

Fake Marriage 641

Chapter 641: Important Things (2)

If this were in the past, all of them would have been Saint-grade. But now, many operations were becoming more and more advanced. Those techniques were outdated and had turned from precious to useless.

In the past, Mu Dongsheng had wanted to be a surgeon like his father, so he had studied the field of surgery seriously. Hence, he could understand all these things.

He had some talent in this area, but his mother felt that he was not even a fraction as good as his father. She did not want him to embarrass himself and forced him to become an internist.

This made the job that he used to like very much turn into a job that he hated and didn't want to do at all. Hence, he'd started to play around.

Mu Huan glanced at him without saying a word. She took out a big bag from her bag and placed all the things in the metal box inside. Then, she looked at the metal box again and again. After confirming that there was no other hiding place, she closed the metal box and put it back to its original position. Then, she restored the floor.

Just as Mu Huan was done packing and was about to close the big bag, Mu Dongsheng took out a yellowed notebook from inside. "It's useless to look at this thing. If you have nothing better to do, go ahead and flip through it."

Mu Huan reached out and was about to flip through it when she passed it back to Mu Dongsheng.

He carefully put it away.

Mu Huan said, "If you still have dreams, it's never too late to start. You've also seen that my relationship with Bo Junyan is very good. Also, I'm very rich now. If you leave my grandma's side and want to do something else, I can support you!"

She knew that he had originally wanted to be a surgeon, but seeing how much he cherished the notes left behind by her grandfather, she knew he must still be thinking of being one.

He was only in his early forties. According to the age of humans living now, he was in his prime. As long as he wanted to, it was not too late to start.

When Mu Dongsheng heard this, his eyes lit up. "You're really rich. Do you want to support me?"

Mu Huan looked at him and had a bad feeling. "..."

"I want to invest in an entertainment city overseas to be the boss. Then, I can do whatever I want inside! Can you support me?!" As Mu Dongsheng spoke, he excitedly grabbed Mu Huan's arm.

Mu Huan: "..."

Indeed.

She was still too emotional...

“Opening an entertainment city is a daily business! It’s a sure-win! Why don’t you open one for me?!” Mu Dongsheng said obsequiously, blinking his big eyes.

He looked like he was only short of shaking Mu Huan’s arm coquettishly.

Mu Huan: “...”

If he wasn’t her biological father, she would have kicked him down!

“That’s impossible—don’t even think about it!”

“You said you would support me just now! Why are you going back on your words now?! It’s a good thing I haven’t left your grandma yet. If I were to leave and you didn’t care about me, wouldn’t I have to beg on the streets?!” Mu Dongsheng said angrily.

“No one will give you food even if you go to the streets to beg for food. If you want to go and try, I suggest you break an arm or a leg first,” Mu Huan said coldly.

“Mu Huan, is there another daughter like you in this world?! That’s what you just said!”

“You know what I want to support you for!” Although her father was cowardly, he was not stupid. He definitely knew what she was referring to.

“All I know is that you want me to leave your grandma and support me to live my own life! And what you just said doesn’t count anymore!” Mu Dongsheng knew what Mu Huan wanted to support him for, but he was already in his forties. Furthermore, because he had been drinking all year round, his hands would tremble for no reason. How could he still hold a scalpel like this?!

Chapter 642: Important Things (3)

His life had long been ruined. It was over. All he wanted to do now was to eat, drink, and have fun. He could do whatever he wanted!

Mu Huan: “...”

“It’s fine if you don’t want to support me in opening the entertainment city, but you have to give me five million yuan!” Mu Dongsheng knew that Mu Huan would definitely not open the entertainment city for him. He didn’t really want to open an entertainment city, but he just wanted money. Hence, he deliberately asked for a large amount to make Mu Huan feel that it was unreasonable. If it didn’t work, then he would ask for a relatively small sum of money. This way, Mu Huan might just give it to him.

Mu Huan: “...”

Why did he always ask for five million?! Did she look like someone who would give him five million?

