

Fall for You 841

Chapter 841

Briana Cameron paused for a moment, looking up and saying, "Mr. Fairchild agreed to cooperate with the Yoder Group?"

"Um, the contract was already signed just now."

Upon hearing this, a smile tugged at the corner of Briana Cameron's mouth as she slowly said, "I merely mentioned it to Mrs. Fairchild. Mr. Fairchild ultimately chose the Yoder Group because he believed in your and the Yoder Group's capabilities."

Not taking credit for seeing her, Maxim couldn't help but pinch her nose, looking down at her with nothing but tenderness in his eyes.

"If it weren't for what you said in front of Mrs. Fairchild, the Fairchild Group wouldn't have chosen the Yoder Group. Moreover, I heard that you had saved Mrs. Fairchild before."

Briana Cameron nodded, "Yeah, I just happened to be passing by at that time."

Maxim rested his chin on top of her head, whispering, "If something like this happens again in the future. I hope you can put yourself first. You can help by calling the police, but don't go down to save people."

He couldn't imagine what he would do if something happened to Briana Cameron.

"Um, I understood."

Maxim held her for a while longer before letting go. Briana Cameron looked at him and said, "You should get back to work. Now that I know you've signed a contract with the Fairchild Group, a huge weight from tomorrow onwards."

"I wished I could see you anytime every day. Why don't you quit your job and become my secretary? I would pay you double your current salary, and even give you all my income."

Briana Cameron raised an eyebrow, refusing without hesitation, "No, if I stay by your side, I'll become a mascot. Besides, I like drawing design sketches."

A hint of disappointment flashed in Maxim's eyes, "Alright then."

"Alright, you work, I'll draw some pictures on the side."

"Mm-hmm."

Briana Cameron walked over to the couch, sat down and began to draw. while Maxim returned to his desk and started working.

When Rayan pushed the door open, he couldn't help but smile at the sight of the two people in a harmonious and beautiful scene.

"Mr. Yoder, this is the document that needs to be signed, please take a look."

“Alright, go gather the shareholders. The meeting will start in an hour.”

“Alright, I was on my way immediately.”

After Rayan left, Maxim continued to read the documents.

Briana Cameron had drawn several design drafts, she looked up at

Maxim, seeing him seriously reading a document, she couldn't help but watch him a little longer.

Sensing her gaze, Maxim looked up. Briana Cameron was like a student caught not paying attention in class, and quickly averted her eyes.

Maxim couldn't help but chuckle, “Feeling shy?”

“Who's being shy? I was just tired from drawing and looking around to relieve some fatigue. I didn't mean to stare at you!”

Maxim nodded, his face full of agreement, “I know, I didn't say you were deliberately looking at me. Your explanation actually makes you seem a bit guilty.”

Briana Cameron: “.....”

Truly, the more one talks, the more mistakes one makes!

Seeing her look of annoyance, Maxim laughed and said, “I'm your husband, you can look at me as much as you want, there's no need to feel embarrassed. Besides, I quite enjoy you staring at me.”

Briana Cameron turned to look at him, seeing the seriousness in his eyes, she couldn't help but purse her lips, her cheeks also began to turn red.

“Alright, you better get back to your documents. I heard you were a very cold person before, but I didn't expect that you could be quite unbearable when you start being cheesy!”

Chapter 842

“Gross, isn't it? It's too late for regrets now!”

Briana Cameron was about to speak when the cellphone on the table suddenly rang.

Seeing it was Anastasia, a flash of surprise crossed her eyes.

As soon as the call connected, Anastasia's somewhat anxious voice came through.

“Ms. Cameron, Mr. Murphy asked me to submit a design draft today. I've finished drawing it, but I'm not confident about it. Could you please help me take a look?”

Briana Cameron lowered her gaze, her emotions unreadable.

“I was a bit busy at the moment, so I might not have been able to take a look. You could directly ask Mr. Murphy for help. Mr. Murphy used to study design as well, he would definitely be able to point out any issues for you.”

