

Chapter 1001: An Xiaohui's Wedding

"Who are the girls next to the bride and the men next to the groom? Why are they always following the bride and groom?" A villager asked in confusion.

The young man next to him explained to them, "Oh, they are the bridesmaids and groomsmen."

"What bridesmaids and groomsmen?" A villager asked in puzzlement.

Rural people like them didn't have bridesmaids and groomsmen when they got married. Naturally, they didn't know about bridesmaids and groomsmen.

The young man didn't explain to them. He just commented, "These bridesmaids are really beautiful. I wonder if they're married?"

"Of course, they're not married. The bridesmaids are all unmarried women. Similarly, the groomsmen are also unmarried men." The young man usually watched TV and went online, so he knew about this.

"Unmarried? Then we can take the opportunity to get to know each other." A young boy said with an idea on his face.

"Forget it. Can't you see yourself? These urban girls have high standards, so it's impossible for them to like you."

"Maybe they like a type like me."

"You sure have a high view of yourself." he said sarcastically, "Since these girls are Xiaohui's bridesmaids, it means that they have a good relationship with each other. They must be in the same social circle and have money. They have money and good looks. Why would they like a country bumpkin like you? What a joke."

"..."

"The groom is really tall and handsome. Sister Xiaohui is beautiful. The two of them are really a good match."

"Previously, someone said that the husband that sister Xiaohui found was a bald, big-bellied old man. Otherwise, why would he pay so much money to marry sister Xiaohui? I wonder which blabbermouth spread it. He must be jealous of sister Xiaohui and uncle Dachun's family."

"Maybe that's the reason. Everyone in primary school knew that jealousy was the devil. Our village's preference for sons was so serious, and uncle Dachun's family only had sister Xiaohui as a daughter. Now, this daughter suddenly had a bright future. She is rich, married, and the son she gave birth to will be able to continue the family line for Uncle Dachun and his wife. People must be feeling a little unbalanced. After all, to many villagers, uncle Dachun's family should be destined to have no children or grandchildren."

Some of the older people at the side heard this group of young people discussing this matter, and their faces turned black. Then, they warned, "All of you young people, don't say too much. There are outsiders here now. If outsiders hear this, it will not have a good effect on us!"

It was one thing to have this gossip spread among the villagers. But, there were many outsiders at An Xiaohui's wedding. If they heard it, it would definitely not have a good effect.

The youngsters listened to the Elders' warning and pursed their lips. Then, they lowered their heads and whispered into their ears, "I think these gossip must have come from Uncle Danian and the others."

"I think so too. In the past, Uncle Danian took advantage of Uncle Dachun's family, and everyone in the village could see it. Now that there was no more taking advantage of them, they definitely felt unbalanced. This imbalance caused jealousy. Naturally, they didn't want Uncle Dachun's family to be good."

"Speaking of which, did uncle Danian's family come today?" A youngster looked around. "There are so many people, but we can't see them."

"I heard that Uncle Danian had a falling out with Uncle Dachun's family. I wonder if Uncle Danian has the face to come and attend sister Xiaohui's wedding. After all, we've heard Uncle Danian scold sister Xiaohui since we were young. He keeps calling her a wastrel. Because he has a son, An Yang, he treats uncle Dachun's family arrogantly and disdainfully."

"Sigh, now Sister Xiaohui has a life better than theirs. Previously, Uncle Dachun's family was still counting on Uncle Dachun's family to help An Yang get a wife. Now that they've turned against each other, I wonder what kind of woman An Yang will marry."

"But then again, didn't An Yang also go to university? His cousin is also a university student, so why is there such a big difference?"

"Yeah, the difference is too big. Looking at An Yang now, he looks like he's just waiting to die. He's not even as good as a farmer from the countryside."

"In the past, their family always said that An Yang was a university student. In the future, when he marries a wife, he will definitely marry a girl from the city. How is that going to happen now? The girls in the city are delicate and want money."

"Don't look down on them. After so many years, uncle Danian and his wife must have money on hand. Plus, let's not forget the money Uncle Dachun has given them over the years. Who knows, this money might really be enough for them to marry a girl from the city."

"No matter how rich they are, they can't be as rich as sister Xiaohui's family. Have you heard that Sister Xiaohui spent almost 80,000 on wedding planning?"

"She's rich now. It's just different!"

...

"Did you see that woman in the light blue dress? I heard that she's An Xiaohui's boss," a young man pointed in a direction.

“Which one, which one?” Many villagers stood on tiptoe to look curiously.

“Yeah, it’s the woman sitting in the middle of the front row. She’s wearing a light blue dress. Do you see her?”

“She’s too far away. I can’t see her clearly. I’ll go ahead and get a closer look,” many villagers said.

“Is that her? She’s so beautiful!”

Chapter 1002: How Stupid

After knowing that the woman in the middle of the front row was An Xiaohui’s boss, many villagers looked in Xiao Lingyu’s direction as if they were looking at a rare animal. They were even discussing it among themselves.

“An Xiaohui’s boss is really a girl. She’s really beautiful,” a villager exclaimed. “She doesn’t look very old. She looks about the same age as Xiaohui, right?”

“She looks very young. She should be about the same age as Xiaohui.”

“A female boss of a company worth tens of billions. She’s about the same age as An Xiaohui. She’s even more promising than Xiaohui,” an older villager exclaimed, “With tens of billions of yuan, even if she doesn’t do anything, she can enjoy it for several lifetimes.”

