact that the traffic here was convenient and there were many people, it was easy to hide and escape no matter what kind of deal they made. Hence, the person who had secretly exchanged the jewelry was here to collect the goods tonight.

Usually, the person who had taken the goods would leave Yun Cheng that same night. If they continued to search, they would really not be able to find them.

Hence, they had to catch them tonight.

The motorbike that Mu Huan and the others were riding did not get stuck in traffic, so they arrived very quickly.

As for Long Feiting's taxi, since it was about time for people to get off work, there were many cars on the road, and it took him half an hour to get there.

When he arrived, Mu Huan and the other two were eating stinky tofu.

Long Feiting: "..."

"Do you want some?" Mu Huan asked.

Long Feiting's expression darkened. "No!"

Mu Huan immediately retracted her hand and continued eating.

Seeing this, Long Feiting instinctively wanted to anger her, so he decided to eat the stinky tofu in her hand.

However, Mu Huan had finished the bowl of stinky tofu in no time.

Long Feiting: "..."

Mu Huan wiped her mouth and said, "There's also an octopus ball over there that's delicious. Do you want some?"

"Yes! Yes!" Li Meng immediately nodded.

Wu Xingye hurriedly finished the stinky tofu in his hand. "I'll go buy it."

"And the third restaurant, chicken wing rice, roasted sausage, milk tea..."

Long Feiting could not help but ask, "Are you here on a mission or to eat?"

"They should appear around seven o'clock. It's only half-past six now. There's still half an hour left. We have to eat our fill before we can take action," Mu Huan said on account that he was her employer.

In fact, she had decided to come here at 6:30 am to eat the food in the night market. She had come early, so she had time to eat.

"Why do you know so much? Where did you get this information from? Is it reliable?" She even knew when those people would come to collect the goods!

"Unreliable. Of course I spent so much effort to come here just to catch a cold." Mu Huan rolled her eyes at him.

“How did you know when they would come?”

Chapter 592: Action (4)

“I can’t tell you this. I need to protect my informant.” The reason Mu Huan knew that the most awesome jewelry modification master in the country was in Yun Cheng was that she had worked as an odd-job worker at that master’s place. Back when she was working at a jewelry store, she heard from a customer that there was a jewelry modification master who was especially formidable. They were tired of wearing their old jewelry, so they went to him to have them recrafted. They took on a new style, and they looked better than those big branded designer jewelry!

Furthermore, that master was really formidable. He could tell at a glance whether it was real or fake diamonds.

Mu Huan saw the modified diamond necklace that the customer was wearing. The design was indeed novel and unique.

Furthermore, the customer had made it sound so impressive that she wanted to further study jewelry knowledge. Hence, she asked around about the master’s studio. When she heard that the master would replace his part-time employee in half a year, she found a part-time job near the master’s studio and waited for the time to come. When the master was looking for someone, she immediately went to apply for the job. Because she had worked in a jewelry store before, she was successfully accepted.

When she was working part-time there, she discovered the Master’s secret.

On the surface, he looked like a decent teacher who was collecting old jewelry and modifying them. In fact, his most lucrative source of income was to take those pieces of jewelry from unknown sources to disassemble and cut them, then reconstruct them into new pieces for those people to sell. If his own pay was appropriate, he would accept those pieces of jewelry with shady origins.

Master was very busy. He had to hire someone to do odd jobs, but he was afraid that the odd-job workers would discover his secret if they worked there for too long. Hence, he replaced his odd-job workers every half a year.

There was a personal assistant by his side who knew everything about him. The jewelry that he had collected from unknown origins were all cut and broken up by him and his assistant, and the old jewelry that ordinary people brought over was given to Mu Huan, a part-time odd-job worker, to help deal with.

Seeing how fast she was at learning, the master had the intention to take Mu Huan in as a disciple and pass on his skills to her. Then, the master-disciple pair would do this together.

