Chapter 761: I Will Give You a Chance to Rise to the Top (4)

"I'm not so hungry that I can eat a whole cow. You don't have to order so much."

"This is my share. I don't know what you like to eat. You can order your own," Mu Huan said as she handed him the tablet.

Liu Changfeng: "...!!"

Her share? She was just a little girl yet she could eat so much? Was she going to eat all the food in the shop?

"Those that I ordered are all my favorite. If you want to eat the same things, then order another serving. I don't like others eating my meat, so whatever I ordered is mine," Mu Huan said.

Liu Changfeng lowered his head and looked at the dishes. He felt that he was full just by looking at them.
"..."

"Hurry up, I'm getting hungrier!" Mu Huan said.

"You ordered so much. Are you sure you can finish it?"

"Yes."

Liu Changfeng: "..."

Alright!

Some people were soft and cute, but they could eat a lot.

She saw that Liu Changfeng had only picked one serving of meat, one serving of vegetables, and one of fruit salad.

Mu Huan: "..."

"Aren't you very hungry?" Was this all he's going to have? It's not even enough to fill the gap between the teeth!

"This is half of my usual appetite."

Mu Huan: "..."

"How did you grow so tall?" He had eaten so little and was so tall, but she had eaten so much and only grew to about 1.6 meters. This made her feel like she was wasting food!

"In the past, I had a big appetite. After I became an actor, I've had to control my appetite, so my appetite slowly decreased." As even a little extra weight would make them look fat on screen, most actors were very skinny. Most of them had to control their diet.

"It's so tough being an actor..." Mu Huan sighed.

She couldn't be an actress for the sole reason that she'd have to control her diet.

“But if you were an actress, it shouldn’t be too hard on you. You can eat so much yet not get fat.”

“That’s true. I don’t think I get fat easily.”

As they spoke, the dishes were served.

Mu Huan was busy roasting meat and did not say anything else.

The photo that Liu Changfeng asked someone to take was here, but seeing that she was so focused on eating, he didn’t show it to her. He wanted to show it to her when she was almost done eating.

As he was a person in the entertainment industry, most people who came into contact with him also had to diet. Hence, most of the people Liu Changfeng met were people who would be full after taking a few bites. Now that he was seeing Mu Huan who was so good at eating, his appetite improved too. Then, unknowingly, he finished all the things he’d ordered and felt that it wasn’t enough.

In the past, he could not understand why people liked to watch shows about food. Now, he seemed to understand.

“If you were a foodie, you might become famous.” She was so petite and cute, yet she could eat so much. She was so fragrant and good-looking. She had the potential to become famous.

“I’ll definitely be popular. I’m a person who’s good at everything!” Mu Huan said.

Liu Changfeng: “...”

She was rather confident!

When Mu Huan was almost done eating, she looked up and asked, “Did they send the photo over?”

The photo he got someone to take was a photo of Mu Huan’s grandfather and the other founders of NST. There were a few. In the photo, Song Zhiwen looked very young and only seemed to be in his early twenties.

At that time, he was indeed in his early twenties. Song Zhiwen was a genius. In addition, he had gone to school early in the past. When he was 20, he had already taken two doctoral degrees from two well-known universities in the world. Then, he established NST with a few of his friends.

Chapter 762: I Will Give You a Chance to Rise to the Top (5)

To be precise, he was the predecessor of NST. Now, none of these people in the photo was still around, nor were any of their descendants. There was only the director of the NST research center who could barely be related to these people in the photo. He was the cousin of one of these blonde men. At that time, he was only an assistant at NST.

Back then, he was only an assistant. Now, he had become the director of a top research institute in this field. From this, one could imagine how formidable these people in the photos were.

Mu Huan looked at the photo on her phone and was sure that what Liu Changfeng said was true.

This was because as she looked at the pictures, the sense of the times, the background, the clothes, and everything else was not fake.

This was especially so since her grandfather had passed away so many years ago. She did not have any photos of her grandfather when he was young. It was almost impossible for outsiders to know what her grandfather looked like when he was young to create such a photo.

Liu Changfeng looked at her and said in the end, "The last photo is of the current head of the research laboratory. His name and life resume are on it. You can search for it. He's very famous and can't be faked."

