

Fake Marriage 991

Chapter 991: Destroy It If You Can't Get It (4)

Ling Wei looked down.

It wasn't that he was getting too old, but that someone wanted to take the opportunity to swallow the Ling Group. This person had a huge background and could operate secretly. Hence, he could snatch up whatever project he wanted.

Under such circumstances, it was meaningless for her to pull in investments. Because no matter how much money she had, it would all go to waste. Hence, she directly contacted the other party through someone and paid a price to propose what the other party wanted more. She successfully reached an agreement with the other party, making him not only stop targeting the Ling Group but also become her ally.

The three boyfriends that Ling Wei had previously had were all political figures, but she could destroy them when they broke up. It could be seen that she was very capable.

She did not have much strength to begin with, but in this world, one move was enough to deal with an enemy. That was, the enemy of an enemy was the best ally.

She would pay the price. The alliance was meant to deal with her enemy. There was nothing that could not be destroyed.

However, now that the Ling Group's crisis had been resolved, she would not tell her father that it was time for him to retire.

It was time for her to control the Ling Group!

She was the one who saved the Ling Group. In the future, the Ling Group could only be hers!

"Ever since Junyan got a wife and our families broke up, our family's luck has become worse and worse," Ling Wei said with a sigh.

"It's like this! Ever since Bo Junyan and Mu Huan got together, I've never done anything that went smoothly!" Speaking of this, Ling Feng was furious.

If not for Mu Huan, why would they need to beg Bo Junyan when something happened to the Ling Group?! Their two families had a deep relationship and had always taken the initiative to help each other. It was all Mu Huan's fault!

With that, he glared fiercely at Xue Yun. "Look at your good daughter!"

Xue Yun: "..."

How could he blame her? She had really done her best.

Ling Wei looked at Ling Feng with a worried expression and said, "Dad, what should we do if we can't get any investments? Once the capital chain breaks, it will only become a vicious cycle. If this goes on, we'll be bankrupt before long..."

Ling Feng did not speak. He only waved the vase on the table away in frustration.

The sound of the vase shattering on the ground shocked Xue Yun.

She wanted to say something, but she didn't know what to say.

Right then, Ling Wei looked at Xue Yun. "Go find Mu Huan again. If the Ling family falls, Xiao Xiao will have nothing left."

Xue Yun said, "It's not that I don't want to look for Xiao Huan, but even if I do, she won't see me. Even if she does, she'll definitely not agree."

Her daughter had always been a person who kept her word. She had said that the last time would be the last time. No matter how much she cried and begged, it was useless.

"You're her biological mother. How can she reject you like this?" Ling Wei frowned. "It's not a big deal. In the past, Junyan would have helped the Ling family even without begging. Now, it's useless even if you beg her like this. She's really heartless."

Xue Yun: "..."

To be honest, she also felt that Mu Huan had a heart of stone. Even if she said that it's for the last time, the Ling family was about to go bankrupt. In such a critical situation, how could she bear to watch them die?

She was her biological mother!

"However, no matter what, you still have to beg Mu Huan. Even if you have to kneel down and beg, you have to. After all, if I were to get married, the Pei family is still considered a wealthy family. I would be fine even if the Ling family collapsed, but Xiao Xiao is different. If the Ling family collapsed, Xiao Xiao would have nothing left." Ling Wei involved the son that Xue Yun cared about the most.

Chapter 992: Destroy It If You Can't Get It (5)

"From the heir of a top corporation to a poor man with nothing. Do you think your son can live such an ordinary life? By then, no matter how much you regret it and think of a way, it'll be too late!"

Ling Feng added, "Ling Wei is right. No matter what, even if you have to kneel down and beg Mu Huan, you have to get Bo Junyan to help. Otherwise, Xiao Xiao will have nothing!"

"Can you bear to see your son lose everything?"

Xue Yun could not bear to, but she said, "I can't even see Xiao Huan now. Even if I want to kneel, I can't!"

"If you can't see her at the Bo family's residence, can't you go to her school?" Ling Wei's face was full of disbelief.

Xue Yun was stunned.

Ling Feng added, "That's right, go to her school! Go to her class, kneel down, and beg her in front of everyone! Let's see how she could still reject you!"

