

The Alpha King's Fated Mate By Yui Ismutomo

Chapter 10

Chapter 10

Meanwhile in another place not far from Gwen's father's territory.

Hidden in the depths of the forest, with the help of a witch so as not to be smelled or detected by other werewolves, a group of Rouge gathered inside to discuss the Alpha king and his mate.

"They flew the moment his mate drink the poison, I think this time the story is true"

One of the spies assigned to visit Alpha Blake's territory, who is Gwen's father, informs the Rouge leader, Jack Gilderoy, who is a descendant of the Alpha king's uncle who once betrayed the king.

Jack always felt that the throne should be his, as his father was the twin of the Alpha king's father.

With the help of dark magic from a witch, who turned out to be his mate, he also has a long life like the King, but no one knows this, not even the Alpha king knows the dark secret of the Rogue leader.

"Morena..." Jack called out to his mate and looked at the woman who nodded her head.

"I'll check on that woman" said the woman named Morena before releasing a snake from her hand that disappeared with a blink of an eye.

The spy knew the Rogue king's cruelty so he just gulped in fear and hoped he wouldn't be killed.

"Do you know his name?" Jack asked the spy, Ian.

Ian nodded quickly "The daughter of Alpha Blake, Gwen Louve" he said and was happy to see Jack smiling which meant the Rogue leader was satisfied with his work and he wasn't

"Thank G*d' Ian said to himself.

Jack walked to the window and looked out, he currently had at least 80 followers, far from the royal guards, but he was sure that this time the Alpha King had a weakness so it would be easy to conquer him and take over the kingdom.

Just like when his father was almost victorious....

He will use the same method as his late father, exploiting the king's weakness, through his mate.

And this time he is sure to succeed...

Just watch, Rolf Titus, your time is coming, your victory is over because I'm going to come and sla***ter someone you love... again!

Go to the Palace.....

– Point of View of Alpha King –

"Rolf.. Help me, Rolf!!"

Startled, Rolf Titus Eberulf Osmund, known to all as the Alpha King, awoke with a start and hurriedly turned around to see his mate still sound asleep in her room.

Yes, their rooms were next to each other as kings and queens should be, but he hated that rule, wanting to break down the barrier between him and his mate.

Sleeping on the sofa with the connecting door open was one of the habits he had gotten into since his mate woke up and started recovering.

"Go to her!" The wolf inside his head shouted.

Yes, Wolf was very angry and frustrated with him, ever since he boldly rejected his mate, the normally obedient Wolf had become more wild and he needed extra strength to restrain his wolf from the anger caused by his actions.

Even though the Wolf knew the reason why he rejected his mate, he refused to accept the reason.

Wolf was confident that this time he would not lose his mate, confident that he would always protect his mate.

But, Rolf is a coward...

He was afraid to lose his mate for the second time.

He was sure that he wouldn't be able to withstand Wolf's madness if it happened, but he also couldn't help himself towards his mate.

He wanted Gwen....

After the incident 5 years ago, he immediately searched for Gwen and found out that she had gone to the human world to study medicine.

Without Gwen knowing, Rolf always follows Gwen wherever she goes in the human world, even Alexa and El have been her bodyguards since long ago so they are undeniably loyal to their queen, Rolf believes they dare to sacrifice their lives if she asks for it.

He knew how broken Gwen's heart was since he rejected her... At first he only wanted to be her protector from afar, but the desire to be with his mate made him make the claim, especially since he smelled the desire of the men, both werewolf and human, towards his woman, making him crazy to make the claim.

He knew it would take time for Gwen to accept him and he would faithfully wait until she forgave his st* pidity.

Letting out a long sigh, he slowly walked into his mate's room.

Gwen looked like an angel and he wanted to punish himself for the foolishness he had done to make her sad.

He didn't care if his woman didn't have a wolf, he didn't even care if Gwen was even human, he was sure he would always protect her.

But he neglected...

It turns out that his enemy has learned that Gwen is really his mate, and he doesn't know that his enemy's desire to destroy him almost cost him his mate, grateful that he was given the chance to be with her.

1 week he said he would pick her up?!

I must be crazy for giving her the words....

All gone... There's no way he can take his eyes off Gwen now, not to mention Wolf would go crazy if I let her out of my sight.

'Claim her... CLAIM HER!!!!!!' Wolf scream in my head and I have to push myself to not follow his word.

Lately he's so desperate to claim Gwen and show her our real feeling, but I have to calm him and myself because I know she has no wolf, so her feeling is different for us, she has different approach about this mate thing, especially after my st**id. arcade

5 years ago, I want to make sure she accept me first before claim her.

I just hope it won't take a long time.....
