

Fall for You 1081

Chapter 1081

"Dad, no, this matter..."

Before I could finish speaking, the person on the other end had already hung up the phone.

Aurora curled up on the sofa, her heart filled with fear. Was she going to relive that painful experience from the past again?!

She slammed her phone onto the ground, gritting her teeth and said, "Sabrina, you bitch! Even in death, you won't let me be at peace! You deserve to go to the deepest level of hell!"

On the other side, the Fredrick Group's meeting room.

After hanging up the phone, Benjamin signaled the shareholders to continue the meeting. However, it didn't take long for him to notice that the way the shareholders looked at him was noticeably different from before.

He furrowed his brows, coldly saying, "What's going on?! If you have something to say, just say it, don't beat around the bush!"

"Mr. Fredrick, you should just watch the news yourself."

Benjamin looked at the secretary and said coldly, "What news?"

The secretary hesitated for two seconds before carefully handing the tablet to Benjamin.

Upon seeing the words "Aurora school bullying", a flash of anger flickered in Benjamin's eyes. He said coldly, "This is all nonsense! How could my daughter possibly do such a thing!"

However, his words had no credibility at all, and even the shareholders below had already begun to feel dissatisfied with him.

"Mr. Fredrick, regardless of whether the matter is true or not, it has already affected the image of the Fredrick Group. Mr. Fredrick, it would be best to handle this as soon as possible!"

"If Mr. Fredrick had listened to us in the first place and hadn't let Ms. Fredrick join the Fredrick Group, the company wouldn't be affected now!"

"Enough, stop talking. Ms. Fredrick might get into legal trouble this time. Don't make things worse for Mr. Fredrick now!"

Listening to the shareholders' clamorous discussions, a cold glint flashed in Benjamin's eyes. He slammed the table fiercely and gritted his teeth, "Shut up, all of you! Meeting adjourned!"

After speaking, he immediately stood up and quickly left the conference room.

After returning to the office, he immediately dialed Aurora's number, but after several attempts, it was always turned off.

Benjamin's face was cold as he said to his secretary, "Call the Public Relations Manager over!"

Soon, the Public Relations Department Manager came over.

Benjamin spoke with an icy demeanor, "Immediately clarify online that the student's suicide has absolutely nothing to do with my daughter, and also send out the final case statement from the police station at the time. Arrange a group of internet trolls to suppress any comments that are unfavorable to her and the Fredrick Group!"

"Alright, Mr. Fredrick!"

After the PR manager left, Benjamin still felt that something was fishy and immediately made a phone call.

"Go find out who started that trending topic tonight, we must expose the puppet master behind the scenes! Also, make a trip to the Qiu family, they must be made to keep their mouths shut!"

After finishing these, Benjamin no longer had the mood to work and immediately got up and went home.

As soon as I entered the villa, the servant hurriedly approached.

"Sir, the young lady has been locked in her room for over an hour. We knocked but there was no response, and we heard several things being thrown around just now..."

Benjamin's expression was gloomy, "I understand, you go rest first."

After speaking, Benjamin went straight upstairs to Aurora's door, knocked, and said with suppressed anger, "Aurora, come out, I have something to tell you!"

Chapter 1082

After quite a while, the door to Aurora's room finally opened.

With swollen eyes and a look of grievance on her face, she looked at Benjamin, "Dad, I don't know who on the internet..."

"Shut up!"

Before the words were even finished, they were coldly interrupted by Benjamin.

“How dare you speak, do you know, because of you, I was just ridiculed by the company’s shareholders! You better stay at home for the recent period, and wait until the heat of this matter dies down before you go out!”

A look of shock flashed in Aurora’s eyes, she gritted her teeth and said, “But doesn’t that just prove that I’m guilty?! And what would Maxim think of me?! I have to go to work as usual at this time!”

Benjamin’s expression was icy cold, “We haven’t figured out who’s causing trouble behind the scenes yet. If you show up in front of everyone, you’ll only become a target!”

“Do I need to investigate further?! It must be those two bitches, Briana Cameron and Astrid. They must still hold a grudge against me for drugging them back then, so they dug up this incident to plot against me!”

