Chapter 961 - 961 You Did Not Ask Clearly

961 You Did Not Ask Clearly

“I’m back! What’s that smell! It smells so good!” Su Yang said happily as he pushed open the door and entered.

Thank you readers!

Seeing the food on the table, Su Yang’s doubts were finally dispelled and he gradually felt happy.

Qiao Yu did not think too much about it. At this time, it could only be Su Yang. Without turning around, she scooped rice at the table and muttered, “Go wash your hands. Dinner is ready.”

Su Yang looked at the warm scene in front of him and could not suppress his emotions. He slowly walked behind Qiao Yu and hugged her tightly.

Qiao Yu screamed loudly out of fear and hurriedly pushed Su Yang away with all her might. The bowl in her hand fell onto the table with a loud bang.

“Ah!!! What are you doing all of a sudden! Who says you can hug me!” Qiao Yu shouted angrily at Su Yang.

“What... what’s wrong with me hugging you! It’s not like I’ve never hugged you before!” Su Yang said awkwardly.

Qiao Yu slowly moved to the other side of the table and held back the anger in her heart. Now was not the time to go against Su Yang. She had to think of a way to talk to him nicely. The most important thing now was to get meat coupons and money from Su Yang. It was fine to let him take advantage of her as long as he did not do anything overboard.

“Let’s eat! I spent so much time in the kitchen. Sit down and eat,” Qiao Yu said as she sat on the stool in a panic.

Su Yang was still feeling a little unhappy. He had already done so much. Even if Qiao Yu was an ice cube, she should have melted by now! Could it be that she really had a heart of stone? Their current relationship was not even as close as when they were working in the factory!

Qiao Yu also noticed the change in Su Yang’s mood. She took the initiative to pick up a piece of cabbage and placed it in Su Yang’s bowl. “Try this and see if it’s delicious. I don’t know what you like to eat, so I just made this.”

“It’s delicious, but you should cook one more dish next time. There’s not enough food for the two of us,” Su Yang said perfunctorily.

Qiao Yu saw an opportunity and quickly looked at Su Yang aggrievedly, saying, “When I went to buy groceries today, they all told me that I need coupons to buy groceries. I can’t just use money. In the end, I can only buy things that don’t need coupons. What are coupons? Why can’t I use money to buy things?”

Su Yang looked at Qiao Yu suspiciously. The factory gave food stamps and coupons every month, but yet Qiao Yu did not know about such things. Was she putting on an act again to confuse him?

“Don’t you... know about meat coupons and food stamps?” Su Yang asked.

“In the past, it was my sister-in-law who took care of the money matters at home. I don’t need to care about these things. We raise pigs at home, so we don’t need to spend money to buy meat. I’ve never used such things,” Qiao Yu said as she looked at Su Yang innocently.

Su Yang’s eyes suddenly lit up as he looked at Qiao Yu. His family also had some relatives who lived in the village on the outskirts of the capital. Those relatives were considered a rich family in the village as they raised chickens, ducks and geese at home. If Qiao Yu’s family actually raised pigs themselves, that was something extraordinary!

During this period of time, there was not enough food for people to feed their families. Even the people in the city could only get simple food and shelter. They could only eat meat during the new year and festivals. If any family was able to buy meat, it would be a joyous occasion.

However, since Qiao Yu had relatives who lived in such a luxurious district in the capital, she could not be too low in status. It was a pity that she had never gone to school, but then again, it was easier to control a woman who knew nothing. This could be considered an advantage for him.

“Then what about the coupons issued by the factory? You never used them before?” Su Yang continued to ask.

Su Yang was suddenly enlightened. No wonder Qiao Yu had always come to eat with him time and time again in the factory. She did not even mind waiting for him for more than half the afternoon for a taste of meat. It turned out that she had no other choice!

Qiao Yu told him everything that had happened to her but eliminated all the important information. She did not consider it a lie since Su Yang did not ask clearly.

“So I see. I’ll get you some coupons from home when I come back tomorrow. Let’s buy some meat to eat too. I can try your cooking again tomorrow night!” Su Yang said happily.

Qiao Yu looked at Su Yang tenderly and did not stop serving him food. Su Yang could also tell that as long as he gave Qiao Yu some benefits, her attitude towards him would change drastically.

Chapter 962 - 962 Fight to the End

962 Fight to the End

“Why are you wearing men’s clothes? But it looks quite sturdy. If there’s really no other way, you can embroider some flowers on it. That way, it’ll look nicer,” Su Yang said as he pointed at the cotton jacket hanging at the door.

Thank you readers!

“I made this by disassembling some clothes in the pile. It’s even warmer than the one you’re wearing! I think this is good enough. There’s no need to do anything else,” Qiao Yu said smugly.

Even if Qiao Yu did not have any relatives, the fact that her family owned pigs already carried enough weight. If he married her, it would not be for nothing! She was young, knew how to do chores, cooked fairly well, knew how to do needlework and did not pick fights with him. He wished he could immediately marry such a wife now!