Mu Huan did not speak. She just turned back and looked at the photos of her grandfather when he was young. After looking at them for a while, she returned the phone to Liu Changfeng and said, "Can you send these photos to me?"

She wanted to show it to her granny. Her granny would definitely be very happy to see these photos.

"Sure," Liu Changfeng said as he sent the photos to Mu Huan.

Mu Huan looked at her phone again. "My grandfather was so handsome when he was young!"

In that era where there was no filter and no photoshop, her grandfather was simply too handsome, especially since her grandfather was also a genius! He was simply perfect!

"Look at you. It's like this is the first time you're seeing a photo of your grandfather when he was young," Liu Changfeng said with a smile.

"I've seen other photos of my grandfather when he was young, but I've never seen a single photo of him when he was studying abroad."

Her grandfather had left the country when he was 16 years old and only officially returned when he was 26 years old. There were this many photos of him studying abroad, but her grandfather did not leave behind a single photo of him when he was overseas. The NST laboratory was in Y Country, and her grandfather had studied in Y Country back then. Looking at the age in the photo, it seemed like her grandfather had just graduated.

Mu Huan seemed to have thought of something as she asked, "If my grandfather was one of the founders of NST, do you know why he gave up on NST and returned to the country back then? Did something happen to him back then?"

Her granny did not even know that her grandfather was one of the founders of NST. She had never heard her grandfather mention that he studied abroad. Her grandma had grown up with her grandfather and had studied in Y Country back then. However, she did not know that her grandfather was one of the founders of NST. Her grandfather doted on her the most, but he had never told her about this.

When her grandfather was still alive, NST was already a very famous research institute. It was impossible for her grandfather, who often read pharmaceutical magazines, not to know about that if he was one of the founders of this research laboratory. He would have said something to her.

He did not tell them, who were close to him, that he was hiding something.

Furthermore, her grandfather was clearly a genius who was a top scholar. He had earned so many Ph.D. degrees overseas and published so many sensational papers. However, after he returned to the country, he did not have any outstanding achievements in pharmaceutical studies. He did not choose to enter the scientific research institute and instead chose to inherit the family business. This had always made her feel strange.

She felt that something must have happened to her grandfather to keep a low profile after returning to the country.

Chapter 763: The Future I Want Is with Him (1)

“Also, I don’t think any of the people in these photos are still in NST.” Mu Huan paid a lot of attention to the heaven of pharmacists like NST. Through special means, she knew that none of the existing members were in this picture.

These people had created NST, but none of them stayed behind. It was strange.

“Something did happen back then. Your grandfather didn’t tell you because he didn’t want you to know about it. So, it’s best that you don’t know,” Liu Changfeng said.

“I want to know. Tell me, and I’ll believe you completely,” Mu Huan said.

“I’ve already shown you such a photo. Can’t you believe me completely?”

“No.” She really wanted to know what had happened back then.

“I think you just want to know what happened back then.” Liu Changfeng saw through her thoughts.

“I really want to know!” Having been seen through, Mu Huan directly admitted it.

Liu Changfeng thought about how the situation back then was no longer something that could not be said. He said, “After your grandfather and his friends created NST, they needed research funding. They signed a research project with a huge pharmaceutical company in Y Country. During the research process, your grandfather and his friends discovered that the project that the pharmaceutical company wanted them to research was against human morality. Hence, your grandfather and the rest quit.

“But the pharmaceutical company didn’t allow them to quit, so they threatened them. Three of these people in the photo died at that time. If it weren’t for the help of a powerful Chinese in Y Country, your grandfather would not have escaped back to the country and you wouldn’t have existed.

“Because that pharmaceutical company had never given up on your grandfather, your grandfather even created a fake car accident and spread the news that he had suffered a serious injury to his head. Then, he rejected the invitation to join the Academy of Science and accepted the family’s pharmaceutical factory. From then on, he was not particularly outstanding. It was only later on that that pharmaceutical company got caught up in an economic crisis because of a wrong investment and lost its power. That was why they gave up on your grandfather.”

Mu Huan: “...”

It was no wonder that her grandfather, who was not involved in scientific research when he was younger, ended up researching all sorts of things in the laboratory. As a result, his body collapsed due to over-exhaustion and he passed away so early.

“Isn’t it like a movie plot?”

Mu Huan: “...”