There was a moment of silence on the phone, then Anastasia's voice came through, tinged with disappointment.

"Alright then, I won't bother you anymore."

After speaking, the person on the other end directly hung up the phone.

Briana Cameron put away her phone, her face devoid of any expression.

Noticing her bad mood, Maxim asked, "What's wrong?"

Briana Cameron looked at him, a smile tugging at the corner of her mouth, "It's okay."

Maxim furrowed his brow, "Briana, if you don't feel like laughing, you don't have to. In front of me, you don't need to pretend to be strong."

Briana Cameron paused for a moment, then shook her head and said, "I'm not pretending to be strong, I just think it's a minor issue, not important."

"Um, if anything happens, you must tell me."

"I knew."

"I should also go to the meeting now, you wait for me here, we will go to have dinner together after the meeting."

"Good."

Not long after Maxim left, Briana Cameron's phone rang again.

Seeing it was an unfamiliar number, Briana Cameron immediately hung up.

However, the other party kept calling several times, and finally, Briana Cameron answered.

Before even asking who the other party was, an angry voice had already come through.

"Briana Cameron, you are absolutely vile! Were you the one spreading those damaging rumors about Isaac online?!"

Recognizing that it was Kiley on the other end, Briana Cameron couldn't even be bothered to respond. She simply hung up the phone and promptly blocked the number.

Really didn't know where she found her phone number.

Even knowing that Kiley was her own twin sister, Briana Cameron had no affection for her, even feeling a sense of disgust whenever she saw her.

In fact, the things that Kiley did were indeed quite annoying.

On the other side. Kiley was so angry that she directly smashed her phone, startling Denise who was next to her. Denise shivered and tears welled up in her eyes.

Kiley gave her a cold glance, about to speak, when the villa's door was suddenly pushed open and Isaac walked in with a stern face.

Seeing him, a wave of fear involuntarily rose in Kiley's heart. After all, she had been beaten by Isaac so many times before, and the wounds on her body had not yet healed.

She stood up, forcing a smile, "God... Isaac, you're back..."

Isaac's expression was icy cold, his gaze on Kiley was incredibly grim. His eyes filled with darkness, it was unclear what he was thinking.

Kiley was frightened by his gaze and unnaturally averted her eyes.

"Isaac.....why weren't you speaking?"

Suddenly, a slow smile crept up the corners of Isaac's mouth. It was a cold, terrifying smile that made every pore on Kiley's body scream for escape. Yet, her feet seemed rooted to the spot, unable to move an inch.

"Kiley, come with me to the study,"

An hour later. Kiley staggered out of the study, her face pale without a trace of color

Chapter 843

Kiley shivered, lowering her head and said, "Let's have dinner first, I had the kitchen make your favorite dishes."

As her words fell, the entire living room was suddenly plunged into a cold silence.

"Didn't you understand what I said?"

Isaac stared at her intently, his eyes full of gloom.

Kiley bit her lower lip hard, about to speak, when Isaac continued. "Don't forget, as long as I can help the Schneider family and the Bynes Group, once I withdraw my investment, you should know better than anyone what will happen to your father and your aunt, right?"

She didn't want to deal with Zane and Kathy at all, but she also knew how serious the consequences of resisting Isaac were.

"I found out... I'll be right there."

A cruel smile curled up at the corner of Isaac's mouth, "That's more like it. I like obedient women."

Kiley slowly walked towards the study, with each step, the despair in her heart deepened.

Ever since he lost his symbol of manhood, Isaac had become increasingly perverse. Every time Kiley went to the study, she would be tormented by him to the point of near death.

An hour later, Kiley staggered out of the study, her face pale without a trace of color.

A faint smile was on Isaac's face, but it gave off a strange sense of discordance.

After dinner, Isaac returned to his study, just about to read some documents, when his secretary's call came in.

"Mr. Yoder, the unfavorable rumors about you on the internet have been dealt with, but the Fairchild Group refuses to cooperate with the Kingly Group under any circumstances."