If he could marry Qiao Yu, then the Su family’s ancestral grave must have received blessings! His ancestors were blessing him with a good wife!

Ever since Su Yang found out that Qiao Yu’s family raised pigs, he started to behave a little awkwardly. He felt that he should treat Qiao Yu better and that he was still not nice enough to her.

“You should eat more too. Don’t just take care of me.” Su Yang passed some of the food in his bowl to Qiao Yu. He must work harder to make Qiao Yu like him.

Qiao Yu did not continue to be polite with Su Yang. She had not had a proper meal since the morning and had been waiting for this meal tonight! Even though it was only cabbages stewed with potatoes, Qiao Yu still found it very delicious. Soon, she finished the entire dish and two big bowls of rice on her own. Even though she had eaten so much, she still did not feel satisfied.

After dinner, Su Yang returned to Old Madam Fan’s house. Qiao Yu lit a kerosene lamp in the room and rushed to sew some curtains. It was only after midnight that the curtains were ready and she hung them up. Only then could she finally sleep in peace.

A new day brought a new story.

There were no new developments regarding Sun Juan and Zhou Shuang in the hospital. Zhou Shuang was still not in a good condition.

Sun Juan was in a much better condition than yesterday, but the injuries on her body would take at least a week to heal. Zhou Shuang was still mainly knocked out but she was able to wake up occasionally to drink water and eat something.

She usually gave all the good food at home to her two sons and did not eat much herself. She was still young but her health was worse than Li Gui. All her old ailments had to be treated together with her current injuries, otherwise she would get worse if it dragged on.

It was possible that some of Zhou Shuang's ailments were not caused by Su Yang, but Su Yang's actions had accelerated her illnesses. Therefore, everything was related to Su Yang.

"Sister Sun, we don't have much money now. Zhou Shuang's medical fees are really too high. The doctor also said that she might have a slight concussion and asked us to bring her for a checkup," Feng Hong said uneasily.

Sun Juan also did not have much money left. Although they had earned a lot from working for Qiao Mei, they had only been at their jobs for a short period of time. When they arrived at the hospital last night, they could only prioritize treating the most serious injuries. They could not bear to spend money on the more minor injuries. They would feel sad if they spent money on things that did not need treatment.

"Let's make a police report and get money from Su Yang! We can't just sit back and do nothing. We have to take the initiative to attack. If we don't pursue the matter, I'm worried that Zhou Shuang will have an even more difficult time in the future!" Sun Juan said firmly.

"But Sister Sun, will they hear us out? In the past, once Old Madam Fan went to the police station, Su Yang would be released. What if the same thing happens this time round?" Feng Hong asked worriedly.

Sun Juan had also considered this issue, but they would be encouraging Su Yang to commit more crimes if they did not go to the police. They must become strong and fight against such evil people to the end and not let them succeed.

"We might not get an ideal outcome if we go, but if we don't go, there will definitely be no outcome," Sun Juan said firmly as she looked at Feng Hong.

Feng Hong decided to change her mind. She held onto Sun Juan and they slowly made their way to the police station. They narrated their experiences that day to the police but it was not enough to rely on their one-sided story.

Chapter 963 - 963 Cannot Satisfy Her

963 Cannot Satisfy Her

“Hello, we’re police officers. Is there anyone here by the name of Su Yang?” the police officer said as he showed his identification to the guard.

Thank you readers!

“Let me check... Yes there is! However, if you want to go in, I need to get our leader’s approval. I can’t just let anyone in. I hope you can understand,” the guard said.

The police officers stood at the door and waited quietly. At this moment, Su Yang did not realize that danger was coming for him and was still slacking off in the workshop!

“Su Yang! When are you going to get married! I hear that you’re already living with Qiao Yu! When are you going to invite us to your wedding banquet? We’re still waiting to have fun in the bridal chamber!” a colleague teased.

Su Yang was a person who cared very much about his reputation. Even if Qiao Yu had rejected him a thousand times, he would still tell others that it was a done deal. Otherwise, all his earlier acting in the factory would have been in vain.

“What’s the hurry! I have to respect her wishes. There’s no hurry!” Su Yang said confidently.

“Then do you know why Qiao Yu left the factory? Didn’t they say that her relatives are very powerful? With such a background, why would she still be fired,” the colleague said.

“Well... it’s because she found a better job. This job is too tiring. She’ll start work elsewhere when it’s springtime.” Su Yang tried his best to cook up lies.

The colleague did not believe what Su Yang said. If that was the case, then why did Qiao Yu stay with Su Yang instead of with her relatives? There must be a conflict between Qiao Yu and her relatives!

When Qiao Yu and Su Yang were both still in the factory, everyone knew that they had an ambiguous relationship. It was really suspicious that they did not consider getting married even when they already lived together. Moreover, there were rumors that Qiao Yu’s relatives had arranged blind dates for her. It was obvious that the relatives were anxious to get her married off.

“Are there some hidden reasons why Qiao Yu can’t be with you?” the colleague asked curiously.

