

Fall for You 761

Chapter 761

Sean frowned, disagreeing as he spoke. "If you regain your memory, you will definitely continue to entangle with Maxim."

"No, I've already signed the divorce agreement with him. We won't have any relationship at all three months later."

"That won't do either. There's not a trace of past pain in your memory now. Isn't that a good thing?"

Under Sean's pressing gaze, Briana Cameron slowly said, "Dad, I want to know, was it my decision to find a doctor to hypnotize me to forget the past, or was it a decision you made for me?"

Sean paused, frowning, "It's your own decision. Initially, Maxim almost got you killed in a fire because of his ex-girlfriend. After we brought you to Haseton, you didn't eat or drink for over a week."

"Your mother was too worried, so she found a doctor who could hypnotize. She asked if you wanted to forget the past and start over, and you agreed."

Briana Cameron pursed her lips, looking at Sean and slowly said. "In that case, I hope you can also agree to my wish to regain my memory this time."

"Briana, I just didn't want you to get hurt."

"I knew, but I really didn't love Maxim anymore, and he wasn't important enough to make me forget my past and my good friends at his expense."

Sean fell silent for a moment, then said coldly, "Anyway, I will not agree to this, don't bring it up again!"

After speaking, Sean immediately got up and went to work.

Briana Cameron sighed, it seemed that she would have to slowly persuade Sean about this matter. However, she estimated that Sean would not relent if she went by herself

She took out her phone and dialed Thomas's number, "Brother Three, I have a favor to ask of you."

Upon hearing that it was about persuading Sean to agree to restore her memory, Thomas immediately refused. "Briana, it's not that I don't want to help you, but you don't know how angry Dad was when we brought you back from Bridenville. If it weren't for my older brothers holding him back, he would have gone to Bridenville to confront Maxim on the spot!"

Thinking of that scene at the time, Thomas couldn't help but shudder.

"But hasn't the Cameron Group been collaborating with the Yoder Group these past few years? Dad shouldn't be that annoyed with Maxim, should he?"

Thomas couldn't help but say, "Then you go ask around at the Yoder Group, how these collaborations were actually negotiated... The cooperation between the Yoder Group and the Cameron Group basically had no profit. Maxim was willing to continue the cooperation because he was attracted by the reputation of the Cameron Group.”

Briana Cameron frowned, “But in this way, isn’t Dad being used as his stepping stone?”

“Even if Dad was unwilling to cooperate with the Yoder Group, with Maxim’s ability, he could still have established the Yoder Group firmly in Haseton. If it wasn’t for Dad’s overt and covert suppression of the Yoder Group over the past few years, the Cameron Group might not even be able to surpass the Yoder Group now.”

“Alright, then I’ll go ask my older brothers if they are willing to help me...”

“I advised you not to ask, as the result would surely disappoint you.”

Seeing that he was not only unwilling to help her, but also poured cold water on her, Briana Cameron snorted and said, “Are you really my third brother?”

“It was precisely because I am your third brother that I reminded you. If you really want Dad to agree, you have to go talk to him yourself.”

Briana Cameron couldn’t help but run her fingers through her hair, she had tried to negotiate, but she failed.

After hanging up the phone, Briana Cameron called Terrence and Roger again, but both of them rejected her without exception.

Helpless, she had no choice but to put this matter aside and get up to go to work.

Just arrived at the company, and saw the designers in the design department whispering to each other, not knowing what they were talking about.

She returned to the office and immediately called Anastasia in “Anastasia, what were they discussing outside?”

A flash of surprise crossed Anastasia’s eyes, “Ms. Cameron, you don’t know yet? The word outside is that Denise is Maxim and Kiley’s daughter. Yesterday, a paparazzi was following a celebrity, but unexpectedly took a photo of the three of them out for a walk. Now, everyone online is discussing this!”

Chapter 762

Briana Cameron pursed her lips, saying lightly, “Is that so?”

“Right, and the photos were released last night, but up until now, the Yoder Group has not responded at all. Netizens are doubting whether this is true. Maxim and Kiley also plan to make this public.”

“I understood, you may leave now.”

Seeing that Briana Cameron looked a bit unwell, Anastasia whispered, “Ms. Cameron, you don’t seem to look very well, are you feeling unwell somewhere?”

"I'm fine, I just had insomnia last night and didn't sleep well."

"Oh, then I went back to work. Call me anytime if you need anything."

"Good."