A glint of coldness flashed in Isaac's eyes, he said coldly, "If you refuse to cooperate, then you are an enemy. Go investigate if the Fairchild Group has committed any illegal activities."

"Alright."

After hanging up the phone, Isaac dialed an international number.

After a few rings, the call was answered from the other end, a cold voice came through.

"What happened?"

"Scorpion, the key of the Yoder family, I haven't found out where it is yet, please give me some more time."

Scorpion sneered, "Did you fail to find anything, or did you not bother to look at all, wasting all your time seeking revenge on Maxim and Briana Cameron?"

Isaac's heart sank, he quickly said, "No... I planned to bankrupt the Yoder Group first, then force Maxim to hand over the key"

"Was it really that troublesome? Didn't he still have a grandmother in Bridenville? If you couldn't catch Maxim, couldn't you at least catch an old lady?"

Isaac fell silent, he didn't want to lay a hand on Norma.

Although Norma was not nice to him, she was, after all, his own grandmother.

Three years ago, when he kidnapped Norma, he was already filled with regret.

Sensing his resistance. Scorpion's voice deepened, "Isaac, you'd better understand, if it wasn't for me rescuing you, you'd still be locked in a pitch-dark basement. Do you think Norma would have saved you? You consider her family, but she has long since disowned you as her grandson!"

After speaking, Scorpion hung up the phone.

Isaac's grip on his phone tightened continuously, a glint of determination gradually flashing in his eyes.

He took a deep breath, dialed a number, and said coldly, "Bring Norma to Haseton!"

The next morning, Maxim received news from Bridenville Hospital that Norma had disappeared!

He immediately sent people to search, they searched for an entire day, but found no clues at all. They only discovered from the surveillance that Norma was taken away by a man wearing a mask

Just when Maxim came up empty-handed, Isaac sent him a video.

In the video, Norma was sitting on the sofa, her face full of confusion.

A glint of coldness flashed in Maxim's eyes as he directly dialed Isaac's number. However, Isaac hung up immediately, followed by a message.

"If you wanted to save her, bring the secret key in exchange!"

Chapter 844

Maxim's face turned extremely ugly, and he drove straight to the Vanderberg family

The butler saw him, a flash of surprise and delight in his eyes, "Young Master, are you here to see the Master? The Master has not been well lately, he's been constantly talking about you, but he wouldn't let us tell you..."

Before he could finish speaking, he was abruptly interrupted by Maxim.

"Butler Grandpa, where was he?"

For Cosmo, he had always refused to call him father, because he felt that Cosmo had never raised him and was not worthy to be his father.

"The master was in the study..."

"Good."

Maxim went straight to the study, where Cosmo was reading some documents. Seeing him push the door open without knocking. Cosmo couldn't help but frown.

"What were you doing?! How could you have no manners at all?!"

Maxim didn't beat around the bush, he straightforwardly said, "Give me the key!"

"What were you going to do with the key?!"

"My grandmother was kidnapped by Isaac. He said that in order to save her, I had to bring the secret key to him."

Upon hearing this, Cosmo's face turned extremely ugly. He said coldly, "No, the key is very important. It absolutely cannot fall into the hands of outsiders!"

"Give me the key!"

Seeing the coldness in Maxim's eyes, Cosmo fell silent for a few seconds. then slowly said, "I can give it to you, but you have to agree to one condition."

"What conditions?"

"You returned to the Vanderberg family."

"Impossible!"

Coldness filled Maxim's eyes as he stared intently at Cosmo, "My grandmother is my mother's mother, which makes her your mother-in-law. You were responsible for my mother's death, are you planning to kill her mother too?!"

Cosmo chuckled, looking at him with a calm demeanor.

"Maxim, it's really unfair of you to say that. It was the Yoder family who took your grandmother away, not me. You can't blame me for that. Besides, you know how important the key is to me. You want me to just give it to you without giving anything in return. Do you think that's fair?"