An Xiaohui’s current appearance made the villagers envious, not to mention Xiao Lingyu, who was worth tens of billions of yuan.

“Looks like we can’t look down on girls anymore.” Some of the villagers’ thoughts changed quite quickly. “Who knows? These girls will be very promising.”

Someone agreed, “That’s right. If our An family village didn’t value boys so much in the past, we might have produced a few promising girls like Xiaohui.”

Ever since the state stipulated nine years of compulsory education, boys and girls had to go to school. However, it was unknown whether it was because boys were favored at home or because girls were discriminated against, but girls’ academic results were better than boys’.

In fact, many girls’ results in class and school were among the best.

It was a pity that not all girls were as lucky and brave as Xiaohui. After they graduated from junior high school, no matter how good their grades were, their families would not allow them to go to school, and then they would get married early.

If these girls were allowed to go to school, what would the An family village look like now? Could there be a few more promising people like An Xiaohui who had walked out of the mountains instead of a group of women who were imprisoned in the mountains and became farmers?

Perhaps it would not only change the fate of the girls, but it might also change the An family village.

Many people could not help but sigh in their hearts, thinking to themselves, 'The idea of prioritizing boys over girls is really killing people.'

Of course, changing this kind of concept was not something that could be done in a short period of time. At the very least, it would require a certain amount of time and process for people to change.

Perhaps young people who received contemporary educational thoughts were more likely to change a little.

Of course, due to the impact of An Xiaohui's wedding, some of the people in the An family village might send girls to school. However, they sent girls to school not because they had changed but because they believed that the girls would be able to earn more money and come back to serve the family.

In the end, the reason why they did this was for their sons.

It was needless to say that An Xiaohui's wedding was grand, and An Xiaohui's boss directly gave her a high-end car as a wedding gift, which shocked the villagers of the An family.

This boss was really too generous.

Xiao Lingyu's 680,000 RMB gift directly occupied the first name on the gift list, which made everyone's eyes wander.

What kind of luck did An Xiaohui have to meet such a good boss?

She gave Xiaohui such big gifts.

Then, apart from the other Xiao Xinxin's gift of 180,000, the other gifts from An Xiaohui's friends were also in the tens of thousands. This made the villagers of the An family, who had never seen the world, extremely envious.

After getting married, An Xiaohui's family easily received over a million in gifts. This was money that they would never be able to earn in their entire lives.

The rows of cars, and heavy gifts, greatly added luster to the faces of An Dachun and his wife. They were so happy that they could not close their mouths.

In the past, everyone laughed at the fact that they only had one daughter and no son. In the future, no one would take care of them until they died.

Now, everyone envied them for having a good daughter and working in a big company. She earned a lot of money and was promising. With their daughter so capable, they had nothing to regret. In the future, they were just waiting to have grandchildren.

However, there was a small incident at the wedding.

An Dachun invited An Danian's family to attend An Xiaohui's wedding.

Chapter 1003: How Stupid

After all, he and An Danian were brothers, and blood was thicker than water. Now that his daughter was getting married, of course, he hoped that An Danian would be there to attend.

To An Danian's family, An Dachun asking them to attend the wedding was showing off to them. Naturally, they were angry, so they didn't want to attend An Xiaohui's wedding at all.

However, An Danian's family lived in An Family village. The news of An Xiaohui's wedding was constantly transmitted to them by the villagers.

Soon, someone told them that An Xiaohui's husband had given An Dachun several hundred thousand to prepare for the wedding. Then, he told them that An Dachun had received a one million yuan betrothal gift. Then, he told them that An Xiaohui had invited a wedding planner, and they had spent several tens of thousands.

Then, someone laughed sarcastically on purpose, "Danian, look at how many betrothal gifts An Dachun has received. In the future, your An Yang will have no need to worry about money when he marries his wife, right? If he wants a house or a car, he can just buy it with money, right?"

"That's right, Danian. In the past, didn't you say that your elder brother and sister-in-law had covered the matter of An Yang marrying his wife? Now that Xiaohui is married, betrothal gifts will be given to An Yang to marry a girl in the city. That really makes us envious."

"In the past, your elder brother and sister-in-law provided for An Yang's meals, school, and new clothes and toys. Your elder brother and sister-in-law really treat An Yang as their own son. The tuition fees for such an expensive university are 20,000 to 30,000 a year. It was all provided by your elder brother and sister-in-law. An Yang spent over 100,000 during his four years of university. Even Xiaohui didn't receive such treatment. I heard that Xiaohui earned most of the money for university by working part-time."

In the past, when An Danian heard these words, he felt that it was correct.

However, ever since he had fallen out with his elder brother and sister-in-law, when they heard these words, they knew that it was the villagers' ridicule and mockery of them, and their faces immediately became flustered.

What these villagers meant was that they were taking advantage of their elder brother and sister-in-law and giving their own sons to someone else to raise.

"Danian, all these years, you haven't spent much. You must have saved a lot of money. If your elder brother and sister-in-law really aren't willing to help with An Yang's marriage. As his parents, you can do that."

An Danian's expression was unusually ugly. It was red, green, and angry.

He gritted his teeth and said, "I don't need you to worry about my Yang 'Er's marriage."

After saying that, he went straight home.

But when he returned home, the more he thought about it, the angrier he became.

