FARM SPACE 521

Chapter 521: Situ Xing's Discovery

Some time after this incident, Xiao Lingyu received a call from Qian Yifan.

"Lingyu, I saw it on the forum. In City Z, many people are saying that the vegetables from Green Fresh can cure diseases. This is too eye-catching. You have to be careful." Qian Yifan kindly reminded her.

After all, eating vegetables could cure diseases. This was simply too unbelievable.

If eating vegetables could cure diseases, then no one would go to the hospital in the future. Everyone would fight to buy vegetables to cure diseases.

After all, for some people, going to the hospital was like going down an endless pit of money burning. Eating vegetables was much cheaper.

Most importantly, as someone who enjoyed these vegetables personally, Qian Yifan knew very well that these vegetables did have such an effect. His grandfather's improving health was the best evidence.

Previously, Xiao Lingyu only sold her vegetables in the small county of Xing Yin County. No matter how effective they were, they would not cause much of a stir and would not attract any attention.

But City Z was different.

City Z was a big city, and there were many different characters there. Some of them were vicious and greedy. Once they had their eyes on Taoyuan Village, the people there would be in danger.

Xiao Lingyu heard this and frowned. "Okay, I got it. Thank you!"

Qian Yifan thought for a moment and said, "Lingyu, do you want me to help you hack these forums and take down all the posts?"

Xiao Lingyu thought for a moment and nodded in agreement. "Okay, thank you!"

She knew that Qian Yifan was worried. The sale of her vegetables might have attracted the attention of some people, but the scope was not wide. Therefore, for the time being, it was not appropriate to exaggerate the impact of the treatment. Otherwise, it might really cause big trouble!

Qian Yifan smiled and said, "You're welcome. We're friends."

Xiao Lingyu thought for a moment and reminded him, "Yifan, if it's too dangerous, just give up." Hacking was a violation of the law.

Qian Yifan said, "Don't worry. I'll be careful!" He was only going to hack some social media forums, not government sites.

"Okay, thank you. In short, be careful. If the impact is really big, I'll think of a way to deal with it," Xiao Lingyu thanked him sincerely.

Although she hadn't known Gu Ziye and the other three for long, they all treated each other sincerely.

After Xiao Lingyu hung up the phone, she was deep in thought.

Before this, she didn't need to worry because she had a rich husband. The effects of this vegetable could be known by others.

But now, her husband had fallen into a coma. Furthermore, he might be in a coma for at least two to three years.

Within these two to three years, the wealth and power of the Gong family would be coveted by others. Xiao Lingyu and Xiao Tong's identities couldn't be exposed. She couldn't rely on her husband. They had to be careful.

Xiao Lingyu stroked the wedding ring on her ring finger, and her eyes revealed an incomparable longing.

She said softly, "Tianhao, I miss you much. Do you miss me? Quickly wake up!"

...

At the hospital under the Gong family in the capital city, Old Master Gong looked around before he walked into Gong Tianhao's ward with his walking stick.

Although Gong Tianhao's face was still a little pale, overall, he looked pretty good.

However, he had injured his brain, and the damage to his nerves was too serious. Even Situ Xing, who was the best in the world in the field of brain science, could not repair these nervous systems in a short period of time.

In particular, there was no regenerative tissue in the nervous system in the brain, so the damage could not be reversed.

However, as the leader of the Dragon Organization, the top elite in the business world, and the behind-the-scenes boss of the Imperial Palace, Gong Tianhao could not fall.

They needed Gong Tianhao.

In order to study the recovery of the nervous system, Situ Xing stayed in the research room day and night.

Old Master Gong saw all these. He felt thankful to Situ Xing.

Old Master Gong sat down by the bed and looked at his grandson lying on it. He took out a small glass bottle of water.

This small glass bottle was the size of a baby's arm. It was crystal clear and very bright.

There was some transparent liquid in it. It was colorless and tasteless, just like clear water.

In fact, this was clear water.

Old Master Gong opened the bottle cap and picked up the bottle. His two hands immediately pinched the sides of Gong Tianhao's cheeks. With a squeeze, Gong Tianhao's mouth opened.

Then, he picked up the glass bottle and poured the water into Gong Tianhao's mouth.

Gong Tianhao was, after all, unconscious and couldn't swallow it. Thus, the liquid flowed out from the corners of his mouth.

When Old Master Gong saw this, his heart ached terribly.

He said, "Hao 'Er, Yu 'Er gave me these, and she asked me to feed them to you daily. Drinking it will help you recover. But you're wasting it like this. If Yu 'Er found out, her heart would ache terribly."

Old Master Gong didn't dare to say anything else. Even though the ward was private, the walls had ears. Since the news of Gong Tianhao's coma had spread, Old Master Gong knew how many pairs of eyes were watching them. Hence, he had to be careful!

There were some words that were best hidden in his mind.

The strange thing was that the moment Old Master Gong finished his words, Gong Tianhao stopped wasting the water. The corners of his lips tightened, and all the water went into his stomach.

Old Master Gong's eyes instantly turned red as he sobbed, "Hao 'Er, since you like Yu 'Er so much, quickly wake up. You know how much she and her son need you now!"

Xiao Lingyu told Old Master Gong that Gong Tianhao already knew the secret of the farming space.

Xiao Lingyu was carrying a huge secret. It could bring an earth-shattering disaster. In the past, even if the secret was exposed, Gong Tianhao had the ability to protect her. But now...

Old Master Gong sighed heavily and released Gong Tianhao's hand. He took the bottle back into his pocket.

Old Master Gong looked at his grandson lying quietly on the bed and said with determination in his eyes, "Hao 'Er, take care of your injuries. Grandfather promises you to take care of them until you wake up."

Yu 'Er told her that Hao 'Er would take two to three years to recover. He had to persevere through that time. When he was at Taoyuan Village, he ate with the Xiao Family daily. It improved his health tremendously. Doctor Huang said that with his current condition, it wouldn't be a problem for him to live to a hundred years old.

'Hmph. Those monsters who appear out of nowhere need to be careful. Do they think I will fall so easily?

'I will show them that even without my grandson, Gong Zhen will uphold the power of the Gong Family.'

After talking to Gong Tianhao for a while, Old Master Gong left.

What he didn't know was that in the research room, Situ Xing had been watching everything without blinking.

After Old Master Gong left, he furrowed his brows tightly.

Logically speaking, with the extent of Gong Tianhao's injuries, it was impossible for the nervous system in Gong Tianhao's brain to recover. He provided a drip for Gong Tianhao to maintain the man's organs.

However, as a top-notch neurologist, Situ Xing discovered that Gong Tianhao seemed to be slowly recovering. To be precise, his nerve tissues were recovering. Even though the recovery was minute, he still noticed it. Situ Xing was very puzzled until that one time he noticed a wet spot around Gong Tianhao's neck. Then, he noticed it a few more times.

Gong Tianhao was in a coma. Other than the IV drip, he could not eat or drink anything. At most, when his lips were dry, they would use a cotton swab to moisten his lips.

The nurse assigned to Gong Tianhao was definitely the best. She would not accidentally pour water on Gong Tianhao's neck. The fact that this had happened repeatedly was abnormal.

For this, he even got angry at the staff. The staff was innocent. They had never made a mistake. They wouldn't splash water on Young Master Gong.

Then, the head nurse stood out nervously and reported that this only happened after the old master visited his grandson.

Hearing this, Situ Xing fell silent.

If it were someone else, he would have suspected that they had the intention to harm Gong Tianhao, such as poisoning him.

However, Old Master Gong wouldn't do that.

So why was Old Master Gong feeding the Boss water? And why would he hide it from everyone, even the attending physician?

Situ Xing really wanted to ask Old Master Gong about it, but after thinking about it, he still wanted to know more.

Therefore, he installed a camera in the ward without anyone knowing.

Then, he saw with his own eyes that Old Master Gong took out a glass bottle and fed Gong Tianhao water.

Miraculously, even the unconscious Gong Tianhao was able to drink the water.

Situ Xing heard that it was Xiao Lingyu who asked Old Master Gong to feed Gong Tianhao this water. Apparently, this water was special, and it could help with Gong Tianhao's recovery.

So, what kind of water was this?

Situ Xing, who was in the laboratory, fell silent.

Suddenly, he seemed to have thought of something.

He remembered that before Old Master Gong went to Taoyuan Village, there was a bullet in his heart. His body was very weak and could not be stimulated at all.

However, after arriving at Taoyuan Village, he heard that bullet had naturally eased out. And Old Master Gong became healthier by the day.

The bullet coming out was a miracle.

Of course, Old Master Gong didn't tell anyone about it. He only told Gong Tianhao about it. Then, it was Gong Tianhao who told Situ Xing.

At that time, he was a little puzzled and curious about it. However, he was eating, drinking, and having fun there. Although he was shocked by it, he didn't think much of it. He attributed it to the fact that the old man was happy there. He was also happy that the old master was getting healthier.

On top of that, Xiao Lingyu's family seemed to have become younger. Even for someone as old as Grandma Xiao and Grandpa Xiao, it was a miracle that their white hair had turned black. In just one or two months, they had become more than ten years younger.

Xiao Lingyu's mother and father also had better skin than most villagers. Their skin was fair. The men had muscular bodies, and they looked exceptionally healthy.

At that time, he attributed all the reasons to the vegetables of the Xiao family and also to that Little Cattle King.

Now that he thought about it, this was completely wrong.

There was only one Little Cattle King. How could he supply the whole village?

The crops grown at Taoyuan Village were better than the ones in the other villages.

The growth of the crops on Xiao Lingyu's lands was the most impressive.

One time, Situ Xing went to visit the farm. He noticed that only Father Xiao and Mother Xiao were watering the large farm. Why?

Normally, people could be hired to do this manual work, but the Xiao Family always watered their own crops.

So, Situ Xing's conclusion was... the Xiao Family had a secret, and the secret was not related to the Little Cattle King but to Xiao Lingyu. Old Master Gong said that the water was given to him by Xiao Lingyu, so this water was also the key to the secret.

Situ Xing was Gong Tianhao's attending physician, and he had to mind all medical problems. That was his responsibility. Old Master Gong was feeding Gong Tianhao strange water in private. This water appeared to have helped repair the nerve tissues.

What should he do? Should he continue to pretend not to know anything? Or should he ask about it?

Situ Xing was a medical research maniac. This was something that could recover brain tissues. It was a medical miracle. He wanted to study it.

However, this involved his Boss' wife. If this were leaked, it would cause a huge wash to slam through the medical world.

Situ Xing sat in his seat. His hand knocked gently on the table. In the huge laboratory, only the sound of knocking on the table could be heard.

Chapter 522: The Store in City Z

Zeng Family's vegetable store was doing extremely well.

In the past, only a few customers went there to buy vegetables. Although they were all rich, they didn't buy much. At most, they bought a few hundred RMB or a few hundred catties of vegetables.

However, many enterprises bought vegetables in batches these days. For example, those big hotels bought several thousand catties every time.

It meant that not much was left. Zeng Family's vegetable shop only had five to six thousand catties daily. Each vegetable had only around 300 to 400 catties. They didn't have enough to sell.

Therefore, pre-ordering had become the first choice of all customers. Whether it was the small customers or the big hotel managers, they had to preorder the amount in advance.

Zeng Qinghua and his wife were also very busy. They were busy every day. However, they were very happy.

Three months passed by.

In the past three months, except for the occasional fight over vegetables, there was almost no major incident.

"Qinghua, I heard that boss Xiao will come today, right?" The Lady Boss asked with a smile.

