

Farming in the Mountains: Max Level Jiaojiao Is Three Years Old

- Chapter 33 -

Chapter 33: Why Are You Here?

Even when the Emperor went to war and went to the battlefield for many years, he only sat in the tent and commanded the three armies. He had never personally killed an enemy.

He wasn't actually very weak, but compared to ordinary people, he could be considered weaker than others.

Now that he was reborn and was only seven years old, it was normal for him to have the strength and stamina of someone his age. However, Jiang Yue, who was three and a half years old, was now standing beside him and clearing a path for them...

Even though he knew that there was another person in Jiang Yue's body and that it couldn't be explained with common sense, but...

Xue Yan tried not to look at the small figure in front of him who was as strong as a bull.

With Jiang Yue in the front, things were much smoother. It was much better as they entered the mountain. At least there were fewer tall and annoying weeds, and they did not have to cut down anything to move forward.

"Wufu!"

The two of them shouted loudly. Under the cover of the leaves, they came to a small stream.

The stream was so clear that one could see the pebbles at the bottom. There were also a few bigger-sized stones that paved a path in the stream. People could step on the stones to cross the stream.

"This must have been man-made, otherwise, we wouldn't be able to cross it. Let's go."
Jiang Yue stepped on a rock and walked over.

Xue Yan was still worried about his brother when he crossed. He looked around and shouted.

After walking for a while, his shouts finally received a loud response. "I think that's Xue Yan and Jiang Yue! Xue Yan, Jiang Yue, is that you? Is it you guys?"

After a while, they saw Xue Wufu — who was carrying a bow and arrow on his back — immediately rush to them.

There were six other people with Xue Wufu. The six of them looked at each other and followed suit.

"Why are you guys here? Who asked you to come? Are you alright? Ah? Did you get bitten by any poisonous insects or snakes? I just saw a few big poisonous spiders on my way here. Are you guys crazy? How old are you? I'm so much older than you guys, but I came with Uncle Wu."

As soon as Xue Wufu came over, he pulled his two siblings over and looked them up and down. He was so anxious that his eyes were about to turn red. He kept talking, afraid that something might have happened to the both of them.

Jiang Yue and Xue Yan felt warm in their hearts and said, "We're fine. We just saw that your bow and arrows were gone. We guessed that you came to the mountains, so we came to find you."

"Why are you looking for me!" Xue Wufu jumped up. Then, he patted himself and heaved a sigh of relief. "It's good that you're fine, it's good that you're fine. Let's go, I'll take you home."

Because his two precious siblings had arrived, he was no longer in the mood to learn how to hunt. He just wanted to ensure their safety at home.

Jiang Yue and Xue Yan looked at each other. They knew that Wufu would be like this.

Xue Wufu held each of them in his hand and led them to Hunter Wu.

"Uncle Wu, I have to go back. They must have been worried about me and came all the way here. This isn't a place for children, I'm afraid something might happen to them." As he spoke, Xue Wufu removed the bow from his back. "I don't want to learn how to hunt in the future. I'm afraid that something like this will happen again. Today, they got lucky, but the next time they come to the mountains to find me, they might not be fine. Here's your bow and arrows."

The bearded Hunter Wu immediately laughed heartily, "I've given them all to you, so you can keep them. You'll have to bring Xue Yan and Jiang Yue back, so it's good to use it for self-defense."

Chapter 34: Are You Crazy?

“Then I’ll have to thank you!” Xue Wufu happily put the bow and arrow back on his back.

Hunter Wu’s line of sight fell on Xue Yan, “Your brother told me that you had a dream. In your dream, he had an accident while hunting. You’re really good children to be so concerned about your brother. But I’ve been hunting in this mountain for more than twenty years and have not seen any blind bears. Dreams are just dreams. Sometimes, it’s better not to take it seriously.”

Xue Yan said, “I’m just worried about him. You guys should take care of yourselves too.”

“Naturally, I’ll be careful when I’m hunting.” Hunter Wu laughed. Then, he saw the chopper in Jiang Yue’s hand and the sharpened wooden stick in Xue Yan’s hand. In addition, Jiang Yue and Xue Yan were both children. He felt that something was strange, but he could not put his finger on it, so he did not take it to heart.

“Then, we’ll be going back now.” Xue Wufu said. He was holding a child in each hand.

Although Xue Wufu was usually as unruly as a horse, he was a good brother when it came to family.

“Alright, alright. Go back.” Hunter Wu laughed.