“If it weren’t for your stupidity, we wouldn’t be in this situation today. Anyway, you better stay at home until I allow you to leave. If you cause any more trouble, don’t blame me for disregarding our father–daughter relationship!”

Meeting Benjamin’s cold gaze, disbelief filled Aurora’s eyes.

“Dad, don’t forget, I am now Maxim’s fiancée, and Maxim is going to take over the Vanderberg Group in the future! If you treat me like this now, I won’t let the Vanderberg Group help the Fredrick Group in the future... Ah!”

Benjamin slapped Aurora hard, angrily saying, “You dare to threaten me? Do you think that old fox Cosmo would give you a second glance without the Fredrick Group? Stay put!”

After speaking, Benjamin turned around and left directly, not caring about Aurora’s reaction.

Aurora slammed the door with a “bang” and squatted on the ground, starting to cry..

Briana Cameron and Astrid, these two bitches, she wouldn’t let either of them off the hook!

the Cameron family.

Briana Cameron was preparing to go to sleep when she received a call from Astrid.

“Briana, was it you who spread the news about Aurora bullying others?”

A flicker of confusion passed through Briana Cameron’s eyes, “Bullying? I was planning to release those things tomorrow morning, what happened now?”

“Wasn’t it you?” Astrid’s tone was full of confusion, “If not you, then who else? When I was calling you, I was thinking, I didn’t even investigate the bullying incident as thoroughly as you did, how did you find out...”

Listening to Astrid's words, a name surfaced in Briana Cameron's mind.

However, she quickly denied it.

If Maxim really cared about her, he wouldn't have gotten engaged to Aurora, let alone bailed someone out at the police station. It couldn't have been him.

"It could have been my third brother. I'll give him a call to ask, and also check on the matter online."

"Um, let me know if there's any news at any time."

Astrid's voice revealed pleasure, she was happy whenever she saw Aurora having bad luck, no matter who it was.

After hanging up the phone, Briana Cameron first checked the trending topics to understand the ins and outs, and then immediately called Thomas.

"Bro, did you do the thing with Aurora?"

"I was just about to call you to see if it was you! Things have been moving too fast, someone must be fueling the situation behind the scenes."

Chapter 1083

Briana Cameron pursed her lips, "I can't think of anyone else but you."

Thomas was silent for a few seconds, then suddenly said, "It's possible that Aurora staged this whole thing herself. First, she created this trending topic to have everyone criticize her, then she presented evidence to prove her innocence. In this way, she could even use this incident to clear her name."

Hearing this, Briana Cameron also thought so, and said coldly, "I will look into this matter again. If she is staging this herself, I will definitely expose her true face!"

"Um, I would also join in the search."

After ending the call with Thomas, Briana Cameron immediately dialed another number.

"Go check who released the trending search for Aurora!"

On the other side, the President's office of the Yoder Group.

Maxim looked at the trending topics online with a cold expression. Seeing that the trend had dropped to more than twenty, his eyes were full of chill.

It seemed that the Fredrick family had started to make their move.

However, the things Aurora did were not just this one. Even if this matter was public relations now, the next hot search would soon appear.

A cold smirk slowly formed at the corner of his lips. Dare to scheme against Briana Cameron, this is the consequence!

Several minutes later, another hot search about Aurora suddenly dropped to number one!

Shocking! Aurora University once stole someone else's boyfriend and even forced the other party to drop out of school!

As soon as this trending topic appeared, it immediately caused a sensation. Many netizens who had just seen the trending topic rushed over and began to comment wildly under this topic.

"Tonight was truly an eye-opener, Aurora was just too disgusting. Just because she's the daughter of the President of the Fredrick Group, she can do whatever she wants?!"

"Hehe, I will never buy any products from the Fredrick Group again in the future. Such a rubbish company should go bankrupt!"

"This woman's deeds were simply those of a petty girl. Such a person even entered the Fredrick Group and became the branch manager, and even packaged herself as a rich and talented second-generation rich, purely disgusting!"

Online, a torrent of abuse was directed at Aurora, and the comments under the official Twitter of the Fredrick Group were also full of criticism. Left with no choice, the Fredrick Group had to shut down the comment function.