Zeng Qinghua tidied up the things on the shelf and nodded, "That's right. The exclusive sales rights of our shop are expiring after three months. She is coming over to look at her new shop at City Z."

Speaking of the shop, the lady boss said curiously, "I heard that boss Xiao rented a three-story building. Each floor is at least 500 to 600 square meters." That was at least seven times the size of Zeng Family's vegetable shop.

Zeng Qinghua nodded.

The lady boss asked, "Are the three-story buildings all used to sell vegetables?" Wasn't that too big?

Zeng Qinghua thought for a moment and said, "Boss Xiao said that her shop would sell vegetables and some fruits. The stock on each floor will have different qualities and prices."

Updates by . com

The lady boss asked curiously, "Aren't these all produced by their farm? How come the quality is different?"

Zeng Qinghua shook his head and said, "No, Boss Xiao is not only going to sell her family's produce but also the produce farmed by the other villagers of Taoyuan Village.

"Even though the vegetables grown by the other villagers are not as tasty as Boss Xiao's, they are much better than the vegetables in the market. Therefore, the price will also be higher but not as high as Boss Xiao's vegetables. I guess you can consider them the cheaper option."

The lady boss asked curiously, "The whole village is growing vegetables? And they all taste great? Is it the soil at that place?" If it were the soil, wouldn't this be discovered sooner?

Zeng Qinghua thought for a moment and nodded. "It has to be soil!" Otherwise, it would be impossible to understand how the whole village could grow such delicious vegetables.

"Then why do boss Xiao's vegetables taste exponentially better than the rest of the village?" The Lady Boss was a little confused.

Zeng Qinghua said with a smile, "This might have to do with science and technology. I heard that boss Xiao graduated from a famous university. She's a friend in agriculture. If she were in the farming industry, she would definitely ask this friend for advice."

The Lady Boss thought for a moment and smiled. "That's true. It's like cooking. Different people can make the same dish, but those from a culinary school will make the tastier dish." Then, the lady boss asked with some worry, "Qinghua, if boss Xiao opens her own shop, what about our business?"

Zeng Qinghua said with a smile, "Don't worry. It won't be affected. In City Z, only two shops will sell this kind of organic vegetables. Actually, it's only one.

"After all, boss Xiao also has shares in this shop, and she also has the majority of the shares. Our shop is basically her branch. If the business is affected, Boss Xiao will not ignore it. So just relax and don't think too much."

The Lady Boss smiled and said, "You're right!"

There were too many rich and powerful people in the huge City Z. Even if Xiao Lingyu opened a big shop, there was still a large market. After all, they already had a lot of preorders daily.

Xiao Lingyu came to City Z with Zeng Yaozu this time.

The location of the shop had actually been found long ago. Zheng Haiyang handled it. After all, he was in this line of work. He was very insightful.

Xiao Lingyu said that her shop didn't need to be located in a prime location, but it had to have a spacious parking space. After all, she was going to sell high-end products. Even the maids of her customers would come driving cars.

As for the location, she had confidence that gold would shine anywhere. She was not worried about a lack of customers.

In the car, Zeng Yaozu asked, "Lingyu, there won't be any problems with opening such a big shop in City Z, right?" Plus, the shop would only sell vegetables and fruits. Actually, that was wrong. The shop was going to market the specialty farming produce from Taoyuan Village. They could sell eggs and herbs too.

However, wasn't a three-story store too big for this purpose?

That was already the size of a supermarket. And the supermarkets sold all kinds of stuff.

Even though Zeng Yaozu was confident in Xiao Lingyu's produce, he was still worried.

Xiao Lingyu smiled. "I don't know either. We'll try things out first!"

She was not afraid. She believed that her products would draw in the customers.

Two hours later, Xiao Lingyu and Zeng Yaozu arrived at the shop.

The supermarket was located east of City Z. It was not a business center but close to a residential area. There was a river in front of it, and this river was the moat of City Z.

The two sides of the moat were paved with roads, plants, and fences. Usually, people would go for a walk and dance. It was a good place for people to relax.

There was a large empty space at the entrance of the supermarket. It was now well-organized and had designated parking spaces. It could hold at least 30 to 40 cars. The store also had a basement which had been converted into a large underground parking lot. It could accommodate hundreds of cars.

Customers would not have to park in the distance and waste a lot of time looking for a parking lot.

"Sister Xiao, isn't this place too remote?" Zeng Yaozu looked around and asked suspiciously, "We're close to a residential area, but this is not the silk-stocking district. I don't think the residents here can afford our vegetables daily."

Xiao Lingyu shook her head. "Don't worry. Our products will speak for themselves. This place is large, easy to find and has a lot of parking space. The business won't be bad."

Zeng Yaozu shrugged and smiled. "You're the boss!"

The two walked into the shop. The shop had been renovated, and the shelves and frames had been arranged. They just needed to wait for the goods to be put on the shelves.

Zeng Yaozu looked around and nodded. "Well, the renovation is not bad!"

Xiao Lingyu smiled and said, "It was Zheng Haiyang who helped to contact the renovation company!"

Although Zheng Haiyang was a real estate developer in Xingyin County, he had some connections in City Z.

Zeng Yaozu nodded and said, "Lingyu, your friends are really not bad!"

"You're one of them!" After her rebirth, Xiao Lingyu felt that she had a good eye for people. Whether it was making friends or finding a husband, she could always find the most practical one.

At the thought of her husband, Xiao Lingyu's expression darkened slightly.

Then, she said with a smile, "This place is not bad! We shall prepare to set up the business!" Then, she said, "I'll leave the shop in City Z to you for the time being. Xinxin is still studying. After she finishes her studies, let her manage this shop!"

"Okay, no problem!" Zeng Yaozu nodded. He knew that Xiao Xinxin had been growing. He would grow together with her.

Xiao Lingyu thought for a moment and said, "Yaozu, our company is short of talents. I hope you can help me keep an eye on the talents here."

After all, City Z was a big city and had many talents. Some of them were just waiting to be discovered.

Zeng Yaozu nodded and said, "Yes, I will."

There were still some people in the shop. They were all hired employees and were busy. They noticed the arrival of the two strangers.

"Who are these two people?"

"The shop hasn't opened yet. Why are there two strangers here?"

"And judging from their clothes, they look quite stylish. They should be rich people."

"I heard that our supermarket specializes in selling vegetables. They sell organic vegetables! Organic vegetables are very expensive. Our vegetables will be much more expensive than other organic vegetables!"

When one of the employees heard this, she immediately said with some worry, "Will there be customers who would come to buy such pricey vegetables? Will it close down in a few days?" The person who said this secretly felt a little regretful. If the supermarket closed down after a few days of work, she would have to find another job. She also worried that she wouldn't get the salary she was owed for these past few days.

"When you came to apply for the job, didn't you know that our shop will specialize in selling vegetables?" A female employee who had a good appearance and temperament asked.

"I do!" The colleague nodded and said, "I assume the store will focus on selling vegetables, but I have no idea the store will only sell vegetables!

"Xiaolu, don't you think it's too much of a pity to use such a big supermarket to sell vegetables?

"There will be a lot of vegetables... Will they be able to sell all of the vegetables?"

She had never heard of anyone opening a supermarket to sell vegetables. This was a waste of resources. Even if the vegetables were sold cheap, the margin of profit would be so small that it wouldn't be enough to pay the rent. Her face showed deep worry about the job. She wondered if she should resign and find another job.

Zhou Xiaolu shook her head and smiled, "I don't know either. But..." she lowered her eyes and said, "But I heard that the vegetables sold in this shop are not ordinary. They are much more expensive than other vegetables."

"Xiaolu, is that true?" A colleague was very curious. Then, she asked suspiciously, "But how expensive can vegetables be?"

"Have you heard of Zeng Family's vegetable shop?" Zhou Xiaolu asked.

"Zeng Family's vegetable shop?" Li Xiaomei and Zhang Li looked at each other with confusion in their eyes. "I think I have heard of it before." They were just normal citizens, so they didn't know much about the high-end shop on the other side of town.

After a moment, Li Xiaomei seemed to have thought of something and said loudly, "Oh, I remember now. Two months ago, I was surfing the net when I heard someone mention something about Zeng Family's vegetable shop.

"The vegetables there are very expensive. They are several times more expensive than ordinary organic vegetables or even more than ten times more expensive. However, when the shop opens its door, people rush to buy the vegetables."

Zhang Li asked curiously, "Then what kind of vegetables are these? Why are they so expensive and so easy to sell?"

Li Xiaomei shook her head and said, "I just heard from the netizens that the vegetables sold in that vegetable store are very delicious. However, they are very expensive. Ordinary people really can't afford to eat them."

Having said that, she paused for a moment and asked Zhou Xiaolu curiously, "But Xiaolu, what does that have to do with us?"

Zhou Xiaolu said, "The connection is deep. Our supermarket will specialize in selling those organic vegetables. The supermarket is owned by the farm boss."

The two female colleagues were really surprised. "Xiaolu, where did you hear that?"

Zhou Xiaolu thought for a moment and said, "I heard it from a friend. He often goes to Zeng Family's vegetable store and has a good relationship with the store owner. The store owner told my friend about it. My friend even sighed and said he wouldn't need to fight others for vegetables anymore!"

The two female colleague's eyes immediately lit up when they heard that. They smiled and said, "Xiaolu, your friend must be rich."

While saying that, they looked at Zhou Xiaolu and asked with a mysterious smile, "Xiaolu, seeing that you have such a good temperament, are you from a rich family?"

At this point, Li Xiaomei asked curiously, "By the way, if your family is rich, why did you find a job in a supermarket?"

Zhou Xiaolu smiled and said, "I'm not a rich person. I just have a friend who is slightly rich."

She had run away from home and made a living on her own. She really did not have any money now.

"By the way, who are they?" Zhang Li looked at Xiao Lingyu and Zeng Yaozu with confusion. "They have been looking around since they came. Could they be bad people?"

Li Xiaomei disagreed. "They have a kind presence. I don't think they are bad people."

"You shouldn't judge a book by its cover!" Zhang Li said as she walked toward the two.

Chapter 523: A Small Interlude

"This supermarket hasn't opened yet. May I ask who you are?" Li Xiaomei thought Zhang Li was going to be rude, but she was actually very polite. Li Xiaomei walked over.

Xiao Lingyu didn't answer directly, but Zeng Yaozu, who was next to her, asked seriously, "Are you all employees here?" He looked around.

Zhang Li's expression froze. She was the one who asked him the question, but he was questioning him back. However, this man was handsome and had a good temperament. His clothes were all branded, and his eyes were bright and beautiful. At a glance, one could tell that he was a rich man.

For the single Zhang Li, this man was a catch.

Zhang Li tidied her clothes, combed her hair, and answered with a sweet smile, "That's right. Because our shop hasn't opened yet, everyone here is an employee. Except the two of you, of course. May I know who you are?"

The others had no idea what Zhang Li was up to.

Zeng Yaozu said, "It's nothing. We stopped because we were curious as we were passing by."

Zhang Li frowned and asked, "But we haven't opened yet. What's there to see?"

"The decorations outside are good, so I wanted to come in to check out the interior design." Zeng Yaozu asked, "I saw the sign. Will you sell vegetables here?"

Zhang Li nodded and said, "Yes. Is there any other question? If not, I have to go back to my work." Although she was curious about whether Zeng Yaozu was a rich man, he obviously had other reasons for coming here. She was just an ordinary employee and did not want to get entangled.