Xue Yun: "This... This... isn't good..."

How bad would it be for Xiao Huan's reputation if she did this? She couldn't force her like this...

She was her biological daughter.

"If you think that's not good, then should you just watch your son lose everything?" Ling Wei raised her eyebrows.

"I..." Xue Yun didn't want this to happen, but...

No matter what she did, it was difficult and painful!

"If you don't want Xiao Xiao to lose everything, you'd better find her quickly before the school holidays. You really won't be able to see her when the school holidays start. By then, it'll be too late for you to cry!" Ling Wei said.

Go ahead and create more trouble. The fire will be ready!

"I..." Xue Yun was in a difficult position. She really was. She really didn't want to look for Mu Huan again. She didn't even have the face to speak to her, let alone kneel down and beg her in front of the school to force her.

"It's fine. If you really don't want to go, then don't go. At most, when the time comes, our family of three can eat sh*t. I'm a person who can bear the pain. I just don't know if your son can do it," Ling Feng said indifferently.

Just then, Ling Xiao returned from school.

He did not notice the atmosphere in the living room and said happily, "Dad, Mom, this time, I've invited all my classmates to our house to attend my birthday party. Nowadays, birthdays are popular... Also, when the holiday comes, many of my classmates want to go on an around-the-world tour. Let's go too! I really want to go..."

The more Ling Xiao spoke, the more excited he became.

However, Ling Feng interrupted his excitement and said coldly, "There'll be no birthday party, and there'll be no tour. There'll be nothing!"

Ling Xiao was stunned for a moment before asking, "Why?"

Ling Feng said with a cold expression, "There's no reason!"

Ling Xiao, who had never been treated like this by him before, instantly cried and looked at Xue Yun. "Mom, what's wrong with Dad..."

When Xue Yun saw her son like this, her heart ached terribly. Previously, because he had unintentionally pushed her mother, he had been having nightmares and eating very little. Now that he had finally calmed down, she really didn't want to and couldn't bear to see him a little unhappy.

She reached out and pulled her son into her embrace. After comforting him for a while, she said, "Be good. Go back to your room first. There'll be a birthday party and an around-the-world tour."

“Really?” Ling Xiao stopped crying when he heard this.

“Yes, really. Go back to your room and do your homework first.” Xue Yun caressed his head.

“Yes!” Ling Xiao didn’t care what was wrong with his father and why he was suddenly so fierce to him. In any case, since his mother said that there would be those things, then there would be. He went upstairs happily.

Chapter 993: Destroy It If You Can’t Get It (6)

After Ling Xiao went up, Ling Feng looked at Xue Yun and mocked, “He’s about to go bankrupt, yet he’s still thinking about such things. What do you have to promise that to him?”

Xue Yun lowered her eyes. “I’ll find Xiao Huan. No matter what, I’ll convince Xiao Huan.”

She knew that Ling Feng was doing this on purpose.

This made her feel very upset, but for Xiao Xiao’s sake, she had no other choice.

Yun University...

With Ling Wei leading the way, Xue Yun arrived at Mu Huan’s class effortlessly.

“Xiao Huan... Xiao Huan... your mom is here!” When Li Meng saw Xue Yun walking in, she hurriedly nudged Mu Huan, who was reading.

Mu Huan looked up and frowned when she saw Xue Yun walking toward her.

There was only one thing her mother had come to look for her for—to seek benefits for the Ling Group.

Back then, she was afraid that she would be like this. That was why she’d said it so harshly. She didn’t expect that even if she said it so harshly, it would be useless.

She would still come looking for her.

Setting aside how Mu Huan had a feud with the Ling Group and couldn’t wait for the Ling Group to collapse, even if she didn’t have any grudges with the Ling Group, with her ordinary relationship, wouldn’t she be afraid that Bo Junyan would get sick of her and it would affect their relationship?

She was really...

It gave her a headache.

“I feel that your mother is not as good as your father.” As Mu Huan’s best friend, Li Meng naturally knew about Xue Yun’s matter. Naturally, she knew that she was looking for Mu Huan for benefits.