“Actually, in this world, there are many things that are darker than the plot of a movie. The scriptwriters can’t come up with the darkest hearts in this world.” The scariest thing in this world was the human heart.

“How do you know so much?”

“My grandfather is the capable subordinate of the Chinese who saved your grandfather. It was my grandfather and father who sent your grandfather back to the country.”

At that time, her grandfather and his surviving friends had escaped. As a Chinese who was also in charge of the pharmaceutical company, the capable subordinate had taken over NST. Then, he had been constantly recruiting capable people, making NST have its current reputation.

After that person died, Liu Changfeng’s father was in charge.

After Mu Huan heard this, she was silent for a while. Then, she said, “In that case, my grandfather can’t be considered your benefactor. Even if your grandfather and father were only following orders to send my grandfather back to the country, they are still his benefactors. If you needed him, he would have only done his utmost to help. Hence, whatever he did for you could not be considered him saving your life.

“So, you didn’t recommend me to NST because my grandfather saved your life, right?” Mu Huan raised an eyebrow.

Chapter 764: The Future I Want Is with Him (2)

Liu Changfeng: “...”

He believed what he said himself! How could she be suspicious?!

Weren’t people who do scientific research rather rigid and only know how to do scientific research? Why was she thinking so fast?!

Mu Huan looked at him with an expression that said, “Tell the truth! It’s better to be honest. Why do you have to be so hypocritical and make people distrust you?”

Liu Changfeng: “...!!”

What he said was more or less the truth! He really wanted to take care of his benefactor and that person’s granddaughter!

“Alright, the main reason is that NST is currently researching a project, but there hasn’t been any progress. A while ago, a scientist in the country used an extract from Chinese medicine and made huge progress in his research.

“This reminded the director of your grandfather. Many of the papers that your grandfather published in the past were developed from Chinese medicine. Hence, the director felt that if he could find someone who’s good at Chinese medicine to join the research team, there might be some new developments. He wanted me to find a suitable person in the country.

“Then I thought about your scar removal cream. As your grandfather’s successor, you must have inherited his teachings. Furthermore, you have good talent. Also, you’re only in your first year and you already have such an autonomous experiment. I think you’re a suitable candidate.

“Although you might not be able to do anything with your current level of knowledge, scientific research is not something that can be developed in a year or two. Hence, I wanted to recruit you and nurture you. Who knows, you might be able to develop it one day.”

When he thought about her, he got someone to do a simple investigation on her and found out about her results in the college entrance examination as well as her results in school.

“I had planned to look for you in Yun Cheng this time, but I didn’t expect to bump into you tonight. I thought you would believe me if I said that. I didn’t expect you to be such a cautious person.”

“Alright, I believe you!” With that, Mu Huan called the service staff over. “Give me another stone pot mixed rice!”

Liu Changfeng: “...”

She had eaten so much, but she could still eat another stone pot rice?

How much could her stomach stuff?!

“Do you want to eat? The stone pot rice here is pretty good.” Mu Huan looked at him.

Liu Changfeng shook his head.

Mu Huan did not speak further and continued to eat.

“I’ve said so much, and you’ve asked everything that needs to be asked, and you believe me again. So, we’ve decided that you’ll take the test?”

“Oh, by the way, you don’t have to worry about your studies. If you can get into NST, the NST professors can write you a recommendation letter. In addition to your college entrance examination results, you can choose any famous university in Y Country. You just have to spend the rest of your time in NST except during class.

“This is also good for your future. Didn’t you just say that NST is a heaven for all pharmacists? Think about it, with so many legendary talents teaching you, your pharmaceutical career will advance by leaps and bounds!”

“Just thinking about it makes me feel that such a life is super wonderful! It’s a dream that I wouldn’t even dare to dream about!” Mu Huan was indeed very tempted. She was very tempted to study under so many legendary big shots!

This was a heaven that everyone in the pharmaceutical industry wanted to go to. She, a freshman who was nothing, actually had such a chance!

This was something that she dared not even dream about!

She really wanted to go.

But...

"Then it's settled. If you can pass the exam, leave the transfer of schools to me. You just have to choose which school you want to go to."

Chapter 765: The Future I Want Is with Him (3)

"I can't do that. I can't go." But she couldn't go!