Zeng Yaozu nodded and said, "Well, go and do your work! We'll just look around!"

Zhang Li nodded. She turned around and left.

Zhou Xiaolu was an astute person. She noticed that Xiao Lingyu had been looking around and nodding from time to time after she entered. She had a guess of these two's identities. They were either from the renovation company or the owners of the supermarket.

Zhou Xiaolu repped forward and asked with a smile, "Hello. How can I help you?"

Updates by . com

Zeng Yaozu looked around and asked, "I saw the sign outside. You'll be selling vegetables here, right? What kind of vegetables you'll be selling that you need such a big store?"

Zhou Xiaoru smiled politely. "Our store will sell farmed produce from Green Fresh in Taoyuan Village. They are all organic vegetables."

"Organic vegetables?" Zeng Yaozu frowned and asked, "Is there anything special about it?"

Zhou Xiaolu explained, "Organic vegetables are pure green, non-polluting green vegetables. Naturally, the price is higher than ordinary vegetables.

"However, the organic vegetables in our store are more special than other organic vegetables. Our vegetables have been tested by authorities and have a kind of active molecules that are beneficial to the body. They are good for your health."

Zeng Yaozu pretended to be puzzled and asked, "Are there really such miraculous vegetables?"

"Yes, there is!" Zhou Xiaolu replied with a smile, "And we'll be selling them in the future."

"You're not lying to me, are you?" Zeng Yaozu looked at Zhou Xiaolu suspiciously as if he did not believe her.

At this moment, Zhang Li said, "Who are you? Why do we need to lie to you?" Zhang Li turned to Zhou Xiaolu and said, "Xiaolu, ignore them. We still have a lot to do to prepare for the opening."

As soon as Zhang Li said this, Zhou Xiaolu, who was observing Xiao Lingyu's expression, immediately noticed her slight frown.

For this reason, she was even more certain that this was the owner of the store. She heard that the boss of Green Fresh was a very beautiful and tall woman.

The woman in front of her definitely fitted the description of the woman who appeared at the Zeng Family's vegetable store.

They didn't reveal their identities because they were probably doing an inspection.

With this in mind, Zhou Xiaolu smiled. "All guests are welcome. It doesn't matter whether the shop is open or not."

"Xiaomei, what do you think these two are doing here?" Zhang Li pulled Li Xiaomei and asked in a low voice.

Li Xiaomei shook her head and said, "It doesn't matter what they are doing here. It doesn't hinder us from doing our work!"

Zhang Li said unwillingly, "That's true. But I can't bear to have these two acting like some kind of bosses surveying our work."

Li Xiaomei was shocked, and then she looked at Xiao Lingyu and Zeng Yanzu. The woman was beautiful, the man was handsome, and they were dressed fashionably. At first glance, it was obvious that they were not people who often bought vegetables and cooked. They had been asking questions about what they sold even though there was a big sign outside. It was impossible for them not to see it. So they were probably there for another reason.

As for the real reason... Li Xiaomei lowered her head and thought for a moment. Then, her eyes widened, and she was shocked. 'These two people... These two people couldn't be... The Bosses, right?'

But that would explain these two's behavior.

After Li Xiaomei figured this out, she immediately went forward and said with a smile, "Hello, can I help you two?"

Xiao Lingyu and Zeng Yaozu, "..."

Zhou Xiaolu, "..."

Zhang Li, "..." What's going on?

When Zhou Xiaolu saw Li Xiaomei coming over and saw the fawning smile on her face, Zhou Xiaolu's expression changed slightly, but it quickly returned to normal.

Xiao Lingyu and Zeng Yaozu looked at each other and communicated with their eyes. 'These two employees are quite attentive.'

Xiao Lingyu shook her head at Li Xiaomei and said, "We're just looking around. We don't want to disturb you. You can go back to do your work."

This was her chance to shine, so Li Xiaomei was a little indignant from being chased away. She glanced at Zhou Xiaolu beside her and said, "How about I show the two of you around? She doesn't know anything. Xiaolu, you should go and work."

Zhou Xiaolu smiled and said nothing. She turned and busied herself with her work.

As expected, only a dog that couldn't bark would bite.

Li Xiaomei usually had a good relationship with Zhou Xiaolu. However, when it came to her own interests, she would stab others in the back.

Zhang Li could be arrogant, but she wore her feelings on her sleeves. She was harmless. However, Li Xiaomei was cunning. She would push you when you were not looking.

Even though they were just a normal supermarket, they didn't need such a cunning employee. She would think of taking advantage of others without showing any emotion. If someone gave her a certain benefit, she would immediately sell out the supermarket to others.

Xiao Lingyu knew she couldn't keep this person around.

However, Xiao Lingyu would not be stupid enough to fire this person on the spot.

She would just instruct the store manager and find an opportunity to dismiss this person.

In her previous life, she had fought hard in the workplace. She would never look down on any small character.

Many times, the failure of a mission came from a small character, such as the cleaning lady.

The cleaning lady seemed to be doing the dirtiest and most tiring job. However, they were also the people who heard the most secrets.

This was because many people didn't care about the cleaning lady. They looked down on them and would speak without a filter around them.

When Xiao Lingyu returned to the workplace in her previous life, she started as a cleaning lady. At that time, she heard the secrets of many people in the company. When she was promoted, these secrets became her secret weapon. Xiao Lingyu was not above using them when she was threatened. Of course, she would never break the law. Back then, the comment others had for Xiao Lingyu was, a woman who was hard on others but hardest on herself.

Xiao Lingyu smiled and asked, "Miss, what is there to show us? I only see freshly painted walls and shelves."

Li Xiaomei was treating them like this because she had guessed their identities. She was a clever woman. If her mind wasn't that sinister, she could be trained. Xiao Lingyu wanted her employees to be upright and moral.

Xiao Lingyu politely rejected Li Xiaomei's invitation.

If they were really smart people, they would know how to back off. Zhou Xiaolu was the best example. When she saw Li Xiaomei cut in, she quietly went back to her work.

Li Xiaomei immediately smiled and said, "Speaking of which, the renovation of this supermarket is really not bad. It's bright and comfortable to look at. I really don't know where our boss found the renovation company. He really has a good eye!" Li Xiaomei flattered the boss.

Xiao Lingyu looked around and nodded in agreement. "Yes, this renovation is indeed not bad. However, since the boss has paid the renovation company, they should do their best, right?"

Xiao Lingyu didn't take the flattery. She attributed everything to the renovation company. However, that was the truth too. Xiao Lingyu had spent a lot of money on the renovation, so of course, it had to be the best.

Li Xiaomei's smile froze. She did not know how to respond.

She had originally wanted to curry favor with the boss, but the woman kept deflecting her praises. Li Xiaomei was getting annoyed. In her mind, the man was the real boss. He had asked about the vegetables, which was the core of their business.

Also, Li Xiaomei didn't think a woman could be the boss. Plus, the woman looked so slutty. She was probably the boss' secretary. So, Li Xiaomei was angry that the woman kept shutting her down. However, even if the slut was just a secretary, she was someone Li Xiaomei couldn't afford to offend.

Li Xiaomei nodded with a stiff expression and said, "Yes. The renovation company did a good job. I feel like the person who found the company should get the highest credit!"

Zeng Yaozu and even Zhou Xiaolu's mouths twitched. The flattery was getting too obvious!

Zhang Li looked at Li Xiaomei in confusion. She frowned and asked with confusion, "Xiaomei, why do you keep praising the renovation? They are only here to take a quick look."

Everyone, "..." Ignorance is bliss!

Li Xiaomei's face turned black, and she cursed in her heart, 'This idiot! This is probably the supermarket owner. Instead of currying favor with him, she's working there blindly. She'll be a good-for-nothing for the rest of her life!'

Li Xiaomei restrained her emotions and said with a smile, "Like what Xiaolu said, even if our shop hasn't opened yet, the customers are still customers. Of course, we need to treat them well!"

Xiao Lingyu didn't want to be entangled with these girls anymore. She didn't mean to look down on them, but she felt that it was necessary.

Xiao Lingyu turned to Zeng Yaozu and said, "We've seen enough. Let's go!"

Zeng Yaozu nodded.

Li Xiaomei was a little dumbfounded.

In her mind, the woman was the secretary and the man was the boss. But based on the last interaction, it was the other way around.

After Xiao Lingyu and Zeng Yaozu left, Zhou Xiaomei looked at Li Xiaomei, who was still a little stunned. She curled her lips and said to Zhang Li with a smile, "Xiao Li, you still haven't figured it out?"

Zhang Li looked at her colleague with confusion. "Figured what out? Xiaolu, your words don't make any sense."

Zhou Xiaolu said with a smile, "Weren't we talking about Zeng Family's vegetable shop earlier? My friend said that one time, a woman came to slander the shop's reputation. She said the organic vegetables are poisonous. Later, the boss of Green Fresh came and solved everything with a few words.

"My friend was there at the time. When the boss appeared, many people gasped in surprise."

"Why?" Zhang Li was intrigued.

Li Xiaomei also pricked up her ears to listen.

Zhou Xiaolu said with a smile, "Because the boss was too beautiful. Everyone present was shocked!"

"What?" Zhang Li asked, confused, "Is there really a man who can shock people with his beautiful appearance?"

When Li Xiaomei heard this, she suddenly had a bad feeling.

Zhou Xiaolu said with a smile, "Silly woman. Who told you that the Boss is a man? She is a woman and a very beautiful woman at that! Just like that woman just now!"

Zhang Li, "..."

Li Xiaomei, "..."

When Zhou Xiaolu saw Li Xiaomei's expression change, she suddenly felt very happy.

Chapter 524: Looking for Boss Zeng

After Xiao Lingyu and Zeng Yaozu came out, Xiao Lingyu instructed, "That person called Xiaolu is very careful and good at reading people. You should pay attention to her and try her out for a period of time to see if she has the qualifications and potential to be nurtured.

"As for that Xiaomei, I need even our basic employees to have a good character and not someone who'd stab others in the back."

Zeng Yaozu nodded and said, "Okay, I got it!"

"Then where are we going?" Zeng Yaozu asked after getting in the car.

"Let's find a place to eat. After lunch, let's go straight to Zeng Family's vegetable store and greet Boss Zeng!" Xiao Lingyu said.

Then, they drove to the entrance of Zeng Family's vegetable store, found a parking space, and walked to the store.

"Boss Xiao!" As soon as she entered the store, the lady boss noticed Xiao Lingyu.

Xiao Lingyu nodded and said with a smile, "Lady Boss, how have you been?"

The Lady Boss said with a smile, "Hehe, thanks to you, we have been doing well recently!"

Then, she looked at Zeng Yaozu, who was very handsome. She thought that he was Xiao Lingyu's husband. When Xiao Lingyu first appeared at the shop, the Lady Boss could tell that she had just given birth. In that case, it was natural that she was married. Then, she had to have a husband.

The man did not look old. He looked to be about 25 or 26 years old and was about the same age as boss Xiao. However, since the lady boss was just guessing, she didn't assume too much.

The lady boss looked at Zeng Yaozu and asked with a smile, "May I know who this is?"

Xiao Lingyu introduced, "This is Zeng Yaozu. He is my most capable subordinate and partner!"

'Ah! He is not Boss Xiao's husband. If he were, she wouldn't have introduced him like this.' The Lady Boss thought to herself. 'Thankfully, I didn't say anything wrong. Otherwise, how awkward would it be?'

The lady boss immediately smiled and greeted, "Hello, Mr. Zeng!"

"Hello, Lady Boss!" Zeng Yaozu greeted politely.