The ridicule they received today was all because of that wretched girl, An Xiaohui.

If it wasn't for that wretched girl, her big brother and sister-in-law wouldn't have ignored An Yang at all. In fact, in the future, their money would all be An Yang's. That one million betrothal gift, with that money, An Yang could marry five wives, much less one.

But now, these things didn't belong to An Yang anymore but to that wretched girl, An Xiaohui.

No, he couldn't let that wretched girl off so easily.

She wanted to get married in a glorious manner. She wanted to give An Dachun and his wife face, but he just wouldn't let them get what they wanted.

Once An Danian had this idea, but he couldn't suppress it no matter how hard he tried. In the end, after discussing it with his wife and son in the room, they decided on a plan. They all felt that they had to disrupt An Xiaohui's wedding. They wanted to make them lose face in front of everyone.

They had bad ideas in their minds, so no matter how the villagers looked at them, no matter how much they mocked and ridiculed them, they didn't say anything.

The villagers didn't see the angry look on An Danian's family's face and felt that it was boring, so they didn't say anything more.

It was only at An Xiaohui's wedding when An Xiaohui and Xiao Wang were about to exchange rings under the witness of the host, that An Danian suddenly ran over and said angrily, "You can't get married!"

Everyone was stunned by An Danian's words.

An Dachun was stunned for a moment before he said angrily, "An Danian, are you crazy?"

He had never thought that his younger brother would come to the wedding just to ruin his daughter's wedding. This made him very angry.

He ran forward and tried to hold An Danian back, but An Danian ran straight up to the stage. When he saw the rings on the hands of the two flower children, he wanted to slap them away

Chapter 1004: How Stupid

Xiao Letong, who was wearing a suit, narrowed his eyes. He hugged Xinxin with one hand and held the ring with the other. An Danian's hopes were dashed when he failed to get the rings.

Then, a ruthless light flashed in Xiao Letong's eyes. He stretched out one leg and tripped An Danian.

Then, An Danian collapsed in front of the couple with a plop.

All the guests and villagers, "..."

An Xiaohui was really angry at An Danian for ruining her wedding.

"Second uncle, I'm just getting married. You don't have to give me such a big bow, do you?" An Xiaohui sneered and said, "Also, whether we can get married or not is not up to you!"

Xiao Wang wasn't as polite to An Danian. He took two steps forward and held An Danian's collar with one hand. He lifted An Danian up and said with a gloomy face, "In the past, I was polite to you for the sake of my in-laws. Now, you want to ruin my wedding. Don't blame me for this."

After saying that, he lifted An Danian up and took two steps forward. He easily threw him to the villagers next to him.

The villagers of An Family village were speechless. What great strength.

An Danian was at least 150 to 160 centimeters tall, but the groom could easily lift him up with one hand and throw him away.

This also gave An Danian and second aunt An a big scare.

Second aunt An was about to fly into a rage when she saw her husband being treated like this. However, when she saw Xiao Wang's sharp expression, her arrogance immediately subsided, and she looked a little timid.

Xiao Wang glanced at second aunt An before shooting a sharp gaze at An Yang. His voice was cold as he said, "I don't care what kind of plans you have today, but if you want to ruin my wedding with Xiaohui, I won't allow it!" With that said, he gestured to the groomsmen beside him with his eyes.

These groomsmen immediately understood. Then, two of the groomsmen walked in front of An Danian while the other four walked in front of second aunt An and her son.

"What are you doing? We're in public!" An Yang said warily.

However, these groomsmen were the bodyguards of Gong Tianhao's company. They didn't say much, but they were very thorough in their work.

Then, all the guests and villagers looked at these six people and carried An Danian and his family out. They had no strength to struggle at all.

The villagers of An Family village, "..."

What kind of person was An Xiaohui's husband? He looked so much like a hooligan.

An Danian and his family's plan to sabotage the wedding failed. Then, An Xiaohui and Xiao Wang's wedding went smoothly.

As for An Danian and his family, where were they thrown to?

Actually, they weren't thrown anywhere. They were just sent home. In order to prevent them from ruining the wedding and getting angry, they were locked in their own home.

After the wedding was over, someone would open the door for them.

When the door was opened, the three of them were still cursing. They looked very angry, but no one paid any attention to them.

"This An Danian is really evil. He wants to ruin Xiaohui's wedding. I wonder what he wants to do?"

“That’s right. What’s in it for him to ruin Xiaohui’s wedding? Does he want to ruin it just to ruin it? Or does he want the entire Dachun family to lose face?”

“This An Danian is really stupid. If he does that, won’t his relationship with the Dachun family become even worse? Based on what he did today, his family won’t be able to get any benefits from Dachun in the future.”

“This An Danian really knows how to court death. His family is really stupid.”

“If I had such a relative, I would be eager to please them. Why would I offend them?”

“He’s really too stupid. I don’t want to interact with such an idiot in the future.”

“I don’t want to interact with such an idiot either. Otherwise, I wouldn’t even know when I would be implicated by them.”

Chapter 1005: Threat

“Boss, this is all the information about the founder of Green Fresh Group, Xiao Lingyu.”

A subordinate in black handed the information to Macon.

Then, he reported, “Xiao Lingyu was born in a rural area called Taoyuan Village in China...”

“Stop, tell me directly. How did Gong Tianhao and Xiao Lingyu know each other?” Macon was most concerned about this.