“Ha... if you compare it this way, it’s really...” In the past, her father only wanted her to help him pay his gambling debts. At most, he wanted five million.

She had never given it to him.

Later on, after her grandma collapsed, he had money to spend and did not come looking for Mu Huan for money again.

And her mother wanted more than five million times every time.

Indeed, things in this world should not be compared. If a comparison was made, it would cause harm.

“Sigh... I feel sorry for you...” Li Meng reached out and patted her shoulder.

She thought that her mother had come back to life because the heavens felt sorry for her and wanted her to enjoy motherly love again. In the end...

Seriously...

“There’s no need to feel heartache. I have the Golden Bell Shield Iron Skin Technique, so I’m not afraid of anything!” Mu Huan said as she stood up and walked out.

She didn’t like to be surrounded by people gawking at her private matters.

Li Meng looked at her and could not help feeling sorry for her. How many times had this person been stabbed? How could she endure the pain and cultivate to attain the Golden Bell Shield Iron Skin Technique? She was invulnerable...

When Mu Huan was still a distance away from Xue Yun...

Xue Yun suddenly knelt down.

Her kneeling caused the entire class to look at her.

Instantly, there was a flurry of discussion. Everyone was curious as to what was going on.

“Xiao Huan, Mom begs you. Please save Mom!” Xue Yun knew that this wasn’t good, but she could only do this. She had already said all sorts of things to Mu Huan previously, and she had used all sorts of methods, but Mu Huan didn’t agree. She really had no choice but to do this.

Mom?

This was Mu Huan’s mother?

Mu Huan still had a mother? Why was her mother begging Mu Huan to save her?

What did she want her mother to beg her for?!

There was a commotion in the classroom.

Mu Huan looked at Xue Yun, who was kneeling in front of her and pleading pitifully.

Her expression darkened.

She was really...

Mu Huan felt that kinship was the most hurtful thing in this world.

Her parents, who had given birth to her and raised her, who used to dote on her, were now like this...

She didn’t know what she had done wrong.

Why did things turn out this way?

When she felt the pain coming from the depths of her heart...

Chapter 994: Destroy It If You Can't Get It (7)

Mu Huan smiled in self-mockery. It looked like her Golden Bell Shield Iron Skin Technique wasn't strong enough. She had to cultivate more.

"Xiao Huan, I'm sorry. I really have no other choice. Xiao Huan, please save me..." Xue Yun sobbed.

She was really about to die.

Mu Huan stepped forward and reached out to pull her up.

But Xue Yun could not get up.

Seeing this, Mu Huan whispered, "If you don't get up and leave with me, I'll immediately cripple your precious son!"

She was the mother who had given birth to her. She couldn't do anything to her.

However, she really wanted to kill that little bastard. Even in her dreams!

Xue Yun immediately stood up.

Xue Yun hurriedly followed her.

Mu Huan brought her to a remote corner and looked at Xue Yun. "Mom, this is the first and last time. If you come to the school to look for me again and make such a kneeling request, I'll cripple Ling Xiao. Don't doubt the truth of my words!"

"Xiao Huan, how could you do this?! He's your biological brother! I carried him for ten months!"

Mu Huan said coldly, "I've said it before, I don't have a brother!"

"Whether you admit it or not, he has the same blood as you. He's your brother!"

"That's all I have to say. Mom, please go back." With that, Mu Huan turned around to leave.

Xue Yun grabbed her arm tightly and refused to let her go.

"Xiao Huan, your Uncle Ling said that if the Ling family doesn't have the funds to invest, they'll soon go bankrupt! What will Mom do then?! You can't just watch Mom like this..." Xue Yun cried.

"When the time comes, I'll take care of you. You can have a luxurious life if you want!" Mu Huan said.

"This isn't just Mom's problem. Your brother... If the Ling family goes bankrupt, he'll have nothing left..." She knew that Mu Huan would definitely support her and give her the best days, but what about her son?

Even if she would also let her son lead a good life, this wasn't something that could be done as long as he could eat and drink to his heart's content in the future. Her son could have inherited half of the Ling family's assets and had a glorious future. That life wasn't something that could be compared to just having a full stomach.

"If you have a good life, how bad can he be?" Mu Huan really wanted to kill Ling Xiao, but because of Xue Yun, she endured it.

