

Fall for You 931

Chapter 931

Early the next morning, as soon as Maxim arrived at the company, a shareholder approached him, starting to question him about the recent incident of the Yoder Group client being poached.

“Mr. Yoder, the company has recently lost many clients. If this continues, the Yoder Group will inevitably go bankrupt!”

“Yeah, recently when I went to do business, many clients’ intentions were not as strong as before, they obviously tended to cooperate with Kingly Group.”

“If the situation wasn’t reversed soon, I would have no choice but to sell my shares in the Yoder Group!”

Detecting the threat in the other party’s words, Maxim looked at him with a cold expression, “Fine, come to my office now. I’ll have my lawyer come over to estimate the market value of your shares.”

After speaking, he turned around and walked straight into the office, not caring how ugly the faces of the shareholders behind him looked.

It was not until only he and a few other shareholders were left that he spoke with a bewildered expression, “I just made a casual remark... How could Mr. Yoder take it seriously?”

One of the shareholders patted his shoulder sympathetically, “Go prepare to take the money and leave the Yoder Group.”

What Maxim detested the most was shareholders threatening him with the sale of their shares. Those who had threatened him in the past were either stripped of their rights or expelled from the Yoder Group.

The shareholder furrowed his brow, gritted his teeth and said, “I won’t sell my shares, I won’t sign, let’s see what he can do to me!”

The other party looked at him as if he was a fool, “I advise you to sell your shares now and take the money and leave, so as not to end up with nothing.”

They had all witnessed Maxim’s way of dealing with people, so they dared not provoke him lightly.

He snorted coldly, “I’m going back to my office now, I don’t believe he would dare to come to my office and ask me to sell my shares!”

After speaking, he turned around and quickly walked away.

No matter how I looked at it, that retreating figure just seemed to be fleeing in panic.

Rayan followed Maxim into the office, handing him a document he was holding.

“Mr. Yoder, this was the thing you asked me to investigate.”

Maxim took the file, looked at it for a while, then put it down and said, “Give Sabina a nudge to stir things up, don’t let Zane have time to deal with the Yoder Group. And as for Kathy, since she’s so idle, assign her tasks to the second young master of the Bynes family.”

Rayan nodded, “Alright, I’ll do it right away.”

Haseton’s First Hospital.

Briana Cameron had just finished reviewing and had barely reached the corner when she bumped into a woman wearing a mask.

Both of them almost fell over. Just as Briana Cameron steadied herself, a sharp voice rang out beside her ear.

“Are you blind?! You even bumped into someone while walking!”

A flash of impatience flickered in Briana Cameron’s eyes. As she lifted her gaze to speak, the other party recoiled several steps as if they had seen a ghost upon seeing her face.

“You... you were dead, weren’t you?!”

Seeing the terror and fear in the other person’s eyes, Briana Cameron furrowed her brows, “Who are you? Do I know you?”

“No, no, no... I didn’t know...”

After speaking, Sabina turned and ran off quickly.

It wasn’t until she ran out of the hospital that she stopped, her mind filled with shock. How could someone who had been dead for three years suddenly come back to life?!

She temporarily had no mind to trouble Mallory again, so she took a taxi and went straight back to the hotel.

Seeing her return so quickly, surprise filled Lewis’s eyes, “That smooth?”

Sabina irritably put down her bag, frowning, “Don’t even mention it, I saw Briana at the hospital, got a fright, and came Hearing this, a flash of surprise crossed Lewis’s eyes. He frowned and said, “So it’s all about this? I forgot to tell you, Briana didn’t die. Instead, she transformed and became the adopted daughter of the Cameron family. She even changed her name. Now she’s called Briana Cameron.”

Chapter 932

“Why didn’t you tell me? I thought I saw a ghost when I saw her today, it scared me!” Sabina said with a tone of complaint.

With an innocent look on his face, Lewis said, “How was I supposed to know you would run into her? But now she has absolutely no connection with the Schneider family, and she won’t affect you. You don’t need to worry about her.”

Sabina was silent for a moment, then suddenly said, “No, I have to find Zane first, I can’t find Mallory first.”

Once Zane was taken down, it would be time to figure out how to eliminate Mallory and the child in her womb.