The reason why Xiao Lingyu and the Green Fresh Corporation were where they were today was because of Gong Tianhao.

The subordinate thought about it and continued to report, “Xiao Lingyu had a boyfriend five years ago. After that boyfriend climbed up the social ladder, he wanted to find a reason to dump her. Then...”

This subordinate investigated the entire process of how Xiao Lingyu and Gong Tianhao met.

It was very easy to investigate this matter.

Back then, when Xiao Lingyu’s so-called ex-boyfriend’s family came knocking on the door, the matter of Xiao Lingyu sleeping with a man became public knowledge. Later on, when Xiao Lingyu got pregnant and married Gong Tianhao, everyone knew about it. The person who slept with Xiao Lingyu back then was Gong Tianhao.

Macon sent people to investigate the relationship between Xiao Lingyu and Gong Tianhao. It was very simple.

When Macon heard his subordinate’s report, he was silent for a long time. Then, he asked, “Do they have any weaknesses that we can exploit?”

If they wanted to take down the Green Fresh group now and snatch back those orders, they could only uproot the big tree behind Xiao Lingyu.

Without Gong Tianhao, it would be a piece of cake to take down the green fresh group.

Macon flipped through the information and took a quick look. Then, his eyes lit up, and his face revealed a look of surprise.

Then, Macon pointed to the names on the information and said, "Go, investigate these people's situation as quickly as possible and report back as soon as possible."

Hearing that, his subordinate immediately replied, "Yes, I'll do it right away!"

...

At the Imperial Palace Group, Gong Tianhao was reading the documents in his office. Then, Li Yuanhang knocked on the door and walked in. He reported to Gong Tianhao with a serious expression, "Boss, someone is investigating you and Madam."

Gong Tianhao put down his pen and frowned slightly. He asked with some doubt, "Who is investigating us?"

Li Yuanhang shook his head and said, "The person who is investigating us is very cautious and took a few detours. However, I will find out as soon as possible."

Suddenly investigating Gong Tianhao and Xiao Lingyu without any reason, it was obvious that they had bad intentions. Therefore, it was better to find out about this invisible enemy as soon as possible.

Gong Tianhao nodded and said, "Okay, get them to work faster!"

Although he was not worried about the safety of his wife and children, if the other party really came with ill intentions, it would be a hidden threat to the rest of the family. Therefore, he had to find this kind of invisible enemy as soon as possible to be more at ease.

Li Yuanhang nodded his head and said, "Don't worry, I've already given the order."

After Li Yuanhang reported this matter to Gong Tianhao, he went out to do his own thing.

Gong Tianhao thought for a moment in the office before giving Xiao Lingyu a call.

"Yu 'Er, Yuanhang just reported to me that someone has been investigating us recently," Gong Tianhao said without hiding anything.

Xiao Lingyu asked with some doubt, "Investigating us? Who could it be?"

Gong Tianhao shook his head and said, "It's not clear at the moment. However, I have already sent someone to investigate. If there is any result, I will tell you immediately!"

"Okay." Xiao Lingyu believed in Gong Tianhao. "The other party suddenly investigated us. It's obvious that he's an enemy. Don't worry. I'll protect my family!"

All four of them were capable, so they didn't have to worry that people would harm them. However, they still had many family members. They were afraid that the enemy would attack their family members, so they had to protect their family members no matter what.

Gong Tianhao hesitated for a moment before asking, “Yu ‘Er, should we tell our son and Ling ‘Er about this?”

Xiao Lingyu thought for a moment before saying, “Let’s not tell them for now. They are children. Children should live their childhood without any worries! Unless we really don’t have the ability to protect them, then we can tell Tong Tong!”

Chapter 1006: Who

“Alright!” Gong Tianhao also agreed with Xiao Lingyu’s idea and approach. He smiled and said, “Our son might be over 2,000 years old. In fact, his current personality is that of a real child. Since he’s a child, then we shouldn’t let him worry!”

They couldn’t always rely on Tong Tong.

If Tong Tong used a spell to protect them and suffered a backlash, then they would definitely blame themselves.

Therefore, they also had to learn to be strong and handle their own matters. Unless it was absolutely necessary, they absolutely couldn’t turn to Tong Tong.

Although at present, the immortals they knew were Tong Tong and Ling ‘Er.

But Tong Tong also said that even if they were immortals, in this space-time, there was also the Heavenly Dao restricting them. The Heavenly Dao would never allow any powers that exceeded this space-time to appear. Otherwise, they would suffer a backlash and be killed.

The heavenly Dao also wanted to protect this space-time.

Xiao Lingyu thought of Xiao Letong and agreed, “That’s right. Since he’s a child, we shouldn’t let him worry. Hubby, don’t worry. With my current abilities, I can definitely protect our family!”

Gong Tianhao smiled and said, “Honey, I believe in you.”

He paused for a moment and thought for a moment before saying, “The relocation plan of the Imperial Palace Group will be implemented soon. Soon, My Imperial Palace Group will live in Taoyuan Village! From now on, we’ll work together and won’t be separated from each other anymore.”

Although he had a helicopter, it was not appropriate to use a helicopter to go home every day. Besides, it was too time-consuming.

It took more than two hours to fly from the capital city to Taoyuan Village. Two round trips would take five to six hours.

Time was very precious to them. They could not spend time running between the two places every day.

After Xiao Lingyu hung up on Gong Tianhao, she fell into deep thought.