The people around them whispered among themselves. One of them stood up and shouted loudly, “Is it because you’re not good in that area! You can’t satisfy the girl, so she despises you!”

“Hahaha!”

These words made everyone laugh out loud. Everyone stared at Su Yang, waiting to see him make a fool of himself. They were all bachelors, so all they did when they gathered together was to tease others. It was just a joke and no one took it too seriously.

Su Yang was just as anxious! He had always been able to sleep with a girl within half a month and then he would abandon her after that. There had never been any exceptions all this while. He had spent the most time on Qiao Yu. However, to him, there was a huge difference between Qiao Yu and those ordinary women. Qiao Yu’s value was not based on her looks.

For the sake of his future house, what did it matter if he endured a little longer now?

However, he was still a hot-blooded young man. If Qiao Yu still did not agree to be with him, he would not be able to control his desires any longer.

“Do I need you to tell me whether I’m good or not! I have dated so many girls, which one of them didn’t feel satisfied? Which one of them said bad things about me behind my back? Unlike your ex-girlfriend who went around saying bad things about you and she even said that you couldn’t satisfy her! If you have time to worry about me, you should think about yourself!” Su Yang said mockingly.

“You! I’m just joking! Su Yang, why are you so sarcastic!” his colleague said.

Just as Su Yang was about to retort, Director Tan suddenly appeared at the door of the workshop.

Everyone returned to their respective posts and got busy. Only Su Yang continued to lie down in the corner and took a nap as he pleased. So what if she was the factory director? What right did she have to order him around?

“Su Yang, come with me,” Director Tan walked up to Su Yang and said calmly.

Su Yang looked at Director Tan in puzzlement and asked, “What’s the matter? Why can’t you talk to me here?”

Director Tan coughed lightly and said, “It’s something very important and it’s inconvenient to talk here. Come with me to the office. Don’t waste my time.”

Chapter 964 - 964 Constant Denial

964 Constant Denial

Su Yang thought that it was about something good. Perhaps Director Tan wanted to give him a raise! Su Yang followed closely behind Director Tan as they walked.

Thank you readers!

The moment Su Yang entered the office and saw many police officers inside, he was so scared that he turned around and ran. As soon as he went out, he was pressed to the ground by the police officers lying in ambush outside the door. Three or four police officers held him down forcefully.

“Let go of me! Let go of me! What right do you have to arrest me! I haven’t done anything and you have no right to arrest me! Let go of me or my mother won’t let you off! Let go of me! Is this even lawful!” Su Yang shouted as he struggled with all his might.

The police officer cut to the chase and asked, “Why did you run if you didn’t do anything? Did you hurt these two people, Zhou Shuang and Sun Juan, as well as Zhou Shuang’s two children?”

Su Yang resolutely denied that he had anything to do with this matter and even said that he did not know Zhou Shuang and Sun Juan at all. How could there be any conflict if he did not even know them? All of this had nothing to do with him.

“What’s your relationship with Zhou Shuang?” asked the police officer.

“There’s no relationship! I don’t know her at all. Are you even listening to me! I already said that I didn’t do anything. I don’t even know these people. What else do you want? Let go of me quickly!” Su Yang struggled and growled.

Seeing that Su Yang did not want to tell the truth, the police forcefully handcuffed him to bring him back to the police station. The factory workers all came out to watch the commotion. Women who had previously been bullied by Su Yang also gathered together and renounced him. They even talked about having a drink together tonight to celebrate the occasion and they thanked the police for getting rid of a public enemy.

Su Yang was too familiar with the police station. Going to the police station was like entering his own home and he did not feel nervous at all when he entered the interrogation room. If he could, he would even munch on seeds as he chatted with the police.

“Please think carefully before you answer the following questions. If you lie, you’ll have to bear a huge responsibility. Su Yang, do you know Zhou Shuang and Sun Juan?” the police officer asked sternly.

“No, I don’t. I’ve already said it many times, I don’t know them,” Su Yang said firmly.

The police officer then asked, "Then do you know who lives next door to you on the left side?"

Su Yang replied nonchalantly, "I don't know, I don't know who it is. I'll only give the same reply no matter what you ask me. We're already old acquaintances. Rather than waste your time with me, you might as well look for my mother and let her talk to you."

"You've lived in your house for so long and you haven't met any of your neighbors?" the police officer questioned.

Su Yang still gave the same answer.

"Your neighbor is Zhou Shuang, the person whom you injured. Do you admit to that?" asked the police officer.

Su Yang pretended to look at the police officer in surprise as he said, "Oh! So my neighbor's name is Zhou Shuang? Is she a beautiful woman? Have you seen her before? Is she busty? Is her butt perky?"

The police officer clenched his fists in anger. Ever since he was posted to this police station, he had been feeling deeply regretful. His colleagues at other police stations had better lives than him. If not for Su Yang and Su Liang always causing trouble and Old Madam Fan always obstructing the police's work, it would not have been so difficult for them to make progress in their investigations.

