

Fall for You 1093

Chapter 1093

"Don't mention her, bad luck. Didn't you have to work today?"

"Upon hearing that you almost had an accident, I was in no mood to work. Let's go, let's have lunch together at noon."

"Done."

Astrid chose a nearby restaurant, and as soon as they walked in, they saw Aurora and Maxim coming out together.

"Such bad luck, how can we run into these two people everywhere! Briana, let's go, let's switch to another place!"

Briana Cameron shook her head, saying indifferently, "It's okay, they're just strangers anyway, no need to care."

Saying so, she continued to walk in, blatantly ignoring Aurora and Maxim.

Upon seeing her, a flash of hatred crossed Aurora's eyes. However, due to Maxim's presence, she held back and refrained from uttering any mockery.

It was Maxim who, upon seeing Briana Cameron, immediately approached her, "You were in North Town... You weren't hurt, were you?"

Before Briana Cameron could speak, Astrid sneered, "Mr. Yoder, whether Briana is hurt or not seems to have nothing to do with you. Please stay away from Briana!"

Maxim gave Astrid a cold glance, didn't say anything else, and turned to leave the restaurant.

Seeing this, Aurora quickly chased after him, and after much difficulty, she caught up with Maxim at the entrance of the restaurant, where she hurriedly stopped him.

"Maxim, I was wrong about what happened before. Can we get along well in the future?"

There was not a hint of fluctuation in Maxim's eyes as he met Aurora's sincere gaze.

"Aurora, I told you long ago, I would never fall for you. The engagement was under Cosmo's threat. Don't waste your time on me anymore. If you do anything to Briana Cameron, I won't spare you or the Fredrick family."

Aurora bit her lower lip, her eyes filled with resentment.

"But Briana Cameron doesn't love you anymore, she didn't even glance at you in the restaurant just now. Why won't you let yourself move on!"

"It was none of your business!"

After speaking, Maxim directly bypassed Aurora and left.

She turned around to look at his retreating figure, her eyes gradually reddening.

When she found out that Maxim had exposed her dark secrets, she indeed hated Maxim and even thought about plotting against him. But the moment she saw him, she couldn't help but feel moved.

She took a deep breath, after all, she was now Maxim's fiancée, Briana Cameron was nothing but a thing of the past!

The one who would marry Maxim in the future, would definitely be her, Aurora!

In the restaurant, after Maxim and Aurora had left, Briana Cameron found a seat by the window and sat down, her face devoid of any expression, seemingly unaffected by them in the slightest.

Astrid carefully looked at her, "Briana, you towards Maxim..."

Briana Cameron chuckled and said, "We've long been over, and I won't have any lingering feelings for him in the future."

As for why Maxim knew that Elliot wanted to harm her that night, she didn't want to ask anymore. After all, since he had chosen to get engaged to Aurora, there was no possibility between them anymore.

"It's good that you can take it lightly. I think you should simply stop working at Graceful Attire. This company is not suitable for you. You haven't been there long, first it was Katherine, then Elliot, who knows if there will be others who will come after you next."

Briana Cameron lowered her gaze, and after a while, she finally spoke, "Let's talk about this later, I haven't thought about what's next yet."