As long as she no longer asked for benefits, if the Ling family collapsed, she wouldn't care if she would take her money to support Ling Xiao in the future.

It was enough for Mu Huan to do this.

Her granny was so important to her, but because of Ling Xiao, she had passed away. Even though Ling Xiao was still young, and it was just a coincidence and an accident...

She really wanted to kill him. At least cripple Ling Xiao!

However, she had not done anything because of Xue Yun. Now, it could even be said that she had promised her that Ling Xiao would have a good life.

However, this was far from enough for Xue Yun.

Her son was a dragon among men. He came from a noble family and was someone who could stand at the top of the pyramid. How could she let him live under someone else's roof and rely on himself to climb up? He might not even be able to climb up for the rest of his life. He had been standing at this height since he was born!

"Xiao Huan, that's your younger brother. Why can't you help him? This isn't a difficult matter. If it weren't for you, Bo Junyan would have taken the initiative to help the Ling family when something like this had happened! Why do you have to make things difficult for me again and again? I'm your mother!"

Chapter 995: Destroy It If You Can't Get It (8)

Back at the Mu family, Matriarch Mu had used the excuse that Xue Yun could not give birth to a son to torture her mentally. At that time, she had tortured her until she became depressed. Naturally, this birth of a son had left a deep impression in her heart.

This made her want to give birth to a son even after she lost her memory. She felt that once she had a son, she would have everything and wouldn't have to suffer anymore.

This subconscious belief made Ling Xiao, her son, especially important to her.

Furthermore, for the past eight years, Ling Xiao was the only child in her world. Hence, her bias was instinctive.

Instinctively, she would not feel that she was biased. No matter how much she did, she would not feel that she was going overboard. In fact, she would even feel that Mu Huan was wrong. Not good. Ling Xiao was her younger brother! Her biological younger brother! No matter what, she could not ignore him! She could not watch him lose everything!

This was especially so for Mu Huan!

In fact, if it weren't for Mu Huan, she wouldn't even need to beg!

Xue Yun had been completely brainwashed by the Ling father and daughter. She felt that all of this was Mu Huan's fault. It was because of Mu Huan that the Bo family and the Ling family had gone further and further apart.

She did not know that, in fact, the two families had not been that close since Bo Junyan broke up with Ling Wei. Otherwise, the Bo family could not have been rising step by step while the Ling family had been going downhill.

Although the Bo and Ling families had often cooperated over the years, it was only a collaboration that could be had with anyone. The Ling family was the most powerful choice.

Businessmen valued profit. Even without Mu Huan, Bo Junyan would not have given the Ling family any benefits for nothing. If something happened to the Ling family, Bo Junyan would definitely take action, but he would definitely have to have a return on investment and would not give the Ling family anything for nothing.

However, what Ling Feng wanted Xue Yun to ask for now was something for nothing. He wanted Bo Junyan to give the Ling family so much benefits for nothing.

How could it be possible for Mu Huan to give the Ling family such benefits time and time again for nothing? Furthermore, what she really hoped for was that the Ling family would collapse.

"He's not my brother. It can be said that he killed my granny! I can't wait for something to happen to him. You want me to do it for his own good? How is that possible?! Don't even think about it! It's still the same thing. Other than if you need me to support you, don't come looking for me again!

"That's not right. This time, I'll add that if you come looking for me again, I'll hurt Ling Xiao once. Do you want him to break his arm or his leg first?"

"You..." Xue Yun did not expect her to be so ruthless and heartless.

She was already begging her like this.

"Mom, please go back. Take care, I won't send you off." With that, Mu Huan turned around and left.

Xue Yun did not dare to chase after her, afraid that she would really hurt Ling Xiao.

Xue Yun, who did not dare to chase after her and did not know how to explain herself, squatted down and started crying.

Just as she thought that she might as well die like this...

A gentle hand rested on her shoulder.

Xue Yun looked up and met Ling Wei's concerned eyes. Ling Wei had never looked at her with such concern. This stunned her for a moment.

"Auntie Xue, has Xiao Huan not agreed yet?"

