

Chapter 6 - Claiming the Fated Mates - Raina Lori

Chapter 6

Savannah's POV

I look around only to see darkness. Where am I? In the middle of silence I can only hear hissing sounds. I craned my neck to see the source but the darkness consumed my sight and apart from the sound I couldn't hear anything.

"Mom....dad.....Devak...." I shouted their name but the silence was the only thing that hit me back.

Where are they? Was not I with them in the party then how come I ended up in this darkness. Where exactly am I? I forced my body to move but it seems like a barrier that is forcing me down. What kind of force is this? So strong that I never sensed before.

My mind became a mess and I felt a headache forming on my forehead. Where am I? I questioned myself. But this darkness is not letting me see anything. Even if my eyes are wide open, all I see is black. It feels like I have fallen in the hell of darkness and there's no way for me to get up. I need to find them, I need to find my family.

"Mom...." I shouted again. I never want to lose them. I have suffered almost all my grown up years but now just thinking of parting made me shivers. "Dad.....where are you? Devak, Tanea can you hear me? Where are you all? Please help me"

My voice suddenly choked as it faded through the darkness. The hissing sound increased but I don't know what it is. If I was able to find some source of light I would find a way to get out of this place. Yes, light, that's what I needed.

I need light. My head started to warm up and then the warmth spread over my whole body. What's happening? It felt like I was glowing... Then... suddenly the flap sound rings in my ear. A ray of light fell before me then it started to spread widely at lightning speed. My eyes focused on the light then my eyes roamed above. My heart stopped beating and a shiver ran down my back. Is that....

The large red orange wings spread widely in the air as it's majestic body shone with light. I really can't believe my eyes. Is it real? I was about to get up when its wings flapped and the light around its body blinded my eyes.

"Savannah"

"Savannah wake up sweetheart"

I opened my eyes and in blurry vision I saw my mother's familiar face looking at me.

"Mom" I called out anxiously.

"I am here sweetheart" she caressed my head.

"Are you fine?" I nodded my head. I can feel sweat on my forehead. So all of it was a dream? But that bird looks so real.

"Where am I?" I asked.

"In your room. We were so worried when we couldn't find you inside the party room. When we found you in the end you were sleeping outside in the garden area"

I frowned "when you are back? I mean is the party finished?"

Mom chuckled "party? Dear it already two days passed of that matter"

What? Two days passed? That means.... I looked at her with wide eyes. She chuckled again and about to say when the room door opened and Tanea's figure showed up.

"Hey, you woke up" she flashed a warming smile. She was holding a food tray and placed it on my side table "it's good that you finally decided to wake up or that overreacting brother of yours would have beat the pack doctors for sure" saying this she laughed.

I couldn't help but smile. Devak was always serious and possessive about me and Tanea. I rolled my eyes. When he is able to change his over possessive acts?

"That man!" Mom sighed "let him be. It seems he couldn't digest his meal if he don't beat anyone per day"

We all laughed again. Even in small matters Devak always caused huge fuss. No matter how we try to console he wouldn't listen until he is satisfied with his inquiry.

"Look, I brought breakfast here. Sav, you have been sleeping for two days and now that you have woken up, are you not hungry?"

I nodded. I don't even know when I ate last time. 2 days ago? I shook my head. Now that Tanea has brought up the topic of food I can't control myself as my stomach grumbled suddenly. Tanea and mom laughed while I rolled my eyes.

"Come on, I made chicken soup and mushroom pasta. And I have pancakes too. Let's enjoy this then " Tanea served the food on a plate then handed it to us before grabbing for her own. Just as I looked at the food my mouth watered and I immediately dugged in.

The soup tasted so good that I moaned delightfully. Tanea is a great cook and Devak always eats whatever she makes. He even praised her to death and I couldn't deny that. Just eating this makes me feel like heaven.

Avan's POV

"This is such an unexpected turn. Have you investigated this clearly?" Dad asked me.

"I tried but the territory of Snow Moon Pack is hard to invade. They reside in the middle of forest and the forest is also itself a maze one. Those who don't know the correct direction couldn't pass through the jungle."

Dad shook his head "this won't do. I never expected that the naive looking girl would be related to Snow Moon Pack. Have you examined her properly?"

I nodded again "I have seen her dad and she is not that naive one in the past. She has changed a lot. Her personality and even her strength. Can you believe she slapped Tina so hard that Tina's face is still swollen. The doctor said she need 2 months time to full healed"

Dad gave a serious look "the Snow Moon Pack is the second best in the whole werewolf world. Do you think it's easy to maintain such a position year after year? Besides, the members of the packs are stronger than ours. Their one member can take down our three strong people. They are blessed one as they got the legendary sign"

I frowned "legendary sign? What does that mean dad?"