Speaking of which...

If it hadn't been for that letter, she wouldn't have sought out Haseton, and she even seduced Lewis.

Who wrote that letter to her, she still didn't know.

Lewis was silent for a moment, then suddenly spoke, "Are you sure you want to find Zane now?"

He had recently developed feelings for Sabina after sleeping with her and somewhat didn't want her to sleep with Zane anymore.

Sabina looked at him with confusion, nodding her head and said, "Right, didn't we agree on this a long time ago? What does your current attitude mean? You're not thinking of backing out on me, are you?!"

"It's not... I just didn't want Zane to touch you."

Seeing the embarrassed look on Lewis's face, a hint of mockery flashed in Sabina's eyes, "Lewis, you didn't fall in love with me, did you?"

Seeing her contemptuous expression and tone, a surge of anger suddenly welled up in Lewis's heart. He gritted his teeth and said, "How could it be! Our relationship was nothing more than a matter of using each other. It's just that no man likes to share a woman with another man."

"If you were not willing, I could go find someone else."

After speaking, Sabina stood up and was about to leave.

Panic flashed in Lewis's eyes, and he quickly stepped forward to stop her. "No, it's not as easy for others to approach Zane as it is for me. Besides, we're now in this together, who knows if you'll tell Zane about us when you leave me!"

Having been by Zane's side for so many years, Sabina could certainly read Lewis's thoughts.

However, she didn't expose him. Lewis liking her was actually a good thing for her, as it would make it easier for her to manipulate him when the time came.

"I was going to meet Zane tonight."

Lewis was silent for a few seconds, then nodded and said, "Okay!"

On the other side, Briana Cameron returned to the villa, still finding that person suspicious, and made a call to Maxim.

"Maxim, I met a strange person at the hospital today. She seemed to know me, but her reaction was odd when she saw me. Could you help me find out who she is?"

"Good."

About ten minutes later, Maxim's call came back.

"It was confirmed, that person was Sabina, Zane's lover. She had previously given birth to a son for Zane, but after the child had an accident and became mentally disabled, Zane became very cold towards her. Her appearance in Haseton this time was probably to look for Zane."

After listening to Briana Cameron, he couldn't help but frown. How could the Schneider family be so chaotic? Zane wasn't very capable, but his private life was a mess.

"Alright, I understood."

"Right, Briana, there's one more thing."

Hearing a hint of hesitation in his voice, Briana Cameron raised an eyebrow, "What's the matter?"

"It was your biological mother... She is now pregnant and is in Haseton's First Hospital for fetal protection. So, Sabina's appearance at the hospital is probably related to her."

Upon hearing this, Briana Cameron lowered her gaze, her eyes devoid of any emotion..

"It had nothing to do with me."

She had no feelings for Mallory whatsoever, and what happened between Sabina and Mallory was none of her business.

Chapter 933

Upon hearing this, a glint of darkness flashed in Maxim's eyes as he murmured, "Alright."

After hanging up the phone, Maxim felt a sense of relief. He was planning to use Sabina against Zane. Sabina's purpose in coming to Haseton was to take revenge on Zane and Mallory, so the child in Mallory's womb was likely not going to be safe.

He had just told Briana Cameron about this matter, also to test her attitude. If she still cared about the Schneider family, he would find another way to deal with Zane.

In the evening, just as Zane had finished work and was preparing to go to the hospital, he received a call from an unknown number.

As soon as it got through, Sabina's sulky voice came through.

"Zane, did you not want me to be with Victor?"

Zane frowned, a flash of impatience in his eyes, but he still patiently said, "No, I've been a bit busy lately. Once I'm done, I'll come to see you and Victor."

"You lied, I know..." Sabina's voice suddenly choked, "I know Mallory is pregnant, you are with her in Haseton taking care of her... Lalso came..."

Upon hearing this, Zane's face changed dramatically. Ever since Victor had become a fool, Sabina's mood had become unpredictable. He had been hiding the fact that Mallory was pregnant, for fear that Sabina would do something rash.

“What did you say?! Where were you now?!”

Sabina’s voice was tinged with a sob as she spoke in a wronged tone, “Why are you so nervous? Do you really think I would do something to Mallory?”

“Where on earth were you then?”

