

Farming in the Mountains: Max Level Jiaojiao Is Three Years Old

Chapter 50: Ten Silver

However, who among the people present really cared about who his youngest son was?

Immediately, someone tried to be kind and tried to talk to Xue Dafu. “Buddy, seeing that you are being so honest, we can’t cheat you. It’s really only ten silver at most. Last time, someone sold me an especially big deer and I only gave two silver. Besides, you said that your youngest son had studied in this town before. He’s a scholar, so how could he really know the price of these prey?”

“This...” Xue Dafu was a little shaken.

Xue Yifu’s heart began to beat rapidly.

“I’m sorry, but Xue Yan said that we won’t sell it to you for anything below eighty silver. If you’re only willing to pay ten silver, we can’t sell it to you.”

To Xue Erfu, Xue Yan knew what he was doing. He had been a sensible boy since he was young and never spoke nonsense. Since he said that the bear was worth at least eighty silver, it must be worth eighty silver.

These people were all strangers to him. Naturally, he would believe his brother and not these people who said that it was worth ten silver at most.

Seeing Xue Erfu like this, Jiang Yue felt that Xue Erfu would suffer less than Xue Dafu and Xue Yifu.

Xue Dafu and Xue Yifu were too easily influenced by others.

“Alright, if you don’t want to sell it, then so be it.” Those people looked at each other and thought that since they were the only ones who bought this, the blind bear would definitely fall into their hands at a low price of ten silver. They were not in a hurry and immediately dispersed with uncaring expressions.

This was also a strategy they had collectively agreed on. If no one wanted to buy it, the three farmers would be anxious.

They just had to wait. These three farmers had just arrived, so they were still dreaming about the eighty silver.

Those who came here to sell their prey had all been skinned by them.

Jiang Yue noticed their little actions, but she remained silent.

She was just a three-and-a-half-year-old girl now. At most, some people would think that she was too gullible and would not take a second look. No one would take her seriously. Naturally, they did not know that she had already seen through their tricks.

In fact, this was the simplest trick in the book. She can see through any tricks! There were some things that she only needed to look to understand.

On the other hand, Xue Dafu and Xue Yifu had been slightly affected, but with Xue Erfu's words, it was as if they had temporarily found their pillar of support, and they didn't stop the people who had left.

"Let's wait a little longer, we just got here." Xue Dafu laughed. Perhaps he would meet someone who was willing to pay eighty silver later.

The three of them stopped the ox cart at the side.

At this moment, Jiang Yue was finally able to get off the ox cart.

"You must be hungry." Xue Dafu received a bamboo basket from Xue Yifu. The basket was covered with a piece of brown cloth, and under the cloth were eight pieces of leftover cornbread.

When Li Hehua found out that Xue Dafu and the others were going to town to sell the blind bear, she entered the courtyard the moment she put Jiang Yue down and packed the cornbread. When Xue Yifu borrowed the ox cart, she quickly placed the bamboo basket on the ox cart so that Xue Dafu and the others could bring it to town to eat.

Although Li Hehua couldn't physically help much because she was pregnant, she was extremely meticulous and thoughtful in her daily life.

Xue Dafu and the others didn't start eating the cornbread immediately. Instead, Xue Dafu took out two coins from his gray wallet and handed them to Xue Yifu. "It's rare to come to town. Yifu, go buy two meat buns for Jiang Yue. I saw a bun seller on the road we just came from in that direction."

Chapter 51: Hard-earned Money

"Okay!" Xue Yifu wanted to go after receiving the money.

"I'd like to eat some cornbread too," Jiang Yue said.

"There's only a few pieces of cornbread here. You don't want us three men to be hungry, right? Be good, Jiang Yue, eat the meat bun." Xue Dafu coaxed her.

Even though there were eight pieces of cornbread, they weren't big. Jiang Yue knew that Xue Dafu and the others wouldn't be full even if they had two or three each. People who worked all year round had large appetites, but she knew that Xue Dafu bore with it because he was worried for her. Not like eating one extra cornbread would keep them full anyway.

Every penny of the farmers' money was hard-earned. Even then, they would be reluctant to spend money on themselves. They would rather starve. They probably would not have spent a single cent if she had not come.

Jiang Yue didn't like the fact that her family ate poorly, but she ate well. She hoped that everyone would have the same food. However, in this situation, if she insisted on giving them one of her cornbread, they would not be able to eat their fill either way. It would be better if she didn't eat any meat buns and used the two coins to buy four buns.