"You knew full well that the key was dangerous for my mother, yet you gave it to her anyway. The Yoder family has been safeguarding it for you for so many years. Now that my grandmother has been taken away because of the key, shouldn't you bring it out to save her?!"

"It wasn't that I was unwilling, it was you who were unwilling. As long as you agreed to my terms, I would have immediately had the key sent over."

Maxim looked at him coldly, his eyes full of ice, "You really have to push me like this?!"

"If I hadn't pushed you, you probably would never have agreed to return to the Vanderberg family in your lifetime."

As his words fell, the entire study also became quiet.

Maxim gave him a cold look for a moment, then said slowly and deliberately. "Fine. I can meet the Vanderberg family, but don't expect me to inherit the Vanderberg family!"

"Let's talk about this matter later."

As long as he returned to the Vanderberg family, it was only a matter of time before he would inherit.

Cosmo had someone bring the key to him, and he directly handed it over, saying, "Take it."

Maxim took the box, glanced at it, then looked at him with some suspicion, "You didn't give me a fake, did you?"

Cosmo sneered, "Do I need to give you a fake? Is that how despicable I am in your heart?"

"After all, you said the key was very important, yet you gave it to me so easily."

"The key was certainly important, but it had to fall into the hands of someone who knew how to use it. If it was in the hands of someone who didn't know how to use it, it was just a useless thing."

Maxim pursed his lips, said nothing more, and turned to leave directly.

An hour later, he appeared at the front door of Isaac's villa.

Just as I was about to walk in, my phone started ringing.

Chapter 845

Seeing it was Isaac, he answered with a cold expression.

"I had already brought the key, when did you release grandma?"

Isaac chuckled, "Don't rush, leave the key at the door. Once I've confirmed the authenticity of the key, I'll naturally let her go."

"No, I won't give you the key until I see my grandmother!"

Isaac sneered as he spoke, "Maxim, do you think you still have a choice? Leave the key at the door and get lost, or watch your grandmother die in front of you. You choose."

After a few seconds of silence, Maxim slowly said, "Isaac, this key is important to you, isn't it?"

"So what?"

"If I'm not mistaken, you collected this key for the people behind you. If the key is damaged, can you still hold your position as the president of Kingly Group?"

"You dare!"

Maxim's voice was devoid of any warmth, "Let me see my grandmother, a fair exchange, or even if I have to destroy the key, I won't give it to you!"

On the other end of the phone, Isaac's breathing suddenly became much heavier. After about ten seconds, his voice, gritting his teeth, finally sounded. grandma. Are you sure you wanted to see grandma get hurt?"

"If you dared to harm a single hair on my grandmother's head, I would immediately destroy the secret key."

Maxim's expression was indifferent, but his tone was very serious, making people feel that he was not joking.

Isaac was about to speak when his phone suddenly rang in his pocket.

Seeing it was Daniel, a flash of coldness passed through his eyes.

As soon as the call connected. Daniel's impolite voice came through.

"Mr. Yoder, please do as Maxim said."

Isaac took a deep breath, but still couldn't suppress the anger in his heart.

"I knew what I should do! It wasn't your place to remind me!"

"Mr. Yoder, if there was any loss of the key, Scorpion wouldn't let you off."

Isaac's grip on his phone tightened incessantly, veins throbbing visibly on his forehead, his emotions teetering on the brink of explosion.

He hung up the phone abruptly, coldly saying, "Release them!"

Chapter 846

The subordinate immediately let go of Norma. However, she had been hungry all day and didn't have much strength. After being pushed, she fell straight to the ground.

Isaac's face changed, just as he was about to reach out to grab Norma, Maxim quickly stepped forward and supported her.

"Grandma, were you okay?"

Norma shook her head, "I'm fine, Maxim, the key can't be given to him."

"Grandma, you are more important than the key."

After speaking, he tossed the box containing the secret key to Isaac and, supporting Norma, was about to leave.