“I was at Maple Hotel, the room number was 1402.”

After speaking, Sabina hung up the phone.

Fury filled Zane’s eyes as he directed the driver, “To the Maple Hotel!”

If Sabina dared to do anything that hurt Mallory, he would definitely not let her off!

At this thought, a glint of coldness flashed in Zane’s eyes.

Victor had become a fool, and was now of no use to Zane. He couldn’t possibly let a fool inherit the Schneider Group.

If necessary, he could have made Sabina and Victor disappear from this world!

Half an hour later, Zane stood uncomfortably in front of room 1402, knocking on the door.

Soon, the door was opened.

After seeing the scene inside, Zane’s breathing suddenly became much heavier.

Sabina was dressed in a deep V-neck red nightgown, so short that it barely covered her buttocks. The view of her chest was tantalizingly hidden and revealed. Her straight, slender legs were full of temptation, like a succubus draining the life out of people, consuming Zane’s sanity.

His desire surged suddenly. After Mallory got pregnant, he had been running between the company and the hospital, and it had been a long time since he had interacted with a woman.

However, thinking about his child, he immediately calmed down.

“Sabina, what on earth did you want to do?!”

Seeing the anger and murderous intent in his eyes, a chill ran through Sabina’s heart. He truly didn’t love her anymore.

Perhaps he had never loved, after all, how could one believe a man’s words in bed.

Thinking of this, she bit her lower lip, and tears flickered in her eyes for a moment.

“Zane, I didn’t want to do anything. You ignored me for a while, and I’ve figured it out. I just want to be with you, whether we have a title or not doesn’t matter anymore. As for Victor, he really can’t be blamed. It’s just our mother and son’s bad luck...”

Seeing her crying, her face wet with tears, Zane's heart involuntarily softened a bit. After all, she was a woman who had been with him for several years.

He fell silent for a moment, then said in a somewhat stiff tone, "It's best if you think that way. We've consulted many doctors over the past few years, but Victor's illness is indeed incurable. I'm helpless."

Chapter 934

Sabina lowered her gaze, hiding the hatred in her eyes.

She choked out, "I know... I was just immersed in my own world before, but you were also very sad, and you had to comfort me every day. Looking back now, I was a bit too much..."

Zane felt relieved after saying this, and quickly echoed, "It's good that you know, Victor is my son, and I was very upset when he had an accident and became a fool. But we can't always dwell on the past, people have to look forward... Maybe one day, Victor will suddenly get better."

Sabina sneered inwardly, but her face showed agreement, "You're right, I came here this time to apologize to you, I know I was wrong... All I want now is to be with you, I don't want anything else..."

Seeing Sabina revert to her previous docile demeanor, Zane didn't find her as repulsive as before, but his face still remained somewhat cold.

"It's good that you know, as long as you behave, I definitely won't treat you and Victor unfairly!"

Sabina looked at him cautiously, "Zane... is this... you forgiving me?"

Zane nodded, "Hmm, but it still depends on your behavior afterwards. If you don't behave, I can abandon you at any time."

Upon hearing this, Sabina's eyes moistened again, "Who else can I rely on besides you, Victor? I will definitely behave, I won't lose my temper at you again."

Zane nodded, "You'd better remember this sentence."

Seeing that Zane's face was not as cold as before, Sabina immediately leaned in with her red lips.

Zane hadn't been with a woman for a while, and now the two of them were like dry wood meeting a raging fire, quickly becoming entangled with each other.

Over at the hospital, Mallory waited for Zane from left to right but he didn't show up, she couldn't help but frown.

She picked up her phone and called Zane, but there was no answer on the other end, which made her increasingly anxious.

Ever since she became pregnant, the first thing Zane did after work every day was to visit her at the hospital, without ever missing a day. Therefore, she had a bad feeling now.

It wasn't until an hour later that Zane called her.

"Mallory, the company was a bit busy today, I was just in a meeting, and I just left the company now. I won't be coming over tonight, I'll come to see you tomorrow."

"Alright then, you rest well."

After hanging up the phone, Mallory lowered her gaze, feeling that she had indeed been a bit sensitive lately, so she put down her phone and prepared to sleep.