The meat buns were one coin each, but the steamed buns were two each. If there were four steamed buns, one steamed bun would be enough for her. She could give the rest to Xue Dafu and the others so that they could fill their stomachs.

Besides, they would have money after selling the blind bear... With that thought in mind, Jiang Yue did not stop Xue Yifu and even followed him.

Xue Dafu and Xue Erfu didn't think much of it.

Xue Yifu brought Jiang Yue to a roadside shop selling buns and smiled at the owner. "What can I do for ya today."

Before Xue Yifu could speak, Jiang Yue interjected, "Do you have steamed buns?"

The boss immediately smiled. "Yes, there is. Eh, your baby girl is so cute. How many do you want?"

"Jiang Yue, it's not..." Xue Yifu was in a hurry to say something.

However, Jiang Yue had already spoken, "Four."

"Alright," he said. The boss opened the steamer and took out four steamed buns. Jiang Yue held it in her tiny hands.

"Two coins." The boss smiled at Xue Yifu.

Jiang Yue's eyes — which were hopeful — looked at Xue Yifu to pay.

When Jiang Yue and Xue Yifu returned and saw Xue Yifu with his head lowered as if he had done something wrong, Xue Dafu and Xue Erfu didn't understand what was going on.

However, when they saw Jiang Yue slowly opening the package with her two small hands, revealing the four white and chubby buns inside, and then giving them one each, their hearts almost melted.

Xue Dafu's eyes reddened, and he felt a little sad, but he still smiled and said, "Jiang Yue, how did you grow up to be this good?"

"You all need to eat." Jiang Yue didn't know how to stir up emotions, she only knew to let them eat.

"Okay, okay, okay, we'll eat too, we'll eat too." Even though Xue Dafu and the others said so, they were still eating the hard cornbread.

Jiang Yue looked at them with hurt.

Xue Dafu and the others laughed, "We'll eat this first before eating this. You should eat quickly too. Is one bun enough for you? Do you want more?"

"This is enough for me," Jiang Yue said.

However, she knew that Xue Dafu and the others would not eat it in the end. They were just coaxing her to finish her fill first.

She had underestimated the determination of Xue Dafu and the others on this matter.

Jiang Yue took a bite of the bun. It was soft and much more delicious than cornbread, but she still felt a bitter aftertaste.

Chapter 52: Bring It Home

Sure enough, after Xue Dafu and the others finished eating the cornbread, they took the three buns and carefully wrapped them up again, ready to take them home.

Jiang Yue looked at them.

Xue Dafu and the others immediately smiled at her. "We're already full. How can we still eat? let's bring it home. It's not a waste."

This was fine grain. Why did they choose to not eat fine grain? They might not be able to eat fine grain even during the holidays. That was because they simply could not bear to eat it themselves. They wanted to bring it back for the rest of the family to eat. Maybe they would give her another one at night.

Jiang Yue knew, she could tell what they were planning to do. However, Jiang Yue did not say anything else. She looked around and noticed that people were looking over at the area where they collected their prey. They were obviously waiting for them to give up.

They were waiting for Xue Dafu and the others to lose their cool.

If they wanted to sell it for at least eighty silver today, Xue Dafu and the others would have to be more patient than those people.

The bear had not been caught for many years, so he didn't have to worry about not being able to sell them. Even if he didn't sell it to those people, he could sell it to others outskirts of town.

Jiang Yue knew that there was an old man who was sitting on a folding stool in the stall next to her. Since it was noon and the old man had already finished his meal, no one came to the stall to buy vegetables. Jiang Yue went over and squatted beside the old man, shouting, "Hello."

"As to you." The old man was immediately enticed by Jiang Yue's fair and tender appearance. "You're such a sweet looking."

Jiang Yue was a little embarrassed. In fact, she had never been addressed like this in her past life. However, the important matter was her plan.

Jiang Yue didn't care about the awkwardness and continued, "Can I ask you something?"

"Sure," The old man looked like a warm-hearted person. He was also extremely surprised that this little child in front of him was so polite. "Ask away. What do you want to know?"

"It's about the bear. Are those the only people who would accept it?" Jiang Yue pointed at the people who were standing close to the prey.

The bear was so big, and it was placed at the side. A group of people had surrounded it and made a fuss, so the old man naturally knew what she meant.

He said, "I've been selling vegetables here for many years. It's always been like this. Only the people over there buy vegetables. Your family is really powerful, to actually have someone who can beat the blind bear. We don't even dare to hunt for it."

"My family didn't expect it either," Jiang Yue said with a smile. "Do you know where should we sell the prey instead?"

