

Chapter 8 - A Fallen Woman Expecting True Love

"Hao, calm down, don't do this. If you hurt me, Fourth Brother will never let you go!"

I simply used the name of Jacky Hua to scare him. From the wound on his face and what he said, he must have been beaten by Jacky Hua.

"I was fucking my own wife. We are not divorced yet. It's legal to have sex with my wife. I don't care who he is, he can't disturb me! After I record the video, what else can Jacky Hua do? He can only spend money on it. After all he said it himself at the wedding that you are the woman he loves. Will he watch the sex video of the woman he love being circulated and do nothing? You say, how much will he spend to buy the video? Five million dollars, or more?"

When it comes to money, there was light in his eyes, looking like a sadist.

At this time, there was a faint clap of the door, the strength was very weak. 'Mom, Mom, are you in there?'

"Please, for the sake of the child, let me go." I begged bitterly.

"For the sake of the child? That little bastard is not mine at all! Why should I consider about him?" Hao shouted.

"Hao, play it cool. If you like, let's talk about why Lucas is not your son, let's make it clear. If you want money, I will let Fourth Brother give you the money. You don't need to do these things, you can get the money anyway. "

My head was getting dizzy and my body was getting hotter, but I still tried my best to keep calm. I hoped at least I could stall him for a while, although it's useless, no one would come to rescue me.

'There's nothing to say, you are my wife. Since other men can hook up with you, why can't I? I just want to record the sex video with you and ask Jacky Hua to pay a high price!'

Hao took off his pants and rushed at me.

I burst into tears in despair.

Just as I was about to give up my fate, the door of the room was kicked open. A man rushed in with a baseball bat and smashed Hao on the head.

I carefully opened my eyes, it turned out to be Jacky. He appeared in my house just like a superman!

Hao also realized it was Jacky. He was frightened, crouched on the ground with head in his hands, but Jacky didn't stop. He hit Hao again and again until Hao stopped moving.

Seeing me motionless, he seemed to understand something. Then he took off his coat and put it on me. He gently picked me up and walked out of the room.

The child was not there, and there was no one else in the living room.

"Where is Lucas? Where is my child? Why are you here?" I asked.

He was grim-faced and said nothing. He went downstairs holding me in his arms.

His car was parked downstairs, in the back seat of the car, the nurse was comforting Lucas.

When the wind blew, I seemed to have some strength, but my body was still soft and hot.

He put me next to Lucas. Lucas hugged my neck, 'Mom, Dad dragged you into the room. I was afraid, so I called Uncle Hua.'

I whispered 'Thank you' to Jacky. Considering the nurse was here, I didn't say much. Things happened in the room were too ashamed to bring up.

"Idiot." I heard Jacky spit out the word in contempt.

Thanks to his appearance, otherwise Hao will succeed in his plot. So I didn't refute, nor did I have the strength to refute.

I thought he would send us back to the hospital, but he didn't. The car was heading south and he drove all the way to Maple Villa.

Maple Villa was a wealthy upscale villa area in Hai City. I was not surprised that Jacky lives in such a place.

I didn't want to live in other's house, I could have lived on the street by myself, but I couldn't let Lucas suffer. I had no choice but to live here tonight.

"Go get a bath for the child." Jacky ordered the nurse. The nurse answered and led Lucas away.

I thought that the nurse was hired temporarily in the hospital. Now it seemed that she was the maid of Jacky's house.

"Follow me."

He said this and walked upstairs. I had to follow him, but I was still weak and couldn't walk upstairs by myself.

He picked me up again. I laid myself in his arms. The heat which had already subsided suddenly became strong again. My heartbeat was quick and some thoughts that made me feel ashamed passed by.

On the second floor, we entered a room. He threw me on the bed then turned around and left.

He opened the door and was about to go out. Somehow, he suddenly stopped, turned and looked at me. He walked to me again. While walking, he took off his clothes, tossed them aside, and then began to loosen his tie.

I stared at him, my heartbeat became faster. I knew the drug effects in my body had not completely subsided.

He leaned over and stared at me. Suddenly, he reached his hands to the corner between my legs, I shivered unconsciously.

His peach blossom eyes squinted at me, a smile of evil appeared at the corner of his mouth, and his expression changed from indifferent to a little playful. The other hand suddenly crawled on my chest.

I shivered again.