Little did they know, Zane was making love with Sabina in the hotel at that very moment.

Sabina's fingers were tracing circles on Zane's chest, laughing as she said, "Zane, it's not nice to deceive Mallory like this. Why don't you go to the hospital to see her now? I'll be waiting here for you."

With a grab of his hand, Zane's face was full of lewd smiles, "Don't mind her, let's continue."

"Ugh, you're so mean!"

"Didn't you just love my bad side?"

A blush-inducing, heart-throbbing sound echoed in the room again, lingering for a long time without ceasing.

"Buzz, buzz, buzz!"

Kiley picked up her phone and answered, "What's wrong?"

"Ms. Schneider, Zane entered Sabina's room two hours ago and hasn't come out yet."

A smirk tugged at the corner of Kiley's mouth, "Understood, when he comes out, take some photos, so we won't have to tail him anymore."

"Alright."

After hanging up the phone, a flash of ruthlessness flickered in Kiley's eyes.

Don't blame her for being too harsh, blame Zane and Mallory for being selfish, they never considered her! For the next half month, Zane would go to see Sabina whenever he had free time, and the time they spent together was getting longer and longer.

Chapter 935

Since becoming pregnant, Mallory's personality had become much sharper. Noticing that Zane always hurriedly left after sitting in the ward for a while, Mallory began to suspect that he had someone else outside.

However, she quickly calmed down.

The most important thing now was the child in her belly. As long as this child could be born safely, no matter how Zane played outside, in the end, the Schneider Group would still be handed over to her son.

After realizing this, she began to turn a blind eye.

Kiley had waited for a long time without hearing any movement from Sabina's side, and decided to give her a hand.

She called Mallory, casually saying, "Mom, I'm thinking of taking Denise back to Bridenville in a couple of days, and I'd like you to help me look after Denise then."

There was a pause from Mallory's end, "Kiley, I've been traveling recently, so I might not be able to make it back."

"Why did you suddenly go on a trip?"

"It was... I just wanted to go out and relax, so I went out directly, without telling you."

Kiley sighed, hesitatingly said, "Actually, there's something I've been wanting to tell you... but I don't know how to start..."

What happened?"

"Didn't Dad recently come to Haseton? I heard some rumors about him..."

"What rumors?"

"Someone...someone told me they saw my dad going into a hotel room with another woman... Mom, you're out traveling now, he wouldn't really..."

Before she could finish her sentence, Mallory interrupted her coldly, "That's not true, someone must be slandering your father! Don't worry about this, I will confront him and get to the bottom of it!"

"Alright, Mom, have a good time and don't let this matter affect your mood."

"Um, I have something else to do here, so I won't talk to you for now."

After hanging up the phone, Mallory immediately called Zane, saying coldly, "You need to come to the hospital right away."

"What happened?"

"You would know if you came over!"

After speaking, without giving Zane another chance to speak, Mallory directly hung up the phone.

Half an hour later, Zane pushed open the ward door, a hint of impatience in his eyes.

"What on earth did you call me over for?! I have a lot of work at my company, I'm very busy, it's impossible for me to revolve around you all the time!"

Mallory sneered, directly picking up the water cup next to her and smashing it at his feet. With a loud “bang”, the cup shattered into pieces, startling Zane.

“Mallory, have you gone mad?!”

“Yes! I was crazy! If I wasn’t crazy, why would I be risking my life to have a child for you at this age? And you, you were out there, sleeping with other women!”

A flicker of guilt flashed in Zane’s eyes, followed by an angry outburst, “Who has been filling your ears with nonsense!? I must skin him alive!”

Mallory looked at him coldly, “Do you dare swear that you haven’t been fooling around with other women outside? I’ve noticed your perfunctory attitude towards me lately, but I’ve been thinking about our child and didn’t want to bother with you. However, if you make a spectacle of yourself and embarrass me, I won’t have this baby!”

Hearing this, Zane also became angry, coldly saying, “For me?! Mallory, weren’t you doing it for yourself?! You insisted on having a son, wasn’t it just so that your son could inherit the Schneider Group in the future?! Don’t make yourself sound so noble!”

“I did have my own considerations, but think about it, Victor was a fool. If I didn’t have a child for you, wouldn’t the Schneider Group end up in your brother’s hands in the future?!”