The old uncle said, "I heard they sell them to the big families in restaurants and towns. Ordinary families can't afford it, right? Plus, how many of them are willing to buy the whole thing? They have their own connections. Last time, I heard that someone sold that big deer to Lakshimi Restaurant and got more than ten silver."

"Lakshimi Restaurant?" Jiang Yue immediately caught the main point.

"It's the biggest restaurant in the town. Usually, hunters that have connections will sell their prey directly to that restaurant. They won't come here to sell it. The people here have to haggle with the hunters to make some money. They won't give a lot of silver, but Lakshimi Restaurant will give a higher price."

"Are there any other restaurants?"

"Only that, the biggest restaurant in our town. All the hunters send their prey there. They don't need to send people here to collect them."

"I see..." Jiang Yue muttered to herself as she crafted a plan in her mind.

Chapter 53: This Is Great

"Hey," the old man finally realized that something was wrong and laughed even more. "You're quite mature, kid."

Jiang Yue only smiled.

"Thank you." After thanking him politely, Jiang Yue returned to the small stool beside Xue Dafu and the others.

Xue Dafu and the others weren't too far away, so they heard the conversation between Jiang Yue and the old man. They finally realized that Jiang Yue was much smarter and steadier than an ordinary three-year-old child.

However, Xue Yan was a child prodigy and had always been smarter than ordinary people. They were used to it and didn't notice anything strange about Jiang Yue. Xue Dafu and the others only thought that Jiang Yue was smarter and more mature than ordinary children.

When they saw Jiang Yue return, Xue Dafu and the others even praised her, "Jiang Yue, why are you so smart? How did you know what to ask?"

They actually didn't know that questions like these could be asked. They were just willing to sit here and wait for people to come and buy their prey.

Ever since she followed Xue Dafu and Xue Yan home, Jiang Yue had been praised all the time, and she had gotten used to it.

Thinking that Xue Dafu and Xue Yifu were too honest and slow-witted, Jiang Yue said to Xue Dafu, "You heard it just now. Lakshimi Restaurant will offer a higher price. I want to go to Lakshimi Restaurant and see if they want the blind bear. If they do, how much do you think they will offer?"

"Great, this is great!" Xue Dafu rubbed his hands in excitement. "Erfu, hurry up and go."

"It just so happens that I've been to Lakshimi Restaurant before when I came to town, so I know how to get there. I'll go. You guys look after Jiang Yue. We're in town, not home." With that, Xue Erfu strode away with his long legs.

Xue Yifu was excited as well. Just now, those people had offered a price of ten silver. If Lakshimi Restaurant offers a higher price, then ten silver would be nothing to them.

Even if it wasn't eighty silver, it would already be more than what the people here can offer.

In fact, he felt that ten silver was considered a lot already.

On the other hand, Jiang Yue was not excited at all. She was still very calm, but when she looked at the hunting area of the market, she saw someone looking in her direction.

Xue Erfu only returned after two hours.

Xue Erfu ran back, panting heavily. He couldn't speak at all, and could only hold his knees with his hands.

Xue Dafu and Xue Yifu were getting anxious as they asked, "Lakshimi Restaurant isn't far, right? why did you go for so long? We almost thought that something had happened to you."

Xue Erfu had run too fast and was still panting so hard that he couldn't speak. He could only wave his hand to indicate that he was fine.

After catching his breath, Xue Erfu said with a happy face, "When I arrived at Lakshimi Restaurant, it just so happened that the innkeeper wasn't around, so no one could make the decision. But when they heard that it was the blind bear, they all told me to sit and wait for the innkeeper to return and ask him. That's why it took so long. When the innkeeper came back and heard about this matter, he immediately said that he would give fifty silver. If the bear is really as old as I said, he will see the situation and add more silver."

"Fifty silver, that much?" Even though it wasn't 80 silver, Xue Dafu and Xue Yifu couldn't help but rub their hands together in excitement.

"Right! The innkeeper said that it was at least fifty silver, and he even told us to quickly bring the blind bear over so that we can set the final price." Xue Erfu was overjoyed. "Let's quickly bring the blind bear over and let the innkeeper take a look. This blind bear is so big. I think it's definitely like what Xue Yan said. It'll be worth at least eighty silver."

Chapter 54: Bullying?

"If that's the case, that's good news." Xue Dafu laughed. Although he felt that 50 silver was already a lot, he still wanted to sell more if he could.

"Father, let's hurry and bring the blind bear over," Xue Yifu urged the rest.