The shareholders' opinions grew even stronger, they all called Benjamin, demanding that he expel Aurora from the Fredrick Group.

"Mr. Fredrick, if you insist on making your daughter the general manager, then I will have to sell my shares!"

"The Fredrick Group isn't your personal property! If you don't care about us, we won't care about the Fredrick Group anymore!"

"Aurora had no real ability to begin with, and the subsidiary she was given to manage was on the brink of bankruptcy under her leadership. It has always been the Fredrick Group that has been subsidizing it. Now with this scandal, it will only drag the Fredrick Group down in the future. If you, Mr. Fredrick, still want to protect your daughter, I won't vote for you in the next board meeting!"

Amidst the shareholders' curses, Benjamin, however reluctant, knew that firing Aurora was the best choice at that moment.

He took a deep breath and slowly said, "Alright, I agree to fire Aurora!"

Seeing those comments online, Aurora was also scared. She always felt that things had started to get out of control. If it continued like this, all the things she had done before would be exposed, and then she would be finished. There would be no place for her in the country anymore!

She hastily got up to look for Benjamin in the study, but as soon as she entered, Benjamin slapped her.

“You fool, I told you before, to keep a low profile when you do things, otherwise there might be trouble in the future. And what happened? The Fredrick Group was almost ruined by you!”

At that moment, Aurora couldn't care less about the pain. She quickly grabbed Benjamin's hand, “Dad, I know I was wrong. You have to save me this time! Otherwise, I'm really done for!”

Chapter 1084

Benjamin coldly pushed her away, saying icily, “Now the shareholders of the Fredrick Group all have complaints about you. They have just unanimously decided to fire you. From now on, you have absolutely no connection with the Fredrick Group!”

A look of disbelief flashed in Aurora's eyes, and she unconsciously took a step back.

“Dad... why... are you also giving up on me?”

Benjamin furrowed his brow, about to speak, when his phone suddenly rang.

After the connection was made, whatever was said on the other end made his face turn incredibly unpleasant.

“I knew.”

After hanging up the phone, he turned to Aurora and said coldly, “Do you know who leaked these things behind our backs?!”

Meeting Benjamin's cold gaze, Aurora was taken aback, “Who?”

“It was Maxim!”

“What?! Impossible! How could it be possible...”

Looking at the pain and despair on Aurora's face, Benjamin sneered, “Even if you don't believe it, it's useless. My people found out that he did it. I told you before, not to be with him, but you insisted. Now, you've brought this on yourself!”

Aurora lowered her head, her eyes filled with pain and sorrow. She had thought it was Briana Cameron who was harming her from behind, but it turned out to be her own fiancé.

It was bad enough that he had no feelings for her, but to treat her this way for that wretch Briana Cameron!

Thinking of this, hatred welled up in Aurora's eyes.

The more she had loved Maxim, the more she now hated him!

Seeing her face contorted, Benjamin said coldly, "Enough! The most important thing now is to suppress this matter. Apart from Cosmo, no one else can help you!"

Aurora's face stiffened, and after a while, she finally spoke: "Alright, I'll go find Cosmo right away!"

An hour later, as Maxim was about to release the third trending topic, the office door was suddenly pushed open.

He looked up with a cold expression, seeing Cosmo walking towards him with a face full of anger. His emotions didn't change in the slightest, he even found time to press the space bar.

The third trending topic instantly topped the list.

#Aurora, the daughter of the President of the Fredrick Group, was suspected of blackmail and extortion#

"Maxim, have you gone mad?!"

After standing firm in front of the table, Cosmo glared at him with a face full of anger, his eyes filled with fury.

Maxim's expression was indifferent as he raised an eyebrow, "Mr. Vanderberg, what brings you here so late?"

"Don't play dumb, Aurora is your fiancée. You treated her this way just for a Briana Cameron. Her ruined reputation won't do you any good, you will definitely regret it!"

"What did her reputation have to do with me? Even if I had married her, I wouldn't have developed any feelings for her."

"You!"

Cosmo abruptly raised his hand to slap Maxim, but upon meeting Maxim's icy gaze, his hand froze mid-air.

Maxim's current expression was almost identical to his when he was young.

