

Fake Marriage 901

Chapter 901: I Am Fatty from Back Then (5)

Long Feiting seemed to know that she was afraid that something would happen, so he did not say anything else.

Mu Huan walked around the place and, although she couldn't find the exit, she found a place where there was light above. The surroundings looked relatively clean and safe, so she came back first and asked Long Feiting and Li Meng to wait over at that place. After all, she didn't know how long it would take for them to get out of the maze. It would be safer to save some phone power.

After bringing them to the place where she had found the light, Mu Huan realized that Long Feiting's breathing was a little rapid. Something was amiss.

"What's wrong? Are you injured?" she asked with a frown. It wouldn't be easy to get out of this place. If the two of them were injured, it would be even more difficult.

"I'm not injured," Long Feiting said.

"Then why are you breathing so fast?" As Mu Huan spoke, she felt his pulse. Although it was beating fast, it was very strong. He should be fine.

"I don't like dark places." Long Feiting had been locked in a dark basement when he was kidnapped when he was young. This had left a shadow in his heart. He didn't like such dark basement environments. In the dark underground, he couldn't control his panic and his breathing had quickened.

When he first fell, he didn't have time to be afraid. After Mu Huan left, he looked at the dark surroundings and the narrow space. He couldn't help but recall the feeling he had when he was young. He started to panic and his breathing quickened.

Mu Huan: "You have fear of the dark?"

Li Meng: "No way! You're already an adult, yet you're still afraid of the dark? Then how do you spend the night?"

"I'm not afraid of the dark!" Why would he, Young Master Long, be afraid of the dark?! He's not a three-year-old kid!

"Aren't you afraid? What's with your reaction now, then?" Li Meng asked. If he didn't dislike darkness, what else could it be?

"I just don't like this dark environment that's similar to a basement!" He would only be like this in such a place. He wouldn't be like this in other places, and he wasn't afraid of the dark or the night!

"Why would you be afraid of such an environment? Did you suffer any injuries when you were young? Were you locked up in a dark basement?" Mu Huan asked.

For an arrogant man like him to be afraid of such a place, it could only be because he had been traumatized in such a place when he was young.

“Yes, I was kidnapped and sold when I was young. I was locked up in a place like this.” Not wanting them to misunderstand, Long Feiting told them about the past. “And this was in the West Mountain!”

“From then on, this became the place I hate the most! I swore I will never come here again!” Yet he was actually trapped in this mountain again!

“Oh, what a coincidence. I was abducted and brought to the West Mountain when I was young, and I was locked up in an environment similar to this.” In order to divert his attention, Mu Huan told him about her childhood.

His reaction was a psychological reaction, not a response brought about by an illness. Once his thoughts shifted, the symptoms would disappear.

When he heard her words, Long Feiting instinctively said, “What nonsense are you spouting? When have you been kidnapped to the West Mountain? Are you saying this to mock me?”

She must be trying to say that she was not afraid of the dark even after being kidnapped and brought to such a place. Meanwhile, he was a man yet he was afraid of the dark. How come it left a shadow in his heart?

“Why would I spout nonsense? I was kidnapped and brought here. I was 11 years old!” Mu Huan broke out in a cold sweat. She had tried to distract him out of goodwill so that he would feel better. He actually thought that she was being sarcastic!

Chapter 902: I Am Fatty from Back Then (6)

Long Feiting was stunned at first, then his face became full of excitement. “Are you telling the truth? Were you really kidnapped and brought to the West Mountain when you were 11 years old? Were you also locked up in an environment like this?”

“Yes, what’s the matter?” Mu Huan was a little surprised that he would suddenly be so excited.

“You... you...” Realizing that she was his real Little Star, Long Feiting was so excited that he suddenly didn’t know what to say or where to start asking. It could only be you.

Mu Huan: “...”

What was wrong with him?

Long Feiting was so excited that he couldn’t decide what to ask first. He said directly, “Are you Little Star? My Little Star!”

Mu Huan’s lips twitched. “What Little Star?”

“Back then, did you bring the other kidnapped children to the entrance of the police station?”