Among the five people with Hunter Wu, a tall and thin man with squinty eyes said in a strange tone, “Wufu, let’s make this clear. If you leave, we won’t be sharing anything we find with you.”

“Zhuzi, what are you talking about?” Xue Wufu immediately said. “I’m not asking you to share with me. If I leave, we won’t be together anymore. No matter who hunts, it has nothing to do with me. Of course, you don’t have to share with me. Then even if I hunt, it’s none of your business, so I don’t need to share it with you either.”

Hearing Xue Wufu address him as Zhuzi, Xue Yan immediately knew that this was the 16-year-old eldest son of Xue Dagui. The fourth son of Xue Da.

As expected of Zhang Meili’s biological child, his squinty eyes were exactly the same as hers.

“Come on,” Xue Zhuzi crossed his arms and looked him down. “You’re not with us anymore, how can you get anything? What are you thinking about?”

“Is there something wrong with you?” Xue Wufu was getting angry. “I was just following your words and trying to reason with you. Isn’t that what you said? Did I say I would really get anything? I’m about to go back!”

Xue Zhuzi didn’t care about Xue Wufu’s anger at all. He only squinted at Xue Yan, his eyes narrowing even more, “Xue Yan, why didn’t you greet me when you saw me? You’ve been studying for three years. No wonder you came back from town so dejectedly. Did the school in town abandon you?”

Xue Wufu could stand being bullied, but he couldn’t stand seeing someone bully his younger brother. Xue Wufu immediately turned furious. He let go of the two children’s hands and rushed forward. “What did you just say?! You always bully me, and he’s not willing to call you cousin anymore because he saw you bullying me! Why don’t you take a look at yourself? If it wasn’t for Grandpa, do you think I would call you brother? What do you mean he got rejected? My Xue Yan insisted on coming back. Even if the school wanted him, he still didn’t stay. If you don’t know the truth, don’t say anything at all!”

“Alright, everyone. Relax.” Hunter Wu and the other four men quickly appeased him and stopped Xue Wufu, afraid that the two of them would start a fight. “He’s just one person, why are you being so defensive with him? Go home quickly. If your family sees they aren’t home, they will definitely be very anxious.”

“You’re not allowed to say sh*t like this in the future!” Xue Wufu pointed at Xue Zhuzi and cursed angrily. Then, with red eyes, he turned around and left with Xue Yan and Jiang Yue in his hands.

Chapter 35: I Can’t Watch

Xue Yan slightly pursed his lips and dared not to speak.

He had stopped studying for a reason. Ever since he came back from town, he had been prepared to hear gossip. This was just how the world worked, so Xue Zhuzi’s words naturally didn’t affect him at all.

Moreover, what hadn’t he experienced in his past life? The two emperors that he had served even made him take the blame and infamy for them... He only felt sorry for his fifth brother when this happened.

Although he was not the biological child of this family, he was no different from a true family. Everyone in the family doted on him and treated him very well. They could not bear to see him suffer even a little.

Jiang Yue raised her head to look at Xue Wufu, then at Xue Yan, before turning back to look at Xue Zhuzi.

Xue Zhuzi was with four other people, and Hunter Wu was telling them to turn their backs to venture on. They wanted to continue going deeper into the mountains to hunt.

It just so happened that there was a small section of tree trunk that was as thick as her arm lying on the ground beside her feet. This tree trunk had probably gone through a lot of tribulations. Its color had long changed and it was now black. The bark on the outside was almost all falling off because of the decay. Without thinking, she lifted her leg and kicked it behind.

The small section of the tree trunk quickly rolled in front of Xue Zhuzi.

Xue Zhuzi didn't even look at his surroundings. He stepped on it and immediately slipped. With a bang, he fell flat on his face.

"What was that!" Xue Zhu suddenly fell to the ground. Hunter Wu and the others were stunned at first, but they quickly went to help him up. "Why are you so careless? Don't you watch where you're walking?"

Xue Zhuzi also thought that he was like this, and suddenly felt extremely embarrassed.

Hearing the sound of something falling behind him, Xue Wufu subconsciously turned around and saw Xue Zhuzi falling. He immediately laughed loudly without mercy, "You deserve it!"

He even made a silly mocking face. Then, he ran away with Xue Yan and Jiang Yue happily.

As they ran, Xue Yan glanced at Jiang Yue.

Jiang Yue pretended not to notice how Xue Yan's eyes flashed a smile.