"Come, let's sit in the reception room and have some tea!" The lady boss smiled and welcomed them into the reception room.

When they expanded the shop and renovated it, they had specially set aside a reception room. Back then, they didn't understand the reason.

When the big boss came, they understood the purpose. For normal customers, they didn't need a reception room.

The reception room was also very simple. There were a few pieces of solid wood furniture, a tea table, and a water dispenser. The reception room was separated by glass.

It was already two in the afternoon when Xiao Lingyu and Zeng Yaozu arrived at the store. Most of the vegetables in the store had been sold out, leaving only some ordinary farm vegetables in the shelf frame. There were not many customers.

The lady boss skillfully boiled water to make tea, picked up a small teacup with a pair of tweezers, and washed the teacup.

The lady boss smiled and said, "Boss Xiao, why didn't you tell us beforehand that you were coming so that we could prepare to treat you to a meal!"

Xiao Lingyu smiled and said, "Boss Zeng and you are so busy. We wouldn't want to impose!" She looked around and asked, "By the way, where's boss Zeng?"

The lady boss said, "Today, we're settling some bills with a few clients. He went to collect the bills. I just called him. He'll be back soon."

Xiao Lingyu nodded. She had something to tell Zeng Qinghua and his wife.

The lady boss chatted with Xiao Lingyu about daily life. "Boss Xiao, we didn't get the chance to greet you properly in the past because you left in a hurry. But we have time now." The lady boss was a very cheerful and straightforward person.

Xiao Lingyu smiled and said, "The last time I came here, it was only months after giving birth. My family was worried about me, so I rushed home as soon as the matter was over."

The lady boss said, "Boss Xiao got married and had a child at such a young age. Boss Xiao even has a flourishing career. You are really a model citizen." Zeng Family's vegetable shop alone had a monthly income of one to two million. There was also a contract with Jun Hao Hotel. Based on the lady boss' calculation, Boss Xiao would earn around three million per month. That was very rich. Most people wouldn't see that much money in their life.

Recently, the lady boss also heard that the boss had opened a three-story shop that was 1,500 to 1,600 square meters. This was an amazing business.

Xiao Lingyu smiled humbly and thought to himself, 'If she knows my husband is the richest man in the country, she wouldn't say all these.'

Of course, only the Xiao family knew about Gong Tianhao's identity.

The villagers only knew that grandfather and grandson were rich, and Xiao Lingyu married into a rich family.

However, after Gong Tianhao's accident, some bad rumors spread.

They said that Xiao Lingyu was a jinx.

Her previous boyfriend's family was imprisoned. Her previous boyfriend ended up paralyzed. He was tortured at a hospital.

Not long after her marriage, her husband was in a car accident. Therefore, Xiao Lingyu brought bad fortune to her man.

On top of that, there was another rumor circulating. It was Xiao Lingyu's son who was the source of the misfortune! Or else, why would his father get into a car accident right after he was born?

When the Xiao Family heard about these rumors, they were livid. How could they say such things about a child? These rumors greatly harmed Xiao Lingyu and Xiao Tong's reputation.

Mother Xiao was unable to catch the real culprit who spread the rumors.

However, whenever she heard people gossiping about this, she would carry a knife to that person's door. She wouldn't kill anyone, but she would chop the door down. At the same time, she warned that if she continued to hear these things, the Xiao Family wouldn't hire them anymore.

These people wanted to take advantage of the Xiao Family but talk bad things behind their back at the same time. The Xiao Family wasn't that magnanimous. The Xiao Family was fair, but they always looked out for their own. They would have done this in the past, much less now when they were the richest family in Taoyuan... no, in the entire district.

When the villagers saw Mother Xiao and her knife, they stopped talking about the rumors. Even if they did, it was behind closed doors. Therefore, the rumors soon died down.

Xiao Lingyu did hear these rumors, but she was too busy to care.

When the thirty Mus of vegetable fields were about to be picked, Xiao Lingyu personally did the calculations and budget.

At first, the Xiao Family only planted six Mus of vegetables, but they earned a large sum. Now, they had more than thirty Mus. Who knew how long it'd take to sell all of them. But the giant income was guaranteed.

After that, it would be harvest time for peanuts and soybeans. They had planted hundred of Mus for those too. Even though they hired many people, that were still a lot of land to cover.

However, it was approaching winter. The mountains wouldn't be suitable for planting anymore, so the harvest could be slow.

Other than being kept as food and snacks, the biggest use of peanuts was to extract oil!

Even though Gong Tianhao was unconscious, Li Yuanhang had already opened up a market for peanut oil in the capital. Therefore, Xiao Lingyu didn't worry about them not selling.

Moreover, this peanut oil was not only sold in the capital. The capital had many rich people, but there were other big cities in China too.

As for soybeans, Xiao Lingyu planned to use them to expand the family business.

Third Uncle and Third Aunt Xiao's soybean products were selling very well. After taking out the rent, they could still earn 30,000 to 40,000 a month.

Father Xiao had three brothers. Third Uncle Xiao was given the first business because they had a schooling year son. However, this didn't mean that Xiao Lingyu had forgotten about her other uncles. They didn't have any grievances now, but seeing the money Third Uncle Xiao was earning, they might have some minor complaints. If this continued, there would definitely be estrangement and discord in the family.

This wasn't what Xiao Lingyu wanted to see, and it wasn't what Grandpa and Grandma Xiao wanted to see either.

Thus, Xiao Lingyu definitely had to plan to help out her First and Fourth Uncles.

Xiao Lingyu had told her fourth uncle a long time ago that she wanted him to start a transportation company.

However, her business had not been set up yet, so the transportation company wouldn't have any business.

Moreover, the transportation company had a high investment cost and a long recovery time. It seemed unfair to her fourth uncle.

Therefore, Xiao Lingyu decided to set up the transportation company on her own. With her current earning ability, she was not afraid of investing. She could also wait for the cost to recoup before making profits.

Therefore, she had to arrange for Fourth Uncle Xiao to have a new job.

Xiao Lingyu set up a tofu product company.

Grandpa and Grandma Xiao, First Uncle and Aunt Xiao, Father and Mother Xiao, Third Uncle and Aunt Xiao, and Fourth Uncle and Aunt Xiao were all shareholders of the company. Xiao Lingyu did not participate.

Each couple's shares were 20%. Other than Grandpa Xiao and Grandma, who only received dividends, the remaining couples could participate in the management of the company.

The shares were the same, but the company needed a person in charge. But Xiao Lingyu's uncles and aunties didn't know how to run a company.

Thus, Xiao Lingyu planned to hire a professional manager from outside the company to be the general manager.

If the general manager had to do his best to manage the company, Xiao Lingyu suggested that everyone give 1 percent of their shares to the general manager.

On the contrary, if the general manager didn't have the ability, then they would have to kick them out.

As for the overall strategy of how the company would develop in the future, she had to plan it well.

Since it was a soybean products company, the income from the soybean products sold by Third Uncle and Aunt Xiao would naturally belong to the company.

Third Uncle and Aunt Xiao did not have any objections to this. They listened to Xiao Lingyu's arrangements.

After all, if it weren't for Xiao Lingyu, they would still be working for others. They would only get two to three thousand RMB a month. But now, they were bosses of their own company. Just look at the popularity of their bean products. One glance, and you'd know they were earning money.

...

Two months passed. Taoyuan Village Green Fresh Soybean Product Company was established two months. All the departments in the company had been organized. With the Xiao family working together, the company could be considered to be in good shape.

It was just that they had yet to find a suitable manager, so Xiao Lingyu was temporarily appointed as the general manager.

Tofu, soybean milk, bean paste, bean skin, bean curd, dried bean, tofu bamboo, and so on. These were the products they currently offer. With Mother Xiao and the other aunts' creativity, they were constantly coming up with new products too.

Of course, these things were only sold on a small scale in Xing Yin County. Because they had the Taoyuan Village brand, the results of the trial sale were quite good.

This gave everyone hope.

As long as everyone worked hard and achieved quality assurance, honesty, and taste, the company would definitely get better and better.

Xiao Lingyu smiled when she saw her uncle and aunts working hard every day.

As long as her family was safe and sound, happiness was better than anything else.

•••

Xiao Lingyu and Zeng Yaozu entered the reception room and were greeted politely by the lady boss. Boss Zeng rushed back not long after.

Although the weather was still cold, Xiao Lingyu could still see the sweat on Zeng Qinghua's head.

Xiao Lingyu smiled and said, "Boss Zeng!"

Zeng Qinghua wiped the beads of sweat on his forehead with a towel and shouted happily, "Boss Xiao!"

How could he not be happy?

Just three months ago, he thought that Zeng Family's vegetable shop was going to close down. Unexpectedly, in the blink of an eye, Zeng Family's vegetable shop had become City Z's hottest shop. This business was so good that everyone envied it.

Other people had to beg their customers to do business, but their customers had to beg them to reserve stock for them. How could he not be happy?

His current monthly income was two to three hundred thousand, which was more than ten times higher than his previous best business.

Xiao Lingyu saw him wiping his sweat and said with a smile, "Boss Zeng, you don't have to be in such a hurry. You're sweating all over even though it's so cold outside."

Boss Zeng said with a smile, "I was worried that I'd miss Boss Xiao. Last time, we didn't have the time to treat Boss Xiao to a meal. We wanted to thank you, but you left. We felt so embarrassed.

Xiao Lingyu picked up a small teacup, took a sip of tea, and put it down. Then she said, "I came here especially to look for you. I definitely won't leave until I see you."

Boss Zeng, "..."

Chapter 525: Trust in Situ Xing

When Old Master Gong came out of the ward again, Situ Xing blocked the door of the ward. There was no one around.

He looked at elder gong seriously and said, "Elder Gong, may we talk?" His gaze swept over Elder Gong's chest.

When Old Master Gong saw Situ Xing, he understood that he must have noticed something. It was inevitable. Even though Old Master Gong was very careful every time, due to Gong Tianhao's condition, the water would still leak out. Old Master Gong had limited time inside the ward, and there were no tools like a hairdryer inside the ward to dry the wet spots. This might happen once or twice, but every time after Old Master Gong left the ward?

Old Gong crossed his hands and leaned on his walking stick. He sighed softly and asked very calmly, "Xing 'Er, you've noticed, haven't you?"

Situ Xing nodded very seriously and said, "Yes. Grandfather, can we talk?" His tone was pleading. He only wanted the best for Gong Tianhao. The old master had something that could repair the nervous system. If he gave it to him, he would definitely be able to research something that could help Gong Tianhao recover faster.

The old master thought of Xiao Lingyu's words, "Grandfather, if Situ Xing finds out and you think you can trust him, you can give him this water and let him research it. Perhaps with his help, we might be able to wake up Tianhao earlier."

At the time, Old Master Gong said, "Situ Xing is very loyal to Hao 'Er. He can be trusted. Yu 'Er, Grandfather promises you that I'll only say anything after Xing 'Er finds out, okay?"

Xiao Lingyu said with a smile, "As long as Grandfather trusts him, then I trust him. I also believe that Situ Xing won't harm Tianhao and won't harm me. It's just that this secret is too big. The lesser the people who know about it, the better."

If she were alone, then it was fine. But now, Xiao Lingyu had to ensure the safety of Xiao Tong and her parents. She wouldn't let any harm come to them!

"Child, don't worry. I'll protect your secret. If Xing 'Er tries to harm you after finding out the secret, I'll personally end his life." Old Master Gong would suffer no traitor.