“Yes.” Mu Huan nodded and then asked, “How did you know?”

Then she said, “Are you a child who was kidnapped with me?”

“No, you can’t be. At that time, there was only this little fatty who was around my age.” Among the children back then, only she and the little fatty were the oldest. Although the little fatty had said that his family was very rich, the difference between that child and Long Feiting was too big. They couldn't be the same person.

Long Feiting: "...!!!"

It was her! It was really her! She was his Little Star! His Little Star!

Excitement! That frantic excitement and emotion seemed to have suddenly condensed. It was like all the storms in the world, fanatic and destructive, making him feel like he was about to explode!

This sudden surge of emotions was unbearable for him. He hugged Mu Huan tightly.

"F*ck! Long Feiting, what are you doing?! Let go of me!" Mu Huan instinctively tried to break free.

But Long Feiting had used all his strength to hug her. If she didn't use force on him, she wouldn't be able to break free at all. Hence, she said, "Long Feiting, you'd better let go of me immediately! Otherwise, I'll do something to you!"

Long Feiting, on the other hand, seemed not to have heard her words and continued to hug her tightly.

In the next second, Mu Huan used acupuncture on his arm and forced him to let go.

The moment he released her, she immediately took a few steps back.

"Long Feiting, do you want to die?!" How dare he suddenly hug her!

Didn't he know that she had a husband?!

"Little Star! I've been looking for you for a long time! A long time! A long time!" Long Feiting looked at her, still unable to recover from his excitement.

Mu Huan frowned. Why did he keep calling her Star?

Suddenly, she recalled how that little fatty had been chasing after her and insistently asking for her name. She couldn't get rid of him and didn't want to expose her identity, so she told him that she was called Song Xing[1].

"What the f*ck! Are you that little fatty from back then?!"

When Long Feiting heard this, he immediately nodded vigorously. "I am! I am! I am that little fatty from back then!"

Mu Huan: "..."

Wasn't this difference too great? Back then, the little fatty had such a round face and small eyes. When he walked, she felt like she was trembling. How could such a little fatty grow up to be such a handsome man?

Indeed, did all fatties have such potential?

"Little Star, I've had a hard time looking for you... It's been so hard..." Long Feiting was about to hug Mu Huan again.

Mu Huan took two steps back. "Don't come near me. If you come any closer, I'll beat you up!"

“Little Star...” Long Feiting looked at her, aggrieved.

Mu Huan: “...”

Was he doing this to make a scene?

“No... How can you be the Little Fatty from back then?”

Chapter 903: I Am Fatty from Back Then (7)

The difference between the two of them was really too great!

“Back then, I was a glutton. After I went back, I tried my best to lose weight. Then, I became the me now!” Long Feiting said.

Mu Huan: “...”

Indeed, being skinny was the way to go!

“Little Star...” Long Feiting said as he leaned closer to Mu Huan.

Afraid that he would get excited again, Mu Huan quickly took a few steps back.

“Long Feiting, you can just call me Mu Huan. Don’t call me Little Star!” If her husband were to hear him addressing her so affectionately, he would surely be unhappy.

Mu Huan felt that whether you’re a man or a woman, once you’re married, you should keep a distance from the opposite sex. No matter what their relationship was with anyone else, they had to keep a distance.

“You asked me to call you Star.”

“Nonsense. I only said that my name was Song Xing! I didn’t say anything else!” Mu Huan had a good memory and remembered everything that had happened.

Long Feiting was now completely sure that she was the Little Star from back then! This made him excited again! His Little Star didn’t become crippled after growing up! His Little Star was just as he thought! No, she was better than he thought! His Little Star! His Little Star!

Long Feiting was so excited that he couldn’t say anything. He wanted to hug her tightly, but...

Just as he walked forward, Mu Huan took a few steps back.

Long Feiting was even more upset when he saw how she regarded him.

“Little Star...” He had worked so hard to find her. He liked her so much, he was so hopeful, he was so...

But these were only Long Feiting’s feelings for Star.