"Yes, yes, yes." Xue Dafu nodded and turned the ox cart around with Xue Yifu and Xue Erfu. They immediately set off to Lakshimi Restaurant.

Jiang Yue didn't say anything, nor did she stop them. She just looked at the food market from the corner of her eye.

As expected, the people who were still there saw that Xue Dafu and the others were leaving. It was obvious that they had found a buyer. They immediately became anxious and rushed over.

They didn't look as indifferent as before. They also didn't expect that they would be the first to lose their cool.

"Where are you going? You're not selling this bear?" Those people asked anxiously as they stopped the ox cart.

Xue Dafu laughed so hard that his eyes couldn't be seen. "There's a restaurant that's willing to pay fifty silver for this bear. They even said that if the bear is big enough, they'll add more silver. Please make way, we're going over now."

"Don't." The man with the big mole on his face was full of smiles. "If there's a restaurant that's offering fifty silver, then I'll offer sixty silver. Is that okay?"

"Didn't you say that it's worth ten silver at most just now? Why is it sixty now?" Xue Erfu immediately said.

The man with the big eyes put on his winning smile. "We've thought about it, and it's true that the town didn't get bears these few years. Sixty silver is quite a lot, sell it to me."

In any case, everyone had agreed to fork out the money for the blind bear. When they resell the blind bear, everyone would split the profits. The other people who had gathered around naturally immediately agreed, "That's right, that's right, just sell it to him. Sixty silver is a huge amount. When will something like this ever be sold at such a high price in this market? It'll save you the trouble of sending the bear back to the restaurant. It'll be better to just unload it here. Besides, if you drag it to the restaurant, and that restaurant is only willing to give you fifty silver in the end, wouldn't you be losing out?"

Xue Dafu was a man of principle, but when it came to this, he felt that what these people said made sense, and he couldn't help but waver.

Xue Yifu was the same.

Xue Erfu had thought that he could sell it for at least 80 silver, so why would he want 60 silver? he urged, "Father, let's hurry and let the innkeeper take a look."

Before Xue Dafu could say anything, the man with big red eyes laughed. "I'll say this first, if you leave this place, you can't come back to sell it."

This time, Xue Dafu and Xue Yifu were even more convinced.

Was this psychological warfare?

Were they bullying the honest farmers?

Jiang Yue reached out her hand and tugged at Xue Dafu's shirt. When Xue Dafu lowered his head, she said, "There's not much difference between fifty and sixty silver. But who knows, the restaurant might offer a higher price. Xue Yan said that it was worth at least eighty silver. He never talks nonsense. It's not like you don't know that."

Xue Dafu was immediately enlightened. "That's right, that's right. He never talks nonsense indeed. Let's go to that restaurant." As he spoke, he turned to the people surrounding them and said, "I'm sorry everyone, please make way. We're not selling for sixty silver."

"Make way, make way." Xue Yifu never had a mind of his own. Since his father had already decided to go to the restaurant, he immediately helped drive the ox cart and made way for him.

Chapter 55: How Can This Be Carried?

Xue Erfu didn't agree to sell it in the first place, so he was naturally more eager to help them leave.

He had barely taken two steps when someone immediately said, "Seventy! Seventy silver should be enough! If you don't sell this to me, you'll regret it! I'm really offering a sky-high price!"

Speaking of this, the man turned to the others and said, "Move aside, move aside. If he doesn't sell it to me at this price, then let him go. I don't believe that there's anyone in this town who can offer a higher price than me."

He even had an expression that was daring them to leave. It would have been fine if he had stopped her, but now that he was still in this state, Xue Dafu and Xue Yifu's hearts wavered again.

Jiang Yue was starting to get a little tired from all of this. Fortunately, Xue Erfu didn't waver and was also starting to get annoyed at them. "Father, didn't Jiang Yue say that Xue Yan never talks nonsense? You know that. Why did you..."

Before he could finish, Xue Dafu worriedly said, "This person seems reliable. I think it's most likely true. Seventy silver is already a sky-high price. There can't be any higher price in this town."

"That's right, that's right," Xue Yifu chimed in.

"For goodness sake!" Xue Erfu was furious.

“Seventy silver, are you guys selling or not? If you’re not selling, then leave. No one’s stopping you.” The man said with his arms crossed, looking quite impatient.

Xue Dafu and Xue Yifu’s hearts were thumping.

“No, no!” Xue Erfu wanted to say that he wasn’t selling.

“Shut up!” Xue Dafu berated.

Xue Erfu didn’t have a choice. His father had already scolded him, so he could only shut up.