“Let’s not talk about what you said just now. You can’t go back on your words! Even if it’s a guard fee, I’ve helped you look at this thing for so many years. Shouldn’t you give me some money for my hard work?” He had always told his mother everything. This was the only thing he had not told his mother! He had guarded this secret for so many years. Shouldn’t she give him some money for his hard work?

Although Meng Wei was cold to his son and had never done anything for him, in his heart, his father was the person he idolized the most. Hence, before his father died, he had told him to do this behind his mother's back.

When he was waiting for Mu Huan at the door, he didn't look like the usual him. It was because he had come here and recalled the situation back then. For so many years, he had always been ignored by his father. That was the first time his father had looked at him so seriously and called his name. He had even asked him to do something.

He'd also apologized to him, saying that he hadn't been a good father. It wasn't that he was ignoring him, but that he didn't know how to be a father. He was afraid that he would fail to teach him like he was taught. When he realized that his understanding was wrong, it had been too late. He didn't know how to correct himself, so he could only continue on like that.

He had not inherited his father's talent in medicine, but he had inherited his personality's shortcomings. They were all people who could only run away and were unable to resist or change. They were oppressed and frustrated, and they easily gave up their lives.

"Also, you're about to get married. Since the Bo family has given me a betrothal gift, I'll definitely prepare a dowry for you. You should know without me saying anything that the dowry will have to come from your grandma's pocket. I won't be able to touch a single cent. How am I going to prepare a dowry for you? If I don't prepare a dowry for you, won't the Bo family look down on you?"

"You have to give me money to prepare it!" No matter what, she had to give him money!

The corners of Mu Huan's lips twitched. "I'll prepare my own dowry and give it to the Mu family a day in advance."

Mu Dongsheng: "...!"

After a while.

"I don't care about that! In any case, you have to give me money today!" With that, he hugged Mu Huan's arm and refused to let go. His expression said that if you don't give me the money, I won't let you go!

Mu Huan: "..."

Previously, she had actually wondered if he had other plans. She had really overestimated him; he could even use such a method to ask for money!

"Do you dare to be more daring?!"

"What do you mean by that?! I don't know! All I know is that I'm your father! I'm the father you have to take care of!" He tightened his grip on her arm as he spoke.

Mu Huan really wanted to fling him away!

The heartache and desire to treat him better instantly vanished without a trace!

There must be something evil about a pitiful person!

Chapter 643: Important Things (4)

At Yun University, in the laboratory.

At the end of Mu Huan's experiment, a new problem suddenly arose. In order to not delay the reporting time, she spent almost every day in the laboratory.

While she was waiting for the results of the experiment, she went out and wanted to take a nap. Suddenly, she thought of the thing that her grandfather had left for her. She took it out of her bag and studied it carefully.

However, after looking through it carefully again, she still did not find any mechanisms. She knocked on the body of the boat, weighed it in her hand, and then placed it on the weighing scale. Then, according to the volume and density of the materials, she calculated its weight. Although the weight was not much different from the weight she had calculated, with her meticulous calculations, if there were no problems with the boat, there shouldn't be a difference in its weight.

Furthermore, her grandfather's words made her feel that there was something wrong with this boat!

Hence, she found a magnifying glass and carefully checked it. Finally, she realized that there was a problem. She tried to pry it open with a very small blade, but she couldn't. Hence, she took the magnifying glass and looked around. Finally, after finding a decorative dent on the boat, she took out a silver needle from her pocket and poked it.

Then, the part that she had been trying to pry open for a long time popped out. There was indeed something inside the boat!

Mu Huan found a letter that her grandfather had written to her. It was stored with a jade pendant with a complex and exquisite design. There were also a few strands of hair and nails wrapped in a sealed bag.

She opened the letter first.

The letter clearly stated the uses of these things.

To put it simply, when her grandfather was still alive, he'd received a call from his ex-colleague, saying that the jade pendant he was wearing was very similar to the one that a big shot was looking for. He even sent a picture to him and asked if it was the same. He said that the big shot had passed away because of his eldest son's family. He himself was on the verge of death and was looking all over the world for his youngest son to inherit the family business.