Xue Zhuzi had been ridiculed, and that brat Xue Wufu even dared to make a face at him. Naturally, he was angry, but there was nothing he could do. After all, he had fallen down by accident. He could only slam his fist on the ground in hatred before he struggled to get up with Hunter Wu and the others.

As they continued deeper into the mountain, Hunter Wu suddenly realized something off. He turned around and looked in the direction where Jiang Yue, Xue Yan, and Xue Wufu left.

This mountain was difficult for even adults to enter, so how did the two children enter so easily and catch up so quickly?

...

Jiang Yue and Xue Yan ran for a while with Xue Wufu leading them. They only stopped running when Hunter Wu and the others could no longer see them.

Thinking of Xue Zhuzi's rare defeat, Xue Wufu couldn't help but jump in joy. "He really deserved it. He fell while walking."

Xue Yan looked at Jiang Yue again and asked, "Weren't you also exploring the wasteland? You even us that you wouldn't go..."

Before Xue Yan could finish, Xue Wufu laughed, "I said my stomach hurt and promised them I would never go to the mountains with hunter Wu, so our parents said okay. I was worried that I wouldn't be able to take my bow and arrow if you were at home, but you weren't there."

Xue Yan said, "If mother and the others knew about this, they would definitely scold you."

Chapter 36: The Other Way

"I'll just say it." Xue Wufu didn't mind at all. "I'm going back with you guys now. Nothing happened. Xue Yan, you too, Jiang Yue is young and insensible, why were you being so careless? You actually brought Jiang Yue here, what if something happened?"

Xue Yan was speechless.

"Alright, alright. I know you're worried about me and all that." Xue Wufu pulled him over and ruffled his head.

Xue Yan pressed her eyebrows.

1

"Jiang Yue, what are you looking at?" Xue Wufu suddenly realized that Jiang Yue was looking around as she followed them.

"Nothing." Even though she said that she still looked around.

Xue Wufu was careless and really believed her. Xue Yan naturally didn't.

He could also tell that she was probably looking to see if there were any other prey to catch. After all, she had originally wanted to beat up the blind bear, but now she was held back by Wufu's matter. Now that Wufu was also here, she had to go back with him. There was no way she could carefully look for the blind bear's traces in this mountain without looking suspicious.

"Hey, we shouldn't go this way, we should go there." Xue Wufu stopped the two children and wanted them to turn around.

Jiang Yue and Xue Yan both looked at Xue Wufu in confusion.

Xue Wufu pointed in a direction and said, "I followed them into the mountain from there. Hunter Wu used to make a small path there, but recently, the grass has grown so deep that the path got blocked. If we don't walk over, we won't know that there's actually a small path into the mountain."

Only then did Jiang Yue and Xue Yan know the path that Hunter Wu took Xue Wufu into the mountains. It was a little far from the path they took to enter the mountains, which meant that Hunter Wu had taken many detours, and the terrain there was relatively flat.

They had directly cut through the thorns to enter the mountain with the shortest distance.

"It's too far," Jiang Yue said. "Let's go this way."

"This way is faster. Jiang Yue and I came in from here," Xue Yan said. That path would be further if they took a detour.

"How did you guys get into the mountain?" Xue Wufu asked, finally realizing something was wrong.

Jiang Yue passed the chopper to Xue Yan.

Xue Yan lowered his head and looked at the chopper in one hand and the sharpened stick in the other. He was silent for a while, then calmly lied to Xue Wufu, "I cut down all the grass and trees blocking the way to make a path. Actually, it's not really a path, but we could pass through it."

Xue Wufu didn't think that a seven-year-old child like him could do it in such a short time. He jumped up and praised his brother, "Xue Yan, you're so amazing! When I entered this mountain, I told them that this path might be closer, but hunter Wu said that when he was hunting, he couldn't come here at all because the mountain in front of us hadn't been developed yet, and there was almost no road to the foot of this mountain. He took a detour, so he made a small path to enter the mountain the long way!"

Xue Yan secretly let out a sigh of relief. If this was the fourth brother, he would definitely not be fooled.

“Here, I’ll hold it for you.” Xue Wufu took the chopper and the sharpened stick. “We’re going downhill. You guys watch the road. Xue Yan, take care of our sister.”

“Okay.”

Xue Yan walked in front and looked back at Jiang Yue as he went down.

The road was narrow, and they were going downhill. The grass and trees on both sides of the road were overgrown, and the ground was full of things that could trip people. If Jiang Yue was really a three-and-a-half-year-old girl, she would have probably fallen after taking two steps. She would either be cut or poked by the grass.