Seeing Mallory so emotional, her face flushed red, Zane took a deep breath to calm himself down.

“Alright, let’s all calm down. I will handle this matter well and you won’t hear these rumors anymore!”

Mallory looked at him, word by word she asked, “I just want to know, do you have another woman outside?!”

Chapter 936

Mallory looked at him coldly, “Just answer my question.”

After a moment of silence, Zane finally spoke, “You have to understand me too, after all, I have needs. You can’t expect me to solve them all by myself, can you?”

Upon hearing this, Mallory just felt a wave of nausea.

“Zane, do you still remember how you promised me back. then?”

Knowing he was in the wrong, Zane lowered his voice, “Mallory, I am the president of the Schneider Group. You should have known the day you married me, I wouldn’t have just one woman.”

Mallory took a deep breath, and said word by word, “I don’t care how you play outside, I only have one requirement, that woman cannot get pregnant, otherwise, I will definitely not let you go!”

Seeing that she had no intention of pursuing the matter, Zane quickly assured, “Don’t worry, I will definitely not get her pregnant. The child in your belly is the future heir of the Schneider Group!”

“You swore that if you broke your oath, you would end up losing everything, falling into utter poverty!”

Intly patted her back, nodding and said, "Alright, swear, if I break my promise, I won't die a peaceful death. Is that okay now? You're pregnant, you can't get too excited."

Mallory's eyes were filled with mockery, "How could I possibly get upset if you didn't mess around outside?"

"I understood, I will definitely restrain myself in the future, prioritizing you and the child in everything. Is that okay now?"

Mallory didn't believe his words, but she didn't feel like pursuing it at the moment. She simply said, "Yesterday, Kiley called me, saying she wanted to meet in Bridenville and asked me to bring Denise. When do you plan to tell her about my pregnancy?"

"Give it some more time, there's no need to rush. The collaboration between the Schneider Group and the Kingly Group is not yet stable. Let's wait until it stabilizes."

Mallory nodded, saying with a bit of a headache, "As soon as possible, I haven't been in the mood to keep hiding it from her lately."

"Alright, I understood."

After pacifying Mallory, Zane left the hospital to find Sabina at the hotel.

However, when it came to the matter of whether or not to let Sabina get pregnant, Zane didn't listen to Mallory. After all, he could afford it, and Sabina was young, so the child she might bear could be even healthier.

If Sabina could have given him another son, he wouldn't have letting Sabina's child take over the Schneider Group.

After all, for him, as long as it was his child, nothing else mattered.

Zane just hadn't expected that his affair with Sabina would actually be exposed online.

When he received the call from his secretary, he was still in bed with Sabina.

"Ms. Schneider, it's bad news. The incident of you being in a hotel room with a young woman has been posted online. It has caused a very negative impact on the image of the Schneider Group. Several potential partners who were interested in us before are now unwilling to cooperate with us!"

Upon hearing this, Zane's face instantly turned incredibly unsightly.

He sat up abruptly, angrily saying, "Quickly suppress this matter, and also investigate who exactly sent this matter up!"

"We couldn't suppress it, so we went to negotiate with Twitter, but Twitter never responded. I suspect that the Schneider Group's competitors are playing tricks behind the scenes!"

Zane was so angry that he almost threw his phone, “Even if it can’t be suppressed, it must be. I’ll go find someone to smooth things over. You quickly contact the Public Relations Department. In the public statement, just say that I was conducting business, not messing around in the hotel.”

After hanging up the phone, Zane immediately called Kiley.

Chapter 937

“Kiley, I had something I needed your help with...”

After telling Kiley about the situation online, Zane whispered, “Kiley, you must go and talk to Isaac about this for me, he must help me! Otherwise, the Schneider Group is finished!”

I originally thought Kiley would agree, but to my surprise, she fell silent for a moment before saying, “Dad, Isaac doesn’t like me, he won’t listen to me. If you need his help, you should call him yourself.”

“Kiley.....”

Before the conversation was even over, Kiley had already hung up the phone, which made Zane so angry that he gritted his teeth.

However, at that moment, he was not in the mood to lecture Kiley, he immediately dialed Isaac’s number.