"What's wrong? Aren't you very tempted and eager to go? It's such a good opportunity! What's there for you to hesitate about?" Although he was the one who took the initiative to recruit her, this should be a good opportunity for her, too! How could she reject him?

"I'm a married woman! You said that scientific research isn't something that can be done in a year or two, especially when there's no progress in so many research projects conducted by genius big shots. It must be a very difficult project, and it might take more than ten years. How can I stay in the laboratory for so long when I have a husband?"

If this opportunity had been placed before her half a year ago, she would have immediately slipped away without any hesitation and would even be as grateful as if he was a god!

Now, she couldn't accept the chance anymore. She had a family. No matter how tempted she was, she couldn't abandon her husband.

Liu Changfeng: "...!!"

She did say that she was married, but seeing how young she was, he'd automatically ignored this information. He didn't expect her to reject such a good opportunity because of this!

Why was she married so early?!

"I think you should discuss this with your husband. This is such a good opportunity! Once you enter NST, your future will be priceless. If you really manage to develop some new medicine, you'll have made a killing. You'll even become a big boss in the pharmaceutical industry, leaving your name in history!"

"There's no need to discuss it. My husband is definitely unwilling. Our family doesn't lack money." Her husband had a frightening amount of money.

"This isn't a matter of lack of money. This is scientific research, this is a life's dream! Don't you want to shine in the pharmaceutical world and become a big boss?"

"To be honest, I do, but I can't bear to part with my husband. I don't want to be separated from him." She was married to a big boss, and it was impossible for him to develop overseas with her. No matter how good the opportunity was, she had to give it up.

“So you’re going to give up your future for him?”

“The future I want is with him.” In the past, apart from her granny, the most important thing to Mu Huan was to study and work hard to realize her dream of becoming a big boss in the pharmaceutical industry.

However, now that she had placed her future in Bo Junyan’s hands, even if going to NST would allow her pharmaceutical career to advance by leaps and bounds, even if she might not be able to reach that height for the rest of her life if she stayed in the country, she still wanted to stay and develop herself slowly.

Liu Changfeng: “...”

Love could indeed destroy one’s ambition!

“It turns out that I’ve wasted my breath today.” He really did not expect that she would reject his invitation even though everyone was begging to enter NST. He was just thinking that it would be too bad if he could not let her in if she did not score 30 points. In the end, she actually rejected him!

“How could that be? You’ve told me so many things that I wanted to know, and I’ve treated you to a good meal. All these are gains. How is it a waste of words?” Mu Huan said adorably.

Liu Changfeng: “...”

Did he lack the means for such a meal...

When Mu Huan’s stone pot rice was served, she started to eat again.

“How about this? Why don’t you let the director test you? If you can pass, wouldn’t it prove your ability? The test won’t take too long.”

If she didn’t score 30 points, he wouldn’t find it a waste of time.

If she could do well in the exam and he could not find another suitable candidate, he could still approach and convince her.

Chapter 766: The Future I Want Is with Him (4)

She might reject him today, but she might agree tomorrow.

He had to first confirm if she had the right to do so.

Mu Huan thought about it and said, “Alright.”

“Then I’ll arrange a time with the director and contact you.”

“Alright.” Just as Mu Huan lowered her head and was about to continue eating, she suddenly thought of something. She looked up and asked, “What’s the full marks for this examination?”

A perfect score of 50 would mean a passing score of 30.

“Full marks, 100.”

Mu Huan: “...”

A perfect score of 100, and he said that it would be fine as long as she scored 30 marks in the exam. He even thought that she might not even score 30 marks!

It was rare for her to be dissatisfied with her marks, let alone fail.

“Don’t think that it’s easy to score 30 points. There are many famous university graduates who can’t even score 20 points despite wanting to enter NST.”

Mu Huan: “...”

Alright, this test was worth a lot!

This made her want to try even more!

Mu Huan had always liked challenging difficulty.

Besides, she wanted to give herself another path.

Although she wanted to be with Bo Junyan in the future, this might not be what he wanted. It was always good to have an additional way out for oneself.

“By the way, is there any scope for knowledge? After all, I’m a freshman. There are many books that I haven’t had the chance to read yet. Let’s not talk about the scope of the test. I can even point at related books.”

“I’ll ask the head later.” He wasn’t too sure about the test.

“Alright.” Mu Huan lowered her head and continued eating.