"Have you not observed it? The Alpha bloods are all purple eyed?"

Then it hit me, yes. I saw the Alpha and the young alpha had dark purple eyes. Even Shyla has the same purple eyes.

I looked at dad "that means Shyla is not involved with them but she is the real daughter of Alpha?"

Dad nodded. The princess of Snow Moon Pack. She was my mate before our bond broke. I closed my eyes and shook my head. I should not have waited to give the mate position. I should not have cheated on her. If that incident never happened then Shyla would still be living here with me. A wave of regret hit my heart.

"You have been fortunate enough but now everything is lost. Even the Priest Trivan indicated to her" dad sighed.

"Dad, this won't do. Can't we just try to mend the ties?"

"What the hell are you talking about?"

"I mean Shyla is my mate. Even if the bond is broken it can't be changed that we are destined. What we need to do now is to make Shyla understand that I am her mate and she really could not break the ties with me. Once she agreed her family will gradually agree to the agreement due to their daughter's happiness"

Dad frowned "are you sure? She has already broken the bond with you two years ago. Besides even if you both get together because of the ties, there won't be much connection like before"

"It does not matter if it means she will be here with me as my Luna. Reese may be a strong female but in reality we are not bound by any ties or bond. It's just a kind of sexual attracting that attracted me to her. But Shyla is different. Besides now that she has a strong background and ability the pack members will not raise any voice about it. We have to talk to the Alpha of Snow Moon Pack. He is an Alpha himself and will surely understand this matter better" I smiled.

"What about Shyla? Do you think she will be willing to be with you after what you have done to her?" Dad asked.

I smiled at him "even if she has changed, she is still a woman who loved me dearly two years ago. Even if she is showing a strong appearance I believe that in her heart she still couldn't forget me. Once we convince the Alpha and Luna, I will woo her and will do everything she has ever dreamt. I just needed to instigate her past self a little and then she will accept me wholeheartedly. Though at present she might be angry but I can make her love me again" I assured him.

"It's hard. Though I have never interfered with your matters in the past, I wasn't blind either. But since you are so confident then fine let's try this in your way" dad replied.

I smiled at him "thanks dad. This time I won't let you down"

I never thought that after two years she would become this beautiful. Those purple eyes are so seductive that I almost become so hard down there. Just thinking about my body becomes hard, really hard. I need to release myself. I left my dad's study room and walked towards my room. Just as I was about to open the door I heard Reese's voice.

I smiled. Before she could say I grabbed her and pushed her in my room. Closing the door I kissed her hard and shredded her clothes. Then without any warning I pushed myself inside of her. I closed my eyes feeling the warmth. Fuck, Shyla's face flashed in my mind. Soon I will have you in my bed Shyla. Like now, I can't wait to feel myself inside you. Very soon.

Savannah's POV

After the good meal mom and Tanea accompanied me. Suddenly a thought crossed my mind. I looked at mom and asked her "mom why I suddenly fell unconscious? It first happened when I shifted but it happened again.

Mom smiled "have you forgot what I told you about your birthmark?"

I nodded.

"You have finally acquired your powers my love"

My eyes widened. It somehow excited me to death. I have got my birth mark? I do remember when mom told me about it. But it was too long so I almost forgot the date. But what kind of mark have I gotten?

My eyes fell on mom again " what kind of mark do I have?"

Mom smiled before she caressed my cheek "you are so blessed honey. So rare..." Her eyes are watery. Oh she is becoming emotional.

"Mom .."

"I am fine" she chuckled "I am just too happy for you sweetheart" she shook her head.

I smiled looking at her.

"You and Devak are kind of similar when it comes to birth marks. He has eagle and you my dear you got Huma"

Huma? What is that?

"Huma?" I frowned.

"Sav, you don't know about it?" Tanea looked surprised.

I shook my head. I have no idea about Huma.

"Huma is a bird similar to the Phoenix. They are like fire" Tanea explained.

"Really?" My eyes widened.

Mom patted my hand "it's said that though one has seen this kind of rare bird and is only mentioned in legend. But it also said that having this bird means fortune."

I still couldn't believe my ears. Huma really? Just hearing it made me feel so excited. Then... Something flashed in my mind. That dream... I saw a huge bird flapping its wings and shining so brightly. Is that Huma? It showed up in the dream? If it was real then I have seen it with my own eyes. That was so beautiful beyond words. Finally after waiting for so long I have finally acquired my strength and power.