Mu Huan didn’t have such feelings for the Little Fatty from back then. She only had feelings for him as a comrade-in-arms. However, there were many people who had feelings for her. This was disproportionate to how much Long Feiting had missed her these many years. He had always thought about her and treated her as his greatest pursuit. His life’s wish had only been that if she saw a figure similar to Little Fatty’s, she would wonder if he was living well.

Under normal circumstances, she would not recall such a person.

Hence, Mu Huan could not understand why Long Feiting was so excited despite his injuries.

All she could think about was that she was a married woman, so she had to keep a distance from the opposite sex.

“Long Feiting, calm down for now. We’ll find a way out first!” The most important thing right now was how to get out!

It was only then that Long Feiting realized where they were. The most important thing right now was not to acknowledge her but to quickly find the exit.

“You two stay here. I’ll go and see if there’s a way out,” Mu Huan said.

Long Feiting instinctively said, “I’ll go with you.”

“Don’t come with me. Stay here with Xiao Meng,” Mu Huan said.

Although Li Meng did not hurt her bones, the impact just now was too strong, causing her leg to hurt so much that she could not walk properly. She needed someone to protect her.

Although Long Feiting really wanted to be with Mu Huan, Li Meng indeed needed someone to take care of her.

“Xiao Huan, why don’t you ask him to follow you? Isn’t he afraid of the dark? If he were to stay with me, I wouldn’t be able to do anything if his breathing gets hurried and something dangerous happens.” Li Meng was still afraid that something would happen to Long Feiting.

Long Feiting: “...”

Mu Huan thought about it and said, “The brightness here is strong. If you look up, you’ll be able to see the sky. It’ll feel better and you should be fine. If you follow me and we find a way deeper in, you might feel even worse. Hence, the two of you can stay here.”

“Little Star, are you concerned about me?” Long Feiting’s expression was so warm, it was evident he was happy.

Mu Huan: “...”

Without another word, she turned around and left to find the exit.

Chapter 904: I Am Fatty from Back Then (8)

After Mu Huan left, Long Feiting recalled that since she was the Little Star that he had been longing for, then his Little Star wasn’t Mu Kexin, and she wasn’t crippled. He became excited again.

Li Meng was afraid that something would happen to him, so she paid him close attention. Sensing that he was getting worked up again, she became a little afraid. “Long Feiting, are you alright?”

“It’s fine, I’m fine! I’ve never felt so good before!” Long Feiting was really as he had said. He had never felt so good before! He felt like he was floating! He was so happy!

Li Meng: "..."

His voice indeed sounded like he was feeling good.

"By the way, can you tell me more about Star?" Long Feiting looked at Li Meng.

Li Meng was stunned at first, but then she realized that the Star he was referring to was Mu Huan. It had been a while since Mu Huan had used the alias Song Xing. Hence, she was a little unaccustomed to it.

"There's nothing much to say about her past. She was mostly working."

"Tell me the details!"

Li Meng: "..."

"Quick, tell me..." Long Feiting could not wait to know more about Mu Huan.

"What do you want me to say about her working days? How she went about washing dishes?"

When Long Feiting heard her words, his heart ached. If only he could have found her earlier. If he had, she wouldn't have had to suffer like that!

And she would not have been forced to marry Bo Junyan because of her granny.

If he had found her before she had married Bo Junyan, the two of them would definitely have proceeded as he had imagined!

If Long Feiting had found Mu Huan earlier, he might really have been able to do what he thought of doing. After all, if he could have appeared during Mu Huan's most difficult time and he was so outstanding, there were few women who wouldn't be moved.

Unfortunately, there were no ifs in this world.

At the thought of this, Long Feiting returned to reality from his excitement. That was, that the Star he had been longing for was already married to Bo Junyan!

Even after going through such a storm, not only did they not get a divorce, but their relationship became even better!

This made his heart sink.

Although his Little Star did not become crippled, all the beautiful things he had thought about... he was now unable to see any hope of achieving them.

But even so, the feelings that he had been suppressing all this time exploded at this moment.

Back when he didn't know that Mu Huan was Little Star, he had already fallen in love with her. What more now that he knew she was his Little Star?

He could not control his feelings!