Back then, he was so stubborn and wouldn't listen to others, which offended many people. Later, when he was rising with the Vanderberg Group, he also encountered many hardships.

If he didn't regret it, he thought he wouldn't regret it, it's just... he didn't want his son to follow in his footsteps.

"Maxim, what the Fredrick family can offer you is something Briana Cameron could never achieve in her lifetime. Why won't you just be with Aurora? Everything I do, I do for your own good!"

"Was it for my own good? You were merely imposing your own thoughts on me. If possible, I would rather not be your son!"

Chapter 1085

Cosmo took a deep breath and didn't continue to argue with him about this matter.

"Stop what you're doing to Aurora immediately, or Briana Cameron will be the one to suffer!"

Maxim sneered, "Trying to threaten me with the antidote again?"

Cosmo's expression was icy, "Of course not, I just have some things on the Cameron family. If those things were to get out, the Cameron family would be finished."

"What was the relationship between the Cameron family and me?"

"It indeed had nothing to do with you, but if the Cameron family were gone, wouldn't life be tough for Briana Cameron? If she found out in the future that you ruined the Cameron family out of revenge for her, would she hate you even more?"

Without a doubt, every word from Cosmo hit Maxim's Achilles' heel.

He didn't care about the Cameron family, but he cared about Briana Cameron.

The temperature in the office dropped rapidly, and Maxim became incredibly cold all over.

After a long while, he sneered, "I won't deal with Aurora anymore, but I have something to tell you, you really are, not fit to be a father!"

Cosmo's face changed, and he immediately retorted angrily, "It's not your place to judge whether I'm fit or not. When you become a father, you'll understand my good intentions!"

After speaking, he didn't look at Maxim's reaction again, he turned around and left directly.

Just as he reached the door, Maxim's cold voice came from behind.

"Regardless, I would not force my child to make life-changing decisions!"

Cosmo's steps faltered for a moment, then he quickly walked away.

Upon leaving the Yoder Group, Cosmo immediately called Benjamin.

"Maxim had already promised not to hurt Aurora anymore, you handle the follow-up."

The confrontation with Maxim just now left him feeling somewhat weary.

When he knew he had a child with Blanche, he intended to treat Maxim well, but the distance between them was growing further and further.

If Maxim had obeyed, he wouldn't be so headache now.

"If Maxim had done anything to harm the interests of the Fredrick Group again, I wouldn't have let it go so easily!"

Upon hearing this, Cosmo's face changed, his voice becoming icy cold, "Benjamin, this all boils down to Aurora's past reckless behavior, and your failure to manage her. I will go to Maxim, but that doesn't mean I agree that Aurora is blameless. I just don't want these two young people to become a pair of resentful partners. If you don't want to continue with this marriage arrangement, I can find someone else at any time."

After all, Haseton was full of socialites. Even if it wasn't Aurora, he could find another woman of comparable family background for Maxim.

After speaking, Cosmo immediately hung up the phone.

It seemed that the Vanderberg Group had given the Fredrick Group too many benefits recently, which made Benjamin lose sight of himself, thinking he could yell at him at will.

Benjamin was hung up on, angrily slamming his phone on the table, his eyes full of coldness.

After a good while, he finally calmed down, dialed the PR manager's number, and said coldly, "Suppress all the trending topics! I don't want to hear anyone discussing this matter when I come to work tomorrow!"

Aurora's popularity on the trending list came and went quickly. By the next morning, the name Aurora had completely disappeared from the list.

After getting up, Briana Cameron saw that the trending topic had disappeared without a trace, and there was not the slightest surprise in her eyes.

After all, the Fredrick Group was considered one of the top companies in Haseton. If they couldn't even remove a few trending searches, they wouldn't be called the Fredrick Group.

"Buzz, buzz, buzz!"

Seeing the incoming call number, her eyes flickered and she answered directly.

"Well? Have you figured out who was pulling the strings behind this?"

Chapter 1086

"Um, it's been confirmed, the person behind this incident was Maxim, the president of the Yoder Group."

Briana Cameron's hand unconsciously tightened around her phone, and after a good while, she murmured, "Okay, I understand. Thank you for your hard work."

After hanging up the phone, Briana Cameron remained silent for a while before she began packing for her business trip.