Actually, it was not that the police wanted to let Old Madam Fan off easy, or that they let Su Yang and Su Liang get away with their crimes because they were afraid of Old Madam Fan.

The truth was that not only did Old Madam Fan cause a ruckus with the police, but she would kick up a bigger fuss with the victim's family to force the victim to come to a settlement with her family. That was why the police were always unable to detain the troublemakers from that family. Furthermore, the issues were never serious enough to become a criminal case.

"You should ask my mother to come. I won't say anything," Su Yang said.

Su Yang was still the same as before and simply did whatever he wanted. He even sat opposite the police officer and cut his fingernails. He ignored the police officer's questions and did not even take note of what the police officer said at all.

Seeing that Su Yang had such a bad attitude, the police were no longer willing to communicate with him. It would be a waste of time to continue. They directly locked Su Yang up in the temporary detention center. The only way out was for them to gather more evidence. Otherwise, they would have to ask Su Yang's family members to come over.

The current case was much more complicated than the previous fights, brawls and sexual harassment he was involved in. This case also involved robbery and attempted murder, so it had to be dealt with seriously.

Chapter 965 - 965 Not a Simple Person

965 Not a Simple Person

At that moment, Old Madam Fan was playing mahjong at a neighbor's house. Recently, she had been quite lucky and could win two to three dollars a day. When her luck was at its best, she could even win five dollars a day!

Thank you readers!

"Oh! I have drawn the winning tile myself! I won, I won! Come, come, come, everyone, pay up!" Old Madam Fan smiled so widely that her eyes could barely be seen.

Everyone reluctantly took out the money to give to Old Madam Fan. It was strange how Old Madam Fan's luck had been so good for so many days. The other three players had only won a few times. Even when they won, it was only because they had colluded to play cards for one another.

"Sister Fan, you've been so lucky recently! It seems like the joyous occasion in your family has changed your luck for the better," a neighbor said enviously.

Joyous occasion? How could there be a joyous occasion in her family? Perhaps they were referring to her recent recovery from her illness.

“It was truly not easy for me to recover from my illness. Otherwise, it would be a long time before I can play mahjong with you! When I was sick, I craved playing mahjong so much that my hands felt itchy!” Old Madam Fan said agitatedly.

The other three people looked at one another. They all pursed their lips and smiled without saying anything.

Old Madam Fan found it strange and asked curiously, “What are you all smiling at? Tell me so that I can smile too.”

“Sister Fan, don’t you know that your Su Yang has a girlfriend? He even rented a room outside! It’s somewhere near your house! Two days ago, this young lady even quarreled with the lady boss of a butcher shop in the alley. She’s not a simple person! Your son is so lucky. Such a wife is definitely good at running a household!” the neighbor said.

Old Madam Fan did not think that this was anything to be happy about. Instead, she felt a sense of danger.

She had never stopped Su Yang and Su Liang from finding themselves a wife. It was good if they could find a wife on their own. She knew her own sons best. No nice girl would be willing to marry into their family. Her ideal daughter-in-law would be one who was capable, sensible and not scheming.

To put it bluntly, she wanted a fool who could do chores and take instructions from her. She would not agree for her sons to marry a woman who was too smart. She was still counting on Su Yang to support her in her old age! If he ignored his mother after getting married, it would be disastrous for her.

“Is that so? I’m more lax about my son’s affairs. So why did that girl quarrel with the lady boss of the butcher shop? I haven’t even heard about this!” Old Madam Fan asked as she pretended to be calm.

“I also heard about it from someone else. They said she didn’t have any meat coupons and yet she insisted on buying meat. In the end, she made the lady boss so angry that the lady boss closed the shop and stopped doing business. The shop is still not open for business today!” the neighbor said laughingly.

“No meat coupons? Is she from the countryside? She’s so ignorant,” another neighbor said mockingly.

It was one thing for this girl to embarrass herself, but now she had affected Old Madam Fan’s reputation. This was really too much. The girl had not even married into the family yet, but had already caused her so much trouble!

Old Madam Fan did not give any hint of her anger and just said lightly, “It’s hard to say if that young lady can marry into our family! It all depends on what my son wants. My son is most filial to me. He will come and tell me when he wants to get married.”

If one read between the lines, what she meant to say was that it was not so easy for any woman to marry into her family. Her family would not take in such a troublesome woman!

The neighbors did not try to persuade Old Madam Fan either. They could not wait for Qiao Yu to marry into the family. They would be happy to see Old Madam Fan’s house in as much chaos as possible. It would be best if they could not have peaceful days! This would let Old Madam Fan have a taste of her own medicine!

After they played two more rounds of mahjong, the police suddenly came around and kicked the door down with a loud bang. Everyone was so shocked that they quickly put away their money. Some people sat obediently at the table and did not dare to move, while some people tried to leave through the back door.

There were people in the house who had never been arrested by the police before. When they saw the police coming, they ran around in a frenzy like rats which spotted cats. In the end, they were all pressed to the ground by the police.