Xiao Lingyu hugged Grandfather Gong's shoulder and said with tears of gratitude, "Grandfather, thank you so much! I'm very glad that I married Tianhao. I have such a kind, magnanimous, and loving grandfather like you!"

Gong Tianhao got into a car accident because of her, but not only did Old Master Gong not blame her, he even comforted her.

How many elders could do that?

Grandfather Gong patted Xiao Lingyu's shoulder with red eyes and sobbed, "Don't cry, girl! We know that Hao 'Er will be fine in the future, so from now on, you must take good care of yourself. In the future, our family will be reunited!"

"Yes, grandfather, I will." Xiao Lingyu hugged grandfather Gong's neck with both hands. She placed her head on Old Master Gong's shoulder and nodded while crying, "Yes, I will definitely. I still have to wait for Tianhao to return.

"He said that he fell in love with me at first sight and loved me very much. Therefore, I believe that even if Tianhao loses his memory, he will still return. Therefore, I will definitely wait for Tianhao. Wait for our family to reunite!"

Grandfather Gong patted her head and said, "Yes, we must believe that our family will reunite! This old man is already old, but I'll work hard with you!"

Xiao Lingyu burst into tears.

"Don't cry. You just gave birth." Old Master Gong said, his heart aching for this child.

...

"Old Master!" Situ Xing called out to Old Master Gong twice while he was immersed in his memories. Old Master Gong woke up when Situ Xing called him for the third time.

Situ Xing asked carefully, "Old Master, is there a problem?"

Old Master Gong smiled and said, "Since you've discovered it, there's no problem. But..." Old Master Gong looked around and said in a low voice, "Where is a convenient place to talk?"

Situ Xing, "..." Old Master Gong, don't tell me you're so worried about the hospital under your family?

Old Master Gong was indeed cautious. The hospital was a place full of people, and it was inevitable that there would be a few spies mixed in.

Situ Xing said, "Old Master, my laboratory should be safe."

Old Master Gong nodded and said, "Alright, let's go to your laboratory!"

Situ Xing helped Old Master Gong to the laboratory and sat him down on a stool!

Situ Xing stood in front of him and said, "Grandfather, Tianhao's brain is injured. The most serious injury is the damage to the nervous system in the brain.

"The damage to the nervous system in the brain is irreversible unless there is a miracle. That was why I had been focusing all my energy on this for so long.

"However, before my research reached any result, I noticed that the nerve tissue in Tianhao's brain was slowly recovering. The recovery is minute, but it is still impressive.

"Logically speaking, with Tianhao's injuries being so severe, it was impossible for him to recover by relying on his natural regenerative abilities.

"However, that is really happening, albeit very slowly.

"This gave me hope.

"However, at the same time, I was filled with doubts. What was the reason?

"I have been researching this for the past few days.

"Eventually, I noticed two wet spots on Tianhao's chest.

"At first, I thought that it was an accident by the nurses.

"But this kept happening... It was clearly abnormal. Then the head nurse told me that these wet spots would only appear after your visit. Therefore, this made me suspicious."

Situ Xing turned around and tapped on his computer a few times, and a surveillance video appeared.

"I'm sorry, grandfather. In order to confirm my suspicions, I installed a hidden camera in Tianhao's ward without your knowledge! Please don't take offense. I don't want to give up any chance to save Tianhao."

Ever since Gong Tianhao's accident, Situ Xing, who had always been cheeky and seemingly heartless, suddenly became mature and serious.

Gong Tianhao's life was in his hands, and he had to do his best to treat it seriously!

Situ Xing didn't say anything and only played the video.

Old Master Gong sighed lightly and said, "Child, you're really thoughtful! I can't thank you enough. Thank you for everything you've done for Tianhao. Why would I blame you?"

Situ Xing puffed out his chest, and his expression became even more serious.

He was waiting for Old Master Gong's explanation.

Old Master Gong said, "Yu 'Er said that if you found out, we can tell you if I think you're worthy of our trust."

"Sister-in-law?" When Situ Xing heard that Xiao Lingyu was involved, his expression was both expected and unexpected.

"Yes!" Old Master Gong nodded and said, "The water was given to me by Yu 'Er. This kind of water is helpful to Tianhao's recovery. She told me to give this water to Hao 'Er to drink every day!"

Situ Xing immediately asked in puzzlement, "Elder Gong, what kind of water did sister-in-law give you?"

Elder Gong shook his head and said, "I don't know either! This is Yu Er's secret!" He was telling him that the secret was very dangerous for people to know. Situ Xing nodded and didn't probe further.

Old Master Gong continued, "The girl said that if you found out that I was feeding water to Hao 'Er, I could give you the water to study. She believes that with your medical skills, you will definitely think of a way to make Tianhao wake up earlier."

"Earlier?" Situ Xing immediately grasped the main point and asked anxiously, "Old Master, is sister-in-law very sure that boss will wake up?"

Old Master Gong didn't hide anything and nodded. "Yes, that was what the girl said. The girl said that this water can slowly heal the injuries on Tianhao's head, but the recovery is very slow and will take a few years."

Situ Xing's pupils constricted violently in disbelief.

He asked in shock, "What kind of water is this? Is it celestial water?"

He had never heard of such a thing before, nor did he know where Xiao Lingyu's water came from

Old Master Gong shook his head, "I don't know either!"

After saying that, Old Master Gong thought for a moment and said, "Xing 'Er, since you know about it, I'll leave the matter of feeding Hao 'Er water to you in the future. Do you mind?"

After all, he was old, and his movements weren't that agile. When he fed Tian Hao water, he would make some mistakes. If this went on, it would definitely arouse more suspicion.

Situ Xing nodded seriously. "Okay, grandfather!"

This water might be related to Xiao Lingyu's secret and her safety. If Gong Tianhao were still awake, they wouldn't have to worry about Xiao Lingyu's safety.

However, Tianhao was unconscious. According to the old man, Tianhao would need at least two to three years to wake up.

Therefore, before Tianhao woke up, the Dragon Organization would do everything to protect them.

Old Master Gong nodded excitedly and said, "Good, good. Xing 'Er, I'll leave the safety of Hao 'Er, Yu 'Er, and Tong 'Er to you. I'm old, and I have to stay in the Gong family to suppress the unrest."

After all, he had already retired. Although he still had some influence and residual power, when he really needed to use some power, he still had to rely on his former subordinates and trusted subordinates. Times had changed.

Old Master Gong sighed heavily.

Situ Xing nodded seriously and said, "Grandfather, please rest assured. Before Tianhao wakes up, the other brothers and I will definitely protect Boss' wife and son."

"Good, good!" Old Master Gong nodded and said.

When Situ Xing took the two buckets of water from Old Master Gong, he noticed that they were no different from normal water. He fell into deep thought.

After a moment, he took out his phone and made a call.

"Hello, Situ Xing!" Xiao Lingyu's light voice came from the phone.

Situ Xing did not hide anything and said, "Sister-in-law, I know everything!" Although he did not explain it clearly, Xiao Lingyu understood what he meant.

Xiao Lingyu nodded and said very seriously, "Yes, Tianhao will be counting on you from now on!"

Situ Xing asked, "Sister-in-law, how much water do you have?" His research might use up some of the water. So he had to ask clearly.

Xiao Lingyu did not hide anything and said, "As much as you want, feel free to study it!"

Situ Xing, "..."

After a moment of silence, Situ Xing thanked her sincerely, "Sister-in-law, thank you!"

He knew very well how much risk Xiao Lingyu had to take when she told him that.

If someone with greed had found out, Xiao Lingyu would have been imprisoned and used as an experimental subject for research.

Xiao Lingyu smiled and said, "You are his brother. Since he trusts you so much, I will choose to trust you!"

Situ Xing fell into silence again.

A moment later, Xiao Lingyu asked again, "How is he?"

Situ Xing could hear the deep longing in her tone.

Situ Xing could not bear it and said, "Sister-in-law, why don't I secretly arrange for you to meet Boss?"

Xiao Lingyu endured the intense longing and shook her head, saying, "No. Right now, all eyes in the capital are on him. People will find out..."

"No, sister-in-law. I think a meeting is really necessary." Situ Xing's heart bled for the couple. They knew where the other was, but they had to control themselves so they wouldn't meet. "Don't worry, sister-in-law. I'll make sure that no one will find out."

Xiao Lingyu was silent for a moment, then nodded and said, "Okay." She choked. It showed how much she wanted to see her husband.

"Okay."Situ Xing looked at the schedule and said, "Let's do it at midnight the day after tomorrow!"

There was a charity event that day, and many people of a certain status would attend it. Moreover, for the sake of reputation and face, many people would be there. Few people would pay attention to the things happening at the hospital. As long as he made the proper arrangements, no one would notice.

After hanging up on Situ Xing, Xiao Lingyu held her phone tightly, and tears flowed down again.

She covered her mouth with one hand and cried, "Tianhao, I miss you so much! I want to see you!"

In the past, Gong Tianhao was too good for her. A dignified young master peeled fruits for her, served her tea, and cooked for her.

'Tianhao, you said that you'd stick to me so that I'd have to get used to you.

'Tianhao, you said that you'd protect our child and me.

'Tianhao, you're not by our side anymore. I'm not used to this. What shall I do?'

Chapter 526: Xiao Tong's Reincarnation

"Yu 'Er," Mother Xiao knocked on the door and called out.

"Mom!" Xiao Lingyu opened the door.

As soon as she opened the door, Mother Xiao noticed Xiao Lingyu's red eyes. She knew that her daughter had cried.

It must be because she missed Tianhao.

What a tragedy.

A pair of husband and wife were separated just like that.

Even though they knew where the other party was, they were unable to see each other.

Mother Xiao carried Xiao Tong and told Xiao Lingyu, "The child is hungry!"

Xiao Letong was now three months old. He was fair and tender, chubby, beautiful and cute. He was even more beautiful than when he was born.

Everyone who saw him would praise him for being beautiful and cute. They could not help but want to hug him, pinch his little face, and kiss him.

Every time that happened, the child would wave his hands and feet to slap the stranger away. His resistance was unusually fierce, and when he was really irritated, he would cry. However, his crying only lasted temporarily. Those who were familiar with Xiao Tong knew what he was trying to express. The Xiao Family loved him so they always put him first.

Xiao Tong might just be three months old, but he was very good at recognizing people. He would only allow familiar people to carry him. As for the strangers, he'd burst into tears if they tried to hug him.

Technically, Xiao Tong already knew how to recognize people when he was brought home from the hospital.

So Xiao Tong wouldn't cry when the Xiao Family members hugged him, but he would if it were other people.

Normally, children liked to play with children. A child could bring endless joy to a toddler. However, whenever a specific few children came around Xiao Tong, Xiao Tong would cry loudly. His expression was annoyed and disgusted.

Someone asked curiously, "Could it be that the child have a grudge with these few children in his previous life? Why would he only cry when these children are around?"

"That's really hard to say." Someone immediately laughed and joked, "I heard that children who have just been born remember things from their past lives. When they grow up, they will gradually forget everything from their past lives."

There were all sorts of superstitions in rural areas.

The others heard this and agreed, "That does sound like it is true."

When the 3 month old toddler heard this, he secretly rolled his eyes.

He did remember the things from his previous life.

These children were the ones who had bullied him in his previous life. Even though his grandmother had taken revenge for him, he still remembered their jeers and insults. He would remember them for three lives!

Yes!

Xiao Letong was reborn too. However, his rebirth was not like his mother, Xiao Lingyu, who had returned in time.

