

Fall for You 1091

Chapter 1091

Regaining consciousness once again, Elliot found himself in a police station, his hands cuffed.

Elliot's face gradually turned ashen, and despair began to surface in his eyes.

He completely lost...

Originally thought dealing with Briana Cameron would be easy, but the result of underestimating her was a complete and utter defeat.

Briana Cameron came out from the police station after finishing her statement, and as soon as she stepped out, she saw Natalie waiting for her at the entrance.

Upon seeing Briana Cameron, she quickly approached her, "Ms. Cameron, are you alright? I didn't expect Mr. Murphy to do such a thing. Thinking about the several times I had dinner alone with him before, I feel horrified..."

Seeing Natalie's somewhat pale face, Briana Cameron comforted, "If I hadn't woken up yesterday to find myself tied up in a trunk, I wouldn't have known he was that kind of person."

"Anyway, I'm glad you're okay. I've booked a flight for you tomorrow. Let me take you back to the hotel to rest first."

"Um, thank you for your trouble, Ms. Berry."

"No trouble at all. Who knows, maybe the Berry Group will collaborate with Graceful Attire in the future, and we'll be in touch often. Besides, I've genuinely considered you my friend these past few days."

After dropping Briana Cameron off at the hotel, Natalie stayed with her for a while to make sure she was okay before leaving.

After leaving the hotel, Natalie made a call to Natalie's father.

"Dad, I've already safely escorted Briana Cameron to the hotel. But how did you know about Elliot trying to harm her?"

"Don't worry about this matter anymore, just come back after you've delivered the person."

After speaking, Natalie's father hung up the phone.

Natalie frowned, deciding to ask Natalie's father properly when she got home. She didn't believe she wouldn't be able to get an answer.

However, recalling that Elliot always had a smile on his face in daily life, giving people a feeling of a breath of spring, it was completely unexpected that he would do such a thing.

All I can say is, you can know a person's face, but not their heart.

The next morning, Briana Cameron took a flight back to Haseton. As for Elliot's matter, the Cameron family had already sent a lawyer to negotiate. It was certain that he would be imprisoned, it was just a matter of how many years he would be sentenced.

Just got off the plane, and saw the Cameron family's driver waiting at the door.

Briana Cameron walked over briskly, smiling as she said, "Gunnar, how did you know about my morning flight?"

With a smile on her face, as if unaffected by Elliot's matter, Briana Cameron was addressed by Gunnar, "Madam sent me to pick you up, she asked me to take you back to the Cameron family."

"My matter... My mom also found out?"

Seeing Briana Cameron's cautious look, Gunnar couldn't help but say, "How could she possibly not know? It was such a big deal. When the lady found out that you were thrown into the sea by Elliot, she fainted from fright. If it weren't for the master and the young master stopping her, she would have taken a plane over there long ago."

Briana Cameron: "

She remembered that when she called Thomas, she had already assured him that she was fine. She really didn't know hat he had told her parents!

d she known earlier, she would have contacted her eldest r second brother.

An hour later, as soon as Briana Cameron stepped into the Cameron family, she was embraced by Gemma.

"Briana, what would I do if something happened to you! I must arrange a bodyguard for you in the future, you are not allowed to refuse anymore!"

Thinking back to the times when Cheney and Elvis had no assignments and followed her around every day, Briana Cameron quickly refused, "Mom, haven't you already arranged for Cheney and Elvis? Let's just wait for them to come back from their assignments, and besides, I'm fine, aren't I?"

Gemma let go of her, looking at her irritably and said, "You have the nerve to talk! I heard about you being thrown into the sea, it almost gave me a heart attack!"