Chapter 966 - 966 Various Charges

966 Various Charges

“Don’t move! All of you, sit properly! Raise your hands and don’t move! Stop what you’re doing!” Zou Ming, the police officer in charge, shouted at them.

Thank you readers!

Everyone raised their hands in unison and waited for the police's next instructions. This was not a grave offense. If they were arrested, they would just need to pay a fine and sit through an education session.

However, the thing was these people could not afford the fine of 100 dollars. It was equivalent to their entire family's food expenses for half a year! If they did not have money to pay the fine, they would be imprisoned for a year before being released.

"Brother... we're just friends having some fun together. We're not gambling! Can't friends play mahjong together?" one of the neighbors asked softly.

Zou Ming walked over and looked at their mahjong table. "Do you think I'm a fool? Are you sure you're not gambling? It's not the new year or any festive season today. How much money do you have in your pockets? Do you need me to search you one by one?"

!!

"No need! No need! I'll confess! I'll confess! I'll confess to anything! Don't take my money!" said a person squatting on the ground fearfully with his hands behind his head.

He was the richest person among them. Furthermore, he had withdrawn a sum of money from the bank today and made a detour here before he returned home. He did not expect to be arrested by the police!

Zou Ming looked around. Everyone had lowered their heads so he could not see their faces. "Which one of you is Su Yang's mother?"

No one said anything. At this moment, Old Madam Fan was also very afraid. The police officers she usually met were those who did not carry guns. Now, there were at least 10 police officers surrounding them in the house. Old Madam Fan was very scared that the police would shoot her if she made them agitated.

"Which of you is Su Yang's mother? Step forward yourself and don't let us screen all of you one by one," Zou Ming said as he looked at the crowd.

One of the neighbors suddenly stood up, pointed at Old Madam Fan and shouted, "It's her! Arrest her! She's Su Yang's mother. Arrest her, don't arrest me! Let me go!"

The police pinned him to the ground again. Everyone felt that they would be safe as long as they pointed out Old Madam Fan. All eyes were fixed on her.

Seeing that she could not avoid it, Old Madam Fan stood up in fear and said, "Me... I'm Su Yang's mother..."

Two of the police officers walked forward and handcuffed Old Madam Fan. The rest of the people were told to go back to their original seats. The police station would arrange for a bigger vehicle to come and pick them up.

"You come with us. Fatty, the two of you stay here and keep an eye on the rest. Someone will come and pick them up later. Don't let any of them escape! If even one of them escapes, you can forget about keeping your job!" Zou Ming said.

"Understood!" Fatty shouted.

Along the way, Old Madam Fan lowered her head and did not dare to say a word. She did not know what she had done. Even if the crime was her gathering everyone to play mahjong, the police would not have mentioned Su Yang's name. Could it be that something had happened to Su Yang?

When they arrived at the police station, Old Madam Fan behaved differently from her usual threatening manner and followed behind Zou Ming obediently. It was not until they reached the interrogation room that Old Madam Fan looked up. This was her first time here.

"Do you know what your son, Su Yang, has done recently?" Zou Ming asked as he opened the interrogation records.

Old Madam Fan shook her head and said, "I don't know. What has my son done?"

These were phrases which Qiao Mei had taught Sun Juan to say. If she only described what happened to the police officers, they would deem it to be a fight caused by personal grudges. At the end of the year, all the government departments would tally their work achievements for the year. It was not only the train station which needed to submit their yearly results for appraisal. The police station would also need to do the same and they would even be appraised more stringently.

Generally, the police would not want to pursue matters which could be settled among the parties involved. If both parties were willing to settle, it would be purposeless for them to insist on putting someone in jail. There would always be people who were willing to give up their rights and interests for money. It was a tough job being a police officer.

Chapter 967 - 967 Not His Fault

967 Not His Fault

Old Madam Fan had never heard of such terminology before, but she could still understand the word "murder". She would believe it if the police officer said that Su Yang was causing trouble outside, but she was very sure that Su Yang did not have the guts to commit murder. He was someone who did not even dare to slaughter a chicken at home, how could he be able to kill someone?

Thank you readers!

She even wondered if the police officer was lying to her. Su Yang had been at work recently, had he not? How could he have gone around causing trouble? No one in the neighborhood mentioned anything to her.

"I don't quite understand what you're saying. Are you mistaken? My son is a good person. Our family won't do such a thing!" Old Madam Fan asked.

Zou Ming took out the photocopied evidence in his hand, which included the medical reports for Zhou Shuang and Sun Juan, the statement transcripts from the neighbors and a list of evidence from the crime scene, among others.

Sun Juan did not tell the police about Su Yang stealing her money. She only said Zhou Shuang seemed to have lost some stuff from her house and it was very likely that Su Yang was the thief.

Otherwise, if the police started investigating why she had money, it would definitely implicate Qiao Mei's small corn workshop. If that happened, Li Gui would not even be able to run her popcorn business anymore. Cutting off one's source of income was like killing one's parents. She definitely could not do something like this.