After Anastasia left, Briana Cameron opened a file and looked at it for a while, but she was so upset that she couldn't take in anything.

Although she would divorce Maxim in three months, she was really upset by what Maxim and Kiley were doing now.

If he was so impatient, why did he make a three-month agreement with her?!

Several minutes later, Briana Cameron tossed the documents on the table and directly dialed Maxim's number.

After connecting, the deep voice of Rayan came from the other end.

"Ms. Cameron, were you looking for Mr. Yoder for something?"

Briana Cameron frowned, "Let Maxim answer the phone."

"The president... he's busy right now, I'm afraid he can't answer the phone. You can tell me whatever you need, it's the same."

Briana Cameron sneered, "Busy with what? Spending time with Kiley and their daughter?"

No sooner had the words fallen than a puzzled voice from Rayan came over.

"What did that mean?"

Briana Cameron didn't say anything else, she just hung up the phone.

In the hospital corridor, Rayan had a baffled expression on his face.

Before Maxim fell into a coma last night, he asked him not to tell Briana Cameron about his injury, but something about Briana Cameron's words made him feel that something was off.

However, before he could figure it out, the phone in his pocket suddenly rang.

"Rayan, Isaac ran away!"

Rayan's expression was icy, "He's been held captive by Mr. Yoder for years, he just escaped recently, it's impossible for him to build up his own power so quickly. There must be someone helping him secretly in Haseton, go investigate!"

"Yes!"

After hanging up the phone, Rayan turned and went to the doctor's office.

Upon seeing him, the doctor immediately said, "Rayan, Mr. Yoder's injuries are too severe. He won't wake up for at least three days."

"Alright, I understood."

When he returned to the entrance of the ward, he saw Kiley standing by the window with Denise, who looked as if she was about to cry. A hint of disgust flashed in Rayan's eyes.

He stepped forward briskly, saying coldly, "Ms. Schneider, I need you to leave immediately!"

Kiley's eyes were red and her voice choked up, "Rayan, it's my fault that Maxim got hurt this time. I want to stay here to take care of him."

Rayan sneered, "No need, I think Mr. Yoder wouldn't want to see you when he wakes up."

If she hadn't deliberately incited Denise to run away from home last night. Maxim wouldn't have gone out to look for Denise with her, let alone being ambushed by Isaac and seriously injured to the point of unconsciousness.

Kiley looked at him, her eyes full of determination, "Rayan, I know you hate me, but I really didn't expect Isaac to still be alive, let alone do something so outrageous..."

When Isaac left at that time, he still said a word to her.

However, Kiley was trembling all over at that time, and now thinking about his words, he just felt a chill all over his body.

He said, "Kiley, I will come back, and when I do, I will take my child with me!"

If he knew what he had done to Denise, he would definitely not let her go!

"Ms. Schneider, if you refuse to leave, I will have no choice but to have the hospital security escort you out. And under what pretense are you staying by Mr. Yoder's side?! Don't forget, he is your brother-in-law!"

Chapter 763

Kiley bit her lower lip, "Rayan, you don't have to insult me with such words. I truly love Maxim, from the past till now, it has never changed. I will always stay by his side."

Before Rayan had a chance to speak, a mocking voice sounded from behind him.

"Since you want to be Mrs. Yoder so much, how about I discuss it with Maxim when he wakes up, and ask him to marry you?"

Turning around to see Briana Cameron, a flash of shock passed through Rayan's eyes.

"Ms. Cameron.....how did you....."

Briana Cameron interrupted him with a calm expression, "Why didn't you tell me about Maxim getting hurt?"

If Sean hadn't called her, she might still be in the dark until now.

"It was Mr. Yoder who told me not to say anything. He didn't want to worry you."

Briana Cameron raised an eyebrow, her eyes devoid of any emotion.

“Worried wouldn’t be the right word, I just came to confirm something.”

Rayan paused for a moment, “What’s the matter?”

“I heard that he got injured while protecting Kiley and her daughter, is that right?”

Upon hearing this, Rayan’s brows furrowed, “Who’s spreading rumors outside?!”

Briana Cameron chuckled, “Rumors, you say? But I saw the surveillance video.”

When the surveillance began, it was Denise, holding Kiley and Maxim on either side, all three of them wearing smiles on their faces, looking like a happy family of three.

A few seconds later, suddenly several people sprang out from the nearby green belt, brandishing knives at Kiley. Maxim instinctively blocked them and started fighting with them. Somehow, he suddenly fell down later, having been stabbed several times.

it hadn’t been for Rayan bringing people over, perhaps Maxim would be dead by now.