Her grandfather had used his childhood memories and verification to confirm that he was the other party's son. That formidable figure had already passed away, and the family business organization was being managed by a loyal subordinate. He had left a will and had had people continue to look for his youngest son. After his youngest son was found, the family business would be inherited by his youngest son or by his youngest son's descendants.

It was written in the will that his youngest son's descendants could be the heirs because the big shot was already over 90 years old when he passed away. He thought that his youngest son would already be 60 years old, so he could not guarantee that his youngest son was still alive. Hence, he'd especially emphasized that his youngest son's descendants could inherit the family business.

At that time, Mu Huan's grandfather was already beyond cure. Money and power were meaningless to him. He had wanted to pretend that he didn't know about this news and return home, but when he thought about how tough his precious granddaughter's life was, he wanted her to have a better future.

It was just that because he was sick and unable to get out of bed, he did not have the time and energy to confirm if there was any danger regarding inheriting such a family business. Furthermore, Mu Huan was only 15 years old at that time. He was afraid that such a family business would not only fail to give his granddaughter a good future, but it would also cause her death.

Hence, he did not tell Mu Huan about this.

However, he still wanted to give his granddaughter a chance to have a carefree life in the future. He wanted her to lead a better life.

Chapter 644: Important Things (5)

Hence, he wrote this matter in this letter and left behind a jade pendant. His nails and hair were also included so that when Mu Huan had the chance to inherit it, she could use these things to do a genetic test. He'd thought it through thoroughly and even wrote a will, saying that all his assets would be inherited by Mu Huan.

He had asked Mu Dongsheng to wait for Mu Huan to get married before telling her these things. He was afraid that if she had the chance to inherit them, his granddaughter would still be in danger if she were to inherit them alone.

With his granddaughter's intelligence and wisdom, she would definitely have a certain level of capability by the time she reached the age of marriage. Furthermore, the person she chose would definitely not be bad! When that time came, the two of them would have an additional layer of protection when discussing this matter.

Even if Meng Wei had told Mu Dongsheng that if Mu Huan didn't get married by the time she turned 25, he wouldn't have to wait until she got married to give her these things, he wasn't sure if this matter would work.

After all, anyone would covet such a family business. Perhaps after ten years, those assets would have become someone else's. However, he still prepared these things. He wanted to give his granddaughter an additional chance in the safest situation.

She was to be lucky to have it, but if she missed it, that would have been her fate.

After Mu Huan finished reading the letter, she looked through it again. There was also the will that her grandfather had written. These made her eyes turn red.

Her paternal grandfather was just like her maternal grandfather. He did everything he could to give her a better life, exhausting his last bit of effort for her.

He'd thought of a way to ensure her safety and give her a better life.

The love that the two elders had for her made her feel that she was the happiest person in the world.

She missed them so much! So much!

Just as Mu Huan was thinking about the past and was about to cry...

Her phone rang. It was Bo Junyan.

"I still have something on, so I won't be able to pick you up in time. You go ahead first. I'll be back tonight."

"Okay, go ahead. I'll go ahead after the experiment results are out." Today was the day that Bo Junyan's parents and Mu Huan's parents were meeting to discuss the wedding.

"What's wrong?" Although Mu Huan did not cry as she talked through the phone, Bo Junyan could tell from her tone that something was amiss.

"I was so touched when I saw the things my grandfather gave me that I wanted to cry. My grandfather really put in so much effort for me," Mu Huan said as her eyes turned even redder.

"Then you have to live happily."

Mu Huan wanted to say something, but when she heard PA Wang calling out to him from Bo Junyan's side, she thought that it seemed to be something urgent. Hence, she said, "Okay, I know. See you later, Hubby!"

"Okay." Bo Junyan was indeed busy. He hung up without saying anything else.

After hanging up the call, Mu Huan looked through the letter her grandfather had written again. Only then did she want to investigate what kind of big shot her grandfather was referring to.

However, just as she was about to pick up her cell phone to check on her great-grandfather's name, she suddenly heard footsteps approaching. She hurriedly placed the things in her hands inside, closed the boat, and placed them in her bag.