After hearing the whole story, Isaac sneered, “Ms. Schneider, you can’t even manage your own lower half, let alone keep a secret. Why on earth should I clean up your mess?!”

“Isaac, after all, I am Denise’s grandfather... If you ignore me, once Denise finds out, she will definitely think you are too cold-blooded and heartless, you know...”

Before he could finish speaking, Isaac interrupted him with a cold laugh, “Ms. Schneider, when Kiley and Denise were living with the Schneider family, you didn’t seem to treat Denise very well, did you? Now you’re using this identity to ask for my help, isn’t that a bit shameless?”

Zane gritted his teeth and said in a deep voice, “Fine, I won’t mention this identity. If you want to use the Schneider Group against the Yoder Group, shouldn’t you protect the Schneider Group?”

“This statement is even more absurd. There are plenty of companies willing to help me deal with the Yoder Group. Even if the Schneider Group goes bankrupt, it won’t affect me in the slightest. Ms. Schneider, you’d better handle the problems you’ve caused yourself. Otherwise, I can terminate my cooperation with the Schneider Group at any time.”

After speaking, Isaac immediately hung up the phone.

Zane was angry, but he was helpless, after all, he couldn’t afford to offend Isaac.

After much deliberation, he finally decided to contact Kathy.

Unexpectedly, it wasn’t until the third call that the other side answered.

“Kathy, there was something I wanted you to help me with.”

No sooner had the words fallen than Kathy's tired voice came through.

"I've been busy lately, my husband has been trying to divorce me recently. If you need anything, please contact Kiley or handle it yourself."

Upon hearing this, Zane's face changed dramatically, he hurriedly asked, "What's going on? Why does he suddenly want to divorce you when everything was fine?"

"This matter was complicated, I didn't tell you about it first, there was something else going on here."

The busy tone echoed through the phone, and Zane sat blankly on the bed, his face full of confusion.

How did it happen that overnight, no one was willing to help him, and why were he and Kathy so unlucky? One was caught on camera in a hotel room and the footage was posted online, while the other's husband suddenly wanted a divorce.

A faint voice in his heart told him that this matter was not so simple.

However, apart from the secretary's investigation, he had no other options.

Sabina, standing by his side, wrapped her arms around his waist and whispered softly, "Zane, don't worry. If there's really no way out in the end, I'll step forward and say that I seduced you. It has nothing to do with you."

Hearing this, Zane was somewhat touched. He gently patted her back and said, "Don't worry, I will definitely find a way to try to prevent that day from coming."

"Anyway, for you, I was willing to do anything."

Comparing Sabina's kindness to herself and Kiley's indifference just now, Zane suddenly felt very cold towards Kiley. It was clear that all she had to do was speak to Isaac and she could help the Schneider Group through their difficulties, but she refused.

Chapter 938

"Alright, I'm going to the company first. Recently, I will find a house for you in Haseton, so we won't have people watching us anymore if we stop coming to the hotel."

Sabina obediently nodded, "Alright, I'll listen to you."

Zane got dressed and immediately went to the Schneider Group, calling the manager of the Public Relations Department into his office.

"How did things go online? Was there any way to suppress it?!"

The manager of the Public Relations Department looked upset, and said, "Ms. Schneider, I've tried, but I can't suppress it... Everyone online is cursing you and our company now. I guess by tomorrow morning, the stock price will drop."

The Schneider Group had just gone public this year, and if the stock price were to fall, it would cause incalculable damage to the company.

He gritted his teeth, "Find a way to clarify!"

The manager of the Public Relations Department handed him the mobile phone and sighed, "Ms. Schneider, see for yourself."

It wasn't that he didn't want to clarify, but the whole country already knew about this matter now, so even if he did clarify, it would be useless.

The key was that the other party not only posted his photos of going to the hotel, but also the video of him and Sabina entering the hotel together. Not only Zane, even Sabina's personal information had already been dug out.

"Ms. Schneider, all your information has now been discovered by someone, including the fact that Ms. Laurier was your mistress and had a child for you."

Zane only felt a darkness before his eyes, trembling as he clicked open the comment section, every comment was cursing him and Sabina.

"Really, I've seen it all now. Zane could even be Sabina's father, and she didn't mind!"