On one hand, she wanted to protect Qiao Mei and Li Gui. These two people had helped her so much and she could not do anything that went against her own conscience. On the other hand, she also wanted to protect her future income. As long as she continued to work for Qiao Mei, she would definitely be able to earn more money in the future. She was also helping herself by doing all these.

"Since you don't understand the terms, I'll make it simpler for you. Su Yang injured your neighbor, Zhou Shuang, and her friend, Sun Juan. He even smashed up Zhou Shuang's house and stole her things. It all started because Su Yang suspected Zhou Shuang had taken the bed which he had thrown out," Zou Ming said as he read from the statement.

Once he said that, Old Madam Fan understood what happened. She felt that this entire matter was not Su Yang's fault at all. It was that b*tch Zhou who was creating trouble. If that woman did not take Su Yang's things, Su Yang would not have taught her a lesson. Sun Juan also only had herself to blame. If she had attempted to thwart Su Yang, then she deserved to be beaten up!

What right did these people have to get her arrested and make accusations against her son!

"What has this got to do with my son! What have you done to my son! Let me go! I have to go and look for my son!" Old Madam Fan said furiously.

"The issue now is that your son injured someone! It's your son's fault! Hurry up and tell us what you know!" Zou Ming said as he suppressed his anger.

Old Madam Fan remained very stubborn. That b*tch, Zhou Shuang, flirted around every day. Since her husband was always not at home, she could not suppress her desire to find a man. Old Madam Fan never liked Zhou Shuang. If not for the fact that the two of them did not run into each other often, she would not let Zhou Shuang live her life in peace.

The problem definitely did not lie with Su Yang. It must be Zhou Shuang who had deliberately attracted Su Yang's attention and then wanted to seduce him! That was definitely what happened!

"Do you have any evidence to say that my son wanted to commit murder? It's obvious that these women have a grudge against us! It's that b*tch who took a fancy to my son! Everything she did was to seduce my son! Can't my son protect himself when he can't reject her! You're wronging my son! Quickly let me and my son go!" Old Madam Fan struggled and shouted.

The usual interrogation chair had a partition at the front that could be locked to prevent the suspect from hurting the police. However, because Old Madam Fan was too fat, it was already very difficult for her to squeeze into the chair, let alone for the police to be able to lock up that panel. Therefore, they had put a chain around Old Madam Fan's feet.

"It looks like you don't intend to be cooperative. Put her in the detention center and we'll interrogate her only when she decides to calm down," Zou Ming said.

Under normal circumstances, after detaining a suspect, the police must solve the case within 24 hours. They only had one day to interrogate the suspect and must let the suspect go after 24 hours. Otherwise, they would be violating the rules. However, Old Madam Fan was being held in the detention center because of gambling, so they did not need to worry about this time limit of 24 hours.

Chapter 968 - 968 None of Your Business!

968 None of Your Business!

Once Fatty sent all the gamblers to the detention center, he rushed back to report the situation to Zou Ming.

Thank you readers!

"Brother Ming, we've brought everyone back. Some of the family members have already gone to pay the fine. Our guys are also in the process of reeducating them. Do you have any other arrangements?" Fatty asked while panting heavily.

"Come with me to the hospital to visit the injured parties. Let's resolve this matter as soon as possible," Zou Ming said with a sigh.

Qiao Yu waited the entire afternoon but Su Yang did not appear. After he told her last night that he would bring her money and meat coupons, she had felt excited the entire night. It seemed to her that it had been for nothing. In the morning, there was no sign of Su Yang at all. She still had to rely on the five dollars which Su Yang had given her yesterday.

If Su Yang continued to stay away, she would not be able to survive the next week. She only had enough coal for another four days at most. She was too embarrassed to ask the landlord for any free coal. Yesterday, she had used a small piece of lard belonging to the landlord. Today, the landlord had removed all the valuable things in the kitchen, including the salt. There was currently nothing in the kitchen except the cooking pot.

“How petty. I just used that little bit of lard. As if you have anything fantastic!” Qiao Mei sat on the bed and muttered to herself.

Instead of wasting her time in this dingy room, she might as well go around and look for clues related to Li Gui and the others. Once she could find them, she would have found money and accommodation.

Qiao Yu made her way to the entrance of the cinema based on her memory of the route. Going by Li Gui’s previous schedule, now should be the time when her business was doing the best.

However, after Qiao Yu went there, there were no women around at all, let alone being able to sight Li Gui. Qiao Yu hurriedly went to the main entrance of the cinema to check on the movie screenings of the day. There were screenings all the way past 9 p.m., so why was Li Gui not here?

Just as Qiao Yu was about to leave dejectedly, she suddenly realized that Zhao Fei had appeared near the cinema with a lot of popcorn in his arms. She did not know Zhao Fei, but she knew the smell of Li Gui’s popcorn. From the packaging and the smell, these were definitely Li Gui’s goods!