“Let’s just sell it. ” Xue Dafu whispered to Xue Erfu and Xue Yifu, then smiled at the person who had bid 70 silver. “Hehehe ...”

He was clearly going to sell it.

Jiang Yue finally understood why Xue Yan said that she should cry if Xue Dafu and the others sold the bear for less than eighty silver.

How could she cry?

Jiang Yue looked up at the sky before she quickly climbed onto the ox cart and hugged the bear as tightly as she could. “You’re not allowed to sell it! Xue Yan said that we can’t sell it for less than eighty silver!”

The bear was so big, while she was only a little. The scene of her hugging the bear, coupled with her appearance, made her feel embarrassed, but it instantly melted the cuteness of everyone present.

It was as if the bear had a small pendant on its body.

“Your baby girl is too cute.” Someone couldn’t help but tell Xue Dafu.

Xue Dafu was so happy that all his teeth were showing. Their Jiang Yue was good-looking, cute, and likable. Whoever saw her would praise her.

“Little kid,” the person who had bid 70 silver laughed, “Your family’s adults have already decided. There’s no use in you holding on to it. Come down, come down.”

Jiang Yue opened her arms as wide as possible.

“This...” Xue Dafu was in a difficult position.

Seeing Xue Dafu like this, the man was unhappy. “You’re not going to sell it, are you? Is she the master of your family or something?”

"Of course not." Xue Dafu said hurriedly. "But, this..." Xue Dafu looked at Jiang Yue, who was still trying her best to hug the bear, but she couldn't.

"Can't you just pull her down?" The man didn't think much of it. After he finished speaking, he even started to pull Jiang Yue down from the ox cart.

"Help!" Jiang Yue immediately lowered her head and shouted. She couldn't hold on any longer, so she could only call for help.

Xue Erfu immediately strode over with his long legs, his brows furrowed in anger. "You've scared our Jiang Yue!"

Chapter 56: A Hundred Silver?

"I'm not selling, I'm not selling." Xue Dafu thought that Jiang Yue was frightened and quickly bent over to comfort her. "Jiang Yue, don't be afraid, don't be afraid. I won't sell it anymore. I'll bring the blind bear to find the innkeeper."

Xue Yifu was also furious and unwilling to sell it right after that scene happened.

The others were all dumbfounded, including the man that bid 70 silver. What was going on?

Just as Xue Dafu and the others were about to leave the market with Jiang Yue and the bear, the man with the big beard stopped them. "Alright, alright, alright. Didn't you want eighty silver? I'll pay eighty silver. You should sell it now, right?"

Now, not only were Xue Dafu and Xue Yifu willing, even Xue Erfu was willing.

However, the three of them thought that Jiang Yue was frightened and looked at Jiang Yue, who was now sitting on the ox cart obediently.

Jiang Yue knew that they were afraid of her, but to be honest, she really didn't want to drag this on any longer. These people bullied the farmers in one way after another. They had gone through psychological warfare several times.

Now that they were done with the chase, it was obvious that even if they bought this bear for eighty silver, they would still make a profit.

Jiang Yue said, "I'm not sure. At first, it was ten silver, then sixty, seventy, and now it's eighty... Let's sell it to the restaurant. If these people are willing to pay eighty silver, the restaurant will not be less than eighty silver in the end. Otherwise, Xue Yan wouldn't say that."

"Alright. Sure." Xue Dafu and the others had no objections. The blind bear had become secondary in their hearts as long as their Jiang Yue didn't get scared.

"I really have to give it to you guys. It turns out that this little girl is really in charge of your family." The person with the long eyes was really convinced. "Alright, alright, ninety silver, I can't go any higher. You've also seen that I'm the only one who has chased you all the way here. If you all aren't willing to sell this, then I really can't buy it. I can't possibly buy a black bear that I can't earn a single silver from, right?"

"Jiang Yue?" Xue Dafu and the other two looked down at Jiang Yue.

The person with the long eyes looked at her with a pleading face. Perhaps he thought that Jiang Yue was still a child no matter what, so he had not realized that they had been led by the nose.

Jiang Yue could tell that this man was genuine. Ninety silver should be the highest price they could offer. Moreover, she was not familiar with the restaurant and did not know what kind of person the innkeeper was. She thought it would be no problem to sell it for 80 silver, but since Xue Yan dared to say so, it must be at least 80 silver or more.

However, she wasn't sure if the innkeeper would be able to give them a price higher than ninety silver.

After all, businessmen were all profit-minded, and wasn't the restaurant for profit?

No matter what, the innkeeper was just a worker. The possibility of him spending more than 90 silver to buy the blind bear was low...