"Hehe, so much money, wasn't Sabina's family quite poor? With this old man on the list, she won't have to worry about food and drink. Moreover, she even gave birth to a son for him a few years ago. However, an accident happened later and the child became mentally disabled. This is retribution!"

"All I can say is that she deserved it. But she even fancies such old cucumbers, she really isn't picky, as long as there's money, she would lie down!"

Derisive and contemptuous comments filled his vision, one after another. Zane, infuriated, slammed his phone onto the table and barked at the Public Relations Department manager, "Get out!"

"Buzz buzz buzz!"

The phone in his pocket suddenly rang, and seeing it was

Mallory, it took Zane quite a while to answer.

"Mr. Schneider, you need to come to the hospital immediately! Your wife just saw the news about you and Sabina, she was so upset that she fainted and started bleeding... The doctor said there's a high chance we might not be able to save the baby!"

Upon hearing this, Zane's face turned incredibly grim, gritting his teeth, he said, "I'm coming right away! The child must not be in trouble!"

In less than half an hour, Zane had arrived at the hospital, his face covered in sweat, looking genuinely worried.

“How was it?! Was the child saved?”

The caregiver shook her head and sighed, “We couldn’t save her... The lady is now in the ward... She’s already awake, you should go in and see her.”

Zane’s face turned ashen, slowly pushing the door open and walking in.

Mallory was lying on the hospital bed with her back to him, completely lifeless, her breathing barely noticeable.

Zane stood at the door for a while before slowly walking in.

“Mallory.....”

Mallory didn’t look at him, nor did she react at all, she just stared blankly out the window, not knowing what she was thinking about.

Chapter 939

A wave of guilt surged in Zane’s heart. He walked over and sat by the hospital bed, gently patting Mallory’s back. “There will be more chances for children in the future. You need to take care of your health and not overthink,” he said.

No sooner had the words left his mouth than he was slapped by Mallory.

This slap seemed to have used up all her strength. After hitting Zane, her body fell back heavily onto the sickbed, and the expression on her face became distorted.

“Zane! I hate you! You knew full well that Sabina is the one I hate the most. If you were with any other woman, my child wouldn’t have been lost. That child was killed because of you and her. You both are murderers!”

Zane hadn’t expected her to strike. By the time he reacted, it was too late to dodge, and he took the slap squarely.

A burning pain spread across his face, and his scant guilt vanished with this slap.

“Mallory, I was being so careful with you because you just lost a child, and yet you dare to hit me. I’m telling you, what’s wrong with me being with Sabina? You can’t give birth to a son, am I not allowed to find someone else? Sabina is younger than you, and her children are healthier. If you didn’t insist on having a child, do you think I would want to touch you?!”

Facing Zane’s ferocious and disgusted gaze, Mallory was so angry that she almost couldn’t catch her breath, gritting her teeth and saying, “Get out! Get out right now! I don’t want to see you again!”

Zane couldn’t be bothered to pretend anymore, he stood up directly, “Go if you want to go, you think I like coming to the hospital every day? It’s good that the child is gone, I finally don’t have to keep humoring you.”

“Beast! Get out!”

“Mallory, don’t regret!”

After Zane stormed out, the nurse came in and sat down by the bed, sighing, “Madam, why did you have to upset Mr. Schneider again? You’ve already lost your child, you should be getting along with your husband now more than ever. Otherwise, wouldn’t that vixen outside get what she wants?”

Mallory closed her eyes in annoyance and said coldly, “I want to be alone for a while, you go out first.”

Seeing her pale face, the caregiver pursed her lips and stood up, saying, “I’ll be outside, call me if you need anything.”

After the ward had quieted down, a glint of coldness flashed in Mallory’s eyes as she made a call to Kiley.

In less than an hour, Kiley had arrived.

She looked at Mallory lying on the hospital bed, her face filled with shock and her eyes red, “Mom, why didn’t you tell me something as big as you being pregnant? Were you afraid of what I might think?”

Mallory, with a weary face, whispered, “The child is gone, it’s no use saying anything now. That bitch Sabina, I won’t let her go!”

Seeing the coldness in Mallory’s eyes, Kiley mocked in her heart, but her face was full of worry.