Chapter 37: The Blind Bear

However, Jiang Yue was different and walked steadily on.

Xue Wufu, who was walking at the back, was still worried that she would fall and bleed. He looked after her while shouting at Xue Yan, “Xue Yan, let’s hold hands, let’s hold hands.”

Xue Yan was helpless, he couldn’t even walk steadily himself, and he had to hold Jiang Yue’s hand as support.

In the end, it seemed like Jiang Yue was holding his hand instead of the other way around.

3

Fortunately, Wufu couldn’t tell the difference. Just as he was about to reach the foot of the mountain, a big gray rabbit suddenly darted past Xue Wufu.

“A rabbit!” Xue Wufu’s eyes brightened. He dropped the chopper and sharpened wooden stick in his hands and took out the bow and arrow on his back, ready to shoot the rabbit.

Xue Wufu had just gotten the bow yesterday, so his archery skills were extremely poor. He shot the arrow, but not only did it miss the rabbit, it almost hit Xue Yan.

Xue Yan still had lingering fear. However, Xue Wufu's heart was set on the big rabbit, so he couldn't care less. Seeing that the rabbit had hidden in the grass, he immediately dug into the grass to look for it.

The big rabbit ran out of the grass in panic.

Xue Wufu chased after the rabbit with his bow and arrow on his back. Knowing that he couldn't hit the rabbit with an arrow, he switched to using his hands. As he chased the rabbit, he was prepared to pounce on it at any time.

Xue Yan felt helpless, but this was the foot of the mountain, and his fifth brother was so excited, so he just let him be. Whether he could catch the rabbit or not, it would satisfy his hunting addiction.

Jiang Yue, on the other hand, did not think much of this rabbit. She felt that even if she caught it, it would not be worth much money. She naturally saw how excited Wufu was. She thought that since they were already at the foot of the mountain, it should be fine, so she followed him around as he chased the rabbit.

Unexpectedly, a rustling sound came from the tall grass, as if some fierce beast was shuttling through the grass at high speed.

There was also a faint black-looking animal walking along on the grass.

The animal was getting closer and closer to their fifth brother.

A blind bear! It was definitely the blind bear!

"Wufu!" Xue Yan shouted in fear. He grabbed the chopper and was about to rush over, but Jiang Yue was faster than him.

Jiang Yue's small face was expressionless as she grabbed the arrow that Xue Wufu had shot at Xue Yan and ran past Xue Yan toward the bear.

"What are you doing?!"

Hearing her brother's frightening roar, Xue Wufu, who was about to pounce on the big rabbit, was startled. He hurriedly stopped and turned around. Before he could see anything clearly, he saw a big black bear running towards him from the side as if it was hunting something. He was almost scared to death and turned to run.

However, the path behind him was upslope, and he was already out of his wits. His hands and feet were fumbling as he ran. He didn't care if this was the best escape route, he just wanted to run.

If he couldn't run up, he would climb up.

However, it was not easy to climb up the thorny undergrowth. In a hurry, he rolled down and was blocked by a tree halfway. His head hit the tree and he fainted.

The black bear rushed over and swept its paws, dragging the unconscious Xue Wufu down the slope. Its claws were about to tear Xue Wufu into pieces...

However, Jiang Yue had already run over. She kicked off a tree branch and flew into the air. One of her hands quickly climbed onto Wufu's shoulder while the other held the arrow tightly. She aimed it at the blind bear's heart and stabbed it.

Chapter 38: Lucky Shot

It didn't take much effort at all. Jiang Yue was expressionless when she killed the bear.

They watched as the black bear fell backward with Xue Wufu, making a loud thumping sound.

Jiang Yue calmly pried open the bear's paws and freed Xue Wufu. She then dragged him off the bear and laid him flat on the ground.

Jiang Yue quickly checked Xue Wufu's breathing. He was breathing well and should be fine.

At this moment, Xue Yan ran over, staggering.

"Wufu. Wufu are you okay?" He threw down his chopper and knelt in front of his fifth brother, hurriedly checking for any injuries. Seeing that he was still alive, he regained his composure, but he still had some lingering fear.

He had almost lost his fifth brother like in his previous life.

The bear claw had left quite a few wounds on his body, and they were all bleeding. Xue Yan didn't have time to think too much about it. In his past life, a godly doctor was his best friend, and with such a best friend, he more or less knew how to treat injuries. Xue Yan immediately went to find some small thistle grass, which was a kind of wild vegetable that could stop bleeding.