However, because she had inadvertently discovered the master’s secret and felt that this was considered an illegal act, she refused to say that her main reason for being there was studying.

However, because she was fast and nimble in her work, the Master made an exception and made her do odd jobs for a year. This year was enough for her to learn a lot, and it also made her especially good friends with the Master’s assistant.

This time, she had gotten such detailed clues from the master’s assistant.

The masters would cut and break up the jewelry of unknown origins after making online transactions. Then, for the safety of both parties, the guests would place the goods that they wanted to have broken up at a specified place. The masters would send someone to retrieve them.

When the goods were ready, the Master would inform the other party to pick them up.

Throughout the entire process, the Master would not know who the guest was. From where the goods came from alone, a huge risk was avoided.

The same went for the guests.

When the goods arrived, because they didn't know what they were, the only time to catch them was when the customers came to collect them.

When she decided to do this job, Mu Huan had sent the necklaces and pictures of the jewelry store to the master's assistant. As the master's assistant was going to migrate overseas this year and needed money, he informed her when he received the goods and even told her the delivery location after the modification.

The assistant would come to deliver the goods around 6:40 am. After he'd delivered the goods, he would inform the other party to retrieve the goods.

Chapter 593: Action (5)

Hence, the earliest time the other party could come was around seven.

In order to prevent the other party from knowing the source of their information and making them suspect that the master had leaked it, thus spurring them to look for trouble with the master and assistant, apart from making Long Feiting wait for the news, Mu Huan had also got him to send people to search Yun Cheng these last few days, creating a scenario wherein someone was already investigating them. Even if they were followed, they wouldn't suspect that the master had leaked the news.

Now, they were only here to wait for someone to appear. After that person appeared, they would follow and then catch them somewhere else.

The assistant wanted to place the goods in a storage cabinet in the square. After he had placed the items properly, he would call the guests and tell them the password to the storage cabinet. The guests would come to retrieve the items.

At the place where Mu Huan chose to eat, she could see at a glance where the assistant was going to put the goods. At 6:45 PM, Mu Huan saw the disguised assistant walk toward the store counter and put the things down before leaving.

After that, no one came to collect the goods even at 7:20 PM.

"Were you cheated?" Long Feiting looked at Mu Huan.

"Don't be anxious. What if he's far away? Also, even if he's here, he'll only appear after confirming that the surroundings are safe." Mu Huan calmly ate the skewers in her hand.

After a moment of speechlessness, Long Feiting asked, "Aren't you too good at eating?"

He felt that she was about to eat everything in the night market.

“It’s rare for me to have the time to come over. Of course, I have to eat to my heart’s content.” As this place was rather far from Yun University, Mu Huan had not been here for a long time.

Long Feiting: “You’re so good at eating and sleeping every day. Why don’t I see you gaining weight?”

He didn’t know where all the food she had eaten went.

“She doesn’t get fat in the first place, and now that she’s exercising so much at night, she won’t get fat,” Li Meng said.

“Big exercise at night? That’s too much information!” Wu Xingye said suggestively.

“Get lost!” Mu Huan picked up a napkin and threw it at Wu Xingye.

After Wu Xingye dodged, he said, “Look, we were right. She’s embarrassed!”

Long Feiting: “—!”

While the three of them were fooling around, a couple walked to the counter where the assistant had placed the items earlier.

“They’re here,” Mu Huan whispered.

Just as Long Feiting was about to turn around to look, Mu Huan forcefully bent him over and stuffed a corn stick into his mouth.

Long Feiting lifted his head to look at her, his big eyes filled with the words, What are you doing?!

“Do you intend to look at them so openly because you want someone to find out that we’re waiting for them here?” Mu Huan said unhappily.

Long Feiting was a capable person, but he was also a young master who was well protected. He had never experienced real danger, so his reaction speed was slow.

Long Feiting: “—!”

When he removed the corn from his mouth—

Mu Huan said, “Let’s go.”

The three of them, who had been fooling around earlier, instantly changed their expressions and walked out nimbly.