“Mom, let’s talk about this matter later. The most important thing for you right now is to take good care of your health and not leave any lingering illness.”

Mallory took a deep breath, looking at Kiley and said, “Kiley, you’re all mom has left, you’ll help me, won’t you?”

“Mom, what exactly do you want me to do? You have to tell me first, then I’ll know if I can help you.”

“I wanted that bitch Sabina dead! She came to Haseton, surely with the intention of having another child. I wouldn’t let her have her way!”

Kiley raised an eyebrow, she hadn’t thought of that. But even if she guarded against Sabina, maybe Zane would have other women in the future.

If Zane had been rendered infertile, I would have become the sole heir of the Schneider Group.

Thinking of this, Kiley slowly hooked the corner of her lips.

“Mom, don’t worry, I’ll handle this. I won’t let Sabina have the chance to get pregnant again!”

Mallory nodded, “Yes, the Schneider Group is going to be handed over to you anyway. As long as we mother and daughter are united, we will definitely not give those vixens outside a chance!”

“Um, I knew that.”

After comforting Mallory for a while, Kiley finally got up and left.

On the way back, she pondered for a long time and finally came up with a plan in her mind.

The next morning, as soon as the stock market opened, the share price of the Schneider Group indeed started to plummet crazily.

The shareholders were terrified and rushed to find Zane, urging him to resolve the matter as soon as possible.

Zane was at his wits' end, having spent the entire day doing public relations without managing to suppress the trending topic. In the end, he simply gave up.

"Alright, stop meddling with the stuff online. Once the hype dies down after a while, everything will be fine. There's gossip every day."

The manager of the Public Relations Department also didn't want to waste any more time on this matter, and quickly said, "Alright, Ms. Schneider, I understand."

"Alright, go to work.""

In the evening, close to the end of the workday, Kiley came over.

Seeing her, a glint of coldness flashed in Zane's eyes, he said coldly, "Kiley, what are you here for?"

Seeing his cold attitude, Kiley also understood that it was because she didn't speak well of him to Isaac when he called her yesterday.

"Dad, I came to see you. I heard that you've been working overtime a lot recently, you must be very tired. I asked the kitchen maid to make some chicken soup for you, please have some."

Zane had wanted to refuse, but Kiley had already opened the chicken soup. The aroma of the soup wafted out, and he couldn't help but swallow his saliva.

However, he still held back, saying coldly, "No need, I don't want to drink."

Kiley served him a bowl and handed it to him with a smile, saying, "You should drink some, it's been simmering for hours. As for Isaac, I'll try to speak up for you and get him to help the Schneider Group."

Zane looked at her skeptically, "Really?"

"Of course, the Schneider Group was always supposed to be handed over to me in the future, isn't me helping you now the same as helping myself?"

Zane hadn't thought about handing over the Schneider Group to Kiley for quite a long time.

However, he naturally couldn't say it now. He took a sip of the chicken soup and found it very delicious.

"It was quite tasty."

Kiley chuckled, "If it tastes good, drink more."

Zane had three bowls of chicken soup, only putting down the bowl when he could drink no more.

“This chicken soup was really well-made. Ask the servant who made the soup how they did it, and tell me the method. I’ll have the Schneider family’s servant make it the same way in the future.”

As Kiley was collecting the bowls, she said, “I also really liked it when I first started drinking it. Dad, if you like it, I can have the auntie make it and bring it over to you every day.”

Zane looked somewhat hesitant, “Isn’t this inappropriate? After all, he’s a servant from Isaac’s house.”

“What’s the big deal? I might be marrying him soon, and you’ll be his father-in-law. It’s just chicken soup, he won’t say anything.”

“Alright then.”

“Right, Dad, what’s going on between you and Sabina? Mom called me yesterday, and that’s when I found out about her pregnancy. How could you guys keep such a big thing from me!”

Under Kiley’s questioning gaze, Zane suddenly felt a bit guilty and touched his nose, saying, “It’s not that I wanted to hide it from you, but your mother was not far along in her pregnancy at the time. We planned to tell you when she was further along.”

“As for Sabina, it was just a fling between us. Your mother couldn’t let it go and it upset her so much that she lost the baby in her womb...”
