

Fall for You 1094

Chapter 1094

"Alright, but if you ever want to come to my company in the future, you're always welcome."

Briana Cameron raised an eyebrow, "Forget about your company, I don't want to work myself to death."

Astrid gave her an annoyed look, "And you're criticizing me? don't know who was even more dedicated than me when abroad, continuing to draw design sketches even when exhausted to the point of hospitalization!"

Briana Cameron laughed, "That's all in the past, I now think enjoying life is more important."

After going through so much, she deeply understood that simplicity is the ultimate truth. She no longer wanted to strive as hard as before, as long as she had enough money to get by.

Astrid was about to speak when Briana Cameron's phone suddenly rang.

"Ms. Cameron, I am Mr. Schneider – the secretary of your biological father. Your father has entrusted me to transfer all his shares under your name. When would you be available to come over and sign?"

Upon hearing this, Briana Cameron frowned. In the past, Zane and Mallory despised her and wished her dead. Now, they were all rushing to give her their property, which she found somewhat amusing.

Did they all think that by giving her those properties, they could act as if what had happened in the past never happened?

"Hello, I had absolutely no connection with him, and I wouldn't sign either."

"Ms. Cameron, please don't put me in a difficult position, this is also Mr. Schneider's intention, why don't you come over... Mr. Schneider has been arrested on suspicion of intentional injury... Now the Schneider Group is in a complete mess..."

If Briana Cameron didn't come to inherit the Schneider Group soon, it might have been taken over by others in a few days.

There was no warmth in Briana Cameron's eyes, her tone was incredibly calm, "I said, I won't go there. Whatever you do with that property, even if you donate it, it's fine. Don't contact me again, I won't go to the police station to bail him out."

After speaking, Briana Cameron immediately hung up the phone.

Astrid had also just heard Zane's secretary's words and saw Briana Cameron's refusal, her eyes full of shock, "Briana, it was Zane who gave it to you for free, you could consider it as compensation for their past mistreatment of you. Why wouldn't you accept it? Wouldn't that be benefiting others?"

Briana Cameron put away her phone and said, "If I accepted it, wouldn't that mean I forgave them? I don't want to do something against my will."

"No, this is just their compensation to you. It has nothing to do with whether you forgive them or not. Since they've given it, just accept it!"

“Forget it, I had no interest in their property. If I needed money, I could earn it myself.”

Astrid sighed, looking at her somewhat helplessly, “You...”

After the two had finished eating, Astrid went to the company after dropping Briana Cameron off.

Briana Cameron had just returned home and was about to take a nap when a servant came knocking at the door.

“Miss, someone came looking for you.”

Briana Cameron was full of doubts, who would come to find her at this time?

She got up and went downstairs, just as she reached the bottom, she saw a man in a suit and leather shoes sitting in the living room.

“Hello, may I ask who you were?”

Briana Cameron was certain that she didn’t know this man.

How could he have come looking for her?