In his previous life, after Xiao Letong passed away at the age of five, he had transmigrated to another dimension.

This was a xianxia world. The world was called Nine Heavens Continent.

He had transmigrated directly into the belly of the wife of the eldest son of the head of a large family clan. This meant that there were a lot of scheming.

Although his mother was a legitimate wife, she was an ordinary commoner. Plus, she did not have the slightest aptitude for cultivation.

On the contrary, his father was a genius who had inherited the most purest spiritual root of the family's ancestors, the water spiritual root.

Therefore, the family had spent all their efforts to nurture him, hoping that he could bring his family back to the glory of his ancestors.

His transmigrated family was the Shan family.

Ten thousand years ago, the Shan family was a famous family in the Nine Heavens Continent.

Of course, in this cultivation world, time passed by in a flash!

The ancestor of the Shan family, Shan Yufei was an orphan. However, he was gifted with a spiritual root, a pure water spiritual root. Later, he was accepted as a disciple by an elder of a large sect, the heavenly gate sect.

However, in large sects like the Heavenly Gate Sect, there was no lack of geniuses. People with pure spiritual roots were everywhere.

However, many of these geniuses were nurtured by their families. A few of them were orphans like Shan Yufei.

Therefore, Chanyu Fei, who stood out like a crane in a flock of chickens and received the attention of his master, was naturally envied by others.

How could an orphan without parents receive the attention of the elders and masters? How could an orphan be better than they who had received the resources of their families?

Therefore, during a training trip, under the design of a group of envious disciples, Shan Yufei's spiritual root was destroyed. His handsome appearance was ruined too.

When his teacher confirmed that his spiritual root could not be restored, Shan Yufei, who had become trash, was chased out of the sect.

Shan Yufei was unwilling but there was nothing he could do. He could only swallow his anger and live like a dog.

In an accident, he was chased by bandits and fell into the valley. However, this was a blessing in disguise.

Thirty years later, Shan Yufei reappeared.

Just like thirty years ago, he was handsome and overbearing. He also appeared in white robe. Then again, how could a nascent soul stage cultivator not have an imposing aura?

In the entire Nine Heavens Continent, the number of people who had reached the nascent soul stage could be counted on one hand.

Moreover, those who had reached the nascent soul stage were either the patriarchs of the major sects or the patriarchs of the major clans. They had lived for many decades.

It was said that the youngest nascent soul stage patriarch was 1,200 years old!

But how old was Shan Feiyu? He was only in his forties!

Moreover, his spiritual root was supposed to be destroyed already. So how did he cultivate during these past thirty years and how did he reach the peak so fast?

He was still so young. If he was given time to cultivate, he might become the first person in the entire nine heavens continent to ascend to heavens in ten thousand years.

Many people wanted to know the secret of Shan Yufei's cultivation. However, they were too cowardly to do anything about it. Questioning Shan Yufei was no different from seeking death.

However, Shan Yufei's miracle attracted the interest of some aurous core stage and nascent soul stage grandmasters.

They were secretly planning how to capture Shan Yufei alive and then interrogate him about the secret of his cultivation.

However, before they could take action, Shan Yufei?did something that shocked the entire nine heavens continent.

Almost every single spiritual root genius in the Heavenly Gate Sect had their spiritual roots destroyed overnight. Similarly, their appearance was ruined too.

It was exactly similar to the tragedy that happened to Shan Yufei 30 years ago. This was written on the pillar of the main hall of the Heavenly Gate Sect, "This is my repayment to you!"

Everyone knew who did it.

Heavenly Gate Sect had so many genius disciples destroyed overnight. It was a blatant humiliation to the sect.

The sect leader and the few elders wanted to take revenge. However, when they thought about the power of Shan Yufei, they could only hold back their anger.

They invited the sect's patriarch out and they began a careful plan to capture Shan Yufei .

With the excuse of apology, they invited Shan Yufei?back to the Heaven sect and then set up an inescapable net. All they had to do was wait for Shan Yufei?to get in.

Shan Yufei was once a disciple of the Heavenly Gate Sect, so he knew these people's characters.

However, he still came.

In the end, with Shan Yufei's strength alone, the number one sect in the nine heavens continent was exterminated!

Shan Yufei's ruthlessness truly scared the other sects.

The Heavenly Gate Sect had fifteen aurous core stage cultivators and a nascent soul stage grandmaster. However, all of them couldn't defeat a nascent soul stage newbie.

Shan Yufei's actions made him the object of envy among many cultivators. They felt that Chanyu Fei must have some powerful cultivation method or magic item on him. Otherwise, how could he exterminate the Heavenly Gate Sect on his own?

The other six nascent soul stage grandmasters from the other sects were scared. The patriarch of the Heavenly Gate Sect was the most powerful among them. He was just one step away from reaching the Mahayana stage. Then, he would have ascended.

However, this peak nascent soul stage patriarch died in the hands of a nascent soul stage cultivator who was not even 50 years old.

If Shan Yufei targeted the other sects, they would end up the same way as Heavenly Gate Sect.

"No, we have to kill Shan Yufei. Otherwise, he will hang over our heads like a knife and make us very uneasy!"

"Yes, we have to kill him!"

Chapter 527: Xiao Tong's Reincarnation

The remaining nascent soul stage patriarchs of the Nine Heavens Continent conspired to kill Shan Yufei and steal his treasures.

However, Shan Yufei was alone, and they couldn't threaten him. Therefore, they decided to set up a beauty trap. They turned to the number one beauty of the Nine Heavens Continent, Lin Shishi!

The Lin family was a large family in the Nine Heavens Continent. Lin Shishi was the daughter of the Lin family. She had an important status and was beautiful. Most importantly, she had an astonishing talent. She had a pure spiritual root, an earth spiritual root. She was the genius of the Lin family.

Lin Shishi naturally received the focus of the entire continent. Those who pursued Lin Shishi were the favored sons of large sects and the geniuses from large clans.

Lin Shishi did not like any of them. She believed that no man was worthy of her.

However, such a pampered and proud daughter was set up. Her spiritual root was destroyed, and her appearance ruined.

Lin Shishi, who no longer had any value, was naturally chased out by the clan.

Lin Shishi became trash, and she was also thrown out of the Lin Family. The women who envied her, the men who were rejected by her, and the 'friends' she thought she had, became her enemies overnight. These people cursed, mocked, and beat her. However, Lin Shishi was a proud woman. She didn't beg for mercy. Not getting the response they wanted, the mob tortured Lin Shishi even more. They needed to vent. They felt very uncomfortable if they did not vent this anger.

They broke Lin Shishi's legs, broke her hands, and stomped on her until her limbs were crushed.

However, they still did not hear Lin Shishi's begging for mercy. They wished Lin Shishi would disappear before their eyes.

Lin Shishi granted them their wish. Lin Shishi was chased out by her family. She had nowhere to go and settled down at a normal temple. However, her enemies were not done. They went to the temple to find Lin Shishi. They wanted to burn down the temple and kill her inside it.

At that moment, a man descended from the sky and saved her.

This man was handsome. His white robe fluttered in the wind, but his aura was imposing, especially his sharp eyes, which were cold and emotionless.

He only swept a glance at the people present, then directly carried Lin Shishi and left.

"Who is that?" The younger generation had heard of Chanyu Fei before, but they had never seen him personally. Naturally, they did not know him.

"I don't know!" Someone guessed doubtfully. "Could it be Lin Shishi's ex-lover?"

"That's possible." Someone immediately echoed. "In that case, we'll make him pay for helping the bitch too!"

"That's right. We have to kill the bitch today. Come, let's chase after them!"

The group moved to chase after Shan Yufei and Lin Shishi but they disappeared in the blink of an eye.

"That is too fast! Who is that person? Why don't we know him?"

"Wait. We might have heard of him." Someone thought of something and immediately cried out in shock and fear, "He is in his signature white robe and his temperament is sharp and cold. It matches."

"So, who is it?" Some still hadn't caught up.

"It's the Great Devil, Shan Yufei!"

"Shan Yufei?"

"That was the Great Devil, Shan Yufei?!" Many people were in disbelief.

"But why would he save Lin Shishi? Were they related in the past?"

Everyone fell silent.

If Lin Shishi's lover was Shan Yufei, could they still kill her?

Thinking of this, many people were terrified.

"No, I want to go home!"

"Me too!"

Everyone dispersed!

...

"Who are you?" Lin Shishi asked. "Why did you save me? Don't you know that I'm a cripple now?"

Shan Yufei hugged her and did not answer. He just walked forward with a cold expression.

Lin Shishi raised her head. When she saw his face clearly, her pupils constricted.

She said with excitement and shock, "You... You are... Shan Yufei?"

Shan Yufei finally lowered his head to look at her. Then, he still walked away silently.

"You are really Shan Yufei, right?" Lin Shishi's expression was excited. Her eyes lit up. Her eyes were filled with admiration, "You have no idea how much I admire you. A nascent soul stage cultivator who isn't even 50 years old. You are the youngest nascent soul stage grandmaster in the entire nine heavens continent."

Although her face was disfigured, one could still see the faint interest of a young girl on her face!

Thirty years later...

At the back mountain of the Shan family, a young woman with her hair in a bun was strangled by a man with white hair. Her neck was about to be snapped.

Even in that situation, her beauty couldn't be ignored. People who had good memory would recognize her as the number beauty of the Nine Heavens Continent, Lin Shishi.

However, as everyone knew, Lin Shishi's appearance had been destroyed. Her spiritual root had been destroyed, and her limbs had been crippled. She was trash already.

However, someone must have helped her restore her appearance. Plus, her spiritual root had been healed too.

At this moment, Lin Shishi's cultivation had actually reached the peak of the aurous core stage. She was just one step away from reaching the nascent soul stage.

This was proof that Shan Yufei had a powerful secret to aid cultivation.

The person who attacked Lin Shishi said angrily, "Daughter, I think you've forgotten your mission after you've stayed here happily for so long."

"I... Master... I haven't forgotten my mission!" Lin Shishi was choked, and it was hard for her to speak.

"Really?" The old man asked angrily, "I asked you to poison Shan Yufei with spirit blockage powder. Did you do it?"

Lin Shishi's face turned pale, and she stuttered, "I... I did it!"

"Slap!" A big palm print appeared on her beautiful face, "How dare you lie to me! If you had drugged him, why didn't Shan Yufei's cultivation level drop? He is still in the nascent soul stage!"

"I don't know either." Lin Shishi explained, "Master, perhaps Shan Yufei's cultivation level is too high or he has discovered the poison?"

The patriarch was silent for a moment and stared at Lin Shishi suspiciously, "You are not lying to me, are you?"

"No, no!" Lin Shishi shook her head, "How would Shishi dare to lie to Master?"

The patriarch thought for a moment, and then he said sternly, "That's not right. If Shan Yufei found out that you've drugged him, with his ruthlessness, how could he let you go? Lin Shishi, you're lying to me!"

"No, no!" Lin Shishi shook her head again and explained, "Master, Shan Yufei must have really fallen in love with me. So, even if he found out that I drugged him, he would pretend that he didn't know. Plus, he'd have no fear of me."

The patriarch asked in a stern voice, "Then how did you repair your spirit root?"

In this cultivation world, once a spirit root was destroyed, it couldn't be repaired. Geniuses could become trash just like that. If spirit roots could be repaired, then many clans and families wouldn't need to worry about this concern anymore.

Therefore, the patriarch was very interested in this couple's secret. Shan Yufei and Lin Shishi's spirit roots were supposed to be destroyed, but they had both recovered them.