“What surveillance?”

“Didn’t Rayan go online? Denise is Mr. Yoder’s biological daughter. Mr. Yoder has already made the trending news for protecting his woman and daughter, and it stayed there for several hours.”

Kiley lowered her gaze, concealing the coldness and calculation in her eyes.

The trending topic was naturally bought by her, and the surveillance video was also copied by her for someone to upload. The purpose was to establish that Denise was Maxim’s daughter during the time Maxim was unconscious.

By the time Maxim woke up, even if he clarified things online, there wouldn’t be many people who would believe him.

Rayan’s face changed color, and he quickly opened Twitter.

Upon seeing those trending topics about Maxim and Kiley, I was so furious that I was about to explode. I immediately called the manager of the Public Relations Department.

“What on earth were you doing?! How could you let this kind of thing stay on the trending list for so long without hurrying to clarify it!”

“It was already being handled by public relations, but someone was fanning the flames behind the scenes!”

“Delete the trending topics and entries as soon as possible. If it’s not handled before Mr. Yoder wakes up, you guys better be ready to pack up and leave.”

After hanging up the phone, Rayan was still fuming.

At that moment, he also understood the meaning of what Briana Cameron had said on the phone before.

“Ms. Cameron, let me explain this to you. Last night, Mr. Yoder’s niece, Denise, suddenly disappeared. The nanny called him, and he ran into Kiley while he was looking for Denise. After the two of them found Denise, he took them home.”

There wasn’t a hint of concern in Briana Cameron’s eyes, her expression remained unchanged from beginning to end.

“Rayan, I didn’t come here to listen to your or Mr. Yoder’s explanations. I just want you to relay a message to Mr. Yoder. If he’s so eager to be with Kiley, I don’t mind making room for them sooner.”

Rayan frowned, his gaze also turning cold.

“Ms. Cameron, Mr. Yoder only had you in his heart. These past few years without you, he has been living miserably.”

“Whether it’s tragic or not, it has nothing to do with me. I have things to do, so I’m leaving first.”

After speaking, Briana Cameron turned around and left directly.

Watching her retreating figure, a flash of dissatisfaction crossed Rayan’s eyes.

The present Briana Cameron was too heartless, she didn’t even enter the ward, let alone ask about Maxim’s condition from beginning to end.

Chapter 764

Kiley, who had been silent all along, suddenly spoke up, “Rayan, would you let me stay here to take care of Maxim? I promise, I’ll leave as soon as he wakes up.”

“Ms. Schneider, please leave. You deliberately made your daughter run away from home and had paparazzi take pictures to post online. I don’t think you want Mr. Yoder to settle accounts with you when he wakes up, do you?”

Kiley panicked, her eyes filled with disbelief.

How could he have known?!

Rayan looked at her expressionlessly, “Even if Ms. Cameron doesn’t like Mr. Yoder now, you won’t have a chance to take advantage of the situation. Please leave immediately!”

Kiley bit her lower lip, like a clown who had been exposed, and left dejectedly.

Three days later, Maxim finally woke up.

Rayan looked excited, “Mr. Yoder, you finally woke up!”

Maxim slowly sat up, his face still somewhat pale. Each movement tugged at his wound, causing his brows to furrow unconsciously.

“Did Isaac catch it?”

Rayan looked upset, “Not yet, someone must be helping Haseton.”

For the past three years, Maxim had been keeping Isaac locked up, tormenting him day after day. Isaac’s hatred for Maxim had reached the point of no return.

“If things continue to go poorly, the only ones who could help Haseton are the four great clans and the eight great families. Start with these families!”

“Yes!”

Worry filled Rayan’s eyes. Could it be that the events from three years ago were about to repeat themselves?

“How has Briana been recently?”

Speaking of Briana Cameron, a hint of dissatisfaction flashed in Rayan’s eyes. He said in a deep voice, “I’ve already sent people to protect her secretly. However, she knew you were injured and unconscious, but she didn’t come to see you, nor did she ask about your condition.”

A trace of loneliness flashed in Maxim’s eyes, and a bitter smile hooked up at the corner of his mouth.

“Uh–huh, I got it. How’s the situation at the company?”

“The news of your coma didn’t get out, the company was fine for the time being, but...”

“But what?”