Long Feiting walked in as soon as she put it down.

When he saw that Mu Huan was alone in the laboratory, he turned around and left.

Mu Huan felt that Long Feiting had been acting weird recently, but she didn't think too much about it. At this moment, the alarm clock rang and reminded her that the results of the experiment were coming out. She hurriedly went into the laboratory.

After she was done with the experiment, it was time for her to go to the hotel. She hurriedly changed her clothes and rushed to the hotel.

Chapter 645: Sudden Change (1)

As a junior, Mu Huan had to wait at the restaurant first. Fortunately, there was no traffic on the road. When she reached the restaurant, her in-laws were still on the way.

The Mu family's background was not as good as the Bo family's, so it was impossible for them to let the Bo family wait for them here. Hence, Matriarch Mu and Mu Dongsheng came rather early. They arrived as soon as Mu Huan did.

When Matriarch Mu alighted and saw Mu Huan waiting at the entrance, her eyes darkened.

Because she didn't like Mu Huan's granny, she didn't like this granddaughter of hers as well. However, even if she didn't like her, she still had the blood of the Mu family flowing in her. Hence, she had never dealt with her ruthlessly. But now, her existence had seriously affected her grandson's interests. She had to be ruthless.

The moment they got out of the car, Mu Huan noticed them and looked toward them. When she met Matriarch Mu's deep gaze, Mu Huan did not think too much about it. It was normal for Matriarch Mu to be unhappy and want to kill her. She wanted 10% of the shares but did not get it. Furthermore, she was forced to agree to such conditions. She must be feeling very upset and wanted to torture Mu Huan to death.

Although Mu Dongsheng did not manage to get five million from Mu Huan last time, Mu Huan had given him a hard-earned sum. Hence, he was rather happy to see Mu Huan today.

After helping Matriarch Mu into the private room, Mu Huan was about to go out to greet her in-laws when he followed her.

"Here." Mu Dongsheng took out a beautifully packaged box from his pocket.

"What is it?"

"I don't have much money, so I can't give you any good dowry. But no matter what, I'm marrying off my daughter. Of course, I have to prepare something. But the things that I can prepare are too inconspicuous. I'm afraid that others will laugh at us if I use them as dowry. Hence, I'm secretly giving them to you today." His daughter was about to get married. As a father, he couldn't not show any effort.

Mu Huan took the box and opened it. Inside it was a model of a beautiful warrior.

Although when Mu Huan was young, the beautiful warrior's art style was outdated, when she accidentally saw it for the first time, the beautiful warrior became her favorite. When she was young, she would often use her weapon to shout, "I'll destroy you on behalf of the moon!"

Mu Dongsheng was afraid that she would think that it was too cheap, so he quickly said, "Don't look down on this set of handmade models. I spent a lot of effort to find this for you! You know that this art style is too antique. Right now, the industry surrounding it is all extinct!"

"Okay." Mu Huan lifted her head to look at Mu Dongsheng. He always remembered some small matters and evoked the softest past in her heart.

"Then quickly put it away and wait for your in-laws at the entrance. I'll go back to accompany your grandma." Mu Dongsheng was not used to looking into Mu Huan's emotional eyes, so he quickly left.

Like his father, he was not a good father.

After he left, Mu Huan carefully looked at the model again before putting it away. She placed it inside her bag and walked out.

She clearly got married to Bo Junyan a long time ago, but now that the two families were talking about a wedding, it evoked an inexplicable feeling in her heart. She also suddenly became much more emotional toward her father.

Not long after Mu Huan left, Bo Dingjing and his wife arrived.

Mu Huan quickly went down to pick them up.

Bo Dingjing looked at her. "Did you wait long?"

Mu Huan smiled and said, "No, I just arrived."

"Are your grandma and dad here yet?"

"They just arrived."

"Okay." Bo Dingjing did not know what to say after this. He looked at Meng Yueman and signaled her to come over.

Chapter 646: Sudden Change (2)

Meng Yueman continued, "Did you come over with Junyan?"