However, after only taking two steps, Isaac sneered and said, "Stop them for me!"

The bodyguards, who had been watching vigilantly all around, immediately stepped forward and surrounded the two, making the atmosphere instantly extremely tense.

Maxim turned around and looked at Isaac coldly, "The key has already been given to you, what else do you want?"

"You gave me the key, but I still don't know whether this key is real or fake. Therefore, I need to confirm that the key is real before I can let you take grandma away."

"Did you think I was afraid of you? Today, I was determined to take grandma away!"

"That would depend on whether you had the ability or not!"

The surrounding bodyguards coldly stared at Maxim, seemingly ready to rush forward at any moment. However, the chill emanating from Maxim's body unconsciously stirred a touch of fear in their hearts.

"Maxim, either you leave grandma here today, or you leave sideways!"

Maxim looked at Isaac coldly, saying word by word, "Are you sure you want to provoke me?"

Isaac shamelessly said, "I'm just being cautious, don't worry, I definitely won't starve the baby again..."

Before he could finish speaking, no one saw how Maxim moved. Suddenly, he appeared in front of Isaac, gripping his throat tightly.

A suffocating sensation washed over him, Isaac was taken aback, his eyes filled with disbelief.

How could Maxim's skills be so good?!

"Leave or die by my hand, the choice is yours!"

Maxim's eyes were icy cold, filled with murderous intent

A flash of terror passed through Isaac's eyes, and his body couldn't help but shudder.

He could feel that Maxim had really wanted to kill him just now

"Fine, I'll let you go, but you have to release me first!"

There was no warmth in Maxim's eyes as he coldly said, "Have your men bring a rope!"

Guessing what he wanted to do, a flash of anger crossed Isaac's eyes, "Maxim, don't go too far!"

"Who was the one who went too far?"

Maxim's hand tightened around his neck a bit more, not letting go until Isaac was almost out of breath.

"Cough, cough, cough... Are you all deaf? Hurry up and bring the rope over!"

Soon, one of Isaac's men brought over a rope.

Maxim had tied up Isaac and threw him directly into the passenger seat. After helping Norma into the car, he drove off immediately.

It was not until the car entered the city that Maxim stopped the car and directly threw Isaac out.

Isaac watched the receding tail lights, his eyes filled with anger and humiliation.

Maxim, one day, I would make you experience what I felt today!

Chapter 847

His subordinates arrived quickly, saw Isaac lying on the side of the road with a look of distress, and hurriedly stepped forward to untie him.

"Mr. Yoder, were you alright?"

Isaac gave the speaker a cold glance and angrily said, "You're all a bunch of idiots!"

Facing his sinister gaze, his subordinates dared not speak.

"Take me to Kingly Group!"

Half an hour later, Isaac handed the key to Daniel, saying coldly, "Mr. Merchant, I have obtained the key of the Yoder family. Can you transfer half of the shares of the Kingly Group to me now?"

Daniel took the box with a nonchalant expression, saying, "I will have the key sent abroad immediately. If the key is genuine, I will sign the share transfer agreement right away."

"Good."

After Daniel left, a glint of coldness flashed in Isaac's eyes. He quickly stepped into his office. He had to investigate why Scorpion was so obsessed with the key, and what use the key had.

When Maxim's car stopped at the entrance of Gilded Bay Villa, Briana Cameron was cooking lunch.

Hearing the sound of the car engine, she turned off the stove and came out, a flash of surprise crossing her eyes as she saw Maxim and Norma.

"Maxim.....Norma....."

Seeing the confusion in her eyes, Maxim said in a deep voice, "I'll explain to you later."

"Good."

Briana Cameron was about to turn back to the villa, but her gaze suddenly fell on the rear window on the left side of his car.

After confirming that there really was a child inside, a flash of shock passed through her eyes, "That child is...

Maxim followed her gaze and saw Denise's face appear in the rear car window, a look of shock flashing across it.