With that in mind, Jiang Yue wanted to nod her head to Xue Dafu and the others and agree to sell it to this person for 90 taels. However, before she could nod, she saw a few people coming over. The one in the lead was dressed like a manager.

The person who was dressed like an innkeeper walked over and laughed. "Listen, you're only offering ninety silver? Then I'll offer a hundred!"

100 silver?!

Xue Dafu and the others were shocked and immediately looked over.

The man with the beard was also shocked when he heard the voice. He quickly looked over and was even more frightened when he saw the person. He quickly walked over, bowed, and smiled. "Innkeeper Qiao, why are you here?"

Chapter 57: I'm Not Backing Down

At this moment, Xue Erfu quickly recognized the man as well. He quickly said to Xue Dafu, "Father, that's the manager of Lakshimi Restaurant."

Jiang Yue looked at innkeeper Qiao calmly.

Smiling, Innkeeper Qiao patted the other person's back. "I just happened to hear your offer. Alright, all the good prey you usually buy will be sent to our restaurant. When have I not given you an appropriate price? This time, let our restaurant have this blind bear."

"I'm not backing down." The person shook their head.

Innkeeper Qiao continued, "If you take it and sell it to our restaurant, I'll only offer you a hundred silver. You know that I've never allowed our restaurant to make a small profit, but I'll also never mistreat those who provide us with good things. If we mistreat them too much, how could our restaurant have so many hunters who want to send their things to us to sell instead? How could you all want to sell your things to our restaurant? Don't you think it'll be too unfair?"

Hearing this, Jiang Yue finally understood why the innkeeper had asked for 100 silver.

He also understood why the dealer was only willing to pay 90 silver. He must have dealt with Innkeeper Qiao often and knew what price he would give.

If it was more than 90, he could earn less than 10 silver from the difference. He didn't have to share it with others, it was still okay. But if he shared it with many people, he wouldn't get much profit.

However, it was clear that Innkeeper Qiao wasn't saying this for the middle-aged man, but for Xue Dafu and the others.

Generally, if someone wanted to sell something to another person at a high price, the person would definitely send it directly to the restaurant to earn more in the future.

Even if the peddler received prey, he could sell them to other restaurants, which was more or less a risk.

It was enough to show how confident Innkeeper Qiao was with his haggling skills.

Although Jiang Yue didn't say anything, she knew what was going on.

“Yes, yes, yes.” The haggler’s head was so low that it almost reached his knees.

“In the future, if you receive any good prey, feel free to send them to our restaurant.”

Only then did Innkeeper Qiao walk over and size up the bear on the ox cart. “I saw that you guys still haven’t brought the bear over, so I came over to take a look. It’s big enough and worth a hundred silver. If you guys don’t have any objections, I’ll give you a hundred silver right now.”

“Alright, alright, alright.” Xue Dafu and the others were overjoyed by the amount of money. They only remembered Jiang Yue after they nodded and immediately turned to look at her.

Innkeeper Qiao found it interesting. They actually asked for a baby girl’s opinion. This baby girl was also very likable and should be very precious at home.

Jiang Yue had already planned to sell it at 90 silver. Now that it was 100 silver, she naturally had no intention of refusing. Moreover, the innkeeper’s words clearly stated that he could only offer 100 silver at most.

“Xue Yan will be very happy if he knows about this,” Jiang Yue said.

Xue Dafu immediately understood and turned to Innkeeper Qiao with a smile. “Deal!”

“Alright!” Innkeeper Qiao was very happy. “Send the bear to the restaurant, I’ll pay you when we get there.”

“Alright, alright, alright.”

Jiang Yue was still seated on the ox cart, while Xue Dafu and the others brought along the blind bear as they followed Innkeeper Qiao to Lakshimi Restaurant.

Chapter 58: You’re Right

What they didn't know was that an old lady, who had come to the town for business and was passing by the market on her way back to the village, saw them not long after they left.

This old lady was a famous gossip in Locust Village. Once she recognized Xue Dafu, she was speechless. "Oh my, that's Dafu. Why is he pulling a bear? That must be the blind bear."

When the person at the market's entrance heard this, he laughed and replied, "It's a blind bear. It was sold for a hundred silver to Lakshimi Restaurant. "

"A hundred what?!" Wang Sufen's eyes almost popped out. Then, she only knew, "Oh my..."

Then, she quickly left the town and went home. She wanted to go back to the village and tell everyone that she was rich!

When they arrived at Lakshimi Restaurant, the blind bear didn't come in from the front door. Instead, it went around to the back door.