"Junyan has something important to attend to. He'll be here in a while."

Meng Yueman frowned. "Why is he still busy with work at a time like this?"

What was wrong with her son? He doted on his wife so much, yet he was late to such an important event.

For most of the people in the country, getting married was not a big deal. It was more important to hold a wedding. It seemed that only after a wedding was a marriage real.

It was an important matter to see the in-laws prior to the wedding.

But her son was late.

"Junyan must have something important to attend to. He's been working too hard every day." Mu Huan was afraid that her mother-in-law was still angry with Bo Junyan over that matter, so she quickly put in a good word for him.

Meng Yueman couldn't help but want to say a few words to her son for being late for such an occasion. However, Mu Huan didn't mind at all and even put in a good word for Bo Junyan. This made her feel even more satisfied with Mu Huan.

"Then let's go in first. You can call him later to hurry him along."

"Yes."

Mu Huan brought her in.

When Matriarch Mu and Mu Dongsheng saw Bo Dingjing and his wife entering, they hurriedly stood up and exchanged greetings with them before sitting down.

Bo Dingjing sighed. "Fate is such a wonderful thing. Back then, you saved me, Matriarch. Now, the two children like each other. Let's become in-laws and become a family."

"That's right! Fate is truly amazing," Matriarch Mu exclaimed.

Initially, she was still thinking about how to mention how she had saved Bo Dingjing's life. She didn't expect him to take the initiative to mention it. She hoped that this good start would bring them a successful ending.

"I really have to thank Matriarch Mu for saving me back then. Otherwise, I wouldn't have been able to see this scene." Bo Dingjing was actually about the same age as Matriarch Mu. Matriarch Mu was only a few years older than him, but because she had saved his life and because of her seniority, he respectfully addressed her as Matriarch Mu.

When Matriarch Mu saw how highly respectful the head of the Bo family was and how much he valued her for saving his life, she felt that regardless of whether their plan succeeded or not, she would definitely be able to escape.

Hence, she became even more confident.

"Now that we're family, there's no need to be so polite!" she said with a smile.

Back then, when she saw that the unconscious Bo Dingjing was dressed in extraordinary clothes, she felt that his background was definitely not ordinary. If she saved him, it might bring her a lot of benefits. Hence, she saved him and did not spare any expense in treating him. She'd thought that she would receive a huge reward, but he'd left without saying a word. From then on, there was no news of him.

She had always felt a little regretful that she had invested so much in him for nothing. One had to know that the medicine she had given him back then was good and expensive!

Unexpectedly, the tables had turned and this favor could still be used!

"Yes, we're family!" Bo Dingjing smiled.

By right, it should be the parents at the center stage when two parties get married. However, Mu Dongsheng was afraid that he would say too much, so he obediently sat next to Matriarch Mu without saying a word.

The Bo family had investigated the Mu family before the marriage. They knew what kind of person Mu Dongsheng was, so they did not pay much attention to him and only talked to Matriarch Mu.

Just as the two parties were talking about the wedding and the betrothal gifts...

The door to the private room was pushed open and an imposing old man walked in with a walking stick.

Chapter 647: Sudden Change (3)

Just as Mu Huan was about to stand up and ask if the other party had come to the wrong place...

Meng Yueman stood up. "Dad, why are you here?!"

Mu Huan: "...!!"

Bo Junyan's grandfather!

Although Mu Huan had never met Bo Junyan's grandfather, the things that she had experienced these last several days were mostly done by the old man. It was obvious that he hated her, but he suddenly appeared at this time. It was definitely not a good thing. Hence, she hurriedly bent down and called Bo Junyan.

"When will you arrive?"

"Wait a while."

"I can't wait anymore. Come over quickly! Your grandfather suddenly came! I have a bad feeling about this!" Mu Huan whispered.

Mu Huan wasn't afraid of anything else, but this was Bo Junyan's grandfather. If he were to do anything later, how was she going to resist? If she didn't resist, what if things ended? She had to get Bo Junyan to settle this quickly.