When Lin Shishi heard the question, she hesitated for a moment.

"Instead of asking my wife, you might as well ask me!" Shan Yufei suddenly appeared.

The Lin family's patriarch's pupils constricted, and his face appeared to be a little frightened and uneasy. He asked in a trembling voice, "How did you appear? You... didn't leave, did you?"

Shan Yufei put his hands behind his back, and the corners of his mouth curled up, revealing a faint sneer.

He said indifferently, "If I don't leave, will you appear?"

"What?" The Lin family patriarch was shocked!

Chapter 528: Xiao Tong's Reincarnation

After hearing what Shan Yufei said, the patriarch of the Lin family was shocked. Then, he gave Lin Shishi a big slap and shouted in shock and anger, "Bitch, you betrayed me!"

Then, the old man of the Lin Family remembered something and immediately grabbed Lin Shishi's neck. He was a little afraid but pretended to be calm and said sternly, "Shan Yufei, I have your wife. Hurry up and commit suicide. Then, I'll let your wife go!"

Shan Yufei sneered. "Old man, are you dreaming? Do you think I'd die for a single woman? Haha. How ridiculous!"

The Lin family's patriarch was startled. He looked at Lin Shishi and said mockingly, "Didn't you say that he loves you deeply? Why doesn't he care about your life now? Look at what kind of heartless man you've married."

Shan Yufei sneered, "Isn't it your plan so that she'd marry a heartless man like me?"

The Lin family's patriarch's pupils constricted as he asked with a trembling voice, "You... How did you know?"

"Old man, you people really went through a lot of trouble to kill me. You even deliberately ruined a woman's life. You destroyed her spiritual root and ruined her appearance. All that just to replicate the things that had happened to me?" At this point, Shan Yufei curled his lips and asked curiously, "But I'm curious. How could you be sure that I'd save her?"

As he said this, Shan Yufei took a few steps forward, scaring the Lin family's patriarch to take a few steps back while holding Lin Shishi hostage.

"Stop... Stop right there!" The Lin family's patriarch shouted sternly.

"Then, answer me!" Shan Yufei shouted.

"We... we don't know either. We... were just taking a gamble." They were both in the nascent soul stage, but when the Lin Family patriarch was in Shan Yufei's presence, he felt fearful and uneasy. Perhaps it was because Shan Yufei had left a deeply terrifying impression on Jiang Hu.

When Chanyu Feizhi heard this, he immediately became furious and said, "You people ruined a girl's life for a gamble?"

The Lin Family patriarch said without much confidence, "But Lin Shishi volunteered to do this. She was willing to sacrifice for the Lin Family's great cause!"

When Shan Yufei heard this, he suddenly let out a cold laugh, "Are you sure you didn't threaten her mother and younger brother? Didn't you come up with this sinister scheme after witnessing her peerless beauty and astonishing talent?" Shan Yufei snorted, "I really look down on you. A few nascent soul stage patriarchs used a little girl in order to deal with one man. You people are shameless! If this gets out, how will you face the Jiang Hu?"

Updates by . com

The Lin family patriarch's face was red and white. His expression was both embarrassed and angry as he shouted, "Shut up! So what if we have used some tricks to deal with the Great Demon King? As long as we manage to kill you, the whole Jiang Hu will clap for us, and they will not mind the details at all." At this point, the Lin family's patriarch sneered and asked, "Shan Yufei, when you found out the person sleeping next to you only approached you for a mission, how did you feel?"

"How do you know that I have betrayed Yufei?" At this moment, a woman's voice sounded. She landed beside Shan Yufei.

When the Lin family's patriarch saw the woman who looked exactly like Lin Shishi, his pupils shook. Then, he quickly pushed the woman he strangled to the ground.

Unfortunately, it was already too late.

The woman in his hand quickly turned into a wisp of black gas and assaulted the old man.

The Lin family's patriarch shouted in fear and unease, "What... What is this thing?"

Shan Yufei said with a cold smile. "That is the spiritual blockage poison that you asked Shishi to feed me. I'm just returning it to you!"

"How dare you?" Hearing this, the Lin family's patriarch immediately widened his eyes and cursed in shock and anger, "Lin Shishi, you bitch, you have betrayed us. I will kill your mother and brother. I'll make sure they have a shameful death."

Unexpectedly, Lin Shishi's attitude was unusually cold. Her expression was calm as she said indifferently, "Do whatever you want with them!"

She had completely given up on them!

Back then, the reason why she was willing to go along with this trap was not only because she truly adored Shan Yufei but also because her mother and her ten-year-old brother were threatened by the family.

If she did not agree, they would divorce her mother and chase out her younger brother. She loved her mother and brother, so how could she sacrifice them?

So, she agreed.

However, what happened next was disheartening.

When her family destroyed her spiritual root and her appearance, neither her mother nor her beloved brother cared about her. Not even a hint of pity could be seen in their eyes.

When she was bullied by her family, as long as her younger brother, who was the son of the first wife, said a word, those people would not dare to attack her openly. She would not have suffered so much.

As for her mother, she had been raised to the position of the first wife due to her daughter's sacrifice. She was too busy showing off to the other concubines to care about her daughter.

Lin Shishi sacrificed everything for them, but they didn't care about her at all.

When no one was around, Lin Shishi questioned them, "Mother, brother, I was willing to be a pawn for you. But as my dearest family, why did you do this to me?"

At first, they argued that they had to put on a show so that Shan Yufei would fall for it. But eventually, the mother told the truth.

The mother said sarcastically, "You said it yourself. You were willing. You can't blame us. Also, now that you're a cripple, don't admit that you're my daughter. It's so shameful."

Brother Lin said disdainfully, "I'm the legitimate son of the Lin family, but my sister used to get all the attention. So this is perfect. I don't want to see you again. Get lost!"

Lin Shishi saw the truth then. She had given up on her family.

After meeting Shan Yufei, she was willing to play her role. Otherwise, she wouldn't have married Shan Yufei. However, since she had given up on her family, why would she follow their plan?

Moreover, she had always admired and loved Shan Yufei. She would never hurt him.

Therefore, when Shan Yufei really came to save her, she made up her mind to tell him the truth.

After Shan Yufei found out, he simply said, "Play along!"

In the past 30 years, the couple had lived very peacefully.

However, from time to time, people would come looking for Lin Shishi, and Lin Shishi would follow their orders.

However, those people probably did not know that Shan Yufei was following behind them. As long as they were unfavorable to Lin Shishi and wanted to hurt her, their lives would be gone in an instant.

About 10 years ago, they arranged for Lin Shishi to poison Shan Yufei. However, after waiting for ten years, the poison still hadn't taken effect. They got tired of waiting. They decided to use a trick to lure Shan Yufei away and then came to find Lin Shishi directly.

However, the Lin family patriarch didn't expect this to be a trick by Shan Yufei.

When the Lin family's patriarch heard the reason why Lin Shishi betrayed them, he vomited blood.

He cursed loudly, "Those bastards!" He was talking about Lin Shishi's mother and younger brother. If those two had continued to fool Lin Shishi, Lin Shishi would have followed the plan. Lin Shishi sacrificed herself because of them. The two had to go and destroy the plan.

The Lin family patriarch was poisoned. He couldn't fight Shan Yufei and his wife. He could only flee back to the Lin family.

The first thing he did when he fled back to the Lin family was to directly cripple Lin Shishi's mother and brother.

"Bastards, it's all your fault!"

It didn't take long for news to spread that the Lin family patriarch's cultivation level had dropped from the nascent soul stage to the great circle, but it seemed to be still dropping.

Not only the Lin family patriarch, but the cultivation levels of the other nascent soul stage patriarchs were also dropping.

In an instant, there was only one nascent soul stage cultivator in the entire nine heavens continent, Shan Yufei.

Shan Yufei's Shan family instantly became the largest family clan on the entire continent.

Three hundred years later, Shan Yufei and his wife ascended and became a legend.

The Shan family was also honored for hundreds and thousands of years.

Chapter 529: Xiao Tong's Reincarnation

When Xiao Tong was still in his mother's womb, he had already heard the story of the Shan family's ancestors many times.

Back then, the Shan family's ancestor, Shan Yufei, managed to ascend with his wife, bringing glory and honor to the Shan Family for thousands of years.

However, in the ten thousand years afterward, there were no more ascended from the Shan family. In fact, the Shan Family no longer had any descendants with pure water spiritual roots.

Gradually, the honor earned by Shan Yufei faded away. The Shan family withered like a flower. The Shan family dropped from the number one family in the continent to a third-rate family.

In these thousands of years, many nascent soul stage grandmasters appeared. These people coveted the secret of Shan Yufei's ascension. Therefore, the Shan Family was still targeted despite their gradual deterioration.

There were even people who wanted to wipe out the Shan family to unearth Shan Yufei's secret. However, these people were worried about the ascended. They were afraid that Shan Yufei would come down to visit his descendants. Even though the ascended normally would cut off their earthly bonds, Shan Yufei was an exception, supported by the fact that he had ascended with his wife. Therefore, he would look after his descendants.

If he found out the Shan Family had been wiped out, how would he react? The fury of an ascended was not to be trifled with.

Therefore, for assurance, those people only stole from the Shan family and didn't kill them. The Shan Family couldn't do anything and allowed their treasures to be taken away by outsiders slowly.

...

Xiao Tong was reborn in the womb of the Shan family's eldest daughter-in-law. Her husband was the beloved eldest son. However, Xiao Tong's mother was an ordinary commoner, so she was not welcomed by the family. The eldest son, Shan Lingfei, was a cultivator who was starting to show signs of a genius.

If he wanted to marry, his wife should be a talented cultivator like him. That way, he would earn more resources for his cultivation. However, Shan Lingfei fell in love with a common village girl when he went out to train. If his family barred him from marrying her, he'd rather leave the family.

Shan Lingfei had his own opinions since he was young, and his personality was stubborn. If he made a decision, no one could stop him.

If the family really did not agree to their marriage, then Shan Lingfei would really run away from home. The Shan Family would lose a genius. The family head and a few elders discussed it and could only agree to this marriage.

However, this was merely a delaying tactic.

Updates by . com

Not long after the marriage, Shan Lingfei's wife, Xiaohe, became pregnant. This made Shan Lingfei extremely happy.

He clung to his wife all day and wanted to accompany his son. This made the family members very anxious. Shan Lingfei was losing his focus in his training. This was not good. Furthermore, if Shan Lingfei did not leave, how would they make a move on Shi Xiaohe?

The family head and the elders once again had a secret discussion.

Finally, when Shi Xiaohe was six months pregnant, the family arranged a mission for Shan Lingfei to complete.

No matter how reluctant Shan Lingfei was, he could only leave his wife and child.

The moment he left, someone sent Shi Xiaohe a bowl of medicine. It was actually a bowl of aphrodisiac!

Then, Shi Xiaohe was caught in bed with another man by the entire family head and a few elders.

However, in order not to affect Shan Lingfei's execution of the mission, no one spread the news that Shi Xiaohe had an affair with a servant because she was too lonely.

The family head and elders temporarily locked Shi Xiaohe in a small, shabby courtyard filled with weeds.

After Shan Lingfei returned, they would deal with her.

Then, rumors flew. People said that the child in Shi Xiaohe's womb was not Shan Lingfei's. The rumors spread so far that they slowly became the truth.

One day, Madam Shan asked a servant to bring a bowl of medicine over. It was abortion medicine!