Who could be investigating them?

What was the other party’s motive for investigating them?

Xiao Lingyu thought for a while, and a target suddenly appeared.

“Could it be them?”

Then, Xiao Lingyu immediately sent a message to Gong Tianhao.

A moment later, Gong Tianhao replied with a message, “Honey, I know. I will send someone to investigate in this direction. If it really is them, it’s only a matter of time before they die.”

Xiao Lingyu replied, “This is just my current guess. However, the only enemies we have now are them. Honey, when you send people to investigate them, don’t alert them for now. I want to see what they are trying to do.”

“Yes, Honey!” Gong Tianhao replied with a mischievous emoji.

Gong Tianhao immediately gave the order after receiving the message from his wife.

...

Macon’s subordinates were quite efficient. The reports on the specific targets had been collected.

“Boss, this is the information of those people!” The subordinate immediately reported the information to Macon.

Macon opened it, and after seeing the items, a satisfied smile finally appeared on his face. He said, “Very good!”

Now that they had a weakness, it would be much easier to deal with them.

He was afraid that they did not have a weakness.

“You can leave. If I have something to do, I will give you my orders!” As Macon ordered his subordinates to leave, he took another piece of information from a corner of the table. This piece of information was related to the information that he had found on Xiao Lingyu and Gong Tianhao.

The two pieces of information were placed side by side. Macon looked at this piece of information and then looked at that piece of information. A moment later, his eyes lit up.

A moment later, he said, “Xiao Lingyu, without Gong Tianhao, I would like to see how capable you are!”

In short, from what he knew, Xiao Lingyu was able to snatch business from the Royal Forest group because of Gong Tianhao’s connections.

Therefore, if Xiao Lingyu lost Gong Tianhao, the Huanglin group would be able to deal with the Green Fresh Group as easily as stepping on an ant.

‘Hehe, Xiao Lingyu, I’ll see how you can fight me then!’

Of course, the most important thing now was how to make Xiao Lingyu lose Gong Tianhao.

However, men, especially those with power and influence, had too many temptations in front of them.

No matter how beautiful Xiao Lingyu was, for men, after a long time, they would get tired of it. Therefore, it was normal for them to have a swap in their palette.

Besides, how could there be a man in this world who didn't cheat?

As long as he made proper arrangements, he didn't believe that Gong Tianhao would still protect Xiao Lingyu.

Macon seemed to be very confident.

However...

An Xiaohui and Xiao Wang's marriage leave ended very quickly, and they returned to work.

The branches overseas had already expanded from one branch to more than a dozen companies. They were constantly expanding.

Because of the connections between Gong Tianhao and Xiao Lingyu, as well as the excellent quality of the products, after each branch opened, their reputation quickly rose. Orders were placed one after another, and they were thriving day by day.

Of course, because of the limited product resources, many people had to order the products of the Green Fresh Group in advance. The service was also quite good. After all, the company had to follow the noble high-end boutique route, so the service had to be in place as well.

However, because of this, the company was especially short of people.

Now, the company's recruitment was no longer limited to China but to elites from all over the world.

As a result, An Xiaohui and Xiao Lingyu, some of the higher-ups, was even busier.

However, the busiest people were definitely Bruce and Zeng Yaozu.

Fortunately, Bruce kept poaching people to share some of his work. Otherwise, he would not have the time to sleep.

Chapter 1007: Linda

Every time Green Fresh Group expanded its branch in a country, it dealt a major blow to Royal Forest Group's business. Similarly, the overall performance of the company declined faster and faster.

Fortunately, Royal Forest group was a century-old brand after all. Most of the business on those high-end routes had been taken away by Green Fresh Group. However, the mid-market had not been affected much and had been maintained.

However, the biggest reason why it was not affected was that the Green Fresh group did not have a source of supply at all and did not bother to compete with the Royal Forest group for this middle-end market.

What the Green Fresh group wanted was to control the high-end market of the nobles.

After knowing this reason, Macon was so angry that smoke was coming out of his seven orifices.

This green fresh group was really going too far.

While he was angry, he was also secretly worried. If the entire world's high-end market were monopolized by green fresh group, then Royal Forest group's name as the number one international brand in the industry would be taken away by someone.

At the same time, the Royal Forest group's reputation would also plummet. In the future, there would no longer be a company like Royal Forest group in the top-tier circle. Instead, it would be replaced by the green fresh group.

This was equivalent to a company with a hundred years of reputation being destroyed in the hands of Macon.

When he thought of this, Macon was extremely anxious.

However, no matter how angry he was, he knew that he couldn't act rashly like Peter.

After all, the background of Green Fresh Group wasn't something that he could underestimate. Therefore, he could only take it step by step and take down Green Fresh Group. Only then could the reputation of Royal Forest Group be brought back.

Macon had a plan in his heart.

After all, he was appointed by his family to be the CEO of the Royal Forest Group. He was still smart and had a certain amount of ability and courage.

"Boss, these two women, one is in country A, and the other is in country Y!"

His subordinate handed the information and photos that he had found to Macon.

Macon took the two photos and looked at the two beautiful women in the photos. His brows were slightly relaxed, and his eyes lit up, "These two oriental women are really beautiful. They look beautiful and elegant. They are not inferior to Xiao Lingyu at all. Send someone to contact these two women immediately. If necessary, I can talk to them personally."

"Yes, Boss!" His subordinate replied immediately.