Even though he knew that such feelings would not get any response, he could not control them. He could only let those feelings explode instantly and let them control him...

He suddenly fell silent for a long time, making Li Meng a little worried. She was afraid that he would fall ill again, so she could only find a topic to distract him. "Long Feiting, can I ask you something?"

Long Feiting snapped back to his senses. "What?"

"Why are you with Mu Kexin?" Since they had nothing to talk about, they naturally had to find something that was relevant. Otherwise, it would be too awkward to continue the conversation.

At the mention of Mu Kexin, Long Feiting's expression darkened.

Previously, he had felt that something was amiss and got someone to investigate Mu Kexin in detail. This morning, when he arrived at school, he'd received a report that Mu Kexin had not been kidnapped when she was young. During those few days that he had gone missing, she had been at the house of one of her relatives. As for her injured leg, his men had found her nurse from that time, and it was confirmed that the injury was on her right leg.

Chapter 905: I Am Fatty from Back Then (9)

However, according to the medical record he had found at the start, she had injured her left leg.

This meant that someone had tampered with her medical record, and since the hospital belonged to the Mu family, it would have been a piece of cake for them to do that.

To put it simply, he had been cheated!

He had been cheated by someone like Mu Kexin!

She was not his Little Star at all. She did not know how he found out that he was looking for Song Xing. Perhaps she had found out about him being kidnapped in the past from Mu Huan, and because her eyebrows and eyes looked similar to Mu Huan's, she had disguised himself as Little Star to make him acknowledge her.

No, she was so crafty that she had never actually claimed that she was Song Xing!

At the thought that he had been fooled by someone he thought to be such a moron, Long Feiting's expression darkened!

What the f*ck! Even he himself felt that he couldn't be more stupid!

Of course, he wouldn't tell anyone about such a stupid thing.

But if he were to say that it was because he liked her that he pursued her to be his girlfriend, it would make him seem too stupid as well.

Hence...

"I thought she looked like the Little Star that I was looking for, so I used her as a substitute."

Li Meng: "..."

Was that really the reason?

Just as she was about to ask something, Mu Huan returned.

This underground trap was not very big, yet even after Mu Huan spent half an hour searching, she did not find an exit.

When she returned, she looked up at the small sky above her. "It looks like this is our only way out."

"Ah?" Li Meng and Long Feiting were shocked. How were they going to get out through such a high place? Only Spiderman could climb up and leave.

Long Feiting snapped back to his senses and asked, "Where did we fall off just now? It should be lower than here, so it's easier to climb up there."

"The entrance to the place where we fell just now has been closed. It's a metal door, so we can't move it," Mu Huan said.

"But... it's so high. How are we going to climb up?" Li Meng looked at the small world above her, feeling like a frog trapped in a well.

"I'll go up from here first. After I get up, I'll find some ropes and stuff like that to pull you up," Mu Huan said.

"How are you going to do that?" the two asked in unison.

"Climb it up. Look, there are many bumps on it. It's similar to rock climbing," Mu Huan said as she pointed at the well-like exit.

"But, it's so high. You have to have protective gear! If you don't, what if you fall down?! You can't take such a risk! Let's wait! If this is a new place for real people to visit, there will definitely be a manager patrolling. We should be able to wait for rescue," Li Meng said.

She didn't want her to take such a risk.

"If that's the case, then we can definitely wait. But I don't think that's possible. Hence, I'll go up and give it a try first!" Mu Huan felt that this wasn't like what they had guessed. This was because the difficulty factor was too high. If it was used to earn money, there wouldn't be such a high difficulty.

Although she didn't expect such a thing to suddenly appear here if someone hadn't built a base for survival in the wild, she decided to leave this place just in case.

"If you want us to try, I'll do it! I'm a guy, so I'll try to go up and take a look!" Long Feiting said as he tried to climb up.

"Have you had any experience in this area?"

"I often climb rocks!" Long Feiting's favorite sport was extreme sports.