When Liu Changfeng saw that Mu Huan had finished the rice mixed in the stone pot while they were talking, he sighed in his heart again. She really knows how to eat.

Although Mu Huan wanted to treat him, as a man, Liu Changfeng would not let her foot the bill. Hence, when she went to the washroom, he went to settle the bill. However, the boss said that she had finished paying.

Although this was only a small matter, after considering everything that had happened that night, Liu Changfeng felt that Mu Huan wasn’t as soft and naive as she looked. She was completely different from the researchers he had interacted with.

The genius doctors of NST were all focused on scientific research. All of them had bad tempers and were stubborn. It was useless no matter who spoke to them. Other than research, they did not think much about anything else, unlike her.

With her personality, she didn’t seem like a researcher.

With this thought in mind, he felt that he should find someone else first.

However, when he thought about Mu Huan’s improved scar removal cream, he felt that she really had talent and was a good seedling that could be nurtured well.

Although she was still young, they were not short of money. It was fine to nurture her first, but it was a problem that she could not bear to part with her husband.

After thinking about it, he decided that if Mu Huan could pass the test, he would go and talk to her husband. If not, he would throw in more money and would keep doing so until he agreed.

Although Liu Changfeng knew from Mu Huan's words that she was not short of money and that the person she was married to must be a rich person, to a family that could provide exclusive funding to a research laboratory like NST, even a rich person could still do with more money.

(To put it simply, the inheritance that Liu Changfeng's family is protecting is a world-renowned pharmaceutical company. The precious ones can search for those well-known pharmaceutical companies in the real world. Their annual earnings are in the billions. This pharmaceutical company is the same.)

...

When they left the barbequed meat shop, they saw two men and a woman eating at a table outside. The two men were asking the woman to drink with ill intentions.

Chapter 767: The Future I Want Is with Him (5)

The woman had already drunk a lot, but they were still taking turns to drink. One look and one could tell that the men weren't good people.

Mu Huan swept them a glance and did not say anything else as she continued to walk out.

After they left the barbecue shop.

Mu Huan said, "Let's part ways here. After the examination, contact me via WeChat."

"Where are you staying? I'll send you home. It's already so late." It was almost 12 am now. It wasn't good to let a girl like her go home alone, especially since she was so pretty. It also wasn't safe for her to take a taxi.

"No need, you can go first!" Mu Huan waved him away.

"That won't do. I have to send you back," Liu Changfeng insisted.

"I'm not going back yet. I have something on."

"It's already so late, what else could have happened?"

Not wanting to say anything more to him, Mu Huan said, "I want to call my husband to pick me up. If you send me, my husband would be unhappy since he'd find out I had supper with a man in the middle of the night. So, you should leave quickly!"

Liu Changfeng felt that what she said made sense. Coincidentally, his assistant called and asked him where he was and said that he wanted to pick him up. The assistant said that there was still a scene tomorrow morning, so he sent the address to his assistant and asked him to pick him up.

Just as he was waiting for his assistant to arrive, the two men and one woman who'd been eating inside came out. The woman was supported by the man and could no longer walk. Her consciousness was blurred.

Mu Huan saw the two of them helping the woman to the hotel not far away.

Hence, she got up and followed him.

However, she was grabbed by Liu Changfeng.

“Aren’t you waiting here for your husband to pick you up?”

Mu Huan: “...”

Why hadn’t he left yet?

“I’ll wait for my husband by the roadside over there,” she said as she pointed in the direction where the three of them had left.

“Do you think I’m stupid? You obviously want to follow those three!” Liu Changfeng looked at the three people who had already walked into the hotel.

Mu Huan broke out in a cold sweat. “From what I saw just now, I can tell that the girl is not in a relationship with either of them. It’s very dangerous for her to be left like this. If we don’t do anything about it, this girl will be crying herself to death tomorrow.”

This was the dangerous consequence of a girl having supper with a man at night. If it’s not with her boyfriend, a girl wouldn’t be having supper with a man so late at night, let alone drinking.

“Call the police and don’t follow them.”

“Nothing has happened yet. There’s no point in reporting the case. If one of them says that he’s the girl’s boyfriend, this matter will be over.”

“Then what do you want?”

“Don’t worry about it. Hurry up and go back!”