Facing Maxim’s sharp gaze, Rayan steeled himself and said, “The paparazzi caught a photo of you and Kiley taking Denise home that night. The internet is full of rumors that Denise is your and Kiley’s daughter.”

The temperature in the ward dropped rapidly, becoming as cold as a frozen tundra in just a few seconds.

“Did Briana know about this?”

“She said... said that if you couldn’t wait to be with Kiley, she wouldn’t mind making room for Kiley sooner.”

“Bang!”

The water cup on the table was swept onto the floor by Maxim, and his face had also darkened to the extreme.

“Bring Kiley over!”

Kiley heard that Maxim had woken up, and she carefully dressed up before going to the hospital.

Just as the door to the ward was pushed open, a bone–chilling cold swept over.

She instinctively looked at Maxim on the hospital bed, but his gaze back at her was as cold as ice, even filled with disgust.

Kiley's heart skipped a beat, hesitating for a few seconds before stepping in.

"Maxim.....

"Kiley, first you orchestrated Denise's runaway, then you had paparazzi take photos of me taking you and Denise home and posted them online. Did you think I wouldn't touch you?"

Kiley's face turned pale, he indeed knew about that matter.

Chapter 765

"I... I was just too scared... I saw my sister come back, and I was afraid that you wouldn't take care of me and Denise anymore. Now my mom is pregnant again, she and my dad are planning to have that child as the heir to the Schneider family. Then Denise and I will really be left alone..."

"Maxim, I'm sorry, I realized I was wrong..."

Kiley cried with her face in her hands, but Maxim's eyes remained as cold as ever. If Kiley had told him all this from the beginning, for Denise's sake, he would have given Kiley some money to ensure she could live comfortably for the rest of her life.

But now, she had schemed against herself, and she had to pay the price!

"I gave you three days to move out of my villa, and I won't see you or Denise again. You're on your own!"

Upon hearing this, Kiley froze on the spot, even forgetting to cry, looking at Maxim with a face of disbelief.

"Maxim.....what did you say?!"

Impatience flashed in Maxim's eyes as he said coldly, "Stop this pointless entanglement. You won't gain anything, but only make me despise you more!"

"No... Where could I go after moving out of the villa?! I haven't had any source of income for the past few years. Now you're kicking me and Denise out, are you trying to kill us?!"

Maxim sneered, "You used to be a designer, going back to your old job could support you and Denise."

Kiley's face turned pale, "How could that be?!"

She had already gotten used to her current lifestyle, she couldn't bear to live a hard life.

"Maxim.....even if you hate me. Denise is still your niece..... aren't you going to care about her at all?"

Maxim sneered, staring into her eyes as he spoke slowly and deliberately, "Have you forgotten? If it wasn't for Isaac, Briana wouldn't have nearly been burned to death three years ago, and I wouldn't have missed three years with her. I've been more than fair to you and Denise."

“No... Denise was innocent... You couldn’t just ignore her!”

There was no warmth in Maxim’s eyes, “I can let her stay with the Yoder family, on the condition that you cut off all ties with her.”

Kiley’s eyes widened sharply. If she lost custody of Denise, seeing Maxim again would be even more difficult than climbing to the sky.

“No! I didn’t want to!”

“Then leave by yourself!”

Kiley wanted to ask for his forgiveness one more time, but Rayan simply had the bodyguard push Kiley out of the hospital room.

“Ms. Schneider, we were going to send someone to reclaim the house in three days. If you hadn’t moved out by then, we would have had no choice but to take forceful measures.”

Returned to the villa in a state of shock, just pushed open the door, and saw a man sitting on the sofa in the living room.

Kiley’s eyes widened abruptly, fear surging in her heart, but her feet seemed glued to the ground, unable to move.

The man heard the sound of the door opening and slowly turned his head.

Seeing Kiley, he smiled, causing the scar that stretched across half of his face to move, making him look particularly terrifying “Isaac. what are you doing here?! You’re not welcome... get out.....

If it hadn’t been for him back then, I wouldn’t have ended up in this situation today.

Isaac wasn’t angry either. He stood up, walked over to her, and looked down at her. “Are you sure you really want to drive me away?” he said “As far as I know, you haven’t been doing well these past few years.”

Kiley’s lips quivered, “What’s it to you?!”

The next second, her chin was abruptly seized, Isaac’s ferocious face slowly approached, stopping just a few centimeters away from her

Kiley was trembling all over, utterly terrified.

Seeing her fear of him, Isaac smiled in satisfaction.