Chapter 906: I Am Fatty from Back Then (10)

"This is a little different from rock climbing. Look, these bumps are very small. They're not easy to reach, and they're not easy to stand on either. That is especially dangerous since there are no protective measures here. It'll be very risky for you to go up." There were protective measures for rock climbing, yet accidents would still happen occasionally. Furthermore, there was no protection at all now. If one fell down, they would die.

“Isn’t it also dangerous for you to go up?” Long Feiting did not want to allow her to take such a risk.

“I used to practice this a lot in the past. I’m very experienced, so it shouldn’t be a problem for me to climb up.” Mu Huan wouldn’t do something that she wasn’t confident in. She would only do something that she was 90% confident in.

“Why did you practice this often in the past?”

“If my master wanted me to train, I trained. I didn’t ask why.” Mu Huan never asked too much when learning from others. If she had to train hard, she would work even harder.

“Your master?” Long Feiting knew that Mu Huan had had many masters.

“The Master who runs a pet store.”

Long Feiting wanted to ask more.

But Mu Huan was already climbing up.

For the second time in his life, Long Feiting felt inferior when he saw how agile she was.

The second time he felt inferior was when comparing himself to Mu Huan, and it was the same during the first time.

The first time in his life that he felt inferior was when he was kidnapped. He looked at Mu Huan, who was a few months younger than him and was a girl, yet was so brave that she could come up with a plan to escape. But he only wanted to wait for his family to save him. He felt inferior and felt that he was inferior to even a girl.

Hence, after he returned home, he trained hard to make himself stronger.

But...

He was still inferior to her.

At the very least, he was not as skilled as her. Last time, she was the one who protected him. This time...

If she were to really accomplish it, he would definitely be inferior to her.

Just then, Mu Huan, who was climbing up, slipped and almost fell from the top. The two of them were so frightened that their hearts stopped beating!

At this point, Mu Huan had already climbed to the middle and upper levels. If she were to fall, she would either die or be crippled.

Li Meng wanted to call out to Mu Huan and ask her to come down, but at her current height, coming down was even more difficult than going up!

She could only cover her mouth, afraid that if she made a sound, it would affect Mu Huan’s performance.

Long Feiting was so nervous that his face turned pale.

Mu Huan was drenched in cold sweat.

The sweat on her forehead rolled down her cheeks, but she did not have the time to take a break to calm herself down. She could only climb up faster!

Because these bumps were too small and not very easy to grasp, she could only rely on her explosive strength to rush up. Once she stopped, the risk of falling would be even higher. Hence, she could only continue to climb up quickly!

The danger she was in earlier had made Mu Huan's survival instincts explode with even greater potential. She had climbed up at a speed faster than she had expected.

He saw her climbing up.

Only then did Long Feiting's and Li Meng's heartbeats return to normal.

Mu Huan went up and called down to the two of them. She first checked if there was any signal on her phone. When she saw that there wasn't, she went to look around to see if there was anything to use to pull them up. Then, she quickly found a very strong rope.

Mu Huan: "..."

This place didn't look like a place for real people to play a survival game, but there was a rope here. It was obvious that it was to be used to pull people up from down there.

But if this was the case, then the difficulty level here was really too high!

Or was this a place for elite training?

If only this was the case.

However, for some reason, Mu Huan felt that this wasn't the case.

Chapter 907: Untitled

However, no matter what, the most important thing was to pull the others up. Hence, she took the rope and walked back.

They saw the rope that she had thrown down.

Long Feiting and Li Meng shouted at the same time, "Where did you find the rope?!"

"It's right there!"

"Didn't I say that this place was built for real people to play survival games? And you said that it wasn't! If it wasn't, why would there be a rope next to the hole?!" Long Feiting regained his usual arrogance.

"Just come up for now. Tie Xiao Meng up first," Mu Huan said.

"Okay." Long Feiting tied Li Meng up first before boosting her up to lighten Mu Huan's burden.

Mu Huan was someone who could shake off a 200-kilogram man. There was definitely no problem for her to pull Li Meng up, and she quickly did so.

However, it was a little more difficult to pull Long Feiting up. After all, only an instantaneous burst of strength was required to shake off a 200-kilogram man. It would take a while to pull someone up from the ground. Take weightlifting champions—they could lift something heavy, but they could not hold on to them for too long.