"Ling Wei, I don't know. I really don't know what else I can do. I've already knelt down to her, but she still rejected me. I really don't know what else I can do..." Xue Yun broke down.

“She’s too heartless! Since she doesn’t care about her biological mother, then don’t beg her anymore. We’ll rely on ourselves!” Ling Wei said angrily.

Xue Yun looked at her, not knowing what she meant.

How could she rely on herself? Wasn’t she unable to pull in investments…?

Chapter 996: Who Ambushed Them (1)

Even though everyone in the class was curious as to why Mu Huan’s mother had to kneel down and beg her, Mu Huan’s dominance made it so that no one dared to ask her. Even if they secretly discussed it behind her back, they would only dare to whisper. Hence, although news of Xue Yun coming to the class to kneel down and beg Mu Huan had spread, it did not cause much of an impact.

On the night of the end-of-term examinations, Mu Huan’s class organized a meal at a theme restaurant in the eastern suburbs.

This restaurant was built very novel. They ate in a huge glass greenhouse. It was snowing outside, yet it was as warm as spring inside. Flowers were blooming, and the environment was excellent.

“Class monitor, where did you find this restaurant? It’s amazing!” The students in the class praised the class monitor for finding a good place.

“I found it online. This restaurant has quickly climbed to the top of the rankings!”

“This place is really not bad. It’s like a utopia. Other than being far from the city, there’s nothing wrong with it.” Li Meng looked at the snow outside the window and said, “But if we were to drive in the city, there wouldn’t be such an environment.”

“Yes.” Mu Huan nodded. “The food here is delicious.”

“Yes, especially this beef. It’s simply too delicious!”

“Come, Little Star, have some plum wine. This plum wine is very good.” Long Feiting held a cup for Mu Huan to drink.

Mu Huan had told Long Feiting many times not to call her Star, but he would still call her that. She couldn’t be bothered to stop him.

“I don’t drink.”

“Then who was the one who drank so much last time and danced so wildly?” the classmate sitting next to Mu Huan teased.

Mu Huan: “…”

That’s why she stopped drinking.

The environment was good, the dishes were good, and everyone was young. They were in the same class, so when they played, they were especially open. The gathering lasted until ten at night.

Mu Huan received a message from Bo Junyan saying that he would be home in a while and wanted to go back. Li Meng still wanted to play, so she asked Wu Xingye to pick Li Meng up later and she went back first.

Since she had left, there was no point in Long Feiting staying here. Hence, he left with her. When they were outside the restaurant and on the way to the car, he called out to Mu Huan.

“Little Star, I’ve been drinking. Take me back.” Long Feiting tried all sorts of reasons to spend more time with Mu Huan.

“Get your chauffeur here,” Mu Huan said.

“If I call someone over, I’d still have to wait. I want to go back now.”

“This restaurant has a chauffeur service. It’s the restaurant’s own car. You don’t have to wait.”

“I’m scared. I’m so rich. What if the driver kills me while I’m drunk?” Long Feiting’s face was full of fear.

Mu Huan: “...”

“Star...”

Just as Long Feiting was about to say something...

Mu Huan suddenly turned sideways. In the next second, something whooshed from where she was standing and hit the car, creating a hole!

When Long Feiting saw clearly what had hit the car, he shouted in shock, “F*ck! It’s a real bullet!”

“Get in the car!” Mu Huan said as she opened the car door.

But at this moment, another shot was fired.

She hurriedly hid behind another car.

Long Feiting dodged as well. “Is there really someone who wants to take my money and kill me?”

As soon as he said that, Mu Huan felt a tremor on the top of her head. She hurriedly hugged her head. Then, the glass on the car window above her shattered with a loud sound, and many small pieces of glass fell.

Long Feiting, who did not have time to cover his head, was hit so hard that his head hurt.

Chapter 997: Who Ambushed Them (2)

“If the other party wants your money and your life, get out quickly. Don’t implicate me.” Mu Huan wanted to take out her phone to call 110 before calling Bo Junyan.

If a group of people surrounded her to deal with her, she wouldn’t be afraid. But this was a real gun and a real bullet! And it was a distant attack!

They didn’t know where the enemy was hiding, so they couldn’t even find someone to fight. If they were careless, they would really be finished!