He hurriedly went to open the back door, Denise looked at him. cautiously. "Uncle... I didn't want to stay with my mom and bad dad, so I secretly climbed into your car..."

As she spoke, she covertly watched him from the corner of her eye, as if afraid of angering him. Her face held a maturity that didn't match her age.

Maxim frowned, lifting her down.

"I was going to have the driver take you back later."

Although he liked Denise, she was, after all, the child of Kiley and Isaac, and they certainly wouldn't have allowed her to have too much contact with him.

Several people entered the house. After Maxim had Denise and Norma sit on the sofa to watch TV, he went over to Briana Cameron and explained everything that had happened that day.

Upon hearing that Denise was the child of Kiley and Isaac, Briana Cameron couldn't help but frown.

Maxim hurriedly said, "I know you don't like her, and I will have her sent away shortly. However, grandma might be staying in Haseton for a while, and I'm not comfortable sending her back to Bridenville. If you mind, I will find her another place to stay."

Realizing he had misunderstood her, Briana Cameron began to explain. "It's not that I don't like her. The adults are at fault, it has nothing to do with the child. It's just that our relationship with them makes it inappropriate to keep her here. As for grandma, you can hire a nanny to take care of her, she can stay here."

"Alright, I immediately sent someone to contact Kiley."

Denise, who had been secretly listening to the two people talking. suddenly burst into tears and sobbed, "I don't want to go back. Mom always hits me, and bad dad always hits mom. I don't want to live with them. Uncle, I want to live with you. I won't go back!"

After all, he had watched this child grow up from a young age. Maxim quickly stepped forward to pick her up, and it took him quite a while to soothe her.

It was certain that Denise had to be sent back. Now that Kiley and Isaac were both present, it was impossible to let Denise live with him. Moreover, he couldn't let Denise affect his relationship with Briana Cameron again.

Briana Cameron, who was standing nearby, saw Denise's swollen, tear-filled eyes and couldn't help but sigh, "Let's eat first, we can discuss sending her back this afternoon."

Denise stole a glance at Briana Cameron through Maxim's eyes, a flicker of curiosity flashing in her eyes.

She knew this lady, who looked just like her mother. Her mother used to look at her picture every day. At first, she thought it was her mother, but later the maid told her that this person was her mother's sister, also the person her mother disliked the most.

Chapter 848

However, she felt that this aunt was very gentle, and there was no such disgust in her eyes when she looked at her as her mother did.

She couldn't help but think, if only her aunt could be her mother...

Briana Cameron had Maxim serve the dishes while she herself dished out several bowls of rice from the kitchen.

Norma was now awake, and after tasting the food made by Briana Cameron, she immediately laughed until her eyes squinted.

"Briana, your cooking is really delicious, but don't do it too often. Just occasionally cook for this little brat, otherwise you might spoil his taste and he might ask you to cook every day."

Upon hearing this, Briana Cameron couldn't help but laugh, "Well, I know. I usually don't have time either."

"Well, don't work too hard. After all, you can spend Maxim's money as you please. If it's not enough, just have him work harder to earn more."

Seeing Norma's serious expression, a familiar feeling welled up in Briana Cameron's heart. She always felt that the two of them seemed to have interacted in the same way in the past.

"Alright, Grandma, I understood."

Looking at Briana Cameron with a smile on her face, Norma also revealed a smile, her eyes full of gratification.

Briana Cameron was eating with her head down, and out of the corner of her eye, she noticed Denise's gaze constantly falling on the cola chicken wing farthest from her. She picked one up and put it in her bowl.

"Eat up."

Denise's eyes widened dramatically, and after a good while, she spoke in a low voice, "Thank you, Auntie."

Briana Cameron chuckled, "No need to thank me, just tell me or your uncle directly what you want to eat."

Upon meeting Briana Cameron's gentle gaze, Denise's little face turned red. She quickly lowered her head to eat her chicken wing, but she couldn't help but wish for Briana Cameron to be her mother.

