

The Alpha King's Fated Mate By Yui Ismutomo

Chapter 1

Chapter 1

Being the only person without a wolf made me wonder 'How can we recognize our mate?'

Story about finding your mate is always the story I love to hear. I always thought I would have someone of my own who will protect me with his life.

However, I didn't expect that he would reject me the moment he found me.

The happiness of finding your mate is not in me, only the confusion and anxiety I feel because I don't understand why he chose to be with someone else?

5 years ago...

I was only 18 years old when I met him.

The Alpha King...

Or My Fated Mate...

It was my first time participating in a gathering of werewolves, since I was old enough to have a mate so my parents thought taking me to the event would be an amazing thing for me, if only they knew they were right about one thing...

I did find my mate there...

It's just that he didn't want me to be his mate.

"You're Gwen?" Even his voice sounded deep and se*y in my ears.

For a girl who is never in love nor has experience with man only from an amazing and beautiful story about finding a mate, my heart beating fast for the first time almost like I couldn't breathe.

I nodded "Yes, Gwen Louve" I replied nervously.

He looked at me intently which made me feel shy and smaller.

Is this how it feels? what others feel too when they find their fated mate?!

"Why don't you have your wolf?" He asked straightforwardly and I knew it was probably the first time he had come across a werewolf without a wolf like me.

I smiled wryly "I don't know"

He nodded and I frowned in confusion because I saw no smile forming from his lips.

Is he not happy?!

"Then this will be easier" He said and made me more confused.

"Huh?"

"You see the woman I'm with is more worthy than you..." He speaks while locking his eyes on me for the whole time, I never thought this is what I heard the moment I find my fated mate "So don't think you deserve to be my mate"

"What?!" I whispered in shock.

Is he serious?!

Bang!

It felt like someone slapped me hard hearing that.

My tears fell heavily after hearing him and I looked at him with hatred now.

"I'm a king, it's impossible to be with a wolfless girl like you" he continued.

Stab... Stab...

Again the sharp stab of his words made me raise my hand and touch my aching chest.

"I hope you understand" were his last words before he turned away and left me hurt by it.

G*d...

Why?

I thought not having a wolf meant not having a mate, but you gave me the best man of all werewolves only he didn't want me, why?

From then on I realised that even the moon goddess was not on my side, I had to find my own future and happiness.

Present Day....

Forest Riege...

I finally returned to my hometown after 5 years.

Looking around the airport in this small town hasn't changed much, in fact it's practically the same.

"Hello, Gwen, are you there?"

Gwen gasped as she heard the voice of her long best friend, Alice and the wave of her hand in front of her face.

"Sorry, I was daydreaming" I mumbled in embarrassment.

Alice smiled "Are you thinking about something?"

I smiled back, unsure of how to explain that something was making me uneasy.

Carrying two large baskets, the brown curly-haired, shoulder-length, blue-eyed girl stared at her surroundings.

The next town which is close to the hometown where she was born and raised, it has been almost 5 years since she came home and today she decided to return after a long time her father finally contacted her to invite her to become a doctor in the town where she was born.

Gwen Katherine Louve who is the third child and the only girl in her family of Alpha descent, but she is also the only one who does not have a wolf inside her which makes her different to people.

Some consider her weak, strange and unnatural, but those who know her know that she is a special woman.

For someone who doesn't have a wolf inside you, who is always made fun of by others because of that, how do I explain that I also get rejected by my fated mate?

No one knows about the incident 5 years ago...

No one knows that I have a fated mate and he rejected me because he has someone else...

As the 3rd child of an Alpha, everyone was already confused as to how I could not have a wolf inside me, so I guess I will keep it hidden about me getting rejected.

Some say that I'm cursed because at the age of 23, I don't yet have a mate like others who have found theirs since they were 16 years old, but many say it's because I'm such a weak woman that not even one wolf wants to be a part of me. Perhaps they were right about me as a weak woman since I know my fated mate doesn't want me.

Going to university with humans is the right choice because many female werewolves don't choose to have higher education because they can't part with their life mate, but I'm different, I can be free to be and do whatever I want, because I don't have a wolf so people are convinced that I won't have a life mate, well they, again, were right about I don't have a mate because he rejected me.

I chose this path because I wanted to prove that I deserve the best things in life, that I have the ability to be anything.

I deserved to be happy...