“Big brother! Wait a moment!” Qiao Yu called out to Zhao Fei who was about to leave.

Zhao Fei put on his salesman smile and spoke to Qiao Yu nicely, "Do you want to buy popcorn? It's 50 cents a pack. If it doesn't taste good, feel free to come back and look for me. There's a guaranteed refund!"

Qiao Mei took a pack of popcorn from Zhao Fei and looked at it. The way that the ribbon was knotted and the smell of popcorn confirmed her thoughts.

"Big brother, do you make this popcorn yourself or buy it from someone else?" Qiao Yu asked.

Zhao Fei quickly snatched back the pack of popcorn. Qiao Yu was not the first person to ask him about this. Ever since he started selling popcorn, many of his peers had come to look for him and offered to work with him, but he had rejected all of them. He was the only distributor of Li Gui's popcorn! He would never share this business with anyone!

"It's none of your business! If you don't want to buy, don't waste my time," Zhao Fei said sulkily. After saying that, he got on the three-wheeled vehicle and quickly left the cinema. It was almost time to meet Li Gui.

Qiao Yu could not catch up with Zhao Fei, so she planned to go home first and come back tomorrow to hassle him until she could find new clues.

On the way back, she even passed by Su Yang's house. It was quiet and there was no one around. It was as if the entire place had been emptied of its occupants overnight. There was not even any smell of food.

"How can there be no one... Isn't it mealtime now?" Qiao Yu mustered her courage and slowly walked forward, relying on her memories to find Su Yang's house door.

Just as Qiao Yu was still wondering if there was anyone in the house, a man's voice suddenly sounded from behind her.

"Why are you sneaking around in front of my house?" Su Liang asked with a frown.

Qiao Yu quickly turned around and retreated guiltily until she fell on the steps. Su Liang had gone drinking with his scoundrel friends during the day and had rushed back when he heard that something had happened to Old Madam Fan.

“I’m just here to take a look... It’s nothing! I’ll get going first!” Qiao Yu said nervously.

Su Liang grabbed her and said, “You’re my brother’s girlfriend, right? Your name is Qiao Yu?”

Thank you readers!

Qiao Yu nodded timidly. Su Liang started to look at her with a hint of lust in his eyes. Although she was way too skinny and did not have the big bosom and perky buttocks that he liked, she was very young. At close distance, her small face looked like a crystal bun that had just come out of the steamer. It was crystal clear and so tender and bouncy.

“I’m not his girlfriend! There’s nothing going on between us! We’re just friends! I’m not dating him!” Qiao Yu quickly explained, trying her best to distance herself from Su Yang.

She thought that Su Liang did not want her to marry Su Yang and wanted to force her to leave Su Yang!

Su Liang’s eyes lit up as he looked at her. That kid, Su Yang, had not succeeded in wooing this girl after so long. He was really too weak. Since Su Yang was so useless, then he could not blame his older brother for making a move.

“Then are you here to look for my younger brother or me? It’s getting very late, so you should stay here. It’s not an easy journey back,” Su Liang said as he held on to Qiao Yu with ill intentions on his face.

It was only around 5 p.m. and the sky was not even dark yet. How could it be very late? Su Liang was simply lying through his teeth because he had designs on Qiao Yu.

Qiao Yu used all her strength to try and break free from Su Liang's grip, but she was too weak. Qiao Yu bit Su Liang instead and he instinctively let go because of the pain. Qiao Yu took the opportunity to run off without looking back and scrambled her way home, scared that Su Liang would catch up with her.

Su Liang was not in a hurry. He would definitely get his hands on this little girl and let her know what he was capable of! He could not let her bite him for nothing!

It was enough to know that Su Yang and her were not in a relationship. Su Yang had been arrested and would probably be imprisoned for a few years. In addition, as long as no one went to bail out Old Madam Fan, she would not be able to come out for a year. He would be able to have a good time at home and enjoy life using Old Madam Fan's retirement pension.

The more Su Liang thought about it, the happier he felt. He hummed a tune and limped into the house to look for Old Madam Fan's bankbook and the box containing her money

It had been a long time since Qiao Mei had slept so well, but Xia He unexpectedly woke her up very early in the morning and insisted on bringing her to the hospital for a checkup with Xia Fang.

"Get up quickly! We're going for a physical examination! There are many checkups you need to do! We can't be late! The car is ready! If you don't go, I'll get the bodyguards to come in and carry you! Hurry up and get up!" Xia He said as she sat by Qiao Mei's bed.

Xia He had been saying the same thing to her for more than an hour. As long as Qiao Mei closed her eyes, Xia He would start chanting in her ear. This went on until Qiao Mei got up impatiently.

Qiao Mei sat up stiffly and stared fiercely at Xia He. In Xia He's eyes, the current Qiao Mei looked like a demon with messy hair, angry bloodshot eyes and a fierce gaze. If Qiao Mei had a knife in her hand now, Xia He reckoned that she would probably be dead by now.