She was just about to leave when she received a call from Elliot.

“Ms. Cameron, I came to pick you up, you sent me the address.”

After sending the address to Elliot, Briana Cameron just sat on the living room couch, lost in thought.

She couldn’t understand. Maxim had already been engaged to Aurora, so why did he expose what Aurora had done in the past on the internet, especially at this point in time?

Was it to take revenge for her?

Briana Cameron took a deep breath, suppressing the unrealistic thoughts in her mind.

If Maxim truly loved her, he wouldn’t have gotten engaged to Aurora. She couldn’t keep deluding herself, or the only one who would get hurt would be herself.

Soon, Elliot had arrived.

After getting in the car, Elliot looked at her with a probing expression, “Ms. Cameron, is there something on your mind?”

Briana Cameron hesitated for a moment before saying, “No, why would you ask that?”

“Because I noticed you were distracted ever since you got on the car, and your face was somewhat pale.”

Briana Cameron pursed her lips, lowering her head and said, “Probably didn’t sleep well last night.”

“Then you could have taken a rest now, it was probably still more than an hour to the airport.”

Elliot chuckled, “As you wish.”

Briana Cameron picked up the document and began to read. This time, their main purpose of going to North Town was to inspect the fabric and clothing factories there, as well as the popular clothing design styles. They were to submit a research report to the headquarters, which would then evaluate whether or not to expand into North Town.

After the two people arrived at the airport and passed the security check, they found a spot in front of the check-in counter and sat down.

Briana Cameron closed her eyes, pretending to sleep, intending to rest for a while, but she didn’t feel sleepy at all. The image of Maxim kept appearing in her mind.

Why on earth did he do that?!

No matter what, it couldn’t have been because of her.

Thinking back to his indifference towards her at his engagement party with Aurora, Briana Cameron’s heart gradually turned cold.

Whatever reason he had for dealing with Aurora had absolutely nothing to do with her, and she should no longer flatter herself.

Soon, it was time for the two of them to board the plane. After getting on the plane, Briana Cameron was about to turn off her phone when she received a call from Astrid.

“Briana, did you know? I heard that Aurora went to the Yoder Group today and had a big argument with Maxim!”

Briana Cameron fell silent for two seconds, then murmured, “Probably because the trending topic last night was done by Maxim.”

“What?! Is that true or false? Has Maxim gone mad?!”

After speaking, Astrid realized she had said something wrong and quickly said, “I’m just surprised. Aurora is his fiancée, why would he spread negative information about his own fiancée behind her back? He couldn’t possibly still have lingering feelings for you, could he?”

Briana Cameron frowned, saying in a deep voice, “Impossible, guess the two are only engaged on the surface. In fact, the two companies are competing secretly, which is why Maxim would post those negative things about Aurora online.”

“What you said could also be possible.”

However, she still thought that Maxim did this for Briana Cameron.

“I was on the plane and had to turn off my phone, so I couldn’t talk to you.”

“Where were you going?”

Chapter 1087

“Went on a business trip to North Town.”

After hanging up the phone, Briana Cameron turned off her mobile phone.

Just as she was about to put away her phone, she noticed Elliot watching her from the side.

She turned her head and met Elliot’s curious gaze, couldn’t help but frown, feeling a bit annoyed. She didn’t really like being stared at by others.

Perhaps sensing her displeasure, Elliot chuckled and said, “I saw Ms. Fredrick’s trending topic last night too, I didn’t expect it to be related to Mr. Yoder.”

Briana Cameron put away her phone, saying indifferently, “Only the people involved truly understand what’s going on between them.”

“Ms. Cameron, didn’t you feel angry? Mr. Yoder was so good to you before, but then he turned around and got engaged to another woman.”

Briana Cameron turned to look at him, her eyes devoid of any emotion, "Mr. Murphy, your question is a bit out of line."

Elliot gave an apologetic smile, "I'm sorry, Ms. Cameron, I didn't mean to offend you."

Briana Cameron didn't speak again, she took out her eye mask and put it on, ready to sleep.

After over three hours on the plane, the two finally arrived in North Town.