Long Feiting: "..."

Her words were straightforward.

Just as he was about to say something...

"F*ck! My phone is missing. Where's your phone?" Mu Huan searched her pockets but could not find her phone.

Long Feiting instinctively reached into his pocket, but he did not manage to reach for his phone. Suddenly, he thought of something. "I saw you leaving and was in a hurry to catch up with you. I think I forgot to take the phone on the table."

Mu Huan: "...!!"

Suddenly, she realized that he still had an emergency weapon. "Quick, use your watch to contact the reinforcements!"

"I've already pressed it."

"Then let's..." Just as Mu Huan was about to say, "Let's just hide here and wait for reinforcements," she heard footsteps approaching them.

She suddenly had a bad feeling.

If this group of people was in cahoots with the person shooting at them in the dark, and they got into close combat, coupled with the long-range attack from the sniper, her life would definitely end here today.

She quickly scanned her surroundings and whispered, "Let's run into that forest later!"

There were many trees in the forest, and there were many things to hide behind. When the time came, those who attacked from close range could be killed, and those who attacked from afar could be dodged.

Long Feiting understood what she meant and nodded.

Mu Huan thought about it and said, "But I don't think this is someone who's plotting against you for your money and your life. They might want my life. Hence, if there's a chance later, I'll lure them away. You run into the restaurant!"

Their target wasn't him. His chances of survival were higher if he ran to the restaurant.

"When did you see anyone who witnessed a murder scene not being pursued?" He would not leave her alone!

Mu Huan thought about it and agreed. Since the other party dared to snipe her so boldly, what else could he not do?

It would be even more dangerous for him to run to the restaurant by himself.

However, she had not done anything in the past half a year. Why would anyone want to assassinate her?

How dare he use such a method to assassinate her?!

When the footsteps got closer and Mu Huan saw what those people were wearing under the car, she said, "I'll count to three. Run into the forest with me. Use your fastest speed and bend down to run. Don't be slow! If you're slow now, you'll really die!"

"Yes," Long Feiting replied.

When Mu Huan counted to three, the two of them stood up at the same time and rushed toward the forest.

At this moment, the people who were surrounding them had also arrived at the place where they were hiding.

The people surrounding them were all tall men.

Mu Huan was much lower than them, and Long Feiting was bending over, so he was also much lower. Hence, the people surrounding them became their best barrier at this moment. It made it difficult for the people hiding in the dark to aim.

It allowed them to run into the forest more smoothly.

When he ran into the forest and turned around to see the people chasing after him, he realized why Mu Huan had asked him to run with his back bent.

"You don't even have combat experience, so how do you know so much?" he asked as he hid behind a big tree to rest.

"Isn't this common sense?" Mu Huan had a look on her face. It's not that I know too much, you're just stupid.

Chapter 998: I Like Only You (1)

Long Feiting: "..."

"It's fine, Long Xiaobao[1]. It's not your fault. You were just too well protected." Mu Huan reached out and patted his shoulder.

Long Feiting: "..."

Long Xiaobao...

Sensing the approaching footsteps, Mu Huan took out a spray bottle from her pocket. "Use this spray to protect yourself. It can be instantly fatal, so don't hesitate. You have to be ruthless. This siege can really kill you."

"Yes." Long Feiting felt it too.

"Alright."

Just then, a small animal came out of nowhere and was killed in the next second.

Mu Huan: "..."

Long Feiting: "..."

The two of them were shocked. They had never encountered such a situation before.

Long Feiting had been well protected, and Mu Huan used to live in an ordinary circle. She had never even seen a fight like this, let alone encountered such a situation herself...

Mu Huan closed her eyes and thought about it carefully. When she drove here and saw the map of the area, she thought that the gate was in that direction. If they ran there, the chances of them surviving would be higher.

Suddenly, Long Feiting grabbed her arm tightly.

Mu Huan opened her eyes and looked at him. "Are you afraid?"

"No, I'm just excited." He could live and die with her.

Mu Huan: "..."

Why was he so excited?

Long Feiting was about to say something when he heard footsteps approaching them. He immediately shut up.

In the darkness, their breathing became careful.