Bo Junyan was stunned for a moment. Then, he said, "I'll be right there. Watch the situation and try not to get into a direct conflict with my grandfather."

"I know. Hurry up," Mu Huan said as she hung up.

Bo Junyan hung up the call and exchanged a few words with the blonde man beside him before picking up his clothes and walking out.

Seeing this, Ling Wei stood up as well. "Junyan, where are you going? Mr. Jason is..."

"I have something important to deal with. You can talk to him first."

"But..." Ling Wei still wanted to say something.

But Bo Junyan had already walked out.

Ling Wei looked at his back as he left in a hurry, and the corners of her lips curled up slightly. She didn't know if he would still be so anxious because of Mu Huan after finding out about such a matter. He could leave such an important guest behind just because of her call. It was such an important matter.

She was looking forward to it.

With a smile, Ling Wei turned around and walked elegantly toward Mr. Jason, who was sitting there.

"Let's continue..."

Apart from being an outstanding doctor, Ling Wei was also an outstanding businesswoman. She was the deputy CEO of the Ling Group. She was in charge of many collaborations between the Ling family and the Bo family, as well as two collaborations with overseas companies. Hence, Bo Junyan had many collaborations with her on official matters and could not avoid meeting her.

And these meetings that were due to legitimate reasons, on top of the times and locations of the collaboration between important figures at work, were all opportunities for Ling Wei. She arranged the time very skillfully.

In the restaurant's private room.

"Dad, why are you here? Why didn't you say hello before coming over?" Meng Yueman walked toward the old man as she spoke. She wanted to hold the old man's arm and sit down to talk.

"If I don't come over, you'll ruin my grandson's life!" the old man said as he used his walking stick to knock on the floor.

Meng Yueman: "..."

How could she ruin her own son's life?

However, she did not dare to say this. She could only smile and say, "Dad, what are you saying?"

"If you don't understand, then watch. If you still don't understand after that, then you'll have lived in vain!" As Old Master Meng spoke, he got someone to pass a file to Meng Yueman.

Meng Yueman took it and was about to take a look.

But Bo Dingjing stopped him. He smiled at Old Master Meng and said, "Dad, let's talk when we get back."

"We don't have to go back before talking, we can just talk it out here! I want to see what kind of gall the Mu family has to dare to fool us!" Old Master Meng said as he glared at Matriarch Mu.

Matriarch Mu was frightened by his gaze. "Old Master, you... you... what do you mean by this...?"

She couldn't say a word.

Chapter 648: Sudden Change (4)

Mu Huan narrowed her eyes as she observed Matriarch Mu's expression.

From an outsider's point of view, Matriarch Mu's reaction was very normal. This was because, in the face of Old Master Meng's fury, one would definitely be afraid. However, Mu Huan, who knew Matriarch Mu very well, felt that her reaction was a little too much.

After all, for an old ginger like her, it wasn't normal for her to be so afraid before what the matter was about was revealed.

Her reaction was deliberate.

However, if she were deliberately showing it, it would mean that she knew what was going to happen. In other words, she knew that Bo Junyan's grandfather was coming!

And since she knew that Bo Junyan's grandfather was coming, it meant that she had teamed up with him!

But her grandma knew very well that Bo Junyan's grandfather wanted her to be unable to be Mrs. Bao and wanted Ling Wei and Bo Junyan to be together. Why would she join forces with Bo Junyan's grandfather?

And stop her from becoming Mrs. Bao?

Apart from that 10% of shares, she would give her whatever benefits she wanted from Bo Junyan. Why would she give up such benefits?

Could it be that Bo Junyan's grandfather had agreed to give her more benefits?

But even if Bo Junyan's grandfather would give her greater benefits, what could she do to harm Mu Huan by working together with him?

The only thing Mu Huan could think of was the evidence that her grandma had gotten hold of previously. But not to mention that she had personally seen her grandma burn those things and had confirmed that there were no backup copies, even if her grandma had left a backup copy, wouldn't it be the same as harming the Mu family if she used this to harm Mu Huan?