"Drink the medicine, bitch. We will abort the vile spawn in your belly." Madam Shan, who was dressed luxuriously, revealed her ugly face in front of Shi Xiaohe. "With an affair and an unknown child, she's not going to be able to seduce my son anymore!" Madam Shan said with extreme anger, "Bitch, don't think that the Shan family has accepted you. In reality, we have been waiting for this opportunity. We knew you'd cheat on my son. Let's see how my son will deal with you when he returns!"

Shi Xiaohe cried her head off, "No, Madam, I didn't have an affair. I didn't betray Ling Fei!"

Shi Xiaohe wanted to go forward and hug Madam Shan's leg, but she was kicked away by a servant.

Madam Shan bent over and sneered, "We know that you didn't betray Fei 'Er, but that is what we want you to do. Haha..." Madam Shan laughed maniacally. She was in a good mood because she had finally gotten rid of this thorn by her side.

Shi Xiaohe instantly understood.

This was a trap set up by the Shan family.

The goal was to get rid of her and the child in her stomach.

Shi Xiaohe understood that no matter what, they would not let her off. So, she had to escape!

She could not let them kill Shan Lingfei's child.

She quickly got up from the ground and ran outside.

"Catch her!" Madam Shan naturally would not allow Shi Xiaohe to run away.

They were at the Shan family. Shi Xiaohe was an ordinary woman, and she was pregnant. Where could she escape to?

Hence, she was quickly caught.

Being forced to drink the abortion medicine, Shi Xiaohe struggled non-stop and pleaded loudly, "Madam, please don't! He is your biological grandson! Please show mercy!"

When Shi Xiaohe said that, Madam Shan exploded. "I don't have a bastard grandson bore by a common non-cultivator. Force her to drink the medicine!"

Xiao Tong, who was inside Shi Xiaohe's stomach, was very sad when he heard his own grandmother call him a bastard.

In the past, when someone scolded him for being a bastard, it was his grandmother who went to the offender's house with a knife to seek justice for him.

Although he did not receive his mother's love, he received all the love from his grandparents.

His health was not good since he was young, and it was his grandparents who took care of him growing up.

Although he had regrets, he felt very happy.

However, ever since he came to this dark place, he could only hear the sounds outside, and he could not see any light.

There was only sound!

Xiao Tong also didn't understand why.

After all, when he died, he was only five years old and did not know anything. How would he know that he had actually transmigrated and was now in his mother's stomach?

Eventually, Xiao Tong grasped that he had been moved to another place.

He was in a woman's stomach. He could often hear the sound of a man calling him 'son' and saying that he had kicked him or something.

It was ridiculous. Xiao Tong was stuck in that small place. If he didn't change his posture, he would be so tired. It was not that he wanted to kick the man. He just had to move around. Unfortunately, he couldn't speak or communicate with the man outside.

Xiao Tong was happy inside the woman's stomach because he could sense that his mother really did love him. He knew that she would continue to love him after he was born.

But now, he heard another woman's voice. This woman sounded like she was Xiao Tong's grandmother. But this grandmother...

Xiao Tong frowned.

His grandparents here seemed to dislike him very much. They even wanted him to die.

Why?

In the past, he had love of his grandparents, but he couldn't get the love of his mother.

But now, he had love of his mother and father, but he couldn't get the love of his grandparents!

Why?

Xiao Tong couldn't get it.

One day, when he was deep in thought, he was awakened by the noise outside.

He slowly caught on.

His biological grandmother was forcing his mother to drink the abortion medicine. He was shocked.

The abortion medicine would kill him!

No, he didn't want to die!

Relying on his instinct to survive, Xiao Tong seemed to have found an exit. He crawled desperately towards it.

His only thought was that he wanted to leave this place.

He didn't want to die!

He hadn't even seen his mother yet!

Chapter 530: Xiao Tong's Reincarnation

"Ah, Madam, young madam..." The servant girl saw that Shi Xiaohe's lower body was bleeding even though she hadn't taken medicine.

"Pa!" Madam Shan immediately gave her a big slap and angrily shouted, "Who is the young madam? There is no Young Madam Here! There is only a slut!"

The servant girl who was hit immediately lowered her head and said, "Madam, this... This slut is bleeding. It looks like she's losing the child!"

Madam Shan glanced over and realized that Shi Xiaohe's lower body was bleeding profusely. A look of disgust immediately appeared on her face as she said, "Such bad luck. Let's go!"

The servant girl hesitated and said, "Madam, aren't we going to do something for y... the slut?"

Madam Shan said in annoyance, "Why should we care? Leave her to die! We'll go and let the slut fend for herself!"

"Yes!"

After Madam Shan left, Shi Xiaohe felt a pain in her stomach.

Lying on the ground, Shi Xiaohe's face turned pale when she saw the fresh blood flowing out from her body.

She said in shock, "Am I going to miscarry? But I didn't take the abortion medicine. No, this can't be. This is my child with Lingfei. I have to keep him!"

Then, she felt waves of pain in her stomach. It was as if something wanted to come out of her body. She immediately thought of something and endured the pain. She touched her stomach with one hand and asked with a pale smile, "Son, are you coming out? But you're only seven months old. That's premature birth. I hear that a premature baby will not have good health."

Xiao Tong, who was stuck in the birth canal, was a little dumbfounded.

Babies born prematurely weren't healthy?

He thought of his previous experience of running to the hospital every two to three days, and he was suddenly a little scared.

Updates by

However, he was literally stuck, and he couldn't move backward. If he continued to get stuck, he wouldn't be able to breathe.

In order to survive, Xiao Tong could only try his best to crawl forward.

"Urgh, it hurts!" Shi Xiaohe cried out in unbearable pain. "Someone, the baby is coming. Please help!" She was very loud.

However, the people outside had already received orders from Madam Shan. No matter what happened inside, no one was allowed to enter.

Therefore, no matter how much Shi Xiaohe shouted, no one came to look at her. Xiao Tong was born premature, and due to his small size, he came out on his own.

But when he came out, he had a small tail — the umbilical cord.

The moment the child came out, he felt the light outside. He was so excited that he opened his mouth and wanted to scream.

Then...

It was the sound of a baby crying!

Shi Xiaohe picked up the child and smiled.

This was her and Lingfei's child.

But seeing the umbilical cord in the child's belly, she was worried again.

There were no scissors here, so what should she do?

Then, she noticed a bowl in the yard.

This bowl was filled with abortion medicine. Her struggle had knocked it over earlier.

Shi Xiaohe's eyes lit up. She carried the child and slowly crawled over. Blood flowed down the path she crawled on. She finally managed to grab the bowl. She shattered the bowl.

Shi Xiaohe picked up a sharp piece and cut the child's umbilical cord with much difficulty.

After Xiao Tong stopped crying, he looked at his mother and was momentarily stunned.

This mother looked about 30-40% similar to his previous mother. She looked very haggard. Her hair was disheveled, and her face was extremely pale. After she cut the umbilical cord, she closed her eyes, hugged him, and fell to the ground.

Xiao Tong was so scared that he burst into tears.

Even if he had the memories of his previous life, he was still young back then. He didn't know much. When he saw his mother fall, he was extremely scared.

While his crying grabbed the attention of the people outside, no one came to look at him.

Outside the small yard, when the servants heard the baby's cries, their expressions instantly changed.

"That is the sound of a child crying. Has... young... given birth?" No one dared to call her young madam anymore. In front of the family head and the wife of the family head, this young Madam was a slut, a slut who had seduced the eldest young master.

"That should be the case." The other servant looked inside suspiciously, "Should we go in and take a look? After all, the child is..." The eldest young master's son.

"Shh! Do you not want to live anymore? Madam told us not to care!" His friend reminded her.

The girl shivered. "Shouldn't we at least report this to the Madam and the Master?"

Her friend thought about it. "Yes, we should."

After all, the child was born, and he was very much alive.

"Okay, you stay here to keep an eye out. I'll go and report it." The girl said.

Her friend said worriedly, "Okay. Be careful when you speak. Don't anger the Master and Madam!"

This was a hard matter. If they angered the Master or Madam, they could be killed just like that. That was the sorrow of the servants.

In the courtyard, when Shi Xiaohe was unconscious, a man in black stood appeared beside her. He looked at her and then at the child in her arms.

Then, he tapped her twice, and she woke up.

Seeing the man, a smile appeared on Shi Xiaohe's pale face. "You're here!"

Obviously, she was very familiar with this man.

The black-clothed man's cold voice rang out as he asked, "Is it worth it?"

Shi Xiaohe nodded and said, "It's worth it! I have a child with my lover. It's all worth it!"

The black-clothed man frowned. "But you've suffered so much for him, and he doesn't even know about it. His family is going to tell him that you cheated on him. He's going to hate you."

Shi Xiaohe shook her head and said, "No, he will definitely believe me!" At this point, Shi Xiaohe smiled bitterly and asked the man seriously, "Eldest senior brother, please take this child and bring him to Heavenly Gate Sect so that the sect master can take him as a disciple, okay?

"Also, take me away from here. I don't want Lingfei to see me in this sorry state. I don't want him to see me die. Yingying is begging you."

Shi Xiaohe's real name was Shi Yingying, the granddaughter of the eighth elder of the Heavenly Gate Sect.

Shi Yingying was also a genius. She had fire spiritual roots, and she was at the perfect foundation establishment stage. With experience, she could break through to the early stage of the Golden Elixir Realm.

When she went down the mountain to train, she met Shan Lingfei and fell in love with him at first sight.

She knew that Shan Lingfei was from the Shan family.

But she also knew that the Shan family and the Heavenly Gate Sect had an irreconcilable hatred.

Back then, the ancestor of the Shan family, Shan Yufei, had decimated the Heavenly Gate Sect. However, the disciples who had left the sect for training were spared.

When they found out that their sect had been destroyed, they vowed to take revenge.

However, at the time, they were very weak. They simply couldn't win a cultivator at the nascent soul stage. Therefore, they hid their identities and settled in other sects.

However, the humiliation of having their sect exterminated was deeply imprinted in their hearts.

Then, it was passed down from generation to generation!

After Shan Yufei ascended, the original disciples of the Heavenly Gate Sect had already reached the golden core stage. Therefore, they re-established Heavenly Gate Sect in the Sky Mountain.

They set a rule.

The Sky Mountain sect and the Shan family were eternal enemies. No one was allowed to have any contact with the Shan family. If they were found out, they would be killed without mercy!

Therefore, in order to get close to Shan Lingfei, Shi Yingying changed her name to Shi Xiaohe. Then, she lied and said that she was a commoner from the village around Sky Mountain.

Shan Lingfei also fell in love with Shi Yingying at first sight. He did not doubt her words and believed her very much.

Then, Shan Lingfei married her.

Eldest senior brother, Yu Bai, glanced at the child in her arms and said coldly, "This child is from the Shan family. The sect master will never accept him as a disciple!"

Shi Yingying hugged the child with one hand and grabbed her eldest senior brother's sleeve with the other. She said resolutely, "Then we will hide it from sect master! The sect master will be reluctant to part with him after he grows up and grows close to the sect members."

Yu Bai frowned and said, "Why didn't you choose to hand him over to the child's father? Since Shan Lingfei loves you, he will naturally love this child!"

Shi Yingying shook her head and said, "After I leave, the Shan family will definitely force brother Lingfei to marry again. There will be a stepmother!

"Moreover, in the Shan family, Brother Lingfei's love for the baby is more likely to cause the child to suffer even more! I don't want my baby to live in such a family! Eldest senior brother, please!"

Eldest senior brother sighed lightly and agreed.

Then, Shi Yingying closed her eyes and left the mortal world.