In the past, Mu Huan and Li Meng would always be on the same team when carrying out missions. However, today, Mu Huan and Long Feiting were on the same team. After all, Long Feiting was a golden goose of the Long family. If he were to suffer any injuries, it would be difficult to hide the matter when the time came. Hence, Mu Huan brought him along to protect him.

After the couple took their things, they walked toward the parking lot.

Wu Xingye and Li Meng followed them there and memorized their car plate numbers and the direction they were heading.

Chapter 594: Action (6)

Mu Huan and Long Feiting came to the spot where their motorcycle was parked and waited for the right moment. When the other party's car left, they immediately followed.

"Let me ride it." Seeing that Mu Huan was about to ride the bike, Long Feiting reached out to grab the key and asked to do it.

When he came over, he'd wanted to ride the bike and ferry her because he was scared for her when he saw how petite she was.

Actually, Mu Huan wasn't petite at all. She was considered rather tall among ordinary girls. It was just that Long Feiting and Bo Junyan were both very tall, so she appeared very petite in front of them.

"You ride that one." Mu Huan gently loosened her grip and threw him a key.

"Aren't the two of us riding on the same bike?" Long Feiting had just heard her say that the two of them were in the same team. When they were riding the bike and setting off, he recalled the scene on television where the boys were ferrying the girls or the girls were driving the motorcycle. The people behind them were hugging the waist of the people in front of them. He couldn't help but blush. His heart rate increased, and he looked forward to it.

In the end, it was actually one person riding one bike!

"No."

"What about Li Meng and your friend? Aren't they going to follow us?"

"They're driving."

Long Feiting: "When did you get a car?"

"Didn't you hear what Xingye said? He drove the car to this parking lot in advance. When we follow the thieves, he would drive and we'll follow him. This way, no matter what happens, we wouldn't lose face."

Long Feiting: "He didn't say."

"That's because he forgot. Xingye is quite forgetful sometimes."

Long Feiting: "..."

"Isn't it less convenient for us to ride one each? What if you can't keep up with my speed?"

"I can't keep up with your speed?" Mu Huan raised an eyebrow.

"You asked me before if I knew how to ride a motorcycle. Didn't I tell you that I had participated in the cross-country competition and even won the championship?" When she asked him if he knew how to ride a motorcycle, he thought that she was suddenly interested in him. Now, it looked like it was for today!

"Oh, then, champion, follow closely and don't lose them. If you lose them, don't blame me for not taking you on this mission," Mu Huan said.

“Are you saying that you’re better than me?” Long Feiting narrowed his eyes.

“That’s not the case. I’m just familiar with Yun Cheng. I know which path to take even with my eyes closed. It’s just like how you have to familiarize yourself with the track during a competition. You’ll naturally be faster if you’re familiar with the track. If you’re not familiar with the track and don’t know what’s in front, you’ll definitely lose.”

“You’re so professional. Did you participate in a competition?”

Just as Mu Huan was about to say something, Wu Xingye’s voice came through the Bluetooth earpiece. “It’s a black car with the license plate number Dxx. It’s on the Road of Peace.”

“Let’s go.” With that, Mu Huan got onto the bike and sped off.

Long Feiting quickly followed.

As there were many people on the road, Long Feiting did not know who was faster between him and Mu Huan. He only knew that Mu Huan was much more nimble than he was. She was practically taking advantage of every opportunity while riding the bike. There were a few times when she was extremely scary, but she managed to pass steadily.

Once they were on a deserted road, they started to speed up.

Long Feiting loved racing. Other than winning the motorcycle race, he had also won the F1 race. He rarely met anyone who could match up to him, but Mu Huan’s speed was actually not much slower than his! In fact, every time they turned a corner, she would surpass him.

Just as she had said, because she was very familiar with the road conditions, the situation was advantageous to her.

Chapter 595: Action (7)

As he looked at Mu Huan, who had once again surpassed him at the turn, his heart began to race, perhaps due to the acceleration of the bike.