To the Mu family, exposing such a matter was definitely more harmful than beneficial. There was no reason for her to take such a huge risk and fail!

But if it wasn't a fatal blow, why would Bo Junyan's grandfather personally take action?

Besides, her grandma did not have anything else that could harm her.

Could it be that her grandma was thinking that since she was the benefactor of Bo Junyan's father, even if such a thing was exposed, she would still be safe and sound, so she wanted to give Mu Huan a blow?

But after what happened last time, she should know that Bo Junyan did not take her life seriously.

She was still taking a huge risk!

Also, Mu Huan was such a good girl. Whatever benefits her grandma wanted, she would give her. There was no need for her to be ruthless to Mu Huan!

Suddenly, she thought, could it be that her grandma had sensed something because she was being so obedient? Was that why she joined forces with Bo Junyan's grandfather to prevent her from becoming Mrs. Bao?

At the thought of this, Mu Huan felt that it was more likely that those things were in the file. This made her eyes turn darker.

If it were those things, she could not prove anything.

In the past, Mu Huan had thought that there was a way to solve everything. If it wasn't something real, she could find evidence to prove her innocence. However, this incident had made her realize that there were some things in this world that couldn't be proved!

God had made some coincidences perfect!

Bo Dingjing knew that there was definitely nothing good in this file. Hence, he stopped Meng Yueman from looking at it. However, he couldn't stop Old Master Meng from insisting. He insisted on making Meng Yueman look at it, and he couldn't stop him.

He then recalled that the old man had come for the Mu family and Mu Huan. Unless he was forced to take him away, there was no way he could stop this.

Hence, he did not stop Meng Yueman from looking at the things in the file.

Chapter 649: Sudden Change (5)

When Meng Yueman opened the file, Bo Dingjing looked at Mu Huan. When he saw that Mu Huan seemed to have guessed what was inside, he was a little more satisfied with Mu Huan's performance. In the face of such an unexpected situation and the possibility that the thing in the file might destroy her, her expression was only a little heavy. She didn't panic, nor was she nervous.

She was so young, yet she was so calm and composed. This child was capable.

When Meng Yueman saw what was in the file, her expression instantly changed.

Her sudden change in expression confirmed Mu Huan's suspicion.

She turned to look at Matriarch Mu.

Matriarch Mu, on the other hand, quickly shifted her gaze away after she met her gaze.

Mu Dongsheng looked at the fog in front of him and did not know what was going on. Why did the atmosphere suddenly become like this when they were talking about the wedding?

He snapped back to his senses and looked at Mu Huan with a puzzled expression. What happened?

Mu Huan: "..."

"Matriarch Mu, shouldn't you give us an explanation?!" Meng Yueman threw the files on the table.

Mu Dongsheng, who wanted to know what was going on, looked over immediately. It was a stack of photos and a document.

The photo was of Mu Huan and a man on the bed. Although it wasn't very revealing and only exposed their shoulders, one could still tell at a glance what had happened with that intimate pose. The photo of the bed was very highly defined and clear, and it was so positive that he couldn't say that it wasn't his daughter! This made him widen his eyes in shock as he looked at Mu Huan and used his gaze to ask her what was going on.

Mu Huan did not speak, but her expression darkened.

She was too careless and believed that her grandma did not have a backup.

The thing next to the photo was a surgical record. Mu Huan was a virgin, and the record was of the surgery to restore it.

These were the things that her grandma had used against Mu Huan in the past—her bed photos with men and her medical records for virginity restoration.

Oh, right. There were also photos of her in the operating theater.

All these things strongly proved that Mu Huan was a woman who lived an indecent life. Such evidence was enough to make the Bo family abandon her!

After all, with a family background like the Bo family's, they wouldn't even want a scandal, let alone someone like her who had a messy private life!

"Xiao Huan, explain! This is definitely not what happened, right?!" Mu Dongsheng looked at Mu Huan anxiously.

What was she waiting for? Hurry up and explain!

If Bo Junyan's parents misunderstood her, how could she continue to be with him?!