Innkeeper Qiao was quite meticulous. Considering that Xue Dafu and the others were farmers, he didn't give them a hundred silver directly but gave them 90 silver and 100 coins.

"Thank you." Xue Dafu and the others all thanked him.

"I still have some matters to attend to, so I won't be seeing you off. If you have more of such big items in the future, feel free to send them to me," Innkeeper Qiao said with a smile.

Xue Dafu and the others felt dizzy with so much money. Their brains were already spinning, and they didn't know how to answer that their Xue Wufu wouldn't be hunting anymore. They could only subconsciously reply, "Alright, alright, alright."

Xue Dafu and the others stood outside the restaurant's back door, next to the ox cart, still in a daze as if they were in a dream.

Jiang Yue waited for a while, and when she saw that the three of them were still like this, she called out, "It's time to go back."

Xue Dafu and the others suddenly came to their senses.

"Yes, yes, yes. Let's go back. It'll be dark when we get home if we don't go back now." With that, Xue Dafu gave Xue Yifu fifty silver and had Xue Erfu help him take the other fifty taels. "In any case, I can't keep my things properly. Don't lose them. It's so much money. If we lose them, my heart will ache to death. You guys take it, take it. Keep it well."

"Okay." Xue Erfu and Xue Yifu agreed. They were also used to their father not having much money on him because he could not keep things well and was afraid of losing them.

"Jiang Yue," Xue Dafu bent over and asked Jiang Yue, "Is there anything you want to eat? Should I buy it for you? It's all thanks to you that our family already has a hundred silver today."

"Yes, yes." Xue Yifu and Xue Erfu agreed and laughed so hard that their teeth could be seen. If it wasn't for Jiang Yue's insistence, it wouldn't have been 100 silver in the end.

"I don't have anything I want to eat," Jiang Yue replied.

"You're too sensible." Xue Dafu's heart ached. "Let's go, we'll see if there's anyone selling tanghulu on the road. Since we're in town, we have to buy you a stick. Buy one for your Xue Yan as well. If he didn't tell us, we wouldn't have known that this bear is worth at least eighty silver."

Jiang Yue wanted to say that she didn't want to eat tanghulu as it was for children, but Xue Dafu was determined to buy it for her. The more she said no, the more he felt sorry for her, so she gave up.

Xue Dafu walked in front of Jiang Yue.

Xue Yifu and Xue Erfu led the ox cart and walked behind.

"Erfu, you're right." Xue Dafu suddenly turned around. "I'm sorry. I scolded you at the market. That was silly of me."

Chapter 59: Amazing

"What do you mean?" Xue Erfu immediately said. "You're just afraid that the highest price will be the same. You didn't do it on purpose."

Along the way, everyone talked and laughed. Finally, they met someone who sold tanghulu.

Xue Dafu bought two skewers for three coins each and gave them to Jiang Yue.

Jiang Yue looked at the candy in both her hands. She looked more like a child now. All she could do was suck it up and look at the sky for help.

“Should we go back directly or...?” Xue Erfu asked for his father’s opinion. If they went back directly, the road in front of them would be passable.

“No,” Xue Dafu said, “Let’s go to the market again and buy four kilograms of pork. Give your grandfather two kilograms, and we’ll eat two kilograms for our own.”

“We only get that for the New Year...” Xue Yifu swallowed his saliva and rubbed his hands together, looking extremely honest.

Xue Erfu also swallowed his saliva. Jiang Yue could tell that they had not eaten meat for a long time.

“Isn’t today a special day?” Xue Dafu chuckled. He laughed so hard that his eyes could not be seen.

“Agreed!” Xue Erfu and Xue Yifu agreed.

The pork was twelve coins per 500 grams, so four kilograms of pork was 48 coins. Xue Dafu’s family would never buy such luxurious food to eat, let alone buy four kilograms of meat.

Even during the new year, Xue Dafu’s family would only buy two kilograms of pork at most.

Today, he was really happy because the blind bear had sold for a hundred silver.

Jiang Yue followed them to the pork stall. When she saw Xue Dafu and the others buying the pork, she realized that the bones and pig offal were much cheaper than the meat.

Because there wasn’t much meat on the bones, it was only six coins. The internal organs and intestines were even cheaper, coins wens per 500 grams, and they were often unable to be sold.

Jiang Yue felt that the people here didn’t know what was good. The pork ribs were so delicious, but they only cost six coins per 500 grams.

When her family becomes richer in the future, she will definitely eat to her heart’s content.

After buying the pork, they got on the ox cart and went home.