Because the other party had weapons in their hands and the two didn't know how many people there were, they didn't dare to attack rashly. They could only hide and wait for people to approach before quietly killing the other party.

Mu Huan heard footsteps. There were at least three people surrounding them.

After she discussed the battle plan with Long Feiting, the two of them held their breaths and waited for the other party to approach.

Although the two of them had successfully killed those three people at the start of the match, their actions had exposed their hiding place and attracted even more people.

These people were all professional killers. They were ruthless and vicious.

Mu Huan did not want to continue fighting. She ran with Long Feiting in a sorry state. Furthermore, there were many people on the other side. It was impossible to guard against them.

Suddenly, Long Feiting used his body to protect her and grunted.

"Long Feiting!" The moment she turned to look, Long Feiting fell toward her. Mu Huan hurriedly supported him. "Where are you hurt?"

"Don't worry about me. Hurry up and run..." Long Feiting pushed her away forcefully, urging her to run. He couldn't run at all now. If she brought him along, she would only end up like him.

Although Mu Huan had a vicious tongue, she would not leave Long Feiting alone as long as there was a glimmer of hope. Furthermore, he was injured because he had saved her. She did not say anything else and carried Long Feiting to hide in a dry bush at a low altitude.

“We won’t be able to hide here for long. Hurry... Hurry up and leave...” Long Feiting pushed her away.

“Where are you hurt?” Mu Huan said as she searched his body. When she touched the sticky blood, she traced around the blood and confirmed his injury.

It wasn’t a vital point.

However, he had lost a lot of blood. It wouldn’t do if he took too long.

“Hurry up and leave...” Long Feiting urged her to leave.

“Stop talking nonsense. Save your energy. I’ll leave when it’s time to leave.” Mu Huan used the things she had on her to stop the bleeding.

Right now, he could only stall for another minute.

It was just like last time. If there was enough time, there might be a new chance.

Chapter 999: I Like Only You (2)

Although the situation now was completely different from last time.

Last time, those people seemed to want her life, but later on, when she thought about it, they did not go all out. And today, these people clearly wanted their lives.

Just as Long Feiting was about to say something...

Suddenly, they heard many footsteps approaching them.

Instantly, his and Mu Huan’s nerves tensed up. With so many footsteps, it meant that there were many people. Furthermore, they had weapons in their hands and were masked, so they didn’t need to be wary of the spray. Under such circumstances, they...

This meant that they had reached a dead end.

Long Feiting did not let Mu Huan leave again because the footsteps were already so close. If she ran out, she would only die.

“Star, do you think we’re going to die here tonight?”

“That’s possible.” If there was no rescue, the two of them would really die here.

“Are you afraid?” Long Feiting looked at Mu Huan.

In the darkness, he seemed to have returned to the past. When he was tied up in the dark basement, her eyes were still shining like before.

Looking at these eyes that overlapped with his memory, Long Feiting felt that he was really blind in the beginning. This was clearly the same pair of eyes, but he actually did not recognize her and felt that Mu Kexin, that imposter, was his Little Star!

He couldn't think about it. If he thought about it, he'd really want to stab himself.

But now, even if he didn't stab himself, he was probably finished.

"I'm not afraid. I just don't want to die." No matter what, Mu Huan wanted to live, especially now.

"If I die, my husband will feel terrible..."

The corners of Long Feiting's lips twitched as he instinctively said, "He won't feel very upset. He'll forget about you very quickly and find an even younger and prettier young lady."

Mu Huan: "..."

If it weren't for the fact that they might really die, she really wanted to kill him!

What are you saying?!

"Star..." Long Feiting suddenly grabbed Mu Huan's hand with a serious expression.

Mu Huan wanted to retract her hand, but when she saw him looking like he was about to say his last words, she couldn't bear to.

"Star, I've been looking for you all these years. I really want to give you all the best things in the world. I really want to treat you well for the rest of my life..." He knew that it wasn't appropriate for him to say these things, but he was about to die. If he didn't say it now, he wouldn't have the chance to say it again in the future.

He wanted her to know how much he liked her, how much he had missed her all these years, and how important she was to him. He could die without regrets.