Hence, she'd pulled Li Meng up first. With the two of them working hard together, it wouldn't be too tiring. This would increase the chances of Long Feiting coming up safely.

After pulling Li Meng up, the two of them rested for a while before Mu Huan put down the rope.

She wanted Long Feiting to tie himself up.

He wasn't stupid and knew how to.

After pulling Long Feiting up, Mu Huan and Li Meng collapsed to the side in exhaustion. "Long Feiting, it's time for you to lose weight. You're really too fat! You're so heavy!"

Long Feiting said, "I'm lighter than the standard weight. I'm not fat! I'm just taller than the two of you!"

As a former fatty, Long Feiting cared a lot about his weight.

"That's true." Mu Huan thought about it. It wasn't that he was fat, but he was too tall.

"There's still no signal on the phone. Who made this place? It's too difficult!" Li Meng said as she looked at the phone that had no signal.

"I didn't think so previously, but with the rope around, it seems like that's the case. If this is true, then it might have been built by a certain big boss. A place where one can train their skills is not meant for ordinary people." Mu Huan felt that this was the only plausible explanation.

"What the f*ck, how did we end up in such a place? If I had known earlier, I wouldn't have chased after some wild chicken!" Li Meng said. "This reminds me of those foreign horror movies that I've watched. Most of them were all killed in a forest. It's really scary!"

"Don't think too much. With me around, they won't be able to kill us off no matter what," Mu Huan said with a smile. "Besides, if it's really that kind of place, it wouldn't really take people's lives."

Just as Li Meng was about to say something else—"Wow, what a beautiful cat!"

Mu Huan followed her gaze and saw a white cat with dark green eyes. It was standing not far away from them, looking at them arrogantly like a king.

Mu Huan narrowed her eyes.

Is it the same white cat as the last one?

For some reason, Mu Huan was reminded of that man under the moonlight. It was probably because the scene she saw at that time was too shocking.

"What's the matter, Xiao Huan?" Li Meng asked.

"Noth..." Before Mu Huan could finish speaking, a rain of arrows suddenly shot at them.

Even though Mu Huan quickly hugged Li Meng and hid to the side, there were too many arrows. Just when she thought that she would be hit no matter what she did...

Chapter 908: Untitled

Long Feiting raised a big round board in front of them, and the arrows instantly smashed upon contact with it.

Mu Huan and Li Meng both gave Long Feiting a thumbs up at the same time.

Long Feiting instantly looked proud.

He, Fatty Long, finally had his moment! No, it was Young Master Long!

However, though they'd managed to avoid this wave, there was another wave. There were all sorts of traps and dangers in this place. It was not easy for Mu Huan to bring them to a safe place. Just as they were feeling exhausted and paralyzed on the side...

A person who looked like a gatekeeper appeared in front of them. "Why are you here? This place hasn't been opened to the public yet. How did you sneak in? Do you know how dangerous this place is?!"

Mu Huan: "..."

Li Meng: "..."

Long Feiting: "..."

They knew! They knew how dangerous this place was!

"Next time, go somewhere else to play. Don't come here to play as you please. Safety measures must always be implemented and someone must be leading the way. Otherwise, your life will be in danger!" the old man warned.

The three of them were once again speechless.

Then, the old man gently opened an invisible door. "You can leave from here."

Mu Huan: "...!!"

Freaking hell, there's actually a door here!

Li Meng: "..."

Grandpa, why didn't you appear earlier?

Long Feiting: "..."

Older guy is as older guy does.

After exiting the door, there was still no signal on their phones. Mu Huan felt that she had to go to a place with a signal to be completely safe. Hence, even after leaving that place, she was still worried.

However, Li Meng and Long Feiting were injured and could not walk fast.

She saw that there was a wheelbarrow used to carry sand and stone next to them. Mu Huan thought that since the mountain road wasn't easy to walk on, the waist of the mountain was a slope, and there weren't many stairs, it would be much faster if she pushed them using the wheelbarrow. Hence, she looked at the two of them and said, "Get in! I'll push you!"