After checking into the hotel, the two took a taxi to the largest restaurant in North Town. Elliot had arranged to have dinner with a local designer from North Town that night, and in the following days, the designer would take them to visit fabric and clothing factories.

On the way to the restaurant, Elliot said to Briana Cameron, "The designer's name is Natalie Berry, her father is the president of the Berry Group in North Town. We met when we attended an event in Haseton before. She has her own unique insights into design, you guys might get along."

Briana Cameron nodded, "Hmm."

Half an hour later, the car stopped at the entrance of the restaurant.

After getting off the car, Briana Cameron followed behind Elliot. The waiter led them to the number eight private room on the second floor.

The waiter had just opened the door when a voice filled with laughter came out.

"Mr. Murphy, I had been waiting for you for a long time."

After entering, Briana Cameron immediately spotted the woman sitting in the center of the booth.

Her age seemed to be around the same as mine. She had delicate, petite features and neat short hair. She wore two large metal hoop earrings, a tight red sweater, and a short black leather skirt. These clothes accentuated her fair skin and curvaceous figure.

As Briana Cameron was observing her, she was also observing Briana Cameron.

A few seconds later, she stood up with a smile and said, "Mr. Murphy, aren't you going to introduce this beauty behind you?"

"This was my company's designer, Briana Cameron, you could call her Ms. Cameron. Ms. Cameron, this was Natalie."

Natalie extended her hand to Briana Cameron for a handshake, her smile brightening a few degrees, "Ms. Cameron, hello, welcome to North Town!"

“Thank you!”

After greeting each other, several people sat down at the table. Natalie handed the menu to Briana Cameron and said, “Ms. Cameron, please order something.”

Briana Cameron checked off a few dishes on the menu and then handed it back to Natalie, “Natalie, I’ve ordered.”

Natalie and Elliot added a few more dishes, and then Natalie started asking Elliot about the current fashion trends in Haseton.

Elliot couldn’t help but chuckle, “Natalie, you should have asked Ms. Cameron about this. I’m just a department manager, I manage the department. When it comes to trends, I’m not as precise as Ms. Cameron.”

Natalie raised an eyebrow and said, “You have a point. Why don’t you sit aside and let me have a good chat with Ms.

Cameron.”

“It seems I’ve already started to bother you!”

“Nonsense, go sit over there!”

Judging from the way the two were speaking, they seemed to have a deep friendship.

After shooing Elliot aside, Natalie sat next to Briana Cameron, smiling and saying, “Ms. Cameron, I happen to have a few new ideas recently, let’s exchange thoughts!”

Seeing the excitement and enthusiasm in Natalie’s eyes, Briana Cameron could only nod and say, “Okay.”

Chapter 1088

During the meal, it was almost entirely Briana Cameron and Natalie chatting, with Elliot being left out.

After finishing their meal and as they were preparing to leave, Natalie still felt somewhat unsatisfied. She couldn’t help but ask, “Mr. Murphy, which hotel are you staying at? Maybe I could stay there tonight as well, it would be a good opportunity to chat more with Ms. Cameron!”

With a helpless look on his face, Elliot said to her, “Natalie, don’t you think you should consider that we just flew here and need to rest?”

A hint of disappointment flashed in Natalie’s eyes, “Alright, then I’ll pick you up at the hotel first thing tomorrow morning!”

After sending the two back to the hotel, Natalie left reluctantly.

Elliot turned back to the hotel with Briana Cameron. While waiting for the elevator, Elliot began to speak, “Ms. Cameron, you did well tonight. You can tell Natalie some unimportant things, but you must keep our company’s secrets confidential.”

Tonight, when Natalie was chatting with Briana Cameron, she brought up the topic of Graceful Attire several times. Elliot was initially worried, but later saw that Briana Cameron quickly and subtly changed the topic, which finally put his mind at ease.

If Briana Cameron hadn't made things so miserable for Katherine, such a perceptive subordinate, he would have certainly had much less to worry about.

288 (Vouchers

"Um, don't worry, Mr. Murphy. I know very well what should be said and what shouldn't."

After exiting the elevator, the two of them each returned to their rooms.

After taking a bath, Briana Cameron was about to go to sleep when Astrid's call came through.

"Briana, I heard a rumor, I'm not sure if I should tell you."