“You’ve been wanting to have plastic surgery to look like Briana Cameron these past few years, but fake is fake. When the real one appeared, Maxim ruthlessly abandoned you. Don’t you want to take revenge on him?”

Kiley pushed his hand away, gritting her teeth and said, "At this point, do you think I would still believe you?! You're nothing but a loser under Maxim, just a piece of trash!"

No sooner had the words left his mouth than a large hand had seized his throat!

Chapter 766

"Say it again!"

Isaac's eyes were filled with anger and malice, his grip on Kiley's hand tightening continuously.

While hitting him, Kiley struggled to speak, "Was I wrong... You're nothing more than... Maxim's defeated subordinate!"

"You were asking for death!"

A murderous intent flashed in his eyes. As he saw Kiley's face gradually turning purple, the smile on his lips became cold and terrifying!

"Let go of my mom! You villain!"

Suddenly, Isaac's leg was hit.

He looked down and saw Denise sitting on the ground, crying out with a whimper.

He furrowed his brow, unconsciously loosening his grip on Kiley's hand.

Kiley fell to the ground, propping herself up with her hands and began to cough violently.

"Denise....."

He wanted to hug his daughter, but Denise looked at him with a face full of terror, "Bad man! You...you let me go! You choked mom...I hate you!"

He wanted to hug his daughter, but Denise looked at him with a face full of terror, “Bad man! You...you let me go! You choked mom...I hate you!”

Seeing her crying and gasping for breath, Isaac hurriedly patted her back to soothe her, and said softly. “Denise, Daddy didn’t choke Mommy, I was just playing with her.”

“I don’t believe it, I don’t have a bad father like you! I want Uncle! I want Uncle!”

Upon hearing this, the expression on Isaac’s face suddenly turned cold, his voice icy, “He is not your uncle! He is our enemy, you are not allowed to see him again!”

“Waaaah...I don’t...I want my uncle, I hate you, you’re not my dad...you’re a bad person...”

Isaac’s face turned livid with anger, he stared at her coldly, “I am your father! From now on, you will live with me, I won’t let you see Maxim again!”

I thought this would scare Denise, but unexpectedly, she cried even harder.

Kiley, who was standing nearby, had recovered. She snatched Denise from his arms and coldly said, “Get lost! Or I’ll call Maxim right now and tell him you’re here!”

Isaac chuckled lightly, yet anger surged in his eyes.

“Kiley, you better understand, Maxim doesn’t want you anymore, being with me is your best choice.”

Mockery and contempt filled Kiley’s eyes, “Be with you? What’s the difference between you and a rat in the gutter now? Are you asking me to live a life of hiding here and there with my daughter and you?”

“Don’t worry, these days won’t last long, I will soon make you live a better life.”

“Save these words to deceive the devil!”

“I knew you didn’t believe me now, but soon you would realize that I hadn’t lied to you.”

After speaking, Isaac gave her a deep look, then turned around and left.

In the evening, Briana Cameron was just about to finish work when she received a call from Maxim.

She pursed her lips, then answered with an indifferent tone, “Did Mr. Yoder call to ask me to vacate my position?”

A bitter laugh came from the other end of the phone, “Briana, do you really not trust me?”

A hint of mockery flashed in Briana Cameron’s eyes, “Well, you have to do something to make me believe you.”

He had barely left the Cameron family when he was off to walk with Kiley and Denise. Under normal circumstances, who would believe that there was nothing between him and Kiley.

"I was downstairs at your company building, let's go have dinner together."

"Sorry, I wasn't available."

Chapter 767

"Briana, don't forget the terms of our agreement. If you don't respect the agreement, I can take back the divorce papers at any time."

Briana Cameron's hand unconsciously tightened around her phone, she gritted her teeth and said, "You're truly shameless!"

"Was it disgraceful of me to simply ask you to fulfill the terms of the agreement? Do you have some misunderstanding of the word 'disgraceful'?"

The response to him was a busy tone coming from the phone.

An hour later, the two of them walked into a private restaurant together.

Briana Cameron had a cold expression throughout, anyone could see her displeasure. Maxim, on the other hand, had a smile on his lips, looking at her back with a face full of adoration.

Neither of them noticed that someone nearby was staring at Briana Cameron in shock, their eyes filled with disbelief.

Entering the private room and after ordering the dishes, Maxim turned to Briana Cameron and said, "About the online rumors saying Denise is the daughter of Kiley and me, I can explain it to you."