After his subordinate left, Macon revealed a sinister smile. He said sinisterly, "Xiao Lingyu, just wait to be disgraced!"

As long as she did not receive Gong Tianhao's favor, regardless of whether it was the Green fresh group or her, Xiao Lingyu, would not be trampled under his feet and squashed by him.

When he thought of this, an excited expression flashed across Macon's face.

In a private room of a high-end coffee shop in country A, an elite-like figure in a black suit was sitting there.

A moment later, a tall, beautiful, and elegant woman pushed open the private room.

The man immediately went up to greet her and helped her pull out a chair. He invited the woman to sit down and said with a gentlemanly smile, "Beautiful Miss, please take a seat!"

Then, he sat opposite the woman.

The woman looked at the man opposite her. He was handsome and dressed like an elite. However, the identity of the other party was unknown, so she was naturally on guard.

She sat down elegantly and asked coldly, "Who are you? Why are you looking for me?"

The man served her food and said with a smile, "Don't be nervous. I won't do anything to you."

She didn't say anything and waited for him to continue.

He said, "I heard that Miss Linda and Gong Tianhao from China are old classmates, right?"

Linda's vigilance immediately increased. Her beautiful eyes looked at him sharply and asked suspiciously, "Why would you ask that? I've been classmates with Gong Tianhao for many years, but I've lost contact with him ever since I came to country A. If you want to use me to get in touch with him, I can only tell you that your calculations are wrong."

After hearing that, the man didn't explain anything. He just curled his lips and asked with a smile, "Oh, is that so? Has Miss Linda really lost contact with Gong Tianhao?"

This ambiguous tone made Linda very unhappy, but it made her even more alert. She frowned and blurted out, "Sir, what do you mean by that?"

The man said with a half-smile, "You should know better than me what it means! If Miss Linda really doesn't remember, then I can give you a hint."

Chapter 1008: Booking

Linda frowned and didn't say anything. She just stared at the man with her sharp eyes.

The man said a name calmly, "Bai Shanshan!"

Linda's expression suddenly changed, but she quickly returned to her natural state and asked, "Who is Bai Shanshan? I don't know. Also, sir, I have something urgent to do right now. I don't have so much time to chat with you here."

After saying that, Linda was about to leave.

However, the man didn't seem to be in a hurry to stop her. He said unhurriedly, "You don't know Bai Shanshan. What about Leng Piao xue?"

Linda paused in her footsteps as she was about to turn around and walk away. Then, her expression became even more vigilant as she asked, "What exactly do you want to do?"

The man smiled and said, "Nothing much. I just want to invite Miss Linda to have a good talk. Please sit down!"

The man gestured for Linda to sit down.

Linda hesitated for a moment and finally sat down.

The man looked at Linda sat down, and said with a smile, "Actually, I'm looking for Miss Linda because I want to do a business deal. This business deal will definitely not be a loss for Miss Linda! On the contrary, it will be a win for both of us!"

"What business deal?" Linda asked.

The man smiled at Linda and said, "You just need to go back to China!"

Linda frowned, slightly confused.

A similar thing was happening in Country Y's high-end coffee shop.

"I think Miss Kelly is very willing to do such a business deal, right?" Another elite man asked a woman opposite him.

This woman had the face of an oriental woman, but she had a pair of blue eyes. However, if one looked carefully, one could see that this woman was wearing cosmetic contact lenses.

Before the woman could answer, the man said, "Miss Kelly, my boss said that after the matter is done, we can give a reward of thirty million!"

When Kelly heard the reward, she immediately sneered and said very arrogantly, "Hah! Not to mention thirty million. With my status, I can get three hundred million easily!"

The man immediately said ingratiatingly, "Indeed, with Miss Kelly's status, she is no different from the princess of a country. Naturally, her net worth is extraordinary."

Kelly said arrogantly, "It's good that you know! Alright, I'll take the business you mentioned. I'll return to the country in two days. You guys just wait for my news!"

"Alright, I'll wish Miss Kelly success in advance. We'll wait for Miss Kelly's good news!" The man said with a smile.

...

"Boss, these two women have already agreed to our deal!" The man in black reported to Macon.

Macon's expression immediately became happy when he received his subordinate's reply.

"Good, well done!" Macon rarely praised his subordinate.

His subordinate continued, "Those two women are very smart, so I believe that they will be able to take down Gong Tianhao very soon. At that time, Xiao Lingyu will be nothing."

"Haha, let's just wait for Xiao Lingyu to be abandoned!" Macon was in a particularly good mood. "For now, let Xiao Lingyu be complacent for a while."

"Right. The higher you climb, the harder you fall! We'll wait for Xiao Lingyu to climb high, and then we'll make her fall!" Macon was very happy.

When his subordinate saw his boss' happy look, he hesitated for a moment and said, "Boss, we have a problem. Our company's talent is constantly being lost, and many people have been poached to the Green Fresh Group. This has a great impact on our company!"

As soon as he said this, Macon's face immediately darkened.

The Headhunter Company frequently visited, and the company's talented elites kept changing jobs. At first, he thought that the Headhunter company was watching the situation at Royal Forest group, so they suddenly appeared and kept poaching people.

Later, he learned from a friend that these headhunters frequently poached people from the company because Bruce hired them.

Even if the talented elites of the company didn't go to the green fresh group, they would be poached to other companies. The salary and treatment couldn't be denied.