"What rumor?"

"I heard... just heard, mind you, that Maxim's engagement to Aurora seemed to be forced... But I didn't manage to find out the reason."

Briana Cameron fell silent for a moment, then said, "Whether he was forced or not, it has absolutely nothing to do with me. There's no chance for him and me anymore."

Astrid sighed, "I just feel... maybe he really did deal with Aurora for you this time..."

"If you were in love, you would definitely be love-struck."

Astrid: "....."

Briana Cameron didn't want to hear anything more about Maxim. She said, "Don't ever mention him in front of me again. There's no way I'm getting back together with him, regardless of whether he has any difficulties or not, it has nothing to do with me."

After speaking, Briana Cameron hung up the phone.

Casting her phone aside, she buried her head in the blanket, her mind filled with irritation.

In the following days, under Natalie's guidance, Briana Cameron and Elliot visited numerous fabric and clothing factories in North Town, and conducted quite a few research reports.

On the last night, after dinner, Natalie escorted the two to the hotel lobby. With a hint of reluctance, she said, "If you ever get the chance, you must come back to North Town. I'll take you to try the local cuisine of North Town."

Elliot said with a smile, "Alright, if the company decides to establish a branch in North Town, Ms. Cameron and I should be there soon."

“It was settled then!”

After Natalie left, the two returned to the hotel and began to pack their things. They had a flight back to Haseton after eleven at night.

the Yoder Group.

Maxim was reading a document when the phone on the desk suddenly rang.

As soon as it connected, the voice from the other end came through.

“Boss, I’ve figured out what you asked me to investigate. The person who drugged Ms. Cameron was Elliot, the manager of Graceful Attire. He got the poison from Kiley. However, I’m still investigating the source of the poison and haven’t found the origin yet.”

Maxim’s face changed, he said coldly, “Keep investigating! Inform me immediately if there’s any news!”

After speaking, Maxim immediately hung up the phone and dialed Briana Cameron’s mobile number.

However, it kept showing that the line was busy. He immediately called Rayan into his office, “Call Briana Cameron right away!”

Chapter 1089

Rayan had dialed several times, and finally, it got through on the other end.

“Rayan, you made so many calls, is there something wrong?”

“I’m Maxim, I had something to tell you, Elliot was trying to harm you, you’d better watch out for him!”

The other end of the phone fell silent for a few seconds. After a rustling sound, a slightly mocking male voice came through.

“Mr. Yoder, it’s too late.”

The next second, the phone was hung up.

Maxim’s face turned pale, he immediately redialed, but it showed that the phone was turned off.

“Rayan, immediately find out where Briana Cameron was!”

Because of his nervousness, his voice was somewhat trembling.

Rayan was startled by his pale face and quickly said, “I’ll go right away!”

“Hurry, she was in danger!”

The thought of Elliot being right next to Briana Cameron filled Maxim with an unconscious wave of panic. If anything happened to Briana Cameron, he would never forgive himself for having left her in such close proximity to such a dangerous person for so long before realizing it!

On the other side, in Briana Cameron's room.

After turning off the phone, Elliot tossed aside Briana Cameron's mobile phone and looked down at the unconscious Briana Cameron, his eyes full of coldness.

He sneered, slowly saying, "Briana Cameron, you really have a strong life force. I didn't expect you to survive after taking Kiley's poison. If Kiley didn't hate you so much, I would even suspect that she gave me fake poison!"

He took out the rope he had brought, tied up Briana Cameron, and promptly stuffed her into a suitcase nearby.

Since the poison didn't kill Briana Cameron, he threw Briana Cameron into the sea, not believing she could survive that!

After placing the suitcase belonging to Briana Cameron in the trunk of the taxi, Elliot instructed the driver to head to the seaside.

On the road, he received a call from Maxim.

"If you dared to do anything to Briana Cameron, I would definitely make your family pay the price!"

Elliot rolled down the car window, letting in the icy night wind.

He raised an eyebrow, smiling as he said, "Mr. Yoder, I think I've already done so, why would I care about those?"

"Are you sure you wanted to risk your family's lives for your foolish actions?"