Briana Cameron frowned, "Mr. Yoder, I don't care about this matter."

"If you didn't care, you wouldn't have said those words to Rayan."

"I just thought that if you liked Kiley, you shouldn't have bothered me. It would have been better for both of us if we had divorced earlier."

Maxim lowered his gaze, his hand gripping the cup turned pale.

"You had amnesia, so you forgot that the child in her belly was Isaac, who is my cousin."

Briana Cameron raised an eyebrow at him, "So concerned about your cousin's child, I didn't realize you were such a warm-hearted person."

"Were you being jealous?"

The expression on Briana Cameron's face stiffened, then she said emotionlessly. "I'm not that idle."

"The rumors online have been clarified, I promise this kind of thing will never happen again. Don't be angry anymore, okay?"

Looking into Maxim's serious eyes, Briana Cameron frowned and said, "I'm not angry."

“Alright, alright, if you say you’re not angry, then you’re not angry.”

Briana Cameron: “.

In another booth, Zane was clearly restless. Kathy noticed his unease and frowned, asking, “Bro, what’s wrong with you?”

Zane snapped back to reality, looking at Kathy and said, “Kathy, do you remember Kiley’s twin sister, Briana?”

“Remember, didn’t she die three years ago?”

“I just... saw her looking good, and she was with Maxim.”

Kathy’s face changed, she said in a deep voice, “Are you sure you didn’t see wrong? Could it be Kiley? I heard that she has been getting plastic surgery these past few years to be with Maxim, making herself look more and more like Briana.”

Zane shook his head, “No, if it were Kiley, I would have recognized her at a glance. That person must be Briana.”

When Zane first heard the news of Briana’s death. he didn’t feel the slightest bit of sadness or pain. In fact, he breathed a sigh of relief. After all, Briana’s existence had always been a thorn in his side, and he always felt that one day she would bring about the downfall of the Schneider family.

Seeing her alive so suddenly now, the prophecy of the Feng Shui master once again appeared in his mind.

After a few seconds of silence, Kathy slowly said, “The branch I manage has business dealings with Maxim. I’ll find out which box he’s in and go toast him. You call Kiley and ask where she is now.”

“Good.”

Five minutes later. the door of the box where Briana Cameron and Maxim were was knocked.

Kathy walked in holding a glass of wine, her gaze subtly sweeping over Briana Cameron before turning to Maxim with a smile. “Mr. Yoder.” she said, “I heard you were dining here, so I came to propose a toast. I hope I’m not disturbing you?”

Maxim’s expression was indifferent, “No, but I’ve been injured recently and can’t drink alcohol. I’m afraid I’ll have to disappoint Ms. Schneider’s good intentions.”

A flash of surprise crossed Kathy’s eyes, followed by a hint of concern. “How is Mr. Yoder doing now?” she asked. “I know a few good doctors. If needed, I can introduce them to Mr. Yoder.”

Chapter 768

“Many, thank you for your concern, Ms. Schneider.”

“Then I won’t disturb Mr. Yoder and this lady during their meal.”

Draining the wine from her cup in one gulp, Kathy glanced at Briana Cameron without any change in expression, then turned and left the private room.

Briana Cameron always felt that there was a hint of scrutiny in the other person's gaze towards her.

"Was she your partner?"

Maxim turned his head to glance at Briana Cameron, nodding and saying, "Hmm, she's also your aunt."

A flicker of surprise crossed Briana Cameron's eyes, followed by a frown. "But the way she looked at me just now, it didn't seem like she recognized me at all." she said.

"When you were born, she had already married into Haseton, so you two have never met. The reason she suddenly came over to toast just now is probably because someone who knows you is also dining here and saw you, so she came over to confirm."

She hadn't regained her past memories yet, so even if someone she knew appeared before her, she definitely wouldn't recognize them.

In a moment of distraction, Maxim had already dialed Rayan's number.

"Check who Kathy invited for dinner at Blissful Dining tonight."

In less than five minutes, Rayan had replied to the message.

Upon seeing the name "Zane", Maxim's face changed slightly, he said in a deep voice. "Briana, the man who dined with your aunt, was your biological father..... Zane."

After returning to the box, Kathy looked at Zane, "Did you call Kiley?"

Zane nodded, "Kiley said she was at home now."

Kathy's face fell, and after returning to her seat, she said in a low voice, "I've confirmed it, the woman next to Maxim, indeed looks exactly like Kiley."

