

Fall for You 1015

Chapter 1015

"I'm going to find him right now! If he dares to notarize, I'll sue immediately!"

After speaking, Mallory angrily got up and left.

Kiley hurriedly chased after her, "Mom, I'm going with you, Dad was too much this time!"

After the mother and daughter arrived at the Schneider Group building, they ignored the reception desk and went straight to the top floor.

Lewis saw Kiley and Mallory, his face changed, and he quickly stepped forward to stop them.

"Madam, Miss, Mr. Schneider was conducting business."

Mallory pushed him away, sneering, "Get lost!"

She took a few steps to the office door, pushed it open directly, and what came into view was the scene of Sabina sitting comfortably on the sofa, with Zane serving her tea and water on the side.

Hearing the sound of the door opening, both of them simultaneously looked towards the doorway.

Upon seeing Mallory and Kiley, Zane's face changed dramatically, and he immediately frowned, "What are you guys here for?!"

Mallory's expression was icy, "I came to see how you gave away the shares of the Schneider Group!"

A flash of shock passed through Zane's eyes, "How did you know?! No... Don't talk nonsense! When did I ever plan to give away my shares in the Schneider Group?!"

Mallory walked straight over and sat down across from Sabina. Seeing Sabina's provocative expression, Mallory's gaze suddenly fell on her stomach.

"I heard you're pregnant, you need to be careful, after all, you're not young anymore. Don't accidentally lose it."

Sabina raised an eyebrow and chuckled, patting her belly as she said, "Don't worry, the child in my belly is protected by Zane. It won't be like some people, even if they are bedridden, they can't keep the child in their belly!"

Mallory's face contorted, wishing she could immediately rush forward and tear Sabina's face apart.

This scoundrel!

Zane's face also turned cold, his gaze towards Mallory filled with caution and wariness.

"Mallory, Sabina is carrying my child, and it's a son. If you dare to harm her, I will never forgive you!"

Watching her own husband threaten her for another woman, Mallory could only find it laughable. All these years, it was as if she had been feeding a dog!

“Don’t worry, I have no interest in whether that child is born or not. I came today just to tell you that I own half of your shares in the Schneider Group. If you dare to give away your shares, I can sue to get them back, with interest!”

Zane gritted his teeth, angrily saying, “Why should you have half? All these years you’ve done nothing, just comfortably staying at home playing the lady of leisure. These shares are all obtained through my own efforts, they have nothing to do with you!”

Mallory laughed, “Whether I have a job or not, half of your property after marriage is mine. If you really want to give half of the shares under your name to Sabina, we can divorce now. I’ll take away the half that should be divided to me, and you can do whatever you want with the rest.”

“Impossible!”

Mallory looked at him coldly, her expression mocking, “It seems like you want your mistress to have your child and also take advantage of me. You really have some nerve!”

Never having been mocked by Mallory like this before, Zane’s face turned from pale to green with anger, and he retorted, “I will never agree to a divorce!”

Once divorced, it would not only impact the image of the Schneider Group, but if his shares were to be taken away by Mallory, those shareholders would no longer allow him to continue as the president of the Schneider Group!

“Since you don’t want a divorce, then behave yourself. I don’t care how you mess around outside, even if you get someone killed, it’s none of my business. But the Schneider Group, it belongs to my daughter Kiley. If you dare to use it to please those cheap women outside, even if it means falling out, I will make you pay!”