Therefore, when he knew that Bruce was behind all of this, he was so angry that he kept gritting his teeth.

Previously, he could go to Bruce's house and threaten his family. However, Bruce moved his family away without a sound. All of a sudden, he couldn't grasp Bruce's weakness.

As for his friends, Macon was not stupid. Of course, he knew that he could not easily touch them. Otherwise, the consequences would be unimaginable.

However, he had another idea.

Therefore, he turned around and asked the Headhunter company to poach from the Green Fresh Group.

However, the reply that the Headhunter Company gave him was not too good.

"I'm sorry, Mr. Macon. Those talented elites of the green fresh group seem to be attracted by the generous treatment of the green fresh group and are not attracted by anyone's benefits. Therefore, there are very few talented elites who want to leave the Green Fresh Group."

When Macon heard this, his face immediately darkened. "What? What kind of temptation did the green fresh group give them, or what kind of bewitching soup did they give them that they wouldn't be attracted by the high salary outside?" Macon did not understand.

The Headhunter said, "Mr. Macon, you might not have eaten anything from the green fresh group. However, I suggest that you try it, and you'll know the reason!"

After saying that, he didn't say anything more to Macon and directly hung up the phone. His advice ended there. If he said any more, he might offend someone. Even though their Headhunter company was an industry that offended people to begin with.

Macon, "... " then his face was full of black lines.

That's right. He had always been listening to the green fresh group, but he had never eaten anything from the green fresh group.

After thinking for a while, he gave his secretary a call. "Get someone to buy something from the green fresh group for me."

"..." the secretary reported with some hesitation, "Boss, green fresh group's things must be pre-ordered, and we need an acquaintance to introduce us. We can't just go up and buy stuff."

"What?" Macon was very surprised.

Chapter 1009: Weng Jingjing Appeared Once Again

In the conference room of the Imperial Group, Gong Tianhao said to his subordinate with a cold expression, "Next month, our company will start moving to Taoyuan Village. In this period of time, you must do what you should do and what you should complete!"

"Yes, President!" His subordinate replied in unison. But his face couldn't help but reveal a trace of anticipation.

Taoyuan Village was rumored to be inhabited by immortals. The mountains and rivers there were clear, and the scenery was unique. It was a paradise that was very suitable for people to live and relax in. They were going to move there now.

They had heard that many rich and powerful people, not to mention wanting their companies to move, even wanting to buy a place to live there, was extremely difficult.

Now, such a large company like theirs had easily settled down.

Sure enough, it was easy to get things done with a powerful backer.

Hehe, even though this backer was the wife of their CEO.

It was the middle of the year, and there were still more than ten days before they moved next month. In these ten days, they couldn't let go of the work they were doing.

The competition within the imperial group was too fierce. If you didn't work hard, your job might be taken away the next moment.

The salary and benefits of the imperial group were all top-notch. No one would be willing to leave.

Of course, the better the job, the fiercer the competition would be. There was no doubt about it.

A subordinate asked, "President, if our company moves to Taoyuan Village in the future, will we be able to eat the fruits and vegetables in Taoyuan village in the future?"

Now, everyone in the country knew that the Green Fresh supermarket in Taoyuan Village had the best food, but it was also the most difficult to buy.

Although the supply was limited and the price was high, even ordinary people could afford it.

Of course, just because they could afford it didn't mean that they could buy it.

These high-level elite white-collar workers of the imperial group had high salaries, but they couldn't even get the food in the Green supermarket. They were so greedy that they wanted to beg the president directly. They wanted to see if they could ask her wife to be lenient and let the people of the imperial group use the back door.

It was a pity that they didn't have the courage to face their cold boss.

However, in front of everyone and with assistant Li here, this employee had to use a lot of courage to ask such a question.

Gong Tianhao curled his lips and said, "Although our company's canteen doesn't serve food from Taoyuan Village now, there is a gourmet canteen in Taoyuan Village. That gourmet canteen is open every day."

As soon as he said this, the eyes of all the employees immediately lit up.

"Taoyuan Village Gourmet Canteen!"

That was a big feature of the Taoyuan Village.

Any tourist who went to the Taoyuan Village would definitely go to the Taoyuan village canteen to taste the delicacies.

It was said that the cafeteria was very big and could accommodate thousands or tens of thousands of people at one time.

There were all kinds of delicacies in the cafeteria, and the ingredients used to make the delicacies were all produced in Taoyuan Village. The taste was really delicious.

If they could go to the Taoyuan Village cafeteria to eat every day and enjoy the delicacies every day, it would be a very happy thing.

Therefore, all the employees were looking forward to moving their head office to Taoyuan Village.

Of course, many of their relatives, friends, and connections were still reluctant to move from Beijing. Moreover, Beijing was more than a thousand kilometers away from Taoyuan Village, so it was impossible for them to get together often.

After the meeting with Gong Tianhao ended, a receptionist called Li Yuanhang.

"Assistant Li, a lady named Linda is here to see our president. Do you want to invite her in?" The receptionist asked.

Li Yuanhang heard the name and asked curiously, "Linda? Who is she?"

The receptionist said, "This lady said that she is the president's classmate. They used to be close. Now that she has just returned from country A, she wants to have a reunion with her old classmate!"

"..." Li Yuanhang said speechlessly, "If this Miss Linda really has a good relationship with our president, let her call the president's private number."