“Um... I’ll go out first. Get changed and wash up first. I’ll be right outside. Call me if you need anything.” Xia He silently left Qiao Mei’s room and closed the door quietly, afraid that the tiniest sound would make Qiao Mei blow up.

Qiao Mei sighed and slowly got out of bed to look for appropriate clothes. She tried her best to wrap herself up warmly. It was still early which meant that there was no food at home. Qiao Mei did not intend to wait for someone to start cooking. She intended to go straight to a big restaurant later to have a good meal and get Xia He to pay for it.

Xia He looked at Qiao Mei’s expression fearfully, worried that Qiao Mei would suddenly change her mind and refuse to go to the hospital for the checkup. If that happened, not only would Xia Fang reprimand her, but Xu Lan would definitely nag at her again if she found out.

Sigh... my life is really too difficult...

Xia Fang applied for leave again today. She could not take care of her patients and Qiao Mei at the same time. Today, she took on the role of a parent accompanying her child for a follow-up checkup.

Chapter 970 - 970 Get In Through the Back Door

970 Get In Through the Back Door

“Aunt, let’s go in,” Qiao Mei said sulkily.

Thank you readers!

Xia Fang asked the nurse to bring over a wheelchair. Qiao Mei had many checkups to do today, so it was more convenient to use the wheelchair. The bodyguard walked in front as he pushed the wheelchair with Qiao Mei in it. Xia Fang quickly pulled Xia He to her side and asked, “What’s wrong with Qiao Mei? Is she feeling unwell?”

“She hasn’t been sleeping well recently because of the pregnancy yet I still woke her up so early this morning. It’s nothing, she’ll be fine in a while,” Xia He said.

They used the VIP route for which they paid fees which were 30% more expensive than normal. This caught the attention of some people who were there to see the doctor.

A man had been watching them for a while. He and his wife had come to queue up before dawn today in the hope of being able to do the checkup sooner. However, after waiting for more than two hours, it was still not their turn yet. He wondered why Qiao Mei could go in directly without queuing.

“Dear, wait for me here. I’ll go take a look in front.” After covering his wife with a blanket, the man came near to Qiao Mei’s group.

The bodyguard immediately noticed this suspicious-looking man and said fiercely, “Sir, this is a private route. Please go back to the queue and don’t come so close to us.”

“This hospital is so big. Why can’t I stand here? Does your family own this road?” the man asked with a frown.

The bodyguard felt that this person would pose a threat to Qiao Mei and hurriedly wheeled her into the room. The moment he saw Qiao Mei going in, the man’s anger instantly erupted.

“What right does she have to go in! What’s her basis for going in! Why doesn’t she need to queue up? We came to queue early in the morning and we are not able to enter yet. How can she go for her checkup right away! Ask her to come out!” the man shouted agitatedly.

The entire lobby echoed with the man’s shouts. The nurse hurriedly went forward to pacify him and said, “Sir, please don’t speak so loudly. If there’s any issue, we can discuss it at one side. This is the obstetrics and gynecology department and many of our patients are pregnant women. I hope you can be considerate of the other patients.”

“Be considerate of them? Then who will be considerate of us! My wife and I came to queue at your hospital before dawn! How does the hospital treat us! It’s not our turn for a checkup yet even after we queue up for so long, so how can that woman just go in directly! The hospital must give us a reasonable explanation! Give all of us an explanation!” the man shouted.

His words attracted many people who had the same experience as him. Many people started to gather around to speak up for the man. The nurse really could not handle so many people at the same time and quickly went to ask the security officers to come and maintain order.

Xia He and Xia Fang were speaking with the doctor who did Qiao Mei's first checkup. To save time, Xia Fang had asked the two bodyguards to bring Qiao Mei to proceed with the next checkup. She did not expect the incident to blow up.

As soon as they heard the commotion outside, they quickly rushed over. Seeing that a group of men was about to rush into the consultation room, the two bodyguards desperately tried to block their way.

"Why are you shouting! This is the hospital!" Xia Fang ran over and said.

"Who do you think you are! Leave us alone! We want an explanation today!" the man shouted.

The people around him shouted in unison, "That's right! Give us an explanation!"

Xia He stood in front of Xia Fang and tried her best to keep a distance between the crowd and Xia Fang. Soon, the security officers arrived at the scene and surrounded these troublemakers. After confirming that the situation was safe, Xia Fang took a few steps forward to communicate with them.

"Why are you causing trouble?" Xia Fang asked.

Xia Fang took out her employment pass from her pocket and said, "I'm the chief of the obstetrics and gynecology department here. You can speak to me."

The man pointed at Xia Fang and questioned, "What's your relationship with the woman in the room! Why aren't you wearing your white coat while you're in the hospital! Did you help her get in through the back door! So that she can go for a checkup without queuing up!"

Xia Fang did not panic at all. She looked at the man calmly and said, "I'm her aunt. It's my day off today. Don't I have the right to accompany my family members for a checkup? Also, we are using the VIP route, not getting in through the back door like you mentioned!"