When Jiang Yue and the others were still on their way back, the gossiping woman Wang Sufen had already returned to the village from the town. As soon as she arrived, she said to them, "This is bad, this is bad. I don't know where this blind bear from Dafu came from, but he actually sold it for a hundred silver!"

"A hundred silver?!" Everyone's eyes were about to pop out.

"Yes, yes, I heard it with my own ears. It can't be wrong." Wang Sufen said. "Say, where did Dafu get this bear from? This is the first time I've seen a bear."

"His family's fifth son hunted it," someone told her.

After getting a general idea of the situation, Wang Sufen said, "What kind of dog sh*t luck does their family have to actually make a fortune in one go? In this village, which family has a hundred silver? Even the Tian family with a cow doesn't have that much money."

"Who said they didn't deserve it?" Someone echoed in a sour tone. "They lived a hard life, and everyone in the village was better than them. Now, it's the other way around."

"They deserve the money." Someone said. "Why don't you go and talk to Meili about this?"

"Yes, yes, I'll go now, I'll go now." Wang Sufen didn't mind making a big deal out of it, so she really went. However, before he could reach Xue Dagui's house, she ran into Li Hehua, who was getting water out of a well.

Wang Sufen immediately turned around and walked to Li Hehua with a big smile on her face. She said loudly, "Hehua, congratulations, congratulations. Your family's bear was sold for a hundred silver. That's so much money, congratulations!"

Chapter 60: No Wonder You Can't Bear Children

"A hundred?" Li Hehua didn't really believe her. "Wang, where did you hear that? I only heard they went to town to sell the blind bear, but it's impossible for them to sell it for that much money."

"Silly child, I heard it with my own ears! You even saw with your own eyes that they left! It's worth a hundred silver." Speaking of this, Wang Sufen's face was full of drool. "Your family is so rich. Hehua, you have to take care of Wang Yujia's family in the future."

How could Li Hehua make the decision? She was only a daughter-in-law, and her in-laws were the ones in charge of the family.

Li Hehua just smiled and didn't say anything.

After waiting for a while, Wang Sufen pulled a long face when Li Hehua just smiled and said nothing, "You can't even make a decision all these years! No wonder you can't bear children!"

These words were extremely hurtful.

It had always been a sore spot for Li Hehua. However, many people in the village never cared about her feelings and would poke her from time to time.

For example, Wang Sufen.

Li Hehua immediately lowered her head, and her eyes turned red.

Wang Sufen had already left and gone back to Xue Dagui's house to find Zhang Meili.

Li Hehua sniffled and continued to take water. When two buckets of water were filled, she carried them back home.

She tried to ignore the fact that she couldn't get pregnant, and she focused on the blind bear that was sold for 100 silver.

Thinking of this, Li Hehua's mood became much better. After all, it was a good thing to have money at home.

"Good news! Good news!" Li Hehua couldn't help but shout happily.

She didn't even care if he was still outside.

Liu Guixia thought that something had happened and immediately rushed out of the courtyard. "What's wrong? What's wrong?" He was extremely anxious.

Li Hehua's smile didn't fade. "Let's talk inside. It's good news."

"What happened?" Liu Guixia smiled and patted Li Hehua's arm, then followed Li Hehua, who was carrying a bucket of water, into the courtyard.

Hearing Li Hehua's shout, Yu Hongyan also came out of the house.

Xue Yan also heard it and wanted to go out of the room to have a look, but so did Wufu. So Xue Yan had to help him out too.

“Faster, faster!” Xue Wufu was also very anxious. It seemed like something had happened to his sister-in-law.

“Slow down.” Xue Yan felt a little helpless when he saw his fifth brother limping away.

Even though his sister-in-law’s voice was very anxious as if something had happened, he could hear the obvious joy in her voice.

If something happened, it should be a happy thing. There was no need to be so anxious.

As soon as he came out of the house, Xue Wufu asked “What happened? Did someone bully you?”

“Nope.” Li He Hua immediately shook her head. She had also put down the water. Seeing that everyone was gathered together, she lowered her voice and said, “I just heard from wang Sufen that our family’s bear was sold for a hundred silver. She just returned from town and said she saw it with her own eyes. That should be true.”

When Xue Yan heard this, he knew that Jiang Yue must have contributed to the 100 silver. He was not surprised at all. He wasn’t too happy either. However, he still had a smile on his face.

However, Liu Guixia, Yu Hongyan, and Xue Wufu were overjoyed. “Really? That’s great! A hundred?! Do we really have a hundred silver?!”