She was clearly so petite that she wouldn’t even be able to lift the bike up if it fell, but she was able to drive at such a speed!

He had never met a girl who could be cool, handsome, violent, coquettish, and cute. She—

Realizing that he would be in danger if he continued thinking about it, Long Feiting stopped thinking and dashed forward, surpassing Mu Huan.

Mu Huan’s original plan was for Wu Xingye to speed up and overtake the car that they were following when they arrived at a less crowded road. He would then stop on the road, sprinkling roadblocks and forcing the car they were following to stop. She and Long Feiting would then sprinkle roadblocks behind them so that the car wouldn’t be able to escape. After that, they would attack from both sides to get the items back.

However, they did not find a chance to implement this plan.

When Mu Huan saw that the car they were following had driven onto a road leading to the mountain, she, who felt that something was amiss, immediately asked Wu Xingye to turn around. However, at this moment, a car suddenly jumped out from the fork in the road and forced her and Long Feiting to stop.

Wu Xingye, who was driving in front of them, was also forced to stop by the car they were following.

The sudden appearance of the car was definitely not a coincidence. In other words, the other party might have sensed that they were following them and led them here.

Realizing that the other party was already prepared, Mu Huan got down from the bike and walked up to Long Feiting to protect him.

Long Feiting looked at how petite she was and how she was standing in front of him in a protective manner. His heart, which he had tried hard to control earlier, started beating strangely again.

Mu Huan and Long Feiting could have turned around and run back, but Wu Xingye and Li Meng were stuck in the middle of two cars. Hence, they could not run.

“Listen to my instructions later,” Mu Huan whispered.

Long Feiting, who was preoccupied with his racing heart, did not hear Mu Huan’s words.

Mu Huan, who did not get a response from him, turned to look at him and realized that he was staring at her in a daze.

The corners of her lips twitched.

What kind of situation did he think they were in? He was actually in a daze!

She pinched Long Feiting’s arm hard.

Long Feiting snapped back to his senses from the pain and said angrily, “What are you doing?”

“Why are you still in a daze under such circumstances?!” Why was he still asking her?! The moment he got in a daze, she could kill him!

Long Feiting snapped back to his senses and realized that he had been distracted in this situation. His handsome face instantly darkened.

At this point, the people in the car also got out.

They were three tall men wearing caps and masks. The aura they exuded was not to be underestimated.

“Who are you? Why are you following us?” the tallest man among the three asked.

Mu Huan stepped forward and said in a low voice, “Our boss only wants you to return the things that you’ve exchanged in our shop. Leave the items behind and we’ll go our separate ways!”

When the other party saw that Mu Huan was so small yet dared to say such things after being blocked by them, they laughed and said, “Young lad, it’s fine if you want something, as long as you’re capable enough! If you can knock us down, then the items will be returned to your boss!”

Mu Huan did not speak further. She only sized up the three people standing in front of her. The other party was so capable that he had long sensed that they were following them. He had even led them to this place and used this method to separate them. This meant that the people in the car were very formidable.

Chapter 596: Action (8)

Real martial artists' experience was much richer than theirs. They were not easy to deal with. Furthermore, they were all wearing masks. If they had masks, Mu Huan's side could not use medicine. They had to fight hard. But if they were to face someone who looked strong and had rich combat experience, there would be some risks.

In order to ensure absolute safety, she had to use a vicious move and strike first!

Hence, she took a step back and contacted Wu Xingye in a low voice, asking him about the situation there. Wu Xingye said that the other party did not get off the car.

Mu Huan lifted her head and observed the situation carefully. "You and Xiao Meng, take protective measures, then turn around and knock the car behind you away. They've gotten off!"

"Alright." After Wu Xingye said that, he started the car. When the car in front of him realized his intention—

Wu Xingye had already turned around and slammed into the car behind them.