"Is it really Briana?! She didn't die?!"

"Didn't you personally verify it when you heard of her death three years ago?"

Zane frowned, "At that time, Victor was also kidnapped, and when he was found, he had lost his mind. I was busy finding a doctor for Victor and didn't have time to deal with this matter. Besides, who would have known that she would fake her death!"

Kathy was silent for a few seconds, then slowly said, "When I just went in, she looked like she didn't recognize me. Let's not worry about this for now, as long as it doesn't affect the company, let's just consider her dead."

Zane had a vague sense of foreboding in his heart, always feeling that the words of the Feng Shui master were going to come true.

He took a deep breath, suppressing his worries, and nodded, saying, "Yes, next week the focus of the Schneider Group will shift to Haseton. I've staked my entire fortune on this, I must succeed in establishing a foothold in Haseton!”

Kathy chuckled. “With me here, what do you have to worry about? Once the branch office is established, I’ll find a way to secure some major projects for the Schneider Group. As long as you do a good job and build a good reputation, there will be a steady stream of orders in the future.”

Zane poured Kathy a glass of wine, smiling as he said, “Sister, let me thank you in advance!”

“No need to thank me, if the Schneider family could rise in Haseton, my say in my wife’s family would also increase a lot.”

Over the years, just because she only had a daughter, Senior Mrs. Bynes always looked down on her. No matter how much she tried to please her, she was always very cold to her. Her husband was unreliable, so if she wanted to have a place in the Bynes family, she had to fight for it herself!

After they finished eating, Kathy dropped Zane off at the villa and then left.

Zane returned home and, after much thought, he told Mallory about seeing Briana Cameron at the restaurant earlier that day.

Chapter 769

However, after listening, there was not a hint of surprise in Mallory’s eyes. She just frowned and said, “I can’t believe what Kiley said was actually true, Briana really isn’t dead!”

Zane paused for a moment, then quickly said, “You knew about this all along?!”

“Before we came to Haseton, Kiley mentioned something to me. I thought she was seeing things at the time, so I didn’t take it seriously.”

Zane’s face changed, he snorted coldly and said, “Since she has been hiding from us, we will act as if we don’t have this daughter in the future!”

At that moment, all Mallory could think about was the child in her belly. She didn’t even have time to deal with Kiley, let alone Briana, whom she had always despised.

“Um. I knew.”

On the other hand, after learning that Zane was her biological father, but only viewed her as a tool that could benefit the Schneider family, Briana Cameron had no affection whatsoever for this biological father.

However, she simply thought that such a person was not worthy to be a father, without feeling the slightest bit of sadness or grievance.

She just didn’t expect that the two would meet so quickly.

A few days later, one afternoon, Elliot called her into his office and said with a smile, “Ms. Cameron, let me introduce you. This is Ms. Schneider, the president of the Schneider Group. Their company was doing very well in Bridenville, and now they are planning to shift their focus to Haseton. Our company has a collaboration with their company, and I plan to hand this project over to you.”

Briana Cameron looked at the man sitting on the sofa, about to speak, but his expression turned incredibly ugly as soon as he saw her face clearly.

"It was you!"

Briana Cameron raised an eyebrow, "Ms. Schneider, do you know me?"

Zane sneered, "Briana, don't play dumb. Did you already know that we were collaborating with the Schneider Group for Graceful Attire?"

Briana Cameron was about to speak when she suddenly realized something. Her maiden name was Schneider, and this man's last name was also Schneider. Could he possibly be her biological father?!

Oh my God...

Could there be anything more melodramatic than this?!

"Ms. Schneider, I too just found out when Mr. Murphy called me over. If you are not satisfied with me, you can switch to another designer."

Zane sneered, "Not only am I going to change designers, but I'm also going to have your company fire you!"

Briana Cameron furrowed her brow, her gaze turning icy, "Ms. Schneider, I'm afraid, might not have the capability."

"You! Well, look at you, haven't seen you in three years, and you've grown some backbone, even daring to talk back to me!"

Sensing the tense atmosphere between the two, Elliot quickly asked,

"Ms. Schneider, do you know Ms. Cameron?"

Surprise flashed in Zane's eyes, "You said her last name is Cameron?!"

Even changed the surname, it seems like a real intention to sever ties with them!

Elliot nodded, "Yes, Ms. Cameron's ability is quite good, and the design style of this project is exactly what Ms. Cameron excels at. I suggest it would be better not to change the designer."