Elliot sneered, "I won't lie to you, I've been annoyed by this for a long time. If you're willing to solve such a big problem for me, I might even owe you a thank you."

"I had already found out that you were in North Town, your plan wouldn't succeed!"

"Hahaha, I too wanted to know, how could you stop me while you were in Haseton?"

After speaking, Elliot immediately hung up the phone and turned off his cellphone.

An hour later, the taxi stopped by the seaside.

After paying the fare, Elliot dragged his suitcase towards the seaside, a smile playing on his lips.

He was supposed to execute his plan last night, but unexpectedly, the effect of the drug was not strong enough, and Briana Cameron did not faint, so it was postponed until today.

But it didn't matter, after all, no one could stop his plan.

Several minutes later, he stood still by the sea and opened his suitcase.

Briana Cameron had already woken up, a glint of coldness flashed in her eyes when she saw Elliot.

“Mr. Murphy, why did you do this to me?!”

A flash of surprise crossed Elliot’s eyes, “You woke up so quickly?”

According to his plan, Briana Cameron was supposed to wake up from the seawater choking her when he threw her into the sea, and then die painfully. Unexpectedly, she woke up at this moment.

“Mr. Murphy, I have no grudge against you, why did you treat me like this?!”

Elliot sneered, “No grudges? You made Katherine’s life miserable. If I don’t avenge else will!”

Recharge successful!

Briana Cameron furrowed her brow, her expression quickly turning icy.

“Mr. Murphy, it wasn’t me who made her so miserable, she did it to herself. If she hadn’t been scheming against me openly and secretly, she wouldn’t have ended up like that!”

“Unexpectedly, even at the last moment, you still didn’t realize your mistake. But it doesn’t matter, because you’re about to die.”

Elliot looked crazed, he grabbed Briana Cameron and hurled her into the sea.

Seeing Briana Cameron’s body instantly swallowed by the waves, Elliot’s eyes were filled with coldness.

Starting from today, Briana Cameron would completely disappear from this world!

He took out his phone and dialed Katherine’s number, speaking slowly and deliberately, “Katherine, you can come back...”

Before he could finish his sentence, his smile froze on his face.

Because he saw, a figure was swimming towards the shore.

He put down his phone, a glint of murderous intent flashing in his eyes.

A few minutes later, Briana Cameron swam to the shore.

Elliot stepped forward, about to grab Briana Cameron, when a sudden intense pain shot through his wrist.

“Ah!”

He jerked his hand back sharply, noticing that his wrist had already started to swell, and his face contorted in response.

He suddenly pulled out a spray bottle from his pocket and fiercely sprayed it in Briana Cameron’s face.

However, his movements were fast, but Briana Cameron’s were even faster.

Just as Elliot reached out to her, she turned and plunged fiercely into the sea, the spray didn’t touch her at all.

However, as soon as she surfaced, Elliot would spray her face, and for a moment, the two of them would just stand off like this.

Briana Cameron moved a bit further away, her expression icy as she looked at Elliot, “Maxim must have already called the police. Are you sure you want to keep wasting time here with me? Since you dared to openly throw me into the sea, you must have already thought of a way to escape, right?”

Elliot’s expression shifted, and it took him a while before he spoke, “Briana Cameron, if you stay in the sea like this, you will soon exhaust your strength. By then, without me lifting a finger, you will drown!”

Briana Cameron raised an eyebrow, “You’re that confident?”

Elliot didn’t speak, his face was just very pale. He indeed hadn’t initially thought that Briana Cameron could actually wake up, let alone untie the rope and swim out of the sea by herself.

Suddenly, Briana Cameron’s body plunged into the depths of the sea.

A flash of shock passed through Elliot’s eyes as he stared intently in the direction where Briana Cameron had disappeared, fearing he might miss the moment Briana Cameron emerged from the water.

However, by the time Briana Cameron resurfaced, she was only a few meters away from him.

His face changed dramatically, and he quickly sprayed at her, but Briana Cameron suddenly rolled to the side.

Elliot was still aiming the spray bottle at her when Briana Cameron’s mocking voice rang in his ear, “Elliot, it’s over.”

In the next second, the spray bottle in Elliot’s hand was snatched away by Briana Cameron. Elliot didn’t even have