“No, how can I leave you alone? I asked you out for supper. I have to be responsible for you.” How could he leave her alone?

“You don’t have to. I do this often. Hurry up and leave!” Seeing that the three of them had already entered the hotel, Mu Huan was afraid that the girl would be at a disadvantage if she was late. She retracted her arm and was about to chase after them.

Unexpectedly, Liu Changfeng followed her.

Mu Huan knew that even if she said anything else, he wouldn’t stop. Hence, she attacked Liu Changfeng directly and pressed him against the wall, making him unable to move.

Liu Changfeng widened his eyes in shock. He never thought that a tall man like him would be pressed to the ground by such a petite person like Mu Huan.

“Now you know you don’t have to worry about me, right? Don’t come over and cause me trouble!” With that, Mu Huan retracted her hand and jogged into the hotel.

Just as Mu Huan was running toward the hotel, a man dressed in black and wearing a black hat walked out from a corner of the street and watched her running toward the hotel.

Lowering his head, he said into his earpiece, "Master, I've found her."

Chapter 768: The Best Female Genius (1)

Mu Huan planned to follow them. After confirming what they wanted to do, she would tie them up and then inform the girl's family to pick up the girl. She only needed a short time to deal with such matters. If Liu Changfeng followed her, he would be too much of a hindrance.

Liu Changfeng: "!"

Although he really didn't want to admit that he was a hindrance, he had to admit that he was really inferior to this young lady when it came to fighting. He would really be a hindrance when he followed her.

This made him blush with shame.

Even so, when his assistant came to pick him up, he did not leave. Instead, he sat in the car and waited opposite the hotel.

This was a small hotel with only two exits. One was the entrance to the hotel, and the other was the exit for vehicles. No matter where Mu Huan would come out, he could see her. If she didn't come out, he would go up and save her.

Although she knew that with her skills, dealing with two ordinary men would not be a problem, she still had to be cautious.

When Mu Huan was sure that the two of them wanted to bring the girl to that hotel, she contacted Wu Xingye and asked him to hack the surveillance cameras in this hotel.

When she reached the hotel room, the two of them had started to move.

Mu Huan used her phone to take a few pictures of the scene showing they had ulterior motives. Then, she threw the two of them down and tied them together with the hotel's bedsheets. She stuffed a towel into their mouths and found the girl's phone. She made a video call to her mother to let her mother see her daughter's condition and let her see the two men tied up.

After telling the girl's mother the exact location of the hotel, Mu Huan said that she had helped them out of a sense of justice, but she was afraid of creating trouble. Hence, she could not stay here and wait for them to come over. She told them that it was best for them to come over quickly.

After hanging up the video call, she sent the photos of the two of them proving their crimes to the girl's phone, then deleted all traces.

She got up and left.

She did not notice that someone had watched her teaching someone a lesson.

Just as she had said, the entire process took only a short time.

Because of her past habits, she always wore a cap, a mask, and gloves. The two people who were tied up by her did not see her face and only knew that she was a woman.

As for the girl's mother, because the camera was reversed, she could only see the hotel's image and hear Mu Huan's voice when she spoke. She deliberately lowered her voice so that the other party could not tell if she was a man or a woman.

Although with Mu Huan's current status, she wasn't afraid that these two people would find trouble with her, she didn't have the time to get involved in these matters. Don't think that it was a small matter. It would be very troublesome if she got into trouble.

Mu Huan walked out of the hotel's car park.

She was wearing a cap and a mask. No one could see her face clearly. If Liu Changfeng didn't know what she was wearing today, he would have missed her.

Just as he was about to get his assistant to drive the car to catch up with Mu Huan, he saw a car driving over from not too far away. When the car reached Mu Huan, it stopped. Mu Huan got into the other party's car. The other party was driving toward him, but they did not drive very far. Instead, they stopped not far behind him.

Seeing that the other party's car had no intention of leaving, Liu Changfeng wrapped himself up tightly and got out of the car.

He walked up to the car and knocked on the car window.

In the car, Wu Xingye looked at Mu Huan and used his gaze to ask who he was.

Just as she had said, the entire process took only a short time.

Because of her past habits, she always wore a cap, a mask, and gloves. The two people who were tied up by her did not see her face and only knew that she was a woman.