When the three people who were walking toward Mu Huan heard that something was amiss, they quickly dispersed.

Just as they were about to run for their lives, Mu Huan, like a ferocious tiger, dashed toward one of the people who she felt was the most formidable. Without a word, she started beating him up.

As a person of action, Mu Huan had always been a vicious person who spoke little. She would never speak nonsense during critical moments.

When Long Feiting saw her rushing over, he also rushed toward one of them.

After Wu Xingye's car had crashed into the car, it stopped after a distance. Then, it turned around and drove back. Then, it stopped, and he let Li Meng stay in the car while he got out of the car to participate in the battle.

When the tall and strong man, who was fighting with Mu Huan, felt that something was amiss and was about to take out his knife, Mu Huan took out the needle faster than him.

The two needles pierced the acupuncture points on his leg and he immediately knelt down.

Just as the well-built man widened his eyes in shock, Mu Huan took the opportunity to remove his mask and spray some medicine on him before he fainted.

After settling him, just as Mu Huan was about to go help Long Feiting, the man and woman from the car in front of them rushed over. When they saw that one of their men had been knocked down by Mu Huan, they immediately surrounded Mu Huan. As the two of them weren't wearing masks, Mu Huan sprayed the girl with medicine and made her fall.

Seeing this, the man hurriedly pulled the collar of his sweater to cover his nose.

Then, he started fighting with Mu Huan. The man was very strong and his attacks were fierce, making it seem like Mu Huan was on the losing end.

Just when he thought he could take down Mu Huan, his eyes were blinded by a handful of powder. The next second, he felt a needle piercing him. Then, his legs went weak and he was knocked down by Mu Huan!

The series of movements were too fast! It was so fast that he collapsed before he could react.

The man, who had fallen to the ground, looked at Mu Huan and said angrily, "If you have the guts, fight me seriously!!"

"I can't have any injuries on my body, so I can only end this quickly." Now that her husband was checking her body every day, he would be able to find out if she had any injuries. Hence, no matter what, as long as she could win!

The man: "—!!"

Can not getting injured be a reason? If you can't get injured, you can stay at home! Why did you come out to be a fighter?! A fighter like you said that he couldn't get injured! Seriously—!!

This reason was too much!

When Long Feiting knocked down his opponent and ran over to help Mu Huan, he saw that she had already knocked her opponents down. His tensed heart relaxed. Then, he couldn't help but say fiercely, "Why didn't you start attacking the man first? Are you stupid? Don't you know that the man is stronger?"

Chapter 597: Strong Backup (1)

"I don't like to be ruthless to beauties." Although Mu Huan wasn't a real man, she still had tender feelings for the fairer sex. She couldn't be ruthless to the fragrant and soft girl, who looked even better.

The girl lying on the ground was the girl from the jewelry store. Although she had thick makeup, one could tell that she was very charming and good-looking.

Long Feiting: "...!"

As a woman, she could not bear to hit a good-looking girl!

The man on the ground: "..."

This sissy-looking man was actually a pervert!

Unable to take it any longer, Wu Xingye, who felt like he was about to be beaten up, turned to look at Mu Huan's situation. When he saw that they were all chatting, he shouted, "Brothers, it's not the time to chat yet!"

He was about to die!

Mu Huan and Long Feiting broke out in a cold sweat when they snapped back to their senses. They hurriedly ran toward Wu Xingye.

The person who fought with Wu Xingye could have taken him down immediately, but because of Mu Huan and Long Feiting's participation, the situation changed instantly. It was three against one, and he was soon defeated.

After taking down the last person, Mu Huan returned to the man who had fallen to the ground earlier.

"What medicine did you give me?" The man knew that the injuries on his body would not have caused him to be unable to get up, but he was feeling weak and sore all over. He must have been drugged, but he did not know when she had attacked him.

"I won't tell you what medicine it is, but I can tell you that the drug in your body will only go down tomorrow. Your friends will also wake up around that time.