After finishing their meal, Maxim helped Briana Cameron clean up the dishes and put them in the dishwasher. As they left the kitchen, he noticed that Norma seemed a bit off and immediately approached her.

"Grandma, were you tired? I could take you to rest."

"Good."

Maxim took Norma to the guest room on the first floor. After she fell asleep, he tiptoed out and directly called Rayan.

"Go find two nannies, they need to be honest. The old lady will be staying in Haseton for a while."

After instructing Rayan, Maxim returned to the living room and saw Briana Cameron gently telling a fairy tale to Denise, with not a hint of impatience in her eyes.

He stood by and watched for a while, his originally cold eyes also became gentle.

After they had children, she would surely tell stories to the children with such patience. Thinking of that scene, a faint curve hooked up at the corner of Maxim's mouth.

Just thinking about that scene was already very blissful.

As she listened, Denise began to feel sleepy.

She clutched at Briana Cameron's sleeve, her eyelids gradually drooping.

Briana Cameron chuckled, handed her a pillow, let her lean on it, and whispered, "Denise, if you're tired, go to sleep."

"Good."

Denise gradually fell asleep.

The sound of Briana Cameron telling the story grew quieter and quieter, gradually coming to a stop.

She was about to get up to fetch a small blanket to cover her when suddenly Denise turned over, revealing an arm as white as a lotus root. However, there were several blue and purple marks on that arm, which were clearly man-made.

Her face changed color, a hint of coldness flashing in her eyes.

Just as she got up, she saw Maxim standing not far from the sofa, looking at her with a gentle expression.

She pursed her lips, fetched a small blanket from the guest room and covered Denise with it, then whispered, "I have something to tell you, let's go to the study."

Chapter 849

The two walked into the study, and as soon as the door was closed, Maxim had her by the waist.

The moment his lips pressed down, Briana Cameron abruptly put up her hand to stop him, whispering, "I have something important to talk to you about."

Maxim felt somewhat wronged, "This is also serious business for me."

"Wait a moment, you let go of me first."

"I refused, and you said just that."

Briana Cameron: "....."

After a moment of silence, her voice became serious, "After Denise fell asleep just now. I saw many bruises on her arm, which should have been caused deliberately. I suspect... Kiley or Isaac often vent their anger on her."

However, judging by the depth of the marks on the arm, it was highly likely that the person was Kiley.

The thought of her venting her frustrations on a three-year-old child filled Briana Cameron with a surge of disgust.

Maxim's face instantly turned incredibly ugly, he said coldly, "I'll get a doctor right away!"

On the other side, Kiley finally realized that Denise was missing and immediately asked the villa's servants to look for her.

Isaac was originally handling work at the company, quickly learned about this matter, and immediately rushed back.

Seeing the anxious look on Kiley's face, his own face turned extremely cold, "How on earth could Denise be lost?!"

Kiley didn't dare to look into his eyes, she lowered her head and said, "I... I don't know... I felt a bit dizzy just now, so I rested in the bedroom for a while. I didn't expect that when I came out, Denise was gone..."

Isaac sneered, gripping her chin and forcing her to look up at him.

"You'd better bring Denise back as soon as possible, or I won't let you off easily!"

Kiley's body shuddered, her eyes full of grievance, "With so many servants at home, how was I to know she would suddenly go missing..."

No sooner had the words fallen than Isaac slapped her.

"You were Denise's mother, those servants were there to assist you in taking care of the child. Now that the child is lost, you still have the nerve to argue. Go find her immediately!"

Kiley's face stung with pain, but she dared not say anything. She quickly turned around and began searching for Denise in the villa.

She was filled with anger, secretly thinking that once she found Denise, she would definitely teach her a lesson when Isaac was not at home!

After searching for more than half an hour, Denise was nowhere to be found. At that moment, the servant who was checking the surveillance hurriedly ran to Isaac.