Jiang Yue inwardly approved as she watched Xue Yan rub the little thistle grass he found to extract its juice, then he applied it together with the crushed leaves on the area where Xue Wufu was bleeding. This person had some medical skills.

After he stopped the bleeding, Xue Yan finally had the time to notice the blind bear lying on the ground. An arrow was impressively stuck in the blind bear's heart.

More than half of the arrow pierced through.

Although it didn't pierce through the bear, the bear's heart must have been completely penetrated. Otherwise, the bear wouldn't have died instantly and stopped breathing.

It was a fast, ruthless, and accurate move...

Jiang Yue's behavior just now was similar to how she used to be when she faced such dangerous situations... Calm and collected.

Xue Yan slowly sat down next to his brother and looked at Jiang Yue, "Thank you," he said. It was all thanks to her today that his brother survived.

"He's my brother too." Jiang Yue reminded.

Xue Yan was stunned for a moment and then said embarrassedly, "You're right. We're family, so there's no need to be so formal. I won't treat you as an outsider in the future," Jiang Yue replied. She had also thanked him.

"Thank you." Xue Yan nodded.

Previously, because both of them knew that there was an adult's core in each other's body, even though she was already a member of the family, they were actually quite polite and distant from each other.

Jiang Yue took the bow from Xue Wufu's back and stuffed it into his hand. Then, she took out an arrow from her quiver and broke it before throwing it to a place where no one could see.

Xue Yan immediately understood that Jiang Yue wanted Wufu to think that he was the one who had beaten the bear.

The next moment, she went to pick up her sharpened wooden stick.

Just now, he had subconsciously taken the chopper, and the wooden stick had been casually thrown away.

"Don't go hunting in the mountains anymore." Xue Yan suddenly said.

Jiang Yue knew that he was someone who knew his limits and would not restrict her in any way. He must have his reasons for saying that, so she said, "Why?"

Xue Yan said, "Hunter Wu has been hunting in this mountain for more than twenty years, but he's only slightly better than ordinary farmers. It's obvious that there's not much prey on this mountain. This bear probably came from somewhere else. It's probably only this one time. Even if you go hunting in this mountain again, you won't get much from it."

He looked at the bear again, then continued, "This bear is pretty big, it can be sold for a lot of silver. With this amount of silver, no other family in the surrounding villages would be able to compare to us."

Chapter 39: Worth It

Jiang Yue agreed after some thought. She had achieved her goal of letting her family live a better life, so she agreed. "Sure."

Then, she turned to look at Xue Wufu. "Wake him up, we still have to go to town to sell the bear parts."

"Okay."

Xue Yan raised his hand and pressed down on Xue Wufu's philtrum. With a bit of force, Xue Wufu immediately woke up from the pain and opened his eyes.

Before he could react to what was happening, Xue Wufu saw the huge black body of the bear beside him. His face turned ashen in fear and he immediately backed away.

"Hey, you're okay..." Xue Yan comforted him. "You don't have to be afraid. That bear is already dead. It was shot to death by you."

1

"Ah..." Xue Wufu was dumbfounded. After a long while, he pointed at the giant bear with one hand and himself with the other in disbelief. "... I shot him to death?"

"You did." Xue Yan nodded affirmatively.

Jiang Yue nodded in agreement.

"But..." Xue Wufu was still in a daze. "But I don't remember doing anything... I only remember that I was almost scared to death, then I hit my head, and I think I fainted... Ah, how did I really meet a bear?! Am I even alive?!"

In the end, Xue Wufu was still trembling. He looked himself up and down, afraid that he was already dead.

“Don’t panic. You’re still alive.” Xue Yan comforted him. “You really did shoot the blind bear to death. Before you fainted, you used your bow and arrow to shoot it in a panic state. Who knew that you would really hit it by chance and the blind bear fell down just like that. By the time Jiang Yue and I rushed over, you had already fainted. You must have been too scared to remember this. There’s only the three of us here. If it wasn’t you, it couldn’t have been me and Jiang Yue, right?”

“That’s true, it was me!” Xue Wufu’s face immediately lit up with joy, as if he was amazed by himself.

Xue Yan and Jiang Yue couldn’t bear to watch his ego being inflated like that.

“Even hunter Wu couldn’t hit the bear, but I actually hit the bear... Quick, help me up.” Xue Wufu was so excited that he wanted to get up from the ground.

Xue Yan and Jiang Yue supported him on both sides.

Xue Wufu’s body was in pain. When he stood up, he found that his left ankle had been twisted. It was so painful that he grimaced in pain. He quickly sat back down on the ground.