"Although your lives are in my hands, we are all doing this for a living. I won't make things difficult for you. I only want the things that belong to our boss. Also, in the future, don't go to our boss's shop to do this!"

Her mission was to get the stolen goods. On account of how generous Long Feiting was, she would give him some benefits.

"So, are the goods with you, in the car, or somewhere else? Please tell me quickly, I'm in a hurry to go home." Mu Huan looked at her watch just now. It was almost nine o'clock. Although Bo Junyan said that he was busy today and would only return home late, she was now living with her in-laws and couldn't go home too late.

These people were good at stealing and hiding. Since they knew that they were following them, they would definitely have hidden the goods. Even if they hid them in the car, it would take some time to find them.

The man: "...!!"

He could knock them down, but he wouldn't even be bothered to find anything! He could really be more arrogant!

"Quick, tell me frankly. I'll get someone to bring you guys to the car and let you have a good night's sleep. Otherwise, you'll catch a cold lying on the ground on this cold day!" After she got the goods, she would be considered to have completed her mission. She would then get Long Feiting to find someone to deal with the aftermath.

The man: "..."

"I'll give you 30 seconds to consider. If you don't say anything, I'll just kick you into the ditch!" Mu Huan said, really about to kick him into the ditch by the roadside.

Although the man had never interacted with Mu Huan before and this was their first time fighting, from her style of speaking without using harsh words, he could tell that she was a person who would do what she said. The ditch on both sides of the road was five to six meters deep. If he was kicked down, he would definitely be in pain tomorrow. No matter what, she would find the goods. There was no need for him to insist on not saying anything. He hurriedly said, "There's a hidden compartment under the passenger seat."

Mu Huan immediately got up to get the goods.

Chapter 598: Strong Backup (2)

Just as she was about to move, the girl who was lying on the ground suddenly pounced on her.

The speed was so fast that even though Long Feiting and Wu Xingye saw it, they did not have the time to warn Mu Huan. Even so, Mu Huan still dodged at a faster speed.

She was very sensitive to danger.

The other party did not expect her to be able to dodge such a surprise attack. However, after being stunned for a few seconds, she attacked Mu Huan again. She felt that Mu Huan was the leader of the three of them. If she could subdue her, then the two of them would have to listen to her. To catch a thief, one must first capture the leader!

Mu Huan dodged a series of attacks from the girl. After pulling away from the two of them, she looked at the girl in surprise. "Why did you wake up so quickly?"

Her grandfather's family's exclusive knockout powder could knock out a cow with a spray. The two strong men were lying there motionless. How did she wake up so quickly and still have such stamina?

"I'm naturally immune to any drug!" the girl said proudly.

If she was drugged with any drug, she would only be dizzy for a while and would quickly recover her stamina.

"Your constitution is good!" Mu Huan praised.

The girl was about to say something...

But Mu Huan said, "Since you're a beauty, I'll give you a choice.

"If your surprise attack fails, there's no hope for you to deal with me alone, let alone the three of us. I only want to retrieve the items. In this case, will you be obedient or will you be knocked down?"

Unexpectedly, the woman did not have many vicious words to say as she directly attacked Mu Huan.

Mu Huan did not stand on ceremony. Instead, she turned from defense to offense and attacked fiercely. She wanted to knock the other party down as quickly as possible.

Seeing that Mu Huan had no problem dealing with women, Wu Xingye went to get the goods.

Once he had gotten them and completed the mission, he could leave at any time!

Long Feiting also felt that Mu Huan wasn't in trouble, so he did not go forward to help. Instead, he informed his men to come here to deal with the aftermath.

It was indeed not a problem for Mu Huan to deal with this woman. When Long Feiting ended the call, she happened to finish subduing the woman.

Wu Xingye, on the other hand, had returned with something. He took it and walked toward Mu Huan. "Let's see if it's these things."

Just as Mu Huan was about to push the woman to Long Feiting to see if the diamonds were real or if she had been cheated...