The receptionist said hesitantly, "This..." the receptionist looked at this lady's appearance and dress, and she was immaculately dressed.

"Have you forgotten how to do your job?" Li Yuanhang reprimanded the receptionist and said sternly, "If everyone who came to look for the president came in as a classmate or a friend, then what's the point of having the front desk receptionist?"

Chapter 1010: Weng Jingjing Appeared Again

The receptionist's expression changed, and she immediately explained, "Assistant Li, let me explain. Miss Linda did bring the university photo of her and the president here. So..."

Li Yuanhang frowned and asked in confusion, "What university photo?"

The receptionist said, "Lady Linda who had an intimate photo with our president when she was in University!" The receptionist deliberately emphasized the word "Intimate".

Li Yuanhang listened to the report from the front desk clerk and immediately felt that something was wrong.

He immediately said, "Alright, invite her to the reception room first. I want to meet this Lady Linda First!"

"Okay, assistant Li!" After the front desk clerk hung up the phone, she said to Linda very politely, "Lady Linda, our president is in his office today. However, assistant Li said that he would like you to go to the reception room first!"

Linda nodded and said, "Okay. Let me ask you. Is the assistant Li you mentioned called Li Yuanhang?"

The receptionist raised a certain degree of vigilance against her and said, "Ms. Linda, the name of assistant Li is well-known in both the business world and the workplace. As long as you ask around, you will know!"

The receptionist had heard that assistant Li and the president were university classmates.

If this lady was really the president's classmate, there was no reason not to know about assistant Li. Besides, assistant Li had been working by the president's side since university. It was known to everyone.

Therefore, this question from Ms. Linda was very suspicious.

Of course, the receptionist was vigilant.

Ms. Linda was obviously a very observant woman, and when she saw the expression on the front desk, she understood. She smiled elegantly and said, "I'm just asking if this assistant Li is Li Yuanhang. If it is him, he and I are classmates too. Okay, which floor is your reception room on? I'll go directly to Li Yuanhang!"

After hearing his secretary's report, Li Yuanhang went straight to the reception room.

As soon as he opened the door of the reception room, he saw a noble and elegant woman with long curly hair. She was looking around the reception room, but her back was facing him. For a moment, he didn't recognize who it was.

Hearing the sound of the door opening, the woman quickly turned her head. When she saw Li Yuanhang in a suit and tie, her eyes immediately lit up. Her expression was very happy as she shouted, "Li Yuanhang, it's really you!"

However, when Li Yuanhang saw Ms. Linda's face, his pupils suddenly shrank, and he said with hesitation, "Weng Jingjing?"

Ms. Linda smiled and said, "Yes, it's me. It's only been a few years, and you don't recognize me?"

However, Li Yuanhang still asked with a puzzled look, "Weng Jingjing? Are you really Weng Jingjing?"

Hearing Li Yuanhang's question, Weng Jingjing suddenly felt amused and said, "Of course, I'm the real Weng Jingjing. Is there a fake Weng Jingjing?"

Weng Jingjing was just joking, but Li Yuanhang said seriously, "There really was a fake Weng Jingjing who appeared in front of Tianhao and the old master. But, she was exposed later. So, Ms. Linda, before I can confirm whether you are the real Weng Jingjing or not, I will call you Ms. Linda!"

The smile on Weng Jingjing's face suddenly froze. Her expression slowly became serious as she asked, "What did you say? Someone really pretended to be me in the past? Who is that person? What is the purpose of pretending to be me?"

Li Yuanhang did not say much to her. Instead, he said in a very serious tone, "Ms. Linda, since I am unable to confirm whether you are the real Weng Jingjing or not, forgive me for not being able to reveal too much to you. Moreover, even if you are the real Weng Jingjing, then may I ask, what kind of identity do you have, and what qualifications do you have to come and see me? Oh no, to see Gong Tianhao?"

"Also, let me tell you, Gong Tianhao has already married a wife. He loves his wife very much. Ms. Linda, do you understand what I mean?"

Linda's expression changed as she said with a fake smile, "Yuanhang, you may have misunderstood me. I came to find Tianhao purely to catch up with him. Why do you have to be so serious with me and be so vigilant?"

Li Yuanhang shook his head and said seriously, "Ms. Linda, you know better than me whether it's a misunderstanding or not. But let me tell you, the CEO's wife is a very kind woman. No matter if it's me or any of Tianhao's friends, we don't want anyone to hurt her."

These words made Linda uncomfortable.

However, she was a smart woman.

At this moment, she seemed to have reacted and said with a smile, "Oh, so Tianhao is already married. But, Yuanhang, don't worry. I came to look for Tianhao purely to catch up with him. I have no intention of hurting anyone. Yuanhang, you seem to think too badly of me. This makes this old classmate a little sad."

Li Yuanhang looked at her sharply and did not reply.

Looking at Li Yuanhang like this, for some reason, Weng Jingjing's heart could not help but throb. Then, she picked up the branded handbag on the coffee table and said with a smile, "I'm mainly here to look for Tianhao today. Since Tianhao is not in the company, I'll come next time. I still have urgent matters today. Yuanhang, let's catch up next time."

After saying that, she picked up her bag and left gracefully.

If one paid attention, one would notice that her footsteps seemed to be nervous and chaotic.

After Linda left, Li Yuanhang's expression remained very serious.

A moment later, he went to Gong Tianhao's office.