Xue Yan examined him with worry in his eyes. He squatted down and stared at the injury. He didn’t notice it just now and didn’t expect Xue Wufu to hurt himself like this.

“Xue Yan, you know how to do stuff like this too?” Xue Wufu was very surprised.

Xue Yan said unhurriedly, “I have a classmate whose family runs a clinic in the town. I’ve been to his house many times. I’ve seen his father prescribe medicine for people. So I know a little about it.”

“Yes, of course, you would have such a classmate. I went to town to pick you up once, and you were waiting for me at the clinic.” Xue Wufu remembered. “Then did you apply the things on my body?”

“Yes.”

“You didn’t study in vain. Can you tell what’s wrong with my foot?”

“It’s just a spinal injury. It’s not a big deal. Later, I’ll pick some ox tendon grass that can promote blood circulation, dispel blood stasis, reduce swelling, and relieve pain for you to apply. You’ll be fine after resting for ten days to half a month.”

"I'm relieved. I must have sprained it when I was chasing the big gray rabbit. I felt a little pain at the time, but I didn't care. By the way, where's my big gray rabbit?" Xue Wufu looked around and continued, "He must have run away. Fortunately, I caught a bear. We're going to be rich! We can definitely sell it for a lot of money!"

Chapter 40: I Did That!

In contrast to Xue Wufu's excitement, Jiang Yue's expression couldn't be calmer. However, Jiang Yue didn't want to waste any more time. Since Xue Wufu believed that he was the one who hunted the bear, that was all that mattered.

Just as she was about to tell them that she was going to find people to carry the bear to town to sell, she saw Xue Dafu, Xue Yifu, and Xue Erfu rushing over from the mountain with a dozen young men.

Each of them held something in their hands.

They must have heard that Xue Wufu had gone hunting in the mountains and that she and Xue Yan had gone missing. Obviously, they had gone into the mountains to find Xue Wufu. They were naturally worried, so they called people to look for him as well.

1

They were afraid that if they really encountered a bear, they would all be holding a weapon that they thought could deal with the bear.

1

In fact, they were just some sticks, sickles, and machetes.

"Look, it's them!" Jiang Yue pointed in the direction where Xue Dafu and the others came from and said to the two boys.

"Hey! We're here!" Xue Wufu immediately waved his arm and shouted.

Xue Dafu and the others were looking for a way to enter the mountain when they suddenly heard Xue Wufu's voice. They looked up and saw that Xue Wufu, Jiang Yue, and Xue Yan were already at the foot of the mountain. They weren't in the mountain at all. They were all overjoyed and hurriedly parted the grass and came over.

It was only when they came over that they noticed the big bear at the side. They had not seen the bear earlier because the grass was too tall.

Xue Dafu and the others were shocked.

Only when they discovered that the bear was already dead did they stop being afraid.

The dozen or so young men who had come with him were all surrounding the blind bear and looking at it.

“There really are blind bears!”

“How much is this worth!”

Xue Dafu, Xue Yifu, and Xue Erfu were different from the others. They immediately checked on their three precious family members.

“Xue Yan, are you alright?”

“Jiang Yue, are you alright?”

“Wufu, you’re injured?!”

“I’m fine,” Jiang Yue shook her head.

Xue Yan also said he was fine. Xue Wufu was clearly injured, but he said he was fine as well.

Xue Dafu and the others were relieved to see Jiang Yue and Xue Yan completely fine, and that Xue Wufu had stopped bleeding from his injury.

Xue Erfu had a flamboyant personality and was the most popular among his peers in the village. He was also the most loyal to his friends. As long as there was something he needed, he could wave his hand and these people would be willing to help him. The dozen or so young men who came today were all his good friends.

Xue Yan knew them, so he greeted them one by one.

Jiang Yue didn’t know them at first, but when Xue Yan greeted them and whispered to her that they were all good friends of her brother, she immediately understood what was going on and greeted them one by one.

"You d*mned child!" Relieved, Xue Dafu slapped the back of Xue Wufu's head. "Xue Yan even dreamed that you would meet a blind bear, and you still dared to come! See, dreams do come true!"

Before Xue Wufu could say anything, one of the young men asked, "Who did this?"

Xue Wufu immediately ignored his father and raised his hand in excitement. "I did it, I did it!"

1

No one believed him.

Someone even laughed. "You have such thin arms and legs. This blind bear can crush you to death with one paw. How did you beat it?"