"Star, you're the most important existence in my heart. I miss you every day and dream about you. Finding you and treating you well is the only goal in my life. It gave me meaning.

"Actually, even if it wasn't because of what happened in the past, even when I thought that Mu Kexin was you, I already liked you. I couldn't help liking you..."

He could not control his love for her. Even though he knew that he could not do it, and he had told himself every day that she was someone he wanted to torture to death, he still could not control himself.

Even though he kept shouting that he wanted to torture her to death, he had never been ruthless to her and was always at a disadvantage in her hands.

In the past, he did not know why he could not control himself despite Mu Kexin clearly liking him.

Later on, when he found out that she was his Little Star, he realized why.

Because she was his Little Star. Even if he did not recognize her identity, he liked only her.

Mu Huan: "..."

Right at this moment, they felt that the people had already arrived above them. They were just a foot away. They might close their eyes forever in the next second.

Accidents always came faster than tomorrow.

Chapter 1000: You Can't Even Die Without Regrets (1)

"Star, with you by my side, I can die without regrets." Long Feiting held her hand tightly.

He had already said the words in his heart. He had no regrets if he could hold her hand as he left this world.

When Mu Huan saw him like this, she really wanted to rush out and kill everyone and create a bloody path for him. However, those people had weapons in their hands. This wasn't a blood path that she could create just by fighting. Once she went out, she would probably instantly become a beehive. Not only would she die for nothing, but she would also expose his position. The two of them wouldn't be able to delay for even half a minute.

But if she didn't go out, the feeling of powerlessness and despair of waiting for death made her want to explode!

"No, Star, kiss me. If you kiss me, I'll die without regrets..." She was the only girlfriend he wanted to have. She was the person he wanted to treat well for the rest of his life. If she could kiss him, not only would he die without regrets, but he would also die happily.

Mu Huan broke out in a cold sweat and was about to say something.

Suddenly, a cold voice rang above their heads. "Since you want to die so much, I'll send you on your way."

That familiar voice made Mu Huan look up in shock.

Then, she saw her husband standing there like a god had suddenly descended.

It was no exaggeration for her to use such an adjective. Just as she was about to explode from the despair and powerlessness, her husband's sudden appearance was really like a god who had suddenly descended to save people from suffering.

She was stunned by what she saw. When she snapped back to her senses, she immediately retracted her hand in excitement. She stood up and pounced on Bo Junyan. "Hubby! Hubby...!"

It was great to see her husband now!

He was her god! An eternal god!

Bo Junyan's bloodthirsty coldness disappeared when Mu Huan threw herself into his embrace. All that was left was gentleness and faint fear.

"I'm sorry I'm late." He lowered his head and hugged her tightly, kissing her.

No one knew how scared he was along the way.

Even though his wife was very good at fighting, this was not a situation where she could be safe just because she was good at fighting.

Fortunately... fortunately, she was fine...

“You’re not late. Hubby, you’re just in time.” Mu Huan hugged him tightly.

It was great that she could hug her husband like this!

Mu Huan had always felt that nothing was better than living.

Long Feiting looked at the two of them hugging each other tightly. “...”

He couldn’t even die without regrets... Seriously...

At the thought of something, Mu Huan let go of Bo Junyan and hurriedly said, “Long Feiting was injured in order to save me. Hurry up and...”

Before she could finish speaking, she saw that Long Feilei had already gotten someone to carry Long Feiting to a stretcher.

Then, she said, “His organs weren’t injured, but he lost a lot of blood.”

Long Feilei looked at Mu Huan with a complex expression.

Why did she get married so early?

His little brother loved her so much but couldn’t get her. He could have died without regrets if she kissed him, but he couldn’t even get that...

Seriously!

The members of the Long family had a special group pet they doted on, Long Feiting. And Long Feilei doted on his younger brother even more. He knew how much Long Feiting thought and liked his Star.

His heart ached.

It really ached.

As Mu Huan left, she looked at the people on the ground and suddenly felt a lingering fear.

This was the first time in her life that she had seen such a scene. This scene was even more bloody than those martial arts movies.

Sensing her fear, Bo Junyan picked her up and buried her head in his embrace so that she wouldn’t have to look at those things.