As for the girl's mother, because the camera was reversed, she could only see the hotel's image and hear Mu Huan's voice when she spoke. She deliberately lowered her voice so that the other party could not tell if she was a man or a woman.

Although with Mu Huan's current status, she wasn't afraid that these two people would find trouble with her, she didn't have the time to get involved in these matters. Don't think that it was a small matter. It would be very troublesome if she got into trouble.

Mu Huan walked out of the hotel's car park.

She was wearing a cap and a mask. No one could see her face clearly. If Liu Changfeng didn't know what she was wearing today, he would have missed her.

Just as he was about to get his assistant to drive the car to catch up with Mu Huan, he saw a car driving over from not too far away. When the car reached Mu Huan, it stopped. Mu Huan got into the other party's car. The other party was driving toward him, but they did not drive very far. Instead, they stopped not far behind him.

Seeing that the other party's car had no intention of leaving, Liu Changfeng wrapped himself up tightly and got out of the car.

He walked up to the car and knocked on the car window.

In the car, Wu Xingye looked at Mu Huan and used his gaze to ask who he was.

Chapter 770: The Best Female Genius (3)

It had to be known that she had made a meteoric rise in NST!

Wu Xingye felt that Liu Changfeng was looking at him strangely. Hence, he said, "Idol, what's wrong with me?"

He was looking at him like that!

Liu Changfeng regained his senses. "Nothing."

Then, he took the pen and signed his name on Wu Xingye's clothes.

"Can we take a photo together?" Wu Xingye asked expectantly.

Liu Changfeng thought that if Mu Huan passed the test, he would have to convince the other party to let Mu Huan study overseas and enter NST. Hence, he cooperated with Wu Xingye's request.

Wu Xingye had a good time chasing after a celebrity!

When she saw a taxi stopping at the entrance of the hotel and the girl's mother alighting from it, Mu Huan yawned.

"We can leave now. Best Actor, you should go back too!"

Seeing that it was getting late, Liu Changfeng didn't say anything else and left after saying goodbye to the two.

After he left, Wu Xingye was still very excited. "Student Xiao Huan, you're amazing!"

She had only met him once, and yet, her relationship with the great Best Actor was so good that the high and mighty Best Actor treated her so kindly.

"Sis, it's not like this is the first time I've been so awesome." Mu Huan's face was full of disbelief. I've always been so awesome!

Wu Xingye looked at the pride on her face and heaved a sigh of relief. "You're finally normal!"

Mu Huan's lips twitched. "When was I ever abnormal?"

"Do you think you've been behaving normally these past few days?" Wu Xingye asked.

Mu Huan: "..."

"Are you done with Bo Junyan now?" Wu Xingye felt that she should be fine since she was in the mood to meddle in this matter and even had supper with the Best Actor.

"No, it might have gotten worse. I did something stupid today." When Mu Huan thought about how she had almost delayed a major event today, her mood instantly sank again.

"How is it worse? Also, why would you do such a stupid thing?!" Their Xiao Huan had always been so smart!

Mu Huan sighed and said, "The circle we used to live in was too small. The world we could see was also small. There were many things that we couldn't think of."

All these years, she had been working hard for the most basic survival. The only people she could come into contact with were those who were small-minded. Everything was within her control. Even if something happened, she just had to stand up and bear the consequences.

Hence, she thought that she could take responsibility for everything.

She felt that she could deal with Ling Wei.

Without thinking too much, she almost made a huge mistake.

“Then why are you still in the mood to meddle in such matters? You even ate with the Best Actor and ate so much?”

“My grandfather once told me that being happy takes up a day, but being sad and upset also takes up a day. Being sad and upset is the most useless thing. Hence, from today onwards, I want to return to normal. I don’t want to think about those useless things anymore. I don’t want to be afraid. I want to work harder and make myself stand higher. I want to broaden my horizons and think about things more thoroughly!”

As for what would happen between her and Bo Junyan, she had already tried her best to do everything she could. What he needed now was for her not to disturb him, so she would not disturb him anymore.

Let’s wait until he’s done with his work!

“That’s our Xiao Huan!” Wu Xingye reached out and patted her shoulder.

This was the reason why Xiao Huan was so likable. No matter how depressed she was or how heavy a blow she suffered, she could quickly adjust her mentality and continue to be optimistic and positive.