Li Meng: "..."

Long Feiting: "..."

"Hurry up and go. Don't feel embarrassed. We have to leave quickly. I won't be at ease until there's a signal!" Although an old man had opened the door for them later, the timing of the old man's appearance was too perfect.

Also, even if there was such a decoration-like item here, she was still worried. It didn't matter if she was only being paranoid, she just had to leave this place first and find a place with a signal!

"I'm not going. Just have Li Meng go. I can still walk!" Long Feiting was determined not to go up. Not to mention that such a narrow place could not fit the two of them, no matter what, he was a big boy. He could not be pushed by a girl.

Just as Li Meng was about to say that she wasn't going up, Mu Huan carried her up.

Li Meng: "..."

Mu Huan looked at Long Feiting and said as she patted the wheelbarrow, "You can sit next to this. Let's hurry up and leave. If the professor and the rest can't contact us, they'll be anxious."

"I'm not sitting there!" Long Feiting insisted.

"Fine, you don't have to sit. But if you can't walk, I won't bother with you. It's going to be dark soon. There are wolves and wild boars in the mountains. With your current stamina, you'll be eaten in minutes. Do whatever you want!" With that, Mu Huan pushed Li Meng along.

She really didn't wait for him and didn't bother about him anymore.

Long Feiting quickly caught up with her. However, he was injured on his leg and could not walk fast at all. Even though he had tried his best to chase after Mu Huan, there was still a long distance between them.

Chapter 909: Untitled

Just when he thought that Mu Huan would really ignore him...

Mu Huan turned around and looked at him. "Are you going up or not? If not, I'm really leaving!"

Long Feiting looked at the small car and felt that he could flatten it if he sat on it. Furthermore, the road here was a slope. Even if it wasn't, she'd need to use a lot of strength to push the two of them.

He didn't want her to be too tired. After all, she was the one who had been charging ahead for them.

Seeing that he was still not moving, Mu Huan asked, "What? Are you waiting for me to carry you?"

Long Feiting: "..."

He really wanted that, but would she really do it? Would she hug him?

“Hurry up, stop wasting time!”

In the end...

Long Feiting still ended up sitting in the cart, but he could only sit on the side. He could basically be considered to be suspended on it. However, him being pushed was still much faster than him walking with his feet.

After Mu Huan had been pushing them for a while, she vaguely heard someone shouting their names. Then, she quickened her pace. When she turned and realized that it was a slope, she could no longer stop. She could only grab the cart and run down.

And the shouting came from the slope below.

When the professor saw that Mu Huan and the rest were not back yet, he brought a group of people to look for them.

When the people below saw Mu Huan pushing the cart down, they were frightened out of their wits. They didn't know whether to hide or to stop her. After all, if Mu Huan were to go down like this, the three of them would fall down seeing as there were stairs below.

Just as a few tall and strong boys in the class stepped forward and decided to give it their all to stop Mu Huan...

Mu Huan stopped before she hit them.

This made both parties break out in a cold sweat. This was because the impact would really not have been a joke! No matter how strong those tall and strong boys were, they would still have been injured if they hit them.

The strongest boy in the class snapped back to his senses and said, “Mu Huan, you're too strong! You even managed to stop the wheelbarrow!”

She was even stronger than him!

When the students snapped back to their senses, they all expressed that Mu Huan was simply too strong.

“All my strength comes from eating!” Mu Huan heaved a sigh of relief and slumped to the ground.

“Where did you guys go? Why couldn't I get through to you...” The professor proceeded to ask them where they had gone and why they were in such a sorry state.

“We...” Mu Huan was about to say something.

But when she saw Bo Junyan walking toward her with his men, she immediately stood up and asked in surprise, “Hubby, why are you here?!”

When Bo Junyan saw her, he quickened his steps and strode toward her. “Are you hurt?”

“No, they're the ones injured.” Mu Huan pointed at Long Feiting and Li Meng.

Then she asked, “Hubby, why are you here?”

“Professor Li said that he couldn’t get in touch with you no matter what. He even got someone to search around but couldn’t find you.”