Mu Huan remained silent. The matter was indeed not like this, but these photos were something she could not explain. No, even if she explained it, no one would believe her.

If these photos could be explained, she could prove her innocence. Then, she wouldn't have been controlled by her grandma all this time. She should have told Bo Junyan when she felt that he could accept it and get him to protect her granny before completely falling out with her grandma!

When Mu Dongsheng saw that she, who had always been quick-witted, did not try to explain herself, he thought that everything was real. He instantly panicked. If this was true, then it would be over! This could not be!

Hence, he, who had always been timid, said, "In-laws, these photos are definitely not real. These are composites! They're definitely composites! My Xiao Huan is so young and has had a strict upbringing. She's definitely a good lady who keeps herself clean!"

Meng Yueman did not speak and only looked at Mu Huan.

Chapter 650: Sudden Change (6)

Mu Huan still did not speak, and her expression did not change. No one could tell what she was thinking.

This was also the first time that Old Master Meng had met Mu Huan. He had seen her, a young girl who had just entered her first year of university, being able to remain so calm and composed when faced with something that could destroy her. He felt that Mu Huan was a scheming and sly person.

Right at this moment, Matriarch Mu added, "That's right! These photos are photoshopped! My Xiao Huan has been taught by a strict family since she was young. She's definitely a good lady who keeps herself clean!"

Her stupid son's words were too good!

Old Master Meng sneered. "Her household education was strict and she keeps herself clean? The photos are photoshopped? I have technicians with me. If you don't believe me, you can find someone to test if these photos are real. Also..." As he spoke, he looked at Butler Xue, who was standing behind him.

"Bring the witness in and let them be convinced such that they can no longer deny it!"

When Mu Dongsheng heard that there was a witness, he became even more anxious. He looked at Mu Huan and signaled for her to say something! She just stood there without doing anything and didn't say a word. It was no different from admitting her guilt!

She had been smart since she was young, and he was sure that she would be able to come up with a solution! Even if she couldn't solve it, she could make it less serious!

However, Mu Huan remained silent as she stood there like a bystander who had nothing to do with this matter.

To be able to get the Old Master to personally make a move and use such evidence to attack her, they must have prepared a well-connected plan. Before they were done with their attack, she was not inclined to say anything to avoid falling into a trap.

Seeing that she still refused to speak, Mu Dongsheng could only fret helplessly.

Butler Xue received the order and quickly brought a woman in.

When the woman walked in, neither Mu Huan nor Mu Dongsheng recognized her.

It was only when she lifted her head and looked at Mu Huan with extreme hatred that they recognized that it was Bai Xuexian!

It looked like she had been leading a tough life at the mental hospital. She was so skinny that it was hard to recognize her.

Bai Xuexian's life in the mental hospital was indeed not good. Hence, when someone asked her if she was willing to come out and deal with Mu Huan, she immediately agreed. Not to mention that the other party had agreed to give her such benefits after the matter was settled, even if there were no benefits, she would still kill Mu Huan this time. She would do it!

Because life in a mental hospital was worse than death!

Before Bai Xuexian could say anything...

Mu Dongsheng was the first to speak when he snapped back to his senses. "Old Master, you can't listen to her nonsense! She's mentally ill and has been verified to be so! You can't take her words seriously!"

"Mu Dongsheng, you heartless scumbag! You deserve to die ten thousand times over! Even if I, Bai Xuexian, have not done any meritorious deeds, I still worked hard to give birth to two children for you. Not only did you not help me when I was harmed, but you even said that I was mentally ill! You b*stard! You deserve to die!" Bai Xuexian shouted agitatedly at Mu Dongsheng.

"Look, just by looking at her mood, I can tell that she's a lunatic! She's really one!" Mu Dongsheng pointed at the agitated Bai Xuexian.

When Bai Xuexian saw Mu Dongsheng in this state, she wished she could dash forward and tear him apart! However, she held herself back. If she rushed forward, she would really be mistaken for a lunatic!

Old Master Meng looked at Bai Xuexian and said, "You, tell my daughter what happened!"