"No!"

Zane refused categorically, saying coldly, "Mr. Murphy, I not only want to change designers, but I also demand that your company fire her!"

Seeing him being so unreasonable, Elliot's face darkened, "Ms. Schneider, if you insist on changing the designer, I can help you with that. As for whether or not to fire Ms. Cameron, that's an internal matter of our company. I hope Ms. Schneider won't interfere!"

Zane abruptly stood up, staring at Elliot and said, "If you refuse to fire her, consider the collaboration between the Schneider Group and Graceful Attire as if it never happened!"

Elliot's face also turned cold, "Ms. Schneider, if you can't provide a convincing reason, I won't fire Ms. Cameron."

"She was morally corrupt, such a person was absolutely not fit to be a designer!"

No sooner had the words fallen than Briana Cameron let out a cold laugh, "Are you qualified to comment on whether I'm fit to be a designer?"

Zane gritted his teeth, "How am I not qualified? Don't forget, I am the father!"

Elliot frowned, if he remembered correctly, wasn't Briana Cameron's father the preana Cameron's expression was icy cold, "Are you worthy of the word 'father'?"

She had never seen a father who would allow his company to fire his own daughter, who would say his own daughter was not fit to be a designer!

"You! I see you're trying to turn the world upside down!"

Briana Cameron didn't look at him again, instead she turned to Elliot and said, "Mr. Murphy, I don't want to take on this project, please give it to someone else."

After speaking, Briana Cameron turned around and left directly.

Zane's angry voice came from behind, "Bastard, stop right there!" She turned a deaf ear and directly pulled open the office door to leave

Zane gritted his teeth in anger and said, "Mr Murphy. I wasn't joking about what I just said. If you refuse to fire her, our collaboration cannot continue."

Elliot also noticed the strained relationship between the two He said calmly. "Ms. Schneider. I can't fire the designer of Graceful Attire just because you don't like her. If you're the type to bring personal feelings into work. I don't think we need to continue our collaboration."

Zane squinted his eyes and said coldly, "Are you sure you want to offend the Schneider Group for a mere designer?"

Elliot raised an eyebrow, looking at Zane who seemed to be unaware that Briana Cameron was now the young lady of the Cameron family

"Ms. Schneider. Ms. Cameron's surname is Cameron, yours is Schneider, you should know what the surname of the leading family among the four major families in Haseton is, right?"

Zane's face darkened, then he said incredulously, "You're saying she's now connected with the Cameron family?!"

The Cameron family was an object that Kathy couldn't even curry favor with, how could Briana possibly have any connection with such a family?!

Elliot chuckled, "Ms. Schneider, you keep saying Ms Cameron is your daughter, but it seems like you don't really know her I suggest you do some investigation. I think Graceful Attire would rather offend the Schneider Group than the Cameron family "

Zane left Graceful Attire in a state of shock and immediately had his secretary investigate the relationship between Briana and the Cameron family upon returning to the villa.

In less than an hour, the secretary arrived at the villa with a serious expression, carrying a document.

“Ms. Schneider, the Cameron family had only one daughter, named Briana Cameron, who went abroad to study three years ago and only returned recently.”

Zane took the file and opened it, only to see the photo and information of Briana Cameron. He was so angry that he slammed the file on the table.

“No wonder she was so arrogant when she saw me at Graceful Attire today, turns out she has become the adopted daughter of the Cameron family!”

The secretary furrowed her brow, whispering, “Ms. Schneider, what do we do now?”

“You didn’t need to worry about this matter anymore, go ahead and liaise with those partners from Haseton first.”

“Alright.”

After the secretary left, Zane sat in the chair for a long time, finally making a decision in his heart.

The Schneider Group had just entered Haseton and was currently unaware of the Cameron family’s attitude towards Briana Cameron. If they rashly dealt with Briana Cameron, it could potentially affect the Schneider Group.

The most important thing now was to first stabilize the Schneider Group. As for dealing with Briana Cameron, it wouldn’t be too late to do it slowly once the Schneider Group had established itself in Haseton.

While lost in thought, a sudden scream came from the living room.

Zane’s face changed, he stood up and quickly walked out of the study. Seeing Mallory fallen on the ground, her stomach already stained red, panic flashed across his face. He yelled at the servant who was already scared stiff on the side, “Aren’t you going to call for emergency help?”

The servant snapped back to reality and hurried to make a phone call.