Suddenly, a strong beam of light shot over.

Then, rows of black cars surrounded them from two different directions.

"My backup is here. None of you can escape!" the woman who was being subdued sneered.

Mu Huan: "...!"

Were thieves so arrogant now?! They were actually making such a big scene of rescuing each other!

"What do we do?" Wu Xingye asked as he leaned closer.

"Long Feiting, hurry up and inform your men. The more the merrier!" Mu Huan looked at Long Feiting.

The black cars had blocked their escape route.

If they were to move forward, they would have to go into the mountains. There would be no one in the mountains, and no one would even know if they were killed. It would be better to stay here and wait for backup. It would be safer.

"Yes." Long Feiting's expression darkened.

In the past few days, he had sent someone to investigate the relatively famous and powerful organization of thieves. After confirming that it wasn't a formidable organization, he was relieved and let the few of them act together. He didn't expect the other party to have such backup!

"It's not too late for you to beg for mercy now! Especially you!" The woman looked at Mu Huan. No one had ever dared to hurt her like this!

Mu Huan laughed. "You're still in my hands. Don't be too arrogant."

From the way the jewelry thieves operated, this woman must be the most important person in their group. With her in hand, no matter how many people came, they might not lose!

Chapter 599: A Big Move (1)

Besides, Mu Huan had never fought a battle that she was not confident of winning. If she could not be kind, then she could only use her ultimate move!

As they spoke, the rows of black cars came to a stop. The people on the cars got off and surrounded them in a well-trained manner. The speed at which they surrounded them was so fast that Mu Huan's expression darkened.

Seeing that something was amiss, Li Meng got out of the car and ran toward them. When she heard the approaching footsteps behind her, she could not help but turn around to take a look. When she saw the group of people, she ran even faster.

After she ran to Mu Huan's side, Mu Huan asked her and Wu Xingye to hide behind her. She grabbed the woman who had been pressed down earlier and asked her to stand up so she could use her as a hostage.

Of course, she didn't want to make a move unless it was necessary. She didn't want to attract a huge enemy. Hence, she lowered her head and said to the woman, "We just want to get back our things. Now that we've got them, your friends are fine. I think it's better for us to be safe. So, please get your men to make way so that we can return to our homes and wash up and sleep early."

"Dream on! No one can live well after beating up my people!" the woman said coldly.

"If you're not willing, then the one who dies first is you!" Mu Huan said forcefully.

The woman broke out in a cold sweat from the pain. However, not only did she not beg for mercy, but she even said in an even colder voice, "Alright! If I die, all of you will die with me!"

Mu Huan: "...!!"

Initially, she'd thought that she would be able to earn tens of millions just by getting something back. Who knew that she would get herself a thorn!

Indeed, money was not easy to earn!

"Let all of us be buried with you? I'd like to see who has the capability to make Young Master Long die with them!" Long Feiting snorted.

Looking at the speed at which these people were coming, they looked like well-trained bodyguards. They didn't look like bandits. To be able to mobilize so many bodyguards, they must be people with status. To be able to move so quickly, they must be from Yun Cheng. And in Yun Cheng, other than the Bo family, there was no one else that Young Master Long needed to be afraid of!

As Long Feiting spoke, he pulled the woman to his side and let Mu Huan hide behind him. With Young Master Long around, she would need to charge into the enemy lines to protect them!

Mu Huan could also feel that the people surrounding them looked like bodyguards. They didn't look like dangerous people with murderous intent.

Hence, she did not say much and left the person to Long Feiting to handle.

She stepped aside and observed the situation.

Long Feiting and Mu Huan had guessed that the person who had arrived was definitely not a dark-rank dangerous person. He should be someone with status. But they did not expect that the person who had come...

It was Gong Zeye!

What the f*ck!

Mu Huan didn't know if she should feel lucky or unlucky!

Gong Zeye was stunned when he saw Long Feiting. "Feiting, is that you?"