Professor Li, who was standing at the side, said, “Yes, I was afraid that something had happened to you, so I informed Professor Bo.”

“What’s going on?” Bo Junyan sized up Mu Huan and realized that although she wasn’t injured, she was in a sorry state.

“Over there, someone seems to have built a field for survival training in the wilderness. The traps are very high-level. The three of us almost couldn’t get out from there,” Mu Huan said.

Bo Junyan looked at PA Wang and asked him to bring his men to see what was going on.

He turned around and was about to say something when Mu Huan reached out for a hug. “Hubby, carry me. I’m so tired. I didn’t eat this afternoon, so I’m also very hungry.”

Chapter 910: Untitled

Bo Junyan immediately picked her up. “What do you want to eat?”

Mu Huan said delicately, “Anything that’s delicious.”

Everyone: “...”

Just a moment ago, she was valiant and strong as if she was possessed by a Strength God. Now, she was like a little doll hanging in someone’s embrace.

Their goddess was really something!

Long Feiting looked at Mu Huan, and his heart ached terribly.

The most painful thing in this world is when the person you like and the person you love so deeply doesn’t like you. Her eyes didn’t have you in them.

Sensing the change in his mood, Li Meng reached out and patted his shoulder. “Just give up, landowner’s foolish son.”

In the past, she had felt that Long Feiting liked Mu Huan. Now, she felt that his feelings for Mu Huan had become even stronger!

Long Feiting glanced at her silently.

Bo Junyan exchanged a few words with Professor Li before carrying Mu Huan away.

“Li Meng and Long Feiting...” Before Mu Huan could finish speaking...

Bo Junyan said, “Someone will take care of them.”

“Yes, yes.” Mu Huan nodded and continued, “Hubby, I think there’s something wrong with that place. Get someone to investigate it in detail.”

“Yes.”

"I saw a white cat inside. It looked very similar to the white cat from that night. Furthermore, the viciousness of the mechanisms made me feel that it had something to do with that group of people," Mu Huan said.

"Those people?"

"The people who hurt me."

"The people who hurt you? Who are they?" Bo Junyan's gaze suddenly became dangerous.

"..." Mu Huan suddenly recalled that she was in a cold war with Bo Junyan during those few days and that she did not tell him about this.

"Hubby, let's talk after we get into the car." He would definitely be angry once he heard it. There were so many people around, and it wouldn't be easy to coax him here. Hence, she told him to get into the car first.

Bo Junyan did not speak further.

When they got into the car, before Mu Huan could even sit properly, he looked at her with a face full of anticipation.

Mu Huan: "..."

She would die sooner or later. Hence, Mu Huan did not beat around the bush and told Bo Junyan about what happened that night.

Of course, she had played down the dangers a lot. She described herself as being so awesome and accurate in her judgment that she defeated so many people by herself.

But Bo Junyan's expression still darkened.

"Why didn't you tell me about such an important matter?!" Although Mu Huan felt that she had relayed the story very lightly, it was still very serious to Bo Junyan. Someone had actually hurt his wife! If he'd known then that Mu Huan had almost died, he reckoned that he would have exploded.

"We were still in a fight at that time. You never tell me anything, so of course I wouldn't tell you anything either! Thus, you're the one to be blamed for this!" Mu Huan said, taking the initiative to strike first.

Actually, the biggest reason she didn't tell him back then was that she felt that he was too busy and that she was fine anyway. If she'd told him about this matter, she was afraid that he would worry about her and delay the big matter again.

Then again, at that time, she wasn't sure if he would delay things because of her, and she didn't want him to.

Bo Junyan: "..."

"It's all in the past now. Let's not talk about this..." Mu Huan said coquettishly while hugging his arm.

Bo Junyan glanced at her silently.

“Hubby, don’t be like this. We’ve just made up, and now you’re ignoring me. I’ll be scared if you keep having a cold war with me...”

Bo Junyan: “...”

He didn’t feel that she was afraid.

“Tell me in detail what happened that night. I’ll investigate.” Whoever dared to hurt his wife would have to pay the price with blood.