“Mr. Yoder, I saw from the surveillance that the lady sneaked into

Upon hearing this, Isaac’s face instantly turned extremely unsightly. He said coldly, “Go call the driver to bring the car over!”

He didn’t think Maxim would treat his child well, and Maxim even told him about Denise being in his car, he must have wanted to use Denise for something.

Kiley happened to come by and heard that Denise was at Maxim’s. She immediately turned pale and froze on the spot.

Isaac had risen, preparing to leave, when he caught sight of Kiley standing nearby out of the corner of his eye. He coldly commanded, “Follow!”

Kiley didn’t want to go, but she knew that if she didn’t, Isaac wouldn’t let her off the hook, so she gritted her teeth and followed.

After getting in the car, Isaac immediately called Maxim.

“Maxim, was Denise with you?!”

“It just so happened that I needed to see you as well, could you come over now?”

After speaking, Maxim hung up the phone.

Listening to the busy tone on the phone, anger was all over Isaac’s face. and he backhandedly slapped Kiley again.

“Fool, if it weren’t for you, Denise wouldn’t have been taken away by Maxim!”

Chapter 850

Kiley fell to the ground, her face contorted in pain, yet she dared not show the slightest dissatisfaction.

She bit her lower lip hard, tears welling up in her eyes, “Isaac... I... I really didn’t mean to... I don’t know why Denise ended up in Maxim’s car...”

No sooner had the words left his mouth than he was kicked by Isaac.

“Ah!”

Kiley let out a scream, her face instantly turning pale. She clutched her stomach tightly, large beads of cold sweat dripping from her forehead.

It hurt so much!

Isaac was really ruthless!

With her head lowered, her eyes filled with hatred and anger, she would definitely not let Isaac get away with what he had done to her!

“Isaac the most important thing right now is to go and bring Denise back. everything else.....we’ll talk about it later.....’

Isaac looked down at her from a higher position, coldly saying, “You’d better pray that nothing happened to Denise, or I will make your life a living hell!”

His voice was bone–chillingly cold, and Kiley couldn’t help but shiver.

“Still can’t afford it, waiting for me to treat you?”

Kiley bit her lower lip, enduring the pain in her body as she got up.

She limped along behind him.

Isaac didn’t care at all whether Kiley could keep up with him, he quickly walked out of the villa.

Kiley gritted her teeth and kept up, trying her best to match his pace, because she knew that once she slowed down, she had no idea what Isaac might do to her.

In less than an hour, Isaac’s car had stopped in front of Maxim’s villa.

He pushed open the car door and got out with a cold expression.

Just as I reached the door, the villa’s door opened from the inside.

Seeing Maxim, he asked coldly, “Where is my daughter?”

There was no warmth in Maxim’s eyes as he said, word by word, “Isaac. are you fit to be a father?!”

The doctor had just come over to examine Denise. finding various new and old scars of all sizes on her body. Maxim could hardly believe his Own ears.

Initially, it was Kiley who insisted on keeping Denise, and she even promised to raise Denise properly. Unexpectedly, she was secretly abusing Denise at will!

Thinking of this, Maxim’s gaze turned icy cold, and the look he gave Kiley was filled with anger.

Kiley met his icy gaze abruptly, her face turning pale with fright, and she even stumbled a step.

Even if Maxim didn’t like her in the past, he wouldn’t look at her with such an expression... Could it be... he found out about that thing?!

Before Kiley could think further, Isaac’s cold voice rang out, “Maxim, what right do you have to judge whether I’m worthy or not? Hand over Denise, or I’ll call the police!”

Maxim sneered, “Hand her over to you, and then go back to continue being abused?!”

Kiley’s face turned pale, a flash of terror in her eyes.

Maxim indeed knew about that matter!

Isaac, however, looked surprised and frowned, “Abuse? I’ve never...”

At this point, he abruptly stopped, turning his head to give Kiley a cold stare.

“What did you do to Denise?!”

His fierce and cold gaze filled Kiley with a surge of fear, causing her to unconsciously step back twice.