Long Feiting asked, "Uncle Gong, is this woman related to you?"

While they were talking, Mu Huan secretly took two steps back and hid behind Wu Xingye. She lowered her head to minimize her presence. This was Gong Zeye!

It would be over if he recognized her!

"This is my fiancée, Yang Ning," Gong Zeye said as he reached out to take the woman back.

Mu Huan: "..."

Wasn't Gong Zeye a bachelor? When did he have a fiancée? And a fiancée in this line of work!

The corners of Long Feiting's lips twitched. "Uncle Gong, someone like you, who has a family owning mines and using diamonds as glass beads, wants your fiancée to go to a jewelry store to steal things?"

Chapter 600: A Big Move (2)

Gong Zeye broke out in a cold sweat. "This fiancée of mine has a special status. Uncle will pay you back double for the things she took from your store."

Gong Zeye's newly-appointed fiancée was the little princess of the Godly Thief family. Although her family had long been rich enough to do other businesses, this little princess had to inherit the family's tradition and cause trouble everywhere.

"There's no need for double the amount. If you need anything in the future, just ask her to go to my shop to get it. You don't have to spend so much effort to get it," Long Feiting said.

Gong Zeye was sweating profusely. His Gong family was in the mining business, so he could play with a bunch of diamonds and didn't have to go to someone else's house to get them! "Since we're all on the same side, let's forget about this matter. I'll treat you to a meal another day."

"Yes."

Just as Mu Huan heaved a sigh of relief and thought that this matter was over...

"Gong Zeye, your fiancée has been beaten up. Are you going to let this matter rest?" Yang Ning said in a speechless manner. She had asked him to bring so many people over to destroy this small team, but he was going to let this matter rest!

Can't he see that I'm injured with those big eyes of his? Am I someone to be treated this way?

"After all, you were in the wrong first. Besides, the injuries on your body are not serious." Gong Zeye had long felt that his willful and rash fiancée needed to be taught a lesson. Hence, even though he saw the injuries on her body, he did not take them seriously.

"Not serious?" Yang Ning sneered.

Gong Zeye: "..."

Although this fiancée was a newly-appointed one, he had known her since she was young and knew her very well. He knew that her smile meant that this matter could not be let go so easily. If he let it go, she would not let him off! His mother liked this crazy Yang Ning. If he did not help her vent her anger, he would not be able to rest in peace for at least half a year if she went home to complain.

“Then what do you want?”

“I want the person who hit me! He hit me, I want to hit him back!” She, Yang Ning, had been given everything since she was young. She simply didn’t lose out!

Since her fiancée knew this group of people and this person even called her fiancée uncle, she would not make things difficult for him. It was fine if she did not exterminate them, but the person who hit her just now had to be beaten back!

“Who hit you? Long Feiting?” Gong Zeye considered beating Long Feiting up. Who asked him to hit a woman?

“No, it’s the person standing at the back! Let him hand that person over and this matter can be settled!” Yang Ning turned around and pointed at Mu Huan, who was standing at the back.

Mu Huan: “...”

At the back...

What the f*ck!

Gong Zeye followed her hand and saw a skinny and short man.

Mu Huan looked at him and lowered her head even more.

Li Meng, who was standing in front of her, lowered her head as well.

Just then, Long Feiting stood in front of Gong Zeye, blocking his view of Mu Huan.

Gong Zeye could only retract his gaze and look at Long Feiting. “Who is it, Feiting?”

“I hired someone to help me retrieve the stolen jewelry.”

When Gong Zeye heard that it was someone he had hired, he felt that this was not a problem at all. Hence, he said, “Feiting, hand that person over.”

“Uncle Gong, this person is my employee since I hired him. What he did was done by me. If your fiancée wants to fight back, she can just hit me!” Long Feiting knew that Mu Huan was afraid of being discovered by Gong Zeye, and he had said that he would protect her and keep it a secret for her. Hence, he absolutely could not let her be exposed.
